(a) Carryover requirement. (1) Section 381(c)(1) requires the acquiring corporation to succeed to, and take into account, the net operating loss carryovers of the distributor or transferor corporation. To determine the amount of these carryovers as of the close of the date of distribution or transfer, and to integrate them with any carryovers and carrybacks of the acquiring corporation for purposes of determining the taxable income of the acquiring corporation for taxable years ending after the date of distribution or transfer, it is necessary to apply the provisions of section 172 in accordance with the conditions and limitations of section 381(c)(1) and this section. See also section 382(b) and the regulations thereunder.

(2) The net operating loss carryovers and carrybacks of the acquiring corporation determined as of the close of the date of distribution or transfer shall be computed without reference to any net operating loss of a distributor or transferor corporation. The net operating loss carryovers of a distributor or transferor corporation as of the close of the date of distribution or transfer shall be determined without reference to any net operating loss of the acquiring corporation.

(b) Carryback of net operating losses. A net operating loss of the acquiring corporation for any taxable year ending after the date of distribution or transfer shall not be carried back in computing the taxable income of a distributor or transferor corporation. However, a net operating loss of the acquiring corporation for any such taxable year shall be carried back in accordance with section 172(b) in computing the taxable income of the acquiring corporation for a taxable year ending on or before the date of distribution or transfer. If a distributor or transferor corporation remains in existence after the date of distribution or transfer, a net operating loss sustained by it for any taxable year beginning after such date shall be carried back in accordance with section 172(b) in computing the taxable income of such corporation for a taxable year ending on or before that date, but may not be carried back or over in computing the taxable income of the acquiring corporation. This paragraph may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). On December 31, 1954, X Corporation merged into Y Corporation in a statutory merger to which section 361 applies, and the charter of Y Corporation continued after the merger. Y Corporation sustained a net operating loss for the calendar year 1955. Y Corporation's net operating loss for 1955 may not be carried back in computing the taxable income of X Corporation but shall be carried back in computing the taxable income of Y Corporation.

Example (2). On December 31, 1954, X Corporation and Y Corporation transferred all their assets to Z Corporation in a statutory consolidation to which section 361 applies. Z Corporation sustained a net operating loss for the calendar year 1955. Z Corporation's net operating loss for 1955 may not be carried back in computing the taxable income of X Corporation or Y Corporation.

Example (3). On December 31, 1954, X Corporation ceased all operations (other than liquidating activities) and transferred substantially all its properties to Y Corporation in a reorganization qualifying under section 368(a)(1)(C). Such properties comprised all of X Corporation's properties which were to be transferred pursuant to the reorganization. In the process of liquidating its assets and winding up its affairs, X Corporation sustained a net operating loss for its taxable year beginning on January 1, 1955. This net operating loss of X Corporation shall be carried back in computing the taxable income of that corporation but may not be carried back or over in computing the taxable income of Y Corporation.

(c) First taxable year to which carryovers apply. (1) The net operating loss carryovers available to the distributor or transferor corporation as of the close of the date of distribution or transfer shall first be carried to the first taxable year of the acquiring corporation ending after that date. This rule applies irrespective of whether the date of distribution or transfer is on the last day, or any other day, of the acquiring corporation's taxable year. Thus, such net operating loss carryovers shall first be used by the acquiring corporation with respect to the computation of its net operating loss deduction under section 172(a), and its taxable income determined under the provisions of section 172(b)(2), for such first taxable year. However, see paragraph (f) of this section.

(2) The net operating loss carryovers available to the distributor or transferor corporation as of the close of the date of distribution or transfer shall be carried to the acquiring corporation without diminution by reason of the fact that the acquiring corporation does not acquire 100 percent of the assets of the distributor or transferor corporation. Thus, if a parent corporation owning 80 percent of all classes of stock of its subsidiary corporation were to acquire its share of the assets of the subsidiary corporation upon a complete liquidation described in paragraph (b)(1)(i) of § 1.331(a)–1, then, subject to the conditions and limitations of this section, 100 percent of the net operating loss carryovers available to the subsidiary corporation as of the close of the date of distribution would be carried over to the parent corporation.

(d) Limitation on net operating loss deduction for first taxable year ending after date of distribution or transfer. (1) That part of the acquiring corporation's net operating loss deduction, determined in accordance with sections 172(a) and 381(c)(1), for its first taxable year ending after the date of distribution or transfer which is attributable to the net operating loss carryovers of the distributor or transferor corporation, is limited by section 381(c)(1)(B) and this paragraph to an amount equal to the acquiring corporation's postacquisition part year taxable income. Such postacquisition part year taxable income is the amount which bears the same ratio to the acquiring corporation's taxable income for the first taxable year ending after the date of distribution or transfer (determined under section 63 without regard to any net operating loss deduction but taking into account other items to which the acquiring corporation succeeds under section 381) as the number of days in such first taxable year which follow the date of distribution or transfer bears to the total number of days in such taxable year. Thus, if the date of distribution or transfer is the last day of the acquiring corporation's taxable year, the net operating loss carryovers of the distributor or transferor are allowed in full in computing under section 172(a) the net operating loss deduction of the acquiring corporation for its first taxable year ending after that date. In such instance, the number of days in the first taxable year which follow the date of distribution or transfer is the total number of days in such taxable year.

(2) The limitation provided by section 381(c)(1)(B) applies solely for the purpose of computing the net operating loss deduction of the acquiring corporation under section 172(a) for the acquiring corporation's first taxable year ending after the date of distribution or transfer. The limitation does not apply for purposes of determining the portion of any net operating loss (whether of the distributor, transferor, or acquiring corporation) which may be carried to any taxable year of the acquiring corporation following its first taxable year ending after the date of distribution or transfer since such determination is made pursuant to section 172(b) and section 381(c)(1)(C). See paragraphs (e) and (f) of this section.

(3) The limitation provided by section 381(c)(1)(B) shall be applied to the aggregate of the allowable net operating loss carryovers of the distributor or transferor corporation without reference to the taxable years in which the net operating losses were sustained by such corporation. If the acquiring corporation has acquired the assets of two or more distributor or transferor corporations on the same date of distribution or transfer, then the limitation provided by section 381(c)(1)(B) shall be applied to the aggregate of the net operating loss carryovers from all of such distributor or transferor corporations.

(4) If the acquiring corporation succeeds to the net operating loss carryovers of two or more distributor or transferor corporations on two or more different dates of distribution or transfer within one taxable year of the acquiring corporation, the limitation to be applied under section 381(c)(1)(B) to the aggregate of such carryovers shall be governed by the rules prescribed in paragraph (b) of § 1.381(c)(1)–2.

(5) Illustrations. The application of this paragraph may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). (i) X Corporation and Y Corporation were organized on January 1, 1956, and make their returns on the calendar year basis. On December 16, 1957, X Corporation transferred all its assets to Y Corporation in a statutory merger to which section 361 applies. The net operating losses and taxable income (computed without the net operating loss deduction) of the two corporations are as follows, the assumption being made that none of the modifications specified in section 172(b)(2)(A) apply to any taxable year:

Taxable year	X Corporation (transferor)	Y Corporation (acquirer)
1956	($35,000)	($5,000)
Ending 12-16-57	(30,000)	xxx
1957	xxx	36,500

(ii) The aggregate of the net operating loss carryovers of X Corporation carried under section 381(c)(1)(A) to Y Corporation's taxable year ending December 31, 1957, is $65,000; but pursuant to section 381(c)(1)(B), only $1,500 of such aggregate amount ($36,500 × 15/365) may be used in computing the net operating loss deduction of Y Corporation for such taxable year under section 172(a). This limitation applies even though Y Corporation's own net operating loss carryover to such year is only $5,000, with the result that Y Corporation has taxable income under section 63 of $30,000 for its taxable year ending December 31, 1957, that is, $36,500 less the sum of $5,000 and $1,500.

(iii) For rules determining the portion of any given loss of X Corporation or Y Corporation which may be carried to a taxable year of Y Corporation following its taxable year ending December 31, 1957, see sections 172(b)(2) and 381(c)(1)(C) and paragraph (f) of this section.

Example (2). (i) X Corporation was organized on January 1, 1954, and Y Corporation was organized on January 1, 1956. Each corporation makes its return on the basis of the calendar year. On December 31, 1956, X Corporation transferred all its assets to Y Corporation in a statutory merger to which section 361 applies. The net operating losses and the taxable income (computed without any net operating loss deduction) of the two corporations are as follows, the assumption being made that none of the modifications specified in section 172(b)(2)(A) apply to any taxable year:

1954	($5,000)	xxx
1955	(15,000)	xxx
1956	(10,000)	$30,000
1957	xxx	40,000

(ii) The aggregate of the net operating loss carryovers of X Corporation carried under section 381(c)(1)(A) to Y Corporation's taxable year 1957 is $30,000, and the full amount of such carryovers is allowed in such taxable year to Y Corporation as a deduction under section 172(a), since such amount does not exceed the limitation ($40,000 × 36/365) for such taxable year under section 381(c)(1)(B).

Example (3). (i) X Corporation, Y Corporation, and Z Corporation were organized on January 1, 1954, and each corporation makes its return on the basis of the calendar year. On September 30, 1956, X Corporation and Y Corporation transferred all their assets to Z Corporation in a statutory merger to which section 361 applies. The net operating losses and the taxable income (computed without any net operating loss deduction) of the three corporations are as follows, the assumption being made that none of the modifications specified in section 172(b)(2)(A) apply to any taxable year:

Taxable year	X Corporation (transferor)	Y Corporation (transferor)	Z Corporation (acquirer)
1954	($5,000)	($3,000)	($40,000)
1955	(4,000)	(2,000)	10,000
Ending 9-30-56	(1,000)	(9,000)	xxx
1956	xxx	xxx	73,200

(ii) The aggregate of the net operating loss carryovers of X Corporation and Y Corporation carried under section 381(c)(1)(A) to Z Corporation's taxable year 1956 is $24,000; but, pursuant to section 381(c)(1)(B), only $18,400 of such aggregate amount ($73,200 × 93/365) may be used in computing the net operating loss deduction of Z Corporation for such taxable year under section 172(a). For this purpose, Z Corporation may not use the total of the aggregate carryovers ($10,000) from X Corporation plus the aggregate carryovers ($14,000) from Y Corporation, even though each such aggregate of carryovers is separately less than the limitation ($18,400) applicable under section 381(c)(1)(B) and this section.

(iii) For rules determining the portion of any given loss of X Corporation, Y Corporation, or Z Corporation which may be carried to a taxable year of Z Corporation following its taxable year ending December 31, 1956, see sections 172(b)(2) and 381(c)(1)(C) and paragraph (f) of this section.

(e) Computation of carryovers and carrybacks; general rule—(1) Sequence for applying losses and computation of taxable income. The portion of any net operating loss which is carried back or carried over to any taxable year is the excess, if any, of the amount of the loss over the sum of the taxable income for each of the prior taxable years to which the loss may be carried under sections 172(b)(1) and 381. In determining the taxable income for each such prior taxable year for this purpose, the various net operating loss carryovers and carrybacks to such prior taxable year are considered to be applied in reduction of the taxable income in the order of the taxable years in which the net operating losses are sustained, beginning with the loss for the earliest taxable year. The application of this rule to the taxable income of the acquiring corporation for any taxable year ending after the date of distribution or transfer involves the use of carryovers of the distributor or transferor corporation, and of carryovers and carrybacks of the acquiring corporation. In such instance, the sequence for the use of loss years remains the same, and the requirement is to begin with the net operating loss of the earliest taxable year, whether or not it is a loss of the distributor, transferor, or acquiring corporation. The taxable income of the acquiring corporation for any taxable year ending after the date of distribution or transfer shall be determined in the manner prescribed by section 172(b)(2), except that, if the date of distribution or transfer is on a day other than the last day of a taxable year of the acquiring corporation, the taxable income of such corporation for the taxable year which includes such date shall be computed in the special manner prescribed by section 381(c)(1)(C) and paragraph (f) of this section.

(2) Loss year of transferor or distributor considered prior taxable year. Section 381(c)(1)(C) provides that, for the purpose of determining the net operating loss carryovers under section 172(b)(2), a net operating loss for a loss year of a distributor or transferor corporation which ends on or before the last day of a loss year of the acquiring corporation shall be considered to be a net operating loss for a year prior to such loss year of the acquiring corporation. In a case where the acquiring corporation has acquired the assets of two or more distributor or transferor corporations on the same date of distribution or transfer, the loss years of the distributor or transferor corporations shall be taken into account in the order in which such loss years terminate; if any one of the loss years of a distributor or transferor corporation ends on the same day as the loss year of another distributor or transferor corporation, either loss year may be taken into account before the other.

(3) Years to which losses may be carried. The taxable years to which a net operating loss shall be carried back or carried over are prescribed by section 172(b)(1). Since the taxable year of the distributor or transferor corporation ends with the close of the date of distribution or transfer, such taxable year and the first taxable year of the acquiring corporation which ends after that date shall be considered two separate taxable years to which a net operating loss of the distributor or transferor corporation for any taxable year ending before that date may be carried over. This rule applies even though the taxable year of the distributor or transferor corporation which ends on the date of distribution or transfer is a period of less than twelve months. However, for the purpose of determining under section 172(b)(1) the taxable years to which a net operating loss of the acquiring corporation is carried over or carried back, the first taxable year of the acquiring corporation which ends after the date of distribution or transfer shall be treated as only one taxable year even though such taxable year is considered under section 381(c)(1)(C) and paragraph (f)(2) of this section as two taxable years. The application of this subparagraph may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. X Corporation was organized on January 1, 1954, and thereafter it sustained net operating losses in its calendar years 1954, 1955, and 1956. On June 30, 1957, X Corporation transferred all its assets to Y Corporation, which was organized on January 1, 1955, in a statutory merger to which section 361 applies. In its taxable year ending June 30, 1957, X Corporation sustained a net operating loss. Y Corporation sustained net operating losses in its calendar years 1955, 1956, and 1958, but had taxable income for the year 1957. The years to which these losses of X Corporation and Y Corporation shall be carried, and the sequence in which carried, are as follows:

Loss year
X 1954	X 1955, X 1956, X 6/30/57, Y 1957, Y 1958.
X 1955	X 1954, X 1956, X 6/30/57, Y 1957, Y 1958, Y 1959.
Y 1955	Y 1956, Y 1957, Y 1958, Y 1959, Y 1960.
X 1956	X 1954, X 1955, X 6/30/57, Y 1957, Y 1958, Y 1959, Y 1960.
Y 1956	Y 1955, Y 1957, Y 1958, Y 1959, Y 1960, Y 1961.
X 6–30–57	X 1955, X 1956, Y 1957, Y 1958, Y 1959, Y 1960, Y 1961.
Y 1958	Y 1955, Y 1956, Y 1957, Y 1959, Y 1960, Y 1961, Y 1962, Y 1963.

(4) Computation of carryovers in a case where the date of distribution or transfer occurs on last day of acquiring corporation's taxable year. The computation of the net operating loss carryovers from the distributor or transferor corporation and from the acquiring corporation in a case where the date of distribution or transfer occurs on the last day of a taxable year of the acquiring corporation may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. X Corporation and Y Corporation were organized on January 1, 1955, and each corporation makes its return on the basis of the calendar year. On December 31, 1956, X Corporation transferred all its assets to Y Corporation in a statutory merger to which section 361 applies. The net operating losses and the taxable income (computed without any net operating loss deduction) of the two corporations are as follows, the assumption being made that none of the modifications specified in section 172(b)(2)(A) apply to any taxable year:

1955	($2,000)	($11,000)
1956	(3,000)	10,000
1957	xxx	(15,000)

The sequence in which the losses of X Corporation and Y Corporation are applied, and the computation of the carryovers to Y Corporation's calendar year 1958, may be illustrated as follows:

(i) X Corporation's 1955 loss. The carryover to 1958 is $2,000, computed as follows:

Net operating loss		$2,000
Less:
X's 1956 taxable income	$0
Carryover		2,000

(ii) Y Corporation's 1955 loss. The carryover to 1958 is $1,000, computed as follows:

Net operating loss		$11,000
Less:
Y's 1956 taxable income	$10,000
Y's 1957 taxable income	0	10,000
Carryover		1,000

(iii) X Corporation's 1956 loss. The carryover to 1958 is $3,000, computed as follows:

Net operating loss		$3,000
Less:
Carryover		3,000

(iv) Y Corporation's 1957 loss. The carryover to 1958 is $15,000, computed as follows:

Net operating loss		$15,000
Less:
Y's 1955 taxable income	$0
Y's 1956 taxable income before net operating loss deduction	$10,000
Minus Y's 1956 net operating loss deduction (i.e., Y's 1955 carryover)	11,000
Carryover		15,000

(v) Summary of carryovers to 1958. The aggregate of the net operating loss carryovers to 1958 is $21,000, computed as follows:

X's 1955 loss	$ 2,000
Y's 1955 loss	1,000
X's 1956 loss	3,000
Y's 1957 loss	15,000
Total	21,000

(f) Computation of carryovers and carrybacks when date of distribution or transfer is not on last day of acquiring corporation's taxable year—(1) General rule. Pursuant to the provisions of section 381(c)(1)(C), the taxable income of the acquiring corporation for its taxable year which is a prior taxable year for purposes of section 172(b)(2) and paragraph (e) of this section shall be determined in the manner prescribed in this paragraph, if the date of distribution or transfer occurs within, but not on the last day of, such taxable year.

(2) Taxable year considered as two taxable years. Such taxable year of the acquiring corporation shall be considered as though it were two taxable years, but only for the limited purpose of applying section 172(b)(2). The first of such two taxable years shall be referred to in this section as the preacquisition part year; the second, as the postacquisition part year. For purposes of section 172(b)(2), a net operating loss of the acquiring corporation shall be carried to the preacquisition part year and then to the postacquisition part year, whereas a net operating loss of a distributor or transferor corporation shall be carried to the postacquisition part year and then to the acquiring corporation's subsequent taxable years. In determining under section 172(b)(2) and this paragraph the portion of any net operating loss of a distributor or transferor corporation which is carried to any taxable year of the acquiring corporation ending after the postacquisition part year, the taxable income (as determined under this paragraph) of the postacquisition part year shall be taken into account but the taxable income of the preacquisition part year (as so determined) shall not be taken into account. Though considered as two separate taxable years for purposes of section 172(b)(2), the preacquisition part year and the postacquisition part year are treated as one taxable year in determining the years to which a net operating loss is carried under section 172(b)(1). See paragraph (e)(3) of this section.

(3) Preacquisition part year. The preacquisition part year shall begin with the beginning of such taxable year of the acquiring corporation and shall end with the close of the date of distribution or transfer.

(4) Postacquisition part year. The postacquisition part year shall begin with the day following the date of distribution or transfer and shall end with the close of such taxable year of the acquiring corporation.

(5) Division of taxable income. The taxable income for such taxable year (computed with the modifications specified in section 172(b)(2)(A) but without any net operating loss deduction) of the acquiring corporation shall be divided between the preacquisition part year and the postacquisition part year in proportion to the number of days in each. Thus, if in a statutory merger to which section 381 applies Y Corporation acquires the assets of X Corporation on June 30, 1960, and Y Corporation has taxable income (computed in the manner so prescribed) of $36,600 for its calendar year 1960, then the preacquisition part year taxable income would be $18,200 ($36,600×$\frac{182}{366}$) and the postacquisition part year taxable income would be $18,400 ($36,600×$\frac{184}{366}$).

(6) Net operating loss deduction. After obtaining the taxable income of the preacquisition part year and of the postacquisition part year in the manner described in subparagraph (5) of this paragraph, it is necessary to compute the net operating loss deduction for each such part year. This deduction shall be determined in the manner prescribed by section 172(b)(2)(B) but subject to the provisions of this subparagraph. The net operating loss deduction for the preacquisition part year shall, for purposes of section 172(b)(2) only, be determined in the same manner as that prescribed by section 172(b)(2)(B) but shall be computed without taking into account any net operating loss of the distributor or transferor corporation. Therefore, only net operating loss carryovers and carrybacks of the acquiring corporation to the preacquisition part year shall be taken into account in computing the net operating loss deduction for such part year. The net operating loss deduction for the postacquisition part year shall, for purposes of section 172(b)(2) only, be determined in the same manner as that prescribed by section 172(b)(2)(B) and shall be computed by taking into account all the net operating loss carryovers available to the distributor or transferor corporation as of the close of the date of distribution or transfer, as well as the net operating loss carryovers and carrybacks of the acquiring corporation to the postacquisition part year. The sequence in which the net operating losses of the two corporations shall be applied for purposes of this subparagraph shall be determined in the manner prescribed in paragraph (e) of this section.

(7) Limitation on taxable income. In no case shall the taxable income of the preacquisition part year or the postacquisition part year, as computed under this paragraph, be considered to be less than zero.

(8) Cross reference. If the acquiring corporation succeeds to the net operating loss carryovers of two or more distributor or transferor corporations on two or more dates of distribution or transfer during the same taxable year of the acquiring corporation, the determination of the taxable income of the acquiring corporation for such year pursuant to section 381(c)(1)(C) shall be governed by the rules prescribed in paragraph (c) of § 1.381(c)(1)–2.

(9) Illustration. The application of this paragraph may be illustrated by the following example:

Example—(i) Facts. X Corporation was organized on January 1, 1955, and Y Corporation was organized on January 1, 1954. Each corporation makes its return on the basis of the calendar year. On June 30, 1960, X Corporation transferred all its assets to Y Corporation in a statutory merger to which section 361 applies. The net operating losses and the taxable income (computed without any net operating loss deduction) of the two corporations are as follows, the assumption being made that none of the modifications specified in section 172(b)(2)(A) apply to any taxable year:

1954	xxx	($5,000)
1955	($65,000)	(20,000)
Ending 6-30-56	1,000	xxx
1956	xxx	36,600

(ii) Y Corporation's 1954 loss. The carryover to 1957 is $0, computed as follows:

Net operating loss		$5,000
Less:
Y's 1955 taxable income		0
Carryover to Y's preacquisition part year		5,000
Less:
Y's preacquisition part year taxable income computed under subparagraph (5) of this paragraph ($36,600×$\frac{182}{366}$)	$18,200
Minus Y's net operating loss deduction for preacquisition part year	xxx
		18,200
Carryover to Y's postacquisition part year and also to Y 1957		0

(iii) X Corporation's 1955 loss. The carryover to 1957 is $45,600, computed as follows:

Net operating loss		$65,000
Less:
X's 6/30/56 year taxable income		1,000
Carryover to Y's postacquisition part year		64,000
Less:
Y's postacquisition part year taxable income computed under subparagraph (5) of this paragraph ($36,600×$\frac{184}{366}$)	$18,400
Minus Y's net operating loss deduction for postacquisition part year (i.e., Y's 1954 carryover of $0 to such part year)	0
		18,400
Carryover to Y 1957		45,600

(iv) Y Corporation's 1955 loss. The carryover to 1957 is $6,800, computed as follows:

Net operating loss		$20,000
Less:
Y's 1954 taxable income		0
Carryover to Y's preacquisition part year		20,000
Less:
Y's preacquisition part year taxable income computed under subparagraph (5) of this paragraph	$18,200
Minus Y's net operating loss deduction for preacquisition part year (i.e., Y's 1954 carryover to such part year)	5,000
		13,200
Carryover to Y's postacquisition part year		6,800

Less:

Y's postacquisition part year taxable income computed under subparagraph (5) of this paragraph	$18,400
Minus Y's net operating loss deduction for postacquisition part year (i.e., Y's 1954 carryover of $0, and X's 1955 carryover of $64,000, to such part year)	64,000
Carryover to Y 1957		6,800

(v) Summary of carryovers to 1957. The aggregate of the net operating loss carryovers to 1957 is $52,400, determined as follows:

Y's 1954 loss	$0
X's 1955 loss	45,600
Y's 1955 loss	6,800
Total	52,400

(g) Successive acquiring corporations. An acquiring corporation which, in a distribution or transfer to which section 381(a) applies, acquires the assets of a distributor or transferor corporation which previously acquired the assets of another corporation in a transaction to which section 381(a) applies, shall succeed to and take into account, subject to the conditions and limitations of sections 172 and 381, the net operating loss carryovers available to the first acquiring corporation under sections 172 and 381.

(h) Illustration. The application of this section may be further illustrated by the following example:

Example—(1) Facts. X Corporation was organized on January 1, 1954, and Y Corporation was organized on January 1, 1955. Each corporation makes its return on the basis of the calendar year. On August 31, 1957, X Corporation transferred all its assets to Y Corporation in a statutory merger to which section 361 applies. The net operating losses and the taxable income of the two corporations for the taxable years involved are set forth in the tabulation below. The taxable income so shown is computed without the modifications required by section 172(b)(2)(A) and without the benefit of any net operating loss deduction. In its calendar year 1957, Y Corporation had a deduction of $365 which is disallowed by section 172(b)(2)(A).

1954	($7,000)	xxx
1955	(10,000)	($10,000)
1956	(25,000)	(15,000)
Ending 8-31-57	1,000	xxx
1957	xxx	54,750
1958	xxx	(5,000)
1959	xxx	50,000

(2) Computation of carryovers and carrybacks. The sequence in which the losses of X Corporation and Y Corporation are applied and the computation of the carryovers to Y Corporation's calendar year 1959 may be illustrated as follows:

(i) X Corporation's 1954 loss. The carryover to 1958, which is the last year to which this loss may be carried, is $0, computed as follows:

Net operating loss		$7,000
Less:
X's 1955 taxable income	$0
Carryover to X's 8/31/57-year		7,000

Less:
X's 8/31/57-year taxable income	$1,000
Carryover to Y's postacquisition part year		6,000
Less:
Y's postacquisition part year taxable income computed under paragraph (f)(5) of this section ((($54,750+$365)×$\frac{122}{365}$)	$18,422
Minus Y's net operating loss deduction for postacquisition part year	xxx

(ii) X Corporation's 1955 loss. The carryover to 1959 is $0, computed as follows:

Net operating loss		$10,000
Less:
X's 1954 taxable income	$0
Carryover to X's 8/31/57-year		10,000
Less:
X's 8/31/57-year taxable income before net operating loss deduction	$1,000
Minus X's net operating loss deduction for 8/31/57-year (i.e., X's 1954 carryover)	7,000
Carryover to Y's postacquisition part year		10,000
Less:
Y's postacquisition part year taxable income computed under paragraph (f)(5) of this section	$18,422
Minus Y's net operating loss deduction for postacquisition part year (i.e., X's 1954 carryover to such part year)	6,000
		12,422
Carryover to Y 1958 and Y 1959		0

(iii) Y Corporation's 1955 loss. The carryover to 1959 is $0, computed as follows:

Net operating loss		$10,000
Less:
Y's 1956 taxable income		0
Carryover to Y's preacquisition part year		10,000
Less:
Y's preacquisition part year taxable income computed under paragraph (f)(5) of this section ((($54,750+$365)×$\frac{244}{365}$)	$36,693
Minus Y's net operating loss deduction for preacquisition part year	xxx
		36,693
Carryover to Y's postacquisition part year, to Y 1958, and to Y 1959		0

(iv) X Corporation's 1956 loss. The carryover to 1959 is $22,578, computed as follows:

Net operating loss		$25,000
Less:
X's 1954 taxable income	$0
X's 1955 taxable income	0
X's 8/31/57-year taxable income before net operating loss deduction	$1,000
Minus X's net operating loss deduction for 8/31/57-year (i.e., X's 1954 carryover of $7,000 and X's 1955 carryover of $10,000)	$17,000
Carryover to Y's postacquisition part year		25,000
Less:
Y's postacquisition part year taxable income computed under paragraph (f)(5) of this section	$18,422
Minus Y's net operating loss deduction for postacquisition part year (i.e., X's 1954 carryover of $6,000, X's 1955 carryover of $10,000 and Y's 1955 carryover of $0, to such part year)	16,000
Carryover to Y 1958		22,578
Less:
Y's 1958 taxable income		0
Carryover to Y 1959		22,578

(v) Y Corporation's 1956 loss. The carryover to 1959 is $0, computed as follows:

Net operating loss		$15,000
Less:
Y's 1955 taxable income		0
Carryover to Y's preacquisition part year		15,000
Less:
Y's preacquisition part year taxable income computed under paragraph (f)(5) of this section	$36,693
Minus Y's net operating loss deduction for preacquisition part year (i.e., Y's 1955 carryover to such part year)	10,000
		26,693
Carryover to Y's postacquisition part year, to Y 1958, and to Y 1959		0

(vi) Y Corporation's 1958 loss. The carryover to 1959 is $0, computed as follows:

Net operating loss		$5,000
Less:
Y's 1955 taxable income[1]	$0
Carryback to Y's preacquisition part year		5,000
Less:
Y's preacquisition part year taxable income computed under paragraph (f)(5) of this section	$36,693
Minus Y's net operating loss deduction for preacquisition part year (i.e., Y's 1955 carryover of $10,000, and Y's 1956 carryover of $15,000, to such part year)	26,000
Carryback to Y's postacquisition part year and carryover to Y 1959		0

[1] Three-year carryback in case of loss years ending after December 31, 1957.

(vii) Summary of carryovers to 1959. The aggregate of the net operating loss carryovers to 1959 is $22,578, computed as follows:

X's 1955 loss	$0
Y's 1955 loss	0
X's 1956 loss	22,578
Y's 1956 loss	0
Y's 1958 loss	0
Total	22,578

(3) Net operating loss deduction for 1957. (i) The net operating loss deduction available to Y Corporation under section 172(a) for the calendar year 1957, determined in accordance with paragraph (d) of this section, is $48,300, computed as follows:

Aggregate of the net operating loss carryovers available to the transferor corporation as of the close of August 31, 1957, but limited by paragraph (d) of this section to $18,300 (Y's 1957 taxable income of $54,750, computed without any net operating loss deduction, multiplied by 12/36ths)
Carryover of X's 1954 loss	$6,000
Carryover of X's 1955 loss	10,000
Carryover of X's 1956 loss	25,000
	41,000
Aggregate of carryovers, limited as above	$18,300
Carryover of Y's 1955 loss	10,000
Carryover of Y's 1956 loss	15,000
Carryback of Y's 1958 loss	5,000
Net operating loss deduction	48,300

(ii) The taxable income under section 63 for 1957 is $6,450, computed as follows:

Taxable income determined without any net operating loss deduction	$54,750
Less:
Net operating loss deduction for 1957, as determined under subdivision (i) of this subparagraph	48,300
Taxable income under section 63	6,450

(4) Net operating loss deduction for 1959. The taxable income under section 63 for 1959 is $27,422, computed as follows:

Taxable income determined without any net operating loss deduction	$50,000
Less:
Net operating loss deduction for 1959 (i.e., the aggregate carryovers determined under subparagraph (2)(vii) of this paragraph)	22,578
Taxable income under section 63	27,422

(5) Years to which losses may be carried. The taxable years to which the losses of X Corporation and Y Corporation may be carried, and the sequence in which carried, are as follows:

Loss year	Carried to
X 1954	X 1955, X 1956, X 8/31/57, Y 1957, Y 1958.
X 1955	X 1954, X 1956, X 8/31/57, Y 1957, Y 1958, Y 1959.
Y 1955	Y 1956, Y 1957, Y 1958, Y 1959, Y 1960.
X 1956	X 1954, X 1955, X 8/31/57, Y 1957, Y 1958, Y 1959, Y 1960.
Y 1956	Y 1955, Y 1957, Y 1958, Y 1959, Y 1960, Y 1961.
Y 1958	Y 1955, Y 1956, Y 1957, Y 1959, Y 1960, Y 1961, Y 1962, Y 1963.

§ 1.381(c)(1)–2 Net operating loss carryovers; two or more dates of distribution or transfer in the taxable year.

(a) In general. If the acquiring corporation succeeds to the net operating loss carryovers of two or more distributor or transferor corporations on two or more dates of distribution or transfer within one taxable year of the acquiring corporation, the limitation to be applied under section 381(c)(1)(B) to the aggregate of the net operating loss carryovers to that taxable year from all of the distributor or transferor corporations shall be determined by applying the rules prescribed in paragraph (b) of this section, and the taxable income of the acquiring corporation for that taxable year under sections 381(c)(1)(C) and 172(b)(2) shall be determined by applying the rules prescribed in paragraph (c) of this section. For purposes of this section, the term "postacquisition income" means postacquisition part year taxable income determined under paragraph (d)(1) of § 1.381(c)(1)–1 by treating the first date of distribution or transfer as though it were the only date of distribution or transfer during the taxable year of the acquiring corporation.

(b) Determination of limitation under section 381(c)(1)(B).—(1) In general. If the acquiring corporation succeeds to the net operating loss carryovers of two or more distributor or transferor corporations on two or more dates of distribution or transfer during the same taxable year of the acquiring corporation, and if the amount of the net operating loss carryovers acquired on the first date of distribution or transfer equals or exceeds the postacquisition income, then the limitation under section 381(c)(1)(B) shall be an amount equal to such postacquisition income. If the amount of the net operating loss carryovers acquired on the first date of distribution or transfer is less than such postacquisition income, then the limitation under section 381(c)(1)(B) shall be determined as provided in subparagraphs (2) through (5) of this paragraph.

(2) Allocation of postacquisition income among partial postacquisition years. That part of the taxable year of the acquiring corporation beginning on the day following the first date of distribution or transfer and ending with the close of the taxable year of the acquiring corporation shall be divided into the same number of partial postacquisition years as the number of dates of distribution or transfer on which the acquiring corporation succeeds to net operating loss carryovers during its taxable year. The first partial postacquisition year shall begin with the day following the first date of distribution or transfer and shall end with the close of the second date of distribution or transfer. The second and succeeding partial postacquisition years shall begin with the day following the close of the preceding such partial year and shall end with the close of the succeeding date of distribution or transfer, or, if there is no such succeeding date, then with the close of the taxable year of the acquiring corporation. The postacquisition income of the acquiring corporation shall be allocated among the partial postacquisition years in proportion to the number of days in each such partial year.

(3) Two dates of distribution or transfer. If the acquiring corporation succeeds to the net operating loss carryovers of two distributor or transferor corporations on two dates of distribution or transfer during the same taxable year of the acquiring corporation, and if the amount of the net operating loss carryovers acquired on the first date equals or exceeds the income for the first partial postacquisition year, the limitation provided by section 381(c)(1)(B) shall be the amount of the postacquisition income. If the income for the first partial postacquisition year exceeds the net operating loss carryovers acquired on the first date of distribution or transfer, the limitation provided by section 381(c)(1)(B) shall be the amount of the postacquisition income reduced by the amount of such excess. The application of this subparagraph may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. (i) X Corporation has taxable income (computed without any net operating loss deduction) of $36,500 for its calendar year 1955. During 1955, X Corporation acquires the assets of Y and Z Corporations in statutory mergers to each of which section 361 applies, the dates of transfer being January 1 and December 1, respectively. The net operating loss carryovers of each transferor corporation and the income for each partial postacquisition year are:

Corporation	Carryovers	Income for partial years	Reduction
Y	$1,000	$33,400 ($36,500 × 334/365)	$32,400
Z	50,000	3,000 ($36,500 × 30/365)	0

(ii) The limitation provided by section 381(c)(1)(B) equals the postacquisition income of $36,400 reduced by $32,400, the excess of the income for the first partial year ($33,400) over the net operating loss carryovers acquired on the first date of transfer ($1,000). Accordingly, the limitation is $4,000 ($36,400 minus $32,400). Therefore, although X Corporation acquired carryovers aggregating $51,000 during 1955, it can utilize only $4,000 of such carryovers in computing its net operating loss deduction for 1955.

(4) Three dates of distribution or transfer. If the acquiring corporation succeeds to the net operating loss carryovers of three distributor or transferor corporations on three dates of distribution or transfer during the same taxable year of the acquiring corporation, and if the amount of the net operating loss carryovers acquired on the first date equals or exceeds the income for the first and second partial postacquisition years, the limitation provided by section 381(c)(1)(B) shall be the amount of the postacquisition income. If the amount of the carryovers acquired on the first date equals or exceeds the income for the first partial postacquisition year but does not equal or exceed the income for the first and second partial postacquisition years, the limitation shall be the amount of the postacquisition income reduced by the excess of the income for the first and second partial postacquisition years over the amount of carryovers acquired on the first and second dates of distribution or transfer. If the income for the first partial postacquisition year exceeds the carryovers acquired on the first date, the limitation shall be the postacquisition income reduced by the sum of the amount of such excess plus the amount, if any, by which the income for the second partial postacquisition year exceeds the carryovers acquired on the second date. This subparagraph may be illustrated by the following examples:

Example (1). (i) X Corporation has taxable income (computed without any net operating loss deduction) of $36,500 for its calendar year 1955. During 1955, X Corporation acquires the assets of M, N, and Z Corporations in statutory mergers to each of which section 361 applies, the dates of transfer being January 1, January 31, and December 1, respectively. The net operating loss carryovers of each transferor corporation and the income for each partial postacquisition year are:

Corporation	Carryovers	Income for partial years	Reduction
M	$4,000	$3,000 ($36,500 × 30/365)	$23,400
N	6,000	30,400 ($36,500×304/365)	0
Z	50,000	3,000 ($36,500× 30/365)	23,400
	60,000	36,400

(ii) Since the carryovers of $4,000 acquired on the first date of transfer exceed the income for the first partial year ($3,000), the limitation provided by section 381(c)(1)(B) is the amount of the postacquisition income ($36,400) reduced by the excess of the income for the first and second partial years ($33,400) over the carryovers acquired on the first and second dates of transfer ($10,000). Therefore, the limitation is $13,000 ($36,400 less $23,400).

Example (2). (i) Assume the same facts as in example (1) except that the amount of the net operating loss carryovers acquired from M Corporation is $1,000. The net operating loss carryovers of each transferor corporation and the income for each partial postacquisition year are:

Corporation	Carryovers	Income for partial years	Reduction
M	$1,000	$3,000 ($36,500×30/365)	$2,000
N	6,000	30,400 ($36,500×304/365)	24,400
Z	50,000	3,000 ($36,500×30/365)	0
	57,000	36,400	26,400

(ii) Since the income for the first partial year ($3,000) exceeds the $1,000 of carryovers acquired on the first date by $2,000, the limitation provided by section 381(c)(1)(B) is the postacquisition income of $36,400 reduced by such excess and also reduced by the excess of the income for the second partial year ($30,400) over the carryovers acquired on the second date of transfer ($6,000). Therefore, the limitation is $10,000 ($36,400 less the sum of $2,000 and $24,400).

Example (3). (i) Assume the same facts as in example (2) except that the carryovers acquired from N Corporation are $75,000. The net operating loss carryovers of each transferor corporation and the income for each partial postacquisition year are:

Corporation	Carryovers	Income for partial years	Reduction
M	$1,000	$3,000 ($36,500× 30/365)	$2,000
N	75,000	30,400 ($36,500×304/365)	0
Z	50,000	3,000 ($36,500× 30/365)	0

(ii) Since the income for the first partial year ($3,000) exceeds the $1,000 of carryovers acquired on the first date by $2,000, the limitation provided by section 381(c)(1)(B) is the postacquisition income of $36,400 reduced by $2,000, or $34,400. No further reduction is made since the income for the second partial year ($30,400) does not exceed the carryovers of $75,000 acquired on the second date of transfer.

(5) Four or more dates of distribution or transfer. If the acquiring corporation succeeds to the net operating loss carryovers of four or more distributor or transferor corporations on four or more dates of distribution or transfer during the same taxable year of the acquiring corporation, the limitation provided by section 381(c)(1)(B) shall be determined consistently with the methods prescribed in subparagraphs (3) and (4) of this paragraph. The application of this subparagraph may be illustrated by the following example:

Example. (i) X Corporation has taxable income (computed without any net operating loss deduction) of $36,500 for its calendar year 1955. During 1955, X Corporation acquired the assets of M, N, O, Y, and Z Corporations in statutory mergers to each of which section 361 applied, the dates of transfer being, respectively, January 1, January 31, March 3, April 2, and December 1. The net operating loss carryovers of each transferor corporation and the income for each partial postacquisition year are:

Corporation	Carryovers	Income for partial years	Reduction
M	$1,000	$3,000 ($36,500× 30/365)	$2,000
N	4,000	3,100 ($36,500× 31/365)	1,100
O	1,000	3,000 ($36,500× 30/365)	14,300
Y	10,000	24,300 ($36,500×243/365)	0

(ii) The limitation provided by section 381(c)(1)(B) equals the postacquisition income of $36,400 reduced by the sum of (a) the $2,000 excess of the income for the first partial year ($3,000) over the carryovers acquired from M Corporation ($1,000), (b) the $1,100 excess of the income for the second and third partial years ($6,100) over the carryovers acquired from N and O Corporations ($5,000), and (c) the $14,300 excess of the income for the fourth partial year ($24,300) over the carryovers acquired from Y Corporation ($10,000). Accordingly, the limitation is $19,000 ($36,400 minus $17,400). Therefore, although X Corporation acquired carryovers aggregating $36,000 during 1955, it can utilize only $19,000 of such carryovers in computing its net operating loss deduction for 1955.

(c) Determination of taxable income of acquiring corporation under section 381(c)(1)(C).—(1) In general. If the acquiring corporation succeeds to the net operating loss carryovers of two or more distributor or transferor corporations on two or more dates of distribution or transfer within one taxable year of the acquiring corporation, then pursuant to section 381(c)(1)(C) the taxable income of the acquiring corporation for its taxable year which is a prior taxable year for purposes of section 172(b)(2) and paragraph (e) of § 1.381(c)(1)–1 shall be determined as provided in this paragraph.

(2) Division of taxable income. The taxable income of the acquiring corporation (computed with the modifications specified in section 172(b)(2)(A) but without any net operating loss deduction) shall be allocated proportionately on a daily basis among a preacquisition part year (determined under paragraph (f)(3) of § 1.381(c)(1)–1 by treating the first date of distribution or transfer as though it were the only date of distribution or transfer during the taxable year of the acquiring corporation) and two or more partial postacquisition years (determined as provided in paragraph (b)(2) of this section). The preacquisition part year and each partial postacquisition year shall be considered a separate taxable year, but only for the limited purpose of applying sections 172(b)(2) and 381(c)(1)(C).

(3) Net operating loss deduction. The net operating loss deduction of the preacquisition part year and the partial postacquisition years shall be determined consistently with the manner described in paragraph (f)(6) of § 1.381(c)(1)–1 but by taking into account, in the case of any partial postacquisition year, only the net operating loss carryovers and carrybacks of the acquiring corporation and those net operating loss carryovers from a distributor or transferor corporation which become available to the acquiring corporation as of the close of those dates of distribution or transfer which occur before the beginning of that specific partial postacquisition year. The sequence in which the net operating losses of the distributor or transferor and acquiring corporations shall be applied for this purpose shall be determined in the manner described in paragraph (e) of § 1.381(c)(1)–1. Subject to the preceding sentence, the net operating loss carryovers to any specific partial postacquisition year, whether from a distributor, transferor, or acquiring corporation, shall be taken into account in the order of the taxable years in which the net operating losses arose, beginning with the loss for the earliest taxable year.

(4) Illustration. The application of this paragraph may be illustrated by the following example:

Example—(i) Facts. X Corporation, which was organized on January 1, 1957, sustained a net operating loss of $20,000 for its calendar year 1957 and had taxable income (computed without any net operating loss deduction) of $36,500 for its calendar year 1958. During 1958, X Corporation acquired the assets of Y and Z Corporations in statutory mergers to each of which section 361 applied, the dates of transfer being June 30 and September 30, respectively. None of the modifications specified in section 172(b)(2)(A) apply to any of the corporations for any taxable year. The taxable income (computed without any net operating loss deduction) and net operating losses of Y and Z Corporations (which were organized on January 1, 1957, and January 1, 1964, respectively) are set forth below:

Taxable year	Acquiring corporation X	Transferor corporation Y	Transferor corporation Z
1954	XXX	XXX	($30,000)
1955	XXX	XXX	1,000
1956	XXX	XXX	1,000
1957	($30,000)	($35,000)	1,000
Ending 9-30-58	XXX	1,000	XXX
Ending 9-30-59	XXX	XXX	1,000
1960	36,500	XXX	XXX

The sequence in which the losses of the acquiring corporation and the transferor corporations are applied and the computation of the carryovers to X Corporation's calendar year 1959 are illustrated in the following subdivisions of this example.

(ii) Computation of taxable income. X Corporation's taxable income, determined in the manner described in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, for the preacquisition part year and for the partial postacquisition years is as follows:

Year	Taxable income	Computation
Preacquisition part year	$33,100	$36,500×181/365
Partial No. 1	9,200	36,500× 92/365
Partial No. 2	9,200	36,500× 92/365

(iii) X Corporation's 1954 loss. The carryover to 1959 is $0, computed as follows:

Net operating loss	$30,000
Less:
Z's 1956, 1956, 1957, and 9/30/58-year income	4,000
Net operating loss carryover to Partial No. 2 year	26,000
Less:
Partial No. 2 year taxable income	9,200
	16,800

The balance of $16,800 is not carried over to 1959 since X Corporation's taxable year 1958 is the last of the five years to which Z's 1954 loss may be carried under section 172(b)(1).

(iv) Y Corporation's 1957 loss. The carryover to 1959 is $14,800, computed as follows:

Net operating loss	$25,000
Less:
Y's 6/30/58-year income	1,000
Net operating loss carryover to Partial No. 1 year	24,000
Less:
Partial No. 1 year taxable income	9,200

Title 32—NATIONAL DEFENSE

Chapter I—Office of the Secretary of Defense

SUBCHAPTER N—TRANSPORTATION

PART 208—TRANSPORTATION OF HOUSEHOLD GOODS OF MILITARY AND CIVILIAN PERSONNEL

The Secretary of Defense issued the following on July 1, 1960. This Part 208 supersedes and cancels 32 CFR 1960 Cum. Supp., Parts 206 and 208; Part 208 (25 F.R. 211) and Notice of Suspension of Part 208 (25 F.R. 680) of Title 32.

Sec.
208.1 Purpose, applicability and objective.
208.2 Definitions.
208.3 Policies.
208.4 Implementation.
208.5 Required action.

AUTHORITY: §§ 208.1 to 208.5 issued under sec. 202, 61 Stat. 500; 5 U.S.C. 171a.

§ 208.1 Purpose, applicability and objective.

(a) This part assigns authority and responsibilities and establishes policies relative to the transportation of household goods of military and civilian personnel of the Department of Defense (1) between points within the United States and other areas in through bill of lading service when the transportation is procured and arranged by an agency of the Department of Defense.

(b) The objective of this part is to assure high quality service to military and civilian personnel of the Department of Defense in the transportation of their household goods at the lowest overall cost to the Government.

§ 208.2 Definitions.

As used herein:

(a) "Lowest over-all cost" means the aggregate of all costs which are known or can reasonably be estimated in connection with a shipment (including accessorial charges and amounts paid by the Government for loss and damage).

(b) "United States" means the forty-eight contiguous states and the District of Columbia.

§ 208.3 Policies.

(a) Comparative costs among modes of transportation. Section 303(c) of the Career Compensation Act of 1949, as amended (63 Stat. 802), provides in part that "• • • members of the uniformed services • • • in connection with a change of station (whether temporary or permanent) [shall be entitled] to transportation (including packing, crating, drayage, temporary storage and unpacking) of baggage and household effects, or reimbursement therefor • • • without regard to the comparative costs of the various modes of transportation." However, comparative costs of the various modes of transportation may be disregarded only when all carriers within the mode(s) which would produce the lowest over-all cost to the Government cannot provide the required services satisfactorily. In such instances the next lowest cost mode in which carriers can provide satisfactory service shall be used. The same principle shall apply in shipping household goods of civilian personnel when the transportation is procured and arranged by an agency of the Department of Defense.

(b) Quality of service. The quality of service provided by carriers shall be evaluated, in comparison with uniform standards prescribed by the Single Manager for Traffic Management, on the basis of all available information, including, but not limited to, the following:

(1) Reports of inspections of carrier facilities, transportation equipment, and service practices.

(2) Carrier performance reports by military and civilian personnel in connection with the transportation of their household goods.

(3) Official reports and actions by regulatory bodies which serve as factual indicators of carrier performance.

(4) Claims for loss and damage filed against carriers and the Government, and settlements thereof.

(c) Qualified carriers. Only those carriers shall be qualified which:

(1) Are authorized according to law to provide the required services;

(2) Provide adequate evidence of satisfactory transportation equipment and financial responsibility and reliability;

(3) Have made specific arrangements for the use of a satisfactory terminal facility consisting of a warehouse, loading and unloading area, and office sufficiently near the shipping activity or point of origin of the shipment to assure satisfactory service and permit ready inspection of the facility and the household goods stored or serviced therein;

(4) When required, have executed and filed with the appropriate office a household goods service tender or other document authorized in lieu thereof;

(5) Assume full responsibility for arranging for placing in a satisfactory terminal facility those shipments which require storage in transit at destination; and

(6) Provide high quality service.

(d) Selection of carrier and distribution of traffic. (1) Only those carriers shall be used which satisfy the requirements of paragraph (c) of this section at the lowest over-all cost to the Government. Connecting carriers on a joint carriage arrangement must meet all of the requirements for a qualified carrier except paragraph (c) (3) and (5) of this section when they are not terminating carriers.

(2) To the extent practicable, traffic shall be distributed by destination state or other area outside the United States among these carriers in equitable proportions, subject to the following:

(i) Carrier's ability to respond to requirements of the traffic offered for movement. When a carrier is offered a shipment and cannot perform, the carrier shall be charged with the offer in the same manner as if it had performed.

(ii) At each shipping activity, additional shipments shall be offered to a carrier or carriers when it has been determined that it or they provide an exceptionally high quality of service as compared with other carriers serving the activity. Such shipments shall not be charged to normal distribution.

(3) For traffic distribution purposes, carriers under effective common financial or administrative control shall be treated as a single carrier. The service tender, or document in lieu thereof, filed by each carrier shall include: (i) Name(s) of any other carrier(s) serving the same shipping activity which are under effective common financial or administrative control with the filing carrier, or (ii) a statement that the filing carrier is independent in finance and administration from all other carriers serving the same shipping activity.

(4) When consistent with other provisions of this paragraph (d):

(i) A request by the property owner for non-use of a carrier because of specific prior unsatisfactory service shall be honored if another carrier is available to move the shipment at the same over-all cost to the Government.

(ii) A preference for a carrier expressed by the property owner shall be honored.

(5) Traffic shall be distributed according to the originating carrier rather than according to agent. When a joint carriage arrangement is utilized, shipments transported thereunder shall be considered as having been received by each participating carrier qualified to serve the origin point.

(6) Records of traffic distribution shall be maintained by destination state or other area outside the United States.

(e) None-use of carriers. (1) Carriers which have indicated in writing a desire to participate in Department of Defense traffic and are not considered to be qualified shall be notified in writing of their deficiencies. Such carriers shall be provided an opportunity to (i) appeal the decision, or to (ii) receive further consideration after correcting the deficiencies causing the refusal.

(2) Carriers which have been qualified, but which subsequently fail to provide high quality service, fail to meet the other requirements of paragraph (c) of this section, or commit unethical acts, shall be suspended in accordance with criteria and procedures established by the Single Manager for Traffic Management. Such carriers shall be provided an opportunity to (i) appeal the decision, or (ii) request requalification after correcting the deficiencies causing the suspension.

(f) Use of storage in transit. When commercial temporary storage is required in connection with transportation, storage-in-transit, as defined in carriers' tariffs, shall be used except when it is clearly evident, after considering such factors as over-all cost, and liability of the carrier versus that of the warehouseman, that the best interests of the Government and the property owner can be served only by the use of contract storage.

(g) Use of United States carriers. (1) The contracting carrier shall be a United States organization owned and controlled by citizens of the United States except when the Single Manager for Traffic Management has determined that a United States carrier cannot provide timely movement.

(2) When commercial ocean or air carriers or operators are to be used as a part of through bill of lading service between the United States and other areas, only ships of United States registry engaged in regular berth service or United States flag aircraft shall be used except when the Single Manager for Ocean Transportation or the Single Manager for Airlift Service, respectively, has determined they are not available for timely movement.

§ 208.4 Implementation.

(a) The Single Manager for Traffic Management is assigned authority and responsibility for:

(1) Implementing this part by prescribing, in agreement with the heads of the other military services, uniform joint regulations which will include but not be limited to: (i) Service tenders or other documents authorized in lieu thereof; (ii) standards for quality of service; (iii) procedures for measuring and comparing the quality of service provided by carriers; (iv) criteria and procedures for offering additional shipments and for qualifying, selecting, and suspending carriers; and (v) standards, formulae, and procedures for determining the lowest over-all cost.

(2) Assuring compliance with the above-mentioned regulations. Compliance will be accomplished through command channels of the military services, by appropriate means, including action based on recommendations by representatives of the Military Traffic Management Agency resulting from staff visits to all activities of the military services within the United States which ship household goods.

(3) Negotiating with commercial carriers and operators on all matters incident to the transportation of household goods within the United States and between the United States and other areas in through bill of lading service. Negotiations with commercial air or ocean operators for transportation as a part of through bill of lading service between the United States and other areas, or with air carriers for service within the United States under long term contracts, shall be conducted by the Single Manager for Airlift Service or the Single Manager for Ocean Transportation. The agreement of the Single Manager for Traffic Management shall be secured prior to the initiation of such negotiations.

(b) The service tenders or other documents authorized in lieu thereof referred to in paragraph (a)(1) of this section shall require carriers providing through bill of lading service between the United States and other areas to furnish after the fact reports of shipments to the Single Manager for Traffic Management, the Single Manager for Ocean Transportation, and the Single Manager for Airlift Service, as prescribed by uniform joint regulations.

(c) The Single Manager for Traffic Management shall consult with the Small Business Administration and appropriate representatives of the transportation industry on those portions of joint procedures, standards, criteria and regulations directly affecting the transportation industry prior to their publication.

(d) The Single Manager for Traffic Management shall develop, with the joint participation of the heads of the other military services, all standards, programs and procedures relative to the transportation of household goods. He shall also keep the Single Manager for Ocean Transportation and the Single Manager for Airlift Service informed on plans and other matters involving through bill of lading service between the United States and other areas.

(e) The implementation of this part shall not abrogate the functions and responsibilities of the Single Manager for Airlift Service or the Single Manager for Ocean Transportation, nor, in overseas areas, of the military services or the unified or specified commands.

§ 208.5 Required action.

(a) Joint regulations implementing this part shall be issued and action taken to assure uniformity of application in accordance with the schedule in paragraph (c) of this section. Such regulations, amendments thereto, and reissues thereof shall be coordinated with the Assistant Secretary of Defense (Supply and Logistics) prior to publication, and two copies of such documents shall be forwarded to him within thirty days after publication.

(b) Provisions of all regulations of the Military Departments implementing Parts 206 and 208, 32 CFR 1960 Cum. Supp., shall remain in effect until superseded by the joint regulations implementing this part.

(c) The schedule for implementation of this part is:

(1) September 1, 1960—Completion of printing and distribution of Implementing Regulations.

(2) September 7–December 1, 1960—Conduct conferences with Transportation Officers throughout the United States and overseas areas. Carriers will be invited to similar conferences.

(3) December 1, 1960—Effective date of Implementing Regulations.

MAURICE W. ROCHE,
Administrative Secretary.

CALIFORNIA

Amending Executive Order No. 8884 of September 3, 1941

By virtue of the authority vested in the President, and pursuant to Executive Order No. 10355 of May 26, 1952, it is ordered as follows:

1. Executive Order No. 8884 of September 3, 1941, which withdrew the following-described public lands in California:

MOUNT DIABLO MERIDIAN

T. 30 S., R. 14 E.,
Sec. 9, lots 1 and 2;
Sec. 10, N½N½ and SW¼NE¼;
Sec. 15, lots 1, 2, 7, and 8.

for use of the War Department in connection with the construction of a reservoir and water pipeline to Camp San Luis Obispo, is hereby amended to delete therefrom the following paragraph added thereto by Executive Order No. 9526 of February 28, 1945:

The jurisdiction granted by this order shall cease at the expiration of the six months' period following the termination of the unlimited national emergency declared by Proclamation No. 2487 of May 27, 1941 (55 Stat. 1647). Thereupon, jurisdiction over the lands hereby reserved shall be vested in the Department of the Interior, and any other department or agency of the Federal Government according to their respective interests then of record. The lands, however, shall remain withdrawn from appropriation as herein provided until otherwise ordered.

2. Executive Order No. 8884 is hereby further amended to substitute the words "Department of the Army" for the words "War Department" wherever they appear.

ROGER ERNST,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

[Public Land Order 2152]

[Anchorage 049973]

ALASKA

Partially Revoking Air Navigation Site Withdrawal No. 209

By virtue of the authority contained in Section 4 of the act of May 24, 1928 (45 Stat. 729; 49 U.S.C. 214), it is ordered as follows:

1. The departmental order of October 5, 1943, which established Air Navigation Site Withdrawal No. 209, is hereby revoked so far as it affects the following-described lands:

SKWENTNA AREA

From the Southwest Corner No. 3 of Air Navigation Site Withdrawal No. 209, which is the point of beginning; thence North, 7,711 feet;
S. 79°11' E., 16,197 feet;
Southerly, 5,600 feet, approximately, along the meander of the Skwentna River;
N. 64° W., 15,400 feet;
South, 6,300 feet;
West, 2,000 feet to the point of beginning.

The tract described contains approximately 1,550 acres.

2. Subject to any valid existing rights and the requirements of applicable law, the lands are hereby opened to settlement and to filing of applications, selections, and locations as are allowable on unsurveyed lands, in accordance with the following:

a. Applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws, and applications and offers under the mineral leasing laws, may be presented to the Manager mentioned below beginning on the date of this order. Such applications, selections, and offers will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(2) Until 10:00 a.m. on October 6, 1960, the State of Alaska shall have a preferred right of application to select the lands in accordance with and subject to the provisions of the act of July 28, 1956 (70 Stat. 709; 48 U.S.C. 46–3b), and section 6(g) of the Alaska Statehood Act of July 7, 1958 (72 Stat. 339; Public Law 85–508).

(3) All valid applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws, other than from the State of Alaska under paragraph 2a. (2) above, and applications and offers under the mineral leasing laws presented prior to 10:00 a.m. on October 6, 1960, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications, selections and offers filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

(4) Subject to the applications and claims described in paragraphs 2a. (1) and 2a. (2), the lands shall be subject to settlement under the homestead and Alaska homesite laws beginning at 10:00 a.m. on October 6, 1960.

b. The lands will be open to applications and offers under the mineral leasing laws and to location under the United States mining laws beginning at 10:00 a.m. on October 6, 1960.

3. Persons claiming preference rights based upon valid settlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their applications, setting forth all facts relevant to their claims. Detailed rules and regulations governing applications which may be filed pursuant to this notice can be found in Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Inquiries concerning the lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Anchorage, Alaska.

ROGER ERNST,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

[Idaho 010691]

IDAHO

Partially Revoking Proclamation of November 5, 1906, and Executive Order No. 7986 of October 8, 1938, Affecting Lands in Challis National Forest

By virtue of the authority vested in the President by the Act of June 4, 1897 (30 Stat. 34, 36; 16 U.S.C. 473), and otherwise, and pursuant to Executive Order No. 10355 of May 26, 1952, it is ordered as follows:

1. The Proclamation of November 5, 1906, which established the Lemhi Forest Reserve, the name of which was changed to Lemhi National Forest by the Executive order of July 1, 1908, and Executive Order No. 7986 of October 8, 1938, transferring lands to the Challis and Lemhi National Forests, are hereby revoked so far as they affect the following-described lands now in the Challis National Forest:

BOISE MERIDIAN

T. 10 N., R. 23 E.,
Sec. 10, SE¼.

The area described contains 160 acres.

2. The land is located on the westerly side of the Pahsimeroi Valley at an elevation of about 7,500 feet. The land is mainly of rather smooth surface with broad, open slopes. Soil is sand to fine sand with commingled rock. Vegetative cover is mainly sagebrush with understory of bunchgrass, ricegrass and bluegrass.

3. Subject to any existing valid rights and the requirements of applicable law, the lands described are hereby opened to filing of applications, selections, and locations in accordance with the following:

a. Applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws may be presented to the Manager mentioned below, beginning on the date of this order. Such applications, selections, and offers will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Until 10:00 a.m. on January 7, 1961, the State of Idaho shall have a preferred right of application to select the lands in accordance with and subject to the provisions of subsection (c) of section 2 of the Act of August 27, 1958 (72 Stat. 928; 43 U.S.C. 851–852), and the regulations in 43 CFR.

(2) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(3) All valid applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws presented prior to 10:00 a.m. on January 7, 1961, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

b. The lands have been open to application and offers under the mineral leasing laws, and to location for metalliferous minerals. They will open to location for nonmetalliferous minerals under the United States mining laws beginning at 10:00 a.m. on January 7, 1961.

4. Persons claiming preference rights based upon valid settlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their applications, setting forth all facts relevant to their claims. Detailed rules and regulations governing applications which may be filed pursuant to this notice can be found in Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Inquiries concerning the lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Boise, Idaho.

ROGER ERNST,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

MONTANA

Order Providing for Opening of Public Lands (Power Site Classification No. 301)

1. In an order of December 3, 1957, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of December 11, 1957, at page 9694, as Power Site Cancellation No. 126, the Geological Survey cancelled Power Site Classification No. 301 of August 31, 1937, so far as and to the extent that it affects the following-described lands, pursuant to the determination of the Federal Power Commission in DA–149–Montana, issued October 21, 1955, and DA–159–Montana, issued November 8, 1957:

PRINCIPAL MERIDIAN

T. 23 N., R. 16 E.,
Sec. 21, NW¼ and W½SW¼;
Sec. 28, W½NW¼;
Sec. 29, SE¼NE¼ and E½SE¼;
Sec. 32, NE¼NE¼.

The areas described aggregate 480 acres.

2. In DA–149–Montana, the Federal Power Commission determined that the value of the following-described land, reserved in Power Site Classification No. 301, would not be injured or destroyed for purposes of power development by location, entry, or selection under the public-land laws, subject to the provisions of Section 24 of the Federal Power Act, as amended; and subject to the condition that in the event the said tract is required for power purposes; any improvements or structures placed below the 2450-foot contour elevation thereof which should be found to interfere with such development shall be removed or relocated as may be necessary to eliminate interference with power development at no cost to the United States, its permittees or licensees:

PRINCIPAL MERIDIAN

T. 23 N., R. 16 E.,
Sec. 32, lot 3.

Containing 44.84 acres.

3. The lands are on the north bank of the Missouri River, approximately 40 miles southeast of Big Sandy, Montana. Topography is rolling to rough, with vegetation consisting of Western wheatgrass, Blue gramma, sagebrush, and cactus.

4. Subject to any valid existing rights, and the requirements of applicable law, the lands described in this order are hereby opened to filing of applications, selections, and locations, in accordance with the following, such opening as to the lands described in paragraph 2, hereof, being subject further to the provisions of section 24 of the Federal Power Act of 1920, as amended, and to the condition specified in the said paragraph 2, supra:

a. Until 10:00 a.m. on January 7, 1961, the State of Montana shall have a preferred right of application to select the lands in accordance with and subject to the provisions of this order and subsection (c) of section 2 of the act of August 27, 1958 (72 Stat. 928; 43 U.S.C. 851, 852), and the regulations in 43 CFR. During this period, the State may also apply for the reservation to it or to any of its political subdivisions of any of the lands required for rights-of-way or material sites, in accordance with section 24 of the Federal Power Act of June 10, 1920 (41 Stat. 1075; 16 U.S.C. 818), as amended.

b. All valid applications under the nonmineral public land laws other than those coming under subparagraph a., above, presented at or before 10:00 a.m. on January 7, 1961, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Any rights under such applications filed thereafter will be governed by the time of filing.

c. Applications under subparagraphs a and b above, shall be subject to those from persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing law, and equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation.

5. The lands have been open to application and offers under the mineral leasing laws, and to location under the United States mining laws.

6. Persons claiming preferential consideration must submit evidence of their entitlement.

Inquiries concerning the lands should be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Billings, Montana.

ROGER ERNST,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

MONTANA

Opening Lands Under Section 24 of the Federal Power Act (Power Site Classification No. 301)

1. In DA–164–Montana, issued March 6, 1950, the Federal Power Commission determined that the value of the following-described lands withdrawn in Power Site Classification No. 301 will not be injured or destroyed for purposes of power development by location, entry, or selection under the public land laws, subject to section 24 of the Federal Power Act, as amended, and subject to the condition that in the event the said land is required for power purposes any improvements or structures placed thereon which shall be found to interfere with such development shall be removed or relocated as may be necessary to eliminate interference with power development at no cost to the United States, its permittees or licensees:

PRINCIPAL MERIDIAN

T. 20 N., R. 12 E.,
Sec. 24, W½NE¼.

The area described contains 80 acres.

2. The lands are located in Fergus County, 18 miles north of Winifred, Montana.

3. Subject to any valid existing rights and the requirements of applicable law, including the provisions of section 24 of the Federal Power Act of June 10, 1920 (41 Stat. 1075; 16 U.S.C. 818), as amended, and the provisos described in paragraph 1 hereof, and pursuant to authority contained in the said act, the lands are hereby opened to filing of applications, selections and locations in accordance with the following:

a. Applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws may be presented to the Manager mentioned below beginning on the date of this order. Such applications and selections will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation, will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(2) Until 10:00 a.m. on January 7, 1961, the State of Montana shall have a preferred right of application to select the lands in accordance with and subject to the provisions of subsection (c) of section 2 of the act of August 27, 1958 (72 Stat. 928; 43 U.S.C. 851–852), and the regulations in 43 CFR. During this period the State may also apply for the reservation to it or to any of its political subdivisions of any of the lands required for rights-of-way or materials sites in accordance with the provisions of section 24 of the Federal Power Act, supra.

(3) All valid applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws presented prior to 10:00 a.m. on January 7, 1961, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

b. The lands have been open to applications and offers under the mineral leasing laws, and to location under the United States mining laws pursuant to the act of August 11, 1955 (69 Stat. 682; 30 U.S.C. 621).

Persons claiming preference rights based upon valid settlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their applications, setting forth all facts relevant to their claims. Detailed rules and regulations governing applications which may be filed pursuant to this notice can be found in Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Title 47—TELECOMMUNICATION

Chapter I—Federal Communications Commission

[Docket No. 11759; FCC 60-814]

PART 3—RADIO BROADCAST SERVICES

Certain Television Broadcast Stations in California and Nevada

In the matter of amendment of § 3.606 Table of Assignments, Television Broadcast Stations (Fresno, Bakersfield, and Santa Barbara, California; Goldfield and Tonopah, Nevada); Docket No. 11759.

1. In the Report and Order adopted in this proceeding on March 24, 1960 (FCC 60–279), we announced, with supporting reasons, our conclusion that the public interest would be served by placing all commercial television stations in Fresno on UHF channels.

2. In a further notice of proposed rule making, adopted on the same day, we invited comments on alternative channel assignments designed to accomplish that objective by appropriate disposition of Channel 12, now assigned to Fresno and occupied by Triangle Publications, Inc. (Radio and Television Division) and the substitution of a UHF assignment to Fresno. The alternatives are:

A. (1) Reserve Channel 12+ for noncommercial educational use at Fresno and at the same time make Channel °18— available for commercial use at Fresno; or

(2) Reassign Channel 12+ from Fresno to Santa Barbara; and

B. Substitute Channel 59 for Channel 30+ at Madera, California, and reassign Channel 30+ from Madera to Fresno.

3. For reasons discussed hereinafter we have concluded that the public interest would best be served by accomplishing deintermixture at Fresno in the following manner:

(a) Deleting Channel 12+ from Fresno.

(b) Reassigning Channel 30+ from Madera to Fresno.

(c) Replacing Channel 30+ at Madera with Channel 59.

4. In response to the Further Notice of March 24, 1960, comments in support of the Commission's proposal to deintermix Fresno were submitted by a number of parties, including Triangle Publications, Inc. (Radio and Television Division) KFRE–TV, Channel 12, Fresno; McClatchy Newspapers, Inc., KMJ–TV, Channel 24, Fresno; O'Neill Broadcasting Company, KJEO, Channel 47, Fresno; Kern County Broadcasting Company, KLYD–TV, Channel 17, Bakersfield; the American Broadcasting Company; and others. Generally the positions taken by these parties correspond with our assessment of the desirability of deintermixing Fresno which is set forth in some detail in our Report and Order of March 24, 1960.

5. A number of individuals living in foothill and mountain communities, generally to the northeast of Fresno and to the east and northwest of the existing site of KFRE–TV oppose the deletion of Channel 12 from Fresno. A few persons, residing in the San Joaquin Valley at Fresno, and in such cities as Turlock (northwest of Fresno), and Kingsburg (southeast of Fresno), also voiced objection to the deintermixture of the Fresno assignments. We have carefully considered their views; and we summarize them as follows:

(1) The best service to the foothill areas is provided by KFRE–TV on Channel 12. In some communities, only marginal service is provided by KJEO and KMJ–TV, operating on Channels 47 and 24, respectively. In others, it is impossible to receive UHF signals from the Fresno UHF stations and persons residing there rely exclusively on KFRE–TV for entertainment, news and information.

(2) In some foothill and mountain communities and in some of the cities and towns to the north and south of Fresno, television sets are equipped to receive VHF signals only; and it would be expensive to convert these receivers for UHF reception.

(3) The all-VHF plan, formerly proposed, would provide better service to persons living in the mountain and foothill areas east of Fresno. In addition, Fresno and the surrounding communities that would be served by the VHF stations are of such size and economic importance as to justify the allocation of VHF facilities to meet their needs. The VHF plan is superior for the further reason that UHF allocations for Fresno will be only a temporary expedient in view of the Commission's experience with UHF television in other areas of the United States.

6. In brief, these parties claim that they presently receive satisfactory service only from KFRE–TV and are not able to receive UHF signals, or, at best, such signals do not come in clearly. This phenomenon can be ascribed to a number of reasons. For example, the parties may not have provided themselves with suitable UHF receiving devices or it may be that the precise areas in which they reside are sufficiently shadowed by intervening terrain to prevent good reception of UHF signals. The latter explanation, however, seems doubtful, since the same persons claim that they receive "excellent" service from KFRE–TV. Though UHF frequencies are more subject to attenuation or blockage by natural or artificial barriers than VHF, the VHF signal could not produce "excellent pictures" if these areas were shadowed by intervening terrain to such an extent as to prevent reception of any UHF signals.

This consideration gives substance to our ultimate determination on this point expressed below.

7. First, however, we consider the problem of providing service to these communities in the foothills east of Fresno through the use of VHF channels at Patterson Mountain. Much study was given to this aspect of the case as a result of comments filed in response to the July 17, 1959, Notice of Further Proposed Rule Making (FCC 59–723). The Patterson Mountain site lies to the east and south of Meadow Lake, roughly 25 miles distant therefrom. The terrain between Patterson Mountain and the communities in the foothill regions rises rather sharply, with intervening ridges of over 6,000 feet. We were apprehensive that instead of gaining service the foothill settlements would lose service under the VHF proposal. We said as much at Paragraph 21 of the Report and Order of March 24, 1960 (FCC 60–279). This, together with other reasons expressed in the March 24, 1960, Report and Order, militated against adoption of the all-VHF plan for Fresno.

8. Paramount in our considerations, of course, was and is the maintenance and expansion of television services to the entire Fresno area, including, of course, the foothill areas; but this, we are assured, cannot be accomplished by maintaining the status quo. Therefore, we feel compelled to take such steps as will promote the public interest as a whole, notwithstanding the possibility that some persons have to make adjustments in the equipment they have on hand. In some instances it may be desirable to utilize translators or UHF co-channel boosters. However, it is reasonable to expect that UHF signals from Fresno stations situated at sites similar to the one used by KFRE–TV and utilizing increased power and improved facilities, which is to be anticipated under improved competitive conditions, will provide direct service to most of foothill communities.

9. The San Joaquin Valley Community Television Association, Inc., a non-profit corporation organized to foster the development of educational television in the San Joaquin Valley, alternatively requests the reservation of Channel 12 or 7, or retention of Channel 18 at Fresno as an educational reservation. We are of the view that under the favorable conditions prevailing in the Fresno area for UHF operation, and with all commercial stations operating on UHF channels in that city, the continued reservation of Channel 18 at Fresno for educational use would serve the public interest and, at the same time, provide interested parties with ample opportunities for establishing an educational station at Fresno. Such a station would be operating in the same frequency band used by all other stations in the area, where antennas and receivers will undoubtedly be specially designed for reception of the UHF signals of the three commercial Fresno stations.

10. The Commission's plan to substitute Channel 59 for Channel 30 at Madera was unopposed. Adoption of this proposal would permit the addition of a UHF channel to Fresno as a substitute for Channel 12. The assignment of Channel 59 to Madera will provide a suitable replacement for the one being deleted; and the opportunities for establishing a local outlet in that community, at such time as there is a demand for the same, can be fulfilled. In these circumstances, we find it in the public interest to add Channel 30 to Fresno and substitute Channel 59 at Madera.

11. Several of the parties have strongly urged simultaneous deintermixture of Fresno and Bakersfield. These include operators of the Fresno stations; Kern County Broadcasting Company, KLYD–TV, Channel 17, Bakersfield; the American Broadcasting Company; and others. Bakersfield Broadcasting Company, KBAK–TV, Channel 29, Bakersfield, filed a separate petition for rule making on April 20, 1960, RM–177, seeking similar relief. In substance, it is argued that the same considerations which have led us to order deintermixture of Fresno prevail and are applicable to Bakersfield. On June 23, 1960, the Commission adopted a Notice of Proposed Rule Making, Docket No. 13608, and an Order to Show Cause, directed to Marietta Broadcasting, Inc., KERO–TV, Channel 10, Docket No. 13609, which look toward the deintermixture of Bakersfield. This action meets the requests of the abovementioned parties.

12. We now turn to a consideration of our proposal to reassign Channel 12 from Fresno to Santa Barbara and to the pleadings supporting and opposing adoption of this alternative use of that channel. A number of parties strongly support this plan, contending that (1) Santa Barbara needs and can support an additional television station; (2) the distant VHF television stations, located principally in Los Angeles, cannot be relied upon to provide satisfactory service to the Santa Barbara area; (3) a second local television outlet would afford the public a greater variety of programs and enhance the opportunities for originating local programs and coverage of events of local interest; (4) there is assurance from interested parties that the channel would be applied for and a new station promptly constructed; and (5) Channel 12 can be assigned to Santa Barbara in compliance with the Commission's rules.

13. The opponents, including Key Television, Inc., licensee of KEYT, Channel 3, Santa Barbara, Thomas B. Friedman, and Arenze Broadcasters, licensee of Radio Station KCOY, Santa Maria, argue that (1) the public interest would be served better by retaining and reserving Channel 12 at Fresno or reassigning the same to Bakersfield; (2) the use of Channel 12 at Santa Barbara is not technically feasible, due to potential interference (between the Santa Barbara station operating on Channel 12 and the co-channel Mexican station being constructed at Tijuana) caused by "ducting", "average terrain conditions" (over water path) between Santa Barbara and Tijuana, and "tropospheric propagation characteristics" present in the area; (3) the use of Channel 10 at Santa Barbara would be undesirable for similar reasons, since KFSD–TV operates on Channel 10 at San Diego and the same propagation conditions exist between that City and Santa Barbara as exist between Santa Barbara and Tijuana; (4) since the potential use of Channel 10 and 12 at Santa Barbara is not technically feasible, Santa Barbara could never become a three station market, with separate outlets for each of the three major television networks; (5) there is no need for an additional station in Santa Barbara, because the area to be served by such a station presently receives multiple services from both Los Angeles and San Diego television stations; (6) Santa Barbara is principally a residential and resort city and cannot support a second television station; (7) the operators of KEYT have sustained heavy operating losses since its inception, with a current loss for 1959 of more than $75,000.00, and the authorization of a second station may lead to the elimination of all local service in Santa Barbara, due to economic considerations; and (8) there is a greater need for the facility in Santa Maria or Lompoc-Santa Maria, since these communities now receive only fringe service from KEYT, Channel 3, Santa Barbara, and KSBY–TV, Channel 6, San Luis Obispo and the assignment of Channel 12 would provide a first local service to the communities in question.

14. Our review of all the foregoing arguments and contentions indicates to us the need for further study of the manner in which it would best serve the public interest to reassign Channel 12. An immediate decision in that regard is not in any event necessary to achieve the primary purpose of the instant proceeding, which is to deintermix the Fresno market and to place all television broadcast operations in that market on UHF channels at the earliest practicable date. To that end we confine our action herein to the deletion of Channel 12 from Fresno.

15. In order to facilitate our further review of the best manner in which Channel 12 can be utilized elsewhere we are adopting today a Further Notice of Proposed Rule Making in Docket No. 13608 which looks toward the deintermixture of Bakersfield, California, by the removal from Bakersfield of Channel 10, the only VHF channel assigned to Bakersfield. Owing to the fact that spacing considerations would permit the use of Channel 12 in the same markets to which Channel 10 could be reassigned, subject to any necessary clearances with the Government of Mexico, we deem it desirable to consolidate for consideration in Docket No. 13608 the available alternative possibilities for the use in a new community of both Channels 10 and 12. The comments filed in the instant proceeding (Docket No. 11759) which contain arguments favoring or opposing the assignment of Channel 12 to particular communities (Santa Barbara, Santa Maria, and Lompoc-Santa Maria were mentioned), will be further considered and dealt with in Docket No. 13608.

16. We now direct attention to the comments filed herein by Triangle. Triangle is now licensed for operation on Television Station KFRE–TV, Channel 12 at Fresno. Triangle's transmitter is located some 30 miles northeast of Fresno at Meadow Lake. In its pleadings, Triangle recognizes that the Commission's proposal for deintermixture of Fresno is fully consistent with its long-range allocations policy; and that the deletion of Channel 12 and the substitution of Channel 30 may well be in the public interest. It further acknowledges that it can operate on Channel 30 and provide a good signal to the residents of Fresno and the surrounding area. Triangle urges prompt and speedy effectuation of the Commission's all-UHF plan; and it consents to shift its operation to Channel 30.

17. Triangle attaches four conditions to its construction of Channel 30+ facilities and the abandonment of its procedural rights relating to its continued operation on Channel 12. First, Triangle requests that its license for KFRE–TV be renewed, on Channel 30 (instead of on Channel 12, as previously specified in its application for renewal, BRCT–265), subject to certain steps appropriate to the issuance of authorization to Triangle to make necessary changes in transmitting equipment and related facilities. We herein: (1) grant Triangle's pending application for renewal of license on Channel 12+; (2) order, pursuant to Triangle's expression of consent, that, effective immediately, the renewed license be modified to specify operation on Channel 30+ in lieu of Channel 12+; and (3) authorize and direct Triangle to make necessary changes in transmitting equipment and other facilities upon the submission and approval of necessary engineering specifications.

18. Second, Triangle requests a waiver of § 3.685(c) of the Commission's rules to permit utilization of a directional antenna, the general specification for the same having been set forth in its Engineering Statement of April 29, 1960. We have examined Figure 8, which shows the potential power gain in db in the horizontal plane for a station operating on Channel 30 and utilizing "beam tilting" as shown on this Figure. We find the ratio of minimum to maximum radiation in the horizontal plane to be substantially less than 10 decibels and, therefore, in accord with the Commission's rules. Under these circumstances, a waiver of our rules, as requested by Triangle, will not be necessary.

19. Third, it requests "that Triangle be authorized to continue to operate KFRE–TV with its presently authorized Channel 12 facilities until such time as the construction and installation of the UHF facilities shall have been completed and licensed for regular operation on Channel 30 or 18, and for such further time as the Commission may deem desirable and in the public interest * * *". We are of the view that Triangle should be allowed to operate on Channel 12+ during such reasonable time as may be required to complete construction on Channel 30+; and we herein grant temporary authority for this purpose. This will provide a continuity of service to the public and be in the public interest. We are of the further view, however, that once construction of the station has been completed and it is readied for operation on Channel 30+, and Triangle is licensed for operation on the same, it would not be in the public interest for Triangle to continue to utilize Channel 12+ at Fresno.

20. Fourth, Triangle requests that upon cessation of KFRE–TV's operation on Channel 12+, that channel be deleted from Fresno and no other channel be assigned to the area, so that the area will continue to be all-UHF. Our actions herein, including the deletion of Channel 12+ from Fresno, the reassignment of Channel 30+ to Fresno, and the steps initiated toward KFRE's shift from Channel 12+ to Channel 30+ all rest upon our considered judgment, after several years of continuing study of the matter in this proceeding, that the public interest would best be served by placing all television operations at Fresno in the UHF band. The merits of this course have been subjected to more than the usual amount of painstaking consideration, including detailed proceedings inaugurated in July 1959, in which we very closely examined the alternative course of providing enough VHF channel assignments at Fresno to accommodate three commercial stations and one noncommercial station there. Having arrived at this point of final decision on the basis of such thorough review of all available alternatives, we foresee no prospect of recurring to VHF channel assignments at Fresno, except in the highly improbable circumstance of the abandonment of the use of UHF channels for television broadcasting.

21. We do not, in any event, having gone to some lengths to deintermix this market, contemplate again intermixing the market by the assignment of VHF channels there. These circumstances, we believe, furnish the assurances sought by Triangle concerning the possibilities of the future assignment of one or more VHF channels to Fresno. It would, of course, be improper for the Commission, to attempt at any stage to make commitments binding for all time with respect to any particular allocation of frequency space. It is clear, moreover, that any attempt to place restraints upon responses by the Commission to future circumstances not now foreseen would be beyond the Commission's lawful powers. Subject to this clarification, the Commission is unaware at this stage of any circumstances which would make it desirable in the public interest, once having deintermixed this market, to intermix it again by the assignment to Fresno of one or more VHF channels.

22. The course of action projected in paragraphs 16 through 21 above conforms with the conditions attached by Triangle to its consent to the shift of KFRE–TV from Channel 12+ to Channel 30+. In embarking upon this course, we deem it appropriate to note that the steps contemplated thereunder are taken without prejudice to whatever measures the Commission might separately find it appropriate to take upon the conclusion of further inquiry into alleged practices of Triangle which raise questions concerning Triangle's compliance with section 317 and other provisions of the Communications Act of 1934 and the Commission's rules. Because of the importance we attach to minimizing further delay in deintermixing Fresno, we find that, notwithstanding the pendency of this other matter, it is in the public interest to proceed now as contemplated in paragraphs 16 to 21. The shift of KFRE from Channel 12+ to Channel 30+ at Fresno constitutes the final step necessary to deintermixing Fresno. Our actions taken and contemplated herein, which are directed to those objectives and are unrelated to the separate questions concerning Triangle's compliance with the Communications Act and the Commission's Rules, cannot affect such decisions or actions as the Commission may find it appropriate to take after all relevant facts relating to the latter have been established and considered.

23. The actions herein are taken pursuant to authority found in sections 4 (i) and (j), 303, 307, 309 and 316 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

24. In view of the foregoing: It is ordered, That effective August 12, 1960, § 3.606 of the rules of the Commission, Table of Assignments, Television Broadcast Stations, is amended insofar as the communities named are concerned, to read as follows:

Fresno, Calif	*18—, 24, 30+, 47, 53
Madera, Calif	59

25. It is further ordered, That the application of Triangle Publications, Inc. (Radio and Television Division) for renewal of the license of KFRE–TV (BRCT–265) on Channel 12+ is granted; and,

26. It is further ordered, That, effective immediately, the aforesaid renewed license is modified to specify operation of KFRE–TV on Channel 30+ in lieu of Channel 12+, subject, however, to the filing and approval of necessary engineering data as hereinafter ordered; and,

27. It is further ordered, That Triangle Publications, Inc. (Radio and Television Division) file with the Commission on or before August 3, 1960, all necessary engineering data relative and pertinent to the construction of facilities for the operation of KFRE–TV on Channel 30+ at the site presently specified for the transmitter of Television Station KFRE–TV at Meadow Lake in accordance with the general specifications set forth in the Engineering Statement of April 29, 1960, attached to its Comments in the instant Docket, filed May 2, 1960; and,

28. It is further ordered, That, upon notification of approval by the Commission of the engineering data filed pursuant to paragraph 27 hereof, Triangle Publications, Inc. (Radio and Television Division) proceed promptly and with reasonable dispatch to take all steps necessary to construct and install the facilities so approved and ready them for commencement of operation of KFRE–TV on Channel 30+ no later than April 15, 1961, upon customary notification to the Commission of completion of construction and receipt of authorization to commence operations on Channel 30+; and,

29. It is further ordered, That Triangle Publications, Inc. (Radio and Television Division) be and hereby is granted temporary authority to continue to operate Television Station KFRE–TV on Channel 12+ at Fresno until April 15, 1961; and that the temporary authority granted herein shall not be extended unless it is shown that, owing to causes not within Triangle's control, it is impossible for Triangle to commence operation on Channel 30+ by that date; and further, that if such showing is made, this temporary authority for operation of KFRE–TV on Channel 12+ may be extended only for such further time as may be reasonably necessary to complete steps required for commencement of its operation on Channel 30+; and,

30. It is further ordered, That the pending applications of Triangle Publications, Inc. (Radio and Television Division) for renewal of the licenses for Auxiliary Stations KD–5052 (BRTP–328) and KMR–56 (BRTS–165) are granted; and,

31. It is further ordered, That the actions taken in paragraphs 25 through 30 hereof, shall be without prejudice to whatever measures the Commission may find it appropriate to take, if any, in connection with its pending inquiry into compliance by Triangle Publications, Inc. (Radio and Television Division) with section 317 of the Communications Act of 1934 and the Commission's rules; and,

32. It is further ordered, That all other proposals or requests for alternative or other relief sought herein which are inconsistent with the decisions reached and the actions taken in this proceeding are denied; and,

33. It is further ordered, That this proceeding is terminated.

[19 CFR Part 19]

SMELTING AND REFINING WAREHOUSES

Withdrawal of Products From Bonded Smelting and Refining Warehouses

Notice is hereby given that, under the authority of section 312, Tariff Act of 1930, the Treasury Department is considering an amendment to § 19.18 of the Customs regulations relating to smelting and refining warehouses.

By the President's Proclamation No. 3267 of September 22, 1958 (3 CFR, 1958 Supp., p. 39; T.D. 54705), import quotas were established on dutiable lead and zinc, including the dutiable lead and zinc content of lead-bearing and zinc-bearing ores. So long as a quota is open such merchandise may be tendered for admission under the quota by filing with the appropriate collector of customs duty-paid consumption entries covering the imported merchandise, or in the case of such merchandise entered for storage in customs bonded warehouses of classes 2, 3, or 4 by filing with the collector withdrawals for consumption for the lead and zinc contained in the ores.

In the case of lead-bearing ores taken into a bonded smelting and refining warehouse, there to be smelted or refined, or both, special provision is made in the Proclamation (clause numbered (2) of item 391) that whenever in any three-month period beginning October 1, 1958, and January 1, April 1, July 1, and October 1 in any subsequent year:

> (2) The dutiable lead content (as shown on the warehouse withdrawal for consumption in accordance with the applicable customs regulations) of lead-bearing ores, flue dust, or mattes, the product of such country, with respect to which duty was collected under section 312 of the Tariff Act of 1930, upon withdrawal for consumption from customs bonded warehouse of "metal productible" within the meaning of the said section 312, are determined by the Secretary of the Treasury of the United States to have reached the aggregate quantity specified below for such country, no lead-bearing ores, flue dust, or mattes the product of such country may be entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption during the remainder of such period; and no article may be withdrawn for consumption from any customs bonded warehouse during the remainder of such period if by reason of such withdrawal duty would become collectible under section 312 of the Tariff Act of 1930 in cancellation of a bond charge covering any lead-bearing ore, flue dust, or matte the product of such country: * * *.

Similar provisions appear with respect to zinc-bearing ores.

The Department has not authorized the filing of warehouse withdrawals from bonded smelting warehouses of lead and zinc either for consumption or for exportation until the lead or zinc is in the form of a smelted or refined product.

It has been suggested to the Bureau of Customs that this procedure be modified by permitting withdrawals for consumption to be filed so long as there is on hand in the bonded smelter or refinery a quantity of metal contained in ores or crude metals in their condition as entered, or in any intermediate stage, or of smelted or refined products, which in total are equivalent to the quantity of metal covered by the withdrawal papers. Under this suggestion withdrawal papers would be accepted even though the total quantity of smelted or refined products physically on hand in the plant was less than the quantity specified in the withdrawal papers, provided however that the total metal in the plant in all forms, e.g., ores, intermediates and smelted and refined products, was at least as great as the quantity specified in the withdrawal.

It is proposed to amend § 19.18 of the Customs regulations by adding at the end of the last sentence the following: "However, duty-paid warehouse withdrawals for consumption may be filed with regard to metal which will be physically withdrawn in the form of smelted or refined products whether at the time of the filing of the withdrawal papers the dutiable metal covered by the bond charge being cancelled by the withdrawal is in the form of ores, concentrates, crude metals, or intermediate products. If the warehouse withdrawal for consumption covers a product which does not sustain the full wastage applicable (see § 19.22) prior to being physically released from customs custody, a proportionate part only of such wastage may be allowed. The warehouse withdrawal and delivery permit shall (1) describe the smelted or refined products to be withdrawn in terms of the condition in which they will be when released from customs custody upon presentation of the delivery permit; (2) state the estimated amount of the dutiable metal contained in the products, and (3) the warehouse withdrawal shall specify the applicable wastage. A quantity of dutiable metal equivalent to the smelted or refined products covered by each withdrawal for consumption must be actually on hand at the plant at the time of filing the withdrawals; but neither the actual ability to withdraw smelted or refined products from the warehouse nor the actual physical condition described in the withdrawal will be required as of the time of filing the withdrawal."

Prior to the final adoption of the amendment to the regulations herein proposed, consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing to the Commissioner of Customs, Washington 25, D.C., within 45 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

No hearing will be held.

[SEAL] RALPH KELLY,
Commissioner of Customs.

Approved: July 7, 1960.

UNITED STATES STANDARDS FOR GRADES OF FLORIDA GRAPEFRUIT [1]

Notice of Proposed Rule Making

Notice is hereby given that the United States Department of Agriculture is considering the revision of United States Standards for Florida Grapefruit pursuant to the authority contained in the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (secs. 202–208, 60 Stat. 1087, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 1621–1627).

Proposed changes are designed to make the standards more applicable to current marketing practices. Following are the more important changes proposed:

(1) In the U.S. No. 1 Bright grade the amount of surface permitted to be affected by discoloration would be increased from one-tenth to one-fifth of the surface;

(2) The U.S. No. 1 Bronze grade would be changed to require that all fruit must show some discoloration and more than 30 percent of the fruit shall have more than one-third of the surface affected by discoloration. The predominating discoloration on each fruit must be of rust mite type;

(3) The U.S. No. 1 Russet grade would be changed to require that more than 30 percent of the fruit shall have in excess of one-third of the surface affected by any type of discoloration;

(4) In the U.S. No. 2 grade the definitions of shape and texture would be changed to require slightly better shape and texture; and,

(5) The Application of tolerances would be changed to permit any package which contains 10 pounds or less to have four times the tolerance for defects and at least two defective fruits would be permitted provided that the lot averages within the tolerance. En route or at destination 10 percent of the packages may have more than one fruit affected by decay provided that the lot averages within the tolerance.

A number of changes in definitions and phraseology are also proposed in the interest of clarity.

All persons who desire to submit written data, views, or arguments for consideration in connection with the proposed standards should file the same with the Chief, Fresh Products Standardization and Inspection Branch, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, South Building, Washington 25, D.C., not later than August 1, 1960.

The proposed standards, as revised, are as follows:

AUTHORITY: §§ 51.750 to 51.783 issued under secs. 202–208, 60 Stat. 1087, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 1621–1627.

GRADES

§ 51.750 U.S. Fancy.

"U.S. Fancy" consists of grapefruit of similar varietal characteristics which are well colored, firm, well formed, mature, and of smooth texture, and which are free from ammoniation, bird pecks, bruises, buckskin, cuts which are not healed, decay, growth cracks, scab, sprayburn, and free from injury caused by green spots or oil spots, pitting, scale, scars, thorn scratches, and from damage caused by dirt or other foreign materials, dryness or mushy condition, sprouting, sunburn, disease, insects, or mechanical or other means.

(a) In this grade not more than one-tenth of the surface in the aggregate may be affected by discoloration. (See § 51.761.)

§ 51.751 U.S. No. 1.

"U.S. No. 1" consists of grapefruit of similar varietal characteristics which are fairly well colored, firm, well formed, mature, and of fairly smooth texture, and which are free from bruises, cuts which are not healed, buckskin, or similar type of discoloration, decay, growth cracks, sprayburn, and free from damage caused by ammoniation, bird pecks, dirt or other foreign materials, dryness or mushy condition, green or oil spots, pitting, scab, scale, scars, sprouting, sunburn, thorn scratches, disease, insects, or mechanical or other means.

(a) In this grade not more than one-third of the surface in the aggregate may be affected by discoloration. (See § 51.761.)

§ 51.752 U.S. No. 1 Bright.

The requirements for this grade are the same as for U.S. No. 1 except that the fruit may have not more than one-fifth of its surface, in the aggregate affected by discoloration. (See § 51.761.)

§ 51.753 U.S. No. 1 Golden.

The requirements for this grade are the same as for U.S. No. 1 except that not more than 30 percent, by count, of the fruits shall have in excess of one-third of their surface in the aggregate affected by discoloration. (See § 51.761.)

§ 51.754 U.S. No. 1 Bronze.

The requirements of this grade are the same as for U.S. No. 1 except that all fruit must show some discoloration, and more than 30 percent, by count, of the fruit shall have more than one-third of the surface, in the aggregate, affected by discoloration. The predominating discoloration on each fruit must be of rust mite type. (See § 51.761.)

§ 51.755 U.S. No. 1 Russet.

The requirements of this grade are the same as for U.S. No. 1 except that more than 30 percent, by count, of the fruit shall have in excess of one-third of the surface, in the aggregate, affected by any type of discoloration. (See § 51.761.)

§ 51.756 U.S. No. 2.

"U.S. No. 2" consists of grapefruit of similar varietal characteristics which are mature, fairly firm, not more than slightly misshapen or of slightly rough texture, and which are free from bruises, cuts which are not healed, decay, growth cracks and free from serious damage, caused by ammoniation, bird pecks, buckskin, dirt or other foreign materials, dryness, or mushy condition, green spots or oil spots, pitting, scab, scale, scars, sprayburn, sprouting, sunburn, thorn scratches, disease, insects, mechanical or other means.

(a) Each grapefruit may be only slightly colored.

(b) In this grade not more than one-half of the surface in the aggregate, may be affected by discoloration. (See § 51.761.)

§ 51.757 U.S. No. 2 Bright.

The requirements for this grade are the same as for U.S. No. 2 except that no fruit may have more than one-fifth of its surface, in the aggregate, affected by discoloration. (See § 51.761.)

§ 51.758 U.S. No. 2 Russet.

The requirements for this grade are the same as for U.S. No. 2 except that more than 10 percent, by count, of the fruits shall have in excess of one-half of their surface in the aggregate affected by discoloration. (See § 51.761.)

§ 51.759 U.S. No. 3.

"U.S. No. 3" consists of grapefruit of similar varietal characteristics which are mature, which may be misshapen, slightly spongy, rough but not seriously lumpy for the variety or seriously cracked, which are free from cuts which are not healed, and from decay, and from very serious damage caused by bruises, growth cracks, ammoniation, bird pecks, caked melanose, buckskin, dryness or mushy condition, pitting, scab, scale, sprayburn, sprouting, sunburn, thorn punctures, disease, insects, mechanical or other means. The fruit may be poorly colored but not more than 25 percent of the surface of each fruit may be of a solid dark green color. (See § 51.761.)

UNCLASSIFIED

§ 51.760 Unclassified.

"Unclassified" consists of grapefruit which has not been classified in accordance with any of the foregoing grades. The term "unclassified" is not a grade within the meaning of these standards but is provided as a designation to show that no grade has been applied to the lot.

TOLERANCES

In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling in each of the foregoing grades, the following tolerances, by count, are provided as specified:

(a) U.S. Fancy Grade. 10 percent of the fruits in any lot may fail to meet the requirements of this grade, but not more than one-half of this amount, or 5 percent, shall be allowed for very serious damage, and not more than one-twentieth of the tolerance, or one-half of one percent, shall be allowed for decay at shipping point: Provided, That an additional tolerance of 2½ percent, or a total of not more than 3 percent, shall be allowed for decay enroute or at destination. None of the foregoing tolerances shall apply to wormy fruit.

(b) U.S. No. 1 and U.S. No. 1 Bright Grades. 10 percent of the fruits in any lot may fail to meet the requirements of the grade other than for discoloration but not more than one-half of this amount, or 5 percent, shall be allowed for very serious damage, and not more than one-twentieth of the tolerance, or one-half of one percent, shall be allowed for decay at shipping point: Provided, That an additional tolerance of 2½ percent, or a total of not more than 3 percent, shall be allowed for decay enroute or at destination. In addition, 10 percent of the fruits in any lot may fail to meet the requirements relating to discoloration. None of the foregoing tolerances shall apply to wormy fruit.

(c) U.S. No. 1 Golden and U.S. No. 1 Bronze Grades. 10 percent of the fruits in any lot may fail to meet the requirements of the grade, but not more than one-half of this amount, or 5 percent shall be allowed for very serious damage, and not more than one-twentieth of the tolerance, or one-half of one percent, shall be allowed for decay at shipping point: Provided, That an additional tolerance of 3½ percent, or a total of not more than 3 percent, shall be allowed for decay en route or at destination. No part of any tolerance shall be allowed to reduce or to increase the percentage of fruits having in excess of one-third of their surface in the aggregate affected by discoloration which is required in the grade, but individual containers may vary not more than 10 percent from the percentage required: Provided, That the entire lot averages within the percentage specified. None of the foregoing tolerances shall apply to wormy fruit.

(d) U.S. No. 1 Russet Grade. 10 percent of the fruits in any lot may fail to meet the requirements of this grade but not more than one-half of this amount, or 5 percent, shall be allowed for very serious damage, and not more than one-twentieth of the tolerance, or one-half of one percent, shall be allowed for decay at shipping point: Provided, That an additional tolerance of 2½ percent, or a total of not more than 3 percent, shall be allowed for decay en route or at destination. No part of any tolerance shall be allowed to reduce the percentage of fruits having in excess of one-third of their surface in the aggregate affected by discoloration which is required in this grade, but individual containers may have not more than 10 percent less than the percentage required: Provided, That the entire lot averages within the percentage specified. None of the foregoing tolerances shall apply to wormy fruit.

(e) U.S. No. 2 and U.S. No. 2 Bright Grades. 10 percent of the fruits in any lot may fail to meet the requirements of the grade other than for discoloration but not more than one-half of this amount, or 5 percent, shall be allowed for very serious damage other than that caused by dryness or mushy condition, and not more than one-twentieth of the tolerance, or one-half of one percent, shall be allowed for decay at shipping point: Provided, That an additional tolerance of 2½ percent, or a total of not more than 3 percent, shall be allowed for decay en route or at destination. In addition, 10 percent of the friuts in any lot may fail to meet the requirements relating to discoloration. None of the foregoing tolerances shall apply to wormy fruit.

(f) U.S. No. 2 Russet Grade. 10 percent of the fruits in any lot may fail to meet the requirements of this grade but not more than one-half of this amount, or 5 percent, shall be allowed for very serious damage other than that caused by dryness or mushy condition, and not more than one-twentieth of the tolerance, or one-half of one percent, shall be allowed for decay at shipping point: Provided, That an additional tolerance of 2½ percent, or a total of not more than 3 percent, shall be allowed for decay en route or at destination. No part of any tolerance shall be allowed to reduce the percentage of fruits having in excess of one-half of their surface in the aggregate affected by discoloration which is required in this grade, but individual containers may have not more than 10 percent less than the percentage required: Provided, That the entire lot averages within the percentage specified. None of the foregoing tolerances shall apply to wormy fruit.

(g) U.S. No. 3 Grade. 15 percent of the fruits in any lot may fail to meet the requirements of this grade but not more than one-third of this amount, or 5 percent, shall be allowed for defects other than dryness or mushy condition, and not more than one-fifth of this amount, or 1 percent, shall be allowed for decay at shipping point: Provided, That an additional tolerance of 2½ percent, or a total of not more than 3 percent, shall be allowed for decay en route or at destination. None of the foregoing tolerances shall apply to wormy fruit.

§ 51.762 Application of tolerances.

The contents of individual packages are subject to the following limitations: Provided, That the averages for the entire lot are within the tolerances specified for the grade.

(a) A package which contains more than 10 pounds shall have not more than one and one-half times a specified tolerance of 10 percent and not more than double a specified tolerance of less than 10 percent except that at least one decayed or very seriously damaged fruit may be permitted in any package.

(b) A package which contains 10 pounds or less, shall have not more than four times the tolerances specified, except that at least defective fruits may be permitted: Provided, That not more than one fruit which is seriously damaged by dryness or mushy condition or very seriously damaged by other means may be permitted in any package; and en route or at destination not more than 10 percent of the packages may have more than one fruit affected by decay.

Standard Pack

(a) Fruits shall be fairly uniform in size, unless specified as uniform in size, and when packed in boxes or cartons, shall be arranged according to the approved and recognized methods. Each wrapped fruit shall be fairly well enclosed by its individual wrapper.

(b) All such containers shall be tightly packed and well filled but the contents shall not show excessive or unnecessary bruising because of overfilled packages. When grapefruits are packed in standard nailed boxes, each box shall have a minimum bulge of 2 inches, except that boxes packed with grapefruit of a size 80 or smaller need only have a bulge of 1½ inches. When packed in cartons or in wire-bound boxes, each container shall be at least level full at time of packing.

(c) "Fairly uniform in size" means that not more than 10 percent, by count, of the fruit in any container are outside the ranges of diameters given in the following table for various packs:

TABLE I—DIAMETER IN INCHES

Pack	Minimum	Maximum
36's	5	5⅝
45's or 48's	4 11/16	5⅛
54's or 56's	4⅜	4 15/16
64's	4⅛	4 13/16
70's or 72's	3 15/16	4⅜
80's	3 13/16	4⅛
96's	3⅝	4 1/16
112's	3⅜	4
126's or 126's	3 5/16	3 15/16

(d) "Uniform in size" means that not more than 10 percent, by count, of the fruits in any container vary more than the following amounts:

64 size and smaller—not more than 9/32 inch in diameter.

54 size and larger—not more than 5/16 inch in diameter.

(e) In order to allow for variations, other than sizing, incident to proper packing, not more than 5 percent of the packages in any lot may fail to meet the requirements of standard pack.

Definitions

§ 51.764 Similar varietal characteristics.

"Similar varietal characteristics" means that the fruits in any container are similar in color and shape.

§ 51.765 Well colored.

"Well colored" means that the fruit is yellow in color with practically no trace of green color.

§ 51.766 Firm.

"Firm" means that the fruit is not soft, or noticeably wilted or flabby, and the skin is not spongy or puffy.

§ 51.767 Well formed.

"Well formed" means that the fruit has the shape characteristic of the variety.

§ 51.768 Mature.

"Mature" shall have the same meaning currently assigned that term in sections 601.16, 601.17 and 601.18 of the Florida Citrus Code of 1949, as amended (Ch. 28090 and 29760, Laws of Florida, 1953 and 1955) or as the definition of such term may hereafter be amended.

§ 51.769 Smooth texture.

"Smooth texture" means that the skin is thin and smooth for the variety and size of the fruit.

§ 51.770 Injury.

"Injury" means any specific defect described in this section; or an equally objectionable variation of any one of these defects, any other defect, or any combination of defects, which slightly detracts from the appearance, or the edible or shipping quality of the fruit. The following specific defects shall be considered as injury:

(a) Green spots or oil spots, when more than slightly detracting from the appearance of the fruit.

(b) Scale when more than a few adjacent to the "button" at the stem end, or when more than 6 scattered on the other portions of the fruit;

(c) Scars which are depressed, not smooth, or which detract from the appearance of the fruit to a greater extent than the maximum amount of discoloration allowed in the grade; and,

(d) Thorn scratches when the injury is not slight, not well healed, or more unsightly than the discoloration allowed in the grade.

§ 51.771 Discoloration.

"Discoloration" means russeting of a light shade of golden brown caused by rust mite or other means. Lighter shades of discoloration caused by scars or other means may be allowed on a greater area, or darker shades may be allowed on a lesser area, provided no discoloration caused by melanose or other means may detract from the appearance of the fruit to a greater extent than the shade and amount of discoloration allowed for the grade.

§ 51.772 Fairly well colored.

"Fairly well colored" means that, except for an aggregate area of green color which does not exceed the area of a circle 1 inch in diameter, the yellow or orange color predominates over the green color.

§ 51.773 Fairly smooth texture.

"Fairly smooth texture" means that the skin is fairly thin and not coarse for the variety and size of the fruit.

§ 51.774 Damage.

"Damage" means any specific defect described in this section; or an equally objectionable variation of any one of these defects, any other defect, or any combination of defects, which materially detracts from the appearance, or the edible or shipping quality of the fruit. The following specific defects shall be considered as damage:

(a) Ammoniation, when not occurring as light speck type similar to melanose;

(b) Dryness or mushy condition when affecting all segments more than one-fourth inch at the stem end, or more than the equivalent of this amount, by volume, when occurring in other portions of the fruit;

(c) Green spots or oil spots, when more than materially detracting from the appearance of the fruit;

(d) Scab when it cannot be classed as discoloration or materially detracts from the shape or texture;

(e) Scale, when occurring as a blotch and its size exceeds the area of a circle ¾ inch in diameter, or when occurring as a ring and its size exceeds the area of a circle 1¼ inches in diameter on a grapefruit of 70-size. Smaller sizes shall have lesser areas of scale and larger sizes may have greater areas: Provided, That no scale shall be permitted which detracts from the appearance to a greater extent than a blotch ¾ inch in diameter or a ring 1¼ inches in diameter on a 70-size grapefruit;

(f) Scars which are not smooth, or scars which are deep, or scars which are shallow or fairly shallow and detract from the appearance of the fruit to a greater extent than the amount of discoloration allowed in the grade;

(g) Sunburn when the area affected exceeds 25 percent of the fruit surface, or when the skin is materially flattened, dry, darkened or hard; and,

(h) Thorn scratches when the injury is not well healed, or concentrated light colored thorn injury which has caused the skin to become hard and the aggregate area exceeds the area of a circle one-fourth inch in diameter, or slight scratches when light colored and concentrated and the aggregated area exceeds the area of a circle 1 inch in diameter, or dark or scattered thorn injury which detracts from the appearance of the fruit to a greater extent than the amounts specified above.

§ 51.775 Fairly firm.

"Fairly firm" means that the fruit may be slightly soft, but not bruised, and the skin is not spongy or puffy.

§ 51.776 Slightly misshapen.

"Slightly misshapen" means that the fruit has fairly good shape characteristic of the variety and is not more than slightly elongated or pointed or otherwise deformed.

§ 51.777 Slightly rough texture.

"Slightly rough texture" means that the skin may be slightly thick but not excessively thick, materially ridged or grooved.

§ 51.778 Serious damage.

"Serious damage" means any specific defect described in this section; or an equally objectionable variation of any one of these defects, any other defect, or any combination of defects, which seriously detracts from the appearance, or the edible or shipping quality of the fruit. The following specific defects shall be considered as serious damage:

(a) Ammoniation when scars are cracked, or when dark and aggregating more than one-half inch in diameter, or when light colored and aggregating more than one inch in diameter;

(b) Buckskin when detracting from the appearance of the fruit to a greater extent than the amount of discoloration allowed;

(c) Dryness or mushy condition when affecting all segments more than one-half inch at the stem end, or more than the equivalent of this amount, by volume, when occurring in other portions of the fruit;

(d) Green spots or oil spots when the aggregate area exceeds the area of a circle one inch in diameter on a grapefruit of 70-size. Smaller sizes shall have lesser areas of green spots or oil spots and larger sizes may have greater areas: Provided, That the appearance of the grapefruit is not affected to a greater extent than the area permitted on a 70-size grapefruit;

(e) Scab when it cannot be classed as discoloration, or when seriously detracting from the shape of texture;

(f) Scale, when occurring as a blotch and its size exceeds the area of a circle one inch in diameter, or when occurring as a ring and its size exceeds the area of a circle 1½ inches in diameter on a grapefruit of 70-size. Smaller sizes shall have lesser areas of scale and larger sizes may have greater areas: Provided, That no scale shall be permitted which detracts from the appearance to a greater extent than a blotch one inch in diameter or a ring 1½ inches in diameter on a 70-size grapefruit;

(g) Scars which are not fairly smooth, or scars which are very deep, or scars which are not very deep but which detract from the appearance of the fruit to a greater extent than the amount of discoloration allowed in the grade;

(h) Sprayburn which seriously detracts from the appearance of the fruit, or is hard, or when more than 1¼ inches in diameter in the aggregate has a light brown discoloration;

(i) Sunburn which affects more than one-third of the fruit surface, or is hard, or the fruit is decidedly one-sided, or when more than 1¼ inches in diameter in the aggregate has a light brown discoloration; and,

(j) Thorn scratches when the injury is not well healed, or concentrated light colored thorn injury which has caused the skin to become hard and the aggregate area exceeds the area of a circle one-half inch in diameter, or slight scratches when light colored and concentrated and the aggregate area exceeds the area of a circle 1½ inches in diameter, or dark or scattered thorn injury which detracts from the appearance of the fruit to a greater extent than the amounts specified above.

§ 51.779 Slightly colored.

"Slightly colored" means that except for two inches in the aggregate of green color, the remainder of the fruit surface shows some yellow color.

§ 51.780 Misshapen.

"Misshapen" means that the fruit is decidedly elongated, pointed, or flat sided.

§ 51.781 Slightly spongy.

"Slightly spongy" means that the fruit is puffy or slightly wilted but not flabby.

§ 51.782 Very serious damage.

"Very serious damage" means any specific defect described in this section; or an equally objectionable variation of any one of these defects, any other defect, or any combination of defects, which very seriously detracts from the appearance, or the edible or shipping quality of the fruit. The following specific defects shall be considered as very serious damage:

(a) Growth cracks that are seriously weakened, gummy or not healed;

(b) Ammoniation when aggregating more than 2 inches in diameter, or which has caused serious cracks;

(c) Bird pecks, when not healed;

(d) Caked melanose when more than 25 percent in the aggregate of the surface of the fruit is caked.

(e) Buckskin when rough and aggregating more than 50 percent of the surface of the fruit;

(f) Dryness or mushy condition when affecting all segments more than one-half inch at the stem end, or more than the equivalent of this amount, by volume, when occurring in other portions of the fruit;

(g) Scab when aggregating more than 25 percent of the surface;

(h) Scale when covering more than 20 percent of the surface;

(i) Sprayburn when seriously affecting more than one-third of the fruit surface;

(j) Sunburn when seriously affecting more than one-third of the fruit surface; and,

(k) Thorn punctures when not healed or the fruit is seriously weakened.

§ 51.788 Diameter.

"Diameter" means the greatest dimension measured at right angles to a line from stem to blossom end.

[7 CFR Part 51]

UNITED STATES STANDARDS FOR GRADES OF FLORIDA ORANGES AND TANGELOS [1]

Notice of Proposed Rule Making

Notice is hereby given that the United States Department of Agriculture is considering the revision of United States Standards for Florida Oranges and Tangelos (7 CFR 51.1140 to 51.1186) pursuant to the authority contained in the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (secs. 202–208, 60 Stat. 1087, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 1621–1627).

Proposed changes are designed to make the standards more applicable to current marketing practices. Following are the more important changes proposed:

(1) In the U.S. No. 1 Bright grade the amount of surface permitted to be affected by discoloration would be increased from one-tenth to one-fifth of the surface;

(2) The U.S. No. 1 Bronze grade would be changed to require that all fruit must show some discoloration, and more than 50 percent of the fruit shall have more than one-third of the surface affected by discoloration. The predominating discoloration on each fruit must be of rust mite type;

(3) The U.S. No. 1 Russet grade would be changed to require that more than 30 percent of the fruit shall have in excess of one-third of the surface affected by any type of discoloration; and,

(4) The Application of Tolerances would be changed to permit any package which contains 10 pounds or less to have four times the tolerance for defects and at least two defective fruits would be permitted, provided that the lot averages within tolerance. En route or at destination 10 percent of packages may have two fruits or 6 percent (whichever is the larger amount) affected by decay, provided that the lot averages within the tolerance.

A number of changes in definitions and phraseology are also proposed in the interest of clarity.

All persons who desire to submit written data, views or arguments for consideration in connection with the proposed standards should file the same with the Chief, Fresh Products Standardization and Inspection Branch, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, South Building, Washington 25, D.C., not later than August 1, 1960.

The proposed standards, as revised, are as follows:

GENERAL

§ 51.1140 General.

The standards contained in this subpart apply only to the common or sweet orange group and varieties belonging to the Mandarin group, except tangerines, and to the citrus fruit commonly known as "tangelo"—a hybrid between tangerine or mandarin orange (citrus reticulata) with either the grapefruit of pomelo (C. paradisi and C. grandis). Separate U.S. Standards apply to tangerines. The standards for internal quality contained in §§ 51.1175 through 51.1178 apply only to common sweet oranges (citrus sinensis (L) Osbeck).

GRADES

§ 51.1141 U.S. Fancy.

"U.S. Fancy" consists of oranges of similar varietal characteristics which are well colored, firm, well formed, mature, and of smooth texture, and which are free from ammoniation, bird pecks, bruises, buckskin, creasing, cuts which are not healed, decay, growth cracks, scab, split navels, sprayburn, and undeveloped or sunken segments, and are free from injury caused by green spots or oil spots, pitting, rough and excessively wide or protruding navels, scale, scars, thorn scratches, and from damage caused by dirt or other foreign materials, dryness or mushy condition, sprouting, sunburn, riciness or woodiness of the flesh, disease, insects, or mechanical or other means.

(a) In this grade not more than one-tenth of the surface, in the aggregate, may be affected by discoloration. (See § 51.1152.)

(b) If any lot of U.S. Fancy fruit also meets the internal specifications of "U.S. Grade AA Juice (Double A)" or "U.S. Grade A Juice" it may be so specified in accordance with the facts. (See §§ 51.1175–51.1178.)

§ 51.1142 U.S. No. 1 Bright.

The requirements for this grade are the same as for U.S. No. 1 except that no fruit may have more than one-fifth of its surface, in the aggregate, affected by discoloration. (See § 51.1152.)

(a) If any lot of U.S. No. Bright fruit also meets the internal specifications of "U.S. Grade AA Juice (Double A)" or "U.S. Grade A Juice" it may be so specified in accordance with the facts. (See §§ 51.1175–51.1178.)

§ 51.1143 U.S. No. 1.

"U.S. No. 1" consists of oranges of similar varietal characteristics which are firm, well formed, mature, and of fairly smooth texture, and which are free from bruises, cuts which are not healed, buckskin or similar type of discoloration, decay, growth cracks, sprayburn, undeveloped or sunken segments, and free from damage caused by ammoniation, bird pecks, creasing, dirt or other foreign materials, dryness or mushy condition, green spots or oil spots, pitting, scab, scale, scars, split or rough or protruding navels, sprouting, sunburn, thorn scratches, riciness or woodiness of the flesh, disease, insects, or mechanical or other means.

(a) Oranges of the early and mid-season varieties shall be fairly well colored.

(b) With respect to Valencia and other late varieties, not less than 50 percent, by count, of the oranges shall be fairly well colored and the remainder reasonably well colored.

(c) In this grade not more than one-third of the surface, in the aggregate, may be affected by discoloration. (See § 51.1152.)

(d) If any lot of U.S. No. 1 fruit also meets the internal specifications of "U.S. Grade AA Juice (Double A)" or "U.S. Grade A Juice" it may be so specified in accordance with the facts. (See §§ 51.1175–51.1178.)

§ 51.1144 U.S. No. 1 Golden.

The requirements for this grade are the same as for U.S. No. 1 except that not more than 30 percent, by count, of the fruits shall have in excess of one-third of their surface, in the aggregate, affected by discoloration. (See § 51.1152).

(a) If any lot of U.S. No. 1 Golden fruit also meets the internal specifications of "U.S. Grade AA Juice (Double A)" or "U.S. Grade A Juice" it may be so specified in accordance with the facts. (See §§ 51.1175–51.1178.)

§ 51.1145 U.S. No. 1 Bronze.

The requirements of this grade are the same as for U.S. No. 1 except that all fruit must show some discoloration, and more than 30 percent, by count, of the fruit shall have more than one-third of the surface, in the aggregate, affected by discoloration. The predominating discoloration on each fruit must be of rust mite type. (See § 51.1152.)

(a) If any lot of U.S. No. 1 Bronze fruit also meets the internal specifications of "U.S. Grade AA Juice (Double A)" or "U.S. Grade A Juice" it may be so specified in accordance with the facts. (See §§ 51.1175–51.1178.)

§ 51.1146 U.S. No. 1 Russet.

The requirements of this grade are the same as for U.S. No. 1 except that more than 30 percent, by count, of the fruit shall have in excess of one-third of the surface, in the aggregate, affected by any type of discoloration. (See § 51.1152.)

(a) If any lot of U.S. No. 1 Russet fruit also meets the internal specifications of "U.S. Grade AA Juice (Double A)" or "U.S. Grade A Juice" it may be so specified in accordance with the facts. (See §§ 51.1175–51.1178.)

§ 51.1147 U.S. No. 2 Bright.

The requirements for this grade are the same as for U.S. No. 2 except that no fruit may have more than one-fifth of its surface, in the aggregate, affected by discoloration. (See § 51.1152.)

(a) If any lot of U.S. No. 2 Bright fruit also meets the internal specifications of "U.S. Grade AA Juice (Double A)" or "U.S. Grade A Juice" it may be so specified in accordance with the facts. (See §§ 51.1175–51.1178.)

§ 51.1148 U.S. No. 2.

"U.S. No. 2" consists of oranges of similar varietal characteristics which are mature, fairly firm, not more than slightly misshapen, of not more than slightly rough texture, and which are free from bruises, cuts which are not healed; decay, growth cracks, and are free from serious damage caused by ammoniation, bird pecks, buckskin, creasing, dirt or other foreign materials, dryness or mushy condition, green spots or oil spots, pitting, scab; scale, scars, split or rough or protruding navels, sprayburn, sprouting, sunburn, thorn scratches, undeveloped or sunken segments, riciness or woodiness of the flesh, disease, insects, or mechanical or other means.

(a) Each orange of this grade shall be reasonably well colored.

(b) In this grade not more than one-half of the surface, in the aggregate, may be affected by discoloration. (See § 51.1152.)

(c) If any lot of U.S. No. 2 fruit also meets the internal specifications of "U.S. Grade AA Juice (Double A)" or "U.S. Grade A Juice" it may be so specified in accordance with the facts. (See §§ 51.1175–51.1178.)

§ 51.1149 U.S. No. 2 Russet.

The requirements for this grade are the same as for U.S. No. 2 except that more than 10 percent, by count, of the fruits shall have in excess of one-half of their surface, in the aggregate, affected by discoloration. (See § 51.1152.)

(a) If any lot of U.S. No. 2 Russet fruit also meets the internal specifications of "U.S. Grade AA Juice (Double A)" or "U.S. Grade A Juice" it may be so specified in accordance with the facts. (See §§ 51.1175–51.1178.)

§ 51.1150 U.S. No. 3.

"U.S. No. 3" consists of oranges of similar varietal characteristics which are mature, which may be misshapen, slightly spongy, rough but not seriously lumpy for the variety or seriously cracked, which are free from cuts which are not healed, and from decay, and from very serious damage caused by bruises, growth cracks, ammoniation, bird pecks, caked melanose, buckskin, creasing, dryness, or mushy condition, pitting, scab, scale, split navels, sprayburn, sprouting, sunburn, thorn punctures, riciness or woodiness of the flesh, disease, insects, or mechanical or other means.

(a) Each fruit may be poorly colored but not more than 25 percent of the surface of each fruit may be of a solid dark green color. (See § 51.1152.)

(b) If any lot of U.S. No. 3 fruit also meets the internal specifications of "U.S. Grade AA Juice (Double A)" or "U.S. Grade A Juice" it may be so specified in accordance with the facts. (See §§ 51.1175–51.1178.)

UNCLASSIFIED

§ 51.1151 Unclassified.

"Unclassified" consists of oranges which have not been classified in accordance with any of the foregoing grades. The term "unclassified" is not a grade within the meaning of these standards but is provided as a designation to show that no grade has been applied to the lot.

TOLERANCES

In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling in each of the foregoing grades, the following tolerances, by count, are provided as specified:

(a) U.S. Fancy grade. 10 percent of the fruits in any lot may fail to meet the requirements of this grade, but not more than one-half of this amount, or 5 percent, shall be allowed for very serious damage, and not more than one-twentieth of the tolerance, or one-half of one percent, shall be allowed for decay at shipping point: Provided, That an additional tolerance of 2½ percent, or a total of not more than 3 percent, shall be allowed for decay en route or at destination. None of the foregoing tolerances shall apply to wormy fruit.

(b) U.S. No. 1 grade. 10 percent of the fruits in any lot may fail to meet the requirements of this grade, other than for discoloration, but not more than one-half of this amount, or 5 percent, shall be allowed for very serious damage, and not more than one-twentieth of the tolerance, or one-half of one percent, shall be allowed for decay at shipping point: Provided, That an additional tolerance of 2½ percent, or a total of not more than 3 percent, shall be allowed for decay en route or at destination. In addition, 10 percent of the fruits in any lot may have discoloration in excess of one-third of the fruit surface. None of the foregoing tolerances shall apply to wormy fruit.

(c) U.S. No. 1 Bright grade. 10 percent of the fruits in any lot may fail to meet the requirements of this grade, other than for discoloration, but not more than one-half of this amount, or 5 percent, shall be allowed for very serious damage, and not more than one-twentieth of the tolerance, or one-half of one percent, shall be allowed for decay at shipping point: Provided, That an additional tolerance of 2½ percent, or a total of not more than 3 percent, shall be allowed for decay en route or at destination. In addition, 10 percent of the fruits in any lot may fail to meet the requirements relating to discoloration. None of the foregoing tolerances shall apply to wormy fruit.

(d) U.S. No. 1 Golden and U.S. No. 1 Bronze grades. 10 percent of the fruits in any lot may fail to meet the requirements of the grade, but not more than one-half of this amount, or 5 percent, shall be allowed for very serious damage, and not more than one-twentieth of the tolerance, or one-half of one percent, shall be allowed for decay at shipping point: Provided, That an additional tolerance of 2½ percent, or a total of not more than 3 percent, shall be allowed for decay en route or at destination. No part of any tolerance shall be allowed to reduce or to increase the percentage of fruits having in excess of one-third of their surface, in the aggregate, affected by discoloration which is required in the grade, but individual containers may vary not more than 10 percent from the percentage required: Provided, That the entire lot averages within the percentages specified. None of the foregoing tolerances shall apply to wormy fruit.

(e) U.S. No. 1 Russet grade. 10 percent of the fruits in any lot may fail to meet the requirements of this grade, but not more than one-half of this amount, or 5 percent, shall be allowed for very serious damage, and not more than one-twentieth of the tolerance, or one-half of one percent, shall be allowed for decay at shipping point: Provided, That an additional tolerance of 2½ percent, or a total of not more than 3 percent, shall be allowed for decay en route or at destination. No part of any tolerance shall be allowed to reduce the percentage of fruits having in excess of one-third of their surface, in the aggregate, affected by discoloration which is required in this grade, but individual containers may have not more than 10 percent less than the percentage required: Provided, That the entire lot averages within the percentage specified. None of the foregoing tolerances shall apply to wormy fruit.

(f) U.S. No. 2 and U.S. No. 2 Bright grades. 10 percent of the fruits in any lot may fail to meet the requirements of the grade, other than for discoloration, but not more than one-half of this amount, or 5 percent, shall be allowed for very serious damage other than that caused by dryness or mushy condition, and not more than one-twentieth of the tolerance, or one-half of one percent, shall be allowed for decay at shipping point: Provided, That an additional tolerance of 2½ percent, or a total of not more than 3 percent, shall be allowed for decay en route or at destination. In addition, 10 percent of the fruits in any lot may fail to meet the requirements relating to discoloration. None of the foregoing tolerances shall apply to wormy fruit.

(g) U.S. No. 2 Russet grade. 10 percent of the fruits in any lot may fail to meet the requirements of this grade, but not more than one-half of this amount, or 5 percent, shall be allowed for very serious damage other than that caused by dryness or mushy condition, and not more than one-twentieth of the tolerance, or one-half of one percent, shall be allowed for decay at shipping point: Provided, That an additional tolerance of 2½ percent, or a total of not more than 3 percent, shall be allowed for decay en route or at destination. No part of any tolerance shall be allowed to reduce the percentage of fruits having in excess of one-half of their surface, in the aggregate, affected by discoloration which is required in this grade, but individual containers may have not more than 10 percent less than the percentage required: Provided, That the entire lot averages within the percentage specified. None of the foregoing tolerances shall apply to wormy fruit.

(h) U.S. No. 3 grade. 15 percent of the fruits in any lot may fail to meet the requirements of this grade, but not more than one-third of this amount, or 5 percent, shall be allowed for defects other than that caused by dryness or mushy condition, and not more than one-fifth of this amount, or 1 percent, shall be allowed for decay at shipping point: Provided, That an additional tolerance of 2 percent, or a total of not more than 3 percent, shall be allowed for decay en route or at destination. None of the foregoing tolerances shall apply to wormy fruit.

§ 51.1153 Application of tolerances.

The contents of individual packages are subject to the following limitations: Provided, That the averages for the entire lot are within the tolerances specified for the grade:

(a) A package which contains more than 10 pounds shall have not more than one and one-half times a specified tolerance of 10 percent and not more than double a specified tolerance of less than 10 percent except that at least one decayed or very seriously damaged fruit may be permitted in any package.

(b) A package which contains 10 pounds or less, shall have not more than four times the tolerances specified, except that at least two defective fruits may be permitted: Provided, That not more than one fruit which is seriously damaged by dryness or mushy condition or very seriously damaged by other means may be permitted in any package; and en route or at destination not more than 10 percent of the packages may have more than two fruits or more than 6 percent (whichever is the larger amount) affected by decay.

Standard Pack

§ 51.1154 Standard pack.

(a) Fruit shall be fairly uniform in size, unless specified as uniform in size. When packed in boxes, fruit shall be arranged according to the approved and recognized methods and shall meet the applicable standard size requirements of this section. Each wrapped fruit shall be fairly well wrapped.

(b) All packages shall be tightly packed and well filled but the contents shall not show excessive or unnecessary bruising because of overfilled packages.

(c) When packed in standard 1⅝ bushel nailed boxes, each container shall show a minimum bulge of 1¼ inches.

(d) "Standard size" means that not more than 10 percent, by count, of the fruits in any container are below the minimum diameters given in the applicable one of the following Tables 1, 2, 3 and 4 for the various packs, types of fruit, and size of boxes:

Table 1

Oranges other than Temples, packed in 1⅗ bushel boxes:

Size and count:	Minimum diameter in inches
96's	3⅝
125's or 126's	3⅜
150's	3
175's or 176's	2¹⅞
216's	2¹¹⁄₁₆
252's	2⅝
288's or 294's	2⅝

Table 2

Temple oranges and tangelos packed in ⅘ bushel regular, wirebound boxes:

Size and count:	Minimum diameter in inches
56's	3⅝
64's	3⅜
72's	3⅛
80's	3
96's	2¹⅞
125's	2⅝
150's	2⅝
175's	2⅜

Table 3

Temple oranges and tangelos packed in ⅘ bushel flat, wirebound boxes:

Size and count:	Minimum diameter in inches
64's	3⅝
66's	3⅜
80's	3
90's	2¹⅞
100's	2¹¹⁄₁₆
108's	2¹¹⁄₁₆
120's	2⅝
130's	2⅝
156's	2⅜

Table 4

Temple oranges and tangelos packed in ⅘ bushel half-strap boxes:

Size and count:	Minimum diameter in inches
48's	3⅝
60's	3⅜
76's	3⅛
90's	2¹⅞
106's	2¹¹⁄₁₆
120's	2⅝
144's	2⅜
168's	2⅛

(e) "Fairly uniform in size" means that not more than 10 percent, by count, of the fruits in any container vary more than the following amounts:

(1) Five-sixteenths inch in diameter for 150 size and smaller oranges, other than Temples, packed in 1⅗ bushel boxes, and for 76 size and smaller Temple oranges and tangelos packed in ⅘ bushel boxes; and,

(2) Six-sixteenths inch in diameter for 126 size and larger oranges, other than Temples, packed in 1⅗ bushel boxes, and for 72 size and larger Temple oranges and tangelos packed in ⅘ bushel boxes.

(f) "Uniform in size" means that not more than 10 percent, by count, of the fruits in any container vary more than the following amounts:

(1) Four-sixteenths inch in diameter for 150 size and smaller oranges, other than Temples, packed in 1⅗ bushel boxes, and for 76 size and smaller Temple oranges and tangelos packed in ⅘ bushel boxes; and,

(2) Five-sixteenths inch in diameter for 126 size and larger oranges, other than Temples, packed in 1⅗ bushel boxes, and for 72 size and larger Temple oranges and tangelos packed in ⅘ bushel boxes.

(g) In order to allow for variations, other than sizing, incident to proper packing, not more than 5 percent of the packages in any lot may fail to meet the requirements of standard pack.

Definitions

§ 51.1155 Similar varietal characteristics.

"Similar varietal characteristics" means that the fruits in any container are similar in color and shape.

§ 51.1156 Well colored.

"Well colored" means that the fruit is yellow or orange in color with practically no trace of green color.

§ 51.1157 Firm.

"Firm" as applied to common oranges and tangelos means that the fruit is not soft, or noticeably wilted or flabby; as applied to oranges of the Mandarin group (Satsumas, King, Mandarin), "firm" means that the fruit is not extremely puffy, although the skin may be slightly loose.

§ 51.1158 Well formed.

"Well formed" means that the fruit has the shape characteristic of the variety.

§ 51.1159 Mature.

(a) "Mature," for other than Temple oranges, shall have the same meaning currently assigned that term in sections 601.19 and 601.20 of the Florida Citrus Code of 1949, as amended (Ch. 25149, Laws of Florida, 1949) or as the definition of such term may hereafter be amended;

(b) "Mature" for Temple oranges shall have the same meaning currently assigned that term in sections 601.21 and 601.22 of the Florida Citrus Code of 1949, as amended (Ch. 26492, Laws of Florida, 1951) or as the definition of such term may hereafter be amended; and,

(c) "Mature" for tangelos shall have the same meaning currently assigned that term in sections 601.231 and 601.232 of the Florida Citrus Code of 1949, as amended (Ch. 29757, Laws of Florida, 1955) or as the definition of such term may hereafter be amended.

§ 51.1160 Smooth texture.

"Smooth texture" means that the skin is thin and smooth for the variety and size of the fruit.

§ 51.1161 Injury.

"Injury" means any specific defect described in this section; or an equally objectionable variation of any one of these defects, any other defect, or any combination of defects, which slightly detracts from the appearance, or the edible or shipping quality of the fruit. The following specific defects shall be considered as injury:

(a) Green spots or oil spots when more than slightly detracting from the appearance of the individual fruit;

(b) Rough and excessively wide or protruding navels when protruding beyond the general contour of the orange; or when flush with the general contour but with the opening so wide, considering the size of the fruit, and the navel growth so folded and ridged that it detracts noticeably from the appearance of the orange;

(c) Scale when more than a few adjacent to the "button" at the stem end, or when more than 6 scattered on other portions of the fruit;

(d) Scars which are depressed, not smooth, or which detract from the appearance of the fruit to a greater extent than the maximum amount of discoloration allowed in the grade; and,

(e) Thorn scratches when the injury is not slight, not well healed, or more unsightly than discoloration allowed in the grade.

§ 51.1162 Discoloration.

"Discoloration" means russeting of a light shade of golden brown caused by rust mite or other means. Lighter shades of discoloration caused by superficial scars or other means may be allowed on a greater area, or darker shades may be allowed on a lesser area, provided no discoloration caused by melanose or other means may detract from the appearance of the fruit to a greater extent than the shade and amount of discoloration allowed for the grade.

§ 51.1163 Fairly smooth texture.

"Fairly smooth texture" means that the skin is fairly thin and not coarse for the variety and size of the fruit.

§ 51.1164 Damage.

"Damage" means any specific defect described in this section; or an equally objectionable variation of any one of these defects, any other defect, or any combination of defects, which materially detracts from the appearance, or the edible or shipping quality of the fruit. The following specific defects shall be considered as damage:

(a) Ammoniation when not occurring as light speck type similar to melanose;

(b) Creasing when causing the skin to be materially weakened;

(c) Dryness or mushy condition when affecting all segments of the fruit more than one-fourth inch at the stem end, or more than the equivalent of this amount, by volume, when occurring in other portions of the fruit;

(d) Green spots or oil spots when more than 5 in number, or when the aggregate area of all spots exceeds the area of a circle three-fourths inch in diameter on an orange 3 inches in diameter. Smaller sizes shall have a lesser number or lesser areas of green spots or oil spots and larger sizes may have a larger number or greater areas: Provided, That the appearance of the orange is not affected to a greater extent than the number or area permitted on an orange 3 inches in diameter;

(e) Scab when it cannot be classed as discoloration, or materially detracts from the shape or texture;

(f) Scale when occurring as a blotch and its size exceeds the area of a circle five-eighths inch in diameter on an orange 3 inches in diameter. Smaller sizes shall have lesser areas of scale and larger sizes may have greater areas: Provided, That no scale shall be permitted which detracts from the appearance to a greater extent than a blotch five-eighths inch in diameter on an orange 3 inches in diameter;

(g) Scars which are not smooth, or scars which are deep, or scars which are shallow or fairly shallow and detract from the appearance of the fruit to a greater extent than the amount of discoloration allowed in the grade;

(h) Split or rough or protruding navels when any split is unhealed, or more than three well-healed splits at the navel, or any split which is more than one-fourth inch in length, or three-cornered, star-shaped, or other irregular navels when the opening is so wide, considering the size of the orange, and the navel growth so folded and ridged that it detracts materially from the appearance of the orange; or navels which flare, bulge, or protrude beyond the general contour of the orange to the extent that they are subject to mechanical injury in the process of proper grading, or handling, or packing;

(i) Sunburn when the area affected exceeds 25 percent of the fruit surface, or when the skin is materially flattened, dry, darkened, or hard;

(j) Thorn scratches when the injury is not well healed, or concentrated light colored thorn injury which has caused the skin to become hard and the aggregate area exceeds the area of a circle one-fourth inch in diameter, or slight scratches when light colored and concentrated and the aggregate area exceeds the area of a circle 1 inch in diameter, or dark or scattered thorn injury which detracts from the appearance of the fruit to a greater extent than the amounts specified above; and,

(k) Riciness or woodiness when the flesh of the fruit is so ricey or woody that excessive pressure by hand is required to extract the juice.

§ 51.1165 Fairly well colored.

"Fairly well colored" means that, except for an aggregate area of green color which does not exceed the area of a circle 1 inch in diameter, the yellow or orange color predominates over the green color.

§ 51.1166 Reasonably well colored.

"Reasonably well colored" means that the yellow or orange color predominates over the green color on at least two-thirds of the fruit surface, in the aggregate.

§ 51.1167 Fairly firm.

"Fairly firm" as applied to common oranges and tangelos, means that the fruit may be slightly soft, but not bruised; as applied to oranges of the Mandarin group (Satsumas, King, Mandarin), means that the skin of the fruit is not extremely puffy or extremely loose.

§ 51.1168 Slightly misshapen.

"Slightly misshapen" means that the fruit is not of the shape characteristic of the variety but is not appreciably elongated or pointed or otherwise deformed.

§ 51.1169 Slightly rough texture.

"Slightly rough texture" means that the skin is not of smooth texture but is not materially ridged, grooved, or wrinkled.

§ 51.1170 Serious damage.

"Serious damage" means any specific defect described in this section; or an equally objectionable variation of any one of these defects, any other defect, or any combination of defects, which seriously detracts from the appearance, or the edible or shipping quality of the fruit. The following specific defects shall be considered as serious damage:

(a) Ammoniation when scars are cracked, or when dark and the aggregate area exceeds the area of a circle three-fourths inch in diameter, or when light colored and the aggregate area exceeds the area of a circle 1¼ inches in diameter;

(b) Buckskin when aggregating more than 25 percent of the fruit surface, or the fruit texture is seriously affected;

(c) Creasing when so deep or extensive that the skin is seriously weakened;

(d) Dryness or mushy condition when affecting all segments of the fruit more than one-half inch at the stem end, or more than the equivalent of this amount, by volume, when occurring in other portions of the fruit;

(e) Green spots or oil spots when seriously detracting from the appearance of the individual fruit;

(f) Scab when it cannot be classed as discoloration, or when seriously detracting from the shape or texture;

(g) Scale when it seriously detracts from the appearance of the individual fruit;

(h) Scars which are not fairly smooth, or scars which are very deep, or scars which are not very deep but which detract from the appearance of the fruit to a greater extent than the amount of discoloration allowed in the grade;

(i) Split or rough or protruding navels when any split is unhealed, or one well-healed split at each corner of irregular navels when any one is more than one-half inch in length, or when aggregating more than 1 inch in length, or when more than four in number; or navels which protrude beyond the general contour of the orange to the extent that they are subject to mechanical injury during the process of proper grading, or handling, or packing; or irregular navels when the opening is so wide, considering the size of the orange, and the navel growth so badly folded and ridged that it detracts seriously from the appearance of the orange;

(j) Sprayburn which seriously detracts from the appearance of the fruit, or is hard, or when light brown in color and the aggregate area exceeds the area of a circle 1¼ inches in diameter;

(k) Sunburn which affects more than one-third of the fruit surface, or is hard, or the fruit is decidedly one-sided, or when light brown in color and the aggregate area exceeds the area of a circle 1¼ inches in diameter;

(l) Thorn scratches when the injury is not well healed, or concentrated light colored thorn injury which has caused the skin to become hard and the aggregate area exceeds the area of a circle one-half inch in diameter, or slight scratches, when light colored and concentrated and the aggregate area exceeds the area of a circle 1½ inches in diameter, or dark or scattered thorn injury which detracts from the appearance of the fruit to a greater extent than the amounts specified above;

(m) Undeveloped or sunken segments in navel oranges when such segments are so sunken or undeveloped that they are readily noticeable; and,

(n) Riciness or woodiness when the flesh of the fruit is so ricey or woody that excessive pressure by hand is required to extract the juice.

§ 51.1171 Misshapen.

"Misshapen" means that the fruit is decidely elongated, pointed or flat-sided.

§ 51.1172 Slightly spongy.

"Slightly spongy" means that the fruit is puffy or slightly wilted but not flabby.

§ 51.1173 Very serious damage.

"Very serious damage" means any specific defect described in this section; or an equally objectionable variation of any one of these defects, any other defect, or any combination of defects, which very seriously detracts from the appearance, or the edible or shipping quality of the fruit. The following specific defects shall be considered as very serious damage:

(a) Growth cracks that are seriously weakened, gummy or not healed;

(b) Ammoniation when aggregating more than 2 inches in diameter, or which has caused serious cracks;

(c) Bird pecks when not healed;

(d) Caked melanose when more than 25 percent, in the aggregate, of the surface of the fruit is caked;

(e) Buckskin when rough and aggregating more than 50 percent of the surface of the fruit;

(f) Creasing when so deep or extensive that the skin is very seriously weakened;

(g) Dryness or mushy condition when affecting all segments of the fruit more than one-half inch at the stem end, or more than the equivalent of this amount, by volume, when occurring in other portions of the fruit;

(h) Scab when aggregating more than 25 percent of the surface of the fruit;

(i) Scale when covering more than 20 percent of the surface of the fruit;

(j) Split navels when not healed or the fruit is seriously weakened;

(k) Sprayburn when seriously affecting more than one-third of the fruit surface;

(l) Sunburn when seriously affecting more than one-third of the fruit surface;

(m) Thorn punctures when not healed or the fruit is seriously weakened; and,

(n) Riciness or woodiness when the flesh of the fruit is so ricey or woody that excessive pressure by hand is required to extract the juice.

§ 51.1174 Diameter.

"Diameter" means the greatest dimension measured at right angles to a line from stem to blossom end.

STANDARDS FOR INTERNAL QUALITY OF COMMON SWEET ORANGES (CITRUS SINENSIS (L) OSBECK)

§ 51.1175 U.S. Grade AA Juice (Double A).

Any lot of oranges, the juice content of which meets the following requirements, may be designated "U.S. Grade AA Juice (Double A)":

(a) Each lot of fruit shall contain an average of not less than 5 gallons of juice per standard packed box of one and three-fifths bushels.

(b) The average juice content for any lot of fruit shall have not less than 10 percent total soluble solids, and not less than one-half of 1 percent anhydrous citric acid, or more than the permissible maximum acid specified in Table 5 of § 51.1177.

§ 51.1176 U.S. Grade A Juice.

Any lot of oranges, the juice content of which meets the following requirements, may be designated "U.S. Grade A Juice":

(a) Each lot of fruit shall contain an average of not less than four and one-half gallons of juice per standard packed box of one and three-fifths bushels.

(b) The average juice content for any lot of fruit shall have not less than 9 percent total soluble solids, and not less than one-half of 1 percent anhydrous citric acid, or more than the permissible maximum acid specified in Table 5 of § 51.1177.

§ 51.1177 Maximum anhydrous citric acid permissible for corresponding total soluble solids.

For determining the grade of juice, the maximum permissible anhydrous citric acid content in relation to corresponding total soluble solids in the fruit is set forth in the following Table 5 together with the minimum ratio of total soluble solids to anhydrous citric acid:

TABLE 5

Total soluble solids (average percent)	Maximum anhydrous citric acid (average percent)	Minimum ratio of total soluble solids to anhydrous citric acid

UNITED STATES STANDARDS FOR GRADES OF FLORIDA TANGERINES [1]

Notice of Proposed Rule Making

Notice is hereby given that the United States Department of Agriculture is considering the revision of United States Standards for Florida Tangerines (7 CFR §§ 51.1810 to 51.1836) pursuant to the authority contained in the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (secs. 202–208, 60 Stat. 1087, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 1621–1627).

The proposed changes are designed to make the standards more applicable to current marketing practices. Following are the important changes proposed:

(1) In the U.S. No. 1 grade a new definition of "fairly well colored" increases the amount of green color permitted and requires the remainder of the surface to have yellow or better ground color with some tangerine blush; and,

(2) The Application of Tolerances would be changed to permit any package which contains 10 pounds or less to have four times the tolerance for defects and at least two defective fruits would be permitted provided that the lot averages within the tolerance.

A number of changes in definitions and phraseology are also proposed in the interest of clarity.

All persons who desire to submit written data, views or arguments for consideration in connection with the proposed standards should file the same with the Chief, Fresh Products Standardization and Inspection Branch, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, South Building, Washington 25, D.C., not later than August 1, 1960.

The proposed standards, as revised, are as follows:

AUTHORITY: §§ 51.1810 to 51.1834 issued under secs. 202–208, 60 Stat. 1087, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 1621–1627.

GRADES

§ 51.1810 U.S. Fancy.

"U.S. Fancy" consists of tangerines which are mature, firm, and well formed, and which are free from soft bruises, bird pecks, unhealed skin-breaks, and decay and free from damage caused by ammoniation, creasing, dryness or mushy condition, green spots or oil spots, pitting, scale, sprouting, sprayburn, sunburn, unsightly discoloration, buckskin, melanose, scars, scab, dirt or other foreign materials, disease, insects, or mechanical or other means.

(a) Each fruit in this grade shall be highly colored.

(b) In this grade not more than one-tenth of the fruit surface, in the aggregate, may have a light shade of brown discoloration caused by rust mite, or an equivalent of this amount in appearance when the fruit is discolored by any cause. (See § 51.1818.)

§ 51.1811 U.S. No. 1.

"U.S. No. 1" consists of tangerines which are mature, firm, and well formed, and which are free from soft bruises, bird pecks, unhealed skin-breaks, and decay, and free from damage caused by ammoniation, creasing, dryness or mushy condition, green spots or oil spots, pitting, scale, sprouting, sprayburn, sunburn, unsightly discoloration, buckskin, melanose, scars, scab, dirt or other foreign materials, disease, insects, or mechanical or other means.

(a) Each fruit in this grade shall be fairly well colored.

(b) In this grade not more than one-third of the fruit surface, in the aggregate, may have a light shade of brown discoloration caused by rust mite, or an equivalent of this amount in appearance when the fruit is discolored by any cause. (See § 51.1818.)

§ 51.1812 U.S. No. 1 Bronze.

The requirements for this grade are the same as for U.S. No. 1 except for discoloration. In this grade at least 75 percent, by count, of the fruits shall show some discoloration, and more than 20 percent, by count, of the fruits shall have more than one-third of their surface affected with bronzed russeting: Provided, That no discoloration that exceeds the amount allowed in the U.S. No. 1 grade shall be permitted unless such discoloration is caused by thrip, wind scars, or rust mite. (See § 51.1818.)

[1] Packing of the product in conformity with the requirements of these standards shall not excuse failure to comply with the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act or with applicable State laws and regulations.

§ 51.1813 U.S. No. 1 Russet.

The requirements for this grade are the same as for U.S. No. 1 except for discoloration. In this grade at least 75 percent, by count, of the fruits shall show some discoloration, and more than 20 percent, by count, of the fruits shall have more than one-third of their surface affected by discoloration. (See § 51.1818.)

§ 51.1814 U.S. No. 2.

"U.S. No. 2" consists of tangerines which are mature, fairly firm, and fairly well formed, and which are free from soft bruises, bird pecks, unhealed skin-breaks, and decay, and free from serious damage caused by ammoniation, creasing, dryness or mushy condition, green spots or oil spots, pitting, scale, sprouting, sprayburn, sunburn, unsightly discoloration, buckskin, melanose, scars, scab, dirt or other foreign materials, disease, insects, or mechanical or other means.

(a) Each fruit in this grade shall be reasonably well colored.

(b) In this grade not more than two-thirds of the fruit surface, in the aggregate, may be affected with light brown discoloration, or may have the equivalent of this amount in appearance when the fruit has lighter or darker shades of discoloration. (See § 51.1818.)

§ 51.1815 U.S. No. 2 Russet.

The requirements for this grade are the same as for U.S. No. 2 except that more than 20 percent, by count, of the fruits shall have in excess of two-thirds of their surface, in the aggregate, affected by light brown discoloration. (See § 51.1818.)

§ 51.1816 U.S. No. 3.

"U.S. No. 3" consists of tangerines which are mature, not flabby and not seriously lumpy, and which are free from unhealed bird pecks, unhealed skin-breaks, and decay, and free from very serious damage caused by bruises, ammoniation, creasing, dryness or mushy condition, pitting, scale, sprouting, sprayburn, sunburn, unsightly discoloration, melanose, scars, scab, dirt or other foreign materials, disease, insects, or mechanical or other means. (See § 51.1818.)

UNCLASSIFIED

§ 51.1817 Unclassified.

"Unclassified" consists of tangerines which have not been classified in accordance with any of the foregoing grades. The term "unclassified" is not a grade within the meaning of these standards but is provided as a designation to show that no grade has been applied to the lot.

TOLERANCES

In order to allow for variations incident to proper grading and handling in each of the foregoing grades, the following tolerances, by count, are provided as specified:

(a) U.S. Fancy, U.S. No. 1, U.S. No. 1 Bronze, U.S. No. 1 Russet, U.S. No. 2 and U.S. No. 2 Russet grades. 10 percent of the fruits in any lot may fail to meet the requirements of the grade other than for discoloration, but not more than one-half of this amount, or 5 percent, shall be allowed for very serious damage other than that caused by dryness or mushy condition, and not more than one-twentieth of the tolerance, or one-half of 1 percent, shall be allowed for decay at shipping point: Provided, That an additional tolerance of 2½ percent, or a total of not more than 3 percent, shall be allowed for decay en route or at destination. In addition, 10 percent of the fruits in any lot may fail to meet the requirements relating to discoloration but not more than 2 percent shall be allowed for serious damage by unsightly discoloration.

(b) U.S. No. 3 grade. 15 percent of the fruits in any lot may fail to meet the requirements of this grade, but not more than one-third of this amount, or 5 percent, shall be allowed for defects other than that caused by dryness or mushy condition, and not more than one-fifteenth of the tolerance, or 1 percent, shall be allowed for decay at shipping point: Provided, That an additional tolerance of 2 percent, or a total of not more than 3 percent, shall be allowed for decay en route or at destination.

§ 51.1819 Application of tolerances.

The contents of individual packages are subject to the following limitations: Provided, That the averages for the entire lot are within the tolerances specified for the grade.

(a) A package which contains more than 10 pounds shall have not more than one and one-half times a specified tolerance of 10 percent and not more than double a specified tolerance of less than 10 percent, except that at least one decayed or very seriously damaged fruit may be permitted in any package.

(b) A package which contains 10 pounds or less shall have not more than four times the tolerance specified, except that at least two defective fruits may be permitted: Provided, That not more than one decayed or very seriously damaged fruit shall be allowed in any package.

STANDARD PACK

The tangerines in each container shall be packed in accordance with recognized methods. Each container shall be well filled and properly marked to indicate the size of the fruit. When the figures used to indicate size of fruit vary from the actual number of tangerines in the container, as in the case of fractional parts of boxes, the figures indicating size shall be followed by the letter "s" or the word "size", as, for example, "210's", or "210 size". Containers which are not so marked shall not be regarded as meeting requirements of "standard pack".

(a) Fruit in each container shall be of a size not less than the minimum diameters specified in Table I for the various packs. Packs other than those listed shall have a minimum diameter not less than that specified for the nearest count.

TABLE I

Pack:	Diameter in inches (minimum)
100	2 15/16
120	2 11/16
150	2 5/16
176	2 1/16

(b) In order to allow for variations incident to proper sizing, not more than 10 percent, by count, of the fruits in any lot may be below the minimum size for the count as specified in Table I.

DEFINITIONS

§ 51.1821 Mature.

"Mature" shall have the same meaning currently assigned that term in sections 601.21 and 601.22 of the Florida Citrus Code of 1949, as amended (Ch. 26492, Laws of Florida, 1951) or as the definition of such term may hereafter be amended.

§ 51.1822 Firm.

"Firm" means that the flesh is not soft and the fruit is not badly puffy and that the skin has not become materially separated from the flesh of the tangerine.

§ 51.1823 Well formed.

"Well formed" means that the fruit has the characteristic tangerine shape and is not deformed.

§ 51.1824 Damage.

"Damage" means any specific defect described in this section; or an equally objectionable variation of any one of these defects, any other defect, or any combination of defects, which materially detracts from the appearance, or the edible or shipping quality of the fruit. The following specific defects shall be considered as damage:

(a) Ammoniation when it is not speck-type similar to melanose, provided that no ammoniation shall be permitted that detracts from the appearance of the individual fruit to a greater extent than the amount of discoloration allowed for the grade;

(b) Creasing when it materially detracts from the appearance or shipping quality of the fruit;

(c) Dryness or mushy condition when mushy or distinctly dry to a depth of more than one-eighth inch in all segments at the stem end, or the equivalent of this amount, by volume, of mushy condition or dryness when occuring in any portion of the fruit;

(d) Green spots or oil spots when the appearance is affected to a greater extent than 10 green spots caused by scale, each of which is equivalent to the area of a circle one-eighth inch in diameter;

(e) Pitting when materially detracting from the appearance or shipping quality of the individual fruit;

(f) Scale when occuring as a blotch and the aggregate area exceeds the area of a circle three-eighths inch in diameter, or any scale that detracts from the appearance of the individual fruit to a greater extent than the area permitted for a blotch. "Blotch" refers to actual scale and not the discolored area caused by scale;

(g) Sprayburn when causing the skin to become hard or when it materially detracts from the appearance of the fruit;

(h) Sunburn when causing the skin to become hard or when it materially detracts from the appearance of the fruit;

(i) Unsightly discoloration when the color or the pattern, or a combination of color and pattern, causes the fruit to have an unattractive appearance;

(j) Buckskin when it detracts from the appearance of the fruit to a greater extent than the amount of discoloration allowed for the grade;

(k) Melanose when not small smooth speck-type, or any speck-type that detracts from the appearance of the fruit to a greater extent than the amount of discoloration allowed in the grade. Melanose that exceeds the amount allowed in the U.S. 1 grade is not permitted in the U.S. No 1 Bronze grade;

(l) Scars when not smooth, or when causing any noticeable depression, or when detracting from the appearance of the fruit to a greater extent than the amount of discoloration allowed for the grade; and,

(m) Scab when not smooth, or when it affects shape, or when it detracts from the appearance of the fruit to a greater extent than the amount of discoloration allowed for the grade. Scab injury that exceeds the amount allowed in the U.S. 1 grade is not permitted in the U.S. No. 1 Bronze grade.

§ 51.1825 Highly colored.

"Highly colored" means that the ground color of each fruit is a deep tangerine color with practically no trace of yellow color.

§ 51.1826 Discoloration.

"Discoloration" includes discoloration caused by rust mite, melanose, scars, scab, or any other means. Shades of discoloration which blend with the ground color of the fruit may be allowed on a larger area than that specified in the grade for light brown discoloration, and shades of discoloration which are more in contrast with the ground color shall be restricted to a lesser area: Provided, That no discoloration may detract from the appearance to a greater extent than the amount of light brown discoloration specified for the grade. Tangerines which show discoloration caused by melanose, scab, or any cause other than by thrip, wind scars, or by rust mite shall not be permitted in the U.S. No. 1 Bronze grade when such discoloration exceeds the amount allowed in the U.S. No. 1 grade. (§ 51.1828.)

§ 51.1827 Fairly well colored.

"Fairly well colored" means that the surface of the fruit may have green color which does not exceed the aggregate area of a circle 1¼ inches in diameter and that the remainder of the surface has a yellow or better ground color with some portion of the surface showing reddish tangerine blush.

§ 51.1828 Bronzed russeting.

"Bronzed russeting" means russeting caused by thrip, wind scars, or by rust mite, or similar russeting which is not readily distinguishable from that caused by rust mite. Discoloration caused by melanose, scab, etc., are not considered as "bronzed russeting" within the meaning of these standards but are regarded as defects when they exceed the amounts permitted in the U.S. No. 1 grade and are not permitted in the U.S. No. 1 Bronze grade.

§ 51.1829 Fairly firm.

"Fairly firm" means that the flesh may be slightly soft but is not bruised or badly puffy, and that the skin has not become seriously separated from the flesh of the tangerine.

§ 51.1830 Fairly well formed.

"Fairly well formed" means that the fruit may not have the shape characteristic of the variety but that it is not badly deformed.

§ 51.1831 Serious damage.

"Serious damage" means any specific defect described in this section; or an equally objectionable variation of any one of these defects, any other defect, or any combination of defects, which seriously detracts from the appearance, or the edible or shipping quality of the fruit. The following specific defects shall be considered as serious damage:

(a) Ammoniation when scars are cracked, or when dark and the aggregate area exceeds the area of a circle one-half inch in diameter, or when light colored and the aggregate area exceeds the area of a circle 1 inch in diameter;

(b) Creasing when it causes the skin to be seriously weakened;

(c) Dryness or mushy condition when mushy or distinctly dry to a depth of more than one-fourth inch in all segments at the stem end, or the equivalent of this amount, by volume, of mushy condition or dryness when occurring in any portion of the fruit;

(d) Green spots or oil spots when the appearance is affected to a greater extent than 25 green spots, caused by scale, each of which is equivalent to the area of a circle one-eighth inch in diameter;

(e) Pitting when seriously detracting from the appearance or shipping quality of the fruit;

(f) Scale when occurring as a blotch and the aggregate area exceeds the area of a circle one-half inch in diameter, or any scale that detracts from the appearance of the fruit to a greater extent than the area permitted for a blotch. "Blotch" refers to actual scale and not the discoloration caused by scale;

(g) Sprayburn when it has caused the skin to become hard, or when it seriously detracts from the appearance of the fruit;

(h) Sunburn when it has caused the skin to become hard or when if seriously detracts from the appearance of the fruit;

(i) Unsightly discoloration when the color or the pattern, or a combination of both, causes the fruit to have a distinctly unattractive appearance;

(j) Buckskin when it detracts from the appearance of the fruit to a greater extent than the amount of discoloration allowed for the grade;

(k) Melanose when badly caked and the aggregate area exceeds the area of a circle one-half inch in diameter, or when lightly caked and the aggregate area exceeds the area of a circle 1 inch in diameter, or when unsightly, or when it detracts from the appearance of the fruit to a greater extent than the amount of discoloration allowed for the grade;

(l) Scars when not fairly smooth, or when causing any materially depressed areas, or when detracting from the appearance to a greater extent than the amount of discoloration allowed for the grade. Scars which are not fairly smooth, or which are materially depressed, are not permitted in either U.S. No. 2 or U.S. No. 2 Russet grades; and,

(m) Scab when not fairly smooth or when it materially detracts from the shape of the fruit, or when it detracts from the appearance to a greater extent than the maximum amount of discoloration allowed for the grade.

§ 51.1832 Reasonably well colored.

"Reasonably well colored" means that a good yellow or reddish tangerine color shall predominate over the green color on at least one-half of the fruit surface in the aggregate, and that each fruit shall show practically no lemon color.

§ 51.1833 Very serious damage.

"Very serious damage" means any specific defect described in this section or an equally objectionable variation of any one of these defects, any other defect, or any combination of defects, which very seriously detracts from the appearance, or the edible or shipping quality of the fruit. The following specific defects shall be considered as very serious damage:

(a) Ammoniation when scars are badly cracked, or when dark and the aggregate area exceeds the area of a circle 1 inch in diameter, or when light colored and it detracts from the appearance of the fruit to a greater extent than the area permitted for dark ammoniation;

(b) Creasing when causing the skin to be seriously weakened;

(c) Dryness or mushy condition when mushy or distinctly dry to a depth of more than one-fourth inch in all segments at the stem end, or the equivalent of this amount, by volume, of mushy condition or dryness when occurring in any portion of the fruit;

(d) Pitting when it very seriously detracts from the appearance or the shipping quality of the fruit;

(e) Scale when it very seriously detracts from the appearance of the fruit;

(f) Sprayburn when it very seriously detracts from the appearance of the fruit;

(g) Sunburn when it very seriously detracts from the appearance of the fruit;

(h) Unsightly discoloration when the fruit has a very objectionable appearance caused by any means. The color or the pattern of the discoloration, or a combination of both, or a combination of defects may cause the fruit to have a very unsightly appearance;

(i) Melanose when caked to the extent that the appearance of the fruit is very seriously affected;

(j) Scars when so deep, rough, or unsightly that the appearance of the fruit is very seriously injured; and,

(k) Scab when it causes the fruit to be very seriously injured.

§ 51.1834 Diameter.

"Diameter" means the greatest dimension measured at right angles to a line from stem to blossom end.

FEDERAL AVIATION AGENCY

[14 CFR Part 608]

[Airspace Docket No. 60-WA-176]

RESTRICTED AREAS

Modification

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to § 608.43 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Wilmington, Ohio, Restricted Area (R-109), is an area of 2,383 square miles located southeast of Dayton and southwest of Columbus, Ohio. Time of use is designated as continuous, and the designated altitude extends from the surface to unlimited. It is designated for the purpose of intensive instrument and experimental training, although actual operations therein consist primarily of research and development flight tests. The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration modification of the boundary of Restricted Area R-109 as follows: Beginning at latitude 39°30'00" N., longitude 83°02'00" W.; thence to latitude 38°48'30" N., longitude 83°02'00" W.; thence to latitude 38°58'30" N., longitude 84°05'00" W.; thence to latitude 39°15'45" N., longitude 84°05'00" W.; thence to latitude 39°30'00" N., longitude 83°47'00" W.; thence to point of beginning. This area would be divided by a line from west to east extending from latitude 39°12'30" N., longitude 84°05'00" W.; to latitude 39°08'20" N., longitude 83°02'00" W. The area south of this line would be designated as Restricted Area R-109 and would extend from the surface to Flight Level 600 during the period from 0800 to 2200 EST, Monday through Saturday. The area would encompass 1,098 square miles. The area north of this line would be designated as Restricted Area R-109A and would extend from 3,000 feet MSL to Flight Level 600 during the period from 0800 to 2200 EST, Monday through Saturday. The area would encompass 1,140 square miles. This reduction in size and modification of configuration of the Wilmington, Ohio, Restricted Area (R-109) is the result of a review of the requirements of Wright Air Development Center and other users of the airspace in the Dayton/Columbus/Wilmington area. It would result in a reduction of 145 square miles of reserved airspace and a reduction of approximately 58% in the time of use of the present restricted area. This would provide adequate protection for aircraft conducting flight test activities for Wright Air Development Center, Dayton, Ohio, and would furnish maximum availability of the area for use by other aircraft.

If these actions are taken, the Wilmington, Ohio, Restricted Areas (R-109) and (R-109A) would be designated as follows:

1. Wilmington, Ohio, Restricted Area (R-109) (Huntington Chart)

Description by geographical coordinates. Beginning at latitude 39°08' 20" N., longitude 83°02'00" W., thence to latitude 38°48'30" N., longitude 83°02'00" W., thence to latitude 38°58'30" N., longitude 84°05'00" W., thence to latitude 39°12'30" N., longitude 84°05'00" W., thence to the point of beginning.

Designated altitudes. Surface to Flight Level 600.

Time of designation. 0800 to 2200 EST, Monday through Saturday.

Controlling agency. Federal Aviation Agency, Indianapolis, Ind., Air Route Traffic Control Center.

2. Wilmington, Ohio, Restricted Area (R-109A) (Huntington Chart)

Description by geographical coordinates. Beginning at latitude 39°30'00" N., longitude 84°05'00" W.; thence to latitude 39°15'45" N., longitude 84°05'00" W.; thence to latitude 39°30'00" N., longitude 83°47'00" W.; thence to point of beginning. This area would be divided by a line from west to east extending from latitude 39°12'30" N., longitude 84°05'00" W.; to latitude 39°08'20" N., longitude 83°02'00" W. The area south of this line would be designated as Restricted Area R-109 and would extend from the surface to Flight Level 600 during the period from 0800 to 2200 EST, Monday through Saturday. The area would encompass 1,098 square miles. The area north of this line would be designated as Restricted Area R-109A and would extend from 3,000 feet MSL to Flight Level 600 during the period from 0800 to 2200 EST, Monday through Saturday. The area would encompass 1,140 square miles. This reduction in size and modification of configuration of the Wilmington, Ohio, Restricted Area (R-109) is the result of a review of the requirements of Wright Air Development Center and other users of the airspace in the Dayton/Columbus/Wilmington area. Controlling agency. Federal Aviation Agency, Indianapolis, Ind., Air Route Traffic Control Center.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Federal Building, New York International Airport, Jamaica 30, N.Y. All communications received within thirty days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) and 313(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354).

Issued in Washington, D.C., on July 7, 1960.

CHARLES W. CARMODY,
Chief, Airspace Utilization Division.

NATIONAL AUTOMOBILE TRANSPORTERS ASSN.

Petition for Declaratory Order

JULY 8, 1960.

Petition for declaratory order under section 5(d) of Administrative Procedure Act.

Petitioner: National Automobile Transporters Association, Suite 208, 1000 Connecticut Avenue, NW., Washington 6, D.C. and 2356 First National Building, Detroit 26, Mich. Petitioner's attorneys: Carney D. Matheson, George S. Dixon, and Walter N. Bieneman, 2150 Guardian Building, Detroit 26, Mich.

By petition dated June 27, 1960, petitioner states that it is a voluntary association of motor carriers, both common and contract, engaged under appropriate grants of authority by this Commission, in interstate or foreign commerce, in the transportation of motor vehicle traffic, namely, passenger automobiles, commercial vehicles and closely related wheeled commodities, throughout the Continental United States. Petitioner states that from the inception of Commission regulation of the motor carrier industry under Part II of the Act, all grants of authority covering the transportation of motor vehicle traffic, with but few exceptions, have contained restrictive or qualifying language limiting the authorized motor carrier service to "initial movements" or "secondary movements," or "subsequent movements," or both "initial and secondary or subsequent movements." The meaning of "initial movements" and "secondary or subsequent movements" is defined and explained in Administrative Ruling No. 75 issued July 15, 1938.

This petitioner seeks a ruling as to whether a motor carrier holding initial authority only from A to D may transport the said traffic to B, a non-service point intermediate to D, there load it on a rail flat car, for handling in trailer-on-flat-car or "piggy-back" service to C, another non-service point intermediate to D, where it would take possession of the shipment and move it to destination, without first obtaining specific authority either to serve B and C or to operate from C to D.

Petitioner prays that an order may be entered by the Commission: (a) Accepting this petition for filing; (b) ordering an investigation of this subject matter; (c) providing an opportunity for all interested parties to express their views and present evidence at an oral hearing; (d) providing for the issuance of a declaratory order interpreting Administrative Ruling 75 and the grants of authority issued pursuant thereto in conformity with the views of this Association; and (e) granting such other and further relief as may be deemed necessary or proper.

The above-entitled petition has been referred to Examiner William R. Tyers for hearing on the 27th day of July A.D. 1960, at 8:30 o'clock a.m. United States standard time, 9:30 o'clock a.m. District of Columbia daylight saving time, at the Offices of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D.C.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

[No. MC-C-2972]

ROCK ISLAND MOTOR TRANSIT CO. ET AL.

Petition for Declaratory Order

JULY 8, 1960.

Petition for a declaratory order for the determination of respondent's operating authority pursuant to the provisions of section 204, Interstate Commerce Act, part II.

Petitioners: The Rock Island Motor Transit Co., Des Moines, Iowa, and U. J. Haas and Cyril H. Wissel, doing business as H & W Motor Express Company, Dubuque, Iowa, and Burlington Truck Lines, Inc., Chicago, Ill. vs. Respondent: Watson Brothers Transportation Co., Inc., Omaha, Nebr. Petitioners attorneys: D. C. Nolan, 405 Iowa State Bank Building, Iowa City, Iowa, and James M. Adams, 796 South Pearl Street, Galesburg, Ill., and A. B. Howland and J. H. Martin, 500 Bankers Truck Building, Des Moines, Iowa.

By petition filed April 11, 1960, petitioners aver: Respondent, Watson Brothers Transportation Co., Inc., is now and has been, for sometime past, the exact length of time thereof these petitioners do not have exact knowledge, engaged in the transporting of general commodities between such Iowa points as Davenport, Bettendorf, and Riverdale, on the one hand, and Iowa City, Newton, Des Moines, Council Bluffs, and Sioux City, on the other, and between Sioux City, on the one hand, and Des Moines, Newton, Iowa City, Davenport, and Bettendorf, on the other; and between Council Bluffs on the one hand, and, Atlantic, Des Moines, Newton, Iowa City, Davenport, and Bettendorf, on the other, without having had issued to it certificates of authority by the Iowa State Commerce Commission for the performance of such interstate operations. These Petitioners are informed and believe and therefore allege the fact to be that said respondent, in the conducting of the aforesaid intrastate operations, between said Iowa points, have attempted a simulated interstate operation by either transporting such traffic from the aforesaid Iowa points across either the state line at Moline or Rock Island, Ill., or at Omaha, Nebr., and then carrying such traffic and freight back across the said state line into Iowa to the aforesaid Iowa points and places, or by billing such traffic via Rock Island or Moline, Ill., or Omaha, Nebr., in lieu of physically transporting the same in and out of the States of Illinois or Nebraska. Petitioners pray:

1. That the Interstate Commerce Commission find and determine, after notice and hearing, that the motor carrier operations being conducted by the Respondent between the points and places in Iowa, as set forth above, are not bona fide and are a subterfuge to escape the jurisdiction of the State of Iowa and the Iowa State Commerce Commission;

2. That the Commission find that the simulated interstate operations being conducted by the Respondent between the points and places in Iowa as set forth above are a wrongful use and an abuse of Respondent's Interstate Certificates;

3. That the Commission find that the Interstate Operating Certificates held by Respondent were not contemplated to nor do they authorize it to conduct the aforesaid operations between points solely within the State of Iowa by either moving said traffic over and back across the State line between Iowa and Illinois or between Iowa and Nebraska, or by billing the same from a point outside the State of Iowa;

4. That the Respondent be Ordered and Directed by the Commission to cease and desist from conducting the above-described operations solely within the State of Iowa and that upon failure of said Respondent to desist from such operations that its Interstate Certificates be cancelled, and for such other and further orders as may be found necessary in the premises. Any person or persons desiring to participate in this proceeding, may, within 30 days from the publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, file an appropriate pleading.

By the Commission.

No. MC 119517 (REPUBLICATION), filed February 17, 1960, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, issue of March 30, 1960. Applicant: GLENN B. PERKINSON, Wise, N.C. Applicant's attorney: John Kerr, Jr., Warrenton, N.C. By application, BMC 76, filed February 17, 1960, applicant sought to conduct operations as a contract carrier, over regular routes, from Norfolk, Va., to Wise and Warrenton, N.C. At the hearing held May 3, 1960, at Raleigh, N.C., before Examiner Robert R. Boyd, the evidence adduced revealed that the public convenience and necessity would require the services of applicant in a manner substantially different from the authority as sought in the application. Accordingly, the Examiner, in a Report served June 7, 1960, found that the present and future public convenience and necessity require operations by applicant as a common carrier, by motor vehicle, in interstate or foreign commerce, over irregular routes, of fertilizer, except in bulk, in tank vehicles, from Norfolk, Va., to points in Warren County, N.C. Any person or persons who may have been prejudiced by the allowance of the amendments to the application, may, within 30 days from the date of this republication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, file an appropriate pleading.

PETITION

Nos. MC 117330, MC 117330 (Sub No. 1), and MC 117330 (Sub No. 3), (PETITION TO REMOVE OR MODIFY RESTRICTIONS IN PERMITS), dated June 22, 1960. Petitioner: FLEMINGTON TRANSPORTATION, INCORPORATED, Flemington, N.J. Petitioner's representative: Bert Collins, 140 Cedar Street, New York 6, N.Y. Permit No. MC 117330, dated February 16, 1950, authorizes the transportation of stone, clay products, and fibre pipe, from points in certain named counties in Ohio, and certain counties in Pennsylvania, to New York, N.Y., and certain counties in New York, points in New Jersey, and certain counties in Connecticut; and brick and stone, on return. Permit No. MC 117330 (Sub No. 1), dated July 9, 1959, authorizes the transportation of brick, clay products, and stone, between points in a portion of Pennsylvania, on the one hand, and, on the other, New York, N.Y., and points in certain counties in New York, points in New Jersey, and certain counties in Connecticut. Permit No. MC 117330 (Sub No. 3), dated April 20, 1960, authorizes the transportation of refractory products (except clay products), insulation, cement and lime products, asphalt and asbestos products, lathe and building boards, from New York, N.Y., and points in certain counties in New York, points in New Jersey, and points in certain counties in Connecticut, to points in certain counties in Ohio, and certain counties in Pennsylvania, also brick and stone and clay products, from New York, N.Y., and certain counties in New York to points in New Jersey, and points in certain counties in Connecticut to points in Pennsylvania. All of the above Permits are subject to a restriction reading: The operations authorized herein are limited to a transportation service to be performed under a continuing contract, or contracts, with Merritt, Incorporated, of Flemington, N.J. By petition dated June 22, 1960, petitioner requests the Commission accept the petition for modification of the authority described in the outstanding permits and to exclude the restriction as to a named shipper or in the alternative impost a restriction as to a class of consignors or consignees which petitioner may serve in the form of a "Keystone" restriction, viz. under individual contracts or agreements with persons (as defined in section 203(a) of the Interstate Commerce Act) who are engaged in the production, distribution and utilization of stone, clay products, fibre pipe, brick refractory products, insulation, cement and lime products, asphalt and asbestos products, lathe and building board. Any person or persons desiring to oppose the relief sought, may, within 30 days from the date of this publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, file an appropriate pleading.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Commodity Credit Corporation

SALES OF CERTAIN COMMODITIES

July 1960 Monthly Sales List

Notice to buyers. Pursuant to the policy of Commodity Credit Corporation issued October 12, 1954 (19 F.R. 6669) and subject to the conditions stated therein, as well as herein, the commodities listed below are available for sale on the price basis set forth.

Principal changes in the list for July are dropping farmers stock peanuts from the sales list and shifting to 1960-crop price-support rates in setting minimum domestic sales prices for wheat, oats, barley, rye, and grain sorghums. Wheat sales price examples are based on the 1960-crop minimum support rates announced last summer. Any revision of 1960-crop wheat support rates as of July 1 will be reflected automatically in minimum domestic sales prices.

The CCC Monthly Sales List, which varies from month to month as additional commodities become available or commodities formerly available are dropped, is designed to aid in moving CCC's inventories into domestic or export use through regular commercial channels.

If it becomes necessary during the month to amend this list in any material way—such as by the removal or addition of a commodity in which there is general interest or by a significant change in price or method of sale—an announcement of the change will be sent to all persons currently receiving the list by mail from Washington. To be put on this mailing list, address: Director, Price Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, U.S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D.C.

All commodities (except oats) currently offered for sale by CCC, plus tobacco from CCC loan stocks, are eligible for export sale under the CCC Export Credit Sales Program. The following commodities are currently eligible for barter: Nonfat dry milk, cotton, tobacco, rice (milled), wheat, corn, barley, rye, and grain sorghums. This list is subject to change from time to time.

Interest rates per annum under the CCC Export Credit Sales Program for July 1960 are 4½ percent for periods up to six months, 5 percent for periods from over six and up to 18 months, and 5½ percent for periods from over 18 months up to a maximum of 36 months.

The CCC will entertain offers from responsible buyers for the purchase of any commodity on the current list. Offers accepted by CCC will be subject to the terms and conditions prescribed by the Corporation. These terms include payment by cash or irrevocable letter of credit before delivery of the commodity, and the conditions require removal of the commodity from CCC storage within a reasonable period of time. Where conditions of sale for export differ from those for domestic sale, proof of exportation is also required, and the buyer is responsible for obtaining any required

U.S. Government export permit or license. Purchases from CCC shall not constitute any assurance that any such permit or license will be granted by the issuing authority.

Announcements containing all terms and conditions of sale will be furnished upon request. For easy reference a number of these announcements are identified by code number in the following list. Interested persons are invited to communicate with the Commodity Stabilization Service, USDA, Washington 25, D.C., with respect to all commodities or—for specified commodities—with the designated CSS Commodity Office.

Commodity Credit Corporation reserves the right to amend, from time to time, any of its announcements. Such amendments shall be applicable to and be made a part of the sale contracts thereafter entered into.

CCC reserves the right to reject any or all offers placed with it for the purchase of commodities pursuant to such announcements.

If CCC does not have adequate information as to the financial responsibility of a prospective buyer to meet all contract obligations that might arise by acceptance of an offer or if CCC deems such buyer's financial responsibility to be inadequate CCC reserves the right (i) to refuse to consider the offer, (ii) to accept the offer only after submission by the buyer of a certified or cashier's check, bond, letter of credit or other security acceptable to CCC assuring that the buyer will discharge the responsibility under the contract, or (iii) to accept the offer upon condition that the buyer promptly submit to CCC such of the aforementioned security as CCC may direct. If a prospective buyer is in doubt as to whether CCC is acquainted with his financial responsibility he should communicate with the CSS office at which the offer is to be placed to determine whether a financial statement or advance financial arrangement will be necessary in his case.

Disposals and other handling of inventory items often result in small quantities at given locations or in qualities not up to specifications. These lots are offered promptly upon appearance by public notice issued by the appropriate CSS office and therefore generally they do not appear in the Monthly Sales List.

On sales for which the buyer is required to submit proof to CCC of exportation the buyer shall be regularly engaged in the business of buying or selling commodities and for this purpose shall maintain a bona fide business office in the United States, its territories or possessions, and have a person, principal, or resident agent upon whom service of judicial process may be had.

Prospective buyers for export should note that generally, sales to United States Government agencies, with only minor exceptions, will constitute a domestic unrestricted use of the commodity.

Commodity Credit Corporation reserves the right, before making any sale, to define or limit export areas.

Commodity	Sales price or method of sale
Dairy products	Sales are in carlots only in store at storage location of products. Submission of offers: For products in Arizona, California, Idaho, Nevada, Oregon, Utah, and Washington, submit offers to the Portland CSS Commodity Office. Bureau of Land Management

LOUISIANA

Notice of Proposed Withdrawal and Reservation of Land

JULY 7, 1960.

The Corps of Engineers, United States Army, New Orleans District, has filed an application for the withdrawal of the lands, hereafter described, from all forms of appropriation under the public land laws, including the United States Mining but not the Mineral Leasing Laws, subject to valid existing rights.

The applicant desires the land for use in connection with the improvement and maintenance of Southwest Pass of the Mississippi River, and the Bayou Bodcau Reservoir Project.

For a period of 30 days from the date of publication of this notice, persons having cause may present their objections in writing to the undersigned official of the Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior, Washington 25, D.C.

If circumstances warrant it, a hearing will be held at a convenient time and place, which will be announced.

The determination of the Secretary on the application will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. A separate notice will be sent to each interested party of record.

The lands involved are:

LOUISIANA MERIDIAN, LOUISIANA

T. 20 N., R. 11 W.,
Sec. 13, Lot 16, containing 40.80 acres.
T. 24 S., R. 30 E.,
Sec. 8, All Fr'l. containing 160 acres.

The area above described contains in the aggregate 200.80 acres.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[FCC 60-811]

STANDARD BROADCAST APPLICATIONS READY AND AVAILABLE FOR PROCESSING

JULY 8, 1960.

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to § 1.354(c) of the Commission rules, that on August 12, 1960, the standard broadcast applications listed below will be considered as ready and available for processing, and that pursuant to § 1.106

(c) (1) and § 1.361(b) of the Commission rules, an application, in order to be considered with any application appearing on the attached list, must be substantially complete and tendered for filing at the offices of the Commission in Washington, D.C., no later than (a) the close of business on August 12, 1960, or (b) if action is taken by the Commission on any listed application prior to August 13, 1960, no later than the close of business on the day preceding the date on which such action is taken, or (c) the day on which a conflicting application was "cut-off" because it was timely filed for consideration with an application on a previous such list.

(1) Applications listed below, and (2) any timely filed applications involving an engineering conflict therewith, must be amended by the close of business on August 12, 1960, to include the engineering showing required by the revision of Section V–A, FCC Form 301, adopted by the Commission on March 16, 1960, FCC 60–343; except that any such application, (1) and (2), on which a section 309(b) letter has been issued, prior to the adoption date of this notice, need not be amended to include the said showing. However, if the engineering in any such application is amended after issuance of a section 309(b) letter, the said showing must be submitted with the amendment.

Adopted: July 7, 1960.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. G-5471 etc.]

ALABAMA-TENNESSEE NATURAL GAS CO.

Notice of Postponement of Hearing

JULY 5, 1960.

Alabama-Tennessee Natural Gas Company, Docket Nos. G–5471, G–11983, G–17218 and G–19984.

Upon consideration of the request filed June 27, 1960, by Counsel for Alabama-Tennessee Natural Gas Company for postponement of the hearing now scheduled for July 12, 1960 in the above-designated matter;

The hearing now scheduled for July 12, 1960, is hereby postponed to July 13, 1960, at 10:00 a.m., in a hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D.C.

CONTINENTAL OIL CO. ET AL.

Order Providing for Hearings on and Suspension of Proposed Changes in Rate [1]

JULY 6, 1960.

Continental Oil Company, Docket No. RI60–457; and Delaney Oil Company (Operator), et al., Docket No. RI60–458.

On June 6, 1960, the above named respondents tendered for filing proposed rate schedule changes reflecting increases in price for natural gas sold to Tennessee Gas Transmission Company from the producing area of N. Government Wells Field, Duval County, Texas. The Notices of Change, each dated June 3, 1960, proposed an increase from 12.12268 cents to 17.24347 cents per Mcf at a pressure base of 14.65 psia. Continental's filing, designated Supplement No. 2 to its FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 142, succeeds a filing for proposed increase suspended in Docket No. RI60–53 until June 21, 1960, and made effective as of that date pursuant to Continental's motion to make effective filed May 23, 1960. Delaney's filing, designated Supplement No. 3 to its FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 1, succeeds a filing for proposed increase suspended in Docket No. G–20556 until June 7, 1960, or until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act. Delaney has not filed a motion to make the rate effective.

The proposed rate changes may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon hearings concerning the lawfulness of the several proposed changes, and that the above-designated supplements be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Ch. I), public hearings shall be held upon dates to be fixed by notices from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the several proposed changes in rates and charges contained in the above-designated supplements.

(B) Pending hearings and decisions thereon, each of the above-designated supplements is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until December 7, 1960, and thereafter until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Neither the supplements hereby suspended, nor the rate schedules sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until these proceedings have been disposed of, or until the periods of suspension have expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(D) Notices of intervention or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37(f)) on or before August 22, 1960.

By the Commission.

JOSEPH H. GUTRIDE,
Secretary.

[F.R. Doc. 60-6442; Filed, July 12, 1960; 8:45 a.m.]

[1] This order does not provide for the consolidation for hearing or disposition of the several matters covered herein, nor should it be so construed.

[Docket No. RI60–459]

LeCUNO OIL CORP.

Order for Hearing and Suspending Proposed Change in Rate and Allowing Increased Rate To Become Effective

JULY 6, 1960.

LeCuno Oil Corporation (LeCuno) on June 8, 1960, tendered for filing a proposed change in its presently effective rate schedule for sales of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. The proposed change, which constitutes an increased rate and charge, is contained in the following designated filing:

Description: Notice of change, undated.
Purchaser and Producing area: Mississippi River Fuel Corporation, Woodlawn Field, Harrison County, Texas.
Rate schedule designation: Supplement No. 12 to LeCuno's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 3.
Proposed increased rate: From 14.1344 cents to 14.6392 cents per Mcf at 14.65 psia.
Effective date: July 9, 1960 (stated effective date is that proposed by LeCuno).

In support of its proposed periodic rate increase, LeCuno states that the contract resulted from extensive arm's-length bargaining, that denial of the proposed increased rate would be discriminatory against the seller, that the increased price is necessary to provide a fair return on its investment and to encourage further exploration, and that, as such increase is justified, denial thereof would abrogate a solemn contract and would be confiscatory of seller's property without due process of law. In addition, LeCuno incorporated by reference cost data which it submitted on December 5, 1958, in support of a motion to terminate suspension proceedings in seven dockets which involve four of its rate schedules including the subject rate schedule.

The increased rate and charge so proposed may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds:

(1) It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of the said proposed change, and that Supplement No. 12 to LeCuno's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 3 be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

(2) It is appropriate in the public interest in carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that LeCuno's proposed increased rate be made effective as hereinafter provided and the LeCuno be required to file an undertaking as hereinafter ordered and conditioned.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR, Ch. I), a public hearing be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed increased rate and charge contained in Supplement No. 12 to LeCuno's FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 3.

(B) Pending such hearing and decision thereon, said supplement be and it is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until July 10, 1960, and until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Neither the supplement hereby suspended, nor the rate schedule sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(D) The above-designated supplement shall be made effective as of July 10, 1960: Provided, however, That within 20 days from the date of issuance of this order, LeCuno shall execute and file under Docket No. RI60–459 with the Secretary of the Commission its agreement and undertaking to comply with the refunding and reporting procedure required by the Natural Gas Act and § 154.102 of the regulations thereunder (prescribed by Order Nos. 215 and 215A). Such agreement and undertaking shall be filed by LeCuno, signed by a responsible officer thereof, and accompanied by proper authorization from the Board of Directors and by a certificate showing service of copies upon all purchasers under the rate schedule involved. Unless LeCuno is advised to the contrary within 15 days after the filing of such agreement and undertaking, its agreement and undertaking shall be deemed to have been accepted.

(E) Notices of intervention or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.97(f)) on or before August 25, 1960.

By the Commission (Commissioner Kline dissenting).

[Project No. 2277]

UNION ELECTRIC CO.

Notice of Application for License

JULY 6, 1960.

Public notice is hereby given that Union Electric Company, of St. Louis, Missouri, has filed application under the Federal Power Act (16 U.S.C. 791a–825r) for a license for proposed water-power Project No. 2277, to be known as the Taum Sauk Project and to be located in Reynolds, Iron, Washington, and St. Francois Counties, State of Missouri, and situated on the East Fork of the Black River at its confluence with Taum Sauk Creek. Jurisdiction over the proposed project is now pending in the Commission in the matter of Docket No. E–6927 (DI–212), filed February 1, 1960.

The proposed project would be a high-head pumped-storage project consisting of a concrete gravity dam with a gated sluice and non-gated spillway section, located on East Fork of Black River at the confluence of Taum Sauk Creek; a reservoir with a water surface elevation of 750 feet, usable storage of 4,000 acre-feet in 15 feet of drawdown and a surface area of 370 acres, known as the "lower pool"; the "upper pool" created by a rockfill concrete-faced dike with water surface at elevation 1625 feet, storage of 4,000 acre-feet in 110 feet of drawdown, and an area of 32 acres, located on top of an adjoining mountain; a tunnel and penstock, leading to a powerhouse located on an open channel leading to the "lower pool", containing two reversible pump-units, each having a generating capacity of 175,000 kilowatts; two 138 kv transmission lines extending to the applicant's Rivermines Substation; step-up transformers and switchyard; and appurtenant electrical and mechanical facilities. The pump-units would be operated as generators during daylight peaking operations and as pumps during the night while pumping water from the lower to the upper pool. According to the application, the project would be operated as a peak load plant, and the energy would be distributed and sold by the Applicant for public utility purposes.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure of the Commission (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10). The last day on which protests or petitions may be filed is August 11, 1960. The application is on file with the Commission for public inspection.

JOSEPH H. GUTRIDE,
Secretary.

[Docket No. CP60-44]

AMERICAN LOUISIANA PIPE LINE CO. AND TEXAS GAS TRANSMISSION CORP.

Notice of Application and Date of Hearing

JULY 7, 1960.

Take notice that on February 25, 1960, American Louisiana Pipe Line Company (American Louisiana), a Delaware corporation with a principal office in Detroit, Michigan, and Texas Gas Transmission Corporation (Texas Gas), a Delaware corporation with a principal office in Owensboro, Kentucky, filed in Docket No. CP60–44 a joint application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing the exchange of natural gas through existing and a proposed new interconnection between the facilities of American Louisiana and Texas Gas at the points hereinafter described and as more fully described in the application mentioned above.

Installed interconnections and proposed interconnection:

1. Where American Louisiana's pipeline interconnects with the 26-inch line of Texas Gas near Slaughters, in Webster County, Kentucky.

2. Where American Louisiana's pipeline interconnects with the 26-inch line of Texas Gas in Acadia Parish, Louisiana.

3. Where American Louisiana's pipeline interconnects with the 10-inch line of Texas Gas in Cameron Parish, Louisiana.

4. A proposed new interconnection between American Louisiana's pipeline and the 16-inch line of Texas Gas near Bedford, in Lawrence County, Indiana.

It is estimated that the facilities which Texas Gas proposes to construct will cost approximately $7,000. American Louisiana's tie-in facilities will cost approximately $3,800. Both will be financed by the respective companies from cash on hand.

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on August 4, 1960, at 9:30 a.m., e.d.s.t., in a hearing room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D.C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such joint application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a noncontested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30(c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicants to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before August 1, 1960. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

MICHAEL J. FARRELL,
Acting Secretary.

[Docket Nos. CP60-32, CP60-52]

CITIES SERVICE GAS CO.

Notice of Applications and Date of Hearing

JULY 5, 1960.

Take notice that Cities Service Gas Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation, having an office in Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, filed on February 9, 1960, in Docket No. CP60–32, an application and on March 23, 1960, and April 11, 1960, supplements thereto for a certificate of public convenience and necessity, under section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing the construction and operation of certain additional facilities, as hereinafter described, for the purpose of meeting the estimated peak day demands of Applicant's existing customers for the heating seasons of 1961–1962 and 1962–1963, and, in part, for the purpose of meeting Applicant's contractual commitments to purchase gas in the Barber County, Kansas area. The application is intended to cover not only the bulk of Applicant's contemplated 1960 construction program, but is also intended to cover substantial construction in the years 1961 and 1962. The application also requests an order approving abandonment of certain facilities, as hereinafter described, under section 7(b) of the Natural Gas Act.

The facilities proposed to be constructed and operated and the facilities proposed to be abandoned are more particularly described as follows:

ALDEN STORAGE PROJECT

(a) In 1960, acquire approximately 2,880 acres, develop, and operate an underground gas storage field, plug and abandon old wells, drill, equip, and connect approximately 12 new storage wells located in Sections 21, 22, 27, and 28, Township 21 South, Range 9 West, Rice County, Kansas.

(b) In 1960, construct a gas gathering system for the Alden Storage Field aggregating 1 mile 6", .5 mile 8", and .5 mile 10" pipelines.

(c) In 1960, construct 12.85 miles of 16" line from Section 22, Township 21 South, Range 9 West, in the Alden Storage Field, thence in a Northeasterly direction to Applicant's existing Lyons Compressor Station located in Section 5, Township 19 South, Range 8 West, Rice County, Kansas.

(d) In 1960, construct 10.1 miles of 16" line from the end of Applicant's present 12" in the Northwest Quarter (NW¼) of Section 12, Township 21 South, Range 7 West, thence in a Northwesterly direction to Section 14, Township 20 South, Range 8 West, thence North to Applicant's Lyons Compressor Station. Reclaim 9.33 miles of the present 8" line beginning at said end of present 12", thence Northwesterly to the Northwest Quarter (NW¼) of Section 11, Township 20 South, Range 8 West, all in Rice County, Kansas.

(e) In 1961, construct a 1,350 horsepower addition to Applicant's Lyons Compressor Station and replace present station piping with high pressure pipe and related fittings.

(f) In 1961, construct a semi-automatic glycol dehydration plant with a capacity of approximately 75,000 Mcf per day at Applicant's Lyons Compressor Station.

INCREASE CAPACITY KANSAS-HUGOTON 26"

(a) In 1960, construct a 3,600 horsepower compressor station near Montezuma, Kansas, located in the Northwest Quarter (NW¼) of Section 25, Township 28 South, Range 29 West, Gray County, Kansas. Also construct an 1,800 horsepower addition to this station in 1961.

(b) In 1960, construct a 3,600 horsepower compressor station near Stafford, Kansas, located in the Northwest Quarter (NW¼) Section 19, Township 25 South, Range 11 West, Stafford County, Kansas; and construct an 1,800 horsepower addition to this station in 1961.

(c) In 1960, install turbocharging equipment on one existing 1,350 horsepower unit thus increasing the rating of this engine to 1,800 horsepower at Applicant's existing Ulysses Compressor Station located in the Southwest Quarter (SW¼) Section 28, Township 28 South, Range 38 West, Grant County, Kansas. Also construct an 1,800 horsepower addition in 1961.

(d) In 1960, install turbocharging equipment to the present 1,350 horsepower unit to increase the rating to 1,800 horsepower at Applicant's Sublette Compressor Station, located in the Northeast Quarter (NE¼) of Section 2, Township 29 South, Range 33 West, Haskell County, Kansas. Also construct a 1,350 horsepower addition to this station in 1962.

(e) Construct an 1,800 horsepower addition to Applicant's Hugoton Compressor Station, located in the Northeast Quarter (NE¼) of Section 3, Township 29 South, Range 35 West, Grant County, Kansas in 1961.

(f) In 1961, construct a new compressor station of 800 horsepower to compress the gas received from United Producing Company, located approximately in the Southeast Quarter (SE¼) of Section 27, Township 29 South, Range 35 West, Grant County, Kansas.

(g) In 1961, loop Applicant's existing 26" pipeline with 2.7 miles of 26" pipeline on the discharge side of the proposed Montezuma Station extending from the proposed station in the Northwest Quarter (NW¼), Section 25, Township 29 South, Range 29 West, thence East, paralleling the present 26" line to the Northeast Quarter (NE¼) Section 29, Township 29 South, Range 28 West, all in Gray County, Kansas.

(h) In 1961, construct an 1,800 horsepower addition and turbocharge the present 6–1100 horsepower units to a rating of 1,350 horsepower each, at Applicant's Hesston Compressor Station located in Southwest Quarter (SW¼) of Section 8, Township 22 South, Range 1 West, Harvey County, Kansas.

(i) In 1961, construct a 5,400 horsepower compressor station near the town of Americus, Kansas, located in the Northwest Quarter (NW¼) of Section 23, Township 18 South, Range 10 East, Lyon County, Kansas. Also construct an 1,800 horsepower addition to this station in 1962.

ALVA COMPRESSOR STATION

(a) In 1960, construct an 1,800 horsepower addition to Applicant's Alva Compressor Station, located in the Northeast Quarter (NE¼), Section 36, Township 28 North, Range 14 West, Woods County, Oklahoma.

Applicant alleges that to inject gas into Alden Storage to the full capacity of said field is a two year project.

Applicant alleges that although the demands of its existing customers are steadily increasing, its supply of gas is steadily decreasing in certain areas, namely, the fields which supply its Oklahoma Hugoton-Blackwell 26-inch line, the Pampa (Panhandle)-Alva 20-inch line and the area south of Blackwell, as well as other miscellaneous small fields. Applicant alleges that by reason of the utilization of the Alden Storage Field, together with the increase in capacity of the Kansas-Hugoton 26-inch line, it will have increased the peak day deliverability of gas from the Kansas Hugoton Field by approximately 145,000 Mcf of gas per day, which is required to serve the peak day requirements of the customers for the heating season 1962–1963. Applicant proposes to complete necessary construction in order that Alden Storage might be partially filled with gas during the warm months of 1960 and 1961. Applicant estimates that it can utilize from Alden Storage on the peak day of 1961–1962 approximately 35,000 Mcf of gas, which will be utilized to serve partially the requirements of Applicant's existing customers on its Hutchinson-Superior lateral, thereby displacing that same quantity of gas for transmission to Applicant's eastern markets, mainly in the Kansas City area.

Applicant estimates that with only its present facilities it would have to curtail some of the firm demands of its customers on the 1962–1963 peak day by approximately 17,500 Mcf, and on the 1963–1964 peak day by 94,877 Mcf.

Applicant alleges that the proposed additional horsepower at the Alva Compressor Station will so reduce the pressures on Applicant's gathering facilities that its contractual commitments in the Barber County area can be met.

Applicant's presently controlled gas supply is summarized by principal sources in the following table (Exhibit X–1, p. 1):

ESTIMATED RECOVERABLE RESERVES, DEC. 31, 1959

Field	MMcf at 14.73 psia
1. Kansas-Hugoton	4,991,932
2. Oklahoma Hugoton	1,495,364
3. Other Fields on Hugoton Blackwell 26-inch	375,986
4. Pampa-Alva 20-inch	974,754
5. South of Blackwell	516,655
6. Miscellaneous small fields	13,625
	8,367,485

Some increased annual requirements are proposed to be served from new sources of supply yet to be controlled.

Applicant estimates the total capital cost of the facilities proposed in Docket No. CP60–32 as follows:

Year	Alden storage project	Hugoton-Kansas City 26-inch line	Alva station	Yearly total
1960	$1,778,800	$2,661,000	$445,000	$4,784,800
1961	730,000	4,167,000		4,897,000
1963		821,000		821,000
Total	[1]2,508,800	7,639,000	445,000	10,492,800

[1] Does not include cost of cushion gas, estimated in a supplement to be $1,075,117 excluding native gas.

These costs reflect cost of removal and salvage credit for facilities to be abandoned.

Applicant proposes to pay for said construction out of treasury cash.

Take further notice that Cities Service Gas Company (Applicant in Docket No. CP60–52) filed on March 7, 1960, an application, pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing it to construct and operate certain transmission facilities, as hereinafter described, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission.

Applicant proposes to construct and operate approximately 9.25 miles of 16-inch pipeline extending from a point of connection with Applicant's existing 16-inch pipeline near the Northwest corner of section 17, Township 26 South, Range 1 East Sedgwick County, Kansas in a westerly direction to the proposed electric generating plant of Kansas Gas and Electric Company near the Northeast corner of Section 15, Township 26 South, Range 2 West, all in Sedgwick County, Kansas, together with pertinent meter and regulator facilities.

The purpose of the proposed facilities is to enable Applicant to serve directly on an interruptible basis the gas requirements of the proposed Gordon Evans Electric Generating Plant of Kansas Gas and Electric Company, an existing customer of Applicant. The gas is to be used as boiler fuel in the plant. Applicant alleges that the use of gas as boiler fuel as compared with the use of fuel oil will result in substantial savings in costs to Kansas Gas and Electric Company.

Applicant estimates sales to the Evans plant in Mcf as follows:

Year	Annual		Maximum daily deliveries
	Estimated requirements	Estimated volumes to be sold (90%)
1961	4,230,053	3,807,049	40,504
1962	8,225,612	7,403,052	40,504
1963	9,248,559	8,323,705	40,504
1964	12,380,640	11,142,581	51,035

The gas supply available to Applicant to meet the requirements of the Evans plant is the same as that shown in its application in Docket No. CP60-32.

The total cost of the construction proposed in Docket CP60-52 is $400,000, which will be paid from treasury cash.

The applications in both of said dockets are on file with the Commission and open for public inspection.

These related matters should be heard on a consolidated record and disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on September 7, 1960, at 10:00 a.m., e.d.s.t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D.C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such applications.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before August 19, 1960.

GRARIDGE CORP. ET AL.

JULY 7, 1960.

Graridge Corporation (Operator), et al., Docket No. RI60-460; Joseph S. Gruss, Docket No. RI60-461; Hanley Company (Operator), et al., Docket No. RI60-462; Hunt Oil Company, Docket No. RI60-463; Frederic C. & Ferris F. The above-named Respondents have tendered for filing proposed changes in presently effective rate schedules for sales of natural gas subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission. In each filing, the natural gas is sold at 14.65 psia, with the exception of Graridge Corporation (Operator), et al., which is sold at 15.025 psia. The proposed changes are designated as follows:

[1] The stated effective date is the effective date proposed by respondent or the first day after expiration of the required thirty days' notice.
[2] Or the day dehydration begins, whichever date is later.
[3] Also subject to order in Docket No. G-19071.
[4] The filing was completed on June 17, 1960.
[5] Includes 0.4467 cents per Mcf for compression charged by buyer.
[6] Or until the day after dehydration begins, whichever date is later.

Graridge Corporation (Operator), et al., submitted a proposed increased rate, which reflects its election to dehydrate the gas prior to delivery into buyer's pipeline. The proposed increased rate includes reimbursement of the Louisiana severance tax of questionable amount. When the subject increased rate is made effective pursuant to the Natural Gas Act, only the tax portion of the rate will be subject to refund.

In support of their proposed renegotiated rate increases, Joseph S. Gruss and Leland Davison, et al. submit copies of the renegotiated agreements and state that such agreements resulted from arm's-length negotiation and the increased price was a major consideration to sellers in surrendering their rights under the favored-nation clauses. They further state that the increased price is fair and does not exceed the value of gas in the area.

In support of its favored-nation rate increases, Texaco, Inc. cites its contract favored-nation clauses and the renegotiated increased rates and states that the contract resulted from bargaining at arm's length and the increased rates are needed to encourage exploration and offset increasing costs. Texaco also cites U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics reports showing increases in wages and wholesale prices.

In support of its proposed revenue-sharing rate increase, Hanley Company (Operator), et al. cites the contract revenue-sharing provisions and West Lake Natural Gasoline Company's increased 17.0 cents per Mcf resale rate to El Paso Natural Gas Company, which is in effect subject to refund in Docket No. RI60-30, and cites a letter from West Lake advising as to the increased 8.5 cents per Mcf price. Hanley further states that the increased price is necessary to offset increasing costs and provide a reasonable rate of return on investment. Hanley requests waiver of notice requirements to allow its proposed increased rate to become effective as of June 23, 1960, the date West Lake's increased rate to El Paso became effective subject to refund in Docket No. RI60-30.

Hunt Oil Company and Frederic C. and Ferris F. Hamilton, d/b/a Hamilton Brothers, Ltd., propose renegotiated rate increases for sales of natural gas to Northern Natural Gas Company. The subject increases are provided by amendatory agreements wherein buyer agrees to increase the price by 1.0 cent per Mcf in consideration of sellers' relinquishing their rights to construct plants and process the gas for removal of liquid hydrocarbons. Hunt and Hamilton claim the proposed changes do not change the rates of charges made for natural gas sold to Northern, since they involve the compensation for liquid hydrocarbons. Hunt and Hamilton have not submitted the required material for rate changes and offer no support.

In support of its proposed favored-nation rate increase, Woodward & Company cites the contract favored-nation provisions and submits copies of Tennessee Gas Transmission Company's letter establishing the increased rate.

The proposed changes may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon hearings concerning the lawfulness of the several proposed changes and that the above-designated supplements be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Ch. I), public hearings shall be held upon dates to be fixed by notices from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the several proposed increased rates and charges contained in the above-designated supplements.

(B) Pending hearings and decisions thereon, each of the above-designated supplements is hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until the date specified in the above-designated "Rate Suspended Until" column and thereafter until such further time as it is made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Neither the rate schedules nor the supplements thereto involved in the above-proposed changes shall be changed until the periods of suspension have expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(D) Notices of intervention or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37(f)) on or before August 22, 1960.

By the Commission.

MICHAEL J. FARRELL,
Acting Secretary.

[1] This order does not provide for the consolidation for hearing or disposition of the several matters covered herein, nor should it be so construed.

[Docket No. G-13875]

NORTHERN NATURAL GAS CO.

Notice of Amendments to Application

JULY 7, 1960.

Take notice that Northern Natural Gas Company (Northern), a Delaware corporation with principal place of business at 2223 Dodge Street, Omaha 1, Nebraska, filed on February 12, 1959, July 6, 1959, and May 6, 1960, amendments to its application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity previously filed on December 10, 1957, pursuant to section 7(c) of the Natural Gas Act, authorizing Northern to construct and operate natural-gas facilities in connection with testing the Mt. Simon formation of the Redfield Storage Field. Notice of the original application filed December 10, 1957, as amended June 2, 1958, was issued July 16, 1958, and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on July 22, 1958 (23 F.R. 5554-5).

On July 10, 1958, Northern was granted temporary authority to construct and operate a 2,000-horsepower compressor station at Redfield, Iowa, to permit testing of the Mt. Simon formation of the Redfield Storage Field, subject to the condition that the "* * * maximum inventory of natural gas in the Mt. Simon formation to be tested for storage purposes shall be eight billion cubic feet". By letters dated April 14, 1959, and July 31, 1959, Northern's temporary certificate was amended to increase the maximum inventory of natural gas authorized for storage in the Mt. Simon formation to 15 and 25 billion cubic feet, respectively.

Northern's amended application filed May 6, 1960, requests authority to increase the gas storage inventory in the Mt. Simon formation from the present level of 25 billion cubic feet to a level of 45 billion cubic feet and to install and operate an additional 2,000-horsepower compressor unit at the Redfield Compressor Station. The amended application states that the additional facilities and increased maximum inventory are necessary to permit the large-scale testing "* * * required before placing the Mt. Simon on a permanent operating basis". Northern states that during 1960 drilling activities for the Mt. Simon reservoir were concluded and that no further drilling is planned. According to the amended application there are now 27 withdrawal wells and 8 observation wells bottomed in the Mt. Simon formation.

Northern avers that the authority requested will enable it to inject during this summer and early fall up to 140,000 Mcf of gas per day and to increase the volume of gas in the Mt. Simon to a level slightly below 45 billion cubic feet by the beginning of the 1960-61 heating season. With a gas storage inventory of about 45 billion cubic feet, Northern states that it will be able to "* * * conduct withdrawal tests during the 1960-61 heating season on a basis which will yield definitive test data respecting the production capabilities of the Mt. Simon reservoir".

Exhibit G attached to the application shows that the total estimated cost of the facilities for which authorization is sought in the amended application is $398,500, such expenditure being in addition to the revised estimated total cost of facilities, previously given as $1,866,000 in the amended application filed June 2, 1958.

Protests or petitions to intervene with respect to the amended application heretofore described may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before July 26, 1960.

[Docket No. G-19083]

TENNESSEE GAS TRANSMISSION CO.

Order Extending Time for Filing Briefs and Postponing Oral Argument

JULY 6, 1960.

By order issued June 17, 1960 the Commission, among other things, provided for briefs to be filed on or before July 15, 1960 and oral argument to be heard July 21, 1960 on the issue of rate of return. On June 23, 1960 Counsel for Tennessee Gas Transmission Company filed a request for extension of time for filing briefs and for postponement of the oral argument.

The Commission finds:

(1) It is not appropriate in the public interest to grant the extension as requested and to postpone the oral argument for more than a month as requested.

(2) An extension of one week for filing briefs and for hearing oral argument as hereinafter provided would be appropriate.

The Commission orders:

(A) Main briefs on the issue of the proper rate of return for Tennessee Gas Transmission Company shall be filed and served by all parties who desire to do so, on or before July 22, 1960.

(B) Oral argument before the Commission shall be heard on July 29, 1960 at 10:00 a.m. in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D.C.

(C) The provisions of the order issued June 17, 1960, except as hereinabove modified, shall remain in full force and effect.

By the Commission.

Federal Maritime Board

OCEAN STEAM SHIP CO., LTD., ET AL.

Notice of Agreements Filed for Approval

Notice is hereby given that the following described agreements have been filed with the Board for approval pursuant to section 15 of the Shipping Act, 1916 (39 Stat. 733, 46 U.S.C. 814):

(1) Agreement No. 7568–2, between The Ocean Steam Ship Company, Ltd., The China Mutual Steam Navigation Co., Ltd., and Nederlandsche Stoomvaart Maatschappij "Oceaan", modifies approved joint service Agreement No. 7568, as amended, which covers the trades between ports of the United States and Hawaiian Islands (not including transportation within the purview of the Coastwise Laws of the United States) and ports in British North America, West Indies, Central America, South America, Africa, Asia, Japan, Australasia, Philippine Islands, Europe and all ports in islands or groups of islands adjacent thereto. This modification provides for (1) the elimination of Nederlandsche Stoomvaart Maatschappij "Oceaan" as a joint service party, and (2) for reapportionment as between the parties of the expenses in connection with the participation of the joint service in conferences.

(2) Agreement No. 8501, between Weaver Bros., Inc., and Puget Sound-Alaska Van Lines, Inc., covers a through billing arrangement on cargo between Seattle, Washington, and places in the interior of Alaska, with transshipment at Seward, Alaska. Agreement No. 8501, upon approval, will supersede and cancel approved Agreement No. 8447, between the same parties.

Interested parties may inspect these agreements and obtain copies thereof at the Office of Regulations, Federal Maritime Board, Washington, D.C., and may submit, within 20 days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, written statements with reference to either of the agreements and their position as to approval, disapproval, or modification, together with request for hearing should such hearing be desired.

Dated: July 8, 1960.

By order of the Federal Maritime Board.

Title 14—AERONAUTICS AND SPACE

Chapter II—Civil Aeronautics Board

SUBCHAPTER A—ECONOMIC REGULATIONS

[Reg. No. ER–308]

PART 241—UNIFORM SYSTEM OF ACCOUNTS AND REPORTS FOR CERTIFICATED AIR CARRIERS

Mutual Aid Payments and Reports on Interruptions in Air Transport Operations

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D.C., on the 7th day of July 1960.

At the present time, Part 241 of the Board's Economic Regulations, entitled "Uniform System of Accounts and Reports for Certificated Air Carriers," contains no instructions on (1) the accounting treatment to be accorded receipts or expenditures under the mutual aid agreement applicable to work stoppages due to strikes, between six carriers, which was approved, subject to modifications, by Board Order E–13899, dated May 20, 1959 (C.A.B. Agreement No. 12633) or (2) the reporting of substantial work stoppages.

As to the accounting treatment to be accorded receipts or expenditures under mutal aid agreements, the Board finds that regulation is needed regardless of Board action on the pending request for renewal of its approval set forth in Board Order E–13899, dated May 20, 1959 (C.A.B. Agreement No. 12633), and the Board's adoption of this regulation in no wise prejudges its action on such request.

As to the reporting of substantial work stoppages, it is apparent that the closing down of operations, regardless of the cause, if of any significant duration, has a substantial impact on operating results. In order to disclose the resulting distortion in income, it appears desirable to the Board to amend the reporting requirements to provide for the submission of information concerning the degree of interruption in service, the period of interruption and the cause of the interruption.

In view of the above, the Board issued a notice of proposed rule making, Docket No. 11148, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on February 20, 1960 (25 F.R. 1527), in which it proposed an amendment to Part 241 of the Economic Regulations to provide instructions to carriers on the accounting treatment of receipts and expenditures relating to mutual assistance agreements in the event of strikes. The amendment would also require reports on all substantial interruptions of operations irrespective of whether or not such interruptions are related to mutual aid agreements.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of this rule, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented. Comments were received from three air carriers. One air carrier favored the amendment as proposed. Of the other two carriers, one questioned the scope of the reporting requirement, feeling it should be limited only to work stoppages covered by mutual aid agreements. The Board finds that there is need for a report to be made whenever operations are substantially interrupted, whether or not such work stoppages are covered by such agreements. Interruptions to be reported must affect at least ten percent of the scheduled operations for any given month. It is believed that such interruptions, regardless of their cause, have a significant effect on operating results and should therefore be reported.

The third carrier objected to the proposed accounting classification "4600 Incidental Revenues—Net" for recording the receipts and expenditures under mutual assistance agreements and suggested instead the use of account classification "8100 Nonoperating Income and Expense—Net." The account classification to be used for receipts and expenditures under mutual aid agreements was fully analyzed prior to release of the notice of proposed rule making, and, in view of this objection, has again been thoroughly reviewed. The Board feels that account classification "4600 Incidental Revenues—Net," as originally proposed, offers the most suitable classification in which to record these items. Classification of the receipts and payments as nonoperating items would have a distortive effect on the relationship between revenues and expenses of individual air carriers, while under the proposed classification the receipts of an individual carrier would offset the continuing expenses of that carrier during the strike, and the payments to others would offset the extra traffic carried during the strike. This treatment would preserve the integrity of the classification "3900 Transport Revenues" and at the same time disclose at the total operating revenue level the amount of revenue actually received for the period.

In consideration of the foregoing, the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby amends Part 241 of the Economic Regulations (14 CFR Part 241) effective September 1, 1960, as follows:

1. By redesignating paragraphs (b) and (c) of § 241.12–18 Other incidental revenues as (c) and (d), respectively, and adding a new paragraph (b) to read as follows:

(b) This account shall include receipts and payments under agreements with other air carriers providing for mutual financial assistance in the case of work stoppages.

2. By adding a new paragraph (d) to § 241.24 Schedule P–2 to read as follows:

(d) Each air carrier shall include on this schedule a description of each interruption in air transport operations, the aggregate effect of which is ten (10) percent or more of the scheduled revenue plane-miles which, except for the interruption, would have been operated during the month or either of two consecutive months affected. The information to be reported for each such interruption in operations shall consist of: (1) For the report period in which partial or complete interruption first occurs, the nature of the interruption and dates of partial and/or complete cessation of operations, as applicable; (2) for each report period until full resumption of operations, an estimate of the revenue plane-miles canceled in each month of the quarter because of the interruption; and (3) for the report period in which scheduled operations are resumed, dates of partial and/or complete resumption, as applicable.

3. By redesignating paragraphs (d) through (j) of § 241.24 Schedule P–4 as (e) through (k), respectively, and adding a new paragraph (d) to read as follows:

(d) Receipts from and payments to other air carriers under agreements providing for mutual financial assistance in the case of work stoppage shall be identified in separate amounts for the individual air carriers involved, through appropriate footnote on Schedule P–2 and shall be cross-referenced to account "18 Other Incidental Revenues" reflected in this schedule. The note covering payments under such agreements shall identify the items and the amounts of the gross revenues and gross expenses upon which the payments to each air carrier are predicated.

NOTE: The reporting requirements contained herein have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

[Reg. No. ER–309]

PART 289—EXEMPTING CERTIFICATED ROUTE AIR CARRIERS FROM FILING CERTAIN AGREEMENTS

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D.C., on the 8th day of July 1960.

Section 412(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 requires air carriers which are parties to certain contracts or agreements affecting air transportation to file copies thereof with the Board.

Experience has shown that many of the agreements filed are of such a routine nature that their review by the Board accomplishes little toward the effective regulation of the air carriers. Accordingly, the Board, in a notice of proposed rule making (EDR-9, dated January 27, 1960, Docket 11107) proposed that the certificated route air carriers be exempted from the filing requirements with respect to any agreement between any two certificated route air carriers or between one certificated route air carrier and one foreign air carrier which, by its terms, provides only for the furnishing of facilities, ground equipment, services or building and ground space except when: (a) Such agreement is between "affiliated" carriers as that term is defined in Part 261; (b) such agreement provides for specific fees or charges that in the aggregate exceed $20,000 per year; or (c) such agreement amends an existing agreement which itself would be ineligible for exemption under this part. The proposal stated that multilateral agreements were not to come within the scope of the proposed exemption and that the regulation would not apply to supplemental air carriers, irregular air carriers, air taxi operators or indirect air carriers. It added, moreover, that no antitrust immunity would be conferred on parties to agreements not filed and that the carriers are expected to continue to file agreements of any antitrust significance.

Interested persons have been afforded opportunity to participate in the formulation of this regulation and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented. Comments regarding the proposal were received from five certificated route air carriers. Though all favor adoption of such a regulation, four submitted suggestions which call for further clarification of the initial proposal and an expansion of the proposed exemption authority.

Upon review of the comments received, the Board has found that a clarification of the terms "services" and "facilities" is necessary in order to clearly define the precise scope of the proposed exemption. In its explanatory statement accompanying the notice of proposed rule making, the Board stated that initially the exemption should be limited and that any expansion thereof should be based on experience. Though the intent of the proposed rule was to limit the exempted agreements to those involving ground facilities and ground services, as opposed to flight and traffic services, the proposed rule did not modify the terms "facilities" and "services." This question is resolved in the final rule with the insertion of the word "ground" before the terms "facilities" and "services." The grant of an exemption will be limited to agreements involving ground facilities and ground services and does not include agreements involving flight and traffic matters such as reservations and ticketing. Thus, in answer to specific problems raised in industry comments, "services" encompassing the lease of an aircraft would not be exempt. Likewise, interline or joint traffic arrangements such as those concerned with reservations, ticketing, agency, sales or solicitation (passenger or cargo), freight pick-up and delivery, and joint sales facilities would still have to be filed with the Board.

In response to a further suggestion, the Board agrees that agreements which only provide for a unit charge (per gallon, per hour, etc.), leaving the total annual charge dependent upon the quantity of service actually provided, be exempt so long as it is anticipated at the time the agreement is executed that the annual charge will not exceed the dollar limitation established by the regulation. It seems logical to the Board to exempt such agreements where it is in fact not known what amount of the particular commodity or service might be used during any twelve-month period, and where the participants, in good faith, do not expect the aggregate charge to exceed the dollar limitation established by the regulation. The suggestion is therefore reflected in the regulation. However, the regulation adds that, should the annual charge exceed the dollar limitation at any time during any twelve-month period, the carriers are to (1) report promptly the total amount paid and (2) file the agreement with the Board under section 412 upon request by the Director of the Board's Bureau of Air Operations.

The Board, upon considering the possibility of extending this regulation to include agreements among three or more carriers, believes it is not advisable to so expand the exemption at this time. Multilateral agreements have on occasion required more than routine attention by the staff and the Board, and are more likely to involve antitrust considerations.

In view of the limited scope of the exemptions herein provided and the fact that no immunity is conferred on such agreements under section 414, the Board finds that a suggested increase of the dollar limitation will not be adverse to the public interest. Consequently, the originally proposed $20,000 limit has been increased to $50,000.

Finally, a statement has been added to § 289.2 that the exemption granted by this part does not apply to agreements violative of the "antitrust laws," as that term is defined in section 1 of the Clayton Act.

The Board finds that enforcement of section 412(a) of the Act insofar as it would require the certificated route air carriers to file the agreements described in § 289.2 would be an undue burden on such air carriers by reason of the limited extent of, or unusual circumstances affecting, their operations and is not in the public interest.

In consideration of the foregoing, the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby amends the Economic Regulations (14 CFR Ch. II) effective August 12, 1960, by adding thereto a new Part 289, to read as follows:

Sec.
289.1 Definition.
289.2 Agreements which need not be filed.
289.3 Effect of exemption.

AUTHORITY: §§ 289.1 to 289.3 inclusive, issued under sec. 204(a), 416, 72 Stat. 743, 771; 49 U.S.C. 1324, 1386.

§ 289.1 Definition.

For the purpose of this part:

(a) "Certificated route air carrier" means any air carrier which holds a certificate of public convenience and necessity issued under section 401 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 authorizing unlimited regularly scheduled route service between specified points or, in case of foreign air transportation, along a general route or routes, designated in the certificate.

§ 289.2 Agreements which need not be filed.

Certificated route air carriers shall be exempt from the provisions of section 412(a) of the Federal Aviation Act with respect to any agreement between two such air carriers, or between such an air carrier and a foreign air carrier, which, by its terms, provides only for the furnishing of ground facilities, ground equipment, ground services or building or ground space, except when:

(a) Such agreement is between carriers "affiliated" within the meaning of that term as it is used in Part 261 of this subchapter; or

(b) Such agreement provides for fees or charges that in the aggregate are known or anticipated to exceed $50,000 during any twelve-month period, provided that in case the aggregate annual charge under an agreement believed to fall within this exemption at the time of execution exceeds the dollar limitation in any twelve-month period, the carriers shall (1) report promptly the total amount paid and (2) file the agreement with the Board under section 412 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 upon request by the Director of the Board's Bureau of Air Operations; or

(c) Such agreement amends an existing agreement which itself is ineligible for exemption under this part; or

(d) Such agreement is violative of the "antitrust laws" as that term is defined in section 1 of the Clayton Act, 15 U.S.C. 12.

§ 289.3 Effect of exemption.

The exemption granted by this part shall not be deemed to constitute an "order made under sections 408, 409, and 412" within the meaning of section 414 of the Act.

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

SUBCHAPTER E—AIR NAVIGATION REGULATIONS

[Reg. Docket No. 439; Amdt. 174]

PART 609—STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURES

Miscellaneous Alterations

The new and revised standard instrument approach procedures appearing hereinafter are adopted to become effective and/or canceled when indicated in order to promote safety. The revised procedures supersede the existing procedures of the same classification now in effect for the airports specified therein. For the convenience of the users, the revised procedures specify the complete procedure and indicate the changes to the existing procedures. Pursuant to authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 5662), I find that a situation exists requiring immediate action in the interest of safety, that notice and public procedure hereon are impracticable, and that good cause exists for making this amendment effective on less than thirty days' notice.

Part 609 (14 CFR Part 609) is amended as follows:

1. The low or medium frequency range procedures prescribed in § 609.100(a) are amended to read in part:

LFR STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURES

Title 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter VIII—Commodity Stabilization Service (Sugar), Department of Agriculture

SUBCHAPTER B—SUGAR REQUIREMENTS AND QUOTAS

[Sugar Reg. 811, Amdt. 1]

PART 811—CONTINENTAL SUGAR REQUIREMENTS AND AREA QUOTAS

Requirements and Quotas for 1960

Basis and purpose. The purpose of Sugar Regulation 811 is to determine, pursuant to section 201 of the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended, and as further amended by Public Law 86-592 approved July 6, 1960, (hereinafter called the "Act"), the amount of sugar needed to meet the requirements of consumers in the continental United States for the calendar year 1960 and to establish sugar quotas for the supplying areas, except Cuba, in terms of short tons of sugar, raw value. By a Proclamation effective July 8, 1960 (25 F.R. 6414), the President of the United States, acting pursuant to the provisions of section 408 (b) of the Act, determined that the sugar quota for Cuba for the balance of the calendar year 1960 shall be 39,752 short tons, raw value, plus the sugar certified prior to July 3, 1960, for entry but not yet entered or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption. This regulation establishes quotas for 1960 for domestic areas and for foreign countries other than Cuba pursuant to the provisions of section 202 of the Act, and also establishes for domestic areas and foreign countries other than Cuba (1) the amounts of certain quotas that may be filled by direct-consumption sugar, pursuant to section 207 of the Act, and (2) liquid sugar quotas pursuant to section 208.

The Act requires that the Secretary shall revise the determination of sugar requirements at such times during the calendar year as may be necessary. It now appears that an increase in the estimate of requirements for the calendar year 1960 is necessary. The purpose of this amendment is to make such determination conform to the requirements of consumers as indicated on the basis of the factors specified in section 201 of the Act, as amended, and give effect to the revised determination.

The quotas and prorations established herein differ from those in effect under Sugar Regulation 811 (24 F.R. 10425). To permit areas for which larger quotas or prorations are hereby established to plan to market and to market in an orderly manner the larger quantity of sugar, it is essential that this amendment be made effective immediately. Therefore, it is hereby determined and found that compliance with the notice, procedure and effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act is unnecessary, impracticable and contrary to the public interest and the amendment herein shall become effective when published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended (61 Stat. 922, as amended), and the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 237) §§ 811.1, 811.2, 811.3, 811.6 and 811.7 of Sugar Regulation 811 (24 F.R. 10425) are hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 811.1 Sugar requirements, 1960.

The amount of sugar needed to meet the requirements of consumers in the continental United States for the calendar year 1960 is hereby determined to be 9,600,000 short tons, raw value.

§ 811.2 Quotas for domestic areas.

(a) For the calendar year 1960 quotas for sugar to be brought into or marketed for consumption in the continental United States from domestic areas are established in column (1) and the amounts of such quotas for offshore areas that may be filled by direct-consumption sugar are established in column (2), as follows:

[Short tons, raw value]

Area	Quotas (1)	Direct-consumption limits (2)
Domestic beet sugar	2,088,245	(1)
Mainland cane sugar	642,573	(1)
Hawaii	1,165,444	22,810
Puerto Rico	1,218,620	142,210
Virgin Islands	16,618	0

[1] No limit.

(b) Of the quantity established in paragraph (a) of this section for Puerto Rico which may be filled by direct-consumption sugar, 126,033 short tons, raw value, may be filled only by sugar principally of crystalline structure.

§ 811.3 Quotas for foreign countries other than Cuba.

For the calendar year 1960 quotas for sugar to be imported into the continental United States for consumption therein from foreign countries are established in column (1) and the amount of each such quota that may be filled by direct-consumption sugar is established in column (2), as follows:

[Short tons, raw value]

Country	Quotas (1)	Direct-consumption limits (2)
Republic of the Philippines	980,000	80,000
Peru	104,187	10,302
Dominican Republic	91,357	9,235
Mexico	75,000	16,779
Nicaragua	15,175	11,065
Haiti	7,439	7,000
Netherlands	3,571	3,571
China	3,742	3,742
Panama	3,742	3,742
Costa Rica	3,733	3,733
Canada	631	631
United Kingdom	516	516
Belgium	182	182
British Guiana	84	84
Hong Kong	3	3
All other countries	0	0

§ 811.4 [Reserved]

§ 811.5 [Reserved]

§ 811.6 Liquid sugar quotas for foreign countries other than Cuba.

For the calendar year 1960 quotas for liquid sugar to be imported into the continental United States for consumption therein are hereby established as follows:

Country:	Liquid sugar, wine gallons, 72 percent total sugar content
Dominican Republic	880,894
British West Indies	900,000
Other foreign countries	0

§ 811.7 Applicability of quotas.

The provisions of §§ 811.1 to 811.6 shall apply to all sugar and liquid sugar brought or imported into or marketed in the continental United States in 1960 pursuant to such sections, except as provided in sections 211 and 213 of the Act, and such sugar and liquid sugar as well as sugar imported pursuant to the Proclamation of the President, entitled "Determination of Cuban Sugar Quota" (25 F.R. 6414), are subject to the provisions of the regulations in this chapter, which prescribe the time, manner, and conditions under which quotas are filled by the marketing or importation or sugar.

§ 811.8 Restrictions on importations and marketings within quotas.

With respect to any sugar or liquid sugar which is subject to the provisions of §§ 811.1 to 811.6 as provided in § 811.7, or is subject to the Proclamation of the President entitled "Determination of Cuban Sugar Quota", all persons are prohibited during the calendar year 1960 from bringing or importing into or marketing in the continental United States any of such sugar or liquid sugar after the applicable quota has been filled, or any of such sugar or liquid sugar as direct-consumption sugar after the direct-consumption portion of the applicable quota has been filled.

Statement of bases and considerations. On December 17, 1959, total sugar quotas for 1960 were established at 9,480,000 tons, the same as the final level for last year. Distribution during the first half of 1960 was 111,000 tons larger than for the first half of 1959 and the period of seasonally heavy consumption is at hand. To make certain that there will be no shortage of raw sugar in light of these facts and the shift in sources of supplies from Cuba to other areas, the total requirements are hereby increased to 9,600,000 tons.

Done at Washington, D.C., this 8th day of July 1960.

TRUE D. MORSE,
Acting Secretary.

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Plum Order 8, Amdt. 1]

PART 936—FRESH BARTLETT PEARS, PLUMS, AND ELBERTA PEACHES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

Regulation by Size

Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 36, as amended (7 CFR Part 936), regulating the handling of fresh Bartlett pears, plums, and Elberta peaches grown in the State of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Plum Commodity Committee, established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of plums of the variety hereinafter set forth, and in the manner herein provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this amendment until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 1001–1011) in that, as hereinafter set forth, the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; and this amendment relieves restrictions on the handling of Becky Smith plums grown in California.

It is, therefore, ordered that the provisions of paragraph (b) of § 936.644 (Plum Order 8; 25 F.R. 5822) are hereby amended as follows:

(1) Delete from subparagraph (1) the words "or Becky Smith";

(2) Renumber subparagraphs 2 and 3 as subparagraphs 3 and 4, respectively;

(3) Insert the following new subparagraph (2):

(2) During the period beginning at the effective time of this amendment, and ending at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., November 1, 1960, no shipper shall ship any package or container of Becky Smith plums, unless:

(i) such plums are of a size that, when packed in a standard basket, they will pack at least a 4 x 5 standard pack and will have a net weight of not less than twenty-six (26) pounds: Provided, That, not to exceed ten (10) percent, by count, of the packages or containers in any lot may fail to meet such net weight requirement; and

(ii) the diameters of the smallest and largest plums in such package or container do not vary more than one-fourth (¼) inch: Provided, That, a total of not more than five (5) percent, by count, of the plums in the package or container may fail to meet this requirement.

(c) Nothing contained herein shall be construed (1) as affecting or waiving any right, duty, obligation, or liability which has arisen or which, prior to the effective time of the provisions hereof, may arise in connection with any provision of said Plum Order 8; or (2) as releasing or extinguishing any violation of Plum Order 8 which has occurred or which, prior to the effective time of the provisions hereof, may occur.

(Secs. 1–19, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 601–674)

Dated July 13, 1960, to be effective on and after 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., July 14, 1960.

Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service.

[Milk Order 75]

PART 975—MILK IN NORTHEASTERN OHIO MARKETING AREA

Order Amending Order

§ 975.0 Findings and determinations.

The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Northeastern Ohio, marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order as hereby amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Act;

(2) The parity prices of milk, as determined pursuant to section 2 of the Act, are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the said marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order as hereby amended are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest;

(3) The said order as hereby amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial or commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

(b) Additional findings. It is necessary in the public interest to make this order amending the order effective not later than August 1, 1960. Any delay beyond that date would tend to disrupt the orderly marketing of milk in the marketing area.

The provisions of this said order are known to handlers. The recommended decision of the Deputy Administrator of the Agricultural Marketing Service was issued May 20, 1960, and the decision of the Assistant Secretary containing all amendment provisions of this order, was issued June 20, 1960. The changes effected by this order will not require extensive preparation or substantial alteration in method of operation for handlers. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby found and determined that good cause exists for making this order amending the order effective August 1, 1960, and that it would be contrary to the public interest to delay the effective date of this amendment for 30 days after its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. (See Sec. 4(c), Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. 1001 et seq.).

(c) Determinations. It is hereby determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of handlers (excluding cooperative associations specified in sec. 8c(9) of the Act) of more than 50 percent of the milk, which is marketed within the marketing area, to sign a proposed marketing agreement, tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the Act;

(2) The issuance of this order, amending the order, is the only practical means pursuant to the declared policy of the Act of advancing the interests of producers as defined in the order as hereby amended; and

(3) The issuance of the order amending the order is approved or favored by at least two-thirds of the producers who during the determined representative period were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the marketing area.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered, that on and after the effective date hereof the handling of milk in the Northeastern Ohio, marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the order, as hereby amended:

1. Delete § 975.51(a) (1) and (2) and substitute therefor the following:

(1) Divide the total quantity of milk received from producers defined in § 975.10 and in § 995.12 of the order regulating the handling of milk in the North Central Ohio marketing area during the first and second months preceding by the gross quantity of milk utilized as Class I (adjusted for intermarket and interhandler transfers) at pool plants defined in § 975.8 and in § 995.9 of the order regulating the handling of milk in the North Central Ohio marketing area, in the same two months, multiply the result by 100, and round to the nearest whole number. The result shall be known as the "current utilization percentage."

(2) Compute a "deviation percentage" by subtracting from the current utilization percentage as computed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, the "standard utilization percentage" shown below:

Months for which the price is being computed:	Standard utilization percentage

(Secs. 1–19, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 601–674)

Issued at Washington, D.C., this 8th day of July 1960, to be effective on and after the 1st day of August 1960.

Assistant Secretary.

§ 995.0 Findings and determinations.

The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and of the previously issued amendments thereto; and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order regulating the handling of milk in the North Central Ohio marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order as hereby amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Act;

(2) The parity prices of milk, as determined pursuant to section 2 of the Act, are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the said marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order as hereby amended are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest;

(3) The said order as hereby amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial or commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held;

(4) All milk and milk products handled by handlers, as defined in the order as hereby amended, are in the current of interstate commerce or directly burden, obstruct, or affect interstate commerce in milk or its products; and

(5) It is hereby found that the necessary expense of the market administrator for the maintenance and functioning of such agency will require the payment by each handler, as his pro rata share of such expense, 3 cents per hundredweight or such amount not to exceed 3 cents per hundredweight as the Secretary may prescribe, with respect to (a) producer milk (including milk of handlers own production), (b) other source milk allocated to Class I, and (c) Class I milk disposed of in the marketing area by a distributing plant not a pool plant.

(b) Additional findings. It is necessary in the public interest to make this order amending the order effective not later than August 1, 1960. Any delay beyond that date would tend to disrupt the orderly marketing of milk in the marketing area.

The provisions of the said order are known to handlers. The recommended decision of the Deputy Administrator of the Agricultural Marketing Service was issued May 20, 1960, and the decision of the Assistant Secretary containing all amendment provisions of this order, was issued June 20, 1960. The changes effected by this order will not require extensive preparation or substantial alteration in method of operation for handlers. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby found and determined that good cause exists for making this order amending the order effective August 1, 1960, and that it would be contrary to the public interest to delay the effective date of this amendment for 30 days after its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. (See sec. 4(c), Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. 1001 et seq.)

(c) Determinations. It is hereby determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of handlers (excluding cooperative associations specified in section 8c(9) of the Act) of more than 50 percent of the milk, which is marketed within the marketing area, to sign a proposed marketing agreement, tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the Act;

(2) The issuance of this order, amending the order, is the only practical means pursuant to the declared policy of the Act of advancing the interests of producers as defined in the order as hereby amended; and

(3) The issuance of the order amending the order is approved or favored by at least three-fourths of the producers who during the determined representative period were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the marketing area.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered, that on and after the effective date hereof the handling of milk in the North Central Ohio marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the order, as hereby amended:

1. Delete § 995.5 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 995.5 North Central Ohio marketing area.

"North Central Ohio marketing area" hereinafter referred to as "marketing area" means all the territory within the corporate limits of the cities of Findlay, Marion and Tiffin, and territory within the boundaries of the counties of Allen and Richland and the Marion Correctional Institution, all in the State of Ohio.

§ 995.64 [Amendment]

2. In § 995.64 delete the pharse "October through December" and substitute therefor "September through November" (to be made effective on September 1, 1961).

3. Delete § 995.80 and substitute therefor the following:

§ 995.80 Plants subject to other Federal orders.

The provisions of this part except §§ 995.30, 995.31, 995.32, and 995.33 shall not apply to a distributing plant or a supply plant during any month in which the milk at such plant would be subject to the classification and pricing provisions of another order issued pursuant to the Act, unless such plant qualified as a pool plant pursuant to § 995.9 and a greater volume of fluid milk products is disposed of from such plant to retail or wholesale outlets and to pool plants in the North Central Ohio marketing area than in the marketing area regulated pursuant to such other order during the current month and each of the three months immediately preceding, unless the Secretary determines that the applicable order should more appropriately be determined on some other basis.

Issued at Washington D.C., this 8th day of July 1960, to be effective on and after the 1st day of August 1960, except the amendment to § 995.64 which is to be effective on and after the 1st day of September 1961.

CLARENCE L. MILLER,
Assistant Secretary.

Title 19—CUSTOMS DUTIES

Chapter I—Bureau of Customs, Department of the Treasury

[T.D. 56171]

PART 8—LIABILITY FOR DUTIES; ENTRY OF IMPORTED MERCHANDISE

Release of Merchandise Under Special Permit

Release of merchandise under special permits—Customs Regulations Amended.

Section 8.39(g), Customs Regulations, relating to entry of merchandise released under special permits, amended.

As the result of a survey to determine the value of a suggestion from the field for the use of a consolidated report on the summary sheet, customs Form 6417, in lieu of a consumption entry permit, customs Form 7501–A, for merchandise released under a term immediate delivery permit, the Bureau has decided that the Customs Regulations should be amended to permit the adoption of the plan by collectors of customs under certain conditions.

It is also desirable to include in the Customs Regulations advice on when an entry permit on customs Form 7501–A, 5119, or 5119–A is required to be submitted with an entry for merchandise released under an immediate delivery application and permit for a single importation.

Accordingly, § 8.39(g) of the Customs Regulations is amended by adding the following at the end thereof:

Each formal consumption entry, except where the collector has approved the use of a consolidated report on the summary sheet (customs Form 6417) in lieu of the reports on customs Form 7501–A, or informal entry for merchandise released under a term immediate delivery permit shall be accompanied by an entry permit on customs Form 7501–A, 5119, or 5119–A, as applicable, for execution by customs officers on the permit of the reports of action. Such consolidated report, which may be printed or rubber stamped in the space on the summary sheet normally used to designate examination packages, shall read substantially as follows:

I certify that the merchandise covered by this entry has been (1) examined or sampled, (2) weighed, gauged, or measured or stamped as directed, or involved ☐ or entered ☐ quantities accepted (check one box, if applicable) and (3) released under immediate delivery permit No. _____ on _____ (Date) and that it was in apparent good order, except as noted below:

If no exceptions, note ("None")

(Inspector-Acting Examiner)

Unless needed by customs for noting the entry number on the manifest, no entry permit on customs Form 7501–A, 5119, or 5119–A is required to accompany an entry for merchandise released under an immediate delivery permit (customs Form 3461) for a single importation. Upon request, the local collector of customs will advise whether an entry permit is required.

Title 21—FOOD AND DRUGS

Chapter I—Food and Drug Administration, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare

SUBCHAPTER B—FOOD AND FOOD PRODUCTS

PART 120—TOLERANCES AND EXEMPTIONS FROM TOLERANCES FOR PESTICIDE CHEMICALS IN OR ON RAW AGRICULTURAL COMMODITIES

Tolerance for Residues of Ronnel

A petition was filed with the Food and Drug Administration requesting the establishment of a tolerance for residues of ronnel (O,O-dimethyl O-(2,4,5-trichlorophenyl) phosphorothiate) in or on uncooked meat or meat byproducts of cattle.

The Secretary of Agriculture has certified that this pesticide chemical is useful as an ingredient of medicated feed for the treatment of cattle grubs.

After consideration of the data submitted in the petition and other relevant material which show that the tolerance established in this order will protect the public health, and by virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare by the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 408 (d)(2), 68 Stat. 512; 21 U.S.C. 346a(d)(2)) and delegated to the Commissioner of Food and Drugs by the Secretary (21 CFR, 1959 Supp., 120.7(g)), the regulations for tolerances for pesticide chemicals in or on raw agricultural commodities (21 CFR, 1959 Supp., Part 120) are amended by adding thereto the following new section:

A tolerance of zero is established for residues of the pesticide chemical ronnel (O,O-dimethyl O-(2,4,5-trichlorophenyl) phosphorothioate) in or on the uncooked meat or meat byproducts from cattle.

Any person who will be adversely affected by the foregoing order may at any time prior to the thirtieth day from the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER file with the Hearing Clerk, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Room 5440, 330 Independence Avenue, SW., Washington 25, D.C., written objections thereto. Objections shall show wherein the person filing will will be adversely affected by the order and specify with particularity the provisions of the order deemed objectionable and the grounds for the objections. If a hearing is requested, the objections must state the issues for the hearing. A hearing will be granted if the objections are supported by grounds legally sufficient to justify the relief sought. Objections may be accompanied by a memorandum or brief in support thereof. All documents shall be filed in quintuplicate.

Effective date. This order shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

PART 121—FOOD ADDITIVES

Subpart C—Food Additives Permitted in Animal Feed or Animal-Feed Supplements

RONNEL IN THE FEED OF BEEF CATTLE

The Commissioner of Food and Drugs, having evaluated the data submitted in a petition filed by The Moorman Manufacturing Company, Quincy, Illinois, and other relevant material, has concluded that the addition of the food additive ronnel (O,O-dimethyl O-(2,4,5-trichlorophenyl) phosphorothioate) to feed for beef cattle will present no hazard to the health of such animals when the additive is incorporated in the feed in the amount, for the purpose, and under the conditions set forth in the following regulation promulgated pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 409(c)(1), 72 Stat. 1786; 21 U.S.C. 348(c)(1)), and under the authority delegated to the Commissioner by the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare (23 F.R. 9500). Therefore, It is ordered, That the food additive regulations (21 CFR, 1959 Supp., Part 121) be amended by adding to Subpart C the following new section:

§ 121.209 Ronnel in the feed of beef cattle.

Ronnel (O,O-dimethyl O-(2,4,5-trichlorophenyl) phosphorothioate) may be safely used in medicated feed of beef cattle when incorporated therein in accordance with the following conditions:

(a) It is intended for use only in the treatment of grubs in beef cattle.

(b) The maximum quantity of the additive permitted to be used or to remain in or on the treated feed shall not exceed 2,750 parts per million (0.275 percent).

(c) The feed should not be fed to dairy cattle.

(d) The feed should not be fed within 60 days of slaughter.

(e) The feed should be fed continuously for 14 days.

(f) To insure safe use of the additive the label of the basic material or of any intermediate premixes shall contain, in addition to the other information required by the act, the following:

(1) The name of the additive, ronnel.

(2) A statement of the concentration or strength of the additive therein.

(3) Appropriate and accurate mixing directions to produce a final feed with the desired concentration of the additive, whether or not intermediate premixes are also to be used.

(4) Appropriate and accurate use directions to provide a final feed labeled with the concentration and directions for which the medicated feed is to be used, and how it is to be used.

(5) The word "medicated," prominently and conspicuously, wherever the term "feed" or "premix" is used, and in juxtaposition therewith.

(g) To insure safe use of the additive, the label of the finished medicated feed shall contain, in addition to the other information required by the act, the following:

(1) The name of the additive, ronnel.

(2) A statement of the concentration of the additive in the finished medicated feed, 2,750 parts per million (0.275 percent).

(3) Appropriate and accurate directions to provide for the proper and intended use of the medicated feed.

(4) The word "medicated," prominently and conspicuously, wherever the term "feed" is used, and in juxtaposition therewith.

(5) Precautionary information, prominently and conspicuously displayed, so as to be read under ordinary conditions of use, that:

(i) The feed is to be used only for the control of cattle grubs.

(ii) The feed should not be fed to dairy cows.

(iii) The feed should not be fed within 60 days of slaughter.

(iv) The feed should be fed continuously for 14 days.

(v) The feed is for beef cattle only.

Based upon an evaluation of the data presented in the petition and other relevant material, the Commission has further concluded that a tolerance limitation in or on meat and meat byproducts is required in order to insure the safe use of the medicated feed, and that the tolerance requested for meat and meat byproducts should properly be established under section 408 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, since the additive ronnel is to be used as an economic poison as defined in the Federal Insecticide, Fungicide, and Rodenticide Act, and registration has been applied for thereunder.

Any person who will be adversely affected by the foregoing order may at any time prior to the thirtieth day from the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER file with the Hearing Clerk, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare, Room 5440, 330 Independence Avenue SW., Washington 25, D.C., written objections thereto. Objections shall show wherein the person filing will be adversely affected by the order, specify with particularity the provisions of the order deemed objectionable and the grounds for the objections. If a hearing is requested, the objections must state the issues for the hearing. A hearing will be granted if the objections are supported by grounds legally sufficient to justify the relief sought. Objections may be accompanied by a memorandum or brief in support thereof. All documents shall be filed in quintuplicate.

Effective date. This order shall become effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Title 25—INDIANS

Chapter I—Bureau of Indian Affairs, Department of the Interior

SUBCHAPTER T—OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE

PART 221—OPERATION AND MAINTENANCE CHARGES

San Carlos Indian Irrigation Project, Arizona

On page 4751 of the FEDERAL REGISTER of May 28, 1960, there was published a notice of intention to amend §§ 221.63 and 221.110 of Title 25, Code of Federal Regulations. The purpose of the amendments is to increase the Joint Work annual operation and maintenance assessment rate in § 211.63 from $1.35 to $1.45 per acre and the basic rate as provided in § 221.110 from $4.25 to $4.35 per acre.

Interested persons were given 30 days within which to submit written comments, suggestions or objections with respect to the proposed amendments. No comments, suggestions or objections have been received, and the proposed amendments are hereby adopted without change as set forth below.

1. Section 221.63 is amended to read as follows:

§ 221.63 Assessments, Joint Works.

(a) Pursuant to the act of Congress approved June 7, 1924 (43 Stat. 476) and supplementary acts, and the repayment contracts of June 8, 1931, as amended, between the United States and the San Carlos Irrigation and Drainage District, and in accordance with applicable provisions of the order of the Secretary of the Interior of June 15, 1938 (§ 221.69a to 221.69m), the cost of the operation and maintenance of the Joint Works of the San Carlos Indian Irrigation Project for the fiscal year 1962 is estimated to be $145,000 and the rate of assessment for the said fiscal year and subsequent years until further order, is hereby fixed at $1.45 for each acre of land.

2. Section 221.110 is amended to read as follows:

Pursuant to the provisions of section 10 of the act of March 3, 1905 (33 Stat. 1081) as amended and supplemented by the acts of August 24, 1912 (37 Stat. 522), August 1, 1914 (38 Stat. 583, 25 U.S.C. 385), section 5 of the act of June 7, 1924 (43 Stat. 476), March 7, 1928 (45 Stat. 210, Title 25 U.S.C. 387), and the act of August 9, 1937 (50 Stat. 577), as amended by the act of May 9, 1938 (52 Stat. 291–305), and in accordance with the public notice issued on December 1, 1932, operation and maintenance charges are assessable against the 50,000 acres of tribal lands and trust patent Indian lands of the San Carlos Indian irrigation project within the boundaries of the Pima Indian Reservation, Arizona, and the basic rate assessed for the calendar year 1962 and the subsequent years unless changed by further order, is hereby fixed at $4.35 per acre. Such rate shall entitle each acre of land to have delivered for use thereon two (2) acre-feet of water per acre or its proportionate share of the available water supply.

The foregoing changes are to become effective for the fiscal year 1962 and continue thereafter until further notice; the assessment for the 50,000 acres of Indian land will be payable as provided in §§ 221.111 to 221.116, inclusive.

GLENN L. EMMONS,
Commissioner.

Title 26—INTERNAL REVENUE, 1954

Chapter I—Internal Revenue Service, Department of the Treasury

SUBCHAPTER A—INCOME TAX

[T.D. 6481]

PART 1—INCOME TAX; TAXABLE YEARS BEGINNING AFTER DECEMBER 31, 1953

Employee Stock Options

In order to revise the definition of the term "employee," "employment," and "employer" in the Income Tax Regulations (26 CFR Part 1) under section 421 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, relating to options to which section 421 does not apply, such regulations are amended as set forth below, effective with respect to taxable years beginning after December 31, 1953, and ending after August 16, 1954.

Further consideration is being given to the applicability of the rules in § 1.421–6 to situations not involving the employer-employee relationship.

Paragraph (b)(2) of § 1.421–6 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1.421–6 Options to which section 421 does not apply.

* * * * *

(b) Meaning and use of certain terms. * * *

(2) As used in this section, the terms "employee", "employment", and "employer" have reference to the legal and bona fide relationship of employer and employee. For rules applicable to the determination whether the employer-employee relationship exists, see section 3401(c) and the regulations thereunder.

Because this Treasury decision amends § 1.421–6 to restore the substance of the rule relating to the employer-employee relationship which was contained in the notice of proposed rule making, published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (21 F.R. 5774), November 19, 1956, and because further consideration is being given to the applicability of the rules in § 1.421–6 to situations not involving the employer-employee relationship, it is hereby found that it is unnecessary to issue this Treasury decision with notice and public procedure thereon under section 4(a) of the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, or subject to the effective date limitation of section 4(c) of that Act.

PART 12—DISPOSAL AND UTILIZATION OF SURPLUS REAL PROPERTY FOR EDUCATIONAL PURPOSES AND PUBLIC HEALTH PURPOSES

Assignment of Real Property

Section 12.3(c) of Part 12, Title 45 CFR is hereby amended to read as follows:

(c) Real property will be requested for assignment only when the Department has determined that the property is suitable and needed for public health or educational purposes. The amounts of both real and related personal property to be transferred shall not be excessive to normal operating requirements. Such property, except for transfers contemplated under § 12.10, will not be requested for assignment unless it is needed at the time of application for educational or for public health purposes, including research, or unless it will be so needed within the immediate foreseeable future. When construction is contemplated, the initiation of construction of the major functional facility in the approved program must begin within 18 months after the date of transfer. Construction shall be deemed to have been initiated when the transferee executes a contract providing a firm date in the reasonably near future for actual commencement of construction. The Department may, in its discretion, grant extensions of the 18 month period where the transferee can factually demonstrate that it has exercised due diligence in attempting to initiate construction within the said period and that such construction will be initiated during the period of any such extension.

PART 13—ALLOCATION AND UTILIZATION OF SURPLUS PERSONAL PROPERTY FOR EDUCATIONAL, PUBLIC HEALTH, AND CIVIL DEFENSE PURPOSES

Miscellaneous Amendments

1. Section 13.9 of Part 13, Title 45 CFR is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 13.9 Terms and conditions applicable to transfers or retransfers of donable property.

(a) Property acquired by a donee, regardless of acquisition cost, donated for public health or educational purposes, shall be on an "as is", "where is" basis without warranty of any kind.

(b) Property having a single item acquisition cost of $2,500 or more, donated for public health or educational purposes, shall be subject to the following additional terms and conditions:

(1) Such property shall be used only for the public health or educational purpose for which acquired, including research for any such purpose, and for no other purpose.

(2) Such property shall be placed in use for the purpose for which acquired no later than twelve months after acquisition thereof. In the event such property is not placed in use within twelve months of receipt, the donee, within 30 days after the expiration of the twelve-month period, shall notify the Department in writing through the State agency. Title and right to the possession of such property not so placed in use within the above-mentioned period shall, at the option of the Department, revert to the United States of America, and upon demand the donee shall release such property to such person as the Department or its designee shall direct.

(3) There shall be a period of restriction which will expire after such property has been used for the purpose for which acquired for a period of four years, except that the period of restriction on motor vehicles will expire after a period of two years of such use.

(4) During the period of restriction the donee shall not sell, trade, lease, lend, bail, encumber, or otherwise dispose of such property or remove it for use outside the State without prior written approval of the Department. Any sale, trade, lease, loan, bailment, encumbrance, or other disposal of the property, when such action is authorized by the Department, shall be for the benefit and account of the United States of America and the net proceeds thereof shall be received and held in trust for the United States of America and shall be paid promptly to the Department, except in those instances in which the Department determines that the Government's administrative costs in connection with respect thereof will exceed such net proceeds.

(5) In the event such property is sold, traded, leased, loaned, bailed, encumbered, or otherwise disposed of during the period of restriction without prior approval, the donee, at the option of the Department, shall be liable to the United States of America for the proceeds of the disposal or for the fair market value of the property at the time of such disposal as determined by the Department.

(6) If during the period of restriction, property is no longer suitable, usable or further needed by the donee for the purpose for which acquired, the donee shall promptly notify the Department through the State agency, and shall, as directed by the Department or State agency, either retransfer the property to another donee, retransfer the property to a department or agency of the United States, sell the property, or otherwise dispose of the property. Any sale shall be for the benefit and account of the United States of America and the net proceeds thereof shall be received and held in trust for the United States of America and shall be paid promptly to the Department, except in those instances in which the Department determines that the Government's administrative costs in connection with receipt thereof will exceed such net proceeds.

(7) Donees shall make reports to the State agency on the use, condition, and location of such property and on other pertinent matters as may be required from time to time by the State agency or the Department.

(8) At the option of the Department, the donee may abrogate the terms and conditions set forth in subparagraphs (1) through (7) of this paragraph by payment of an amount as determined by the Department.

(c) Aircraft (FSC Group 15) are a specific exception to the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section. The special terms and conditions provided in section 13.10 herein shall apply to the donation of aircraft.

(d) Property donated for civil defense purposes shall be subject to the terms and conditions set forth in Part 1703, Chapter XVII, Title 32, Code of Federal Regulations.

(e) Butler-type storage warehouses, house trailers (without undercarriages), and quonset huts, located on non-excess land, donated under this section, shall be subject to the terms and conditions applicable to the transfer or retransfer of donable property for public health, educational or civil defense purposes. The State agency and/or the donee, as applicable, shall comply with all conditions which may be required by the holding agency for the removal of such property. Whenever the holding agency requires the site upon which such property is located to be cleared after removal of such property, the State agency shall post performance bonds, or make performance guaranty deposits, or give whatever assurances may be required by the Department or the holding agency that the site will be cleared. Where the application Form HEW 135 has also been executed by a donee, the State agency in lieu of posting such performance bonds, or making such performance guaranty deposits, or giving such other assurances that the site will be cleared, may require these actions to be taken by the donee.

2. Section 13.10 of Part 13, Title 45 CFR is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 13.10 Terms and conditions applicable to transfers or retransfers of aircraft.

(a) Aircraft donated pursuant to this part, regardless of acquisition cost, shall be on an "as is", "where is" basis without warranty of any kind.

(b) Aircraft having a single item acquisition cost of $2,500 or more, regardless of the purpose for which donated, shall be subject to the following additional terms and conditions:

(1) A Conditional Transfer Document (Aircraft) containing the terms and conditions provided for in this section and signed by the authorized representative of the applicant must accompany the institution's or organization's application.

(2) Title to the aircraft shall pass from the United States of America to the donee when the Conditional Transfer Document (Aircraft) is executed by the Department and is delivered to the donee.

(3) The donee shall apply to the Federal Aviation Agency for registration of the aircraft within thirty days of the receipt of the fully executed Conditional Transfer Document (Aircraft), and the donee's application for registration shall include fully executed copy of the Conditional Transfer Document (Aircraft).

(4) The aircraft, together with all engines, appurtenances, and accessories attached thereto and installed therein, hereinafter referred to in this section as the "aircraft property", shall be placed in use for the purpose stated no later than twelve months after acquisition thereof.

(5) In the event the donee does not apply to the Federal Aviation Agency for registration of the aircraft property, or in the event the aircraft property is not placed in use within twelve months of receipt, the donee, within thirty days after the date on which application for registration should have been made, or within thirty days after the expiration of the twelve-month period, shall notify the Department, in the case of aircraft property donated for public health or educational purposes, or the Director, Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization, in the case of aircraft property donated for civil defense purposes, in writing, through the State agency. Title and right to the possession of the aircraft property on which application for registration has not been made within thirty days, or which has not been placed in use within twelve months, shall at the option of the Department, in the case of aircraft property donated for public health or educational purposes, or the Director, Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization, in the case of aircraft property donated for civil defense purposes, revert to the United States of America. Upon demand the donee shall, as directed by the Department, or its designee, in the case of aircraft property donated for public health or educational purposes, or the Director, Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization, or his designee, in the case of aircraft property donated for civil defense purposes, release the aircraft property to such agency or person as may be designated, sell the aircraft property, or otherwise dispose of the aircraft property. Any sale shall be for the benefit and account of the United States of America.

(6) There shall be a period of restriction which will expire after the aircraft property has been used for the purpose stated for a period of ten years.

(7) During the period of restriction the aircraft property shall be used only for the purpose stated.

(8) During the period of restriction the donee shall make reports to the State agency on the use, condition and location of the aircraft property and on other pertinent matters as may be required from time to time by such State agency, or the Department, in the case of aircraft property donated for public health or educational purposes, or the Director, Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization in the case of aircraft property donated for civil defense purposes.

(9) During the period of restriction the donee shall not sell, trade, lease, lend, bail, encumber, or otherwise dispose of the aircraft property, without prior written approval of the Department, in the case of aircraft property donated for public health or educational purposes, or the Director, Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization, in the case of aircraft property donated for civil defense purposes. Any sale, trade, lease, loan, bailment, encumbrance, or other disposal of the aircraft property, when such action is authorized by the Department, in the case of aircraft property donated for public health or educational purposes, or by the Director, Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization, in the case of aircraft property donated for civil defense purposes, shall be for the benefit and account of the United States of America.

(10) In the event, during the period of restriction, the aircraft property is sold, traded, leased, loaned, bailed, encumbered, or otherwise disposed of without prior approval, or is used for a purpose other than the purpose stated, the donee, at the option of the Department, in the case of aircraft property donated for public health or educational purposes, or the Director, Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization, in the case of aircraft property donated for civil defense purposes, shall be liable to the United States of America for the proceeds of the disposal, the fair market value, or the fair rental value of the aircraft property at the time of such unauthorized transaction or use, as determined by the Department, in the case of aircraft property donated for public health or educational purposes, or the Director, Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization, in the case of aircraft property donated for civil defense purposes.

(11) If, during the period of restriction, the aircraft property is no longer suitable, usable or further needed by the donee for the purpose for which acquired, the donee shall promptly notify the Department, in the case of aircraft property donated for public health or educational purposes, or the Director, Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization, in the case of aircraft property donated for civil defense purposes, through the State agency, and shall, as directed by the Department, in the case of aircraft property donated for public health or educational purposes, or the Director, Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization, in the case of aircraft property donated for civil defense purposes, or the State agency, retransfer the aircraft property to another donee, retransfer the aircraft property to a department or agency of the United States, sell the aircraft property, or otherwise dispose of the aircraft property. Any sale shall be for the benefit and account of the United States of America.

(12) At the option of the Department, in the case of aircraft property donated for public health or educational purposes, or the Director, Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization, in the case of aircraft property donated for civil defense purposes, the donee may obtain abrogation of the terms and conditions set forth in subparagraphs (6) through (11) of this paragraph by payment of an amount as determined by the Department, in the case of aircraft property donated for public health or educational purposes, or the Director, Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization, in the case of aircraft property donated for civil defense purposes.

(13) The Department, in the case of aircraft property donated for public health or educational purposes, or the Director, Office of Civil and Defense Mobilization, in the case of aircraft property donated for civil defense purposes, may terminate all of the above conditions and give unrestricted title to the aircraft property to the donee whenever such action is determined to be appropriate.

Dated: July 8, 1960.

Title 49—TRANSPORTATION

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

[Docket 3666; Order 43]

PARTS 71–78—EXPLOSIVES AND OTHER DANGEROUS ARTICLES

Miscellaneous Amendments

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D.C., on the 28th day of June 1960.

The matter of revision of certain regulations governing the transportation of explosives and other dangerous articles, formulated and published by the Commission, being under consideration, and passed amendments to the said regulations, and the reasons therefor, and stating that consideration was to be given thereto, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 20, 1960 (25 F.R. 4754), pursuant to the provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act; that pursuant to said notice interested parties were given an opportunity to be heard with respect to said proposed amendments; that written views or arguments were submitted to the Commission with respect to the proposed amendments;

And it further appearing that said views and arguments with respect to the proposed amendments are such as to warrant revision at this time of certain of the proposed amendments, and that in all other respects the proposed amendments set forth in the above referred-to Notice No. 43 are deemed justified and necessary:

It is ordered, That the aforesaid regulations governing the transportation of explosives and other dangerous articles be, and they are hereby, amended in the manner and to the extent set forth in Notice No. 43, dated May 17, 1960, as revised by the specific deletions and modifications set forth as follows:

1. In § 72.5 Commodity list, delete the entry, "Rocket motors."

2. In § 73.100 amend paragraph (aa).

3. Delete the entire proposed addition of § 73.238.

4. Delete the entire proposed amendment to § 73.257 which is paragraph (a) (14).

5. In § 73.315 revise the proposed addition of Note 9 to paragraph (a) (1).

It is further ordered, That this order shall become effective September 25, 1960 and shall remain in effect until further order of the Commission;

It is further ordered, That compliance with the herein prescribed and amended regulations is hereby authorized on and after the date of service of this order;

And it is further ordered, That copies of this order be served upon all parties of record herein, and that notice shall be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the Office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D.C., and by filing a copy thereof with the Director, Office of the Federal Register.

PART 73—SHIPPERS

Subpart A—Preparation of Articles for Transportation by Carriers by Rail Freight, Rail Express, Highway, or Water

In § 73.32 amend paragraph (a) (2) (24 F.R. 3596, May 5, 1959) to read as follows:

§ 73.32 Qualification, maintenance, and use of portable tanks.

(a) • • •

(2) Portable tank containers for transportation as cargo on vessels in commerce subject to the jurisdiction of the United States Coast Guard shall not exceed a loaded weight of 20,000 pounds. Nothing contained in this section shall be so construed as to pertain to transportation on car floats and car ferries, nor shall such limitation in weight apply to trailerships or containerships if approved under Coast Guard Regulations.

In § 73.33 amend paragraphs (a) (1) and (o) (4) (24 F.R. 3596, May 5, 1959) (20 F.R. 8099, Oct. 28, 1955) to read as follows:

§ 73.33 Qualification, maintenance, and use of cargo tanks.

(a) • • •

(1) Cargo tank containers for transportation as cargo on vessels in commerce subject to the jurisdiction of the United States Coast Guard shall not exceed a loaded weight of 20,000 pounds. Nothing contained in this section shall be so construed as to pertain to transportation on car floats and car ferries, nor shall such limitation in weight apply to trailerships or containerships if approved under Coast Guard Regulations.

• • • • •

(o) • • •

(4) Angle valves and excess-flow valves on chlorine tank motor vehicles shall conform to the standards of The Chlorine Institute, Inc. Angle valve to conform with Dwg. 104–4, dated May 5, 1958; excess-flow valve to conform with Dwg. 101–3, dated January 23, 1959. An excess-flow valve shall be installed under each angle valve.

Subpart B—Explosives; Definitions and Preparation

In § 73.56 amend the heading and paragraph (d) (15 F.R. 8266, Dec. 2, 1950) (18 F.R. 802, Feb. 7, 1953) to read as follows:

§ 73.56 Ammunition, projectiles, grenades, bombs, mines, gas mines, and torpedoes.

• • • • •

(d) Gas projectiles, smoke projectiles, incendiary projectiles, illuminating projectiles, gas bombs, smoke bombs, incendiary bombs, gas grenades, smoke grenades, incendiary grenades, and gas mines, explosive, containing a bursting charge must be packed and properly secured in strong wooden boxes. Detonating fuzes, boosters or bursters, bouchons or ignition elements must not be assembled in these articles or included in the same package with them unless shipped by, for, or to the Departments of the Army, Navy, or Air Force of the United States Government or unless of a type approved by the Bureau of Explosives. (See §§ 73.190, 73.330, 73.350, and 73.383 for nonexplosive chemical or poisonous ammunition.)

In § 73.92 amend paragraph (a) (4) (21 F.R. 7599, Oct. 4, 1956) to read as follows:

(a) • • •

(4) Jet thrust units (jato), class B, may be packed in the same outside shipping container with separately packaged igniters, jet thrust, class B, when the containers are approved by the Bureau of Explosives.

In § 73.94 add paragraph (d) (25 F.R. 3099, April 12, 1960) to read as follows:

• • • • •

(d) Label: Each outside container of explosive power devices when offered for transportation by rail express, must have securely and conspicuously attached to it a square red label as described in § 73.412.

In § 73.100 amend paragraph (aa) (25 F.R. 3099, April 12, 1960) to read as follows:

§ 73.100 Definition of class C explosives.

• • • • •

(aa) Explosive power devices, class C, are devices designed to drive generators or mechanical apparatus by means of propellant explosives, class B. The devices consist of a housing with a contained propellant charge and an electric igniter or squib. The devices must be of a type approved by the Bureau of Explosives for this classification.

Subpart C—Flammable Liquids; Definition and Preparation

In § 73.122 amend paragraph (a) (1) (15 F.R. 8301, Dec. 2, 1950) to read as follows:

§ 73.122 Acrolein, inhibited.

(a) • • •

(1) Spec. 5A or 5B (§§ 78.81 or 78.82 of this chapter). Metal drums not over 55 gallons capacity each. Spec. 5B drums must have no opening exceeding 2.3 inches in diameter.

In § 73.124 amend paragraph (a) (5) and cancel paragraph (a) (6) (22 F.R. 4790, July 9, 1957) (21 F.R. 4564, June 26, 1956) to read as follows:

§ 73.124 Ethylene oxide.

(a) • • •

(5) Spec. 105A100, 105A100–W, 105A200–W, 105A300–W, 105A400–W, 105A500–W, 105A600–W, 111A100–W–4, or ARA–IV–A[1] (§§ 78.270, 78.285, 78.307, 78.286, 78.287, 78.288, 78.289, 78.306 of this chapter). Tank cars. Specs. 105A200–W, 105A300–W, 105A400–W, 105A500–W, and 105A600–W (§§ 78.307, 78.286, 78.287, 78.288, and 78.289 of this chapter) tanks must be restenciled 105A100–W (§ 78.285 of this chapter) and be equipped with safety valves of the type and size used on spec. 105A100–W (§ 78.285 of this chapter) tank cars. Openings in tank heads to facilitate application of nickel lining are authorized and must be closed in an approved manner. See Note 1 of § 73.119(f) (3). (See § 73.432 for shipping instructions.)

[No change in Note 1.]

(6) [Canceled.]

In § 73.128 add paragraph (a) (3) (20 F.R. 4414, June 23, 1955) to read as follows:

§ 73.128 Paints and related materials.

(a) • • •

(3) Spec. 52 (§ 78.246 of this chapter). Aluminum portable tanks. Authorized only for materials having flash point above 20° F.

In § 73.132 add paragraph (a) (2) (18 F.R. 5272, Sept. 1, 1953) to read as follows:

§ 73.132 Cement, liquid, n.o.s., container cement, linoleum cement, pyroxylin cement, rubber cement, tile cement, wallboard cement, and coating solution.

(a) • • •

(2) Spec. 52 (§ 78.246 of this chapter). Aluminum portable tanks. Authorized for materials irrespective of flash point but only those defined as viscous liquids by § 73.115(b).

In § 73.134 amend the heading and introductory text of paragraph (a); amend paragraphs (a) (2) and (3) and (b); add Note 1 to paragraph (a) (2) and add paragraph (a) (4) (24 F.R. 904, Feb. 6, 1959) (24 F.R. 8057, Oct. 6, 1959) to read as follows:

§ 73.134 Aluminum triethyl, aluminum trimethyl, pyroforic fuel, pryoforic solutions, zinc ethyl, and triisobutyl aluminum, ethyl aluminum sesquichloride, diethyl aluminum chloride, ethyl aluminum dichloride, methyl aluminum sesquichloride, methyl aluminum sesquibromide, and mixtures or solutions thereof.

(a) Aluminum triethyl, aluminum trimethyl, pyroforic fuel, pyroforic solutions, zinc ethyl, and triisobutyl aluminum, ethyl aluminum sesquichloride, diethyl aluminum chloride, ethyl aluminum dichloride, methyl aluminum sesquichloride, methyl aluminum sesquibromide, and mixtures or solutions thereof must be shipped in devices or apparatus of a type approved by the Bureau of Explosives or in specification containers as follows:

• • • • •

(2) Spec. 105A300–W, 105A400–W, 105A500–W, 105A600–W, 106A500, or 106A500X (§§ 78.286, 78.287, 78.288, 78.289, or § 78.275 of this chapter) tank cars. Authorized for aluminum triethyl, aluminum trimethyl, and mixtures or solutions thereof, pyroforic fuel, and triisobutyl aluminum, ethyl aluminum sesquichloride, diethyl aluminum chloride, ethyl aluminum dichloride, methyl aluminum sesquichloride, methyl aluminum sesquibromide and mixtures or solutions thereof only. Specs. 106A500 and 106A500X (§ 78.275 of this chapter) tanks must not be filled to a density exceeding 80 percent of the water capacities of the tanks and tanks must be equipped with an approved spring-relief safety valve. Tanks must be loaded on cars and motor vehicles in such a manner that the safety relief valve will always be in the vapor phase.

NOTE 1: Tanks complying with ICC–106A 500 and ICC–106A500X (§ 78.275 of this chapter) specifications may be transported on trucks or semi-trailers only, when securely chocked or clamped thereon to prevent shifting, and provided adequate facilities are present for handling tanks where transfer in transit is necessary.

(3) Spec. 51 (§ 78.245 of this chapter). Portable tanks.

(4) Spec. MC 330 (§ 78.336 of this chapter). Tank motor vehicles having a minimum design pressure of 250 pounds per square inch.

(b) Aluminum triethyl, aluminum trimethyl and mixtures or solutions thereof, pyroforic fuel, pyroforic solutions, zinc ethyl, and triisobutyl aluminum, ethyl aluminum sesquichloride, diethyl aluminum chloride, ethyl aluminum dichloride, methyl aluminum sesquichloride, methyl aluminum sesquibromide, and mixtures or solutions thereof when offered for transportation by rail express must be packed in glass ampules not over 2 ounces capacity each, securely cushioned with absorbent material in sufficient quantity to completely absorb contents in event of breakage, within an inside metal container, spec. 2R (§ 78.34 of this chapter), enclosed in a strong wooden box.

§ 73.136 Methyl dichlorosilane and trichlorosilane.

(a) • • •

(3) Spec. 5A or 5B (§ 78.81 or § 78.82 of this chapter). Metal drums not over 55 gallons capacity each. Spec. 5B drums must have no opening exceeding 2.3 inches in diameter. These containers not authorized for shipment by rail express.

In § 73.141 amend paragraph (a) (7) (24 F.R. 8057, Oct. 6, 1959) to read as follows:

§ 73.141 Amyl mercaptan, butyl mercaptan, ethyl mercaptan, isopropyl mercaptan, propyl mercaptan, and aliphatic mercaptan mixtures.

(a) • • •

(7) Spec. 103–W, 105A300–W, 105A400–W, 105A500–W, 105A600–W, or 111A100–W–1 (§§ 78.280, 78.286, 78.287, 78.288, 78.289, or § 78.303 of this chapter). Tank cars. Specs. 103–W and 111A100–W–1 (§§ 78.280 and 78.303 of this chapter) tank cars equipped with bottom outlets must have bottom outlets effectively sealed. Bottom washout permitted.

In § 73.145 amend paragraph (a) (6) (22 F.R. 3925, June 5, 1957) to read as follows:

§ 73.145 Dimethylhydrazine, unsymmetrical, and methylhydrazine.

(6) Spec. 103–W, 103C–W, 105A100–W, 105A200–W, 105A300–W, 105A400–W, 105A500–W, 105A600–W, or 111A100–

W–4 (§§ 78.280, 78.283, 78.285, 78.287, 78.288, 78.287, 78.288, 78.289, or § 78.306 of this chapter). Tank cars. Authorized for dimethylhydrazine, unsymmetrical only. Tank cars must be equipped with steel safety valves of approved design and 103–W (§ 78.280 of this chapter) tank cars must not be equipped with bottom outlets. Specs. 105A300–W, 105A300–W, 105A400–W, 105A500–W, and 105A600–W (§§ 78.307, 78.286, 78.287, 78.288, and 78.289 of this chapter) tanks must be restenciled 105A100–W (§ 78.285 of this chapter) and be equipped with safety valves of the type and size used on Spec. 105A100–W (§ 78.285 of this chapter) tank cars.

Subpart D—Flammable Solids and Oxidizing Materials; Definition and Preparation

In § 73.206 amend paragraph (a) (3) (20 F.R. 4416, June 23, 1955) to read as follows:

§ 73.206 Sodium or potassium, metallic, sodium amide, sodium potassium alloys, lithium metal, lithium silicon, lithium hydride, and lithium aluminum hydride.

(a) • • •

(3) Spec. 17E, 17H, 37A, or 37B (§§ 78.116, 78.118, 78.131, or § 78.132 of this chapter). Metal drums (single-trip). Authorized only for lithium metal or sodium, metallic which must be fused solid in the container.

In § 73.207 add paragraph (b) (7) (15 F.R. 8311, Dec. 2, 1950) to read as follows:

§ 73.207 Sulfide of sodium or sulfide of potassium, fused or concentrated, when ground.

• • • • • •

(b) • • •

(7) Spec. 12A (§ 78.210 of this chapter). Fiberboard boxes with inside glass bottles not over 5 pounds capacity each. Not more than four bottles having capacity of 5 pounds each, shall be packed in one outside box. Shipper must have established that completed package meets test requirements prescribed by § 78.210–10 of this chapter.

Amend entire § 73.220 (19 F.R. 6268, Sept. 29, 1954) (19 F.R. 8526, Dec. 14, 1954) (21 F.R. 365, Jan. 19, 1956) to read as follows:

§ 73.220 Magnesium or zirconium scrap (borings, clippings, shavings, sheets, or turnings).

(a) Magnesium or zirconium scrap consisting of borings, shavings, or turnings, when shipped in carloads or truckloads, must be packed in closed metal barrels, wooden barrels, metal pails, or four-ply paper bags. In less-than-carload or less-than-truckload quantities it must be packed in closed metal drums, metal pails, or wooden barrels.

(b) Magnesium or zirconium scrap consisting of clippings or scrap sheets may be shipped in bulk in carload or truckload quantities. Cars must be tight box cars or tightly closed steel covered gondola cars and trucks or trailers must have closed or completely covered bodies.

(c) Magnesium or zirconium scrap consisting of clippings or scrap sheets in closed metal drums, wooden barrels, or wooden boxes is exempt from specification packaging, marking, and labeling requirements. Shipments for transportation by highway carriers are exempt also from Part 77 of this chapter, except § 77.817, and Part 197 of this chapter.

Subpart E—Acids and Other Corrosive Liquids; Definition and Preparation

In § 73.245 add paragraph (a) (23) (15 F.R. 8313, Dec. 2, 1950) to read as follows:

§ 73.245 Acids or other corrosive liquids not specifically provided for.

(a) • • •

(23) Spec. 12B (§ 78.205 of this chapter). Fiberboard boxes with inside polyethylene bottles, not over 5 gallons capacity each, as specified by § 78.205–34 of this chapter. Not more than one bottle shall be packed in one outside box.

In § 73.259 amend the heading and introductory text of paragraph (a); add paragraph (a) (3) (20 F.R. 8102, Oct. 28, 1955) to read as follows:

§ 73.259 Electrolyte, acid, or alkaline corrosive battery fluid, packed with battery charger, radio current supply device, or electronic equipment and actuating devices.

(a) Electrolyte, acid, or alkaline corrosive battery fluid packed with battery charger, radio current supply device or parts thereof, or electronic equipment and actuating devices, with only one device or outfit in each package, in the amount necessary for operation of the device or equipment, provided the containers of electrolyte, acid, or alkaline corrosive battery fluid, are adequately cushioned to prevent breakage, leakage, or damage to other articles packed therewith, must be packed in specification containers or as otherwise authorized herein, as follows:

• • • • • •

(3) Electrolyte, acid, or alkaline corrosive battery fluid, in separate inside acid or alkaline fluid resistant containers not over 5 gallons capacity each included with electronic equipment and actuating devices, are authorized in strong, tightly closed steel drums.

In § 73.263 amend paragraph (a) (15) (23 F.R. 4029, June 10, 1958) to read as follows:

(a) • • •

(15) Spec. 12A or 12B (§ 78.210 or § 78.205 of this chapter). Fiberboard boxes with inside containers of polyethylene, or other nonfragile plastic material resistant to the lading (bags are not authorized), not over 1 gallon capacity each, suitably cushioned to prevent movement within the box. Gross weight of completed package must not exceed 65 pounds.

In § 73.271 amend paragraph (a) (9) (25 F.R. 3102, April 12, 1960) to read as follows:

§ 73.271 Phosphorus oxychloride, phosphorus trichloride, and thiophosphoryl chloride.

(a) • • •

(9) Spec. 103A, 103A–W, or 111A100–W–2 (§§ 78.266, 78.281, or § 78.304 of this chapter). Tank cars. Spec. 103A (§ 78.266 of this chapter) tanks must be lead-lined steel or made of steel at least 10 percent nickel clad. Spec 103A–W or 111A100–W–2 (§ 78.281 or § 78.304 of this chapter) tanks must be lead-lined steel or made of steel with a minimum thickness of nickel cladding of 1/16 inch. Nickel cladding in tanks must have a minimum nickel content of at least 99 percent pure nickel.

In § 73.287 amend paragraph (a) (5) (24 F.R. 8058, Oct. 6, 1959) to read as follows:

§ 73.287 Chromic acid solution.

(a) • • •

(5) Spec. 12B (§ 78.205 of this chapter). Fiberboard boxes with inside polyethylene containers having minimum wall thickness of 0.015 inch and so designed as to maintain their configuration when standing empty and open (see § 78.205–34 of this chapter). Not more than one inside container shall be packed in one outside box.

In § 73.294 amend paragraph (a) (2) (25 F.R. 3102, April 12, 1960) to read as follows:

§ 73.294 Monochloroacetic acid, liquid.

(a) • • •

(2) Spec. 103A–N–W or 103A–W (§ 78.299 or § 78.281 of this chapter). Tank cars. Spec. 103A–W (§ 78.281 of this chapter) tank car must be nickel clad at least 20 percent.

In § 73.295 amend paragraph (a) (11) (25 F.R. 3102, April 12, 1960) to read as follows:

§ 73.295 Benzyl chloride.

(a) • • •

(11) Spec. 103A or 103A–W (§ 78.266 or § 78.281 of this chapter). Tank cars which may be 10 percent nickel clad. Authorized for stabilized benzyl chloride only.

Add § 73.297 (15 F.R. 8324, Dec. 2, 1950) to read as follows:

§ 73.297 Titanium sulfate solution containing not more than 45% sulfuric acid.

(a) Titanium sulfate solution containing not more than 45% sulfuric acid must be packed in specification containers as follows:

(1) Spec. MC 310 or MC 311 (§ 78.330 or § 78.331 of this chapter). Tank motor vehicles, rubber-lined.

(2) Spec. 103B, 103B–W, or 111A100–W–5 (§§ 78.267, 78.282, or § 78.309 of this chapter). Tank cars.

Subpart F—Compressed Gases; Definition and Preparation

In § 73.315 amend paragraphs (a) (1) Table, (i) (11), (j) (1) and (2); add Note 9 to paragraph (a) (1) (23 F.R. 2327, April 10, 1958) (20 F.R. 8103, Oct. 28, 1955) (19 F.R. 1280, Mar. 6, 1954) (15 F.R. 8330, 8331, Dec. 2, 1950) to read as follows:

§ 73.315 Compressed gases in cargo tanks and portable tank containers.

(a) • • •

(1) • • •

(i) • • •

(11) Safety relief valve on chlorine tank motor vehicles shall conform with the standard of The Chlorine Institute, Inc. Dwg. D–13105E, dated April 30, 1958.

(j) • • •

(1) The containers shall comply with the construction requirements of one of the following pressure vessel codes and shall be marked to indicate compliance as specified in the code:

The 1959 Edition of the Unfired Pressure Vessel Code of the A.S.M.E.
The 1956 Edition of the Unfired Pressure Vessel Code of the A.S.M.E.
The 1952 Edition of the Unfired Pressure Vessel Code of the A.S.M.E., no revisions.
The 1950 Edition of the Unfired Pressure Vessel Code of the A.S.M.E., no revisions.
The 1949 Edition of the Unfired Pressure Vessel Code of the A.S.M.E.
The 1951 Edition of the joint Unfired Pressure Vessel Code of the A.P.I. and A.S.M.E., no revisions.
The 1943 Edition of the joint Unfired Pressure Vessel Code of the A.P.I. and A.S.M.E.

(2) Each container shall be equipped with safety devices in compliance with the requirements for safety devices on containers as specified in the National Board of Fire Underwriters Pamphlet No. 58 "Standards for the Design, Installation and Construction of Containers and Pertinent Equipment for the Storage and Handling of Liquefied Petroleum Gases", 1959 Edition.

Subpart H—Marking and Labeling Explosives and Other Dangerous Articles

In § 73.409 amend the introductory text of paragraph (b); cancel paragraph (b) (2) (20 F.R. 8105, Oct. 28, 1955) (25 F.R. 3103, April 12, 1960) to read as follows:

§ 73.409 Poisonous articles and tear gas labels.

• • • • • •

(b) Label for shipment of poisonous articles, class B or class C, by air must be as shown in the following:

• • • • • •

(2) [Canceled.]

In § 73.430 amend paragraphs (b) and (c) (15 F.R. 8344, Dec. 2, 1950) (20 F.R. 8106, Oct. 28, 1955) to read as follows:

• • • • • •

(b) For the relief of shippers from multiplicity of certifications required for packages which may move by various means of transportation, shipments may be certified for rail, motor vehicle, water, or air transportation by adding to the certificate required on the shipping document "and the Commandant of the Coast Guard," or "and the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Agency," as the case may be.

(c) Shipping papers for shipments made by air between the United States and other countries shall be certified in duplicate with certificate signed by the shipper reading as follows:

This is to certify that the contents of this package are properly described by name and are packed and marked and are in proper condition for transportation according to the regulations prescribed by the Interstate Commerce Commission and the Administrator of the Federal Aviation Agency. (For shipment on passenger-carrying aircraft the following must be added to certificate: This shipment is within the limitations prescribed for passenger carrying aircraft.)

PART 74—CARRIERS BY RAIL FREIGHT

Subpart A—Loading, Unloading, Placarding and Handling Cars; Loading Packages Into Cars

In § 74.526 amend the introductory text of paragraph (n) (22 F.R. 7838, Oct. 3, 1957) to read as follows:

§ 74.526 Loading explosives into cars.

• • • • • •

(n) Container cars or portable containers on flat cars or gondola cars (drop-bottom cars not authorized), when properly loaded, blocked, and braced to prevent change of position under conditions incident to normal transportation, may be used for any class A explosive except black powder packed in metal containers. Portable containers must be of a type approved by the Bureau of Explosives. They must be designed and maintained so as to be weather-tight and so constructed that sparks cannot enter. Wooden containers must be painted or treated with fire-retardant material of a type approved by the Bureau of Explosives.

In § 74.532 amend the introductory text of paragraph (i) (15 F.R. 8348, Dec. 2, 1950) to read as follows:

§ 74.532 Loading other dangerous articles.

• • • • • •

(i) Compressed gases in cylinders: Cylinders containing compressed gases must be loaded on their sides except when packed in boxes or crates, or when placed in suitable permanent racks in cars, or when securely braced. Spec. ICC–4L (§ 78.57 of this chapter) cylinders must be loaded in an upright position and be securely braced.

Subpart C—Placards on Cars

In § 74.546 amend paragraph (g) (15 F.R. 8351, Dec. 2, 1950) to read as follows:

§ 74.546 Placards must be standard.

• • • • • •

(g) Placards remaining on hand and in compliance with § 74.552(a) or § 74.553(a) in effect on June 19, 1960, may be used until present stocks are exhausted.

PART 75—CARRIERS BY RAIL EXPRESS

In § 75.660 amend the introductory text of paragraph (a) (25 F.R. 3104, April 12, 1960) to read as follows:

§ 75.660 Violations and accidents or fires must be reported.

(a) Violations and accidents or fires must be reported promptly by the express carrier to the Bureau of Explosives, 63 Vesey Street, New York 7, New York, as follows:

PART 77—SHIPMENTS MADE BY WAY OF COMMON, CONTRACT, OR PRIVATE CARRIERS BY PUBLIC HIGHWAY

Subpart B—Loading and Unloading

In § 77.840 amend paragraphs (a) (1) and (c) (15 F.R. 8367, Dec. 2, 1950) (23 F.R. 2329, April 10, 1958) to read as follows:

§ 77.840 Compressed gases.

(1) Cylinders, horizontal. Cylinders containing compressed gases shall be loaded in a horizontal position unless packed in boxes or crates of such dimensions as to prevent their overturning, or unless loaded into racks securely attached to the motor vehicle, or unless so securely lashed in an upright position as to prevent their overturning. Spec. ICC–4L (§ 78.87 of this chapter) cylinders must be loaded in an upright position and be securely braced.

* * * * *

(c) Tanks complying with ICC–106A or ICC–110A (§§ 78.275, 78.276, 78.293, or § 78.295 of this chapter) specifications used for the transportation of compressed gases and flammable liquids as authorized in §§ 73.314(a) and 73.134 (a)(2) of this chapter may be transported on trucks or semi-trailers only, when securely chocked or clamped thereon to prevent shifting, and provided adequate facilities are present for handling tanks where transfer in transit is necessary. See § 74.560(b)(1) of this chapter.

PART 78—SHIPPING CONTAINER SPECIFICATIONS

Subpart F—Specifications for Fiberboard Boxes, Drums, and Mailing Tubes

In § 78.205–34 amend the heading and paragraph (a) (24 F.R. 8060, Oct. 6, 1959) to read as follows:

§ 78.205–34 Special box; authorized only for a polyethylene, or other suitable plastic, tight-fitting inside container having a minimum wall thickness of 0.015 inch and so designed as to maintain its configuration when standing empty and open.

(a) Box shall comply with this specification except that top of box shall be closed by means of slotted flaps so arranged as to provide protection for the neck of the inside container and be fitted with fill-in pieces as necessary. Complete package, closed as for shipment with inside container filled to rated capacity with water, must be capable of withstanding 2 drops from a height of 4 feet onto solid concrete without leakage or serious rupture of box. Authorized gross weight not over 65 pounds.

Subpart H—Specifications for Portable Tanks

Add § 78.246 (15 F.R. 8484, Dec. 2, 1950) to read as follows:

§ 78.246 Specification 52; aluminum portable tanks.

§ 78.246–1 Compliance.

(a) Required in all details.

§ 78.246–2 Composition and capacity.

(a) Tanks shall be constructed of aluminum base alloy at least 96 percent pure, or other aluminum base alloys of equivalent strength and physical properties suitable for use with the commodity to be transported therein and having a capacity not over 400 gallons.

§ 78.246–3 Construction.

(a) Tanks shall be of all welded fabrication. Welding shall be performed in a workmanlike manner using suitable welding materials. Tanks shall be formed of material at least 0.250 inch thick; material shall comply with the requirements of § 78.246–2. Cubical containers shall have corners reinforced with suitable pads or legs efficiently welded thereto.

§ 78.246–4 Openings and closures.

(a) Tanks shall have one fill opening with properly gasketed positive type closure and may have one threaded flange opening not over 2.3 inches in diameter which must be provided with secure gasketed closure plug. Bottom discharge opening not over 3 inches in diameter authorized.

§ 78.246–5 Tank mountings.

(a) Tanks shall be designed and fabricated with mountings to provide a secure base in transit. "Skids" or similar devices shall be deemed to comply with this requirement.

(b) All tank mountings such as skids, fastenings, brackets, cradles, lifting lugs, etc., intended to carry loadings shall be permanently secured to tanks in accordance with the requirements under which the tanks are fabricated and shall be designed with a factor of safety of four, and built to withstand loadings in any direction equal to two times the weight of the tanks and attachments when filled with water.

§ 78.246–6 Tests.

(a) Each tank shall be tested by introduction of at least 2 pounds sustained air pressure during which time all welded areas shall be examined for leakage by coating entire welded seam area with soap suds. Areas that show leakage in this test may be repaired by welding and must be retested to determine efficiency.

§ 78.246–7 Marking.

(a) Marking on each container in an unobstructed area, by embossing or die-stamping on the container, or on a metal plate securely attached by welding, in letters and figures at least ⅜ inch in height, as follows:

(1) ICC–52 * * * (stars to be replaced by rated gallonage capacity). These marks shall be understood to certify that the container complies with all specification requirements.

(2) Name or symbol (letters) of maker or user assuming responsibility with specification requirements. Symbol letters must be registered with the Bureau of Explosives.

Subpart I—Specifications for Tank Cars

In § 78.270–1 amend paragraph (a) (21 F.R. 4576, June 26, 1956) to read as follows:

§ 78.270–1 Type.

(a) Tanks built under this specification must be cylindrical with heads designed convex outward. The tank must be provided with a manway nozzle and cover on top of tank of sufficient diameter to permit access to the interior of the tank and to provide for the proper mounting of venting, loading, unloading, sampling and safety valves, gauging device, thermometer well, and a protective housing on the cover. Other openings in the tank are prohibited.

In § 78.294–1 amend paragraph (a) (25 F.R. 3112, April 12, 1960) to read as follows:

§ 78.294–1 Type.

(a) Tanks built under this specification must be cylindrical, with heads designed convex outward. The tank must be provided with a manway nozzle and cover on top of the tank of sufficient diameter to permit access to the interior of the tank and to provide for the proper mounting of venting, loading, unloading, sampling and safety valves, gauging device, thermometer well and a protective housing on the cover. Other openings in the tank are prohibited.

In § 78.300–1 amend paragraph (a) (25 F.R. 3113, April 12, 1960) to read as follows:

§ 78.300–1 Type.

(a) Tanks built under this specification must be cylindrical, with heads designed convex outward. The tank must be provided with a manway nozzle and cover on top of the tank of sufficient diameter to permit access to the interior of the tank and to provide for the proper mounting of venting, loading, unloading, sampling and safety valves, gauging device, thermometer well, and a protective housing on the cover. Other openings in the tank are prohibited.

In § 78.308–1 amend paragraph (a) (25 F.R. 3115, April 12, 1960) to read as follows:

§ 78.308–1 Type.

(a) Tanks built under this specification must be cylindrical, with heads designed convex outward. The tank must be provided with a manway nozzle and cover on top of the tank of sufficient diameter to permit access to the interior of the tank and to provide for the proper mounting of venting, loading, unloading, sampling and safety valves, gauging device, thermometer well, and a protective housing on the cover. Other openings in the tank are prohibited.

Subpart J—Specifications for Containers for Motor Vehicle Transportation

In § 78.330–11 amend paragraph (a) (24 F.R. 5644, July 14, 1959) to read as follows:

(a) All joints and seams formed in the manufacture of any cargo tank shall be made tight by welding, riveting, riveting and welding, brazing, or riveting and brazing, at the option of the motor carrier, subject to the limitation that any of the aforesaid methods are permissible only when any one of them or combination as used in the tank is not subject to adverse action by the nature of the corrosive liquid which is to be transported in such tank provided that joints in tanks for hydrogen peroxide of concentration exceeding 52 percent shall be made by welding only.

In § 78.336–1 amend paragraph (b); in § 78.336–5 amend paragraph (a); in § 78.336–7 amend paragraph (a) (20 F.R. 8115, 8116, Oct. 28, 1955) (23 F.R. 2336, April 10, 1958) to read as follows:

§ 78.336–1 Requirements for design and construction.

* * * * *

(b) Except as noted below, all openings in the tank shall be grouped in one location, either at the top of the tank or at one end of the tank.

EXCEPTIONS: (1) Chlorine tanks shall be equipped with a nozzle located in the top of the tank. The nozzle shall be fitted with a dome cover plate which shall conform with the standard of The Chlorine Institute, Inc. Dwg. 103–3, dated January 23, 1958. There shall be no other opening in the tank.

(2) The openings for liquid level gauging devices, or for safety devices may be installed separately at the other location or in the side of the shell.

(3) One plugged opening of 2-inch National Pipe Thread or less provided for maintenance purposes may be located elsewhere.

(4) Loading and unloading connections may be located in the bottom of the tank.

* * * * *

§ 78.336–5 Protection of valves and accessories.

(a) All valves, fittings, accessories, safety devices, gauging devices, and the like shall be adequately protected against mechanical damage by a housing closed with a cover plate.

EXCEPTIONS: (1) Liquid and vapor valves, fittings, and accessories installed in the bottom of the tank shall be adequately protected against mechanical damage, but the housing and cover plate may be omitted. (2) In lieu of a housing closed with a cover plate, tanks used for the transportation of carbon dioxide may have all valves, piping, fittings, accessories, safety devices, and the like installed within the motor vehicle framework, or a suitable collision-resisting subframe, guard or housing. (3) On chlorine tanks the protective housing and cover plate shall conform to the standard of The Chlorine Institute, Inc., Dwg. 107–2, dated June 4, 1959 and shall be of a design to permit the use of standard emergency kits for controlling leaks in fittings on the dome cover plate.

§ 78.336–7 Report.

(a) A copy of the manufacturer's data report required by the "Code" (see § 78.336–1 (a)) under which the tank is fabricated shall be furnished for each new tank to the owner and the Bureau of Explosives, 63 Vesey Street, New York 7, New York. In addition, the manufacturer or owner shall register each tank with the Bureau of Explosives in the following form:

PART 143—LONG-AND-SHORT-HAUL AND AGGREGATE-OF-INTERMEDIATE RATES

Change of Effective Date

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 2, held at its office in Washington, D.C., on the 29th day of June A.D. 1960.

Upon further consideration of the matters and things involved in fourth-section order No. 18900, entered by Division 2 on April 11, 1958, as modified and amended by orders entered at later dates, and pending consideration of the matters and things developed at a hearing held pursuant to a petition filed by R. E. Boyle, Jr., Chairman, Southern Freight Association, T. H. Maguire, Chairman, Executive Committee-Western Traffic Association, and E. V. Hill, Chairman, Traffic Executive Association-Eastern Railroads, for further modification of fourth-section order No. 18900 (23 F.R. 2969), which order, petition, and transcript of the hearing thereon, are hereby referred to and made a part hereof:

It is ordered, That fourth-section order No. 18900 (23 F.R. 2969), entered by Division 2 on April 11, 1958, as modified and amended by orders entered July 15, 1958 (23 F.R. 5828), December 18, 1958 (24 F.R. 64), May 4, 1959 (24 F.R. 4104), August 11, 1959 (24 F.R. 6979), and March 30, 1960 (25 F.R. 2893), be and it is hereby, further modified and amended so as to provide that the order, which by its present terms is to become effective on June 30, 1960, shall become effective on September 1, 1960, instead.

It is further ordered, That notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D.C., and by filing it with the Director, Office of the Federal Register, Washington, D.C.

(Sec. 12, 24 Stat. 383, as amended; 49 U.S.C. 12. Interpret or apply secs. 3, 4, 24 Stat. 380, as amended; 49 U.S.C. 3, 4)

PART 143—LONG-AND-SHORT-HAUL AND AGGREGATE-OF-INTERMEDIATES RATES

Change of Effective Date

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 2, held at its office in Washington, D.C., on the 29th day of June, A.D. 1960.

It appearing, that rules governing as to form and content of applications, the manner of presentation, and the method of justifying relief from the provisions of section 4 of the Interstate Commerce Act having been set forth in fourth-section order No. 18900 (23 F.R. 2969),

It further appearing, that, by petition dated June 5, 1959, the Class I rail carriers of the United States sought reconsideration of these rules,

It further appearing, that a hearing having been held and full investigation of the matters and things involved having been made, and the division, on the date hereof, having made and filed a formal report containing its findings of fact and conclusions thereon, which report is hereby referred to and made a part hereof,

And it further appearing, that the rules hereinafter provided being procedural, rule making procedure under section 4(a) of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. sec. 1003) is deemed unnecessary:

It is ordered, That fourth-section order No. 18900 (23 F.R. 2969) entered by Division 2 on April 11, 1958, as modified and amended by supplemental orders entered July 15, 1958 (23 F.R. 5828), December 18, 1958 (24 F.R. 64), May 4, 1959 (24 F.R. 4104), August 11, 1959 (24 F.R. 6979), March 30, 1960 (25 F.R. 2893), and June 29, 1960 (25 F.R. 6629), be and it is hereby, further modified and amended by deleting sections 143.75 through 143.85 (49 CFR 143.75 through 143.85) in their entirety, and by substituting in lieu thereof the following provisions which are to become effective September 1, 1960:

§ 143.75 Applications, preparation and filing, conformity with rules.

Any common carrier subject to the act may apply to this Commission, under section 4(1) of the act, for such authorization as it is empowered to grant thereunder. Such application must conform to the requirements hereinafter provided.

§ 143.76 Freight and passenger applications separate.

Separate applications shall be filed for relief with respect to freight rates and passenger fares.

§ 143.77 Long-and-short-haul and aggregate of intermediate applications separate.

Separate applications shall be filed for relief from the long-and-short-haul provision, and for relief from the aggregate-of-intermediates provision of section 4 of the act.

§ 143.78 Number of copies, form, general specifications and requirements, signatures, and verification.

(a) Applications shall be substantially in the form shown below, and five copies of each, including all exhibits and maps, must be furnished.

FORM OF APPLICATION FOR RELIEF UNDER SECTION 4(1) OF THE ACT

FOURTH SECTION APPLICATION

Commission's No. _____
Carrier's No. _____

The _____ Company, by _____, its _____ (Official title), hereby petitions the Interstate Commerce Commission for authority to establish rates (or fares, or charges or classifications) hereinafter set forth without observing the long-and-short-haul (or aggregate-of-intermediates) provision of section 4(1) of the Interstate Commerce Act. (If rates, etc., are to apply over the lines of more than one carrier, the application should show that it is made for and on behalf of all such carriers, naming them, or if made for or on behalf of all carriers parties to a particular tariff, reference may be made by I.C.C. No. to such tariff for the names of such carriers.)

I. (State fully the rates, fares, charges, etc., which it is desired to establish, with complete reference to the tariffs in which published and the effective date thereof, the routes over, and the articles or classes upon which they are to apply, and names or descriptions of the points of origin and destination. See Note A following.)

II. (State fully names or description of intermediate points at which it is desired to maintain higher rates etc., and rates etc., at such points or a sufficient number of such points to illustrate the situation, including the first and last higher-rated and the highest-rated intermediate points. Distances between all points shown should be included in this statement. In applications for relief from the aggregate-of-intermediates provision, set forth typical examples of the higher through rates, fares, or charges, and the intermediate rates, fares, or charges that in the aggregate are less than the through rates, etc. See Note A, following. Also show I.C.C. Nos. of tariffs, and supplements thereto, containing the rates and distances stated.)

III. This application is based upon the following facts which present all of the circumstances and conditions relied upon by your applicant in justification of the relief herein prayed: (Make a complete and accurate statement as to the necessity for the proposed changes, and all of the circumstances and conditions relied upon as justifying the relief prayed. See Note A, following.)

IV. (Give specific reference to any proceeding pending before or determined by the Commission, by docket number, and report citation, if any, which may have any bearing upon, or be in any way related to the rates, etc., sought to be established or maintained. If none, state that fact.)

NOTE A. When more convenient this information may be given in an exhibit or exhibits, and here referred to: "As stated in exhibit _____ attached to and made a part hereof." Information required under each numbered section, as above, should be shown in a separate exhibit.

Exhibits should conform to the following requirements:

Generally. Exhibits of a documentary character may have a maximum width of 22 inches by 12½ inches in height. Whenever practicable the sheets of each exhibit and the lines of each sheet should be numbered. If the exhibit consists of five or more sheets the first sheet or title-page should be confined to a brief statement of what the exhibit purports to show, with reference by sheet and line to illustrative or typical examples contained therein. The exhibit should bear an identifying number, letter, or short title which will readily distinguish it from other exhibits offered. It is desirable that, whenever practicable, rate comparisons and other evidence should be condensed into tables. Exhibits should not be argumentative, should be limited to statements of fact, and be relevant and material to the issue.

Reference to tariff authority, routes, and distances. All exhibits showing rates, fares, charges, or other tariff or schedule provision must, by appropriate Interstate Commerce Commission number reference, indicate the tariff or schedule authority therefor, and if distances are shown must also show the authority therefor and, by lines, highways, or waterways, and junction points, the routes over which the distances are computed; except that the routes over which the distances are computed need not be shown when such distances are specifically published in a tariff or schedule lawfully on file with the Commission, or definitely ascertainable from a tariff or schedule on file with the Commission showing rates prescribed by the Commission and based on short-line distances, or short-highway distances, provided the exhibit makes specific reference to such tariff or schedule as provided by this rule.

(b) Applications shall be on opaque, unglazed, durable paper not exceeding 8½ by 11 inches. To permit of binding in covers of uniform size, margins of at least 1½ and 1 inch, respectively, shall be allowed on the left and right margins. Binding shall be on the left margin. Reproduction may be by printing, multilithing, mimeographing, or any other process, provided the copies are clear and permanently legible. Whiteline blue prints which cannot be reproduced by photography are not desirable. If directly typewritten, or if in facsimile reproduction of typewriting, the impression must be on one side of the paper and must be double spaced, except that long quotations shall be single spaced and indented. If printed, nothing less than 10-point type shall be used, except that 8-point type may be used in footnotes.

(c) The original copy of the application must be over the personal signature of an executive officer, a responsible traffic officer, or a duly authorized attorney or agent, specifying his title, and sworn to before a notary public or other officer authorized by law to administer oaths. Verification shall be in the manner shown below:

§ 143.79 Matters to be shown in the application.

(a) The information required in this section and in §§ 143.80, 143.81, and 143.82, according to the grounds upon which relief is sought, shall be shown in the application when Commission action is desired on the presentation made therein, without hearing. When a hearing is desired and applicants propose to justify at the hearing the relief desired, the information specified in this section shall be included in the application, and the information required in §§ 143.80, 143.81, and 143.82 may, instead, be introduced at the hearing. It should be understood, however, that where the information included in the application does not fully justify the relief sought, or for other good cause, the application may be assigned for hearing at the Commission's discretion. The application shall show:

(b) The names of the carrier or carriers for, or on behalf of which it is made, or, if made on behalf of all carriers parties to a particular tariff, the application may refer to such tariff by Interstate Commerce Commission number (hereinafter abbreviated I.C.C. No.).

(c) The I.C.C. No. of all tariffs in which rates, fares, or charges referred to in the application or exhibits are published.

(d) The rates, fares, or charges proposed to be established; the basis or bases therefor; the articles or classes on which they are to apply; the points of origin and destination; and the routes between such points over which the rates, fares, or charges will apply. (Direct routes only with respect to applications for long-and-short-haul relief). When relief is desired from or to "related" points or "group" points, the points or groups shall be indicated in the map hereafter required to be furnished, or defined by reference to tariff publications providing the grouping.

(e) If long-and-short-haul relief is sought, the intermediate points at which it is proposed to maintain rates, fares, or charges higher than those proposed from or to more distant points, and the rates, fares, or charges at such points. If relief from the aggregate-of-intermediate provision of section 4 is sought, the intermediate rates, fares, or charges that, in the aggregate, are less than the through rates, fares, or charges.

(f) A complete and accurate statement of the grounds relied upon as justification for the relief prayed.

(g) Applications for relief from the provisions of section 4 with respect to rates, fares, or charges included in schedules filed before the necessary relief has been obtained shall include in the opening or second paragraph a complete statement of the tariffs and supplements containing such rates, fares, or charges in substantially the following form:

The rates (fares) (charges) as to which relief is prayed herein have been published and filed to become effective _____ (Date) in _____ (Name of agent or carriers) tariff I.C.C. _____ (Number). (Supplement number should be shown if published in a supplement).

§ 143.80 Additional information required.

(a) Long-and-short-haul relief. Applications should show:

(1) That, where proposed rates are depressed to meet competition, the competitive rates they are being established to meet are not within the control of applicant carriers, and any other facts tending to show that such rates should not be observed as maxima at intermediate points.

(2) That the lower rates for longer than for shorter hauls over the same line or route are reasonably compensatory.

The following information is considered pertinent in a showing as to the reasonably compensatory nature of rates:

(i) Statement of ton-mile, car-mile, and per-car earnings under the competitive rates. When a general adjustment is involved covering rates between numerous competitive points and applicable or to be applied by numerous routes, it will be sufficient, ordinarily, to give representative examples of rates throughout the territory yielding the lowest earnings for the longest and shortest hauls involved.

(ii) Statement of ton-mile and car-mile expenses of petitioning carriers on the traffic involved, or other evidence showing that the proposed rates will be reasonably compensatory.

(3) A statement of rates at representative intermediate points at which rates exceed or would exceed the rates at more distant points under the proposed adjustment, including rates at the first and last higher-rated intermediate points and the distances from and to such intermediate points. This information need not be shown where the rates at the more distant points are constructed on the basis of a mileage scale and the rates at the intermediate points reflect the same mileage scale.

(4) That the higher rates for the shorter than for the longer hauls over the same line or route are reasonable. (The usual facts tending to show the reasonableness of rates should be presented).

(5) Whether there is a complaint pending as to the reasonableness of the rates at the intermediate points on the applicant line or route.

(6) In the event the rates proposed to be superseded by subsequent revisions are maintained under authority of outstanding fourth-section orders, reference to such orders shall be furnished.

(7) Where the proposed adjustment is in any way related to a prior adjustment as to which relief has been authorized, that is, the addition of origins, destinations, commodities, etc., or involves rates for the return movement of commodities as to which relief for initial hauls has been authorized, reference to orders authorizing such relief shall be furnished.

(b) Aggregate-of-intermediates relief. Applications should show:

(1) The origins and destinations from and to which it is proposed to continue, or to establish and maintain through rates, fares, or charges which exceed the aggregate-of-intermediate rates, fares, or charges, together with the intermediate rates, fares, or charges that, in the aggregate, are less than the through rates, fares, or charges.

(2) That the intermediate rates, fares, or charges which, in the aggregate, are lower than the through rates, fares, or charges, are depressed by competitive conditions that do not affect the through rates, fares, or charges; and the same information with respect to the conditions alleged as affecting the intermediate rates as that required in applications for long-and-short-haul relief with respect to similar conditions when alleged as grounds for maintaining lower rates for longer than for shorter distances.

(3) That the through rates, fares, or charges that would exceed the aggregate-of-intermediate rates, fares, or charges are reasonable. (The usual facts tending to show the reasonableness of rates should be presented).

§ 143.81 Additional matters to be shown.

(a) Applications based on water competitions. (1) The name of the competing water line or lines actually in operation between the water points and whether said water line or lines, in the transportation of the traffic involved, are subject to the Interstate Commerce Act.

(2) A detailed statement of the charges over the water line or lines, including marine insurance, wharfage, handling, shrinkage, and all other applicable incidental charges. Where such charges are named in tariffs on file with this Commission, reference should be made to such tariffs by I.C.C. number.

(3) Whether facilities for loading into and unloading from barges or ships are available.

(4) The minimum tender that may be made to the water carrier or carriers, and whether shippers and receivers are equipped to handle such amounts.

(5) If the season of navigation is restricted, and, if so, that available storage will permit the handling by water of receivers' needs during the season of navigation.

(6) The cost of installation, maintenance, etc., of loading, unloading, and storage facilities which must be constructed or installed before water transportation is feasible.

(7) Evidence supporting water costs and accessorial charges which are not published in tariffs on file with the Commission.

(8) Certification that a copy of the application has been served upon the competing water line or lines named in paragraph 1 hereof. The service and certification shall conform with the requirements of § 1.22 of this chapter.

(b) Applications based on motor carrier competition. The charges over the competing motor line or lines, including all incidental charges, and if interstate common or contract carrier or carriers, reference to the applicable tariffs by I.C.C. numbers.

(c) Applications based on market competition. (1) The names of the producing or receiving points whose competition is to be met.

(2) The short line or route and distances, or the class rate distances if the latter are normally used for rate making purposes, from the various producing points to the common market and tariff authority for the distances.

(3) The rates from the competitive producing points with reference by I.C.C. No. to the tariffs naming the rates and whether they conform to the provisions of section 4 of the act. If relief has been granted or application is pending as to such rates, give reference to the I.C.C. No. of the application or order.

(4) Whether similar competition is to be met at intermediate points.

(d) Applications based on weak financial condition or high operating costs of the applicant line. Financial statistics and operating conditions.

§ 143.82 Miscellaneous provisions.

(a) In addition to the above, applications should show any other conditions or circumstances relied upon as constituting a special case within the meaning of section 4(1) of the act.

(b) Applications should contain a map, made a part thereof, showing the relative location of lines or routes, the competitive points, and representative intermediate points at which higher rates are to be charged, or representative points from or to which it is proposed to maintain through rates, fares, or charges which exceed the aggregate of intermediates. This map need not be furnished where departures are due only to use of class rate distances and grouping, or to the use of relief line arbitraries.

§ 143.83 Acceptance of applications.

In any case when, upon inspection, the Commission is of the opinion that an application does not sufficiently set forth required material or is otherwise deficient, the Commission may decline to accept the application for filing and may return it unfiled, or the Commission may accept it for filing and advise the person tendering it of the deficiencies and require that such deficiencies be corrected.

§ 143.84 Applications for relief previously denied.

If the Commission denies an application, and the carrier presents a new application based upon new or additional facts in justification of the proposed rates, fares, or charges, such facts should be clearly indicated as such, and the modified application must refer specifically to the previous application and the number of the order by which it was denied.

§ 143.85 Changes and additions.

Copies of any amendment to the application, or any additional information furnished to the Commission in connection therewith, including notices of any changes in the effective date of the rates, fares, or charges as set forth in compliance with § 143.79(g), shall be served by applicant upon all parties served with a copy of the application and upon all parties protesting the application. The service and certification thereof shall conform with the requirements of § 1.22 of this chapter.

And it is further ordered, That notice of this order be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D.C., and by filing it with the Director, Office of the Federal Register.

(Sec. 12, 24 Stat. 383, as amended; 49 U.S.C. 12. Interpret or apply secs. 3, 4, 24 Stat. 380, as amended; 49 U.S.C. 3, 4)

By the Commission, Division 2.

SUBCHAPTER S—NUMBERING OF UNDOCUMENTED VESSELS, STATISTICS ON NUMBERING, AND "BOATING ACCIDENT REPORTS" AND ACCIDENT STATISTICS

[CGFR 60-51]

PART 171—STANDARDS FOR NUMBERING

Mississippi System of Numbering Approved

Acting under the authority delegated by Treasury Department Order 167-32, dated September 23, 1958 (23 F.R. 7605), the Commandant, United States Coast Guard, on June 23, 1960, approved the Mississippi system for the numbering of motorboats, which was established pursuant to the Federal Boating Act of 1958.

As provided in this approval, the Mississippi system shall be operative on and after July 1, 1960. On that date the authority to number motorboats principally used in the State of Mississippi passed to that State. Those motorboats presently numbered should continue to display the Coast Guard number until renumbered by Mississippi. On and after July 1, 1960, all reports of "boating accidents" which involve motorboats numbered in Mississippi will be required to be reported to the Boating Division, Game and Fish Commission, Jackson, Mississippi, pursuant to the "Mississippi Boating Act of 1960" (House Bill No. 217) approved by the Governor on April 14, 1960.

Because the amendments to §§ 171.01-6(b), and 171.10-1(b), as set forth in this document, are informative rules about official actions performed by the Commandant, it is hereby found that compliance with the Administrative Procedure Act (respecting notice of proposed rule making, public rule making procedures thereon, and effective date requirements thereof) is unnecessary.

By virtue of the authority vested in me as Commandant, United States Coast Guard, by Treasury Department Orders 120, dated July 31, 1950 (15 F.R. 6521), and 167-17, dated June 29, 1955 (20 F.R. 4976), to promulgate rules in accordance with the statutes cited with the informative rules below, the following amendments are prescribed with an effective date of July 1, 1960:

Subpart 171.01—General

1. Paragraph (b) of § 171.01-6 Temporary exemptions until July 1, 1960, is amended by deleting "Mississippi" from the list of States.

(Sec. 3, 60 Stat. 238, and sec. 633, 63 Stat. 545; 5 U.S.C. 1002, 14 U.S.C. 633)

Subpart 171.10—Application for Number

2. Paragraph (b) of § 171.10-1 To whom made is amended by inserting in the list of States having approved numbering systems the State of "Mississippi."

(Sec. 3, 60 Stat. 238, and sec. 633, 63 Stat. 545; 5 U.S.C. 1002, 14 U.S.C. 633)

Dated: July 8, 1960.

Proposed Rule Making

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, EDUCATION, AND WELFARE

Food and Drug Administration

[21 CFR Parts 3, 121]

STATUS OF FOLIC ACID IN FOODS FOR SPECIAL DIETARY USE AND AS A DRUG; EXTENSION OF EFFECTIVE DATE OF STATUTE FOR THE FOOD ADDITIVE FOLIC ACID

Notice of Proposed Rule Making

1. The Commissioner of Food and Drugs, on his own initiative, and under authority vested in the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare by the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 701(a), 52 Stat. 1055; 21 U.S.C. 371(a)) and delegated to him by the Secretary (22 F.R. 1045, 23 F.R. 9500, 25 F.R. 5611), proposes the issuance of the following statement of policy:

§ 3.42 Status of folic acid in foods for special dietary use and as a drug.

The need in human nutrition for folic acid has been established. Diets used in this country supply ample amounts of the vitamin. Rare deficiencies of folic acid occur, but they are associated with conditions for which the patient should be under medical supervision.

Although not itself harmful, folic acid, when added in sufficient dosage to the diets of persons suffering from pernicious anemia who are not receiving proper medication, has the capacity of correcting the blood disorders of this disease while the accompanying nervous system changes may progress. This may create a hazard for a very few individuals who are undiagnosed, untreated victims of pernicious anemia. This situation is not completely corrected by the incorporation of vitamin B_{12} and intrinsic factor in folic acid-containing preparations for oral use.

Medical experts agree that there is a level of administration above which folic acid should be used only under the supervision of a physician. The Council on Foods and Nutrition of the American Medical Association has considered the use of folic acid in multivitamin combinations used for dietary supplementation. On January 3, 1959, the Council published a statement reading in part:

> The amount of folic acid in supplementary vitamin mixtures should be no greater than that available from an abundant dietary. Common experience indicates that this is a quantity which will seldom support hematological function in pernicious anemia and therefore will not mask the diagnosis of this disorder. Although this quantity is still to be determined, 0.8 mg. of folic acid is suggested tentatively as a proper maximum amount for supplemental mixtures. (Journal of The American Medical Association, Volume 169, pages 41-45, January 3, 1959.)

In November 1959, in connection with the administration of the food additives amendment, the Food and Drug Administration considered the justification for placing folic acid on a list of substances considered by qualified experts to be generally recognized as safe. It concluded at that time, and again at a later date, that the facts did not warrant the placing of the chemical on such a list.

The U.S. Pharmacopeia recognizes two multivitamin preparations, each of which supplies 0.25 milligram of folic acid in the usual dose. The Director of Revision of the Pharmacopeia states that the formula for these products was adopted on the advice of qualified medical experts and that the Revision Committee of the Pharmacopeia has no evidence suggesting need for change with respect to folic acid.

Prior to March 1959, the Food and Drug Administration had not considered it necessary to place a limit on the amount of folic acid that could be present in multiple vitamin preparations for sale without prescription. In early 1960, in view of additional information that was becoming available, the Food and Drug Administration expressed the opinion to some companies that folic acid in a quantity not to exceed 0.4 milligram per day would generally be recognized as safe under the food additives amendment. However, this advice was not formalized by placing folic acid on a proposed list of substances generally recognized as safe.

In June 1960, the Food and Drug Administration consulted nine medical experts in the fields of hematology and internal medicine about the use of folic acid. Six of these experts believed that folic acid should not be used in multivitamin preparations that are offered for sale without prescription. Two experts believed that it could be used properly in an amount not to exceed 0.4 milligram per day. One individual believed that folic acid should be available for sale without prescription at a level of 1.0 milligram to 2.0 milligrams per day.

On June 30, 1960, the Commissioner of Food and Drugs appointed a committee of experts from a panel selected by the National Academy of Sciences to consider this matter and make recommendations. The members of the Committee represented the fields of general medicine, preventive medicine, nutrition, hematology, pediatrics, and obstetrics and gynecology. The committee reported as follows:

The meager data available as background information for any recommendation indicate:

1. The only danger of inclusion of folic acid in such preparations [multivitamin preparations] is to those few patients who would develop pernicious anemia while taking the preparations, who would have the development of that disease be masked by the contained folic acid, and who would be liable to the development of combined system disease. The number of patients known to have been harmed to date is very small.

2. Patients with pernicious anemia in relapse—with possible rare exceptions—will not respond with a hematologic remission to doses of 400 micrograms of synthetic folic acid per day (superimposed on the amount of folic acid which will be absorbed from an average diet in the United States).

3. We do not know to what extent the addition of 400 micrograms of folic acid per day may delay the onset of anemia in patients who develop true pernicious anemia and, therefore, increase the chance of neurological change.

The Committee recommends that:

1. The amount of folic acid to be permitted in multivitamin preparations be limited at present to 400 micrograms per day for preparations to be sold without prescription.

2. A period as long as six months be allowed for the orderly compliance with this recommendation.

3. While it is considered that there is no undue risk to the nation's public health involved in this recommendation, further study and consideration of this problem, aimed at the long term aspects of the recommendation, should be undertaken by another committee with time to consider at greater length problems like those posed in Item 3 above, and other new evidence.

On the basis of all the available evidence, the Food and Drug Administration adopts the following policy with respect to folic acid-containing preparations:

(a) Preparations supplying over 0.4 milligram of folic acid in the daily dosage recommended or suggested are regarded as drugs that should only be used under medical supervision. Among other things, these drugs should be labeled with a statement "Caution: Federal law prohibits dispensing without prescription," and their labeling should bear adequate information for their use by physicians, including information about the possible harmful effect of administering folic acid to patients who may have pernicious anemia.

(b) At the point of manufacture or labeling, the change to the prescription legend should be accomplished before further shipments are made. The orderly relabeling of stocks of such drugs in the channels of distribution should proceed as promptly as possible. Regulatory actions will be initiated against any products not properly relabeled after a reasonable time has passed.

2. The Commissioner also proposes, pursuant to Public Law 85-929 (sec. 6c, Pub. Law 85-929, 72 Stat. 1788; 21 U.S.C. note under sec. 342) to extend the effective date of the food additives amendment to the statute for folic acid by amending § 121.86 to include the following:

FOLIC ACID

§ 121.86 [Amendment]

(a) Folic acid in a preparation the labeling of which clearly limits the daily dosage to a quantity that supplies 0.4 milligram of folic acid per day or less, and labeled for sale without prescription, is regarded as a food additive. The effective date of the food additives amendment of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act is hereby extended to March 6, 1961, for folic acid in such preparations, on the basis of a finding that the extension is necessary and will involve no undue risk to the public health.

(b) On and after March 6, 1961, a preparation described in paragraph (a) of this section may be legally marketed within the jurisdiction of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act only after a food additive regulation is in effect stating allowable conditions for its marketing. Firms that wish to promote folic acid for sale to the public without prescription should supply evidence to support such a regulation.

Interested persons are invited to submit written comments with reference to these proposals, supported by any scientific evidence they may wish to supply, within 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Notice of Filing of Petition for Establishment of Tolerance for Residues of 2,4,5,4'-Tetrachlorodiphenyl Sulfone

Pursuant to the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (sec. 409(d)(1), 68 Stat. 512; 21 U.S.C. 346a (d)(1)), notice is given that a petition has been filed by Niagara Chemical Division, Food Machinery and Chemical Corporation, Middleport, New York, proposing the establishment of a tolerance of 2 parts per million for residues of 2,4,5,4'-tetrachlorodiphenyl sulfone in or on lemons.

The analytical methods proposed in the petition for determining residues of 2,4,5,4'-tetrachlorodiphenyl sulfone are the methods published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of July 9, 1959 (24 F.R. 5550, 5551).

PROPOSED RULE MAKING

FEDERAL AVIATION AGENCY

[14 CFR Part 60]

[Reg. Docket No. 443; Draft Release 60-12]

CONTINENTAL CONTROL AREA

Establishment of the Base at 14,500 Feet Mean Sea Level

Notice is hereby given that the Bureau of Air Traffic Management will propose to the Administrator the adoption of an amendment to Part 60 of the Civil Air Regulations, which would re-establish the lower limit of the continental control area from the present base of 24,000 feet mean sea level (m.s.l.) to 14,500 feet (m.s.l.).

Interested persons may participate in the making of the proposed rule by submitting such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in duplicate to the Docket Section of the Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. All communications received prior to October 13, 1960, will be considered by the Administrator before taking action upon the proposed rule. The proposals contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received. All comments submitted will be available for examination by interested persons in the Docket Section when the prescribed date for the return of comments has expired. Because of the large number of comments which we anticipate receiving in response to this draft release, we will be unable to acknowledge receipt of each reply.

Prior to 1957, controlled airspace had, for the most part, been designated only along 10 mile wide airways and in control zones surrounding certain airport terminal areas. In December 1957, the continental control area was designated which expanded the controlled airspace network above 24,000 feet [2] to the boundaries of the continental United States. This action represented the successful completion of the first phase of comprehensive air traffic control improvement plans that sought the ultimate expansion of controlled airspace to all areas above 15,000 feet.

When the continental control area was first implemented in 1957, it was recognized that the second phase of the implementation plans could not be undertaken until extensive improvements in the air traffic control system were made. Since December 1957, significant advancements have been made in the state of the high altitude air traffic control and navigation system. Among other developments, new and improved radar systems and displays have been developed and are in use. The numerous peripheral radio communications facilities which have been installed and commissioned throughout the country, have provided for the extension of direct communications between pilots and controllers and have proven to be a most effective means of expediting the flow of en route air traffic. Semi-automatic calculating equipment has been put into operational use at several air traffic control facilities and the number of qualified air traffic controllers has increased significantly. These and other similar improvements in the air traffic control system now make it practicable to achieve the objective of expanding controlled airspace to all areas above 15,000 feet.

Although it had been originally contemplated that the "floor" or base of the continental control area would be 15,000 feet, it is proposed herein to establish the "floor" at 14,500 feet. This will permit the continued use of the cardinal altitude of 15,000 feet as an altitude for instrument flight rule (IFR) operations and will provide a 500 foot buffer between IFR and VFR flight operations.

In lowering the "floor" of the continental control area from 24,000 to 14,500 feet, the higher visual flight rule (VFR) minimum weather conditions, which currently apply only above 24,000 feet, would be made applicable to all airspace above 14,500 feet. It is believed that the risk of collision in this area will be alleviated if the minimum visibility for VFR flight is increased to 5 miles and the clearance from clouds minimums is increased to 1,000 feet vertically and one mile horizontally. These minima are believed to be appropriate for application in this airspace since the aircraft that are expected to make the greatest use of this area are the high performance aircraft whose airspeeds are such that the current VFR minimums may not provide sufficient time for pilots to observe and avoid each other. Additionally, such an increase would require a greater number of flight operations to be conducted in accordance with the instrument flight rules with separation being assured by air traffic control.

This proposed action is consistent with the overall airspace structure plans of the Agency which contemplate the movement of IFR air traffic in a three level route structure system. This structure would include the low altitude airway system extending upwards to 14,500 feet; the intermediate airway structure (which would be within the "lowered" continental control area) extending from 14,500 feet to, but not including, 24,000 feet; and the present high altitude jet routes would continue in effect for flights operating at and above 24,000 feet.

It is recognized that in several isolated mountainous locations within the United States, the height of the terrain (13,000 feet or above) requires that the "floor" of the continental control area be set at a higher level than 14,500 feet if uncontrolled airspace is to be provided between such terrain and the "floor" of controlled airspace. Accordingly, provision is made for the exclusion of airspace which is 1,500 feet or less above the terrain.

In consideration of the foregoing, it is proposed to amend the definition of the continental control area contained in § 60.60 to read as follows:

Continental Control Area. The continental control area is that airspace within the continental United States extending upwards from 14,500 feet mean sea level. The continental control area shall not include the airspace over the State of Alaska, the airspace which is less than 1,500 feet above the terrain or, unless otherwise designated in the Regulations of the Administrator, the airspace of prohibited or restricted areas during the time designated as such.

FEDERAL AIRWAYS, CONTROL AREAS, REPORTING POINTS AND POSITIVE CONTROL ROUTE SEGMENTS

Notice of Proposed Rule Making

In the matter of designation of intermediate altitude airways, intermediate reporting points, positive control route segments; modification of Federal airways, associated control areas, reporting points; and revocation of positive control route segments.

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to Parts 600 and 601 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration a proposal to implement a three-level route structure which would be composed of low altitude airways, intermediate altitude airways, and the present high altitude jet routes. This three-level system would be effective within the continental United States, and would provide the basis for more efficient air traffic management of the increasing volume of air traffic and a basis for interference-free frequency assignments of the VOR, VORTAC and TACAN navigation aids.

As a part of this plan, the Federal Aviation Agency would designate an intermediate altitude airway structure which would replace the present Transcontinental VOR Federal airways (Victor 1500 series). These proposed airways would permit simplification of flight planning and reduce pilot-controller communication. The intermediate altitude airway structure would consist of a system of "express" airways primarily designated to serve medium and long range aircraft operations at altitudes from 14,500 feet mean sea level to but not including, 24,000 feet mean sea level, unless otherwise designated. This structure would also include interconnecting airways to provide transition to or from the low and high altitude structure. The intermediate altitude airways would have a width of 8 statute miles either side of the center line of such airways, unless otherwise designated. All VOR, VORTAC, and TACAN navigation facilities named in the descriptions of the proposed intermediate altitude airways would be designated, by definition in Part 601, as Intermediate Altitude Reporting Points. In addition, a new section to Part 601 would be added in which selected intersections, to be used for air traffic management purposes, would be designated as "Additional Intermediate Altitude Reporting Points."

To complete the proposed three-level route structure plan, it is proposed to revoke the presently designated Transcontinental VOR Federal airways (Victor 1500 series), and modify the VOR and Colored Federal airways in their vertical dimension to extend upward from the surface to, but not including, 14,500 feet MSL, unless otherwise designated. These airways would be described as low altitude airways, with lateral dimensions as described at present, unless otherwise designated. The present Domestic VOR reporting points would be redescribed as Low Altitude VOR reporting points. Since there would be no colored airways above the low altitude structure, the colored Federal airways reporting points would automatically conform to the modified colored airways. Accordingly, no amendment relating to modification of the colored airway reporting points would be necessary.

In addition, the presently designated positive control route segments would be revoked and new positive control route segments would be designated to coincide with selected segments of the proposed intermediate altitude airways.

The control areas associated with the proposed intermediate altitude airways will be the subject of a subsequent notice of proposed rule making.

Portions of several airways, described in their entirety in parts A, B, and C of this Notice, extend beyond the continental United States. These portions are described in Annex I to this Notice by reference to the VOR locations within the United States between which a portion of airway is outside the continental limits. Those portions outside the continental limits are excluded from consideration in this Notice pending completion of coordination in accordance with Executive Order No. 10854 (24 F.R. 9565). A subsequent Notice of Proposed Rule Making will be promulgated proposing designation of those portions upon completion of coordination.

If these actions are taken:

1. The presently designated Transcontinental VOR Federal airways (Victor 1500 series) and their associated control areas would be revoked.

2. The present VOR Federal airways and Colored Federal airways would be redesignated to extend from the surface to, but not including, 14,500 feet MSL, and their associated control areas would be redefined to extend from 700 feet above the surface to, but not including, 14,500 feet MSL, unless otherwise designated.

3. The caption to § 601.7001 would be changed to redescribe Domestic VOR reporting points as Low Altitude VOR reporting points.

4. The presently designated positive control route segments would be revoked.

5. Intermediate Altitude VOR Federal airways would be designated between specified points as described below with airway identification numbers assigned in the Victor 1500, 1600 and 1700 series. Each VOR Intermediate Altitude airway would have a width of eight miles either side of the center line of such airways, and would extend vertically from 14,500 feet MSL to, but not including, 24,000 feet MSL, unless otherwise designated.

6. All VOR, VORTAC or TACAN navigation facilities named in the descriptions of the proposed intermediate altitude airways would be designated, by definition in Part 601, as Intermediate Altitude Reporting Points, and those intersections listed below as "Additional Intermediate Altitude Reporting Points", would be designated in a new section to be added to Part 601.

7. Positive control route segments to coincide with selected segments of the proposed intermediate altitude airways (as described below), would be designated.

A—1500 SERIES (WEST TO EAST)

1. VOR Federal Airway 1502 (Seattle, Wash., to Boston, Mass.). From the Seattle, Wash., VOR via the Ephrata, Wash., VOR; intersection of Ephrata VOR 081° T and the Mullan Pass, Idaho, VOR 275° T radials (site of Spokane, Wash., VOR); Mullan Pass VOR; Great Falls, Mont., VOR; Lewistown, Mont., VOR; Miles City, Mont., VOR; Dickinson, N. Dak., VOR; Bismarck, N. Dak., VOR; Jamestown, N. Dak., VOR; Alexandria, Minn., VOR; Minneapolis, Minn., VOR; Eau Claire, Wis., VOR; Green Bay, Wis., VOR; White Cloud, Mich., VOR; Saginaw, Mich., VOR; Peck, Mich., VOR; thence 10-mile wide airway via the London, Ontario, VOR; to the Buffalo, N.Y., VOR; thence to the Syracuse, N.Y., VOR; intersection of the Syracuse VOR 100° T and the Cambridge, N.Y., VOR 277° T radials (site of Utica, N.Y., VOR); Cambridge, VOR; Manchester, Vt., VOR; intersection of the Manchester VOR 117° T and the Boston VOR 014° T radials (Ipswich, Mass., Intersection); to the Boston, Mass., VOR.

2. VOR Federal Airway 1504 (Seattle, Wash., to Nantucket, Mass.). From the Seattle, Wash., VOR via the Ephrata, Wash., VOR; intersection of the Ephrata VOR 081° T and the Mullan Pass, Idaho, VOR 275° T radials (site of the Spokane, Wash., VOR); Mullan Pass, Missoula, Mont., VOR; Helena, Mont., VOR; Billings, Mont., VOR; Sheridan, Wyo., VOR; Dupree, S. Dak., VOR; Watertown, S. Dak., VOR; Redwood Falls, Minn., VOR; Rochester, Minn., VOR; Lone Rock, Wis., VOR; thence 10-mile wide airway via the intersection of the Lone Rock VOR 106° T and the Milwaukee, Wis., VOR 270° T radials; Milwaukee, Wis., VOR; to the Muskegon, Mich., VOR; thence to the intersection of the Muskegon VOR 114° T and the Salem, Mich., VOR 291° T radials (site of the Lansing, Mich., VOR); Salem, Mich., VOR; thence 10-mile wide airway via the Windsor, Ont., VOR; to the Erie, Pa., VOR; thence to the Bradford, Pa., VOR; intersection of the Bradford VOR 095° T and the Wilkes-Barre, Pa., VOR 279° T radials (site of the Stonyfork, Pa., VOR); Wilkes-Barre, Pa., VOR; Poughhoopole, N.Y., VOR; Putnam, Conn., VOR; Providence, R.I., VOR; thence 10-mile wide airway to the Nantucket, Mass., VOR, excluding the portion outside the United States.

2. VOR Federal Airway 1506 (Seattle, Wash., to New York, N.Y.). From the Seattle, Wash., VOR via the Pendleton, Oreg., VOR; McCall, Idaho, VOR; DuBois, Idaho, VOR; DuNoir, Wyo., VOR; Bryan Reservoir, Wyo., VOR; Casper, Wyo., VOR; Chadron, Nebr., VOR; O'Neill, Nebr., VOR; Sioux City, Iowa, VOR; thence 10-mile wide airway to the intersection of the Sioux City VOR 079° T and the Neola, Iowa, VOR 354° T radials; thence to the Fort Dodge, Iowa, VOR; Dubuque, Iowa, VOR; intersection of the Dubuque VOR 095° T and the Northbrook, Ill., VOR 273° T radials (site of Rockford, Ill., VOR); intersection of the Northbrook VOR 273° T and the Janesville, Wis., VOR 137° T radials; thence 10-mile wide airway via the Northbrook, Ill., VOR; to the intersection of the Northbrook VOR 093° T and the Chicago Heights, Ill., VOR 356° T radials; thence to the intersection of the Northbrook VOR 093° T and the Keeler, Mich., VOR 271° T radials (Musky, Mich., Intersection); Keeler, VOR; intersection of the Keeler VOR 094° T and the Carleton, Mich., VOR 271° T radials (site of Litchfield, Mich., VOR); Carleton, Mich., VOR; thence 10-mile wide airway to the Jefferson, Ohio, VOR; thence to the Keating, Pa., VOR; intersection of the Keating VOR 090° T and the Stroudsburg, Pa., VOR 275° T radials (site of Milton, Pa., VOR); thence 10-mile wide airway to the Stroudsburg VOR; thence to the intersection of the Stroudsburg 055° T and the Sparta, N.J., VOR 280° T radials (Branchville, N.J., Intersection); to the Sparta, N.J., VOR.

4. VOR Federal Airway 1508 (Portland, Oreg., to New York, N.Y.). From the Portland, Oreg., VOR via The Dalles, Oreg., VOR; Baker, Oreg., VOR; Boise, Idaho, VOR; Burley, Idaho, VOR; Malad City, Idaho, VOR; Rock Springs, Wyo., VOR; Cherokee, Wyo., VOR; Rock River, Wyo., VOR; Sidney, Nebr., VOR; North Platte, Nebr., VOR; intersection of the North Platte VOR 072° T and the Wolbach, Nebr., VOR 286° T radials (Berwyn, Nebr., Intersection); Wolbach, VOR; Neola, Iowa, VOR; Newton, Iowa, VOR; thence 10-mile wide airway via the Cedar Rapids, Iowa, VOR; Polo, Ill., VOR; intersection of the Polo VOR 088° T and the Naperville, Ill., VOR 290° T radials (Malta, Ill., Intersection); to the Naperville VOR; thence to the South Bend, Ind., VOR; intersection of the South Bend VOR 092° T and the Waterville, Ohio, VOR 288° T radials; Waterville, VOR; intersection of Waterville VOR 096° T and the Carleton, Mich., VOR 162° T radials; thence 10-mile wide airway to the intersection of the Waterville VOR 095° T and the Attica, Ohio VOR 077° T radials; thence to the Cleveland, Ohio, VOR; intersection of the Cleveland VOR 091° T and the Clarion, Pa., VOR 281° T radials (site of Youngstown, Ohio, VOR); thence 10-mile wide airway to the intersection of the Clarion VOR 281° T and the Jefferson, Ohio, VOR 150° T radials; thence to the Clarion, Pa., VOR; thence 10-mile wide airway via the Philipsburg, Pa., VOR; Selinsgrove, Pa., VOR; thence 8-mile wide airway to the Tower City, Pa., VOR; intersection of the Tower City VOR 103° T and the Allentown, Pa., VOR 246° T radials (Strausstown, Pa., Intersection); thence to the Yardley, Pa., VOR; to the intersection of the Yardley VOR 098° T and the Idlewild, N.Y., VOR 213° T radials (Monmouth, N.J., Intersection).

5. VOR Federal Airway 1510 (San Francisco, Calif., to Nantucket, Mass.). From the San Francisco, Calif., TVOR via the intersection of the San Francisco, Calif., TVOR 304° T and the Point Reyes, Calif., VOR 155° T radials (Stinson Beach, Calif., Intersection); Sacramento, Calif., VOR; thence 10-mile wide airway to the intersection of the Sacramento VOR 055° T and the Reno, Nev., VOR 230° T radials (Tahoe, Calif., Intersection); thence to the Reno, VOR; thence 10-mile wide airway to the Lovelock, Nev., VOR; thence to the Battle Mountain, Nev., VOR; thence 10-mile wide airway via the intersection of the Battle Mountain VOR 062° T and the Wells, Nev., VOR 256° T radials (Doby, Nev., Intersection); to the Wells, VOR; thence to the intersection of the Wells VOR 075° T and the Ogden, Utah, VOR 276° T radials (site of Lucin, Utah, VOR); thence 10-mile wide airway to the Ogden, VOR; thence to the intersection of the Ogden VOR 052° T and the Rock Springs, Wyo., VOR 259° T radials (site of Fort Bridger, Utah, VOR); Rock Springs, VOR; Laramie, Wyo., VOR; Cheyenne, Wyo., VOR; Sidney, Nebr., VOR; North Platte, Nebr., VOR; Grand Island, Nebr., VOR; intersection of the Grand Island VOR 084° T and the Neola, Iowa, VOR 236° T radials; thence 10-mile wide airway via the Omaha, Nebr., VOR; to the Des Moines, Iowa, VOR; thence to the Moline, Ill., VOR; Joliet, Ill., VOR; thence 12-mile wide airway via the Chicago Heights, Ill., VOR; Goshen, Ind., VOR; to the Waterville, Ohio, VOR; thence to the intersection of the Waterville VOR 095° T and the Carleton, Mich., VOR 162° T radials; thence 10-mile wide airway to the intersection of the Waterville VOR 095° T and the Attica, Ohio, VOR 007° T radials; thence to the Cleveland, Ohio, VOR; intersection of the Cleveland VOR 091° T and the Clarion, Pa., VOR 281° T radials (site of Youngstown, Ohio, VOR); thence 10-mile wide airway to the intersection of the Clarion VOR 281° T and the Jefferson, Ohio, VOR 150° T radials; thence to the Clarion VOR; thence 10-mile wide airway via the Philipsburg, Pa., VOR; Selinsgrove, Pa., VOR; to the Tower City, Pa., VOR; thence 8-mile wide airway to the intersection of the Tower City VOR 103° T and the Allentown, Pa., VOR 246° T radials (Strausstown, Pa., Intersection); thence to the Yardley, Pa., VOR; intersection of the Yardley VOR 098° T and the Idlewild, N.Y., VOR 212° T radials (Monmouth, N.J., Intersection); thence 10-mile wide airway via the Idlewild, N.Y., VOR; intersection of the Idlewild VOR 063° T and the Hampton, N.Y., VOR 136° T radials (White Cap, N.Y., Intersection); to the Nantucket, Mass., VOR.

6. VOR Federal Airway 1512 (San Francisco, Calif., to Chicago, Ill.). From the intersection of the Sacramento, Calif., VOR 232° T and the Linden, Calif., VOR 264° T radials (Crockett, Calif., Intersection) via the Linden VOR; intersection of the Linden VOR 046° T and the Reno, Nev., VOR 208° T radials (Spring Hill Intersection); Reno, Nev., VOR; thence 10-mile wide airway to the Lovelock, Nev., VOR; thence to the Battle Mountain, Nev., VOR; thence 10-mile wide airway via the Elko, Nev., VOR; Bonneville, Utah, VOR; to the Salt Lake City, Utah, VOR; thence to the Myton, Utah, VOR; Kremmling, Colo., VOR; intersection of the Kremmling VOR 081° T and the Akron, Colo., VOR 272° T radials (Longmont, Colo., Intersection); Akron, VOR; Hayes Center, Nebr., VOR; Grand Island, Nebr., VOR; intersection of the Grand Island VOR 084° T and the Neola, Iowa, VOR 236° T radials; thence 10-mile wide airway via the Omaha, Nebr., VOR; to the Des Moines, Iowa, VOR; thence via the intersection of the Des Moines VOR 086° T and Cordova, Ill., VOR 267° T radials; Cordova, Ill., VOR; thence 10-mile wide airway to the Naperville, Ill., VOR.

7. VOR Federal Airway 1514 (Salt Lake City, Utah, to New York, N.Y.). From the Salt Lake City, Utah, VOR via the Myton, Utah, VOR; Kremmling, Colo., VOR; Denver, Colo., VOR; Thurman, Colo., VOR; intersection of the Thurman VOR 100° T and the Hill City, Kans., VOR 277° T radials (site of Goodland, Kans., VOR); Hill City, Kans., VOR; thence 10-mile wide airway via the Salina, Kans., VOR; Topeka, Kans., VOR; to the Kansas City, Mo., VOR; thence to the Kirksville, Mo., VOR; intersection of the Kirksville VOR 065° T and the Bradford, Ill., VOR 248° T (site of the Burlington, Iowa, VOR); Bradford, VOR; Joliet, Ill., VOR; thence 12-mile wide airway via the Chicago Heights, Ill., VOR; Goshen, Ind., VOR; to the Waterville, Ohio, VOR; thence to the intersection of the Waterville VOR 095° T and the Carleton, Mich., VOR 162° T radials; thence 10-mile wide airway to the intersection of the Waterville VOR 095° T and the Attica, Ohio, VOR 067° T radials; thence to the Cleveland, Ohio, VOR; intersection of the Cleveland VOR 091° T and the Clarion, Pa., VOR 281° T radials; thence 10-mile wide airway to the intersection of the Clarion VOR 281° T and the Jefferson, Ohio, VOR 150° T radials; thence to the Clarion VOR; thence 10-mile wide airway via the Philipsburg, Pa., VOR; the Selinsgrove, Pa., VOR; the Allentown, Pa., VOR; the Solberg, N.J., VOR; to the intersection of the Solberg, N.J., VOR 092° T and the Stroudsburg, Pa., VOR 114° T radials (Coney Island, N.Y., Intersection).

8. VOR Federal Airway 1516 (San Francisco, Calif., to New York, N.Y.) From the Oakland, Calif., VOR; a 10-mile wide airway via the intersection of the Oakland, Calif., VOR 075° T and the Stockton, Calif., VOR 269° T radials (Altamont, Calif., Intersection); the Stockton, Calif., VOR; to the intersection of the Stockton, Calif., VOR 065° T and the Linden, Calif., VOR 143° T radials; thence to the Coaldale, Nev., VOR; Wilson Creek, Nev., VOR; Milford, Utah, VOR; Hanksville, Utah, VOR; Grand Junction, Colo., VOR; Kremmling, Colo., VOR; Denver, Colo., VOR; Thurman, Colo., VOR; intersection of the Thurman VOR 100° T and the Hill City, Kans., VOR 277° T radials (site of Goodland, Kans., VOR); Hill City, Kans., VOR; Mankato, Kans., VOR; thence 10-mile wide airway to the Pawnee City, Nebr., VOR; thence to the Lamoni, Iowa, VOR; Moline, Ill., VOR; Joliet, Ill., VOR; thence 12-mile wide airway via the Chicago Heights, Ill., VOR; the Goshen, Ind., VOR; to the Waterville, Ohio, VOR; thence to the intersection of the Waterville VOR 095° T and the Carleton, Mich., VOR 162° T radials; thence 10-mile wide airway to the intersection of the Waterville VOR 095° T and the Attica, Ohio, VOR 007° T radials; thence to the Cleveland, Ohio, VOR; intersection of the Cleveland VOR 091° T and the Clarion, Pa., VOR 281° T radials (site of Youngstown, Ohio, VOR); thence 10-mile wide airway to the intersection of the Clarion VOR 281° T and the Jefferson, Ohio, VOR 150° T radials; thence to the Clarion, Pa., VOR; thence 10-mile wide airway via the Philipsburg, Pa., VOR; Selinsgrove, Pa., VOR; thence 8-mile wide airway to the intersection of the Tower City VOR 103° T and the Allentown, Pa., VOR 246° T radials (Strausstown, Pa., Intersection); thence to the Yardley, Pa., VOR; thence 10-mile wide airway via the intersection of the Yardley VOR 056° T and the Solberg, N.J., VOR 135° T radials (New Brunswick, N.J., Intersection).

9. VOR Federal Airway 1518 (Minneapolis, Minn., to Washington, D.C.). From the Minneapolis, Minn., VOR via the Nodine, Minn., VOR; Lone Rock, Wis., VOR; intersection of the Lone Rock VOR 147° T and the Janesville, Wis., VOR 294° T radials; thence 10-mile wide airway to the Janesville, Wis., VOR; thence to the Naperville, Ill., VOR; Chicago Heights, VOR; thence 12-mile wide airway to the Goshen, Ind., VOR; thence to the intersection of the Goshen VOR 111° T and the Fort Wayne, Ind., VOR 068° T radials; Attica, Ohio, VOR; Navarre, Ohio, VOR; intersection of the Navarre VOR 126° T and the Pittsburgh, Pa., VOR 286° T radials (Kilgore, Pa., Intersection); Pittsburgh, Pa., VOR; Martinsburg, W. Va., VOR; to the Herndon, Va., VOR,

10. VOR Federal Airway 1520 (Minneapolis, Minn., to Washington, D.C.). From the Minneapolis, Minn., VOR via the intersection of the Minneapolis, VOR 165° T and the Rochester, Minn., VOR 334° T radials (site of Farmington, Minn., VOR); Rochester, Minn., VOR; Rewey, Wis., VOR; intersection of the Rewey VOR 143° T and the Joliet, Ill., VOR 137° T radials (site of the Rockford, Ill., VOR); Joliet, Ill., VOR; Peotone, Ill., VOR; thence 12-mile wide airway to the Fort Wayne, Ind., VOR; thence via the Appleton, Ohio, VOR; intersection of the Appleton VOR 111° T and the Morgantown, W. Va., VOR 284° T radials (site of the Zanesville, Ohio, VOR); Morgantown, VOR; intersection of the Morgantown VOR 109° T and the Martinsburg, W. Va., VOR 253° T radials; thence 10-mile wide airway via the Front Royal, Va., VOR, to the Herndon, Va., VOR.

11. VOR Federal Airway 1522 (Los Angeles, Calif., to New York, N.Y.). From the Los Angeles, Calif., VOR via the intersection of the Los Angeles VOR 057° T and the Daggett, Calif., VOR 235° T radials; Daggett, Calif., VOR; thence 10-mile wide airway to the intersection of the Daggett VOR 046° T and the Needles, Calif., VOR 296° T radials (Silver Lake, Calif., Intersection); thence to the Las Vegas, Nev., VOR; Mormon Mesa, Nev., VOR; Bryce Canyon, Utah, VOR; Hanksville, Utah, VOR; La Sal, Utah, VOR; Gunnison, Colo., VOR; Pueblo, Colo., VOR; Lamar, Colo., VOR; Russell, Kans., VOR; thence 10-mile wide airway via the Salina, Kans., VOR; the Topeka, Kans., VOR; the Kansas City, Mo., VOR; to the intersection of the Kansas City VOR 093° T and the Columbia, Mo., VOR 277° T radials (site of Marshall, Mo., VOR); thence via the Columbia, Mo., VOR; Vandalia, Ill., VOR; intersection of the Vandalia VOR 073° T and the Indianapolis, Ind., VOR 248° T radials (site of the Terre Haute, Ind., VOR); thence 10-mile wide airway to the Indianapolis, Ind., VOR; thence to the intersection of the Indianapolis VOR 069° T and the Rosewood, Ohio, VOR 263° T radials; Rosewood, VOR; Tiverton, Ohio, VOR; Navarre, Ohio, VOR; Tyrone, Pa., VOR; thence 10-mile wide airway via the intersection of the Tyrone VOR 095° T and the Tower City, Pa., VOR 279° T radials (Readsville, Pa., Intersection); to the intersection of the Tower City VOR 279° T and the Harrisburg, Pa., VOR 011° T radials; thence 8-mile wide airway via the Tower City, Pa., VOR; to the intersection of the Tower City VOR 103° T and the Allentown, Pa., VOR 246° T radials (Strausstown, Pa., Intersection); thence via the Yardley, Pa., VOR; to the intersection of the Yardley VOR 098° T and the Idlewild, N.Y., VOR 213° T radials (Monmouth, N.J., Intersection).

12. VOR Federal Airway 1524 (Los Angeles, Calif., to New York, N.Y.). From the Los Angeles, Calif., VOR via the Ontario, Calif., VOR; intersection of the Hector, Calif., VOR 228° T and the Palmdale, Calif., VOR 096° T radials (Lucerne, Calif., Intersection); thence 10-mile wide airway via the Hector, Calif., VOR; to the intersection of the Hector, Calif., VOR 072° T and the Daggett, Calif., VOR 121° T radials; thence via the Goffs, Calif., VOR; Peach Springs, Ariz., VOR; Tuba City, Ariz., VOR; Farmington, N. Mex., VOR; Alamosa, Colo., VOR; Lamar, Colo., VOR; Garden City, Kans., VOR; intersection of the Garden City, Kans., VOR 086° T and the Anthony, Kans., VOR 340° T radial; thence 10-mile wide airway via the Hutchinson, Kans., VOR; to the intersection of the Hutchinson, Kans., VOR 078° T and the Wichita, Kans., VOR 010° T radials; thence to the Emporia, Kans., VOR; thence 10-mile wide airway via the intersection of the Emporia VOR 050° T and the Blue Springs, Mo., VOR 272° T radials (Bonner Springs, Mo., Intersection); the Blue Springs, VOR; to the intersection of the Blue Springs VOR 095° T and the Readsville, Mo., VOR 280° T radials (site of the Blackwater, Mo., VOR); thence via the Readsville, Mo., VOR; Troy, Ill., VOR; intersection of the Troy VOR 080° T and the Lewis, Ind., VOR 250° T radials (site of the Bible Grove, Ill., VOR); Lewis, Ind., VOR; intersection of the Lewis, Ind., VOR 071° T and the Cincinnati, Ohio, VOR 350° T radial; thence 10-mile wide airway via the Dayton, Ohio, VOR; to the intersection of the Dayton, Ohio, VOR 084° T and the Rosewood, Ohio, VOR 123° T radials; thence via the Appleton, Ohio, VOR; intersection of the Appleton VOR 085° T and the Parkersburg, W. Va., VOR 023° T radials; thence 10-mile wide airway to the Pittsburgh, Pa., VOR; thence via the Johnstown, Pa., VOR; Harrisburg, Pa., VOR; thence 10-mile wide airway to the intersection of the Harrisburg VOR 073° T and the Allentown, Pa., VOR 246° T radials (Sanger, Pa., Intersection); thence to the Allentown, VOR; Solberg, N.J., VOR; to the intersection of the Solberg VOR 092° T and the Stroudsburg, Pa., VOR 114° T radials (Coney Island, N.Y., Intersection).

13. VOR Federal Airway 1526 (St. Louis, Mo., to Washington, D.C.). From the Troy, Ill., VOR via the Samsville, Ill., VOR; Nabb, Ind., VOR; York, Ky., VOR; Elkins, W. Va., VOR; Linden, Va., VOR; thence 10-mile wide airway to the intersection of the Linden, Va., VOR 095° T and the Washington, D.C., TVOR 245° T radials; thence to the Washington, D.C., TVOR.

14. VOR Federal Airway 1528 (San Francisco, Calif., to Dallas, Tex.). From the Oakland, Calif., VOR; 10-mile wide airway via the intersection of the Oakland VOR 110° T and the Stockton VOR 246° T radials; to the Stockton, Calif., VOR; thence via the Coaldale, Nev., VOR; Wilson Creek, Nev., VOR; Milford, Utah, VOR; Hanksville, Utah, VOR; Dove Creek, Colo., VOR; Alamosa, Colo., VOR; Clayton, N. Mex., VOR; Dalhart, Tex., VOR; Amarillo, Tex., VOR; Childress, Tex., VOR; Wichita Falls, Tex., VOR; intersection of the Wichita Falls VOR 122° T and the Dallas, Tex., VOR 299° T radials (Alvord, Tex., Intersection); to the Dallas, Tex., VOR.

15. VOR Federal Airway 1530 (Los Angeles, Calif., to Washington, D.C.). From the Los Angeles, Calif., VOR via the intersection of the Los Angeles VOR 139° T and the Long Beach, Calif., VOR 287° T radials; Long Beach, Calif., VOR; Ontario, Calif., VOR; intersection of the Hector, Calif., VOR 228° T and the Thermal, Calif., VOR 331° T radials (Lucerne, Calif., Intersection); thence 10-mile wide airway via the Hector, Calif., VOR; to the intersection of the Hector, Calif., VOR 072° T and the Daggett, Calif., VOR 121° T radials; thence via the Goffs, Calif., VOR; Peach Springs, Ariz., VOR; Tuba City, Ariz., VOR; Farmington, N. Mex., VOR, Cimarron, N. Mex., VOR; Clayton, N. Mex., VOR; Liberal, Kans., VOR; intersection of the Liberal VOR 090° T and the Ponca City, Okla., VOR 280° T radials (Aetna, Okla., Intersection); Ponca City, VOR; Oswego, Kans., VOR; Springfield, Mo., VOR; Farmington, Mo., VOR; Evansville, Ind., VOR; intersection of the Evansville VOR 069° T and the Louisville, Ky., VOR 269° T radials (Agatone, Ind., Intersection); intersection of the Louisville VOR 269° T and the Robb, Ind., VOR 214° T radials; thence 10-mile wide airway to the Louisville VOR; thence via the Lexington, Ky., VOR; Charleston, W. Va., VOR; Montebello, Va., VOR; intersection of the Montebello VOR 053° T and the Herndon, Va., VOR 226° T radials (site of Casanova, Va., VOR); to the Herndon, Va., VOR.

16. VOR Federal Airway 1532 (Los Angeles, Calif., to New York, N.Y.). FEDERAL AIRWAYS AND CONTROL AREAS

Revocation of Federal Airway, and Associated Control Areas

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering amendments to Parts 600 and 601 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

Blue Federal airway No. 15 presently extends from Akron, Ohio, to Hubbard, Ohio. The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration revoking this airway. The Federal Aviation Agency IFR peakday air traffic survey for the period July 1, 1958, through June 30, 1959, and an air traffic survey conducted on April 1, 1960, showed no aircraft movements on Blue 15. On the basis of these surveys, it appears that the retention of this airway and its associated control areas is unjustified as an assignment of airspace and that the revocation thereof would be in the public interest. In addition, § 601.4615 relating to reporting points would be revoked.

If these actions are taken, Blue Federal airway No. 15, its associated control areas and § 601.4615 relating to reporting points would be revoked.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Federal Building, New York International Airport, Jamaica 30, N.Y. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) and 313(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354).

Issued in Washington, D.C., on July 8, 1960.

Chief, Airspace Utilization Division.

FEDERAL AIRWAYS AND CONTROL AREAS

Modification and Revocation of Federal Airways and Associated Control Areas; Designation, Modification and Revocation of Control Area Extensions

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to Part 601 and §§ 600.6006, 600.6025, 600.6027, 600.6110, 600.6111, 600.6137, 600.6230, 601.6027, 601.1193, 601.6110, 601.6111, 601.6137, 601.6230 and 601.7001 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration the following actions:

1. VOR Federal airway No. 27 extends in part from San Luis Obispo, Calif., via Paso Robles, Calif., and Salinas, Calif., to Point Reyes, Calif., with west alternates from Paso Robles to Salinas and from Salinas to Point Reyes. It is proposed to realign this segment of Victor 27 from the San Luis Obispo VOR via the intersection of the San Luis Obispo VOR 308° and the Big Sur, Calif., VOR 157° True radials; the Big Sur VOR (latitude 36°10'53'' N., longitude 121°38'31'' W.); the intersection of the Big Sur VOR 325° and the Point Reyes, Calif., VOR 161° True radials; to the Point Reyes, VOR excluding that portion below 5,000 feet MSL which would coincide with the San Francisco, Calif., Warning Area (W-283), and excluding the portion which would coincide with the Hunter-Liggett, Calif., Restricted Area (R-285). It is also proposed to revoke the west alternates to Victor 27 and their associated control areas between Paso Robles and Salinas and between Salinas and Point Reyes.

2. VOR Federal airway No. 25 extends in part from Paso Robles, Calif., via Agnew, Calif., to Point Reyes, Calif. It is proposed to realign this segment of Victor 25 from the Paso Robles VOR via the intersection of the Paso Robles VOR 317° and the Salinas, Calif., VOR 147° True radials; Salinas VOR, including an east alternate from the Paso Robles VOR to the Salinas VOR via the intersection of the Paso Robles VOR 332° and the Salinas VOR 131° True radials; intersection of the Salinas VOR 310° and the Woodside, Calif., VOR 158° True radials; the Woodside VOR (latitude 37°23'34'' N., longitude 122°16'51'' W.); the San Francisco, Calif., terminal VOR; intersection of the San Francisco terminal VOR 304° and the Point Reyes, Calif., VOR 161° True radials; to the Point Reyes VOR, excluding the portions which would coincide with the Camp Roberts, Calif., Restricted Area (R-415) and the Fort Ord, Calif., Restricted Area (R-284). The control areas associated with this airway are so designatd that they would automatically conform to the modified airway. Accordingly, no action relating to control areas would be necessary.

3. VOR Federal airway No. 230 extends from Salinas, Calif., to Fresno, Calif. It is proposed to extend this airway and its associated control areas westward from the Salinas VOR to the intersection of the Salinas VOR 281° and the Big Sur, Calif., VOR 325° True radials, excluding the portion which would coincide with the Fort Ord, Calif., Restricted Area (R-284) and the portion below 5,000' which would coincide with the San Francisco, Calif., Warning Area (W-283).

4. VOR Federal airway No. 111 extends from the Salinas, Calif., VOR via the Salinas VOR 041° True radial to its intersection with the enroute radial of VOR Federal airway No. 107. It is proposed to extend this airway and its associated control areas southward from the Salinas VOR direct to the Big Sur, Calif., VOR, excluding the portion which would coincide with the Fort Ord, Calif., Restricted Area (R-284).

5. VOR Federal airway No. 137 extends in part from Salinas, Calif., to Oakland, Calif. It is proposed to revoke this segment of Victor 137 and its associated control areas.

6. VOR Federal airway No. 110 extends from the intersection of the Agnew, Calif., VOR 218° and the Salinas, Calif., VOR 319° True radials via the Agnew VOR to the intersection of the Agnew VOR 038° and the Modesto, Calif., VOR 273° True radials. It is proposed to revoke this airway and its associated control areas.

7. VOR Federal airway No. 6 extends in part from the intersection of the Salinas, Calif., VOR 319° and the Oakland, Calif., VOR 221° True radials to the Oakland, Calif., VOR. It is proposed to redesignate this segment of Victor 6 from the intersection of the Oakland VOR 221° and the Point Reyes, Calif., VOR 161° True radials to the Oakland VOR. The control areas associated with this airway are so designated that they would automatically conform to the modified airway. Accordingly, no action relating to control areas would be necessary.

8. The Monterey, Calif., control area extension (§ 601.1193) is designated as follows: The area bounded by a line 5 miles southeast of and parallel to the 241° True radial of the Salinas omnirange extending from the western boundary of VOR Federal airway No. 27 to a point at latitude 36°27'30'' N., longitude 121°52'30'' W., thence to a point 3 nautical miles offshore and 5 statute miles southeast of the southwest course of the Moffett, Calif., NAS radio range; thence in a northeasterly direction parallel to the southwest course of the Moffett NAS radio range to the western boundary of VOR Federal airway No. 27; thence southeasterly along the western boundary of VOR Federal airway No. 27 to the point of beginning, excluding the portion which lies within the geographic limits of, and between the designated altitudes of, the Fort Ord Restricted Area (R-284) during this restricted area's time of designation. It is proposed to redesignate this control area extension as the area bounded on the north by VOR Federal airway No. 230, on the east by VOR Federal airway No. 111, on the south by a line south of, 5 miles from, and parallel to the Salinas, Calif., VOR 239° True radial, and on the west by VOR Federal airway No. 27, excluding the portion which would coincide with the Fort Ord, Calif., Restricted Area (R-284).

9. The Oakland, Calif., control area extension (§ 601.1165) is designated as follows: The area southeast of Oakland bounded on the southwest by VOR Federal airway No. 137, on the southeast by VOR Federal airway No. 110 and on the north by VOR Federal airway No. 28. It is proposed to revoke this control area extension.

10. It is proposed to designate the San Jose, Calif., control area extension to include the area bounded on the northeast by VOR Federal airway No. 107, on the southeast by VOR Federal airway No. 111, on the south by VOR Federal airway No. 230, on the southwest by VOR Federal airway No. 27 and on the northwest by the southeastern boundary of the San Francisco, Calif., control area extension (§ 601.1113).

11. The following Domestic VOR reporting points would be designated: Big Sur, Calif., VOR. Point Ano intersection (the intersection of the Point Reyes, Calif., VOR 161° and the Woodside, Calif., 203° True radials). Woodside, Calif., VOR.

12. The Stinson Beach, Calif., Domestic VOR reporting point would be redesignated as follows: Stinson Beach Intersection: The intersection of the Point Reyes, Calif., VOR 161° and the San Francisco TVOR 304° True radials.

13. The following Domestic VOR reporting points would be revoked:

Benito, Calif., Intersection.
Campbell, Calif., Intersection.

Davenport, Calif., Intersection.
Mount Hamilton, Calif., Intersection.
Saratoga, Calif., Intersection.

To accomplish items 1 and 3 above, it would be necessary to modify the San Francisco, Calif., Warning Area (W-283) by establishing a ceiling of 5,000 feet MSL on that portion which would coincide with the proposed alignment of Victor 27 and Victor 230. This modification will be proposed separately in accordance with established non-rule making procedures.

The modification of airways proposed herein would improve air traffic management by providing an additional airway between Los Angeles, Calif., and San Francisco, Calif., and would provide better navigational guidance along the airways by the utilization of additional navigational facilities. Realignment of Victor 25 would reroute traffic around NAS Moffett and San Jose and would result in more expeditious movement of traffic at these airports. Designation of an east alternate to Victor 25 would expedite the movement of local traffic between Monterey and Paso Robles. Victor 111 and 230 would be used for transition between Victor 25 and Victor 27. With the realignment of Victor 27, it would be necessary to redescribe and realign Victor 6 from Oakland westward to Victor 27. When Victor 25 and 27 are realigned, the above segments of Victor 110 and 137 and the Agnew, Calif., VOR would no longer be required for air traffic management purposes. These segments of airways would be revoked and the VOR would be decommissioned. Realignment of Victor 25 and 27, redesignation of Victor 111 and 230 and revocation of Victor 110 and 137 would require redesignation of the Monterey control area extension. The San Jose control area extension would be designated in order to retain control area which would otherwise be relocated by the realignment of associated airways. The Oakland control area extension would be revoked because it is encompassed within control areas associated with airways. Revocation of the Oakland control area extension, redesignation of the Monterey control area extension and designation of the San Jose control area extension would result in a slight increase in control area. Realignment of Victor 27 as proposed would result in a conflict with the San Francisco Warning Area W-283. This conflict would be resolved by placing a 5000' MSL ceiling on the portion of the warning area involved and a floor on the portion of VOR Federal airway No. 27 which would overlie the warning area.

If these actions are taken, the Federal airways and control areas described below would be designated, modified or revoked as follows:

1. The segment of VOR Federal airway No. 27 under consideration would be redesignated from the San Luis Obispo, Calif., VOR via the intersection of the San Luis Obispo VOR 308° and the Big Sur, Calif., VOR 157° True radials; the Big Sur VOR; intersection of the Big Sur VOR 325° and the Point Reyes, Calif., VOR 161° True radials; to the Point Reyes VOR, excluding that portion below 5,000 feet MSL which would coincide with the San Francisco, Calif., Warning Area (W-283); and excluding the portion which would coincide with the Hunter-Liggett, Calif., Restricted Area (R-285).

2. The segment of VOR Federal airway No. 25 under consideration, would be redesignated from the Paso Robles, Calif., VOR via the intersection of the Paso Robles VOR 317° and the Salinas, Calif., VOR 147° True radials; the Salinas VOR, including an east alternate from the Paso Robles VOR to the Salinas VOR via the intersection of the Paso Robles VOR 332° and the Salinas VOR 131° True radials; intersection of the Salinas VOR 310° and the Woodside, Calif., VOR 158° True radials; the Woodside VOR; the San Francisco, Calif., terminal VOR; intersection of the San Francisco terminal VOR 304° and the Point Reyes, Calif., VOR 161° True radials; to the Point Reyes VOR, excluding the portions which would coincide with the Camp Roberts, Calif., Restricted Area (R-415) and the Fort Ord, Calif., Restricted Area (R-284).

3. The segment of VOR Federal airway No. 230 under consideration and its associated control areas would be designated from the intersection of the Big Sur, Calif., VOR 325° and the Salinas, Calif., VOR 281° True radials to the Salinas VOR, excluding the portion which would coincide with the Fort Ord, Calif., Restricted Area (R-284) and the portion below 5,000 feet MSL which would coincide with the San Francisco, Calif., Warning Area (W-283).

4. The segment of VOR Federal airway No. 111 under consideration and its associated control areas would be designated from the Big Sur, Calif., VOR direct to the Salinas, Calif., VOR, excluding the portion which would coincide with the Fort Ord, Calif., Restricted Area (R-284).

5. The segment of VOR Federal airway No. 137 from the Salinas, Calif., VOR to the Oakland, Calif., VOR and its associated control areas would be revoked.

6. VOR Federal airway No. 110 and its associated control areas would be revoked.

7. The segment of VOR Federal airway No. 6 under consideration would be redesignated from the intersection of the Oakland, Calif., VOR 221° and the Point Reyes, Calif., VOR 161° True radials to the Oakland VOR.

8. The Monterey, Calif., control area extension (§ 601.1193) would be redesignated as the area bounded on the north by VOR Federal airway No. 230, on the east by VOR Federal airway No. 111, on the south by a line south of, 5 miles from and parallel to the Salinas, Calif., VOR 239° True radial, and on the west by VOR Federal airway No. 27, excluding the portion which would coincide with the Fort Ord, Calif., Restricted Area (R-284).

9. The Oakland, Calif., control area extension (§ 601.1165) would be revoked.

10. The San Jose, Calif., control area extension would be designated as the area bounded on the northeast by VOR Federal airway No. 107, on the southeast by VOR Federal airway No. 111, on the south by VOR Federal airway No. 230, on the southwest by VOR Federal airway No. 27 and on the northwest by the San Francisco, Calif., control area extension (§ 601.1113).

11. The following Domestic VOR reporting points would be designated: Big Sur, Calif., VOR. Point Ano Intersection: The intersection of the Point Reyes, Calif., VOR 161° True and the Woodside, Calif., 203° True radials. Woodside, Calif., VOR.

12. The Stinson Beach, Calif., Domestic VOR reporting point would be redesignated as follows: Stinson Beach Intersection: The intersection of the Point Reyes, Calif., VOR 161° True and the San Francisco TVOR 304° True radials.

13. The following Domestic VOR reporting points would be revoked:

Benito, Calif., Intersection.
Campbell, Calif., Intersection.
Davenport, Calif., Intersection.
Mount Hamilton, Calif., Intersection.
Saratoga, Calif., Intersection.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, 5651 West Manchester Avenue, P.O. Box 90007, Airport Station, Los Angeles 45, Calif. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) and 313(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354).

Issued in Washington, D.C., on July 7, 1960.

FEDERAL AIRWAYS AND RESTRICTED AREAS

Designation of Restricted Area/Military Climb Corridor Modification of Federal Airways

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to §§ 600.6003, 600.6039, 600.6471 and 608.27 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration the designation of a Restricted Area/Military Climb Corridor at Dow AFB, Bangor, Maine. The military climb corridor, designated as a restricted area, would be used by the high-speed, high-rate-of-climb Century Series air defense aircraft while departing from the airbase on active air defense missions. The restricted area would provide protection for high-speed air defense aircraft and other users of the airspace during the climb phase of the air defense aircraft mission. The proposed restricted area/military climb corridor would extend along the 312° True radial of the Dow AFB TACAN (latitude 44°48'45" N., longitude 68°50'29" W.), from 8.2 statute miles northwest of the TACAN to 35.2 statute miles northwest of the TACAN having a width of 2 statute miles at the beginning and a width of 5 statute miles at the outer extremity. The lower altitude limits in graduated steps would extend from 2,200 feet MSL to 19,200 feet MSL. The upper altitude limits would extend from 15,200 feet MSL to 27,000 feet MSL. The controlling agency would be the Dow AFB Approach Control. The controlling agency would authorize aircraft to operate within the climb corridor when not in use by active air defense aircraft.

Concurrently with the proposed designation of the Restricted Area/Military Climb Corridor at Dow AFB, the Federal Aviation Agency is considering modification of the following designated VOR Federal airway segment; Victor 3 from Bangor to Houlton, Maine, Victor 39 from Augusta, Maine, to Millinocket, Maine, and Victor 471 from Bangor to Millinocket. It is proposed to realign these airway segments as follows: Victor 3 from the Bangor VOR to the Houlton VOR via the intersection of the Bangor VOR 039° and the Houlton 203° True radials; Victor 39 from Augusta VOR via the intersection of the Augusta VOR 020° and the Millinocket VOR 233° True radials, to the Millinocket VOR; Victor 471 from the Bangor VOR direct to the Millinocket VOR. These modifications would permit optimum use of altitudes on the airway segments for arrival, departure and en route aircraft while the climb corridor is in use. The control areas associated with Victor 3, Victor 39 and Victor 471 are so designated that they would automatically conform to the modified airways. Accordingly, no amendment to such control areas would be necessary.

If these actions are taken, the Bangor, Maine (Dow AFB) Restricted Area/Military Climb Corridor (R-4) (Lewiston Chart) would be designated as follows:

Description. That area centered on the 312° True radial of the Dow AFB TACAN, beginning 8.2 statute miles northwest of the TACAN and extending 35.2 statute miles northwest of the TACAN, having a width of 2 statute miles at the beginning and 5 statute miles at the outer extremity.

Designated altitudes.
2,200' MSL to 15,200' MSL from 8.2 statute miles northwest of the TACAN to 9.2 statute miles northwest of the TACAN.
2,200' MSL to 24,200' MSL from 9.2 to 10.2 statute miles northwest of the TACAN.
2,200' MSL to 27,000' MSL from 10.2 to 13.2 statute miles northwest of the TACAN.
6,200' MSL to 27,000' MSL from 13.2 to 18.2 statute miles northwest of the TACAN.
10,200' MSL to 27,000' MSL from 18.2 to 23.2 statute miles northwest of the TACAN.
15,200' MSL to 27,000' MSL from 23.2 to 28.2 statute miles northwest of the TACAN.
19,200' MSL to 27,000' MSL from 28.2 to 35.2 statute miles northwest of the TACAN.

Time of use. Continuous.

Controlling Agency. Dow AFB, Maine, Approach Control.

The segment of VOR Federal airway No. 3 from Bangor, Maine, to Houlton, Maine, would be redesignated via the intersection of the Bangor VOR 039° and the Houlton VOR 203° True radials. The segment of VOR Federal airway No. 39 from Augusta, Maine, to Millinocket, Maine, would be redesignated via the intersection of the Augusta VOR 020° and the Millinocket VOR 233° True radials. The segment of VOR Federal airway No. 471 from Bangor, Maine, to Millinocket, Maine, would be redesignated direct station to station.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Federal Building, New York International Airport, Jamaica 30, N.Y. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviaton Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) and 313(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354).

Issued in Washington, D.C., on July 7, 1960.

CONTROL AREAS

Modification of Control Area Extension

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to § 601.1285 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The present Shreveport, La., control area extension is designated as the airspace within a 40-nautical mile radius of the Barksdale Air Force Base, Shreveport, La., including the airspace northeast of Shreveport bounded on the west by VOR Federal airway No. 13, on the north by VOR Federal airway No. 16 south, on the northeast by a line extending through points of latitude 33°01'00" N., longitude 93°05'00" W., and latitude 33°30'00" N., longitude 93°33'00" W., and on the south and east by VOR Federal airway No. 69; the airspace northwest of Shreveport bounded on the east by VOR Federal airway No. 13, on the northwest by VOR Federal airway No. 289 and on the south by VOR Federal airway No. 114 north. The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration modifying this control area extension by adding controlled area southeast of Barksdale AFB to provide protection for aircraft arriving the AFB using the 151° True radial of the TVOR, the 123° and 154° True radials of the TACAN and to provide protection for aircraft departing the AFB using the 103°, 118° and the 133° True radials of the TVOR.

If this action is taken, the Shreveport control area extension would be redesignated within the area bounded by a line beginning at a point on the southern boundary of VOR Federal airway No. 278 at latitude 33°26'20" N., longitude 93°29'30" W.; thence southeast to a point on the southern boundary of VOR Federal airway No. 18 at latitude 32°27'50" N., longitude 92°33'00" W.; thence east along the southern boundary of Victor 18 to intersect a line 5 miles southeast of, and parallel to, the 237° True radial of the Monroe, La., VOR; thence southwest via this line to its intersection with the northeast boundary of VOR Federal airway No. 114; thence northwestward along the northeastern boundary of Victor 114 to its intersection with the eastern boundary of VOR Federal airway No. 289; thence northward along the eastern boundary of Victor 289 to its intersection with the southern boundary of Victor 278; thence eastward along the southern boundary of Victor 278 to the point of beginning.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, P.O. Box 1689, Fort Worth 1, Tex. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) and 313(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354).

Issued in Washington, D.C., on July 7, 1960.

CONTROL ZONES

Modification

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to § 601.2004 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Bangor, Maine, control zone is presently designated within a 5-mile radius of the Dow AFB, within 2 miles either side of the northwest course of the Bangor radio range extending from the radio range station to the East Corinth fan marker, within 2 miles either side of a line bearing 314° True extending from Dow AFB to a point 15 miles northwest of the Air Force Base, and within 2 miles either side of a line bearing 356° True extending from Dow AFB to a point 10 miles north of the Bangor VOR and within 2 miles either side of the extended centerline of Runway 15/33 extending to a point 10 miles southeast of the end of the runway.

The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration the following modifications to the Bangor control zone:

1. Revoke the control zone extension based on a line bearing 356° True from the Dow AFB. The instrument procedures based on the 356° True bearing of the radio range have been canceled; therefore, this control zone extension is no longer required.

2. Modify the extension based on the northwest course of the Bangor radio range to terminate 12 miles northwest of the radio range station. This modification would shorten this extension and still provide sufficient protection for aircraft executing instrument approaches based on the Bangor radio range northwest course.

3. Revoke the extension based on the 314° True bearing from the Dow AFB and designate an extension within 2 miles either side of the 136° True bearing from the Dow radio beacon to extend from the 5-mile radius zone to the radio beacon. The Bangor radio beacon standard ADF instrument approach is being revised to eliminate any requirement based on this approach for control zone extension northwest of the radio beacon.

4. Designate an extension based on the 321° True radial of the relocated Bangor VOR extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles northwest of the VOR. This extension would provide protection for aircraft executing instrument approaches based on the Bangor VOR.

If these actions are taken, the Bangor, Maine, control zone would be designated within the 5-mile radius of the Dow AFB (latitude 44°48'20" N., longitude 68°49'32" W.), within 2 miles either side of the extended centerline of Runway 15/33 extending to a point 10 miles southeast of the end of the runway, within 2 miles either side of the 136° True bearing from the Bangor radio beacon extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the radio beacon, within 2 miles either side of the 321° True radial of the Bangor VOR extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles northwest of the VOR and within 2 miles either side of the northwest course of the Bangor radio range extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles northwest of the radio range station.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Federal Building, New York International Airport, Jamaica 30, N.Y. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) and 313(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354).

Issued in Washington, D.C. on July 7, 1960.

Chief, Airspace Utilization Division.

CONTROL ZONES

Modification

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to § 601.2202 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Philadelphia, Pa., control zone (§ 601.2202), is presently designated within a 5-mile radius of the North Philadelphia Airport extending 2 miles either side of the northeast course of the North Philadelphia radio range to 10 miles northeast of the radio range station. The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration modification of this control zone. A review of the published instrument approach procedures for the North Philadelphia Airport indicates that an additional extension of the zone to the northeast is required to provide protection for aircraft executing VOR standard instrument approaches based on the North Philadelphia VOR, and that the present northeast extension based on the radio range should be increased in length. The control zone would be further modified to exclude that portion which coincides with the Willow Grove, Pa., control zone. In addition, the name would be changed to the North Philadelphia, Pa., control zone in order to more accurately denote its geographical location.

If this action is taken, the North Philadelphia, Pa., control zone would be designated within a 5-mile radius of the North Philadelphia Airport (latitude 40°04'45" N., longitude 75°00'35" W.); within 2 miles either side of the North Philadelphia VOR 039° True radial, extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles northeast of the VOR; and within 2 miles either side of the northeast course of the North Philadelphia radio range, extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles northeast of the radio range, excluding the portion which would coincide with the Willow Grove, Pa., control zone.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Federal Building, New York International Airport, Jamaica 30, N.Y. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) and 313(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354).

CONTROL ZONES

Modification and Designation

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to Part 601 and § 601.2246 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Oklahoma City, Okla., control zone is designated within a 5-mile radius of Will Rogers Municipal Airport including extensions to the north, south, west and northwest; within a 5-mile radius of Tulakes Airport including an extension to the southwest; within a 5-mile radius of Tinker Air Force Base including extensions to the north and south, and including an extension between Will Rogers Municipal Airport and Tinker AFB. The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration modification of this control zone by redesignating it into two separate control zones, one to include Will Rogers Municipal Airport and Tulakes Airport, and the other to include Tinker AFB. In addition, the south and northwest control zone extensions serving Will Rogers Municipal Airport would be reduced in length. The north control zone extension serving Tinker AFB would be reduced in length and width. The south control zone extension serving Tinker AFB would be reduced in width, however, it would be increased in length by approximately 3 miles. The control zone extension between Will Rogers Municipal Airport and Tinker AFB would be revoked.

The instrument approach procedure to Will Rogers Municipal Airport from the east and to Tinker AFB from the west have been cancelled. The remaining standard instrument approach procedures to airports in the Oklahoma City area are being revised to reduce control zone requirements in this area. The modifications proposed herein would provide protection for aircraft executing standard instrument approaches to Will Rogers Municipal Airport, Tinker AFB and Tulakes Airport. In addition, the Tinker AFB portion of this control zone would be designated as the Tinker AFB control zone to more accurately denote its geographical location and to take advantage of the local weather reporting service separately available at Tinker AFB.

If these actions are taken, the Oklahoma City, Okla., control zone and the Tinker AFB control zone would be designated as follows:

Oklahoma City, Okla., control zone. Within a 5-mile radius of Will Rogers Municipal Airport (latitude 35°23'43" N., longitude 97°36'31" W.), including the area 2 miles either side of the north course of the ILS localizer, extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 5 miles north of the Tulakes nondirectional radio beacon; within 2 miles either side of the south course of the ILS localizer extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the outer marker; within 2 miles either side of the west course of the Oklahoma City radio range extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the Mustang fan marker; within 2 miles either side of the 107° True radial of the Oklahoma City VOR extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the VOR; within a 5-mile radius of Tulakes Airport (latitude 35°31'45" N., longitude 97°38'30" W.), including the area within 2 miles either side of the 050° True radial of the Oklahoma City VOR, extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the VOR.

Tinker Air Force Base, Okla., control zone. Within a 5-mile radius of Tinker AFB (latitude 35°25'37" N., longitude 97°23'11" W.), including the airspace from 2 miles west of the 360° True radial of the Tinker AFB VOR to 2 miles east of the 006° True radial of the Tinker AFB TACAN (latitude 35°24'56" N., longitude 97°23'07" W.), extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the Spencer fan marker, and from 2 miles west of the 180° True radial of the Tinker AFB VOR to 2 miles east of the 175° True radial of the Tinker AFB TACAN extending from the 5-mile radius zone to 12 miles south of the VOR.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, P.O. Box 1689, Fort Worth 1, Tex. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) and 313(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354).

CONTROL ZONES AND CONTROL AREAS

Modification of Control Zone and Control Area Extension

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to §§ 601.2336 and 601.1338 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Green Bay, Wis., control zone is presently designated within a 5-mile radius of the Austin-Straubel Airport, and within 2 miles either side of the 322° True radial of the Green Bay VOR extending from the 5-mile radius zone to a point 10 miles northwest of the VOR. The Green Bay, Wis., control area extension is presently designated within a 15-mile radius of the Green Bay VOR and within 5 miles either side of the 322° True radial of the VOR extending from the VOR to 20 miles northwest. The Federal Aviation Agency has under consideration the following modifications:

1. Redesignating the northwest control zone extension 2 miles either side of the 146° True radial of the VOR extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the VOR. The instrument approach procedure based on the VOR has been revised to eliminate the requirement for control zone extension northwest of the VOR.

2. Designate a control zone extension within 2 miles either side of the 059° True bearing from the Austin-Straubel radio beacon (latitude 44°26'27" N., longitude 88°14'24" W.), extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the radio beacon to provide protection for aircraft executing the presently prescribed ADF standard instrument approach.

3. Redesignate the present control area extension within a 15-mile radius of the Austin-Straubel Airport; within 5 miles either side of the Green Bay VOR 326° True radial extending from the 15-mile radius area to 15 miles northwest of the VOR; and within 5 miles either side of the 239° True bearing from the Green Bay radio beacon, extending from the 15-mile radius area to 15 miles southwest of the radio beacon. This would center the control area on the Austin-Straubel Airport rather than on the Green Bay, VORTAC, thereby more adequately serving Austin-Straubel Airport IFR operations.

If this action is taken, the Green Bay, Wis., control zone would be designated within a 5-mile radius of the Austin-Straubel Airport (latitude 44°29'17" N., longitude 88°07'50" W.); within 2 miles either side of the 146° True radial of the Green Bay VOR, extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the VOR; and within 2 miles either side of the 059° True bearing from the Green Bay radio beacon, extending from the 5-mile radius zone to the radio beacon. The Green Bay, Wis., control area extension would be designated within a 15-mile radius of the Austin-Straubel Airport; within 5 miles either side of the 326° True radial of the Green Bay VOR, extending from the 15-mile radius area to 15 miles northwest of the VOR; and within 5 miles either side of the 239° True bearing from the Green Bay radio beacon, extending from the 15-mile radius area to 15 miles southwest of the radio beacon.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Air Traffic Management Field Division, Federal Aviation Agency, 4825 Troost Avenue, Kansas City 10, Mo. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. No public hearing is contemplated at this time, but arrangements for informal conferences with Federal Aviation Agency officials may be made by contacting the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief, or the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. Any data, views or arguments presented during such conferences must also be submitted in writing in accordance with this notice in order to become part of the record for consideration. The proposal contained in this notice may be changed in the light of comments received.

The official Docket will be available for examination by interested persons at the Docket Section, Federal Aviation Agency, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. An informal Docket will also be available for examination at the office of the Regional Air Traffic Management Field Division Chief.

This amendment is proposed under sections 307(a) and 313(a) of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354).

CODED JET ROUTES

Establishment

Pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (§ 409.13, 24 F.R. 3499), notice is hereby given that the Federal Aviation Agency is considering an amendment to Part 602 of the regulations of the Administrator, the substance of which is stated below.

The Federal Aviation Agency is considering the establishment of VOR/VORTAC Jet Route No. 101 from Houston, Tex., to Chicago, Ill., via the Lufkin, Tex., VOR; Shreveport, La., VORTAC; Flippin, Ark., VOR; St. Louis, Mo., VORTAC; Springfield, Ill., VOR; intersection of the Springfield VOR 036° and the Joliet, Ill., VORTAC 205° True radials; Joliet VORTAC; to the Northbrook, Ill., VOR. The establishment of this jet route will facilitate flight planning and air traffic management by providing a single jet route for air traffic between Houston and Chicago.

If this action is taken, VOR/VORTAC jet route No. 101 would be established from Houston, Tex., to Chicago, Ill., via Lufkin, Tex., Shreveport, La., Flippin, Ark., St. Louis, Mo., Springfield, Ill., intersection of the Springfield VOR 036° and the Joliet, Ill., VORTAC 205° True radials, Joliet, Ill., to Northbrook, Ill.

Interested persons may submit such written data, views or arguments as they may desire. Communications should be submitted in triplicate to the Chief, Airspace Utilization Division, Federal Aviation Agency, Washington 25, D.C. All communications received within forty-five days after publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER will be considered before action is taken on the proposed amendment. Delegations of Authority

The regulations issued herein are based on the authority of the Director, Bureau of Commercial Fisheries, to issue such regulations. The requirements herein set forth apply as a portion of the directives system of the Bureau of Commercial Fisheries. Such material follows the format of the Bureau's manual and is to be included therein. Material that relates solely to internal management has not been included.

SERIES 2000—ADMINISTRATION

TITLE 2300—PERSONNEL

Chapter 2310—Policy and Delegations of Authority

2311.2 General delegation. The Assistant Director, Chief, Division of Administration, and Regional and Area Directors and such others as are specified in this delegation are severally authorized, unless specifically excepted, to the extent stated in each case, or in Sec. 2311.6, Limitations, to exercise the authority of the Director with respect to the administrative matters listed herein.

2311.3 Personnel management. To the extent stated below, exercise the authority of the Director (Secretary's Order No. 2803, amendment No. 1, dated December 22, 1950) with respect to personnel management, including but not limited to (1) appointments, (2) changes, (3) position classification, pay and wage administration, (4) separations, (5) designation of persons to administer oaths, (6) travel and transportation expenses incident to transfer, appointment or death, and (7) designation of employees who are authorized to enforce the Federal laws administered by the Bureau of Commercial Fisheries and who may administer oaths, affirmations, and affidavits in connection with such duties.

A. The following are the specific delegations for personnel management:

(1) Headquarters Office. Assistant Director, Chief, Division of Administration, all of the authority stated herein.

(2) Regional office, Region 1. Regional Director, all of the authority stated with respect to classified positions through Grade GS-13 and all ungraded positions.

(3) Regional offices, Regions 2–5, inclusive. Regional Directors, all of the authority stated herein with respect to classified positions through Grade GS–12 and all ungraded positions.

(4) Area offices. Area Directors, all of the authority stated herein with respect to classified positions through Grade GS–12 and all ungraded positions.

B. The authority delegated herein does not include:

(1) Authority to grant allowances to employees stationed in foreign areas.

(2) Authority to approve basic labor agreements, or amendments, or terminations of such agreements negotiated between the Bureau or an organizational element thereof and labor organizations representing employees of the Bureau.

(3) Authority to approve actions involving positions as follows:

(a) Positions for which the President or the Secretary alone has appointing authority by statute or Executive order. This includes appointments under section 710 of the Defense Production Act of 1950 (50 U.S.C. App. 2160).

(b) Associate, deputy, and assistant heads of bureaus or equivalent.

(c) Schedule C positions.

(d) Positions for which the rate of pay is equal to that for Grade GS–16 or above.

(e) Positions as provided for under Public Law 313, 80th Congress, as amended (373 DM 1.3G).

(f) Principal officers reporting directly to the heads or assistant heads of bureaus or offices.

(g) Chiefs of field installations in grade GS–14 and above, Regional and Assistant Regional or Area Directors.

(h) Any position designated by the Secretary or the Administrative Assistant Secretary.

(i) Consultants and experts as covered by 379 DM 17.

(j) Hearing examiners.

(k) Positions requiring the incumbent to be headquartered in foreign countries.

2311.4 Evacuation of employees' families. Designate or approve the zones from which the immediate families of civilian employees should be evacuated for military or other causes which create imminent danger to life or property, or adverse living conditions seriously affecting the health, safety, or accommodations of such families; and the payment of travel and transportation expenses to locations designated by the said employees or, if such be impossible or impracticable, to locations designated by their immediate families, pursuant to subsection (d) of Section 1 of the Act of August 2, 1946, as amended (5 U.S.C. 73b–1d); (Secretary's Order No. 2634, dated May 17, 1951): Provided, That no evacuation shall be authorized or approved for military purposes without orders from the military authorities in charge of the area or place where the families are living: Provided further, That no evacuation shall be authorized or approved for nonmilitary purposes unless such action is fully justified by the circumstances including, but not limited to, fires, floods, epidemics, earthquakes, or circumstances considered "acts of God."

2311.5 Redelegation. A. The foregoing authorities may be redelegated, in writing, as specified.

(1) The Chief, Division of Administration, may redelegate to the Chief, Branch of Personnel Management, the authorities contained in section 2311.3 with authority to redelegate to the Assistant Personnel Officer (Compensation and Labor Relations) authority for position classification, pay and wage administration.

(2) Regional and Area Directors may redelegate:

(a) To their Assistant Regional Directors and their Chiefs, Division of Administrative Services, and the Area Director may redelegate to the Administrative Officer, California Area, authorities contained in section 2311.3 with authority to redelegate to the Regional or Area Personnel Officer.

(b) To station chiefs and program leaders all of the authority stated herein with respect to temporary positions with employment tenures not exceeding six months for which the use of Form DI–353, Notice of Short-term Employment, is authorized.

(3) The Regional Director, Region 1, is authorized to redelegate the authority contained in section 2311.3 to:

(a) The Director of Personnel, Consolidated Administrative Services, Department of the Interior, Portland, Oregon, with authority to that official to redelegate his authority to members of his staff.

(b) The Program Director, Marine Mammal Resources, with authority to redelegate to the General Manager, Pribilof Islands, with authority to redelegate to the Manager, St. Paul Island, and Manager, St. George Island, all of the authority stated herein with respect to resident Aleut natives and nonresident Aleut natives enrolled for duty on the islands.

(4) The Area Director, California Area, is authorized to redelegate the authority contained in section 2311.3 to the Director of Personnel, Consolidated Administrative Services, Department of the Interior, Portland, Oregon, with authority to that official to redelegate his authority to members of his staff.

B. The foregoing authority may not be further redelegated.

2311.6 Limitations. The foregoing authorities shall be exercised in strict conformity with applicable statutory requirements, policies, and administrative procedures, and subject to availability of funds.

2311.7 Revocation. Director's Order No. 3, revised, dated May 15, 1959 (24 F.R. 4565), is hereby rescinded.

(Commissioner's Order No. 3 (22 F.R. 8126))

OUTER CONTINENTAL SHELF; ATLANTIC COAST AREA

Geological and Geophysical Explorations

Notice is hereby given that the Department of the Interior has received applications from private corporations for authorization, pursuant to section 11 of the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act of August 7, 1953 (67 Stat. 469), to conduct geological and geophysical explorations in that part of the outer Continental Shelf seaward of the Atlantic Coast States north of Florida. Section 11 of the said Act provides as follows:

SEC. 11. Geological and Geophysical Explorations. Any agency of the United States and any person authorised by the Secretary may conduct geological and geophysical explorations in the outer Continental Shelf, which do not interfere with or endanger actual operations under any lease maintained or granted pursuant to this Act, and which are not unduly harmful to aquatic life in such area.

It is proposed to issue a general authorization by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, in form as set forth below. Interested persons may submit written comments, suggestions, or objections with respect to the proposed authorization to the Director, United States Geological Survey, Washington 25, D.C., within thirty days of the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Dated: July 1, 1960.

ELMER F. BENNETT,
Under Secretary of the Interior.

Applications have been received for the conduct of geological and geophysical explorations in that part of the outer Continental Shelf off the Atlantic Coast.

Notice is hereby given that any person, as defined in section 2(d) of the Outer Continental Shelf Lands Act of August 7, 1953 (67 Stat. 462) is hereby authorized to conduct geological and geophysical explorations in that part of the outer Continental Shelf seaward of the submerged lands of any State bordering on the Atlantic Coast (except Florida) upon condition (1) that he obtain a permit for such operations from the Regional Oil and Gas Supervisor of the United States Geological Survey, Washington 25, D.C., (2) that his operations shall be confined to such area or areas as may be designated in the permit, and (3) that for the protection and conservation of aquatic life he files with the said Regional Oil and Gas Supervisor his stipulation agreeing to comply with such requirements governing the methods of and restrictions upon geological and geophysical explorations in the designated area or areas as are acceptable to the Regional Oil and Gas Supervisor.

This general authorization to conduct geological and geophysical explorations does not include the right to conduct core or other exploratory drilling and is subject to termination upon not less than 60 days' notice published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The authorization may be terminated as to any person upon reasonable notice. Any party conducting this type of exploration obtains no preference to an oil gas lease.

BICYCLES FROM CZECHOSLOVAKIA

Determination of Sales at Less Than Fair Value

JULY 7, 1960.

A complaint was received that bicycles from Czechoslovakia were being sold in the United States at less than fair value within the meaning of the Antidumping Act of 1921.

I hereby determine that bicycles from Czechoslovakia are being, and are likely to be, sold at less than fair value within the meaning of section 201(a) of the Antidumping Act, 1921, as amended (19 U.S.C. 160(a)).

The United States Tariff Commission is being advised of this determination.

Statement of reasons. In computing purchase price, deductions were made for ocean freight, insurance, and inland freight.

It was determined that the proper fair value comparison is between purchase price and either home market price or constructed value.

It was found that purchase price is lower than either home market price or constructed value.

This determination and the statement of reasons therefor are published pursuant to section 201(c) of the Antidumping Act, 1921, as amended (19 U.S.C. 160(c)).

DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, EDUCATION, AND WELFARE

Social Security Administration

THE NETHERLANDS

Finding Regarding Foreign Social Insurance and Pension System

Section 202(t)(2) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 402(t)(2)) authorizes and requires the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare to find whether a foreign country has in effect a social insurance or pension system which is of general application in such country and under which periodic benefits, or the actuarial equivalent thereof, are paid on account of old age, retirement or death; and whether individuals who are citizens of the United States but not citizens of such foreign country and who qualify for such benefits are permitted to receive such benefits or the actuarial equivalent thereof while outside such foreign country without regard to the duration of the absence.

Pursuant to authority duly vested in him by the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, the Commissioner of Social Security has considered evidence presented by the Netherlands relating to the social insurance or pension system of such country, from which evidence it appears that the Netherlands has a social insurance or pension system of general application which pays periodic benefits or the actuarial equivalent thereof on account of old-age, retirement or death, but that under such system qualified citizens of the United States who are not citizens of the Netherlands and who leave the Netherlands are not permitted to receive such benefits or equivalent while outside that country without regard to the duration of their absence.

Accordingly, it is hereby determined and found that the Netherlands does not have in effect a social insurance or pension system which meets the requirements of section 202(t)(2) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 402(t)(2)).

[SEAL] W. L. MITCHELL,
Commissioner of Social Security.

URUGUAY

Finding Regarding Foreign Social Insurance and Pension Systems

Section 202(t)(2) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 402(t)(2)) authorizes and requires the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare to find whether a foreign country has in effect a social insurance or pension system which is of general application in such country and under which periodic benefits, or the actuarial equivalent thereof, are paid on account of old age, retirement, or death; and whether individuals who are citizens of the United States but not citizens of such foreign country and who qualify for such benefits are permitted to receive such benefits or the actuarial equivalent thereof while outside such foreign country without regard to the duration of the absence.

Pursuant to authority duly vested in him by the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare, the Commissioner of Social Security has considered evidence relating to the social insurance or pension system of Uruguay from which evidence it appears that Uruguay has a social insurance system which pays periodic benefits, or the actuarial equivalent thereof, on account of old age, retirement, or death, but that under such system qualified citizens of the United States who are not citizens of Uruguay and who leave Uruguay are not permitted to receive such benefits or equivalent while outside that country without regard to the duration of their absence.

Accordingly, it is hereby determined and found that Uruguay does not have in effect a social insurance or pension system which meets the requirements of section 202(t)(2) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 402(t)(2)).

Commissioner of Social Security.

ATOMIC ENERGY COMMISSION

[Docket No. 50-129]

WEST VIRGINIA UNIVERSITY

Issuance of Facility License Amendment

Please take notice that the Atomic Energy Commission has issued Amendment No. 2, set forth below, to License No. R-58. The amendment authorizes West Virginia University to operate its nuclear reactor Model AGN-211, Serial No. 103 with a maximum of 0.36 percent excess reactivity loaded in the reactor with the experimental facilities empty and a maximum of 0.56 percent excess reactivity in the reactor with moderator or fuel in the experimental facilities, provided that the excess reactivity shall be determined at the temperature at which the reactor temperature switch is set. Previously, the license authorized operation of the reactor with a maximum of 0.35 percent excess reactivity loaded in the reactor with the experimental facilities empty and a maximum of 0.55 percent excess reactivity in the reactor with moderator or fuel in the experimental facilities. The Hazards Evaluation Branch of the Division of Licensing and Regulation has reviewed the proposed changes and concluded that operation of the reactor in accordance with the amended license will not present any substantial changes in the hazards to the health and safety of the public from those presented by the previously approved operation of the reactor. Accordingly, the Commission has found that prior public notice of proposed issuance of this amendment is not necessary in the public interest. The Commission has found that operation of the reactor in accordance with the terms and conditions of the license, as amended, will not present any undue hazard to the health and safety of the public and will not be inimical to the common defense and security.

In accordance with the Commission's rules of practice (10 CFR Part 2) the Commission will direct the holding of a formal hearing on the matter of the issuance of the license amendment upon receipt of a request therefor from the licensee or an intervener within thirty days after issuance of the license amendment. Petitions for leave to intervene and requests for a formal hearing shall be filed by mailing a copy to the Office of the Secretary, Atomic Energy Commission, Washington 25, D.C., or by delivery of a copy in person to the Office of the Secretary, Germantown, Maryland, or the AEC's Public Document Room, 1717 H Street NW., Washington, D.C. For further details see the application for license amendment submitted by West Virginia University on file at the Commission's Public Document Room, 1717 H Street NW., Washington, D.C.

Dated at Germantown, Md., this 7th day of July 1960.

For the Atomic Energy Commission.

R. L. KIRK,
Deputy Director, Division of Licensing and Regulation.

[License No. R-58; Amdt. 2]

Paragraph 4.B.(1) of License No. R-58, as amended, is hereby amended to read as follows:

4.B.(1) A maximum of 0.36 percent excess reactivity may be loaded in the reactor with the experimental facilities empty and a maximum of 0.56 percent excess reactivity may be loaded in the reactor with moderator or fuel in the experimental facilities. The excess reactivity loadings shall be determined at the temperature at which the reactor temperature switch is set.

This amendment is effective as of the date of issuance.

Date of issuance: July 7, 1960.

For the Atomic Energy Commission.

[Docket 11278 etc.; Order No. E-15521]

NEW YORK-SAN JUAN CARGO RATES

Order of Investigation and Suspension

In the matter of New York-San Juan cargo rates investigation, Dockets 11278 et al., and Dockets 11520, 11522, and 11523.

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D.C., on the 8th day of July, 1960.

Allied Air Freight International Corp., in Docket 11520, and Transportation Corporation of America d/b/a Trans Caribbean Airways, in Docket 11522, have requested investigation and suspension of revised cargo rates filed and published on behalf of Pan American World Airways, Inc., on 62d Revised Page 38 and on 25th Revised Page 40-C of R. C. Lounsbury, Agent, Local and Joint International Air Cargo Tariff No. CS-8, C.A.B. No. 118. These revised pages, as well as subsequently filed 26th Revised Page 40-C of the same tariff, have all been rejected for failure to comply with the provisions of section 403 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 and the Board's regulations published as Part 221 of Title 14 of the Code of Federal Regulations. The complaint in Docket 11522, and that portion of the complaint in Docket 11520 which is directed to rates filed for Pan American, require no further consideration and will be dismissed on the procedural basis that the tariff material complained of has been rejected on other grounds.

Allied Air Freight, in Docket 11520, and Trans Caribbean, in Docket 11523, have each also requested investigation and suspension of revised cargo rates filed and published on the 13th Revised Page 6, 8th Revised Page 9, and 12th Revised Page 10 of Riddle Airlines, Inc. Local and Joint International Air Cargo Tariff No. 1, C.A.B. No. 7, to become effective July 9, 1960. The 12th Revised Page 10 of Riddle's filing has also been rejected and it is unnecessary to consider further the complaints as directed to the revisions there proposed; that portion of the complaints will also be dismissed on the procedural basis.

This leaves for consideration on the merits only those portions of the complaints directed to the revisions proposed in 13th Revised Page 6 and on 8th Revised Page 9 of Riddle's filing. We conclude that the revision on 8th Revised Page 9, which merely adds Commodity Group No. 75, need not be investigated since the rates for that group were on the rejected 12th Revised Page 10 and no rates are now filed for the Group No. 75.

The 13th Revised Page 6 proposes significant reductions in the general commodity rates and charges between San Juan and New York and Philadelphia. For example, the rate for shipments in minimum weights of 100 pounds would be reduced from $16.00 per hundred to $15.00 per hundred and a new southbound "directional" rate of $11.00 per hundred would be added for shipments in minimum weights of 3300 pounds whereas the present rate for such a shipment is $15.00 per hundred. These revisions should be investigated with the proceeding previously instituted designated Docket 11278. Furthermore, Pan American caused revisions to be filed and published in R. C. Lounsbury, Agent, Local and Joint Air Cargo Tariff No. C-NS-4, C.A.B. No. 298, on 6th Revised Page 22, 3d Revised Page 64, and 3d Revised Page 68, which became effective May 25, 1960, and which reduced general commodity rates between Baltimore, Philadelphia, and Washington, on the one hand, and San Juan, on the other; these revisions should also be investigated with Docket 11278.

Pending hearing and decision on the lawfulness of the tariff revisions filed by Riddle and of which investigation is herein instituted, the Board concludes it should suspend the operation of such tariff provisions and defer the use thereof. In 1959, the general commodity rate for shipments in minimum weights of 100 pounds in the New York-San Juan market was $20.00 per hundred pounds and the rate for shipments in minimum weights of 3300 pounds in the same market was $17.00 per hundred. In less than nine months the air carriers offering cargo service between the mainland and Puerto Rico have filed a series of revisions to their rates and charges culminating in the latest proposals. Allied Air Freight alleges that recent events demonstrate there now exist "the substantial beginnings of a dangerous rate war" and Trans Caribbean alleges that there is a "destructive cargo rate war."

The Board officially notices the passenger tariff proposals in these markets as are more fully discussed in the several orders issued recently in Docket 9523 et al.[1] There is no basis for concluding that operating costs for cargo traffic are declining at such a pace as to warrant further significant reductions in cargo rates at this time. The outward manifestations of a cargo "rate war" in progress are evident. Under all the circumstances we conclude that suspension action is appropriate. Accordingly, pursuant to the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, and particularly sections 204(a), 404, and 1002 thereof, and section 6(d) of the Administrative Procedure Act:

It is ordered:

1. That the investigation designated Docket 11278 et al. is modified and expanded to determine also whether the general commodity rates and provisions applicable between Baltimore, Philadelphia, and Washington, on the one hand, and San Juan, on the other, as filed and published on 6th Revised Page 22, on 3d Revised Page 64, and on 3d Revised Page 68 to R. C. Lounsbury, Agent, Local and Joint Air Cargo Tariff No. C-NS-4, C.A.B. No. 298, including all revisions or reissues thereof, are or will be unjust or unreasonable, or unjustly discriminatory, or unduly preferential, or unduly prejudicial, and, if found to be unlawful, to determine and prescribe the lawful rates or charges thereafter to be demanded, charged, collected, or received.

2. That the investigation designated Docket 11278 et al. is further modified and expanded to determine also whether the general commodity rates and provisions applicable between New York and Philadelphia, on the one hand, and Arecibo, Mayaguez, Ponce, Ramey Field, and San Juan, on the other, as filed and published on 13th Revised Page 6 to Riddle Airlines, Inc. Local and Joint International Air Cargo Tariff No. 1, C.A.B. No. 7, including all revisions or reissues thereof, are or will be unjust or unreasonable, or unjustly discriminatory, or unduly preferential, or unduly prejudicial, and, if found to be unlawful, to determine and prescribe the lawful rates or charges thereafter to be demanded, charged, collected, or received.

3. That, pending hearing and decision on the lawfulness thereof, the rates and provisions between Arecibo, Mayaguez, Ponce, Ramey Field, and San Juan, P.R., on the one hand, and New York, N.Y., and Philadelphia, Pa., on the other, on 13th Revised Page 6 to Riddle Airlines, Inc. Local and Joint International Air Cargo Tariff, C.A.B. No. 7, are suspended and their use deferred to and including October 6, 1960.

4. That the complaint by Allied Air Freight International Corp. in Docket 11520 is dismissed except to the extent the relief requested is granted herein.

[1] We defer for later ruling Riddle's Motion to Consolidate Dockets 9523 et al. and 11278 et al. incorporated in its submittal on June 30, 1960, in these proceedings.

5. That the complaint by Transportation Corporation of America d/b/a Trans Caribbean Airways in Docket 11522 is dismissed and the complaint by Trans Caribbean in Docket 11523 is dismissed except to the extent the relief requested in Docket 11523 is granted herein.

6. That copies of this order be served upon Allied Air Freight International Corp., Transportation Corporation of America d/b/a Trans Caribbean Airways, The Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, Eastern Air Lines, Inc., Pan American World Airways, Inc., and Riddle Airlines, Inc., and a copy shall be filed with Riddle Airlines, Inc. Local and Joint International Air Cargo Tariff No. 1, C.A.B. No. 7.

This order will be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

Secretary.

WASHINGTON-BALTIMORE ADEQUACY OF SERVICE INVESTIGATION

Order for Oral Argument

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D.C., on the 8th day of July 1960.

By Order E-15162, dated April 29, 1960, the Board ordered additional air service in a number of Baltimore markets. Petitions for reconsideration and answers thereto have been filed by various parties. In view of the important and controversial matters raised in those documents, and in view of the fact that only two of the five Board Members who participated in the original decision are still with the Board, we have decided to hear oral argument on certain of the issues before ruling on the various pleadings now before us. Oral argument will be limited solely to the following issues:

1. Is there any legal deficiency in terms of notice or evidence with respect to the ten-a-day standard adopted by the Board for purposes of this proceeding? If so, what other standard, if any, may properly be adopted on the basis of the existing record?

2. Is there any legal deficiency in the method by which the Board has determined the quantity of traffic available in the various Baltimore markets?

3. Did the Board properly find that the burden is upon the carriers to demonstrate lack of economic feasibility for improved services?

4. Is there any legal defect in the standards or method used by the Board in selecting particular carriers to provide the additional services found required?

In order to hear argument on these issues and to rule on the petitions for reconsideration and other pleadings now before us, we find that it is in the public interest to stay the effectiveness of the Board's decision in this proceeding until September 30, 1960: Accordingly, it is ordered:

1. That oral argument on the matters set forth above be held on July 28, 1960, at 10:00 a.m., in Room 1027, Universal Building, Florida and Connecticut Avenues NW., Washington, D.C.

2. That the effectiveness of Board Order E-15162, April 29, 1960, be and hereby is stayed until September 30, 1960: Provided, however, That Paragraph 6 of said order shall be effective on July 28, 1960, and the 20-day period specified therein shall commence on that date.

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

Order Continuing Hearing

In re applications of Washington State University, Pullman, Washington, for renewal of license of Station KWSC (& Aux.), Docket No. 13442, File No. BR-58; for modification of license of Station KWSC, Docket No. 13443, File No. BML-1789; The First Presbyterian Church of Seattle, Washington, Seattle, Washington, for renewal of license of Station KWT, Docket No. 13444, File No. BR-64.

The Hearing Examiner having under consideration a Petition for Postponement of Hearing and Exchange Dates filed June 27, 1960, by Washington State University; and

It appearing that as previously agreed upon, the applicants have exchanged their preliminary engineering exhibits and that, as a result of this exchange and an informal engineering conference, it has become apparent that to eliminate areas of disagreement between and to make possible the preparation of necessary additional engineering material by the applicants' engineering consultants, additional time will be required—more time than is available under the presently arranged schedule for the submission of final engineering exhibits; and

It further appearing that counsel for the First Presbyterian Church of Seattle, Washington and the Chief of the Commission's Broadcast Bureau have not objected to a grant of the subject petition, that good cause for a grant thereof has been shown and that rearrangement of the current schedule in the manner set forth hereinafter will be conducive to the orderly dispatch of the Commission's business;

It is ordered, This 6th day of July 1960, that the following shall govern the future course of this proceeding:

Exchange of final engineering and lay exhibits: September 1, 1960.
Notification of witnesses desired for cross-examination: September 8, 1960.
Commencement of Hearing: September 15, 1960, in the Commission's offices, Washington, D.C. at 10:00 a.m.

Released: July 8, 1960.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 1-4015]

CONSOLIDATED DEVELOPMENT CORP.

Order Summarily Suspending Trading

JULY 8, 1960.

In the matter of trading on the American Stock Exchange in the Common Stock, par value 20 cents per share of Consolidated Development Corporation (formerly known as Consolidated Cuban Petroleum Corporation), File No. 1-4015.

The common stock, par value 20 cents per share of Consolidated Development Corporation (formerly known as Consolidated Cuban Petroleum Corporation), being listed and registered on the American Stock Exchange, a national securities exchange; and

The Commission being of the opinion that the public interest requires the summary suspension of trading in such security on such Exchange and that such action is necessary and appropriate for the protection of investors; and

The Commission being of the opinion further that such suspension is necessary in order to prevent fraudulent, deceptive or manipulative acts or practices, with the result that it will be unlawful under section 15(c)(2) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the Commission's Rule 15c2-2 thereunder for any broker or dealer to make use of the mails or of any means or instrumentality of interstate commerce to effect any transaction in, or to induce or attempt to induce the purchase or sale of such security, otherwise than on a national securities exchange;

It is ordered, Pursuant to section 19(a)(4) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that trading in said security on the American Stock Exchange be summarily suspended in order to prevent fraudulent, deceptive or manipulative acts or practices, this order to be effective for a period of ten (10) days, July 11, 1960, to July 20, 1960, both dates inclusive.

By the Commission.

[Declaration of Disaster Area 286]

NEW YORK

Declaration of Disaster Area

Whereas, it has been reported that during the month of April, 1960, because of the effects of certain disasters, damage resulted to residences and business property located in certain areas in the State of New York;

Whereas, the Small Business Administration has investigated and has received other reports of investigations of conditions in the areas affected;

Whereas, after reading and evaluating reports of such conditions, I find that the conditions in such areas constitute a catastrophe within the purview of the Small Business Act.

Now, therefore, as Administrator of the Small Business Administration, I hereby determine that:

1. Applications for disaster loans under the provisions of section 7(b) of the Small Business Act may be received and considered by the Offices below indicated from persons or firms whose property situated in the following County (including any areas adjacent to said County) suffered damage or destruction as a result of the catastrophe hereinafter referred to:

County: Otsego (flood occurring on or about April 4, 1960).

Offices: Small Business Administration Regional Office, 42 Broadway, New York 4, N.Y. Small Business Administration Branch Office, Chimes Building, Room 904, 500 South Salina Street, Syracuse, N.Y.

2. No special field offices will be established at this time.

3. Applications for disaster loans under the authority of this Declaration will not be accepted subsequent to January 31, 1961.

Dated: July 1, 1960.

Correction

In F.R. Doc. 60-6194, appearing at page 6317 of the issue for Wednesday, July 6, 1960, the following corrections are made:

1. In the tabular material of § 421.5433 (c)(2), the figures under Damaged kernels—Total, for 51.0–51.9 pounds test weight per bushel, should read "5.1–6.0" instead of "5–1.6.0".

2. In the first sentence of § 421.5436 (b), the words "authorized is to delivered to CCC" should read "authorized to be delivered to CCC".

Subpart—United States Standards For Grades of Canned Sweet Cherries [1]

RECOMMENDED MINIMUM DRAINED WEIGHTS

On June 2, 1960, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the Federal Register (25 F.R. 4867) regarding an amendment to the United States Standards for Grades of Canned Sweet Cherries (7 CFR 52.821–52.836).

After consideration of all relevant matters presented, including the proposal set forth in the aforesaid notice, the following amendment to the United States Standards for Grades of Canned Sweet Cherries is hereby promulgated pursuant to the authority contained in the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (secs. 202–208, 60 Stat. 1087, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 1621–1627).

Table I in § 52.826 is amended to read as follows:

TABLE I—RECOMMENDED MINIMUM DRAINED WEIGHTS FOR PITTED AND UNPITTED CANNED SWEET CHERRIES

Container size or designation (metal, unless otherwise stated)	In extra heavy sirups and in declared "dietetic packs" whether or not packed in water	In heavy sirups	In light sirup and in slightly sweetened water or juice	Other than declared "dietetic packs" packed in water
	(Ounces)	(Ounces)	(Ounces)	(Ounces)
8 Z tall	4½	5	5¼	5¼
No. 1 tall	9½	10	10¼	10¼

No. 2½ glass	17¾	17¾	18¾	18¾
No. 10	64½	66½	70	70

It is hereby found that good cause exists for not postponing the effective date of this amendment beyond that herein specified (5 U.S.C. 1001–1011) in that (1) the processing season of sweet cherries in most areas is now underway and it is necessary for purposes of inspection and marketing that these standards be made effective at once; (2) the industry has been apprised of the amendment and no contrary views have been submitted; and (3) the amendment will not require any special preparation for compliance.

(Secs. 202–208, 60 Stat. 1087, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 1621–1627)

Dated: July 12, 1960, to become effective upon publication hereof in the Federal Register.

PART 52—PROCESSED FRUITS AND VEGETABLES, PROCESSED PRODUCTS THEREOF, AND CERTAIN OTHER PROCESSED FOOD PRODUCTS

Subpart—United States Standards for Grades of Concentrated Tomato Juice [1]

On June 2, 1960, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the Federal Register (25 F.R. 4867) regarding the issuance of United States Standards for Grades of Concentrated Tomato Juice.

After consideration of all relevant matters presented, including the proposal set forth in the aforesaid notice, the following United States Standards for Grades of Concentrated Tomato Juice are hereby promulgated pursuant to the authority contained in the Agricultural Marketing Act of 1946 (secs. 202–208, 60 Stat. 1087, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 1621–1627):

AUTHORITY: §§ 52.5201 to 52.5210 issued under sec. 202–208, 60 Stat. 1087, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 1621–1627.

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION AND GRADES

§ 52.5201 Product description.

"Concentrated tomato juice" means the product prepared from clean, sound, whole tomatoes of the red or reddish varieties as such product is defined in the Standard of Identity for Tomato Puree (21 CFR 53.20; 25 F.R. 1667) issued pursuant to the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act. The product contains not less than 21 percent but less than 25 percent of salt-free tomato solids. When packed in hermetically sealed containers it is sufficiently processed by heat, before or after sealing, to assure preservation of the product.

§ 52.5202 Grades of concentrated tomato juice.

(a) "U.S. Grade A" (or "U.S. Fancy") is the quality of concentrated tomato juice that, when properly reconstituted, (1) has a good color; (2) has a good consistency; (3) is practically free from defects; (4) has a good flavor; and (5) scores not less than 85 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this subpart: Provided, That the reconstituted tomato juice may have only a fairly good color, scoring not less than 25 points and a fairly good consistency, if the total score is not less than 85 points.

(b) "U.S. Grade C" (or "U.S. Standard") is the quality of concentrated tomato juice that, when properly reconstituted, (1) has a fairly good color; (2) has a fairly good consistency; (3) is fairly free from defects; (4) has a fairly good flavor; and (5) scores not less than 70 points when scored in accordance with the scoring system outlined in this subpart.

[1] Compliance with the requirements of these standards shall not excuse failure to comply with the provisions of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act or with applicable state laws and regulations.

(c) "Substandard" is the quality of concentrated tomato juice that fails to meet the requirements of U.S. Grade C.

FILL OF CONTAINER

§ 52.5203 Recommended fill of container.

Fill of container is not incorporated in the grades of the finished product, since fill of container, as such, is not a factor of quality for the purposes of these grades. It is recommended that each container of concentrated tomato juice be filled as full as practicable without impairment of quality, and that the product occupy not less than 90 percent of the capacity of the container.

FACTORS OF QUALITY

§ 52.5204 Ascertaining the grade of a sample unit.

In addition to considering other requirements outlined in the standards, the quality factors of color, consistency, defects, and flavor are evaluated by applying appropriate criteria to the reconstituted tomato juice prepared by thoroughly mixing the concentrated tomato juice with three volumes of water. The relative importance of each factor is expressed numerically on the scale of 100. The maximum number of points that may be given for each such factor is:

Factors:	Points
Color	30
Consistency	15
Defects	15
Flavor	40
Total score	100

§ 52.5205 Color.

(a) General. (1) The amount of red in the reconstituted tomato juice is determined by comparing the color of the product with that produced by spinning a combination of the following Munsell color discs:

Disc 1—Red (5R 2.6/13) (glossy finish).
Disc 2—Yellow (2.5 YR 5/12) (glossy finish).
Disc 3—Black (N1) (glossy finish).
Disc 4—Grey (N4) (mat finish).

(2) Such comparison is to be made under a diffused light source of approximately 250 foot-candle intensity and having a spectral quality approximating that of daylight under a moderately overcast sky, and a color temperature of 7500 degrees Kelvin ±200 degrees. With the light source directly over the disc and product, observation is made at an angle of 45 degrees from a distance of about 24 inches from the product.

(b) (A) classification. Concentrated tomato juice that, when reconstituted properly, has a good color may be given a score of 26 to 30 points. "Good color" means a color that is typical of canned tomato juice, made from well ripened red tomatoes, which has been properly prepared and properly processed.. Such color contains as much red as, or more red than, that produced by spinning the specified Munsell color discs in the following combinations: 65 percent of the area of Disc 1; 21 percent of the area of Disc 2; 14 percent of the area of Disc 3 or of Disc 4, or 7 percent of the area of Disc 3 and 7 percent of the area of Disc 4, whichever most nearly matches the reflectance of the product.

(c) (C) classification. If the reconstituted tomato juice has a fairly good color a score of 23 to 25 points may be given. Concentrated tomato juice that scores 23 or 24 points for color shall not be graded above U.S. Grade C, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a partial limiting rule). "Fairly good color" means a color that is typical of canned tomato juice. To score 25 points for color the reconstituted juice shall contain as much red as, or more red than, that produced by spinning the specified Munsell color discs in the following combinations: 59 percent of the area of Disc 1; 24½ percent of the area of Disc 2; 16½ percent of the area of either Disc 3 or Disc 4, or 8¼ percent of the area of Disc 3 and 8¼ percent of the area of Disc 4, whichever most nearly matches the reflectance of the product. To score 23 or 24 points for color the reconstituted tomato juice shall contain as much red as, or more red than, that produced by spinning the specified Munsell color discs in the following combinations: 53 percent of the area of Disc 1; 28 percent of the area of Disc 2; 19 percent of the area of either Disc 3 or Disc 4, or 9½ percent of the area of Disc 3 and 9½ percent of the area of Disc 4, whichever most nearly matches the reflectance of the product.

(d) (SStd.) classification. Concentrated tomato juice that fails to meet the requirements of paragraph (c) of this section may be given a score of 0 to 22 points and shall not be graded above Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

§ 52.5206 Consistency.

(a) General. This factor has reference to the viscosity of the reconstituted juice. The tendency of the insoluble solids to separate, leaving practically clear liquid at the top is also to be noted in this connection.

(b) (A) classification. Concentrated tomato juice that, when properly reconstituted, has a good consistency may be given a score of 13 to 15 points. "Good consistency" means that the reconstituted tomato juice flows readily; has a normal amount of insoluble tomato solids in suspension; and that there is little tendency for such solids to settle out.

(c) (C) classification. If the concentrated tomato juice has a fairly good consistency a score of 10 to 12 points may be given. "Fairly good consistency" means that the reconstituted tomato juice flows readily; has a normal amount of insoluble tomato solids in suspension; and that there is not a marked tendency for such solids to settle out.

(d) (SStd.) classification. Concentrated tomato juice that fails to meet the requirements of paragraph (c) of this section may be given a score of 0 to 9 points and shall not be graded above Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

§ 52.5207 Defects.

(a) General. The factor of defects refers to the degree of freedom from defects, such as dark specks or scale-like particles, seeds, particles of seed, tomato peel, core material or other similar substances.

(b) (A) classification. Concentrated tomato juice that is practically free from defects may be given a score of 13 to 15 points. "Practically free from defects" means that any defects present in the reconstituted juice do not more than slightly affect the appearance or drinking quality of the juice.

(c) (C) classification. If the concentrated tomato juice is fairly free from defects a score of 10 to 12 points may be given. Concentrated tomato juice that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U.S. Grade C, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Fairly free from defects" means that any defects present in the reconstituted juice may be noticeable, but are not so large, so numerous or of such contrasting color as to seriously affect the appearance or drinking quality of the juice.

(d) (SStd.) classification. Concentrated tomato juice that fails to meet the requirements of paragraph (c) of this section may be given a score of 0 to 9 points and shall not be graded above Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

§ 52.5208 Flavor.

(a) (A) classification. Concentrated tomato juice that possesses a good flavor may be given a score of 33 to 40 points. "Good flavor" means a distinct canned tomato juice flavor and odor characteristic of good quality tomatoes. To score in this classification the flavor of the reconstituted juice shall not be adversely affected by stems, leaves, crushed seeds, cores, immature tomatoes, or the effects of improper trimming or processing.

(b) (C) classification. If the reconstituted tomato juice possesses only a fairly good flavor a score of 27 to 32 points may be given. Concentrated tomato juice that falls into this classification shall not be graded above U.S. Grade C, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule). "Fairly good flavor" means a characteristic canned tomato juice flavor. To score in this classification the flavor of the reconstituted juice may be affected adversely, but not seriously so, by stems, leaves, crushed seeds, cores, immature tomatoes, or the effects of improper trimming or processing.

(c) (SStd.) classification. Concentrated tomato juice that fails to meet the requirements of paragraph (b) of this section may be given a score of 0 to 26 points and shall not be graded above Substandard, regardless of the total score for the product (this is a limiting rule).

LOT INSPECTION AND CERTIFICATION

§ 52.5209 Ascertaining the grade of a lot.

The grade of a lot of concentrated tomato juice covered by these standards is determined by the procedures set forth in the Regulations Governing Inspection and Certification of Processed Fruits and Vegetables, Processed Products Thereof, and Certain Other Processed Food Products (§§ 52.1 to 52.87 of this title).

It is hereby found that good cause exists for not postponing the effective date of these standards beyond July 15, 1960 (5 U.S.C. 1001–1011) in that (1) the processing season for tomatoes is imminent and it is necessary for purposes of inspection and marketing that these standards be made effective at the beginning of the processing season; and (2) the industry has been apprised of the nature of the standards and compliance therewith will not require any special preparation that cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

The United States Standards for Grades of Concentrated Tomato Juice (which is the first issue) contained in this subpart shall become effective on July 15, 1960.

Dated: July 12, 1960.

GENERAL

§ 723.1211 Basis and purpose.

The regulations contained in §§ 723.1211 to 723.1228 are issued pursuant to the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, and govern the establishment of 1961 farm acreage allotments and normal yields for cigar-binder (types 51 and 52) tobacco and cigar-filler and binder (types 42, 43, 44, 53, 54 and 55) tobacco. The purpose of the regulations in §§ 723.1211 to 723.1228 is to provide the procedure for allocating, on an acreage basis, the national marketing quota for cigar-binder (types 51 and 52) tobacco and cigar-filler and binder (types 42, 43, 44, 53, 54 and 55) tobacco for the 1961–62 marketing year among farms and for determining normal yields. Section 723.1229 is included for the purpose of showing (a) how farm preliminary allotments for 1962 and subsequent years and (b) how farm tobacco acreage history for 1960 and subsequent years, will be determined. Prior to preparing the regulations in §§ 723.1211 to 723.1229, public notice (25 F.R. 4996) was given in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 1003). The date, views, and recommendations pertaining to the regulations in §§ 723.1211 to 723.1229 which were submitted have been duly considered within the limits permitted by the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended.

As used in §§ 723.1211 to 723.1229, and in all instructions, forms, and documents in connection therewith, the words and phrases defined in this section shall have the meanings herein assigned to them unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires.

(a) The following terms shall have the meanings assigned to them in Part 719 of this chapter: "Allotment," "combination," "community committee," "county committee," "State committee," "county," "county office manager," "cropland," "current year," "Department," "Deputy Administrator," "division," "farm," "farm serial number," "field," "history acreage," "operator," "person," "photograph number," "preceding year," "producer," "reconstitution," "Secretary," "Soil Bank Contract," "State administrative officer," and "subdivision."

(b) "Director" means the Director, or Acting Director, Tobacco Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, United States Department of Agriculture.

(c) "Base period" for the 1961–62 marketing year means the five years 1956–60.

(d) "New farm" means a farm on which there is no tobacco acreage history since 1955. If in accordance with applicable law and regulations, no 1956, 1957, 1958, 1959, or 1960 tobacco acreage allotment was determined for the farm, any production of tobacco in 1956, 1957, 1958, 1959, or 1960, respectively, shall not be considered in determining whether the farm is a new farm. The term "tobacco acreage history" as used in this paragraph shall be as defined and explained in § 723.1229.

(e) "Old farm" means a farm on which there is tobacco acreage history in one or more of the five years 1956 through 1960. If in accordance with applicable law and regulations, no 1956, 1957, 1958, 1959, or 1960 tobacco acreage allotment was determined for the farm, any production of tobacco in 1956, 1957, 1958, 1959, or 1960 respectively, shall not be considered in determining whether the farm is an old farm. The term "tobacco acreage history" as used in this paragraph shall be as defined and explained in § 723.1229.

(f) "'Tobacco" means:

(1) Type 43 tobacco, that type of cigar-leaf tobacco commonly known as Gebhardt, Ohio Seedleaf, or Ohio Broadleaf, produced principally in the Miami Valley section of Ohio and extending into Indiana;

(2) Type 43 tobacco, that type of cigar-leaf tobacco commonly known as Zimmer, Spanish, or Zimmer Spanish, produced principally in the Miami Valley section of Ohio and extending into Indiana;

(3) Type 44 tobacco, that type of cigar-leaf tobacco commonly known as Dutch, Shoestring Dutch, or Little Dutch, produced principally in the Miami Valley section of Ohio;

(4) Type 51 tobacco, that type of cigar-leaf tobacco commonly known as Connecticut Valley Broadleaf or Connecticut Broadleaf, produced primarily in the Valley area of Connecticut;

(5) Type 52 tobacco, that type of cigar-leaf tobacco commonly known as Connecticut Valley Havana Seed, or Havana Seed of Connecticut and Massachusetts, produced primarily in the Connecticut Valley area of Massachusetts and Connecticut;

(6) Type 53 tobacco, that type of cigar-leaf tobacco commonly known as York State Tobacco, or Havana Seed of New York and Pennsylvania, produced principally in the Big Flats section of New York, extending into Pennsylvania and in the Onondaga section of New York State;

(7) Type 54 tobacco, that type of cigar-leaf tobacco commonly known as southern Wisconsin cigar-leaf or southern Wisconsin binder type, produced principally south and east of the Wisconsin River; or

(8) Type 55 tobacco, that type of cigar-leaf tobacco commonly known as Northern Wisconsin cigar-leaf or Northern Wisconsin binder type, produced principally north and west of the Wisconsin River, as classified in Service and Regulatory Announcement No. 118 (Part 30 of this title) of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics of the United States Department of Agriculture, or all such types of tobacco as indicated by the context. Tobacco which has the same characteristics and corresponding qualities, colors, and lengths shall be treated as one type, regardless of any factors of historical or geographical nature which cannot be determined by an examination of the tobacco. The term "tobacco" shall include all leaves harvested, including trash.

§ 723.1215 Extent of calculations and rule of fractions.

All acreage allotments shall be rounded to the nearest one-hundredth acre. Computations shall be carried two decimal places beyond the required number of decimal places. In rounding, digits of 50 or less beyond the required number of decimal places shall be dropped; if 51 or more, the last required decimal place shall be increased by "1." For example, 10.5549 would be 10.55; 10.5550 would be 10.55; 10.5551 would be 10.56; and 10.5562 would be 10.56.

§ 723.1214 Instructions and forms.

The Director shall cause to be prepared and issued such forms as are necessary, and shall cause to be prepared such instructions for internal management as are necessary for carrying out §§ 723.1211 to 723.1229. The forms and instructions shall be approved by, and the instructions shall be issued by, the Deputy Administrator for Production Adjustment, Commodity Stabilization Service.

§ 723.1215 Applicability of §§ 723.1211 to 723.1229.

Sections 723.1211 to 723.1228, and § 723.1229 to the extent indicated therein, govern the establishment of farm acreage allotments and normal yields in connection with the 1961 crop of tobacco.

ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS AND NORMAL YIELDS FOR OLD FARMS

§ 723.1216 Determination of 1961 preliminary acreage allotments for old farms.

(a) The 1961 preliminary acreage allotment for an old tobacco farm shall be the 1960 farm acreage allotment established for such farm, prior to any reduction for violation of the tobacco marketing quota regulations.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing provision of paragraph (a) of this section, no 1961 preliminary allotment or 1961 farm tobacco acreage allotment shall be determined for any land which is devoted to commercial or residential development or other non-agricultural purposes, which was not acquired by an agency having the right of eminent domain and which could not have been acquired under right of eminent domain by the person or agency that did acquire it, and which the county committee and a representative of the State committee determine is retired from agricultural production: Provided, That this paragraph shall not preclude the determination of a preliminary acreage allotment or allotment for an old farm returned to agricultural production, or for a farm for which an acreage allotment may be determined under the provisions of § 723.1220.

§ 723.1217 1961 old farm tobacco acreage allotment.

The preliminary allotments calculated for all old farms in the State pursuant to § 723.1216 shall be adjusted uniformly so that the total of such allotments plus the acreage available for adjusting acreage allotments for old farms, correction of errors, and for allotments for overlooked old farms pursuant to § 723.1218 shall not exceed the State acreage allotment.

§ 723.1218 Adjustment of acreage allotments for old farms, correction of errors, and allotments for overlooked old farms.

Notwithstanding the limitations contained in § 723.1216, the individual 1961 farm acreage allotment heretofore established for an old farm may be increased if the county committee justifies such increase to the satisfaction of a representative of the State committee as being necessary to establish an allotment for such farm which is fair and equitable in relation to the allotments for other old farms in the county, on the basis of the past acreage of tobacco, making due allowances for drought, flood, hail, other abnormal weather conditions, plant bed, and other diseases; land, labor and equipment available for the production of tobacco; crop rotation practices; and the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco. The acreage available in the State for increasing allotments as above described under this section, correction of errors, and providing acreage allotments for overlooked farms shall not exceed in the case of cigar-binder (types 51 & 52) tobacco one percent of the total acreage allotted to all farms in the State for the production of such kind of tobacco for the 1960–61 marketing year, and shall not exceed in the case of cigar-filler and binder (types 42, 43, 44, 53, 54 & 55) tobacco 4 percent of the total acreage allotted to all farms in the State for the production of such kind of tobacco for the 1960–61 marketing year. The allotment for a farm under a conservation reserve contract shall be given the same consideration as the allotments for other similar farms under this section.

§ 723.1219 Reductions of acreage allotment for violation of the marketing quota regulations for a prior marketing year.

(a) If tobacco was marketed or was permitted to be marketed in the 1960–61 or a prior marketing year as having been produced on the acreage allotment for any farm which in fact was produced on a different farm, the acreage allotments established for both such farms for 1961 shall be reduced as provided in this section, except that such reduction for any such farm shall not be made if it is established to the satisfaction of the county and State committees that (1) no person on such farm intentionally participated in such marketing or could have reasonably been expected to have prevented such marketing, provided the marketing shall be construed as intentional unless all tobacco from the farm is accounted for and payment of all additional penalty is made, or (2) no person connected with such farm for the current year caused, aided, or acquiesced in such marketing:

(b) If complete and accurate proof of the disposition of all tobacco produced on the farm in 1960 or a prior year is not furnished in the manner and within the time prescribed by the marketing quota regulations for the crop involved, the 1961 acreage allotment for the farm shall be reduced as provided in this section for the failure to furnish such proof except that such reduction for any such farm shall not be made if it is established to the satisfaction of the county and State committees that (1) the failure to furnish such proof of disposition was unintentional and no producer on such farm could reasonably have been expected to furnish such proof of disposition, provided such failure will be construed as intentional unless such proof of disposition is furnished and payment of all additional penalty is made or (2) no person connected with such farm for the current year caused, aided or acquiesced in the failure to furnish such proof;

(c) If any producer files, aids, or acquiesces in the filing of, a false report with respect to the acreage of tobacco grown on the farm in 1960 or a prior year, the 1961 acreage allotment for the farm shall be reduced as provided in this section except that such reduction for any such farm shall not be made if it is established to the satisfaction of the county and State committees that (1) the filing of, aiding, or acquiescing in the filing of, such false report was not intentional on the part of any producer on the farm and that no producer on the farm could reasonably have been expected to know that the report was false, provided the filing of the report will be construed as intentional unless the report is corrected and the payment of all additional penalty is made, or (2) no person connected with such farm for the current year caused, aided, or acquiesced in the filing of, the false acreage report.

(d) If in the calendar year 1958 or a subsequent year more than one crop of tobacco was grown from (1) the same tobacco plants, or (2) different tobacco plants, and is harvested for marketing from the same acreage of a farm, the acreage allotment next established for such farm shall be reduced by an amount equivalent to the acreage from which more than one crop of tobacco was so grown and harvested. In case the allotment is transferred through a pool to another farm under § 723.1220 before the allotment reduction can be made effective on the farm on which the tobacco was grown, the allotment first established for the farm to which it is so transferred shall be reduced as described above in this paragraph.

(e) Any reduction made with respect to a farm's 1961 acreage allotment for any of the reasons heretofore provided in this section shall be made no later than May 1, 1961. If the reduction cannot be made by such date, the reduction shall be made with respect to the acreage allotment next established for the farm but no later than by a corresponding date to be specified in a subsequent year: Provided, however, That no reduction shall be made under this section in the 1961 acreage allotment for any farm for a violation described in paragraph (a), (b), (c), or (d) of this section if the acreage allotment for such farm for any prior year was reduced on account of the same violation.

(f) The amount of reduction in the 1961 allotment for a violation described in paragraph (a), (b), or (c) of this section shall be that percentage which the amount of tobacco involved in the violation is of the respective farm marketing quota for the farm for the year in which the violation occurred. Where the amount of such tobacco involved in the violation equals or exceeds the amount of the farm marketing quota, the amount of reduction shall be 100 percent. The quantity of tobacco determined by the county committee to have been falsely identified, or produced on acreage falsely omitted from an acreage report as filed, or for which the county committee determines that proof of disposition has not been furnished, shall be considered as the amount of tobacco involved in the violation. If the actual quantity of tobacco falsely identified, or produced on acreage falsely omitted from an acreage report, or for which proof of disposition has not been furnished is known, such quantity shall be determined by the county committee to be the amount of tobacco involved in the violation. If the actual quantity of tobacco produced on acreage falsely omitted from an acreage report or for which proof of disposition has not been furnished is not known, the county committee shall determine such quantity in the following manner, and if the actual total production of tobacco on the farm is not known, the county committee shall determine such total production and the farm marketing quota in the following manner. The yield per acre and the total production of tobacco on the farm shall be determined by taking into consideration the condition of the tobacco crop during production, if known, and the actual yield per acre of tobacco on other farms in the locality on which the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco are similar: Provided, That the determination of the total production of tobacco on the farm shall not exceed the harvested acreage of tobacco on the farm multiplied by the average actual yield on farms in the locality on which the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco are similar. The yield per acre and the total production of tobacco for the farm as so determined by the county committee shall be deemed to be the actual yield per acre and the actual total production of tobacco for the farm. The actual yield per acre of tobacco on the farm as so determined by the county committee multiplied by the farm acreage allotment shall be deemed to be the actual production of the acreage allotment and the farm marketing quota. Where the actual quantity of tobacco for which proof of disposition has not been furnished is not known, such quantity shall be determined by the county committee to be the quantity of tobacco remaining after deducting from the total production of tobacco on the farm determined as aforesaid, the quantity of tobacco for which proof of disposition has been furnished. Where the actual quantity of tobacco produced on acreage falsely omitted from an acreage report is not known, such quantity shall be determined by the county committee to be the quantity resulting from multiplying the yield per acre for the farm determined as aforesaid by the acreage falsely omitted from the acreage report as filed.

(g) If the farm involved in the violation is combined with another farm prior to the reduction, the reduction shall be applied as heretofore provided in this section to that portion of the allotment for which a reduction is required under paragraph (a), (b), (c) or (d) of this section.

(h) If the farm involved in the violation has been divided prior to the reduction, the reduction shall be applied as heretofore provided in this section to the allotments for the divided farms required to be reduced under paragraph (a), (b), (c) or (d) of this section.

(i) Producers of tobacco in the 1960–61 marketing year shall submit proof of disposition of tobacco and records and reports relative to the provisions of this section as set forth in § 723.1152 (Marketing Quota Regulations, 1960–61 Marketing Year, (Cigar-Binder and Cigar-Filler and Binder—60)) (25 F.R. 3927).

§ 723.1220 Reallocation of allotments determined for farms acquired by an agency having right of eminent domain or shifted from production of cigar-binder (types 51 and 52) tobacco and cigar-filler and binder (types 42, 43, 44, 53, 54 and 55) tobacco to production of shade-grown cigar leaf (type 61) wrapper tobacco.

(a) The determination of allotments for farms acquired by an agency having the right of eminent domain, the transfer of such allotments to a pool, and reallocation from the pool shall be administered as provided in § 719.12 of this chapter. The normal yield for each farm to which a reallocation is made as provided in this paragraph shall be determined as provided in § 723.1222 for determining normal yields for old farms.

(b) The allotment determined or which would have been determined for any land which has been used for the production of cigar-binder (types 51 and 52) tobacco or cigar-filler and binder (types 42, 43, 44, 53, 54, and 55) tobacco but which will be used in 1961 for the production of cigar wrapper (type 61) tobacco shall be placed in a State pool and shall be available to the State committee to establish allotments pursuant to § 723.1226(a).

§ 723.1221 Farms divided or combined.

Allotments for farms reconstituted for 1961 shall be determined in accordance with Part 719 of this chapter.

§ 723.1222 Determination of normal yields for old farms.

The normal yield for any old farm shall be that yield which the county committee determines is normal for the farm taking into consideration (a) the yields obtained on the farm, during the five years 1955–59, (b) the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco on the farm, and (c) the yields obtained on other farms in the locality which are similar with respect to such factors.

ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS AND NORMAL YIELDS FOR NEW FARMS

§ 723.1223 Determination of acreage allotments for new farms.

(a) The acreage allotment, other than an allotment made under § 723.1220, for a new farm shall be that acreage which the county committee determines is fair and reasonable for the farm, taking into consideration the past tobacco experience of the farm operator, the land, labor, and equipment available for the production of tobacco; crop rotation practices; and the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco: Provided, That the acreage allotment so determined shall not exceed 75 percent of the average of acreage allotments established for two or more but not to exceed five old farms in the community which are similar with respect to land, labor and equipment available for the production of tobacco, crop rotation practices, and the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco: And provided further, That if the tobacco acreage on a new tobacco farm is less than the tobacco acreage allotment otherwise established for the farm pursuant to this section, such allotment shall be automatically reduced to the tobacco acreage on the farm.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section a tobacco acreage allotment shall not be established for any new farm unless each of the following conditions has been met:

(1) The farm operator shall have had experience in the kind of tobacco for which an allotment is requested and such experience shall consist of the preparation of the plant bed and extend through preparation of the tobacco for market: Provided, That production of tobacco on a farm in 1955 or a subsequent year for which in accordance with applicable law and regulations no tobacco acreage allotment for 1965 or respective subsequent year was determined shall not be deemed such experience for any producer.

(2) The farm covered by the application shall be the only farm owned or operated by the farm operator for which a cigar-binder (types 51 and 52) tobacco, or cigar-filler and binder (types 42, 43, 44, 53, 54, and 55) tobacco acreage allotment is established for the 1961–62 marketing year.

(3) The farm operator shall receive 50 percent or more of his livelihood from the farm covered by the application.

(4) The farm or any portion thereof shall not have been a part of another farm during any of the five years 1956–60 for which an old farm tobacco acreage allotment was determined, except that this provision shall not of itself make a farm ineligible for a new farm allotment (i) if it is the same farm or a portion of the same farm for which an old farm allotment was cancelled since 1955 due to no tobacco history thereon for five years, or (ii) if it was a portion of an old farm during any of the years 1955–60 and at time of division of the farm contained cropland but received no part of the allotment due (a) to division of the allotment on a contribution basis, or (b) to agreement and approval of all interested parties as provided in regulations governing divisions and combinations of allotments.

(c) The acreage allotments established as provided in this section shall be subject to such downward adjustment as is necessary to bring such allotments in line with the total acreage available for allotment to all new farms. One percent of the 1961 national marketing quota shall, when converted to an acreage allotment by the use of the national average yield, be available for establishing allotments for new farms. The national average yield shall be the average of the several State yields used in converting the State marketing quotas into State acreage allotments.

(d) Any new farm allotment approved under §§ 723.1211 to 723.1229 which was determined by the county committee on the basis of incorrect information knowingly furnished the county committee by the applicant for the new farm allotment shall be cancelled as of the date established.

§ 723.1224 Time for filing application.

An application for a new farm allotment shall be filed with the ASC county office not later than March 10, 1961, unless the farm operator was discharged from the armed services subsequent to December 31, 1960, in which case such application shall be filed within a reasonable period prior to planting tobacco on the farm.

§ 723.1225 Determination of normal yields for new farms.

The normal yield for a new farm shall be that yield per acre which the county committee determines is normal for the farm as compared with yields for other farms in the locality on which the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco are similar.

MISCELLANEOUS

§ 723.1226 Determination of acreage allotments and normal yields for farms shifted from production of shade-grown cigar-leaf (type 61) wrapper tobacco to production of cigar-binder (types 51 and 52) tobacco or cigar-filler and binder (types 42, 43, 44, 53, 54, and 55) tobacco.

(a) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of §§ 723.1211 to 723.1225, an allotment may be established for a farm which in 1960 was producing shade-grown cigar-leaf (type 61) wrapper tobacco but on which cigar-binder (types 51 and 52) tobacco or cigar-filler and binder (types 42, 43, 44, 53, 54, and 55) tobacco will be produced in 1961. The acreage used for such purpose will be limited to that placed in the State pool pursuant to § 723.1220(b). Any allotment established pursuant to this paragraph shall, to the extent of available acreage in such pool, be determined by the county committee so as to be fair and equitable in relation to the allotments for other old farms in the community, on the basis of the past acreage of tobacco, making due allowances for drought, flood, hail, other abnormal weather conditions, plant bed, and other diseases; land, labor, and equipment available for the production of tobacco; crop rotation practices; and the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco. Allotments established pursuant to this paragraph are eligible for consideration for adjustments under § 723.1218.

(b) The normal yield for any such farm under paragraph (a) of this section shall be that yield per acre which the county committee determines by appraisal, taking into consideration available yield data for the land involved and yields established as provided in § 723.1222 for similar farms in the community.

§ 723.1227 Approval of determinations made under §§ 723.1211 to 723.1226 and § 723.1229, and notices of farm acreage allotments.

(a) All farm acreage allotments and yields shall be determined by the county committee of the county in which the farm is located and shall be reviewed by a representative of the State committee. The State committee may revise or require revision of any determinations made under §§ 723.1211 to 723.1226 and § 723.1228. All acreage allotments and yields shall be approved by a representative of the State committee and no official notice of acreage allotment shall be mailed to a grower until such allotment has been so approved, except that revised acreage allotment notices without such prior approval may be mailed in cases (1) resulting from reconstitutions that do not involve the use of additional acreage or (2) of allotment reductions due only to failure to return marketing cards (and disposition of tobacco is not otherwise furnished as provided in § 723.1219(b)).

(b) An official notice of the farm acreage allotment and marketing quota shall be mailed to the operator of each farm shown by the records of the county committee to be entitled to an allotment. The notice to the operator of the farm shall constitute notice to all persons who as operator, landlord, tenant, or sharecropper are interested in the farm for which the allotment is established. All such notices shall bear the actual or facsimile signature of a member of the county committee. The facsimile signature may be affixed by the county committeemen or an employee of the county office. Insofar as practical all allotment notices shall be mailed in time to be received prior to the date of any tobacco marketing quota referendum. A copy of such notice, containing thereon the date of mailing, shall be maintained for not less than 30 days in a conspicuous place in the county office and shall thereafter be kept available for public inspection in the office of the county committee. A copy of such notice certified as true and correct shall be furnished without charge to any person interested in the farm in respect to which the allotment is established.

(c) If the records of the county committee indicate that the allotment established for any farm may be changed because of (1) a violation of the marketing quota regulations for a prior marketing year, (2) removal of the farm from agricultural production, (3) division of the farm, or (4) combination of the farm, the mailing of the notice of such allotment may be delayed: Provided, That the notice of allotment for any farm shall be mailed no later than May 1, 1961.

(d) If the county committee determines with the approval of the State administrative officer that the official written notice of the farm acreage allotment issued for any farm erroneously stated the acreage allotment to be larger than the correct allotment, and the county committee also determines that the error was not so gross as to place the operator on notice thereof, and that the operator, relying upon such notice and acting in good faith, planted an acreage of tobacco in excess of the correct farm acreage allotment, the acreage allotment shown on the erroneous notice shall be deemed to be the tobacco acreage allotment for the farm for all purposes in connection with the tobacco marketing quota program for the 1961–62 marketing year, except that in determining whether or not 75 percent of the allotment is planted the provisions of § 723.1229(f) shall be followed.

§ 723.1228 Application for review.

Any producer who is dissatisfied with the farm acreage allotment and marketing quota established for his farm may, within fifteen days after mailing of the official notice of the farm acreage allotment and marketing quota, file application in writing with the ASC county office to have such allotment reviewed by a review committee. The procedure governing the review of farm acreage allotments and marketing quotas are contained in the regulations issued by the Secretary (Part 711 of this chapter) which are available at the ASC county office.

§ 723.1229 Determination of preliminary allotments for 1962 and subsequent years, and tobacco acreage history for 1960 and subsequent years.

(a) The preliminary acreage allotment for an old farm for 1962 and subsequent years shall be the farm acreage allotment for the immediately preceding year prior to any reduction for violation of the tobacco marketing quota regulations, except that if the tobacco acreage history in at least one of the immediately preceding two years is not as much as 75 percent of the farm allotment (after any reduction for violation) for such year, the preliminary allotment shall be the larger of (1) the largest tobacco acreage history in the past two years or (2) the average tobacco acreage history for the past five years.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, no 1962 preliminary allotment or 1962 farm allotment shall be determined for any land which is devoted to commercial or residential development or other nonagricultural purposes, which was not acquired by an agency having the right of eminent domain and which could not have been acquired under right of eminent domain by the person or agency that did acquire it, and which the county committee and a representative of the State committee determine is retired from agricultural production: Provided, That this paragraph shall not preclude the determination of a preliminary allotment or allotment for an old farm returned to agricultural production, or for a farm for which an acreage allotment may be determined under the provisions of § 723.1220.

(c) For each of the years 1957, 1958 and 1959, the tobacco acreage history shall be the same as the farm allotment for each such respective year, prior to any reduction for violation. For 1960, and for each subsequent year, the tobacco acreage history shall be the same as the farm allotment (prior to any reduction for violation) for such year, if

(1) The farm consists of Federally owned land, or

(2) The final tobacco acreage determined for the farm is as much as 75 percent of the farm tobacco acreage allotment (after any reduction for violation) for such year, or

(3) The final tobacco acreage determined for the farm plus the acreage regarded as planted to tobacco under the Soil Bank Act is as much as 75 percent of the farm tobacco acreage allotment (after any reduction for violation) for such year, or

(4) The final tobacco acreage determined for the farm plus the acreage regarded as planted to tobacco under the Soil Bank Act for at least one of the two immediately preceding years was as much as 75 percent of the farm tobacco acreage allotment (after any reduction for violation) for such respective year.

(d) If for 1960 or for any subsequent year, the county committee determines that the final tobacco acreage determined for the farm plus the acreage regarded as planted to tobacco under the Soil Bank Act is not as much as 75 percent of the farm tobacco acreage allotment (after any reduction for violation) for such year because of abnormal weather or disease, the tobacco acreage history for such particular year shall be adjusted to become the smaller of (1) the allotment (prior to any reduction for violation) or (2) the final tobacco acreage determined for the farm, plus the additional acreage which the county committee determines, with approval of a representative of the State committee, would have been included in the final tobacco acreage except for abnormal weather or disease, plus the acreage regarded as planted to tobacco under the Soil Bank Act, and plus the amount of any reduction for violation. However, in such a case, the farm allotment for such year shall still be considered less than 75 percent planted or regarded as planted in connection with determining the tobacco acreage history for one or both of the next two succeeding years. No adjustment for abnormal weather or disease shall be made unless the farm operator requests an adjustment in writing by October 1 of the crop year involved.

(e) If the tobacco acreage history for 1960 or any subsequent year cannot be considered to be the same as the farm allotment under the provisions of paragraph (c) or (d) of this section, it shall be the final tobacco acreage determined for the farm, plus the acreage regarded as planted to tobacco under the Soil Bank Act, plus the acreage by which the farm allotment was reduced for violation, and plus the additional acreage which the county committee determines, with approval of a representative of the State committee, would have been included in the final tobacco acreage except for abnormal weather or disease, not to exceed the tobacco acreage allotment prior to any reduction for violation.

(f) In applying the provisions of paragraphs (c), (d), and (e) of this section, the tobacco acreage history for any year shall not be larger than the allotment prior to any reduction for violation. For any year for which the allotment was reduced for violation (but not reduced to zero), the reduced allotment shall be used in determining whether the allotment was 75 percent planted or regarded as planted. For any year for which an allotment of zero was established (or no allotment was established), any acreage planted to tobacco on the farm in such year shall not be taken into account in determining whether at least 75 percent of the allotment for 1960 or any subsequent year was or is planted or is to be regarded as planted. In the event of planting pursuant to an erroneous notice of allotment for any year, the smaller of (1) the allotment shown on the erroneous notice or (2) the correct allotment that should have been shown on the notice will be used in determining whether the allotment was 75 percent planted or regarded as planted: Except that, if the correct notice is zero, any acreage planted to tobacco on the farm in such year shall not be taken into account in determining whether at least 75 percent of the allotment for 1960 or any subsequent year was or is planted or is to be regarded as planted.

(g) The 1956 tobacco acreage history shall not exceed the 1956 allotment, and shall include the tobacco acreage harvested on the farm in 1956, the tobacco acreage devoted in 1956 to the acreage reserve program, the tobacco acreage devoted in 1956 to the conservation reserve program, and the 1956 tobacco acreage preserved pursuant to a request of the owner or operator of the farm, as provided in § 723.816(b) of the tobacco marketing quota regulations for the 1957–58 marketing year (21 F.R. 7202, 9398; 22 F.R. 368).

(h) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, a farm shall be construed to have no tobacco acreage history during the base period, and shall therefore not be considered an old farm, if the only tobacco acreage history computed for the farm during the base period consists of acreage history restored pursuant to reduction(s) of the allotment for violation(s) of the tobacco marketing quota regulations.

(i) As used in this section, the following terms shall have the meanings described as follows:

(1) "Federally owned land" means land owned by the Federal Government or any department, bureau or agency thereof, or by any corporation all of the stock of which is owned by the Federal Government.

(2) "Final tobacco acreage" means the acreage determined under the provisions of Part 718 of this chapter, Determination of Acreage and Performance, and any amendments thereto, to be the final acreage of tobacco on the farm. Any acreage that may have been planted in any year on a farm for which a zero allotment was established or for which no allotment was established shall not be taken into account in determining whether at least 75 percent of the farm allotment for 1960 or any subsequent year was planted.

(3) "Acreage regarded as planted to tobacco under the Soil Bank Act" means: For 1960 and any subsequent crop year, if the tobacco allotment is the only commodity acreage allotment for the farm, the acreage placed in the conservation reserve at the regular rate, not to exceed the amount by which the farm tobacco acreage allotment, after any reduction for violation, exceeds the final tobacco acreage shall be regarded as planted to tobacco under the Soil Bank Act. In the event the farm has two or more commodity allotments for which the final acreage is less than the respective allotment, and the acreage placed in the conservation reserve at the regular rate on the farm is less than the sum of the amounts by which such respective allotments (after release and before reapportionment) exceed the respective final acreages of such crops on the farm, the acreage placed in the conservation reserve at the regular rate shall be prorated and credited to each such allotment commodity. To prorate this acreage, the sum of the amounts by which the respective allotments for those crops for which the final acreage is less than the respective allotment (after release and before reapportionment) exceed the respective final acreage for such allotment crops on the farm shall be obtained. This total shall then be divided into the amount by which each such allotment (after release and before reapportionment) exceeds the final acreage. The percentage thus obtained for each such commodity shall be applied to the acreage on the farm under a conservation contract at the regular rate. The result shall be the acreage considered planted to such commodity on the farm under a conservation reserve contract. Where it is necessary to determine the acreage regarded as planted to tobacco under the Soil Bank Act in 1959 or 1960, the provisions of this paragraph shall be followed in making such determination. For 1958, the acreage entered on the acreage reserve agreement shall be included in the acreage regarded as planted under the Soil Bank Act, and shall be added to the final acreage in determining whether, and the extent to which, the commodity is entitled to share in the conservation reserve credit for the farm. As used in this paragraph (i) (3), the term "allotment" means the allotment after any reduction for violation in the case of tobacco and peanuts.

NOTE: The record keeping and reporting requirements of these regulations have been approved by and subsequent reporting requirements will be subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued at Washington, D.C., this 11th day of July 1960.

Associate Administrator,

GENERAL

§ 725.1211 Basis and purpose.

The regulations contained in §§ 725.1211 to 725.1227 are issued pursuant to the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, and govern the establishment of 1961 farm acreage allotments and normal yields for burley, flue-cured, fire-cured, dark air-cured, and Virginia sun-cured tobacco. The purpose of the regulations in §§ 725.1211 to 725.1227 is to provide the procedure for allocating, on an acreage basis, the national marketing quota for burley, flue-cured, fire-cured, dark air-cured, and Virginia sun-cured tobacco for the 1961–62 marketing year among farms and for determining normal yields. § 725.1228 is included for the purpose of showing (a) how farm preliminary allotments for 1962 and subsequent years and (b) how farm tobacco acreage history for 1960 and subsequent years, will be determined. Prior to preparing the regulations in §§ 725.1211 to 725.1228, public notice (25 F.R. 4996) was given in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 1003). The data views, and recommendations pertaining to the regulations in §§ 725.1211 to 725.1228, which were submitted have been duly considered within the limits permitted by the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended.

As used in §§ 725.1211 to 725.1228, and in all instructions, forms, and documents in connection therewith, the words and phrases defined in this section shall have the meanings herein assigned to them unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires.

(a) The following terms shall have the meanings assigned to them in Part 719 of this chapter: "Allotment", "combination", "community committee", "county committee", "State committee", "county", "county office manager", "cropland", "current year", "Department", "Deputy Administrator", "division", "farm", "farm serial number", "field", "history acreage", "operator", "person", "photograph number", "preceding year", "producer", "reconstitution", "Secretary", "Soil Bank Contract", "State administrative officer", and "subdivision".

(b) "Director" means the Director, or Acting Director, Tobacco Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, United State Department of Agriculture.

(c) "Base period" for the 1961–62 marketing years means the five years 1956–60.

(d) "New farm" means a farm on which there is no tobacco acreage history since 1955. If in accordance with applicable law and regulations, no 1956, 1957, 1958, 1959 or 1960 tobacco acreage allotment was determined for the farm, any production of tobacco in 1956, 1957, 1958, 1959 or 1960, respectively, shall not be considered in determining whether the farm is a new farm. The term "tobacco acreage history" as used in this paragraph shall be as defined and explained in § 725.1228.

(e) "Old farm" means a farm on which there is tobacco acreage history in one or more of the five years 1956 through 1960. If in accordance with applicable law and regulations, no 1956, 1957, 1958, 1959 or 1960 tobacco acreage allotment was determined for the farm, any production of tobacco in 1956, 1957, 1958, 1959, or 1960, respectively, shall not be considered in determining whether the farm is an old farm. The term "tobacco acreage history" as used in this paragraph shall be as defined and explained in § 725.1228.

(f) "Tobacco" means:

(1) Burley tobacco type 31; flue-cured tobacco types 11, 12, 13, and 14; fire-cured tobacco type 21, fire-cured tobacco types 22, 23, and 24; dark air-cured tobacco types 35 and 36; or Virginia sun-cured tobacco type 37, as classified in Service and Regulatory Announcement No. 118 (Part 30 of this title) of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics of the United States Department of Agriculture, or all, as indicated by the context.

§ 725.1213 Extent of calculations and rule of fractions.

All acreage allotments shall be rounded to the nearest one-hundredth acre. Computations shall be carried two places beyond the required number of decimal places. In rounding, digits of 50 or less beyond the required number of decimal places shall be dropped; if 51 or more, the last required decimal place shall be increased by "1". For example, 10.5536 would be 10.55; 10.5550 would be 10.55; 10.5551 would be 10.56; and 10.5582 would be 10.56.

§ 725.1214 Instructions and forms.

The Director shall cause to be prepared and issued such forms as are necessary, and shall cause to be prepared such instructions with respect to internal management as are necessary for carrying out the regulations in this part. The forms and instructions shall be approved by and the instructions shall be issued by, the Deputy Administrator for Production Adjustment of the Commodity Stabilization Service.

§ 725.1215 Applicability of §§ 725.1211 to 725.1228.

Sections 725.1211 to 725.1227 and § 725.1228 to the extent indicated therein, govern the establishment of farm acreage allotments and normal yields for tobacco in connection with farm marketing quotas for the marketing year beginning October 1, 1961, in the case of burley, fire-cured, dark air-cured, and Virginia sun-cured tobacco, and July 1, 1961, in the case of flue-cured tobacco.

ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS AND NORMAL YIELDS FOR OLD FARMS

§ 725.1216 Determination of 1961 preliminary acreage allotments for old farms.

(a) The 1961 preliminary acreage allotment for an old tobacco farm shall be the 1960 farm acreage allotment established for such farm, prior to any reduction for violation of tobacco marketing quota regulations.

(b) Notwithstanding the provision of paragraph (a) of this section, no 1961 preliminary allotment or 1961 farm tobacco acreage allotment shall be determined for any land which is devoted to commercial or residential development or other non-agricultural purposes, which was not acquired by an agency having the right of eminent domain, and which could not have been acquired under right of eminent domain by the person or agency that did acquire it, and which the county committee and a representative of the State committee determine is retired from agricultural production: Provided, That this paragraph shall not preclude the determination of a preliminary acreage allotment or allotment for an old farm returned to agricultural production, or for a farm for which an acreage allotment may be determined under the provisions of § 725.1220.

§ 725.1217 1961 old farm tobacco acreage allotment.

The preliminary allotments calculated for all old farms in the State pursuant to § 725.1216 shall be adjusted uniformly so that the total of such allotments for old farms plus the acreage available for adjusting acreage allotments for old farms, correction of errors, and for allotments for overlooked old farms pursuant to § 725.1218 shall not exceed the State acreage allotment: Provided, That in the case of burley tobacco the farm acreage allotment shall not be less than the smallest of (a) the 1960 allotment, (b) fifty-hundredths of an acre, or (c) 10 percent of the cropland in the farm: Provided further, That no 1960 burley tobacco allotment of seventy-hundredths of an acre or less shall be reduced more than one-tenth of an acre, and no 1960 burley tobacco farm acreage allotment of more than seventy-hundredths of an acre will be reduced to less than six-tenths of an acre.

§ 725.1218 Adjustment of acreage allotments for old farms, correction of errors, and allotments for overlooked old farms.

Notwithstanding the limitations contained in § 725.1216, the individual 1961 farm acreage allotment heretofore established for an old farm may be increased if the county committee justifies such increase to the satisfaction of a representative of the State committee as being necessary to establish an allotment for such farm which is fair and equitable in relation to the allotments for other old farms in the county, on the basis of the past acreage of tobacco, making due allowances for drought, flood, hail, other abnormal weather conditions, plant bed, and other diseases; land, labor and equipment available for the production of tobacco; crop rotation practices; and the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco. The acreage available in the State for increasing allotments as above described under this section, correction of errors, and providing acreage allotments for overlooked farms shall not exceed one-tenth of one percent of the total acreage allotted to all tobacco farms in the State for the 1960–61 marketing year. The allotment for a farm under a conservation reserve contract shall be given the same consideration as the allotments for other similar farms under this section.

§ 725.1219 Reductions of acreage allotment for violation of the marketing quota regulations for a prior marketing year.

(a) If tobacco was marketed or was permitted to be marketed in the 1960–61 or a prior marketing year as having been produced on the acreage allotment for any farm which in fact was produced on a different farm, the acreage allotments established for both such farms for 1961 shall be reduced as provided in this section, except that such reduction for any such farm shall not be made if it is established to the satisfaction of the county and State committees that (1) no person on such farm intentionally participated in such marketing or could have reasonably been expected to have prevented such marketing, provided the marketing shall be construed as intentional unless all tobacco from the farm is accounted for and payment of all additional penalty is made, or (2) no person connected with such farm for the current year caused, aided, or acquiesced in such marketing;

(b) If complete and accurate proof of the disposition of all tobacco produced on the farm in 1960 or a prior year is not furnished in the manner and within the time prescribed by the marketing quota regulations for the crop involved, the 1961 acreage allotment for the farm shall be reduced as provided in this section for the failure to furnish such proof except that such reduction for any such farm shall not be made if it is established to the satisfaction of the county and State committees that (1) the failure to furnish such proof of disposition was unintentional and no producer on such farm could reasonably have been expected to furnish such proof of disposition, provided such failure will be construed as intentional unless such proof of disposition is furnished and payment of all additional penalty is made, or (2) no person connected with such farm for the current year caused, aided or acquiesced in the failure to furnish such proof;

(c) If any producer files, aids, or acquiesces in the filing of, a false report with respect to the acreage of tobacco grown on the farm in 1960 or a prior year, the 1961 acreage allotment for the farm shall be reduced as provided in this section except that such reduction for any such farm shall not be made if it is established to the satisfaction of the county and State committees that (1) the filing of, aiding, or acquiescing in the filing of, such false report was not intentional on the part of any producer on the farm and that no producer on the farm could reasonably have been expected to know that the report was false, provided the filing of the report will be construed as intentional unless the report is corrected and the payment of all additional penalty is made, or (2) no person connected with such farm for the current year caused, aided, or acquiesced in the filing of, the false acreage report.

(d) If in the calendar year 1958 or in a subsequent year, more than one crop of tobacco was grown from (1) the same tobacco plants, or (2) different tobacco plants, and is harvested for marketing from the same acreage of a farm, the acreage allotment next established for such farm shall be reduced by an amount equivalent to the acreage from which more than one crop of tobacco was so grown and harvested. In case the allotment is transferred through a pool to another farm under § 725.1220 before the allotment reduction can be made effective on the farm on which the tobacco was grown, the allotment first established for the farm to which it is so transferred shall be reduced as described above in this paragraph.

(e) Any reduction made with respect to a farm's 1961 acreage allotment for any of the reasons heretofore provided in this section shall be made no later than (1) April 1, 1961, in the States of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Virginia or (2) May 1, 1961, in all other States; otherwise, if the reduction cannot be made by such dates, the reduction shall be made with respect to the acreage allotment next established for the farm but no later than by corresponding dates to be specified in a subsequent year; Provided, however, That no reduction shall be made under this section in the 1961 acreage allotment for any farm for a violation described in paragraph (a), (b), (c), or (d) of this section if the acreage allotment for such farm for any prior year was reduced on account of the same violation.

(f) The amount of reduction in the 1961 allotment for a violation described in paragraph (a), (b), or (c) of this section shall be that percentage which the amount of tobacco involved in the violation is of the respective farm marketing quota for the farm for the year in which the violation occurred. Where the amount of such tobacco involved in the violation equals or exceeds the amount of the farm marketing quota, the amount of reduction shall be 100 percent. The quantity of tobacco determined by the county committee to have been falsely identified, or produced on acreage falsely omitted from an acreage report as filed, or for which the county committee determines that proof of disposition has not been furnished, shall be considered as the amount of tobacco involved in the violation. If the actual quantity of tobacco falsely identified, or produced on acreage falsely omitted from an acreage report, or for which proof of disposition has not been furnished is known, such quantity shall be determined by the county committee to be the amount of tobacco involved in the violation. If the actual quantity of tobacco produced on acreage falsely omitted from an acreage report or for which proof of disposition has not been furnished is not known, the county committee shall determine such quantity in the following manner, and if the actual total production of tobacco on the farm is not known, the county committee shall determine such total production and the farm marketing quota in the following manner. The yield per acre and the total production of tobacco on the farm shall be determined by taking into consideration the condition of the tobacco crop during production, if known, and the actual yield per acre of tobacco on other farms in the locality on which the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco are similar: Provided, That the determination of the total production of tobacco on the farm shall not exceed the harvested acreage of tobacco on the farm multiplied by the average actual yield on farms in the locality on which the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco are similar. The yield per acre and the total production of tobacco for the farm as so determined by the county committee shall be deemed to be the actual yield per acre, and the actual total production of tobacco for the farm. The actual yield per acre of tobacco on the farm as so determined by the county committee multiplied by the farm acreage allotment shall be deemed to be the actual production of the acreage allotment and the farm marketing quota. Where the actual quantity of tobacco for which proof of disposition has not been furnished is not known, such quantity shall be determined by the county committee to be the quantity of tobacco remaining after deducting from the total production of tobacco on the farm determined as aforesaid, the quantity of tobacco for which proof of disposition has been furnished. Where the actual quantity of tobacco produced on acreage falsely omitted from an acreage report is not known, such quantity shall be determined by the county committee to be the quantity resulting from multiplying the yield per acre for the farm determined as aforesaid by the acreage falsely omitted from the acreage report as filed.

(g) If the farm involved in the violation is combined with another farm prior to the reduction, the reduction shall be applied as heretofore provided in this section to that portion of the allotment for which a reduction is required under paragraph (a), (b), (c), or (d) of this section.

(h) If the farm involved in the violation has been divided prior to the reduction, the reduction shall be applied as heretofore provided in this section to the allotments for the divided farms required to be reduced under paragraph (a), (b), (c), or (d) of this section.

(i) Producers of tobacco in the 1960–61 marketing year shall submit proof of disposition of tobacco and records and reports relative to the provisions of this section as set forth in § 725.1152 (Marketing Quota Regulations, 1960–61 Marketing Year, Burley, Flue, Fire, Air and Sun-60) (25 F.R. 3935).

§ 725.1220 Reallocation of allotments determined for farms acquired by an agency having right of eminent domain.

The determination of allotments for farms acquired by an agency having the right of eminent domain, the transfer of such allotments to a pool, and reallocation from the pool shall be administered as provided in § 719.12 of this chapter. The normal yield for each farm to which a reallocation is made as provided in this paragraph shall be determined as provided in § 725.1222 for determining normal yields for old farms.

§ 725.1221 Farms divided or combined.

(a) Allotments for farms reconstituted for 1961 shall be determined in accordance with Part 719 of this chapter except as otherwise provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section.

(b) If after 1961 farm tobacco acreage allotments have been determined, one or more farms having a 1961 fire-cured (type 21) tobacco acreage allotment is combined with another or more farms having a 1961 Virginia sun-cured (type 37) tobacco acreage allotment, or if before 1961 farm tobacco acreage allotments have been established, one or more farms for which a 1960 fire-cured (type 21) tobacco acreage allotment had been established is combined with another or more farms for which a 1960 Virginia sun-cured (type 37) tobacco acreage allotment had been established and a single combined 1960 acreage allotment has not been established for such combined farm, a single combined acreage allotment for the 1961–62 marketing year designated for either fire-cured (type 21) tobacco or Virginia sun-cured (type 37) tobacco shall be established for the combined farm. Such single combined acreage allotment shall be equal to the total acreage of and be in place of the 1960 acreage allotments for fire-cured (type 21) tobacco and Virginia sun-cured (type 37) tobacco which have either previously been established for the farms comprising the combined farm, or which shall be computed and established for the farms comprising the combined farm in accordance with the provisions of §§ 725.1216 to 725.1219 solely for the purpose of enabling a single combined 1961 acreage allotment to be determined and established for the combined farm. The county committee shall give written notification to the owner or owners of such combined farm that the owner or his representative may designate, or if there is more than one owner of the land comprising the farm that the representative of all such owners may designate, a single combined 1961 acreage allotment for the combined farm either for fire-cured (type 21) tobacco or for Virginia sun-cured (type 37) tobacco by submitting his choice to the local county committee within 15 days following the date of mailing of such notification, or within such extended period of time thereafter as the county committee in any case may fix and notify the owner or owners of such extension; and that if within such time the county committee is not notified that a choice has been made as heretofore provided, the county committee, with approval of a representative of the State committee, shall designate the 1961 single combined acreage allotment for the farm as either for fire-cured (type 21) tobacco or Virginia sun-cured (type 37) tobacco on the basis of the prevalent kind of tobacco grown in the area in which such farm is located, the curing facilities on such farm, and the proximity and nature of markets. The occurrence on the same farm of concurrent acreage allotments for fire-cured (type 21) tobacco and Virginia sun-cured (type 37) tobacco pursuant to the provisions of § 725.1220 shall be deemed to be of the same effect, for the purposes of and in applying the provisions of this paragraph, as a combination of farms described in this paragraph.

(c) For the purposes of this paragraph and paragraph (b) of this section, the term "representative" shall mean the person named and authorized by the owner of a farm to act for him, or if there are two or more owners of the land comprising a farm, the person named and authorized by such owners to act for all of them in designating or choosing for the farm a single combined acreage allotment for either fire-cured (type 21) tobacco or Virginia sun-cured (type 37) tobacco. The county committee may require any person to furnish to it such evidence as it may require to reasonably establish such person as an owner or representative of an owner or owners.

§ 725.1222 Determination of normal yields for old farms.

The normal yield for any old farm shall be that yield which the county committee determines is normal for the farm taking into consideration (a) the yields obtained on the farm during the five years 1955–59, (b) the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco on the farm, and (c) the yields obtained on other farms in the locality which are similar with respect to such factors.

Acreage Allotments and Normal Yields for New Farms.

§ 725.1223 Determination of acreage allotments for new farms.

(a) The acreage allotment, other than an allotment made under § 725.1220, for a new farm shall be that acreage which the county committee with the approval of the State committee determines is fair and reasonable for the farm taking into consideration the past tobacco experience of the farm operator, the land, labor, and equipment available for the production of tobacco; crop rotation practices; and the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco: Provided, That the acreage allotment so determined shall not exceed 50 percent of the average of the acreage allotments established for two or more but not more than five old tobacco farms which are similar with respect to land, labor, and equipment available for the production of tobacco, crop rotation practices, and the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco: And provided further, That if the tobacco acreage on a new tobacco farm is less than the tobacco acreage allotment otherwise established for the farm pursuant to this section, such allotment shall be automatically reduced to the tobacco acreage on the farm.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, a tobacco acreage allotment shall not be established for any new farm unless each of the following conditions has been met:

(1) The farm operator shall have had experience in growing the kind of tobacco for which an allotment is requested either as a share cropper, tenant, or as a farm operator during two of the past five years; Provided, That a farm operator who was in the armed services after September 16, 1940, shall be deemed to have met the requirements of this subparagraph if he has had such experience during one year either within the five years immediately prior to his entry into the armed services or within the five years immediately following his discharge from the armed services and if he files an application for an allotment within five crop years from the date of discharge: And provided further, That production of tobacco on a farm in 1955 or a subsequent year, for which, in accordance with applicable law and regulations no tobacco acreage allotment for 1955 or respective subsequent year was determined, shall not be deemed such experience for any producer.

(2) The farm operator shall live on and obtain 50 percent or more of his livelihood from the farm covered by the application.

(4) The farm shall be operated by the owner thereof.

(5) The farm or any portion thereof shall not have been a part of another farm during any of the five years 1956–60 for which an old farm tobacco acreage allotment was determined, except that this provision shall not of itself make a farm ineligible for a new farm allotment (i) if it is the same farm or a portion of the same farm for which an old farm allotment was cancelled since 1955 due to no tobacco history thereon for five years, or (ii) if it was a portion of an old farm during any of the years 1956–60 and at time of division of the farm contained cropland but received no part of the allotment due to division of the allotment on a contribution basis.

(c) The acreage allotments established as provided in this section shall be subject to such downward adjustment as is necessary to bring such allotments in line with the total acreage available for allotment to all new farms. One-fourth of one percent of the 1961 national marketing quota shall, when converted to an acreage allotment by the use of the national average yield, be available for establishing allotments for new farms. The national average yield shall be the average of the several State yields used in converting the State marketing quotas into State acreage allotments.

(d) Any new farm allotment approved under §§ 725.1211 to 725.1228, which was determined by the county committee on the basis of incorrect information knowingly furnished the county committee by the applicant for the new farm allotment shall be cancelled as of the date established.

§ 725.1224 Time for filing application.

An application for a new farm allotment shall be filed with the ASC county office prior to February 16, 1961, unless the farm operator was discharged from the armed services subsequent to December 31, 1960, in which case such application shall be filed within a reasonable period prior to planting tobacco on the farm.

§ 725.1225 Determination of normal yields for new farms.

The normal yield for a new farm shall be that yield per acre which the county committee determines is normal for the farm as compared with yields for other farms in the locality on which the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco are similar.

Miscellaneous

§ 725.1226 Approval of determinations made under §§ 725.1211 to 725.1225 and § 725.1228, and notices of farm acreage allotments.

(a) All farm acreage allotments and yields shall be determined by the county committee of the county in which the farm is located and shall be reviewed by a representative of the State committee. The State committee may revise or require revision of any determinations made under §§ 725.1211 to 725.1225 and § 725.1228. All acreage allotments and yields shall be approved by a representative of the State committee, and no official notice of acreage allotment shall be mailed to a farm operator until such allotment has been so approved, except that revised acreage allotment notices without such prior approval may be mailed in cases (1) resulting from reconstitutions that do not involve the use of additional acreage, or (2) of allotment reductions due only to failure to return marketing cards, and disposition of tobacco is not otherwise furnished as provided in § 725.1219(b).

(b) An official notice of the farm acreage allotment and marketing quota shall be mailed to the operator of each farm shown by the records of the county committee to be entitled to an allotment. The notice to the operator of the farm shall constitute notice to all persons who as operator, landlord, tenant, or share-cropper are interested in the farm for which the allotment is established. All such notices shall bear the actual or facsimile signature of a member of the county committee. The facsimile signature may be affixed by the county committeeman or an employee of the county office. Insofar as practical, all allotment notices shall be mailed in time to be received prior to the date of any tobacco marketing quota referendum. A copy of such notice containing thereon the date of mailing, shall be maintained for not less than 30 days in a conspicuous place in the county office and shall thereafter be kept available for public inspection in the office of the county committee. A copy of such notice certified as true and correct shall be furnished without charge to any person interested in the farm in respect to which the allotment is established.

(c) If the records of the county committee indicate that the allotment established for any farm may be changed because of (1) a violation of the marketing quota regulations for a prior marketing year (2) removal of the farm from agricultural production, (3) division of the farm, or (4) combination of the farm, the mailing of the notice of such allotment may be delayed: Provided, That the notice of allotment for any farm shall be mailed no later than (i) April 1, 1961, in the States of Alabama, Florida, Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina, and Virginia, or (ii) May 1, 1961, in all other States.

(d) If the county committee determines with the approval of the State administrative officer that the official written notice of the farm acreage allotment issued for any farm erroneously stated the acreage allotment to be larger than the correct allotment, and the county committee also determines that the error was not so gross as to place the operator on notice thereof, and that the operator, relying upon such notice and acting in good faith, planted an acreage of tobacco in excess of the correct farm acreage allotment, the acreage allotment shown on the erroneous notice shall be deemed to be the tobacco acreage allotment for the farm for all purposes in connection with the tobacco marketing quota program for the 1961–62 marketing year, except that in determining whether or not 75 percent of the allotment is planted, the provisions of § 725.1228(f) shall be followed.

§ 725.1227 Application for review.

Any producer who is dissatisfied with the farm acreage allotment and marketing quota established for his farm, may, within fifteen days after mailing of the official notice of the farm acreage allotment and marketing quota, file application in writing with the ASC county office to have such allotment reviewed by a review committee. This procedure governing the review of farm acreage allotments and marketing quotas is contained in Part 711 of this chapter, which is available at the ASC county office.

§ 725.1228 Determination of preliminary allotments for 1962 and subsequent years, and tobacco acreage history for 1960 and subsequent years.

(a) The preliminary acreage allotment for an old farm for 1962 and subsequent years shall be the farm acreage allotment for the immediately preceding year prior to any reduction for violation of the tobacco marketing quota regulations, except that if the tobacco acreage history in at least one of the immediately preceding two years is not as much as 75 percent of the farm allotment (after any reduction for violation) for such year, the preliminary allotment shall be the larger of (1) the largest tobacco acreage history in the past two years or (2) the average tobacco acreage history for the past five years.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, no 1962 preliminary allotment or 1962 farm allotment shall be determined for any land which is devoted to commercial or residential development or other non-agricultural purposes, which was not acquired by an agency having the right of eminent domain and which could not have been acquired under right of eminent domain by the person or agency that did acquire it, and which the county committee and a representative of the State committee determine is retired from agricultural production: Provided, That this paragraph shall not preclude the determination of a preliminary allotment or allotment for an old farm returned to agricultural production, or for a farm for which an acreage allotment may be determined under the provisions of § 725.1220.

(c) For each of the years 1957, 1958 and 1959, the tobacco acreage history shall be the same as the farm allotment for each such respective year, prior to any reduction for violation. For 1960, and for each subsequent year, the tobacco acreage history shall be the same as the farm allotment (prior to any reduction for violation) for such year, if

(1) The farm consists of Federally owned land, or

(2) The final tobacco acreage determined for the farm is as much as 75 percent of the farm tobacco acreage allotment (after any reduction for violation) for such year, or

(3) The final tobacco acreage determined for the farm plus the acreage regarded as planted to tobacco under the Soil Bank Act is as much as 75 percent of the farm tobacco acreage allotment (after any reduction for violation) for such year, or

(4) The final tobacco acreage determined for the farm plus the acreage regarded as planted to tobacco under the Soil Bank Act for at least one of the two immediately preceding years was as much as 75 percent of the farm tobacco acreage allotment (after any reduction for violation) for such respective year.

(d) If for 1960 or for any subsequent year, the county committee determines that the final tobacco acreage determined for the farm plus the acreage regarded as planted to tobacco under the Soil Bank Act is not as much as 75 percent of the farm tobacco acreage allotment (after any reduction for violation) for such year because of abnormal weather or disease, the tobacco acreage history for such particular year shall be adjusted to become the smaller of (1) the allotment (prior to any reduction for violation) or (2) the final tobacco acreage determined for the farm, plus the additional acreage which the county committee determines, with approval of a representative of the State committee, would have been included in the final tobacco acreage except for abnormal weather or disease, plus the acreage regarded as planted to tobacco under the Soil Bank Act, and plus the amount of any reduction for violation. However, in such a case, the farm allotment for such year shall still be considered less than 75 percent planted or regarded as planted in connection with determining the tobacco acreage history for one or both of the next two succeeding years. No adjustment for abnormal weather or disease shall be made unless the farm operator requests an adjustment in writing by October 1 of the crop year involved.

(e) If the tobacco acreage history for 1960 or any subsequent year cannot be considered to be the same as the farm allotment under the provisions of paragraph (c) or (d) of this section, it shall be the final tobacco acreage determined for the farm, plus the acreage regarded as planted to tobacco under the Soil Bank Act, plus the acreage by which the farm allotment was reduced for violation, and plus the additional acreage which the county committee determines, with approval of a representative of the State committee, would have been included in the final tobacco acreage except for abnormal weather or disease, not to exceed the tobacco acreage allotment prior to any reduction for violation.

(f) In applying the provisions of paragraphs (c), (d), and (e) of this section, the tobacco acreage history for any year shall not be larger than the allotment prior to any reduction for violation. For any year for which the allotment was reduced for violation (but not reduced to zero), the reduced allotment shall be used in determining whether the allotment was 75 percent planted or regarded as planted. For any year for which an allotment of zero was established (or no allotment was established), any acreage planted to tobacco on the farm in such year shall not be taken into account in determining whether at least 75 percent of the allotment for 1960 or any subsequent year was or is planted or is to be regarded as planted. In the event of planting pursuant to an erroneous notice of allotment for any year, the smaller of (1) the allotment shown on the erroneous notice or (2) the correct allotment that should have been shown on the notice will be used in determining whether the allotment was 75 percent planted or regarded as planted: except that, if the correct notice is zero, any acreage planted to tobacco on the farm in such year shall not be taken into account in determining whether at least 75 percent of the allotment for 1960 or any subsequent year was or is planted or is to be regarded as planted.

(g) The 1956 tobacco acreage history shall not exceed the 1956 allotment, and shall include the tobacco acreage harvested on the farm in 1956, the tobacco acreage devoted in 1956 to the acreage reserve program, the tobacco acreage devoted in 1956 to the conservation reserve program, and, excepting flue-cured tobacco, the 1956 tobacco acreage preserved pursuant to a request of the owner or operator of the farm, as provided in § 725.816(c) of the tobacco marketing quota regulations for the 1957–58 marketing year (21 F.R. 6803, 9398).

(h) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, a farm shall be construed to have no tobacco acreage history during the base period, and shall therefore not be considered an old farm, if the only tobacco acreage history computed for the farm during the base period consists of acreage history restored pursuant to reduction(s) of the allotment for violation(s) of the tobacco marketing quota regulations.

(i) As used in this section, the following terms shall have the meanings described as follows:

(1) "Federally owned land" means land owned by the Federal Government or any department, bureau or agency thereof, or by any corporation all of the stock of which is owned by the Federal Government.

(2) "Final tobacco acreage" means the acreage determined under the provisions of part 718 of this chapter, Determination of Acreage and Performance, and any amendments thereto, to be the final acreage of tobacco on the farm. Any acreage that may have been planted in any year on a farm for which a zero allotment was established or for which no allotment was established shall not be taken into account in determining whether at least 75 percent of the farm allotment for 1960 or any subsequent year was planted.

(3) "Acreage regarded as planted to tobacco under the Soil Bank Act" means: For 1960 and any subsequent crop year, if the tobacco allotment is the only commodity acreage allotment for the farm, the acreage placed in the conservation reserve at the regular rate, not to exceed the amount by which the farm tobacco acreage allotment, after any reduction for violation, exceeds the final tobacco acreage shall be regarded as planted to tobacco under the Soil Bank Act. In the event the farm has two or more commodity allotments for which the final acreage is less than the respective allotment, and the acreage placed in the conservation reserve at the regular rate on the farm is less than the sum of the amounts by which such respective allotments (after release and before reapportionment) exceed the respective final acreages of such crops on the farm, the acreage placed in the conservation reserve at the regular rate shall be prorated and credited to each such allotment commodity. To prorate this acreage, the sum of the amounts by which the respective allotments for those crops for which the final acreage is less than the respective allotment (after release and before reapportionment) exceed the respective final acreage for such allotment crops on the farm shall be obtained. This total shall then be divided into the amount by which each such allotment (after release and before reapportionment) exceeds the final acreage. The percentage thus obtained for each such commodity shall be applied to the acreage on the farm under a conservation contract at the regular rate. The result shall be the acreage considered planted to such commodity on the farm under a conservation reserve contract. Where it is necessary to determine the acreage regarded as planted to tobacco under the Soil Bank Act in 1959 or 1958, the provisions of this paragraph shall be followed in making such determination. For 1958, the acreage entered on the acreage reserve agreement shall be included in the acreage regarded as planted under the Soil Bank Act, and shall be added to the final acreage in determining whether, and the extent to which, the commodity is entitled to share in the conservation reserve credit for the farm. As used in this paragraph (i)(3), the term "allotment" means the allotment after any reduction for violation in the case of tobacco and peanuts.

NOTE: The record keeping and reporting requirements of these regulations have been approved by and subsequent reporting requirements will be subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued at Washington, D.C., this 11th day of July 1960.

GENERAL

§ 727.1211 Basis and purpose.

(a) The regulations contained in §§ 727.1211 to 727.1227 are issued pursuant to the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, and govern the establishment of 1961 farm acreage allotments and normal yields for Maryland tobacco. The purpose of the regulations in §§ 727.1211 to 727.1227 is to provide the procedure for allocating on an acreage basis, the national marketing quota for Maryland tobacco for the 1961–62 marketing year among farms and for determining normal yields. § 727.1228 is included for the purpose of showing (1) how farm preliminary allotments for 1962 and subsequent years and (2) how farm tobacco acreage history for 1960 and subsequent years will be determined. Prior to preparing the regulations in §§ 727.1211 to 727.1228, public notice (25 F.R. 4996) was given in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 1003). The data, views, and recommendations pertaining to the regulations in §§ 727.1211 to 727.1228 which were submitted have been duly considered within the limits permitted by the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended.

§ 727.1212 Definitions.

As used in §§ 727.1211 to 727.1228 and in all instructions, forms, and documents in connection therewith, the words and phrases defined in this section shall have the meanings herein assigned to them unless the context or subject matter otherwise requires.

(a) The following terms shall have the meanings assigned to them in Part 719 of this chapter: "Allotment", "combination", "community committee", "county committee", "State committee", "county", "county office manager", "cropland", "current year," "Department," "Deputy Administrator", "division", "farm", "farm serial number", "field", "history acreage", "operator", "person", "photograph number", "preceding year", "producer", "reconstitution", "Secretary", "Soil Bank Contract", "State administrative officer", and "subdivision".

(b) "Director" means the Director, or Acting Director, Tobacco Division, Commodity Stabilization Service, United States Department of Agriculture.

(c) "Base period" for the 1961–62 marketing year means the five years 1956–60.

(d) "New farm" means a farm on which there is no tobacco acreage history since 1955. If, in accordance with applicable law and regulations, no 1956, 1957, 1958, 1959 or 1960 tobacco acreage allotment was determined for the farm, any production of tobacco in 1956, 1957, 1958, 1959 or 1960, respectively, shall not be considered in determining whether the farm is a new farm. The term "tobacco acreage history" as used in this paragraph shall be as defined and explained in § 727.1228.

(e) "Old farm" means a farm on which there is tobacco acreage history in one or more of the five years 1956 through 1960. If in accordance with applicable law and regulations, no 1956, 1957, 1958, 1959 or 1960 tobacco acreage allotment was determined for the farm, any production of tobacco in 1956, 1957, 1958, 1959 or 1960, respectively, shall not be considered in determining whether the farm is an old farm. The term "tobacco acreage history" as used in this paragraph shall be as defined and explained in § 727.1228.

(f) "Tobacco" means Maryland tobacco, type 32, as classified in Service and Regulatory Announcement No. 118 (Part 30 of this title) of the Bureau of Agricultural Economics of the United States Department of Agriculture. Tobacco which has the same characteristics and corresponding qualities, colors, and lengths, shall be treated as one type, regardless of any factors of historical or geographical nature which cannot be determined by an examination of the tobacco.

§ 727.1213 Extent of calculations and rule of fractions.

All acreage allotments shall be rounded to the nearest one-hundredth acre. Computations shall be carried two places beyond the required number of decimal places. In rounding, digits of 50 or less beyond the required number of decimal places shall be dropped; if 51 or more, the last required decimal place shall be increased by "1". For example, 10.5536 would be 10.55; 10.5550 would be 10.55; 10.5551 would be 10.56; and 10.5562 would be 10.56.

§ 727.1214 Instructions and forms.

The Director shall cause to be prepared and issued such forms as are necessary, and shall cause to be prepared such instructions for internal management as are necessary for carrying out the regulations in this part. The forms and instructions shall be approved by, and the instructions shall be issued by, the Deputy Administrator for Production Adjustment of the Commodity Stabilization Service.

§ 727.1215 Applicability of §§ 727.1211 to 727.1226.

Sections 727.1211 to 727.1227, and § 727.1228 to the extent indicated therein, govern the establishment of farm acreage allotments and normal yields in connection with the 1961 crop of tobacco.

ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS AND NORMAL YIELDS FOR OLD FARMS

§ 727.1216 Determination of 1961 preliminary acreage allotments for old farms.

(a) The 1961 preliminary acreage allotment for an old tobacco farm shall be the 1960 farm acreage allotment established for such farm, prior to any reduction for violation of the tobacco marketing quota regulations.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, no 1961 preliminary allotment or 1961 farm tobacco acreage allotment shall be determined for any land which is devoted to commercial or residential development or other non-agricultural purposes, which was not acquired by an agency having the right of eminent domain and which could not have been acquired under right of eminent domain by the person or agency that did acquire it, and which the county committee and a representative of the State committee, determine is retired from agricultural production: Provided, That this paragraph shall not preclude the determination of a preliminary acreage allotment or allotment for an old farm returned to agricultural production, or for a farm for which an acreage allotment may be determined under the provisions of § 727.1220.

§ 727.1217 1961 old farm tobacco acreage allotment.

The preliminary allotments calculated for all old farms in the State pursuant to § 727.1216 shall be adjusted uniformly so that the total of such allotments plus the acreage available for adjusting acreage allotments for old farms, correction of errors made in old farm allotments, and allotments for overlooked old farms pursuant to § 727.1218 shall not exceed the State acreage allotment.

§ 727.1218 Adjustment of acreage allotments for old farms, correction of errors made in old farm allotments and allotments for overlooked old farms.

Notwithstanding the limitations contained in § 727.1216, the farm acreage allotment for an old farm may be increased if the county committee justifies such increase to the satisfaction of a representative of the State committee as being necessary to establish an allotment for such farm which is fair and equitable in relation to the allotments for other old farms in the county, on the basis of the past acreage of tobacco, making due allowances for drought, flood, hail, other abnormal weather conditions, plant bed, and other diseases; land, labor, and equipment available for the production of tobacco; crop rotation practices; and the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco. The acreage available for increasing allotments under this section, correction of errors made in old farm allotments, and allotments for overlooked old farms shall not exceed four percent of the total acreage alloted to all tobacco farms in the State for the 1960–61 marketing year. The allotment for a farm under a conservation reserve contract shall be given the same consideration as the allotments for other similar farms under this section.

§ 727.1219 Reductions of acreage allotment for violation of the marketing quota regulations for a prior marketing year.

(a) If tobacco was marketed or was permitted to be marketed in any marketing year as having been produced on the acreage allotment for any farm for the 1960–61 or a prior marketing year which in fact was produced on a different farm, the acreage allotments established for both such farms for 1961 shall be reduced as provided in this section, except that such reduction for any such farm shall not be made if it is established to the satisfaction of the county and State committees that (1) no person on such farm intentionally participated in such marketing or could have reasonably been expected to have prevented such marketing, provided the marketing shall be construed as intentional unless all tobacco from the farm is accounted for and payment of all additional penalty is made, or (2) no person connected with such farm for the current year caused, aided, or acquiesced in such marketing;

(b) If complete and accurate proof of the disposition of all tobacco produced on the farm in 1960 or a prior year is not furnished in the manner and within the time prescribed by the marketing quota regulations for the crop involved, the 1961 acreage allotment for the farm shall be reduced as provided in this section for the failure to furnish such proof except that such reduction for any such farm shall not be made if it is established to the satisfaction of the county and State committees that (1) the failure to furnish such proof of disposition was unintentional and no producer on such farm could reasonably have been expected to furnish such proof of disposition, provided such failure will be construed as intentional unless such proof of disposition is furnished and payment of all additional penalty is made, or (2) no person connected with such farm for the current year caused, aided or acquiesced in the failure to furnish such proof;

(c) If any producer files, aids or acquiesces in the filing of, a false acreage report with respect to the acreage of tobacco grown on the farm in 1960 or a prior year, the 1961 acreage allotment for the farm shall be reduced as provided in this section except that such reduction for any such farm shall not be made if it is established to the satisfaction of the county and State committees that (1) the filing of, aiding or acquiescing in the filing of, such false report was not intentional on the part of any producer on the farm and that no producer on the farm could reasonably have been expected to know that the report was false, provided the filing of the report will be construed as intentional unless the report is corrected and the payment of all additional penalty is made, or (2) no person connected with such farm for the current year caused, aided or acquiesced in the filing of, the false acreage report.

(d) If in the calendar year 1958 or in a subsequent year, more than one crop of tobacco was grown from (1) the same tobacco plants, or (2) different tobacco plants, and is harvested for marketing from the same acreage of a farm, the acreage allotment next established for such farm shall be reduced by an amount equivalent to the acreage from which more than one crop of tobacco was so grown and harvested. In case the allotment is transferred through a pool to another farm under § 727.1220 before the allotment reduction can be made effective on the farm on which the tobacco was grown, the allotment first established for the farm to which it is so transferred shall be reduced as described above in this paragraph.

(e) Any reduction made with respect to a farm's 1961 acreage allotment for any of the reasons heretofore provided in this section shall be made no later than May 1, 1961. If the reduction cannot be made by such date, the reduction shall be made with respect to the acreage allotment next established for the farm but no later than by a corresponding date to be specified in a subsequent year: Provided, however, That no reduction shall be made under this section in the 1961 acreage allotment for any farm for a violation described in paragraph (a), (b), (c) or (d) of this section if the acreage allotment for such farm for any prior year was reduced on account of the same violation.

(f) The amount of reduction in the 1961 allotment for a violation described in paragraph (a), (b), or (c) of this section shall be that percentage which the amount of tobacco involved in the violation is of the respective farm marketing quota for the farm for the year in which the violation occurred. Where the amount of such tobacco involved in the violation equals or exceeds the amount of the farm marketing quota, the amount of reduction shall be 100 percent. The quantity of tobacco determined by the county committee to have been falsely identified, or produced on acreage falsely omitted from an acreage report as filed, or for which the county committee determines that proof of disposition has not been furnished, shall be considered as the amount of tobacco involved in the violation. If the actual quantity of tobacco falsely identified, or produced on acreage falsely omitted from an acreage report, or for which proof of disposition has not been furnished is known, such quantity shall be determined by the county committee to be the amount of tobacco involved in the violation. If the actual quantity of tobacco produced on acreage falsely omitted from an acreage report or for which proof of disposition has not been furnished is not known, the county committee shall determine such quantity in the following manner, and if the actual total production of tobacco on the farm is not known, the county committee shall determine such total production and the farm marketing quota in the following manner. The yield per acre and the total production of tobacco on the farm shall be determined by taking into consideration the condition of the tobacco crop during production, if known, and the actual yield per acre of tobacco on other farms in the locality on which the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco are similar: Provided, That the determination of the total production of tobacco on the farm shall not exceed the harvested acreage of tobacco on the farm multiplied by the average actual yield on farms in the locality on which the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco are similar. The yield per acre and the total production of tobacco for the farm as so determined by the county committee shall be deemed to be the actual yield per acre and the actual total production of tobacco for the farm. The actual yield per acre of tobacco on the farm as so determined by the county committee multiplied by the farm acreage allotment shall be deemed to be the actual production of the acreage allotment and the farm marketing quota. Where the actual quantity of tobacco for which proof of disposition has not been furnished is not known, such quantity shall be determined by the county committee to be the quantity of tobacco remaining after deducting from the total production of tobacco on the farm determined as aforesaid, the quantity of tobacco for which proof of disposition has been furnished. Where the actual quantity of tobacco produced on acreage falsely omitted from an acreage report is not known, such quantity shall be determined by the county committee to be the quantity resulting from multiplying the yield per acre for the farm determined as aforesaid by the acreage falsely omitted from the acreage report as filed.

(g) If the farm involved in the violation is combined with another farm prior to the reduction, the reduction shall be applied as heretofore provided in this section to that portion of the allotment for which a reduction is required under paragraph (a), (b), (c) or (d) of this section.

(h) If the farm involved in the violation has been divided prior to the reduction, the reduction shall be applied as heretofore provided in this section to the allotments for the divided farms required to be reduced under paragraph (a), (b), (c) or (d) of this section.

(i) Producers of tobacco in the 1960–61 marketing year shall submit proof of disposition of tobacco and records and reports relative to the provisions of this section as set forth in § 727.1128 of this part (Marketing Quota Regulations, 1960–61 Marketing Year, Maryland–Ga (to be issued before October 1, 1960)).

§ 727.1220 Reallocation of allotments determined for farms acquired by an agency having right of eminent domain.

The determination of allotments for farms acquired by an agency having the right of eminent domain, the transfer of such allotments to a pool, and reallocation from the pool shall be administered as provided in § 719.12 of this chapter. The normal yield for each farm to which a reallocation is made as provided in this paragraph shall be determined as provided in § 727.1222 for determining normal yields for old farms.

§ 727.1221 Farms divided or combined.

Allotments for farms reconstituted for 1961 shall be determined in accordance with Part 719 of this chapter.

§ 727.1222 Determination of normal yields for old farms.

The normal yield for any old farm shall be that yield which the county committee determines is normal for the farm taking into consideration (a) the yields obtained on the farm during the five years 1955–59, (b) the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco on the farm, and (c) the yields obtained on other farms in the locality which are similar with respect to such factors.

ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS AND NORMAL YIELDS FOR NEW FARMS

§ 727.1223 Determination of acreage allotments for new farms.

(a) The acreage allotment, other than an allotment made under § 727.1220, for a new farm shall be that acreage which the county committee determines is fair and reasonable for the farm taking into consideration the past tobacco experience of the farm operator, the land, labor, and equipment available for the production of tobacco; crop rotation practices; and the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco: Provided, That the acreage allotment so determined shall not exceed 50 percent of the average of the acreage allotments established for two or more, but not more than five, old tobacco farms which are similar with respect to land, labor, and equipment available for the production of tobacco, crop rotation practices, and the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco: And provided further, That if the tobacco acreage on a new tobacco farm is less than the tobacco acreage allotment otherwise established for the farm pursuant to this section, such allotment shall be automatically reduced to the tobacco acreage on the farm.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, a tobacco acreage allotment shall not be established for any new farm unless each of the following conditions has been met:

(1) The farm operator shall have had experience during two of the past five years in Maryland tobacco and such experience shall have been for the entire crop year beginning with the preparation of the plant bed and extending through preparation of the tobacco for market: Provided, That a farm operator who was in the armed services after September 16, 1940, shall be deemed to have met the requirements of this subparagraph if he has had such experience during one year either within the five years immediately prior to his entry into the armed services or within the five years immediately following his discharge from the armed services and if he files an application for an allotment within five crop years from date of discharge: And provided further, That production of tobacco on a farm in 1955 or a subsequent year for which in accordance with applicable law and regulations no tobacco acreage allotment for 1955 or respective subsequent year was determined, shall not be deemed such experience for any producer.

(2) The farm operator shall live on and receive 50 percent or more of his livelihood from the farm covered by the application.

(3) The farm shall not have a 1961 allotment for any kind of tobacco other than that for which application is made under this part.

(4) The farm covered by the application shall be the only farm owned or operated by the farm operator for which a Maryland tobacco acreage allotment is established for the 1961–62 marketing year.

(5) The farm shall be operated by the owner thereof.

(6) The farm or any portion thereof shall not have been a part of another farm during any of the five years 1956–60 for which an old farm tobacco acreage allotment was determined except that this provision shall not of itself make a farm ineligible for a new farm allotment (i) if it is the same farm or a portion of the same farm for which an old farm allotment was cancelled since 1955 due to no tobacco history thereon for five years, or (ii) if it was a portion of an old farm during any of the years 1955–60 and at time of division of the farm contained cropland but received no part of the allotment due to division of the allotment on a contribution basis.

(c) The acreage allotments established as provided in this section shall be subject to such downward adjustment as is necessary to bring such allotments in line with the total acreage available for allotment to all new farms. One-eighth of one percent of the 1961 national marketing quota shall, when converted to an acreage allotment by use of the national average yield be available for establishing allotments for new farms. The national average yield shall be the average of the several State yields used in converting the State marketing quota into State acreage allotments.

(d) Any new farm allotment approved under §§ 727.1211 to 727.1226 which was determined by the county committee on the basis of incorrect information knowingly furnished the county committee by the applicant for the new farm allotment shall be cancelled as of the date established.

§ 727.1224 Time for filing application.

An application for a new farm allotment shall be filed with the ASC county office no later than February 15, 1961, unless the farm operator was discharged from the armed services subsequent to December 31, 1960, in which case such application shall be filed within a reasonable period prior to planting tobacco on the farm.

§ 727.1225 Determination of normal yields for new farms.

The normal yield for a new farm shall be that yield per acre which the county committee determines is normal for the farm as compared with yields for other farms in the locality on which the soil and other physical factors affecting the production of tobacco are similar.

MISCELLANEOUS

§ 727.1226 Approval of determinations made under §§ 727.1211 to 727.1225 and § 727.1228, and notices of farm acreage allotments.

(a) All farm acreage allotments and yields shall be determined by the county committee of the county in which the farm is located and shall be reviewed by a representative of the State committee. The State committee may revise or require revision of any determinations made under §§ 727.1211 to 727.1225 and § 727.1228. All acreage allotments and yields shall be approved by a representative of the State committee, and no official notice of acreage allotment shall be mailed to a grower until such allotment has been so approved, except that revised acreage allotment notices without such prior approval may be mailed in cases (1) resulting from reconstitutions that do not involve the use of additional acreage or (2) of allotment reductions due only to failure to return marketing cards (and disposition of tobacco is not otherwise furnished as provided in § 727.1219(b)).

(b) An official notice of the farm acreage allotment and marketing quota shall be mailed to the operator of each farm shown by the records of the county committee to be entitled to an allotment. The notice to the operator of the farm shall constitute notice to all persons who as operator, landlord, tenant, or sharecropper are interested in the farm for which the allotment is established. All such notices shall bear the actual or facsimile signature of a member of the county committee. The facsimile signature may be affixed by the county committeemen or an employee of the county office. Insofar as practicable all allotment notices shall be mailed in time to be received prior to the date of any tobacco marketing quota referendum. A copy of such notice, containing thereon the date of mailing, shall be maintained for not less than 30 days in a conspicuous place in the county office and shall thereafter be kept available for public inspection in the office of the county committee. A copy of such notice certified as true and correct shall be furnished without charge to any person interested in the farm in respect to which the allotment is established.

(c) If the records of the county committee indicate that the allotment established for any farm may be changed because of (1) a violation of the marketing quota regulations for a prior marketing year, (2) removal of the farm from agricultural production, (3) division of the farm, or (4) combination of the farm, the mailing of the notice of such allotment may be delayed: Provided, That the notice of allotment for any farm shall be mailed no later than May 1, 1961.

(d) If the county committee determines with the approval of the State administrative officer that the official written notice of the farm acreage allotment issued for any farm erroneously stated the acreage allotment to be larger than the correct allotment, and the county committee also determines that the error was not so gross as to place the operator on notice thereof, and that the operator relying upon such notice and acting in good faith, planted an acreage of tobacco in excess of the correct farm acreage allotment, the acreage allotment shown on the erroneous notice shall be deemed to be the tobacco acreage allotment for the farm for all purposes in connection with the tobacco marketing quota program for the 1961–62 marketing year, except that in determining whether or not 75 percent of the allotment is planted, the provisions of § 727.1228(f) shall be followed.

§ 727.1227 Application for review.

Any producer who is dissatisfied with the farm acreage allotment and marketing quota established for his farm, may, within fifteen days after mailing of the official notice of the farm acreage allotment and marketing quota, file application in writing with the ASC county office to have such allotment reviewed by a review committee. The procedures governing the review of farm acreage allotments and marketing quotas is contained in Part 711 of this chapter, which is available at the ASC county office.

§ 727.1228 Determination of preliminary allotments for 1962 and subsequent years, and tobacco acreage history for 1960 and subsequent years.

(a) The preliminary acreage allotment for an old farm for 1962 and subsequent years shall be the farm acreage allotment for the immediately preceding year prior to any reduction for violation of the tobacco marketing quota regulations, except that if the tobacco acreage history in at least one of the immediately preceding two years is not as much as 75 percent of the farm allotment (after any reduction for violation) for such year, the preliminary allotment shall be the larger of (1) the largest tobacco acreage history in the past two years or (2) the average tobacco acreage history for the past five years.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section, no 1962 preliminary allotment or 1962 farm allotment shall be determined for any land which is devoted to commercial or residential development or other nonagricultural purposes, which was not acquired by an agency having the right of eminent domain and which could not have been acquired under right of eminent domain by the person or agency that did acquire it, and which the county committee and a representative of the State committee determine is retired from agricultural production: Provided, That this paragraph shall not preclude the determination of a preliminary allotment or allotment for an old farm returned to agricultural production, or for a farm for which an acreage allotment may be determined under the provisions of § 727.1220.

(c) For each of the years 1957, 1958 and 1959, the tobacco acreage history shall be the same as the farm allotment for each such respective year, prior to any reduction for violation. For 1960, and for each subsequent year, the tobacco acreage history shall be the same as the farm allotment (prior to any reduction for violation) for such year, if

(1) The farm consists of Federally owned land, OR

(2) The final tobacco acreage determined for the farm is as much as 75 percent of the farm tobacco acreage allotment (after any reduction for violation) for such year, OR

(3) The final tobacco acreage determined for the farm plus the acreage regarded as planted to tobacco under the Soil Bank Act is as much as 75 percent of the farm tobacco acreage allotment (after any reduction for violation) for such year, OR

(4) The final tobacco acreage determined for the farm plus the acreage regarded as planted to tobacco under the Soil Bank Act for at least one of the two immediately preceding years was as much as 75 percent of the farm tobacco acreage allotment (after any reduction for violation) for such respective year.

(d) If for 1960 or for any subsequent year, the county committee determines that the final tobacco acreage determined for the farm plus the acreage regarded as planted to tobacco under the Soil Bank Act is not as much as 75 percent of the farm tobacco acreage allotment (after any reduction for violation) for such year because of abnormal weather or disease, the tobacco acreage history for such particular year shall be adjusted to become the smaller of (1) the allotment (prior to any reduction for violation) or (2) the final tobacco acreage determined for the farm, plus the additional acreage which the county committee determines, with approval of a representative of the State committee, would have been included in the final tobacco acreage except for abnormal weather or disease, plus the acreage regarded as planted to tobacco under the Soil Bank Act, and plus the amount of any reduction for violation. However, in such a case, the farm allotment for such year shall still be considered less than 75 percent planted or regarded as planted in connection with determining the tobacco acreage history for one or both of the next two succeeding years. No adjustment for abnormal weather or disease shall be made unless the farm operator requests an adjustment in writing by October 1 of the crop year involved.

(e) If the tobacco acreage history for 1960 or any subsequent year cannot be considered to be the same as the farm allotment under the provisions of paragraph (c) or (d) of this section, it shall be the final tobacco acreage determined for the farm, plus the acreage regarded as planted to tobacco under the Soil Bank Act, plus the acreage by which the farm allotment was reduced for violation, and plus the additional acreage which the county committee determines, with approval of a representative of the State committee, would have been included in the final tobacco acreage except for abnormal weather or disease, not to exceed the tobacco acreage allotment prior to any reduction for violation.

(f) In applying the provisions of paragraphs (c), (d), and (e) of this section, the tobacco acreage history for any year shall not be larger than the allotment prior to any reduction for violation. For any year for which the allotment was reduced for violation (but not reduced to zero), the reduced allotment shall be used in determining whether the allotment was 75 percent planted or regarded as planted. For any year for which an allotment of zero was established (or no allotment was established), any acreage planted to tobacco on the farm in such year shall not be taken into account in determining whether at least 75 percent of the allotment for 1960 or any subsequent year was or is planted or is to be regarded as planted. In the event of planting pursuant to an erroneous notice of allotment for any year, the smaller of (1) the allotment shown on the erroneous notice or (2) the correct allotment that should have been shown on the notice will be used in determining whether the allotment was 75 percent planted or regarded as planted: except that, if the correct notice is zero, any acreage planted to tobacco on the farm in such year shall not be taken into account in determining whether at least 75 percent of the allotment for 1960 or any subsequent year was or is planted or is to be regarded as planted.

(g) The 1956 tobacco acreage history shall not exceed the 1956 allotment, and shall include the tobacco acreage harvested on the farm in 1956, the tobacco acreage devoted in 1956 to the acreage reserve program, the tobacco acreage devoted in 1956 to the conservation reserve program, and the 1956 tobacco acreage preserved pursuant to a request of the owner or operator of the farm, as provided in § 727.816(b) of the tobacco marketing quota regulations for the 1957–58 marketing year (21 F.R. 6882, 8423, 9398).

(h) Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, a farm shall be construed to have no tobacco acreage history during the base period, and shall therefore not be considered an old farm, if the only tobacco acreage history computed for the farm during the base period consists of acreage history restored pursuant to reduction(s) of the allotment for violation(s) of the tobacco marketing quota regulations.

(i) As used in this section, the following terms shall have the meanings described as follows:

(1) "Federally owned land" means land owned by the Federal Government or any department, bureau or agency thereof, or by any corporation all of the stock of which is owned by the Federal Government.

(2) "Final tobacco acreage" means the acreage determined under the provisions of Part 718 of this chapter, Determination of Acreage and Performance, and any amendments thereto, to be the final acreage of tobacco on the farm. Any acreage that may have been planted in any year on a farm for which a zero allotment was established or for which no allotment was established shall not be taken into account in determining whether at least 75 percent of the farm allotment for 1960 or any subsequent year was planted.

(3) "Acreage regarded as planted to tobacco under the Soil Bank Act" means: For 1960 and any subsequent crop year, if the tobacco allotment is the only commodity acreage allotment for the farm, the acreage placed in the conservation reserve at the regular rate, not to exceed the amount by which the farm tobacco acreage allotment, after any reduction for violation, exceeds the final tobacco acreage shall be regarded as planted to tobacco under the Soil Bank Act. In the event the farm has two or more commodity allotments for which the final acreage is less than the respective allotment, and the acreage placed in the conservation reserve at the regular rate on the farm is less than the sum of the amounts by which such respective allotments (after release and before reapportionment) exceed the respective final acreages of such crops on the farm, the acreage placed in the conservation reserve at the regular rate shall be prorated and credited to each such allotment commodity. To prorate this acreage, the sum of the amounts by which the respective allotments for those crops for which the final acreage is less than the respective allotment (after release and before reapportionment) exceed the respective final acreage for such allotment crops on the farm shall be obtained. This total shall then be divided into the amount by which each such allotment (after release and before reapportionment) exceeds the final acreage. The percentage thus obtained for each such commodity shall be applied to the acreage on the farm under a conservation contract at the regular rate. The result shall be the acreage considered planted to such commodity on the farm under a conservation reserve contract. Where it is necessary to determine the acreage regarded as planted to tobacco under the Soil Bank Act in 1959 or 1958, the provisions of this paragraph shall be followed in making such determination. For 1958, the acreage entered on the acreage reserve agreement shall be included in the acreage regarded as planted under the Soil Bank Act, and shall be added to the final acreage in determining whether, and the extent to which, the commodity is entitled to share in the conservation reserve credit for the farm. As used in this paragraph (i)(3), the term "allotment" means the allotment after any reduction for violation in the case of tobacco and peanuts.

NOTE: The record keeping and reporting requirements of these regulations have been approved by and subsequent reporting requirements will be subject to the approval of the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

Issued at Washington, D.C., this 11th day of July 1960.

Title 14—AERONAUTICS AND SPACE

Chapter I—Federal Aviation Agency

[Reg. Docket No. 448; Supp. No. 3]

PART 24—MECHANIC AND REPAIRMAN CERTIFICATES

Qualifying Experience for Mechanic Inspection Authorization

Part 24 of the Civil Air Regulations presently contains the requirements for issuance of mechanic and repairman certificates, including the issuance of inspection authorizations to certificated mechanics holding both airframe and powerplant ratings and having such other qualifications as the Administrator may deem appropriate. Section 24.43–1 (a)(2) specifies, in part, the qualifying experience for issuance of an inspection authorization and requires the applicant for such authorization to have been actively engaged in the inspection, maintenance, and repair of U.S. civil aircraft and engines for at least 2 years immediately preceding the date of application.

Many Federal, state, and local government agencies operate aircraft which, by definition, are public aircraft, but many of these agencies have established policies requiring such aircraft to be certificated, maintained, and operated in accordance with the certification and airworthiness requirements of the Civil Air Regulations. In order to maintain these aircraft as required by the regulations, it is necessary for such governmental agencies to have their aircraft inspected periodically by persons holding an inspection authorization. However, under the provisions of present § 24.43–1(a)(2), otherwise qualified certificated mechanic personnel of these government agencies cannot obtain an inspection authorization, since they have not been engaged for the preceding 2 years in the maintenance of "U.S. civil aircraft."

The experience acquired by certificated mechanics performing inspection, maintenance, and repair operations on public aircraft, certificated and maintained in accordance with the Civil Air Regulations, is equivalent to the experience acquired on "U.S. civil aircraft." It is deemed appropriate that such mechanics, if otherwise qualified, should be considered eligible to apply for an inspection authorization.

Since this amendment relieves certain mechanics of a technical restriction and does not place any additional burden on anyone, notice and public procedure hereon are unnecessary, and it may be made effective on less than 30 days' notice.

In consideration of the foregoing, § 24.43–1(a)(2) of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR Part 24), is hereby amended as follows effective July 15, 1960:

§ 24.43–1 Inspection authorization (FAA rules which apply to § 24.43).

(a) Qualifications. • • •

(2) He has been actively engaged for at least 2 years, immediately preceding the date of application, in the inspection, maintenance, and repair of aircraft certificated and maintained in accordance with the provisions of the Civil Air Regulations.

SUBCHAPTER C—AIRCRAFT REGULATIONS

[Reg. Docket No. 445; Amdt. 179]

PART 507—AIRWORTHINESS DIRECTIVES

Bell Helicopters

Amendment 146, 25 F.R. 4132, required inspection and modification of scissors pivot bolts and bolt holes on certain Bell helicopter models to correct an unsafe condition. Some military 47E and 47K models which have been released as surplus have been converted and certificated. Therefore, Amendment 146 is being amended to include these models.

In the interest of safety the Administrator finds that notice and public procedure hereon are unnecessary and the amendment may be made effective upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

In consideration of the foregoing § 507.10(a) (14 CFR Part 507) is amended as follows:

Amendment 146, Bell Helicopters, as it appeared in 25 F.R. 4132 is amended:

1. By changing the applicability statement to read "Applies to all helicopter models: 47B, 47B3, 47D, 47D–1, 47–G, and 47H–1, all Serial Numbers: 47G–2 Serial Numbers 1327 through 2450, 2453 through 2456, and 2458; 47J Serial Numbers 1490 through 1776 (except for helicopters on which Kit No. 47–3410–1 (3338I) has been installed); 47E and 47K."

2. By changing the first sentence in paragraph (a) to read "Prior to June 30, 1960, except 47E and 47K as to which compliance is required prior to August 15, 1960, inspect the scissor lever pivot bolts, AN 174–31, and bolt holes in the brackets of the collective pitch sleeve weld assembly, P/N 47–150–117–5 for wear."

This amendment shall become effective upon the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Issued in Washington, D.C., on July 11, 1960.

Administrator.

SUBCHAPTER E—AIR NAVIGATION REGULATIONS

[Airspace Docket No. 59–WA–297]

PART 600—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS

Modification; Change of Effective Date

On June 10, 1960, there was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 5179) an amendment to §§ 600.6007 and 600.6124 of the regulations of the Administrator. This amendment, to be effective October 20, 1960, modified VOR Federal airway No. 7 from Lewis, Ind., to Westpoint, Ind.; modified Victor 7 west from Evansville, Ind., to Terre Haute, Ind.; revoked Victor 7 west from Terre Haute to Westpoint; and realigned Victor 124 from Terre Haute to Shelbyville, Ind., concurrently with the commissioning of the Terre Haute, Ind., VOR at a new location.

The commissioning date of the relocated Terre Haute VOR has been rescheduled. Therefore, it is necessary to postpone the effective date of the above-mentioned amendments until November 17, 1960.

Since this action does not impose a burden on the public, compliance with the notice, public procedure and effective date requirements of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is unnecessary.

In consideration of the foregoing, and pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 4530), effective immediately, Airspace Docket No. 59–WA–297 is hereby modified as follows: "effective 0001 e.s.t. October 20, 1960." is deleted and "effective 0001 e.s.t. November 17, 1960." is substituted therefor.

PART 600—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS

PART 601—DESIGNATION OF THE CONTINENTAL CONTROL AREA, CONTROL AREAS, CONTROL ZONES, REPORTING POINTS, AND POSITIVE CONTROL ROUTE SEGMENTS

Modification of Federal Airways and Associated Control Areas

On April 2, 1960, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 2804) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency was considering amendments to §§ 600.6066 and 600.6208 of the regulations of the Administrator which would modify VOR Federal airway No. 66 between the San Diego, Calif., VOR and the El Centro, Calif., VOR by extending the airway from the Campo, Calif., intersection to the San Diego VOR and designating it direct from San Diego to El Centro, and modify the segment of VOR Federal airway No. 208 between the Oceanside, Calif., VOR and the Thermal, Calif., VOR by designating the airway via the intersection of the Oceanside VOR 101° True and the San Diego VOR 046° True radials. Subsequent to the closing date, a modification of the proposal was published on April 26, 1960 in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 3597) amending the original proposal by designating the segment of Victor 208 between Oceanside and Thermal via the Julian, Calif., VOR. In addition, it was proposed to designate VOR Federal airway No. 460 from Julian to Blythe, Calif., via the Julian VOR 055° True and the Blythe VOR 272° True radials and VOR Federal airway No. 458 from Julian to El Centro via the Julian VOR 130° True and the El Centro VOR 271° True radials.

Three comments were received in response to the proposal. The Air Transport Association concurred in the modification of the airways. The Department of the Air Force objected to the proposals because they believe that en route aircraft flying along the airways based on the Julian VOR will cause delays to March Air Force Base, Calif., arrival and departure procedures using the Julian VOR. March AFB arrival and departure procedures have recently been transferred from the Thermal VOR to the Julian VOR. This provides a straight-in approach to March AFB. This change in procedures also provides an unrestricted preferential departure route on Victor 64 between Long Beach, Calif., and Thermal for eastbound departures from Los Angeles, Calif. Victor 208 between Oceanside and Thermal, via Julian, will not be a preferential departure route from Los Angeles. Aircraft using this airway and the other airways based on the Julian VOR will generally be low altitude and short haul flights. The Federal Aviation Agency anticipates no conflict between en route traffic and March AFB arrival and departures that cannot be handled procedurally by the Air Route Traffic Control Center concerned. The Department of the Navy offered no objections to the proposal; however, they point out that the designation of Victor 458 between Julian and the Coyote Wells, Calif., intersection will underlie the airspace utilized for the Miramar Naval Air Station high altitude TACAN instrument approach procedure and holding pattern. In this instance, the approach and the holding pattern altitude in the airspace occupied by Victor 458 is at 20,000 feet or above, therefore, this should not cause any conflict in traffic that cannot be handled procedurally.

No other comments were received regarding the proposed amendments.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rules herein adopted, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

The substance of the proposed amendments having been published, therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 4530) and for the reasons stated in the notice, the following actions are taken:

§ 600.6066 [Amendment]

1. In the text of § 600.6066 (24 F.R. 10512) "From the INT of a line bearing 345° toward the Julian, Calif., RBN with the El Centro VOR 265° radial via the El Centro, Calif., VOR;" is deleted and "From the San Diego, Calif., VOR, via the El Centro, Calif., VOR;" is substituted therefor.

2. Section 600.6208 (24 F.R. 10522) is amended to read:

§ 600.6208 VOR Federal airway No. 208 (Los Angeles, Calif., to Peach Springs, Ariz.).

From the Los Angeles, Calif., VOR via the INT of the Los Angeles VOR 185° True and the Oceanside VORTAC 280° True radials; Oceanside, Calif., VORTAC; Julian, Calif., VOR; Thermal, Calif., VORTAC; Twentynine Palms, Calif., VOR; Needles, Calif., VORTAC; to the Peach Springs, Ariz., VORTAC. The portions of this airway which lie within the geographical limits of, and between the designated altitudes of, the Camp Pendleton Restricted Area (R–294) are excluded during the designated time of this restricted area.

3. Part 600 (24 F.R. 10487) is amended by adding the following:

§ 600.6458 VOR Federal airway No. 458 (Julian, Calif., to El Centro, Calif.).

From the Julian, Calif., VOR via the INT of the Julian VOR 130° True and the El Centro VOR 271° True radials, to the El Centro, Calif., VOR.

§ 600.6460 VOR Federal airway No. 460 (Julian, Calif., to Blythe, Calif.).

From the Julian, Calif., VOR via the INT of the Julian VOR 055° True and the Blythe VOR 272° True radials, to the Blythe, Calif., VOR.

4. Part 601 (24 F.R. 10530) is amended by adding the following:

§ 601.6458 VOR Federal airway No. 458 control areas (Julian, Calif., to El Centro, Calif.).

All of VOR Federal airway No. 458.

§ 601.6460 VOR Federal airway No. 460 control areas (Julian, Calif., to Blythe, Calif.).

All of VOR Federal airway No. 460.

These amendments shall become effective 0001 e.s.t., September 22, 1960.

Extension of Effective Date of Public Law 86–139 as It Affects Section 408 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act

Under the authority provided in Public Law 86–139 (73 Stat. 388, 7 U.S.C. 135 et seq.), the Commissioner of Food Drugs has extended the effective date of this statute as it affects section 408 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act for certain specified uses of nematocides, plant regulators, defoliants, or desiccants (25 F.R. 2836, 3351, 4864, 5878). The lists previously published in § 120.35 are amended by adding thereto the following items:

§ 120.35 Extension of effective date of Public Law 86–139 as it affects section 408 of the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act.

• • • • •

Sodium chlorate with added sodium metaborate	On tomatoes as a defoliant.
	On rice and sorghum (milo) as a desiccant.

Notice and public procedure are not necessary prerequisites to the promulgation of this order, and I so find, since extensions of time, under certain conditions, for the effective date of the Nematocide, Plant Regulator, Defoliant, and Desiccant Amendment of 1959 were contemplated by the statute as a relief of restrictions on the agricultural industry.

Effective date. This order shall become effective on the date of signature.

(Sec. 701(a), 52 Stat. 1055, as amended; 21 U.S.C. 371(a). Applies sec. 3(b), Public Law 86–139 (73 Stat. 288; 7 U.S.C. 135, et seq.)

Dated: July 8, 1960.

PART 10—PUBLIC SAFETY RADIO SERVICES

Special Emergency Split Channels

In the matter of amendment of § 10.462(f)(15) of Part 10 of the Commission's rules to permit assignment of special emergency split channels without a showing of co-channel coordination, Docket No. 13475.

1. As a result of a request for waiver filed by Dr. Charles A. Baldwin, d/b as Lakevue Animal Clinic, P.O. Box 851, Lake City, Florida, the Commission issued a notice of proposed rule making in the above-entitled matter. This notice was duly published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, April 20, 1960 (25 F.R. 3427), and invited interested parties to submit comments in support of, or in opposition to, the proposal by June 1, 1960. This date having passed, the only comment received was that of the petitioner who in essence reiterated the arguments advanced in his original petition.

2. The Commission stated in paragraph 6 of the notice of proposed rule making that removal of the requirement that Special Emergency applicants must obtain co-channel coordination on the frequencies 45.92 Mc, 45.96 Mc, 46.00 Mc, and 46.04 Mc would serve to bring licensees in this service into parity. Similarly, since such applicants must still coordinate with existing users within 75 miles and within ±30 kc, except for co-channel users, present stations operating on these adjacent frequencies will be afforded adequate protection.

3. No evidence has been submitted in this proceeding nor has any other information come to the Commission's attention which would warrant a different conclusion. It should be noted that after November 1, 1963, all licensees must comply in full with the new narrow-band technical standards.

4. Authority for this amendment of Part 10 of the Commission's rules ordered hereby is contained in sections 4(i) and 303 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

5. Therefore, Part 10 of the Commission's rules is amended by the changing of the provisions of § 10.462(f)(15) as set forth below, effective August 15, 1960.

Adopted: July 7, 1960.

Released: July 12, 1960.

(Sec. 4, 48 Stat. 1066, as amended; 47 U.S.C. 154. Interprets or applies sec. 303, 48 Stat. 1082, as amended; 47 U.S.C. 303)

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] BEN F. WAPLE,
Acting Secretary.

Part 10 of the Commission's rules is amended as follows:

Section 10.462(f)(15) is amended to read as follows:

§ 10.462 Frequencies available to the Special Emergency Radio Service.

* * * * * * *

(f) * * *

(15) Available for assignment: Provided, That prior to November 1, 1963, application is accompanied by a statement under oath that the licensees of all stations located within a radius of 75 miles of the proposed location and authorized to operate on a frequency 30 kc or less removed, except those authorized to operate on the frequency requested, have concurred with such assignment or is accompanied by an acceptable engineering report indicating that harmful interference to the operation of existing stations will not be caused.

PART 45—PRESERVATION OF RECORDS OF TELEPHONE CARRIERS

PART 46—PRESERVATION OF RECORDS OF WIRE-TELEGRAPH, OCEAN-CABLE AND RADIOTELEGRAPH CARRIERS

Retention Periods For Payroll, Employee Service, Mortality, and Related Records

In the matter of amendment of Parts 45, Preservation of Records of Telephone Carriers, and 46, Preservation of Records of Wire-Telegraph, Ocean-Cable and Radiotelegraph Carriers, of the Commission's rules and regulations to reduce the retention periods for payroll, employee service, mortality, and related records, and to combine into one Part the present two parts, Docket No. 13080.

1. On July 29, 1959, the Commission adopted a Notice of Proposed Rule Making in the above-entitled matter, which was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on August 5, 1959 (24 F.R. 6271) in accordance with section 4(a) of the Administrative Procedure Act. This Notice presented for comment, on or before September 14, 1959 (with allowance for reply comments within twenty days thereafter), a proposal of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company (AT&T), made on behalf of itself and the Bell System companies, that Part 45 of the Rules be amended in such manner that the permanent retention periods prescribed for employees' service records; mortality, service retirement and other statistical data either used or useful in the computation of annual pension accrual rates; and pension or annuity payrolls be reduced to six years after termination of employment for employees' service records, be continued for permanent retention as to the mortality, etc. data but with a more restricted definition of what is comprehended in such data, and be reduced to six years for pension or annuity payrolls. It was also proposed that the retention period for employee payrolls be reduced from ten years to six years and that certain other related changes be made. The Commission proposed that any amendments adopted for Part 45 should also be adopted for Part 46, with the exception that the retention period for item 21–d relating to employees' service records in Part 46 would not be increased from 3 years after termination of employment. The Commission also asked for comments and suggestions on its own proposal to consolidate Parts 45 and 46 into a single part.

2. Timely comments were received from The Western Union Telegraph Company (WU), AT&T, the United States Independent Telephone Association (USITA), The General Services Administration (GSA) representing the consumer interest of the executive agencies of the United States in public utility rate proceedings before Federal and State regulatory bodies, the Communications Workers of America (CWA), the Chicago Telephone Traffic Union (CTTU), and the Maryland Telephone Union, Inc. (MTU). Reply comments were received from AT&T in answer to the comments of GSA and the telephone unions. No one requested a public hearing or oral argument.

3. WU, AT&T and USITA favored the proposed amendments and AT&T, in addition, suggested that, should Parts 45 and 46 be consolidated, the item numbers in the combined Part which pertain to the records of telephone carriers be kept the same, wherever possible, as the numbers for corresponding items in Part 45.

4. CWA agreed that the permanent retention period for individual employee records (items 21–d–1 and 21–j) should be reduced and pointed out that the permanent retention of certain records is an unnecessary and costly practice which, in the final analysis, is paid for by the telephone users. The main concern expressed by all the unions was the problem of determining previous service of employees when they are rehired if the pertinent records are not required to be retained for an adequate period. CTTU and MTU also urged that six years after termination of employment is too short a retention period for regular day-to-day personnel administration. This opposition was apparently based upon a mistaken interpretation that the six-year period begins to run whenever an employee is promoted or transferred. This is not the case. The period begins only when an employee terminates his active service by other than retirement on an annuity, or upon the death of an annuitant. CTTU and MTU suggested a retention period of 25 years after termination of employment for individual employee records covered by present item 21–d–1 and a continuance of the present permanent retention period for records covered by item 21–j(2). They also stated that, if "6 years after termination of employment" is intended to include retirement, the permanent retention period for cards, lists, or other records of earnings for individual employees used in computing pensions or annuities (item 21–j(1)) should be retained in order to be available for the purpose of computation of the beneficiary payments made upon the death of a retired employee. CWA did not specify a retention period for any of these records other than stating that they should be retained for a reasonable length of time during the employee's potential reemployment period.

5. GSA stated that should the proposed amendments be adopted, many important records which support the actuarial and experience basis on which pension fund accruals are charged to operating expenses would no longer be available. While the companies may consider these records no longer useful for their own purposes, it is GSA's opinion that these records are of importance to the telephone customers who are affected by the charges to operating expenses based on the past experience represented by these records. GSA further stated that even though such data is not being currently used by the Bell companies under their present method of calculating pension accrual rates, it is possible that such data could and should be used if a more proper method were devised. GSA felt that, unless such data is retained, it cannot be satisfactorily determined whether there is a better and more appropriate formula for determining the Bell companies' pension accrual rates. GSA also maintained that, so far as can be ascertained, the Commission has never formally approved the present method of computing pension accruals and these employee records therefore are potentially useful to the Commission as well as to other parties. Regarding AT&T's statement in its original proposal that the permanent retention of these records results in voluminous files which are seldom referred to and which are retained at a substantial expense, GSA suggested that since the Rules permit microfilming of all records, it does not believe that voluminous files will be required to be retained. In connection with the consolidation of Parts 45 and 46, GSA stated that it had interpreted the Commission's intent in this regard to be dependent on adoption of the proposal for amendment of retention periods for employee records and, for that reason, was opposed to the consolidation.

6. AT&T in its reply comments stated that GSA's statement is based on the premise that all records "potentially useful" to customers and others should be kept in perpetuity and on the erroneous belief that permanent retention of the specific records in question may be necessary for checking pension accruals. AT&T stated that item 19–j (for which no change is proposed) requires permanent retention of all actuarial computations or studies determining pension accruals. AT&T further stated that, since group methods are used in computing the accrual rates of the Bell System companies (and such methods are universally accepted by actuaries), only employee census summaries are used, and after the summaries are compiled and their accuracy verified, no further reference to individual employee records is required. AT&T also stated that the Bell System actuarial assumptions and methods have been brought in issue by non-actuarial witnesses in some post-war rate cases before State regulatory commissions, but in no case has a commission disallowed any pension expense claimed by a Bell System company on the basis of rejection of actuarial methods. In fact, the principal opposition actuary in those cases has consistently used the Bell System's basic actuarial methods. AT&T felt that GSA's criterion of retaining "potentially useful" records permanently, if applied generally, could lead to permanent retention of practically all telephone company records. AT&T submitted that such a standard is at variance with GSA's own standards for retention of records by agencies of the United States Government. AT&T believed that GSA's suggestion that microfilming be used to reduce the volume of records is impractical due to the physical nature of certain of the records. The cost of microfilming these records would presently be out of proportion to storage cost.

7. With respect to the comments filed by the unions, AT&T in its reply stated that the Bell System companies will retain records used in the determination of pensions, benefits, net credited service, etc., for individual former employees as long as may be necessary to cover their potential reemployment. In addition, records of retired employees covering their entire period of active employment will be retained until at least 6 years after their pensions are terminated (which would be upon death of the retired employee). It is AT&T's belief that "6 years after termination of employment" should be interpreted to apply to retired as well as to active employees. AT&T further pointed out that the Plan for Employees' Pensions, Disability Benefits and Death Benefits of each of the Bell System companies provides that decisions made under this plan with respect to service on or after June 1, 1914 shall be based strictly upon the facts in the case as shown by the records of the company. AT&T argued that there is a clear distinction between retention periods required for regulatory purposes and for other purposes such as statutory requirements and administrative needs. It suggested that this concept is recognized in Section 45.1(c) of our Rules where it is stated that the records retention periods shall not be construed as excusing compliance with any other lawful requirement for the preservation of records for periods longer than those prescribed in the Rules. Such other longer retention periods are observed by the telephone companies incorporating such periods in their own routines and instructions. In the instant case AT&T, as noted, believed it would be impractical to set an exact longer period than the 6 years after termination of employment proposed and it urged that the companies should be permitted to follow their own administrative requirements based on the needs for the records in question.

8. It appears that the arguments made by GSA are essentially the same as those which prompted the Commission to adopt (subject to further consideration) the stringent requirements for retention of employee service records and mortality data in Part 45 in 1950. At that time it was felt that the question of the need for permanent retention of these records might be resolved at a later date. Even though the Commission has periodically reviewed Bell Company actuarial computations used in determining pension accrual rates, there has been no occasion for it to use individual employee data or mortality data beyond those used by the companies. It also appears that State regulatory bodies have not had occasion to use old employee service records and mortality data which would cease being required to be retained permanently if the changes in retention periods proposed are adopted. Consequently, the arguments of GSA are not persuasive to us.

9. We believe there is merit in the contentions of the employee organizations as to the necessity of retaining individual employee service records for the purpose of establishing prior service and salaries and wages upon reemployment. This necessity is not, however, for regulatory purposes. Even so, we are not prepared to go all the way and say that we will adopt records retention requirements with an eye only on regulatory needs. Our solution is to follow a path between the two extremes. We do not believe we should adopt a method of insuring the availability of a relatively few individual employee service records which inevitably requires the long-time retention of all such records. The solution we have determined upon is to reduce the retention periods as proposed in the notice of proposed rule making but to append to the critical sections of the rules in Part 45 a note which is designed to make it clear that it is the responsibility of each telephone company, regardless of fixed-number-of-years retention periods, to retain in some form such service and salary data as may be necessary to meet all reasonable future calls for individual records. Such note will be found in the amendments appendix attached. We realize that for the present it may not be found worthwhile to screen the employee service records in order to pull those which can be destroyed. Our rules should, however, be flexible and designed where possible to anticipate the future. We have in mind the possibility that new methods of record keeping may be developed in the future which will make it completely feasible to screen the files and remove on a selective basis those which may be destroyed. When that time comes the rules as being amended will be so adaptable to new conditions that full advantage may be taken of new developments in the art of record keeping without further amendment of the rules.

10. Even though we agree with AT&T that the interpretation of proposed item 21–d should be that "6 years after termination of employment" is to be construed as applying to retired as well as to active employees, it appears that the language is susceptible of improvement in the interests of clarity. Accordingly, proposed item 21–d and item 21–j(1) of Part 45 are being amended to specifically require the records described therein to be retained until 6 years after termination of pensions. Items 21–d and 21–j(1) of Part 46 are being similarly amended to require the retention of the records covered by those items until 3 and 6 years, respectively, after termination of pensions as a clarifying change to the retention periods.

11. The notice of proposed rule making in this matter stated that it was not proposed to increase the retention period of 3 years after termination of employment for item 21–d of Part 46 and none of the comments suggested any other retention period for that item. Therefore, the retention period for item 21–d of Part 46 is not being amended in this proceeding except for the minor clarifying change discussed in paragraph 10, above.

12. The indicator (M), to designate records which are permitted to be microfilmed and preserved in that form in lieu of the original records, appeared in the notice of proposed rule making herein. This indicator does not appear in the amendments being adopted herein for the reason that since the Notice was issued both Parts 45 and 46 of our rules have been amended to permit microfilming of any and all records at any time (Docket No. 13639, Final Report and Order adopted October 7, 1959, 24 F.R. 8379).

13. There are at present, and there will continue to be under the Rules amendments adopted herein, differences in prescribed retention periods for the same or similar records contained in Parts 45 and 46 of our Rules. These differences had their origin for the most part in the rule making proceeding finalized in 1950 which led to the adoption of the Parts referred to. The differences were dictated by the asserted differing needs of regulatory bodies for information as to telephone companies, on the one hand, and as to wire-telegraph, ocean-cable and radiotelegraph companies on the other. Most of the differences are being eliminated by the amendments ordered herein. There is one new difference being created, however, that deserves mention. This is the note that is being added at the end of item 21 in Part 45 but is not being added in the corresponding place in Part 46. The principal reason for not making the addition in Part 46 is that it would represent a new requirement which has not been submitted to rule making comment. This is a basic difference from the Part 45 change which grew directly out of rule making comments. We do not, however, intend to initiate further rule making in Part 46 at this time to add the note to item 21 therein.

14. It should be noted that wire-telegraph, ocean-cable and radiotelegraph companies stand in quite a different position with respect to the Commission in the matter of regulation than do telephone companies. Whereas the former are regulated wholly or at least primarily by the Commission, state commissions have a large share of the regulatory responsibility in connection with nearly all telephone companies. There are probably hundreds of telephone companies subject to sections 201–205 of the Communications Act but which voluntarily use Part 45 of our rules as a guide to their preservation of records practices. We believe we should consider these companies as well as those over whose practices we have full jurisdiction. This situation has no counterpart in the application of Part 46. We do intend, however, to make individual inquiry of the relatively few telegraph and cable companies as to their practices in this regard and, upon completion of such inquiry, will take such action on the matter as appears appropriate.

15. With respect to the consolidation of Parts 45 and 46 of the rules, the Commission believes that these parts should be combined as proposed in the notice of proposed rule making. However, the consolidation is not being made a part of this First Order. It is contemplated that the consolidation will be promulgated in a future order of the Commission. Such consolidation, being nonsubstantive and editorial in nature, may be accomplished by action of the Secretary of the Commission under authority delegated by section 0.341(a) of our rules. Specific authority to the Secretary to take this action is also conferred by this First Order.

It appearing that the proposed rule making proceeding in this matter has indicated the desirability of amendment of Parts 45 and 46 of the Commission's rules and regulations with respect to the retention periods for payroll, employee service, mortality, and related records;

It further appearing that Parts 45 and 46 should be amended in the manner proposed in the notice of proposed rule making with the variations indicated in paragraphs 9 and 10 herein;

It further appearing that Parts 45 and 46 should be consolidated into a single new part of our rules.

It is ordered, That under authority contained in sections 4(i) and 220 of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, Part 45 (Preservation of Records of Telephone Carriers) and Part 46 (Preservation of Records of Wire-Telegraph, Ocean-Cable and Radiotelegraph Carriers) are hereby amended as set forth below.

It is further ordered, That Parts 45 and 46 of our rules should be consolidated into a single new part, and that such consolidation shall be accomplished at a later date by an Order issued by the Secretary of the Commission under delegated authority;

It is further ordered, That the amendments ordered and set forth below, be effective August 1, 1960.

Adopted: July 7, 1960.

Released: July 12, 1960.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] BEN F. WAPLE,
Acting Secretary.

I. Part 45—Preservation of Records of Telephone Carriers is amended as follows:

In § 45.8, item 21 is amended by revising sub-items a, b, d, j, k, and l, and by adding a note at the end of the item; and item 22 is amended by adding new sub-item j, as follows:

§ 45.8 List of records.

• • • • •

Item No.	Description of records	Period to be retained
21	Payroll records:
	a. Payroll sheets, registers, lists, ledgers, and other basic records of salaries and wages earned by and payments to individual employees for each payroll period.	6 years.
	b. Payroll change reports or other approved applications or authorities for establishing and changing salary and wage rates of individual employees and for making other changes in employees' service records and in pension or other payrolls.	3 years.
	• • • • • • •
	d. Service records of individual employees consisting of names, sex, salary and wage rates, occupational classifications, and similar data, together with changes therein. (See item 22–b.)	6 years after termination of employment or pension. (See, however, note at end of item 21.)
	• • • • • • •
	j. Cards, lists, or other records of earnings for individual employees:
	(1) Used in computing pensions or annuities	6 years after termination of employment or pension. (See, however, note at end of item 21.)
	(2) Used for current payroll record purposes	6 years. (See, however, note at end of item 21.)
	k. Authorizations, case records, special payrolls, or other records of sickness and accident disability and other benefits to employees and their beneficiaries. (See items 13–a and 22–i.)	6 years.
	l. Pension or annuity payrolls	Do.
	• • • • • • •
	NOTE: Particularly in connection with items 21–d and 21–j, it should be noted that while minimum retention periods are given, those parts of the payroll records (or extracts therefrom) necessary to establish complete service and salary records shall be retained for whatever periods are necessary to insure that no reasonable call for the establishment of such records will fail of fulfillment by the carrier.
22	Personnel records:
	• • • • • • •
	j. Annual employee census summaries, and supplemental summaries in connection therewith, not used in the computation of annual pension accrual rates. (See item 19–j.)	10 years.

II. Part 46—Preservation of Records of Wire-Telegraph, Ocean-Cable, and Radiotelegraph Carriers is amended as follows:

In § 46.9, item 21 is amended by revising sub-items a, b, d, j, k, and l; and item 22 is amended by adding a new sub-item j, as follows:

§ 46.9 List of records.

• • • • • • •

Item No.	Description of records	Period to be retained
21	Payroll records:
	a. Payroll sheets, registers, lists, ledgers, and other basic records of salaries and wages earned by and payments to individual employees for each payroll period.	6 years.
	b. Payroll change reports or other approved applications or authorities for establishing and changing salary and wage rates of individual employees and for making other changes in employees' service records and in pension or other payrolls.	3 years.
	• • • • • • •
	d. Service records of individual employees consisting of names, sex, salary and wage rates, occupational classifications, and similar data, together with changes therein. (See item 22–b.)	3 years after termination of employment or pension.
	• • • • • • •
	j. Cards, lists, or other records of earnings for individual employees:
	(1) Used in computing pensions or annuities	6 years after termination of employment or pension.
	(2) Used for current payroll record purposes	6 years.
	k. Authorizations, case records, special payrolls, or other records of sickness and accident disability and other benefits to employees and their beneficiaries. (See items 13–a and 22–i.)	Do.
	l. Pension or annuity payrolls	Do.
	• • • • • • •
22	Personnel records:
	• • • • • • •
	j. Annual employee census summaries, and supplemental summaries in connection therewith, not used in the computation of annual pension accrual rates. (See item 19–j.)	10 years.

Proposed Rule Making

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY

Bureau of Customs

[19 CFR Parts 19, 24]

SERVICES AND EXPENSES OF CUSTOMS EMPLOYEES

Reimbursement of Charges

Notice is hereby given pursuant to section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 1003), that under the authority of R.S. 161, as amended, 251, sec. 501, 65 Stat. 290, secs. 555, 624, 46 Stat. 743, 759 (5 U.S.C. 22, 140; 19 U.S.C. 66, 1555, 1624), it is proposed to amend §§ 19.5 and 24.17(c) of the Customs Regulations.

At present, misinterpretation is possible as to when a proprietor of a bonded warehouse is required to reimburse the Government for the transportation expenses and any authorized per diem expenses of customs employees assigned to perform services at a bonded warehouse. In order to eliminate this possibility and to make it specifically clear when such expenses incurred by any customs employee so assigned must be reimbursed by the warehouse proprietor, it is proposed to amend §§ 19.5 and 24.17 (c) of the Customs Regulations as tentatively set forth below:

1. Section 19.5(c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) The necessary transportation expenses and any authorized per diem expenses of a customs employee assigned to perform services at a warehouse at which he is not regularly assigned shall be reimbursed by the warehouse proprietor.

2. Section 19.5(d) is amended to read as follows:

(d) When a customs officer is regularly assigned to duty at more than one warehouse, the charge for his compensation and transportation expenses in going from one bonded warehouse to another shall be equitably apportioned among the respective warehouse proprietors concerned. However, no charge shall be made for transportation expenses when a customs employee is reporting to as a first assignment, or leaving from as a last assignment, the place where he is regularly assigned to duty.

3. Section 24.17(c) is amended to read as follows:

(c) The charge for any service enumerated in this section for which expenses are required to be reimbursed shall include actual transportation expenses and any authorized per diem expenses of a customs employee whether the services are performed within or without the port limits, except that no charge shall be made for transportation expenses when a customs employee is reporting to, as a first assignment, or leaving from as a last assignment, the place where he is regularly assigned to duty.

Prior to the issuance of the proposed amendment, consideration will be given to any relevant data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto which are submitted in writing to the Commissioner of Customs, Bureau of Customs, Washington 25, D.C., and received not later than 30 days from the date of publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER. No hearing will be held.

[SEAL] RALPH KELLY,
Commissioner of Customs.

Approved: July 7, 1960.

A. GILMORE FLUES,
Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE

Agricultural Marketing Service

[7 CFR Part 993]

[Docket No. AO-201-A4]

HANDLING OF DRIED PRUNES PRODUCED IN CALIFORNIA

Notice of Recommended Decision and Opportunity To File Written Exceptions With Respect to Proposed Amendment of Amended Marketing Agreement and Order

Pursuant to the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, of this recommended decision of the Deputy Administrator, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, with respect to the proposed amendment of Marketing Agreement No. 110, as amended, and Order No. 93, as amended (7 CFR Part 993), regulating the handling of dried prunes produced in California (hereinafter referred to collectively as the "order"). The order is effective pursuant to provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 601-674), hereinafter referred to as the "act", and any amendment which may be promulgated as a result of this proceeding also will be effective pursuant to the act. Interested parties may file written exceptions to this recommended decision with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Room 112, Administration Building, Washington, 25, D.C., not later than the close of business on the 15th day after publication of this recommended decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Exceptions should be filed in quadruplicate.

Preliminary statement. The public hearing on the record of which the proposed amendment of the order is formulated was held in San Francisco, California, on April 18, 1960, pursuant to a notice thereof which was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on April 7, 1960 (25 F.R. 2996). The notice of the hearing included proposals submitted by the Prune Administrative Committee (hereinafter referred to as the "committee")—the agency established pursuant to the order to administer the terms and provisions thereof—and one proposal by the Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture.

Material issues. The material issues presented on the record of the hearing involve amendatory proposals relating to:

(1) The definition of the terms "area," "non-French prunes," "prunes," processed prunes," "handle," "size," "domestic," and "proper storage";

(2) The composition of the committee from the standpoint of "cooperative handler," "independent handler," "cooperative producer," and "independent producer" membership, together with allocation of the membership;

(3) The provisions pertaining to the selection by the Secretary of Agriculture (hereinafter referred to as the "Secretary") of committee members and alternate members;

(4) The provisions pertaining to the eligibility of individuals (including agents of handlers) to serve on the committee as members or alternate members;

(5) Authority of the committee, with the approval of the Secretary, to divide the area into election districts (not exceeding seven in number) for the purpose of nominations of independent producer members and alternate members;

(6) Allocation among independent handlers of representation on the committee on the basis of the relative tonnages handled by the various independent handlers as the first handlers thereof;

(7) The procedures pertaining to nominations;

(8) Vacancies on the committee;

(9) Permitting a cooperative marketing association to recommend to the Secretary the removal from the committee of its producer or handler member or alternate member;

(10) The deletion of § 993.33 Obligations;

(11) Modification of present § 993.34 (the committee's voting procedure and the verbatim record requirement provisions) by removing the 75 percent vote requirement and the requirement for the submission to the Secretary of a verbatim record in connection with certain actions and reports on voting in particular instances;

(12) The committee's duty as to audit reports;

(13) The various provisions dealing with marketing policy by eliminating the provisions applicable to salable and surplus tonnage (volume) regulations, and by simplifying and combining under the same section, the remainder of such provisions;

(14) The provisions pertaining to handlers' receipts of natural condition prunes, deletion of the provisions pertaining to volume regulation, and the imposition of a special grade regulation on lots containing certain defects in excess of tolerances;

(15) The provisions pertaining to grade and size regulations of prunes (including non-French prunes) subsequent to their receipt by handlers and size regulation of non-French prunes for consumption as prunes and, a restriction on the use of descriptive terms in effect pursuant to the order;

(16) Deletion of the provisions pertaining to volume regulation;

(17) The provisions pertaining to the expenses of the committee and assessments;

(18) Authorization to the committee to establish marketing research and development projects;

(19) The inclusion of a provision regarding the rights of the Secretary; and

(20) Making such changes in the order as may be necessary to bring the entire order, as amended, into conformity with the amendatory action resulting from the hearing.

Findings and conclusions. The findings and conclusions on the material issues, all of which are based upon the evidence adduced at the hearing and the record thereof, are as follows:

(1) The order should be amended with respect to certain definitions currently therein and for the inclusion therein of two new definitions.

A new term "area" should be defined to mean the State of California. This term would thus readily identify the State of California and obviate the need for three words where a single word would suffice when referring to the State of California.

Another term—"non-French prunes"—should be defined, as hereinafter set forth, to mean prunes produced from the following varieties of plums or from such other varieties of plums as the committee, with the approval of the Secretary, may, from time to time, specify: Imperial, Sugar, Robe de Sargent, Burton, Standard, Jefferson, Fellenberg, Italian, President, Giant, and Hungarian (Gross). Prunes produced from the listed plum varieties are commonly referred to by the name of the particular plum variety from which produced. The smaller sizes of the prunes covered by the defined term manifest deficiencies in flavor and texture which have an adverse affect on consumer acceptance. If a new prune variety should be developed, the committee should be authorized to specify, with the approval of the Secretary, whether such variety should, for purposes of regulation under this program, be included within the definition of the term non-French prunes. This definition is needed to describe the various prunes with respect to which regulations are to be made applicable as discussed in material issue numbered (15). This term, however, should not mean those prunes which are included within the term "French prunes," as hereinafter defined.

The record shows that the order, as amended, should specifically provide for the regulation of certain prunes other than non-French prunes. These prunes include prune varieties such as French (Prune d'Agen, Petite Prune d'Agen), Coates (Cox, Double X, Saratoga), and other prune varieties which possess taste, flesh texture, and other characteristics similar to those of the prunes previously enumerated in this paragraph. To facilitate reference to these prunes, they should be described as "French prunes," as hereinafter set forth.

The present definition of "prunes" (§ 993.4) should be revised by: (1) Substituting the defined term "area" for "State of California," (2) inserting the term "material" before the phrase "deterioration or spoilage" wherever it appears in the definition, and (3) deleting therefrom the provisions of (c). Although prunes may be dried to a point where they can be satisfactorily stored without the use of refrigeration or an artificial preservative, it does not necessarily follow that such prunes will not undergo some minor degree of deterioration or spoilage when stored in accordance with normal industry practices. For this reason, the term "material" should be included in the definition of "prunes" as indicated, so as to allow such minor tolerance and thereby recognize such insignificant changes in stored prunes. The provisions in (c) of the definition pertain to an exception (present § 993.62) to the definition of prunes and should be deleted inasmuch as the provisions of such section will not be carried over into the order, as proposed to be amended (material issue numbered (16)).

The definition of "processed prunes" should be revised so as to state expressly that the term applies only to such prunes as a handler cleans, or treats with water or steam. This change would simplify the wording of the current definition (§ 993.6) of that term while at the same time continue in effect the exemption expressed in the proviso to the present § 993.6 that the term does not cover prunes that have been cleaned, or treated with water or steam, by a producer or dehydrator in the course of preparing them for delivery to a producer, dehydrator, or handler. The revised definition of the term processed prunes would, therefore, reflect the way in which such term has been construed prior to the proposed amendatory action.

The definition of "handle" should be amended to read as hereinafter set forth. This amendatory change is designed to clarify the definition of the term as it now appears in § 993.10 of the order by making explicit that which has been, and currently is, implicit therein. This section currently specifies that the various acts of handling prunes are directly related to the placing of prunes in the current of the commerce within the area or from such area to points outside the area, "whatever may be the destination or end use of the prunes." Since the quoted language is of no significance in the determination of whether "handling" has occurred, there appears to be no reason to carry such language over into the proposed version of the definition.

However, the scope of the order should be continued in effect, as asserted at the hearing, to regulate prunes placed in intrastate as well as interstate and foreign commerce. At the time the order was promulgated, a finding was made that the intrastate handling of prunes directly burdens, obstructs, and affects the interstate and foreign handling of prunes to such an extent that the interstate and foreign handling may not be regulated effectively without also regulating the intrastate handling of prunes. Deletion of the volume regulation provisions from the order (as discussed in material issue numbered (16)) would remove a part of the original justification for the regulation of intrastate handling of prunes. However, the order, as proposed to be amended, would still impose certain grade regulations on prunes at the time they are received by handlers from producers, and would also provide authority for the establishment of size regulations on such receipts. Since handlers normally do not know the current of commerce within which they will make final disposition of prunes at the time they receive them, and since the marketing of prunes within the area does not differ from the marketing of prunes outside the area, the applicable regulations, and any size regulations which may be established, must be applied uniformly to all prunes received by handlers from producers or dehydrators. Regulation of the intrastate handling of prunes is also necessary in order to prevent individuals from circumventing the provisions of the order. That is, in the absence of regulation of intrastate handling, a handler would be able to sell, consign, ship, etc. prunes to an individual within the area, other than a handler, and he, in turn, could dispose of such prunes in interstate or foreign commerce as if the prunes were free from any restrictions under the order because the committee would have lost surveillance and control of the prunes. In view of the foregoing, the order should continue to be applicable to prunes in intrastate as well as interstate and foreign commerce.

The term "process," which is contained in present § 993.10 as one of the acts of handling, should be omitted. This term refers to an act between that of receiving prunes and of disposing of prunes the regulation of which is not essential to the purposes of the program; and there is no need to classify a person as a handler solely on the basis of the single act of "processing" prunes. Accordingly, the term "process" should not be carried over into the proposed revised definition of handle. In addition, the concluding clause of the definition (i.e., the provisions in § 993.10(c)) has been changed as to wording to more directly state the exemption and to make specific reference to proposed § 993.50(f). However, there is no intent to change the coverage of present § 993.10(c).

The definition of the term "size" should be recast so as more clearly to indicate the intent of present § 993.16, especially regarding the various groupings by size ranges of counts of prunes per pound. The proposed amended § 993.16, as hereinafter set forth, simplifies the current definition of the term "size" by expressly referring to size ranges. It is not intended to change the intent and coverage of the current definition.

Since Alaska and Hawaii have been admitted as States of the Union, the definition of the term "domestic" (§ 993.18) should be revised to read as hereinafter set forth, omitting the specific references to Alaska and Hawaii.

The term "proper storage" (§ 993.19) in the order is used in conjunction with certain provisions (hereinafter proposed to be omitted from the order, as amended) pertaining to the volume regulation of prunes which is discussed in material issue numbered (16). Since volume regulation would not be carried over into the order as proposed to be amended, the need for the term "proper storage" will no longer continue. Therefore, this section should be deleted.

(2) Section 993.24 should be amended to set forth in one section the number of members on the committee and the composition of the committee including the allocation of the members as between cooperative handlers, independent handlers, independent producers, and cooperative producers. Section 993.24 of the order currently provides for a 21-member Prune Administrative Committee to administer the terms and provisions of the order and all rules, regulations, and supplementary orders issued thereunder. This section further provides an alternate for each member, and that 14 members (with their alternates) represent producers and seven members (with their alternates) represent handlers. Section 993.28 allocates the producer membership between producers whose prune production is handled by cooperative marketing associations handling prunes on behalf of their members (hereinafter referred to as "cooperative producers") and other producers (independent producers), and the handler membership between handlers who are cooperative marketing associations handling prunes and other handlers (independent handlers).

It is not proposed to change the committee membership of 21, the number (i.e., 14) of members to represent producers, the number (i.e., 7) of members to represent handlers, or the base period governing eligibility (the crop year preceding the year in which nominations are made) currently specified in the order. However, it is proposed that the order, as amended, should expressly provide that three handler members are to represent cooperative marketing associations handling prunes (so referred to in the present order and referred to hereinafter as "cooperative handlers"), three members are to represent independent handlers (referred to as such in the present order), and one additional member (i.e., the remaining member) to represent cooperative handlers or independent handlers whichever group of such handlers handled as first handlers more than 50 percent of the prunes handled during the aforesaid base period.

Under present § 993.28, the number of members to represent a particular one of the two groups of handlers is required to be, as near as practicable, in the same proportion to seven members as the tonnage of prunes handled by the handlers in such group as first handlers is to the total tonnage handled as first handlers by handlers in both groups during the base period. This method currently results (as it has with respect to allocations during the past several years) in the allocation of four members to independent handlers and three members to cooperative handlers. The method requires that biennial determinations and announcements of the allocations be made by the Secretary. These determinations, which have been published in the FEDERAL REGISTER, show a fairly gradual change in the quantities of prunes handled by each of the two groups of handlers (viz., the quantity of prunes handled by the sole cooperative handler has increased) and that the respective quantities are becoming nearly comparable in size. According to testimony in the record, it appears unlikely that the handlers in either of the groups would in the foreseeable future handle in excess of 64 percent of the aggregate tonnage handled and thereby become entitled to an allocation of more than four members. The change in the number of members to be allocated to a particular group that has a possibility of occurring would be from three members to four members, with an inverse change in the number of members (four to three) for the other group. An express allocation in the order (as proposed to be amended) of three members to each of the groups with an additional member (i.e., the seventh member) allocated to the group which handled a majority of the tonnage would presently yield results consistent with the allocation method in the current order, would recognize the foreseeable limitations as to membership changes, and would obviate the need for any determination of tonnages handled prior to allocation of members to each of the handler groups. The requirement for such determination and its announcement should, therefore, not be carried over into the order as proposed to be amended.

In view of the trend in the quantity of prunes handled by the sole cooperative handler, it is necessary to modify the current method of allocating the producer membership of the committee between cooperative producers and independent producers. Currently, § 993.28 (a) provides that independent producers in each of seven election districts prescribed in the order shall submit nominations for seven members as representatives of independent producers to serve on the committee. In the event the number of such independent and cooperative producer member nominees does not equal 14, the independent producer member nominees nominate the necessary number of member nominees so that the total number of producer member nominees equals 14. Under this procedure, it is apparent that so long as the number of producer members to represent cooperative producers (by virtue of the volume handled by the cooperative handler) does not exceed seven, there should be no problem of electing seven independent producer members from the prescribed seven districts. However, in order to avoid selection problems which could occur in the event the cooperative handler tonnage exceeds independent handler tonnage, and in order that the methods for allocating the producer membership may be based on the same common denominator, the order should be amended, as hereinafter set forth, to clearly permit, under possible future volumes handled, the number of members allocable to represent the respective producer groups to be based upon the respective quantities handled by the various handler groups.

The method for the allocation of members to the producer groups requires a slight variation from the method for the allocation of members to the handler groups. Under the proposed plan, a particular handler group would be allocated a minimum of three members on the committee and would be entitled to the additional member only if the group handled more than 50 percent of the total tonnage handled by all handlers in the two groups. In allocating seven positions, each represents about 14.29 percent of the total, three represent 42.86 percent, four represent 57.14 percent and the half way mark, past which one group has majority claim on the position, occurs at 50 percent. On the other hand, applying the same principle of passing the half way mark to membership for a particular producer group, where the total is 14 (twice the number of handler positions), means that each producer group would be entitled to an allocation of seven members when the applicable handler group handled 50 percent of the total tonnage handled, and eight members should be allocated to a producer group when such handler group handled in excess of the half way mark between 50 percent and 57.14 percent.

The two-year term of office of the incumbent members (and alternates) of the committee began on June 1, 1960. These members were selected pursuant to the provisions of the current order. As discussed heretofore, the number of members which would be allocable to the respective industry groups under the order as proposed to be amended would be the same as those currently serving on the committee. In this regard, therefore, there is no need to cause selection of a new committee upon the amendments herein proposed being made effective. The testimony at the hearing was to the effect that the amended provisions should first become applicable to the term of office beginning June 1, 1962 and the order should be amended accordingly. Nominations to fill any vacancy which may arise before June 1, 1962 should therefore be made in accordance with the provisions in effect at the time the present members of the committee were nominated and selected.

(3) Section 993.26 pertaining to the selection of committee members and alternate members should be revised, as hereinafter set forth, to simplify the language of that section and to make conforming changes by deleting reference to § 993.28 as it will no longer prescribe the classes or the proportions of member representation.

(4) The provisions of § 993.27 pertaining to the eligibility of persons to serve on the committee as members and alternate members should be amended as hereinafter set forth, to adopt conforming changes and to simplify the language. The reference to handler eligibility should be amended by adopting those positions in handler firms which make producers ineligible to serve as producers (director, officer or employee of a handler) as positions of handler eligibility and by deleting the term "agent". The later term would permit a person with little direct interest in, or knowledge about, the receiving, packaging or disposition of prunes, to be a handler member of the committee. It is the intent, as expressed at the hearing, that a person should have a direct interest in handling and derive a portion of his income from this source in order to be eligible to represent handlers.

(5) Section 993.28, for reasons discussed in connection with material issue numbered (2), should be amended to delete the seven election districts and to authorize the committee to recommend the establishment of election districts, or any changes therein, for the purpose of obtaining nominations for independent producer members and their alternates. In addition provisions should be worded as hereinafter set forth, in the interest of simplification and clarity.

In view of the possible future changes which may occur in the allocation of producer membership between cooperative producers and independent producers, it is necessary that the number and areas of election districts be permitted to reflect such changes. The present provision does not indicate that the number of districts could be less than seven and it authorizes changes in the districts on the basis of number of producers and production of prunes by all producers without distinguishing between independent producers and cooperative producers and the tonnages produced by each group. It was testified at the hearing that the present provisions work inequities in that a relatively few independent producers with a relatively small production could be in a district with a heavy cooperative producer population producing the bulk of the prunes and this inequity of representation should be corrected. The responsibility for initiating the redelineation of election districts should be shifted from the Secretary to the committee. The committee is more immediately aware of the number of independent producers in each district, the tonnages of prunes produced by each and the shifts in number of producers and production from one district to another. Although the proponents indicated that other items, such as differences in cultural practices, should have a bearing on decisions to redelineate districts, no measures of such practices were described nor was amendment language proposed for inclusion in the order. Since such considerations are less measurable than the two factors indicated and could cause administrative difficulties, they are not recommended herein. In conjunction with this amendment, the committee should review the status of the election districts, to consider whether any changes need be made in the district boundaries, at the time it formulates its plans to hold nominations for all independent producer positions. This should not be done when the committee schedules a nomination to fill a vacancy occurring during a term of office as this would upset other representation.

Changes in district boundaries should be submitted to the Secretary for establishment by rule making procedures and thereby avoid the expressed concern about vesting in the committee the power to determine districts. However, this requires that the Secretary be given sufficient time in which to carry out the several steps involved in the rule making procedure. Furthermore, the committee will need time to advise independent producers of the district boundaries. Since the committee will base such recommendations on data accumulated during the crop year preceding the election year, it is reasonable to require submission to the Secretary of districting proposals by January 31 of each election year and this is required in the proposed amendment.

(6) Section 993.28 should be amended further to give independent handlers a definite share of the independent handler representation by providing that the handlers handling the two largest percentages of the prune tonnage handled by independent handlers shall each nominate one member and one alternate, the handlers of the next three largest percentages shall nominate one member and one alternate and all other handlers shall nominate one member and one alternate. However, if the independent handler representation is ever reduced to three, the latter two groups should together nominate a member and alternate.

Section 993.28 presently provides that 40 percent of the independent handler nominees shall be apportioned to the large handlers (i.e., those handlers who handled as first handlers 17 or more percent of the total tonnage handled by all independent handlers as first handlers), 20 percent to medium handlers (i.e., those handlers who handled as first handlers eight or more percent but less than 17 percent of the total tonnage handled by all independent handlers as first handlers) and 40 percent to small handlers (i.e., those handlers who handled as first handlers less than eight percent of the total tonnage handled by all independent handlers as first handlers). However, if these proportions cannot be followed, at least one member nominee and one alternate member nominee shall be apportioned to each of the three size classes of independent handlers. Any remaining member and alternate member nominees shall be apportioned to the size class or classes as determined at a general meeting of independent handlers. The percentage allocations (i.e., 40–20–40 percent) can be applied when five member and five alternate member positions are allocated to independent handlers and this was possible when the order was first promulgated. However, in each of the last five election years, four member and alternate member positions were allocated to independent handlers and it has been necessary to employ the alternative procedure in allocating the membership positions to the respective size classes. Because of their number, and the voting not being weighted by tonnage handled, small handlers have held the fourth member position and alternate member position in four of the five eligible terms, and the alternate member position in the other term. Evidence received at the hearing was to the effect that the two largest independent handlers in the industry recently handled approximately 55 percent of the total tonnage of prunes handled by all independent handlers. The present procedure has permitted the small handlers, although more numerous than handlers of the other two size classes, but with the smallest quantity of prunes handled, to obtain the most independent handler representation on the committee and thus a voice on the committee disproportionate to the tonnage handled.

The amendment would correct the foregoing by recognizing the tonnage differences among independent handlers and would be consistent with the basis for determining independent producer, cooperative producer, and cooperative handler representation on the committee. Consistent with their handling approximately 55 percent, the independent handlers who handled as first handlers the two largest quantities of prunes handled by all independent handlers should each nominate from his organization, one member and one alternate member; the independent handlers who handled as first handlers the next three largest tonnages, about 28 percent, should nominate from their organizations one member and one alternate member; and the handlers who handled the remaining tonnage should nominate one member and one alternate member. This procedure would also permit a possible future change from the existing situation of four independent handler members and four alternate members to one wherein they would hold three member and three alternate member positions. If in some future year, only three member and three alternate member positions are allocated to independent handlers, the independent handlers of the two largest tonnages should each continue to nominate one member and one alternate member from their organizations because it is not foreseen that their percentage of the independent tonnage would be less than 50 percent and by virtue of being past the half way mark between 33⅓ and 66⅔ percent, they would continue to be entitled to two positions. The remaining member and alternate member would be nominated by all of the other independent handlers. It was proposed that in the latter case the nominee, while representing all handlers other than the two largest, must be from those handlers handling the next three largest tonnages of prunes. However, this casts doubt on whether the handlers of the smaller tonnages would be duly represented. Furthermore, if the nominee must be from the category of the next three largest handlers and these handlers agree on the nominee to the exclusion of all others, attendance of the handlers of the smaller tonnages at a nomination meeting could be of no effect. In lieu of limiting the nominee to the three largest handlers, which is a technique of having a nominee favored by a substantial tonnage, a similar result could be achieved by weighting the votes by the tonnages handled. At the same time a more favorable condition of nomination and representation would be created. Accordingly, the limitation as to the nominee should not be adopted and in lieu thereof, whenever three independent handlers are to be nominated, the nominee for categories (c)(2) and (3) of the proposed section should be chosen by weighting the votes of each handler by the tonnage handled.

(7) In order to permit a review of existing deadlines and procedures on nominations and balloting, relative to any amendments which are made effective, § 993.28 should be amended further by deleting from the provisions those administrative procedures not included in the amendments hereinafter set forth. The section should specify the basic objectives and should leave to adoption by rule making procedures, those actions which will most appropriately carry out the objectives. Thus it will be possible to make timely changes consistent with changed nominating situations or desirable to effectuate economies in application of the section. The committee should prepare and recommend detailed nomination procedures as to preparation of ballot forms, voting, and tabulation of votes, to the Secretary, consistent with amended objectives and for use when next nominations are to be conducted.

Section 993.28 should also be amended to provide that the committee shall submit independent producer nominees and independent handler nominees to the Secretary by April 16 of each election year, and that cooperative marketing associations shall submit their nominations for cooperative producer positions and cooperative handler positions by the same date. The appointment of a committee is a single administrative act and the present varying dates of submittal are inconsistent with the appointment action.

Section 993.29 Alternates should be amended by adding a new sentence to provide that the provisions of the order, and all rules, regulations, and supplementary orders, applicable to members should also be applicable to alternate members, except in those instances when certain provisions may apply solely to members. This sentence would make it unnecessary to include the terms "alternate members" or "their respective alternates" along with the term "members" whenever that term is used in the order. However, such provisions would continue to apply to the alternate members of the committee, unless specifically excepted, with the same force and effect as if the term "alternate member" were included in the provision. This amendment would simplify the provisions of the order pertaining to committee membership without changing their import.

Section 993.30 should be revised to recognize the foregoing changes as to common date for submission of nominees, to delete the reference to § 993.28 as it no longer prescribes the basis for selection of committee members, and, without altering the intent, to simplify the language by limiting the Secretary's selection to an "eligible" individual.

(8) It was proposed that § 993.32 be amended by inserting the phrase "to accept such appointment or otherwise qualify" in lieu of "to qualify" in the first sentence. The proponents' intention was that this wording would prescribe a vacancy on the committee when (1) an eligible person is nominated and selected, but fails to accept his appointment, and (2) when an eligible person is nominated and selected but becomes ineligible to serve before accepting his appointment. However, it would not be consistent with the concept expressed in present § 993.25, which is not proposed to be amended, that an incumbent serve until his successor has qualified by accepting an appointment, to hold that a vacancy is created by failure of a new appointee to qualify. In such a case, if a committee action were to be taken, the hold-over member would be eligible to serve in the member position. A vacancy does not exist in fact until a new appointee qualifies (thereby terminating the incumbent's term). Accordingly, the proposal should not be adopted but the provision should be reworded, as hereinafter set forth, to recognize the practical aspects of a failure to qualify.

(9) It was proposed that § 993.32 be amended further by the addition of a sentence permitting a cooperative marketing association, at its discretion, to submit its recommendation to the Secretary for the removal of a member or alternate member representing such association on the committee. It was contended that this provision would clarify that which has been understood to be permissible. Its need was justified on the basis that since the internal organization of a cooperative association could change from year to year, presence of the particular person on the committee as a representative of the association could be contrary to the internal policies and operations of the association. This recommendation would not be submitted to the committee as the order presently provides for the cooperative to make such submittals directly to the Secretary.

A provision of similar import was not introduced on behalf of independent producers and independent handlers although the right of independent producers and independent handlers also to recommend changes in their representation was not denied. However, testimony indicated that recommendations for such changes should be submitted to the committee, accompanied by reasons showing good cause why the particular person should be removed.

Since the proposal does not cover the matter of the Secretary's actions upon receiving such a recommendation, it would not introduce into the program any procedural changes. No restraint is now being placed on any group of nominators requesting the Secretary to replace their incumbent representative. However, before such action should be taken on such a request, the Secretary should have reason to believe that good cause exists for the replacement in terms of the marketing order program. Good cause relative to the order is not necessarily related to the internal policies or operations of any group or association nor could the Secretary so find unless he were in the unlikely position of having detailed knowledge of them. Accordingly, the proposal should not be adopted.

(10) Section 993.33, pertaining to obligations of committee members and alternate members, should be deleted. The provisions of that section are not applicable to the committee's operational practices since individual members and alternate members function as part of a policy group and do not have committee property in their individual custody or possession. Title to the committee's property is in the committee as a unit, with custody in the committee management. In the event that property ever came into the possession of an individual member or alternate member and was not returned to the custody of the management, there would be nothing to stop the committee from reclaiming its property when and as it concluded that it should.

(11) Section 993.34 should be amended as hereinafter set forth. It presently provides that any recommendation submitted to the Secretary by the committee and pertaining to marketing policy, grade and size regulations, pack specifications as to size, and volume regulations shall be on the basis of an affirmative vote of at least 75 percent of the members present with the further requirement that at least 11 members (a majority of the total committee of 21) vote affirmatively on any such recommendation. For the reasons in the discussion of material issue numbered (16), volume regulations should be deleted from the order. This deletion would remove from the program the principal matter of controversy within the committee and the principal area wherein the high vote requirement has affected committee policy. The 75 percent affirmative vote requirement permits a minority of six members of the committee to prevent adoption of measures favored by more than a simple majority and its retention in the proposed amended order would perpetuate a requirement the like of which is not common to this type of marketing order program. Opponents of the deletion indicated an affirmative vote of less than 16 would permit a majority to adopt measures of benefit to them but adversely affecting a large segment of the industry. However, this contention is at variance with the very nature of marketing order activity as neither the benefits nor the burdens are peculiar to one group or faction in an industry. It is concluded that the proposed amendment is reasonable and therefore should be adopted.

Section 993.34 contains a requirement that the committee file a verbatim record along with its recommendations with the Secretary on its deliberations pertaining to marketing policy, grade and size regulations, pack specifications as to size, and volume regulations. This should no longer be a mandatory requirement in view of the proposed deletion of volume regulation, the accompanying modifications to marketing policy (material issue numbered (13)) and the likelihood that grade and size regulations will not be changed annually. Deletion of the mandatory requirement would result in a considerable saving of expense to the committee. Furthermore, the Secretary will still be sufficiently apprised of the committee's deliberations because as one of its duties, the committee is required to submit to the Secretary such available information with respect to prunes as the committee may deem appropriate or as the Secretary may request, minutes of each committee meeting are prepared and submitted to the Secretary, and representatives of the Department regularly attend committee meetings and submit their reports to the Secretary on committee deliberations.

For the reasons already indicated that the proposed revised program will contain less controversial features than at present and the Secretary will have committee and Department representative reports on committee deliberations, the provision in § 993.34 requiring the committee to report promptly on the individual votes cast on any recommendation to the Secretary, or on any other matter on which there is a roll call vote, should be deleted so that such reporting may be permissive or upon request in lieu of mandatory.

The committee should be permitted to continue its past practice relative to a vote on any proposition by mail or telegram, in that one dissenting vote would prevent adoption of the proposition. It has been the practice that a failure to vote does not constitute a dissenting vote and since this has been satisfactory within the industry, the practice should be permitted to continue. However, at least eleven affirmative votes, the same as for deliberations on marketing policy matters, grade and size regulations, and pack specifications as to size, should be required for the adoption of a proposition voted on by mail or telegram.

(12) The changes proposed in material issue numbered (16) relative to deletion of volume regulations, require that paragraph (h) under present § 993.37, should be made to conform by deleting the phrase "exclusive of surplus tonnage operations" therefrom, and by deleting paragraph (i) in its entirety.

Present paragraph (j) should be amended by deleting the sentence that reads "Such report shall show, among other things, the receipt and expenditure of funds." Since the audit report is on the committee's financial transactions, it of necessity, includes information on the committee's receipt and expenditure of funds. Therefore, a provision in the order specifying that the audit report shall show the receipt and expenditure of funds is unnecessary. This paragraph should be amended further to provide that the copy of the audit report which shall be available for inspection at the offices of the committee, by producers, dehydrators, and handlers should not contain confidential information. When the books and records of the committee are audited, the auditor prepares a schedule showing the tonnage of prunes handled by each handler, each handler's assessment payments, and the excess assessment funds to be refunded to handlers. The schedule is confidential in that it reveals the position of each handler in relation to other handlers on the tonnage handled during the crop year. This schedule is attached as a supplement to the copies of the audit report submitted to the Secretary but because of its confidential nature should not be attached to the audit report made available for inspection by the industry.

(13) In view of the proposal in material issue numbered (16) to delete provisions for volume regulations, the items to be considered in marketing policy deliberations should be reduced to those pertinent to the proposed amended order. The detailed considerations formerly necessary to volume regulation should be reduced to general coverage of handler carryover, production, probable quality and prune sizes in the crop, demands in domestic and foreign markets, likely relation of producer prices to parity, probable assessable tonnage and such other factors as will have a bearing on prune marketing and the administration of the program. Present §§ 993.41 through 993.45, inclusive, should be amended by deleting therefrom all provisions promulgated initially to meet the problems of establishing volume regulations. Thus there should be deleted the necessity for two marketing policy meetings as now required and the provision for submission of the Secretary's tentative views to the committee.

The remaining provisions under the heading of marketing policy should be combined into one section. The committee should hold its marketing policy meeting, prior to the fourth Tuesday in July so that it can comply with the duty set forth in § 993.37(f) of submitting a budget by that date. The requirement that reasonable publicity be given to the committee's marketing policy, or any changes therein, should be incorporated in the proposed section. Handler carryover should be construed as the tonnage of prunes, sold and unsold, in the possession of handlers at the beginning of a crop year. In addition, the terms "production," "crop," "probable," and "prune size" and the like should be in reference to prunes, even though the physical state of the fruit is in plums at the time of the marketing policy meeting.

(14) The provisions relating to grade and size regulations on handlers' receipts should be amended, as hereinafter set forth, to delete provisions pertinent to volume regulations, to eliminate needless repetition of prohibitions or requirements within this issue and material issue numbered (15), to more clearly distinguish between minimum standards and more restrictive size or grade regulations and to provide for improved regulations of prunes with defects of mold, imbedded dirt, insect infestation and decay. The proposed new provisions should retain the basic intent of present § 993.48 (a), (b), (c) and (d). The provisions of paragraph (e) of said section should be deleted as they were basically to implement the volume regulation provision herein proposed to be deleted. The provision for giving notice to the industry on grade or size recommendations submitted to the Secretary should be deleted as such recommendations should now be considered as marketing policy recommendations and governed by the notice requirements contained in said proposed section.

So that the goal to be achieved by existing minimum standards may be assured (i.e., the removal of defective prunes definitely objectionable to consumers), provision should be included for regulation of those lots of prunes received by handlers from producers or dehydrators which contain inedible defects (i.e., mold, imbedded dirt, insect infestation and decay) in excess of tolerances prescribed in § 993.97 (Exhibit A) of the order. On each incoming lot a determination should be made of any inedible defects in excess of tolerances and of the quantity of prunes with such defects which must be removed to bring the remainder of the lot within tolerance for inedible defects. This quantity should be a weight obligation on the handler in the sense of defective prunes to be removed in the course of his grading and processing operations and disposed of in non-human consumption outlets. The prunes so removed and disposed of should be representative of the sizes and conditions of prunes found defective on incoming inspection. Therefore, the inspection should not only ascertain the quantity of prunes containing inedible defects in excess of tolerances, but also the size ranges of the prunes with such inedible defects. This is necessary to insure that a handler would actually remove and dispose of prunes containing inedible defects as noted on inspection. It should also be recognized that a lot may contain such a large proportion of defective prunes that a sorting of such lot would not only be uneconomical, but normal sorting practices would not result in the removal of a sufficient quantity of defective prunes as would accomplish the intended purposes of this proposed regulation (i.e., the removal of defective prunes definitely objectionable to consumers). Therefore, any lot which contains such a proportion of prunes with inedible defects should be deemed unfit for human consumption in its entirety. A maximum tolerance for inedible prunes should be prescribed by the committee in its rules and regulations, with the approval of the Secretary. This would permit the tolerance to be adjusted from time to time as dictated by operating experience. Such adjustments could not be made readily if the tolerance were incorporated in the order.

As a practical and economic means of policing and enforcing this grade regulation, handlers should be permitted to dispose of defective prunes set aside in fulfillment of their obligation only in non-human consumption outlets under supervision of the committee. This would preclude the possibility that defective prunes would be blended back into good lots or utilized directly in outlets in which prunes lose their form. The only alternative would be the use of sufficient compliance personnel to watch all handler operations. This would be expensive as well as onerous and would imply that enforcement should include such measures despite there being available a simple, more acceptable method of enforcement. This regulation is considered incidental to, not inconsistent with, and necessary to effectuate the minimum standards.

In order to impose this grade regulation on the existing prune receiving and handling facilities, lots containing inedible defects in excess of the minimum standard tolerance (but not in excess of the maximum tolerance which would prohibit sorting) and lots meeting the minimums for these defects should be permitted to be received and graded, stored and processed simultaneously. In this process some commingling of lots may occur but the mandatory removal of the obligation weight of defective prunes should cause an industry-wide improvement in the quality of prunes handled. A handler should not be permitted to satisfy his defective prune obligation by setting aside, unsorted, a lot received as a substandard lot of prunes with inedible defects in excess of tolerances because this would render the regulation ineffective by permitting a handler to by-pass the actual removal of defective prunes. However, in the course of grading and sorting, a handler may remove prunes with other defects other than inedible. So that handlers need not segregate prunes containing inedible defects from those containing edible defects, the total quantity of prunes which a handler disposes of in fulfillment of his obligation should be permitted, by the committee, to be greater than his cumulative obligation so long as the quantity of prunes with inedible defects so disposed of is at least equal to his obligation.

The committee should recommend to the Secretary the issuance of rules and regulations necessary to administer these incoming regulations and to insure compliance therewith. These should require a handler, among other things, to maintain the physical identity of prunes with inedible defects, to hold such prunes separate and apart from other prunes in his possession, and to provide for such inspection and accounting controls as to insure disposition of such prunes in authorized (non-human consumption) outlets. To the extent practicable, handlers should be required to accumulate and dispose of their obligations within the crop year.

The proposed amendment would be in the public interest in that it would prevent a substantial volume of prunes with inedible defects from entering human consumption outlets, irrespective of whether such consumption would be as prunes or as prune products. The regulation should improve the products offered consumers and assist the industry to comply with State and Federal Food and Drug regulations. In view of the nature of the regulation, it should remain in effect whether or not prices to producers exceed parity.

(15) Present §§ 993.49 and 993.50, pertaining to the regulation of the handling of prunes subsequent to their receipt by handlers, and applicable respectively when the estimated season average price to producers is below parity and in excess of parity should be amended as hereinafter set forth to delete provisions relating to volume regulations (material issue numbered (16)), eliminate needless repetition of prohibitions and requirements, protect the meaning of descriptive terms on pack specifications, and apply size regulations to non-French prunes. The proposed new provisions otherwise retain the basic intent of present §§ 993.49 and 993.50. As discussed in material issue numbered (14) the giving of notice to the industry of any recommendations to the Secretary should be deleted and treated in terms of marketing policy recommendations.

In addition to the existing authority to regulate in terms of minimum standards of quality or more restrictive grades or sizes, specific provision should be made to prohibit handlers from shipping or otherwise making final disposition of any lot of standard prunes or standard processed prunes of the non-French varieties or any lot which includes non-French prunes unless the average count of such non-French prunes is 50 or less per pound, or if the Robe de Sargent variety, 60 or less per pound. However, under proper safeguards to be established by the committee, such prunes should be permitted to be disposed of in prune product outlets in which they lose their form and character as prunes by conversion prior to consumption. This regulation on whole prunes should be adopted because prunes of the non-French varieties smaller than the foregoing sizes are not as palatable as, and do not compare in flavor and sweetness with, prunes of the French varieties and therefore damage the demand for prunes by consumers. Testimony was presented that such smaller prunes are not entirely suited for manufacture of prune juice or prune juice concentrate, although acceptable if used in small quantities in conjunction with other prunes. In the manufacture of other prune products, similar problems of flavor arise unless other ingredients, such as spices, are used to mask the flavor of the small sized non-French prunes. The regulation should not preclude the use of non-French prunes smaller than the size limitation in manufacturing outlets, as this would unduly deprive producers of returns on such prunes, but their disposition should be under proper safeguards established by the committee. This regulation would be in the public interest, the same as the existing restriction on placing French prunes smaller than 100 count average in consumer packages, and should therefore be adopted and remain in effect whether or not producer returns exceed parity.

In the normal harvesting, dehydrating and handling of prunes it is possible that prune varieties could be commingled. Consequently, if French prunes and non-French prunes are commingled in the same lot, separate determinations relative to the size limitations should be made for each type. Only in this manner can the purposes of this regulation be achieved and the public protected against unpalatable prunes.

Prunes in a lot do not all grade the same size. In view of this, a tolerance should be prescribed by rule making procedures for non-French prunes and Robe de Sargent prunes to permit a reasonable deviation of sizes from the average count. This deviation from the average count should be no greater than that being applied to French prunes under existing provisions of the order.

The present order contains a requirement that no handler shall ship or otherwise make final disposition of any lot of consumer packages of prunes unless the average count of the prunes in such lot is 100 or less per pound. However, since use of non-French prunes smaller than 50 per pound, or Robe de Sargent prunes smaller than 60 per pound, would be restricted under the present proposal to manufacturing purposes, such prunes would no longer appear in consumer packages. Therefore, it is necessary to amend the provision pertaining to the 100 count size limitation on prunes in consumer packages to refer specifically to French prunes.

It should also be provided that in order to effectuate such orderly marketing of prunes as will be in the public interest, no handler shall use descriptive terms in a manner inconsistent with those set forth in the order or any pack specifications or other regulation issued by the Secretary. This prohibition should apply whether prices to producers are above or below parity and is proposed in order to prevent handlers from confusing or taking advantage of consumers or members of the trade, whenever prices exceed parity, by the improper application of descriptive terms which may have been issued by the Secretary in connection with pack specifications. This prohibition is in the public interest and is necessary and incidental to effectuation of other grade regulation provisions.

The requirements as to inspection and certification contained in existing § 993.49 and largely repeated in existing § 993.50 should be embodied in a single section applicable to both handler receipts and shipments of prunes. The new section materially reduces the wording of the order while retaining existing requirements.

A further new section should be added to bring together in one place authorization to modify the minimum standards whether incoming or outgoing, the pack specifications and the size regulations on the basis of a recommendation of the committee. This avoids repeating this authority wherever the separate items appear in earlier portions of the order and does not revise the existing authorization. It was proposed that minimum standard modifications should only be toward making them more restrictive. However, while such may well be the general direction of modifications, in order to avoid a situation wherein a less restrictive application of one of the many criteria of grade would promote the objectives of the program, it is concluded that the proposal should not be adopted.

(16) Sections 993.59 through 993.64, inclusive, pertaining to volume regulation of prunes should be deleted and conforming changes made in the order to delete provisions incidental to volume regulation. The provisions which should be deleted are largely those included in the order at the time of its promulgation in 1949, and arising from conditions existing in the California prune industry at the time; namely, production considerably in excess of total trade disappearance and difficulties in regaining overseas markets. However, since the 1949–50 crop year, domestic consumption of prunes as prunes has declined, but in the 1957–58 season the quantities utilized in manufacturing outlets and shipped in export exceeded domestic consumption of prunes as prunes by approximately 20,000 tons. In the most recent five years, beginning with the 1955–56 crop year, volume regulations have been employed only once. In the remaining four seasons (including the incomplete 1959–60 season) estimated season average prices to producers exceeded parity in three years and in the fourth, a finding was made that if the volume regulations would be in effect, prices would exceed parity. In 1958 and 1959, California production of prunes was well below average and the industry encountered difficulties in satisfying demands domestically and abroad. If a relatively large production of prunes were now to occur, the present volume regulation provisions would be of questionable value because they are not designed to allocate supplies to present outlets and could actually interfere with proper utilization of the prunes.

The California prune industry has devoted considerable time and effort to a study of various methods of volume regulation but has been unable to agree as to the method best suited to the future needs of the industry. Some groups believe the present method of volume regulation could be made to work, some proposed different methods, and some favored abolition of all regulation. It is obvious that the industry is in a transitional period both as to the production and utilization of dried prunes. Production in ensuing years may again place the industry in a position where the volumes to be marketed create a disorderly marketing situation and substantially below parity returns to producers. However, the industry could at that time turn its attention to the development of volume regulations which would be applicable to the situation then existing.

In view of the change discussed in material issue numbered (16), §§ 993.73 and 993.74 of the present order, employed when volume regulations are in effect, should, as a conforming change, be deleted.

(17) Section 993.80 which provides the committee with authority to incur expenses, should be amended by deleting the wording pertaining to volume regulation and by deleting the concluding sentence. Since present § 993.37(f) provides that the committee shall submit a budget of its anticipated expenditures and the recommended rate of assessment no later than the fourth Tuesday of July, repetition of this wording in § 993.80 is unnecessary and therefore should be deleted.

Section 993.81 pertaining to assessments should be amended by deleting all wording pertaining to volume regulation, by deleting provisions providing for a reduction in the rate of assessment once an assessment has been established by the Secretary, and by deleting the provisions pertaining to suits for collection of assessments in arrears. Paragraph (a) of that section should provide that each handler shall pay to the committee, upon demand, an assessment on all prunes received by him from producers and dehydrators. This has been the practical basis for collection of assessments in prior years and it was contended that it should be continued for the sake of consistency. The assessment rate should be applied to each ton of prunes only once and only on natural condition prunes at the time such prunes are received from producers and dehydrators. Prunes transferred to another handler on an inter-handler transfer should not be assessed since such prunes should already have been assessed at the time they were received by the transferring handler.

It was proposed that the term "budgeted" be inserted before "expense" in this paragraph so that it will be clear that the assessment rate reflects the handler's pro rata share of the estimated expenses set forth in the committee's budget as approved by the Secretary. However, the Secretary does not approve each individual item of expense in the committee's budget but rather approves total expenses. It is not unusual for approval to be given, in the course of a crop year, to expenses not specifically budgeted but which may be proper and for which funds may be available within the total budget. Therefore, the term "budgeted" should not be included in the paragraph to modify the word "expense."

In the present order, application of the assessment rate is provided for in § 993.81(a) when the estimated season average price to producers is below parity, and in § 993.50(e) when such prices exceed parity. Since volume regulation and present § 993.50 should be deleted, the matter of the assessment rate should be solely that in proposed § 993.81(a).

The provision for a reduction in the rate of assessment, once such rate has been established by the Secretary, should be deleted because in lieu of using such provision, excess funds have been retained for use in the early months of the subsequent season and upon new season funds being available, the excess funds have been refunded or credited to handlers' accounts. This procedure is continued in § 993.81(c) pertaining to the use and refund of excess assessment funds but is amended to remove unnecessary wording and to state the requirement but not the specific application. There is added a proviso that at time of termination, to the extent practicable, unexpended funds shall be returned pro rata to the persons from whom such funds were collected. These changes are desirable from the standpoint that they would permit the committee to make an equitable distribution of excess or unexpended funds in a manner consistent with the stated objectives. A detailed description of methodology within an order has proven to be too complex to cover all the refunding problems caused by handlers having paid varying portions of their share.

Section 993.81(d) pertaining to suits for collection of assessments in arrears should be deleted. Section 10(b)(2)(iii) of the act provides authorization for such suits and it is unnecessary to incorporate such wording in the order. However, the established practice is for suits for collection of assessments to be processed through the Department of Justice in the same manner as are violations of other provisions of the order. The committee, therefore, need not undertake suits for collection.

Section 993.83 should be amended by removing the limitation that funds may be used solely for purposes authorized by the subpart so that expenditures may be governed by the part and the act. The matter of accounting in the manner provided in the subpart should also be deleted as this is actually covered by Department requirements issued for marketing orders.

(18) A new section should be included in the order to authorize the committee, with the approval of the Secretary, to establish or provide for the establishment of marketing research and development projects designed to assist, improve, or promote the marketing, distribution, and consumption of prunes. The expense of such projects should be paid from assessment funds collected pursuant to § 993.81. This would permit the prune industry to take advantage of authority added to the enabling legislation since the adoption of the prune order. Several areas of research and promotional activity, with primary emphasis on advertising, are currently undertaken pursuant to authority in the Marketing Order for California Dried Prunes, as amended, issued by the Director of Agriculture, State of California. Since the Federal enabling legislation does not authorize advertising or applied promotional activity, it would not be the purpose of the proposed amendment to supplant such activities conducted under the State program. Rather, the proposed amendment is to permit the committee to undertake research projects on problems arising under the Federal program or problems primarily of interest to handlers on whom all assessments are levied under the Federal order. In addition the industry would have an added source of research funds on such projects as might be jointly financed by Federal and State programs.

(19) A new section defining the rights of the Secretary should be adopted so as to provide information to interested persons that the members of the committee, including any successors or alternates selected by the Secretary, and any agent or employee appointed or employed by the committee are subject to the removal or suspension by the Secretary in his discretion at any time. Also, each and every decision, determination, or other act of the committee is subject to the continuing right of the Secretary to disapprove at any time, and upon such disapproval, would be deemed null and void. The amendment does not alter or inject any new condition into the program because the matter set forth has prevailed throughout the life of the order. Since not defining the rights of the Secretary could, as a result of issues raised at the hearing, cast doubt upon whether such rights exist, and since they do exist, it is concluded they should be stated.

(20) The proposals for amendment heretofore recommended will make it necessary to make certain minor conforming changes in sections not specifically discussed in connection with the proposals and will also make it desirable to renumber most sections and rearrange some sections to achieve continuity and orderly arrangement of the provisions as proposed to be amended. All such changes should be incorporated in the proposed order. In addition, official notice is taken of there having been adopted by rule making procedures a limitation as to the need of handlers to retain records. Present § 993.76 has been amended, therefore, to incorporate this limitation in the order as hereinafter amended.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. At the hearing, the Presiding Officer required the filing of briefs not later than May 9, 1960, by parties interested in filing briefs with respect to facts presented in evidence and the conclusions to be drawn therefrom. Briefs were filed on behalf of the: (1) Committee, by R. W. Jewell; (2) Northern California Prune Council, by W. L. Stile and J. Thomas Wallace, III; and (3) Tehama County Prune Growers, by Nelson Butler. The briefs contained proposed findings of fact, conclusions, and arguments with respect to the proposals presented at the hearing. Every point covered in these briefs has been considered carefully along with the evidence in the record in making the findings and reaching the conclusions herein set forth. To the extent that the suggested findings and conclusions contained in these briefs are inconsistent with the findings and conclusions contained herein, the request to make such findings, or to reach such conclusions, is denied on the basis of the facts found and stated in connection with this recommended decision.

General findings. (a) The findings hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations which were made in connection with the original issuance of the marketing agreement and order (14 F.R. 5254) as from time to time amended (16 F.R. 8437); 19 F.R. 1301; 22 F.R. 5639). Except the finding as to the base period for the parity computation, and except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings set forth herein, all of the said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed.

(b) The marketing agreement and order, as hereby proposed to be further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(c) The marketing agreement and order, as hereby proposed to be further amended, regulate the handling of prunes produced in California, in the same manner as, and are applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial or commercial activity specified in the proposals upon which a hearing has been held;

(d) There are no differences in the production and marketing of dried prunes in the production area covered by this marketing agreement and order, as hereby proposed to be amended, which require the application of different terms or provisions to different parts of such area; and

(e) All handling of prunes produced in the designated area of production is in the current of interstate or foreign commerce or directly burdens, obstructs, or affects such commerce.

Recommended amendments to the order. The following amendments to the amended marketing agreement and order are recommended as the detailed and appropriate means by which the foregoing conclusions may be carried out:

1. Add new § 993.3a to read as follows:

§ 993.3a Area.

"Area" means the State of California.

2. Amend § 993.4 to read as follows:

§ 993.4 Prunes.

"Prunes" means and includes all sundried or artificially dehydrated plums, of any type or variety, produced from plums grown in the area, except: (a) Sulfur-bleached prunes which are produced from yellow varieties of plums and are commonly known as silver prunes; and (b) plums which have not been dried or dehydrated to a point where they are capable of being stored prior to packaging, without material deterioration or spoilage unless refrigeration or other artificial means of preservation are used, and so long as they are treated by a process which is in conformity with, or generally similar to, the processes for treatment of plums of that type which have been developed or recommended by the Food Technology Division, College of Agriculture, University of California, for the specialty pack known as "high moisture content prunes," but this exception shall not apply if and when such plums are dried to the point where they are capable of being stored without material deterioration or spoilage, refrigeration or other artificial means of preservation.

3. Add new § 993.4a to read as follows:

§ 993.4a Non-French prunes.

"Non-French prunes" means prunes commonly known as Imperial, Sugar, Robe de Sargent, Burton, Standard, Jefferson, Fellenberg, Italian, President, Giant, and Hungarian (Gross), produced from such varieties of plums. This definition may be modified by the committee with the approval of the Secretary.

4. Add new § 993.4b to read as follows:

§ 993.4b French prunes.

"French prunes" means: (a) Prunes produced from plums of the following varieties of plums: French (Prune d'Agen, Petite Prune d'Agen), Coates (Cox, Double X, Saratoga); and (b) any other prunes which possess taste, flesh texture, and other characteristics similar to those of the prunes named in this section.

5. Amend § 993.6 to read as follows:

§ 993.6 Processed prunes.

"Processed prunes" means prunes which have been cleaned, or treated with water or steam, by a handler.

6. Amend § 993.10 to read as follows:

§ 993.10 Handle.

"Handle" means to receive, package, sell, consign, transport, or ship (except as a carrier of prunes owned by another person), or in any other way to place prunes in the current of the commerce within the area or from such area to any point outside thereof: Provided, That this term shall not include: (a) Sales or deliveries of prunes by a producer or dehydrator to a producer, dehydrator, or handler within the area; (b) the receiving of prunes by a producer or dehydrator from a producer or dehydrator; and (c) receipts, sales, or shipments of prunes already handled by another person other than pursuant to § 993.50(f).

7. Amend § 993.16 to read as follows:

§ 993.16 Size.

"Size" means the number of prunes contained in a pound and may be referred to in terms of size ranges.

8. Amend § 993.18 to read as follows:

§ 993.18 Domestic.

"Domestic" means the United States, Canal Zone, Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands, and Canada.

§ 993.19 [Deletion]

9. Delete § 993.19.

10. Amend § 993.24 to read as follows:

§ 993.24 Establishment and membership.

A Prune Administrative Committee (hereinafter referred to as the "committee"), consisting of 21 members, with an alternate member for each such member, is hereby established to administer the terms and provisions of this part, of whom with their respective alternates, 14 shall represent producers and 7 shall represent handlers. For the term of office beginning June 1, 1960, the membership of the committee shall be as selected by the Secretary for such term in accordance with the provisions of this part in effect on such date. The committee membership for subsequent terms of office shall be allocated in accordance with the following groupings, with the alternate member positions identically allocated:

(a) Three handler members to represent handlers who are cooperative marketing associations of producers (referred to in this part as "cooperative handlers");

(b) Three handler members to represent handlers other than cooperative handlers (referred to in this part as "independent handlers");

(c) One handler member to represent handlers who are cooperative handlers or independent handlers, whichever of such handlers handled as first handlers more than 50 percent of the prunes handled by all handlers during the crop year preceding the year in which nominations are made;

(d) Fourteen producer members to be selected from and to represent producers who are members of cooperative marketing associations (referred to in this part as "cooperative producers") and producers other than "cooperative producers" (referred to in this part as "independent producers"); the number of the producer members for the cooperative producer group or the independent producer group, as the case may be, shall be in the same proportion, as near as practicable, to the total of 14, as the tonnage of prunes handled by the respective group of cooperative handlers or independent handlers as first handlers during the crop year preceding the year in which nominations are made is to the total tonnage of prunes handled by all handlers as first handlers.

11. Amend § 993.26 to read as follows:

§ 993.26 Selection.

Selection of members of the committee, and their respective alternates, shall be made in the appropriate number specified in § 993.24, by the Secretary from nominees nominated pursuant to this part or, in the discretion of the Secretary, from other eligible persons.

12. Amend § 993.27 to read as follows:

§ 993.27 Eligibility.

Each producer member of the committee shall be at the time of his selection and during his term of office, a producer in the group, and if to represent a district also in the district, for which selected, and except for producer members representing cooperative producers, shall not be engaged in the handling of prunes either in a proprietary capacity or as a director, officer, or employee. Each handler member of the committee shall be a handler in the group he represents or a director, officer, or employee of such handler.

13. Amend § 993.28 to read as follows:

§ 993.28 Nominees.

(a) For the purpose of obtaining nominations for producer members to represent independent producers, the Committee shall, with the approval of the Secretary, divide the area into districts giving, insofar as practicable, equal representation to numbers of independent producers and production of prune tonnage by such producers. The number of districts shall be equal to the number of such producer members or seven, whichever is the lesser. Candidates for nomination by independent producers from the various districts shall be obtained at meetings convened by the committee. Following such meetings, the committee shall prepare a separate ballot for each of the districts, or a joint ballot for two or more districts, containing (1) the names of the candidates for each district involved and (2) provision for write-in candidates. The ballot shall be mailed to each independent producer of record in each district. The voting procedure (including the casting of the ballot by mail addressed to the committee), and tabulation of votes shall be in accordance with rules and regulations prescribed by the committee, with the approval of the Secretary. Each voter shall be entitled to cast only one vote for a member nominee and only one vote for an alternate member nominee in a district in which he is a producer, and no voter shall vote for candidates in more than one district. In case he is a producer in more than one district, he shall elect in which of such districts he will vote and notify the committee as to his choice. Whenever the number of producer members to represent independent producers during the ensuing term of office is to exceed seven, one nominee shall be nominated by independent producers in each of the seven districts and an additional nominee for each member in excess of the seven members shall be nominated, without reference to districts, by such seven nominees. The committee shall recommend the establishment of districts, or any changes therein, to the Secretary prior to January 31 of each year in which nominations are made.

(b) Nominations of producer members to represent cooperative producers and handler members to represent cooperative handlers shall be submitted to the Secretary by cooperative marketing associations engaged in the handling of prunes before April 16 of each year in which nominations are made.

(c) In any year in which nominations are made following a crop year during which the tonnage of prunes handled by independent handlers as first handlers exceeded the tonnage of prunes handled by cooperative handlers as first handlers, nominees for member positions to represent independent handlers shall be nominated as follows:

(1) Each of the two independent handlers who handled during such preceding crop year, the two largest percentages of the prune tonnage handled by all independent handlers shall nominate from their respective organizations, one nominee for a handler member and one for an alternate member;

(2) Three independent handlers who handled during such preceding crop year the next three largest percentages of the prune tonnage handled by all independent handlers shall nominate from among their organizations, one nominee for a handler member and one for an alternate member;

(3) All other independent handlers who handled the remaining percentage of such prune tonnage shall nominate from their organizations, one nominee for a handler member and one for an alternate member.

In any year in which nominations are made following a crop year during which the tonnage of prunes handled by cooperative handlers as first handlers exceeded the tonnage of prunes handled by independent handlers as first handlers, nominees for two member and alternate positions to represent the independent handlers referred to in paragraph (c)(1) of this section shall be nominated in accordance with said paragraph (c)(1), and one nominee for the member and one for the alternate position to represent all other independent handlers shall be nominated by the handlers referred to in paragraph (c)(2) and (3) of this section and the votes of such handlers shall be weighted by the tonnage of prunes handled during the preceding crop year by the respective handlers.

(d) The committee shall establish, with the approval of the Secretary, the procedures by which such nominations, other than by cooperative marketing associations engaged in the handling of prunes, shall be obtained and shall submit such nominations to the Secretary before April 16 of the year in which nominations are made. In the event the committee determines that any nominating procedure specified in this section does not result in equitable representation, it may establish, with the prior approval of the Secretary, such modifications as will tend to assure such representation.

14. Amend § 993.29 to read as follows:

§ 993.29 Alternates.

An alternate for a member of the committee shall act in the place and stead of such member (a) during his absence, and (b) in the event of his removal, resignation, disqualification, or death, until a successor for such member's unexpired term has been selected and has qualified. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this subpart, the provisions of this part applicable to members also apply to alternate members.

15. Amend § 993.30 to read as follows:

§ 993.30 Failure to nominate.

If a nomination for any position on the committee is not received by the Secretary by May 1, the Secretary may select an eligible individual without regard to nominations.

16. Amend § 993.32 to read as follows:

§ 993.32 Vacancies.

In the event of any committee vacancy occasioned by the removal, resignation, disqualification, or death of any member, or in the event of the failure of any person selected as a member or alternate member to qualify, a successor for the unexpired term shall be nominated within 60 calendar days thereof. Such nominations shall be made in the manner provided for in this subpart, insofar as applicable, except that nominations of nominees for a producer member position to represent independent producers may, at the discretion of the committee, be made to the committee by the incumbent producer members of the committee who represent independent producers.

§ 993.33 [Deletion]

17. Delete §993.33.

18. Amend § 993.34 to read as follows:

§ 993.34 Voting procedure.

Decisions of the committee shall be by majority vote of the members present and voting and a quorum must be present: Provided, That decisions on marketing policy, grade or size regulations, or pack specifications shall require at least 11 affirmative votes. A quorum shall consist of at least 12 members of whom at least eight must be producer members and at least four must be handler members. Except in case of emergency, a minimum of five days' advance notice must be given with respect to any meeting of the committee. In case of an emergency, to be determined within the discretion of the chairman of the committee, as much advance notice of a meeting as is practicable in the circumstances shall be given. The committee may vote by mail or telegram upon due notice to all members, but any proposition to be so voted upon first shall be explained accurately, fully, and identically by mail or telegram to all members. When any proposition is submitted to be voted on by such method, one dissenting vote shall prevent its adoption and at least 11 affirmative votes shall be required for adoption.

19. Amend § 993.37 by deleting paragraph (i), and revising paragraphs (h) and (j) to read as follows:

§ 993.37 Duties.

* * * * *

(h) To prepare and submit to the Secretary monthly statements of the financial operations of the committee and to make such statements, together with the minutes of the meetings of said committee, available for inspection at the offices of the committee by producers, dehydrators, and handlers;

* * * * *

(j) To cause the books of the committee to be audited by a certified public accountant at least once each crop year, and at such other times as the committee may deem necessary or as the Secretary may request, and two copies of each such audit report shall be submitted to the Secretary and a copy which does not contain confidential data shall be available for inspection at the offices of the committee, by producers, dehydrators, and handlers;

20. Amend §§ 993.41, 993.42, 993.43, 993.44, and 993.45 to read as a single section as follows:

§ 993.41 Marketing policy.

Prior to the fourth Tuesday of each July, the committee shall prepare and submit to the Secretary a report setting forth its recommended marketing policy for the ensuing crop year. In the event it becomes advisable to modify such policy, because of changed demand, supply or other conditions, the committee shall formulate a new policy and shall submit a report thereon to the Secretary. In developing the marketing policy, the committee shall give consideration to the handler carryover, production, probable quality and prune sizes in the crop, demands in domestic and foreign markets, whether producer prices are likely to exceed parity and the probable assessable tonnage for the purposes of § 993.81 and such other factors as may have a bearing on the marketing of prunes or the administration of this part. Notice of the committee's marketing policy, and of any modifications thereof, shall be given promptly by reasonable publicity, to producers, dehydrators and handlers.

21. Amend §§ 993.48, 993.49, and 993.50 to read as new §§ 993.48, 993.49, 993.50, 993.51, and 993.52 as follows:

§ 993.48 Regulation.

No handler shall handle prunes except in accordance with the provisions of this part.

§ 993.49 Incoming regulation.

(a) No handler shall receive prunes from producers or dehydrators, other than substandard prunes, unless such prunes meet the minimum standards for natural condition prunes set forth in § 993.97 (Exhibit A), or as such standards may be modified, or the more restrictive grade regulation established pursuant to this section, and then in effect: Provided, That no handler shall receive any prunes (including substandard prunes) from producers or dehydrators unless such prunes have been properly dried and cured in original natural condition, without the addition of water, and are free from active insect infestation, so that they are capable of being received, stored, and packed without material deterioration or spoilage. Any "high moisture content prunes," as described in the exception in § 993.4(b), in the possession of a handler, shall be held separate and apart from any prunes held by him. If such "high moisture content prunes" are dried or dehydrated to a point where they are capable of being stored, without material deterioration or spoilage, unrefrigerated or not otherwise artificially preserved, they shall be deemed, at that time, to have been received by such handler as prunes, and shall be subject to all of the conditions and restrictions of this subpart.

(b) The Secretary, on the basis of a recommendation of the committee or other information, may establish size regulations or more restrictive grade regulations with respect to prunes that may be received by a handler from producers and dehydrators whenever he finds that such action would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(c) When an inspection certificate shows that a lot of substandard prunes received by a handler from a producer or dehydrator contains prunes with defects in excess of those permitted in IC (1) or (2) of § 993.97 the quantity of prunes with such defects necessary to be removed from the lot in order that the balance of the lot would then be within the tolerances for such defects shall be determined and the handler shall dispose of a like quantity of prunes affected by such defects in non-human consumption outlets: Provided, That the committee, by its rules and regulations, shall prescribe a maximum percentage of such defects in any lot received by a handler; and any lot so received which contains a greater percentage of such defects shall be disposed of in its entirety in non-human consumption outlets. In determining the defective prunes to be disposed of, consideration shall be given to the size ranges of their occurrence and variations in their condition. With the approval of the Secretary, the committee shall issue such rules and regulations (including the prescription of a maximum percentage) as may be necessary to administer the provisions of and to insure compliance with, this section.

§ 993.50 Outgoing regulation.

(a) Except as otherwise specifically provided, no handler shall ship or otherwise make final disposition of prunes which fail to meet the applicable minimum standards set forth in § 993.97 (Exhibit A), or as such standards may be modified, for standard prunes or standard processed prunes.

(b) The Secretary, on the basis of a recommendation of the committee or other information, may establish size regulations, pack specifications, or more restrictive grade regulations with respect to prunes that may be shipped or otherwise disposed of by a handler if such action would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. If a more restrictive grade regulation is established in connection with § 993.97 (Exhibit A) it shall insofar as practicable apply comparably to both natural condition prunes and processed prunes. When pack specifications are in effect, no handler shall ship prunes in consumer packages, unless such prunes are identified by an appropriate label, seal, stamp, or tag affixed to such container by the handler showing the size of prunes in the lot from which the container was packed. In order to effectuate such orderly marketing of prunes as will be in the public interest, whether prices are above or below parity, no handler shall use descriptive terms in a manner inconsistent with that set forth in this subpart or in any pack specifications or other regulation issued by the Secretary pursuant to this subpart.

(c) Non-French prunes: No handler shall ship or otherwise make final disposition of any lot of standard prunes or standard processed prunes of the non-French varieties or any lot which includes non-French prunes in excess of a tolerance to be prescribed by the Secretary on recommendation of the committee, unless the average count of such non-French prunes is 50 or less per pound, or if of the Robe de Sargent variety is 60 or less per pound. However, under safeguards to be established by the committee, such prunes may be shipped to or disposed of in prune product outlets in which they lose their form and character as prunes by conversion prior to consumption. A tolerance as to the permitted deviation of sizes about the average count shall be prescribed by the Secretary, upon recommendation of the committee.

(d) French prunes: No handler shall ship or otherwise make final disposition of any lot of consumer packages of French prunes unless the average count of such prunes contained in such lot is 100 or less per pound. In determining whether such lot of prunes conforms to this minimum size requirement, the following tolerance shall apply: In a sample of 100 ounces, the count per pound of 10 ounces of the smallest prunes shall not vary from the count per pound of 10 ounces of the largest prunes by more than 45 points. The Secretary may, upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the committee and other available information, modify or change this tolerance for uniformity of size.

(e) No handler shall ship or otherwise make final disposition of any lot of substandard prunes except for use as prune products in which the prunes lose their form and character as prunes by conversion prior to consumption, or for use in non-human consumption outlets: Provided, That any such prunes which are shipped or otherwise disposed of for human consumption shall meet the minimum standards prescribed in II C (1), (2), and (3) of § 993.97 or as such standards as may pursuant to § 993.52 be modified. The committee shall issue any such rules and regulations as may be necessary to insure such uses.

(f) Notwithstanding the restrictions contained in this section, any handler may transfer prunes from one plant owned by him to another plant owned by him within the area without having an inspection made as provided for in § 993.51. Any handler may ship prunes from his plant to another handler's plant within the area without having an inspection made as provided for in § 993.51, but a report of such inter-handler transfer shall be made promptly by the transferring handler to the committee. The receiving handler shall, before shipping or otherwise making final disposition of such prunes, comply with the requirements of this section and of § 993.51.

§ 993.51 Inspection and certification.

Each handler shall at his own expense, before or upon the receiving, and before the shipping or disposing of prunes, cause an inspection to be made of such prunes to determine whether they meet the applicable grade and size requirements or the pack specifications, including labeling, effective pursuant to this part. Such handler shall obtain a certificate that such prunes meet the aforementioned applicable requirements and shall submit such certificate, or cause it to be submitted, to the committee. Acceptable certificates shall be those issued by inspectors of the Dried Fruit Association of California. The Secretary may designate another inspection agency in the event the services of the Association prove unsatisfactory.

§ 993.52 Modification.

Minimum standards, pack specifications or size regulations may be modified by the Secretary, on the basis of a recommendation of the committee or other information, whenever he finds that such modification would tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

§ 993.53 Above parity situations.

The minimum standards, the minimum sizes, and the provisions of this part relating to administration shall continue in effect irrespective of whether the estimated season average price for prunes is in excess of the parity level specified in section 2(1) of the act.

§§ 993.59 to 993.64 [Deletions]

22. Delete §§ 993.59 through 993.64 together with the center heading for such sections.

§§ 993.73, 993.74 [Deletions]

23. Delete § 993.73 and § 993.74.

24. Amend § 993.76 to read as follows:

§ 993.76 Records.

Each handler shall maintain such records of prunes received, held and disposed of by him, as are prescribed by the committee and needed by it to perform its functions under this subpart. Such records shall be retained for at least two years beyond the crop year of their applicability.

25. Amend § 993.80 to read as follows:

§ 993.80 Expenses.

The committee is authorized to incur such expenses as the Secretary finds are reasonable and likely to be incurred by it during each crop year for the maintenance and functioning of the committee and for such other purposes as the Secretary may, pursuant to the provisions of this subpart, determine to be appropriate.

26. Amend § 993.81 by deleting paragraph (d) and amending paragraphs (a) and (c) to read as follows:

§ 993.81 Assessments.

(a) Each handler shall pay to the committee, upon demand, with respect to all prunes received by him from producers and dehydrators, his pro rata share of all expenses which the Secretary finds are reasonable and likely to be incurred by the committee during each crop year. Each handler's pro rata share shall be the rate of assessment per ton fixed by the Secretary. At any time during or after a crop year the Secretary may increase the rate of assessment to cover unanticipated expenses of the committee or a deficit in assessable tonnage.

* * * * *

(c) Any money collected as assessments during any crop year and not expended in connection with the committee's operations may be used by the committee for a period of five months subsequent to such crop year. At the end of such period the committee shall, from funds on hand, refund or credit to handler accounts the aforesaid excess. Each handler's share of such excess funds shall be the amount of assessments he has paid in excess of his pro rata share of the actual net expenses of the committee for the preceding crop year. Any money collected from assessments hereunder and remaining unexpended in the possession of the committee at the termination of this part, shall be distributed in such manner as the Secretary may direct: Provided, That to the extent practical, such funds shall be returned pro rata to the persons from whom such funds were collected.

27. Amend § 993.82 to read as follows:

§ 993.82 Funds.

All funds received by the committee pursuant to the provisions of this part shall be used solely for authorized purposes. The Secretary may, at any time, require the committee or its members and alternate members to account for all receipts and disbursements.

28. Add a new § 993.94 to read as follows:

§ 993.94 Research and development.

The committee, with the approval of the Secretary, may establish or provide for the establishment of marketing research and development projects designed to assist, improve, or promote the marketing, distribution, and consumption of prunes. The expense of such projects shall be paid from funds collected pursuant to § 993.81.

29. Add a new § 993.83 under Miscellaneous Provisions to read as follows:

§ 993.83 Rights of the Secretary.

The members of the committee (including successors or alternates) and any agent or employee appointed or employed by the committee, shall be subject to the removal or suspension by the Secretary, in his discretion, at any time. Each and every decision, determination, or other acts of the committee shall be subject to the continuing right of the Secretary to disapprove of the same at any time, and upon such disapproval, shall be deemed null and void.

Dated: July 12, 1960.

CIVIL AERONAUTICS BOARD

[14 CFR Part 221]

[Economic Regs. Docket No. 11618]

CONSTRUCTION, PUBLICATION, FILING AND POSTING OF TARIFFS OF AIR CARRIERS AND FOREIGN AIR CARRIERS

Notice of Proposed Rule Making

JULY 12, 1960.

Notice is hereby given that the Civil Aeronautics Board has under consideration an amendment to Part 221 of the Board's Economic Regulations for the purpose of bringing all effective tariffs within the form requirements of this Part.

The principal features of the proposed amendment are explained in the explanatory statement and the proposed amendment to Part 221 as set forth below. This regulation is proposed under the authority of Sections 204(a) and 403 of the Federal Aviation Act of 1958 (72 Stat. 743, 758; 49 U.S.C. 1324, 1373).

Interested persons may participate in the proposed rule making through submission of ten (10) copies of written data, views or arguments pertaining thereto, addressed to the Docket Section, Civil Aeronautics Board, Washington 25, D.C. All relevant matter in communications received on or before August 15, 1960, will be considered by the Board before taking final action on the proposed rule. Copies of such communications will be available on or after August 17, 1960, for examination by interested persons in the Docket Section of the Board, Room 711, Universal Building, 1825 Connecticut Avenue NW., Washington, D.C.

By the Civil Aeronautics Board.

[SEAL] ROBERT C. LESTER,
Secretary.

Part 221, the tariff filing regulation, became effective in its present revised form on July 1, 1954. It was believed at that time that tariffs and their amendments already in effect would be revised and amended from time to time in accordance with Part 221 and that compliance of all tariffs with Part 221 would thus be achieved by a gradual process. Experience has shown that this has been accomplished only in part.

Inconsistent tariffs create definite problems for travelers and shippers. Where one carrier has brought its tariffs into conformity with Part 221 and another has not, the result may be that different interpretations obtain for different carriers in traffic which is competitive. For example, some tariffs still contain generic commodity descriptions in lieu of specific descriptions as required by § 221.75 of Part 221. The Board deems it necessary, therefore, to designate a date by which all tariffs currently in effect would have to be revised in accordance with Part 221.

It is recognized that a period of time will be required for the carriers to bring their tariffs into compliance. Accordingly, an effective date of February 1, 1961, is envisaged at this time.

It is proposed to amend Part 221 of the Economic Regulations (14 CFR Part 221), by adding a new § 221.5 to read as follows:

§ 221.5 Effective date of compliance with this part.

All tariffs and tariff amendments in force on (effective date of this amendment) whether or not the tariff matter therein was in force on July 1, 1954, shall be brought into compliance with this part effective not later than February 1, 1961.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[47 CFR Parts 1, 21]

[Docket No. 13631; FCC 60-782]

REPORT OF LICENSEE IN DOMESTIC PUBLIC LAND MOBILE RADIO SERVICE

Notice of Proposed Rule Making

1. The Commission proposes to amend its Form L,[1] Annual Report of Licensee in Domestic Public Land Mobile Radio Service. Such amendments, if adopted, will be effective for the reports covering calendar year 1960. The amendments proposed are principally to rearrange and clarify the existing form, so much so that proposed rule making proceedings may not be mandatory under the Administrative Procedure Act. However, it may be that licensees and others interested in the development of the common carrier mobile radio services have thoughts regarding useful information which should be obtained at this time. This proceeding will afford an excellent opportunity for the submission of suggestions embodying such thoughts at a time when they will receive the fullest consideration.

2. The only change of a substantive nature proposed for Form L is to insert a new question inquiring whether or not the actual operation of the service is in the hands of a person or entity other than the licensee. If the answer to this question is in the affirmative it is proposed to require that the terms of the agreement, including consideration, by which responsibility for the actual operation is placed upon someone other than the licensee, be disclosed in the report. In view of provisions of the Communications Act forbidding transfer of control of radio stations without prior Commission consent the pertinency of this type of question will be apparent.

3. A summary of other changes being proposed in Form L is, (a) a definition of rural subscriber service is being added to Instruction 2, (b) a separate line is being added in the sections on service data and revenue for rural subscriber service so that data regarding this service will no longer be reported as a part of "Other," (c) columns are being added in the section on service data for fixed stations authorized and served and the three present columns in that section on number of revenue messages are being transferred to the section on revenue, (d) Instruction 5 is being revised in recognition of the fact that new columns are being added in the section on service data, (e) the question on number of mobile stations served in vehicles or vessels used by licensee or any affiliate of licensee is being reworded in the interest of clarity, (f) the present section VI on mobile stations tabulated in accordance with priorities for service is being renumbered as section II and the present section II on revenue is being renumbered as section IV which results in the present sections IV and V, condensed balance sheet and condensed income statement, respectively, being renumbered as sections V and VI, respectively, (g) the balance sheet captions are being changed slightly, (h) the term "mobile stations" is being substituted for "mobile units" throughout in order to conform with the definition in § 21.1 of our rules, (i) instructions 2 and 9 have been incorporated in a parenthetical note under "remarks", (j) instruction 10 has been incorporated in a parenthetical note under the space for certification of the report, (k) the remaining instructions have been renumbered, (l) four of the remaining instructions have been moved to the top of the reverse side of the form immediately preceding the items to which they relate in an effort to overcome reader resistance, (m) columns headed "mobile stations" are being cross-referenced to instruction 3 (old number 5) which instruction is being expanded to explain that one-way signaling receivers, whether or not installed in a vehicle, are considered to be mobile stations, and (n) column headings in section IV relating to revenue and nonrevenue messages are being modified to include, in parentheses, a note to the effect that the number of messages reported should agree with the number of messages recorded in the station log.

4. A copy of Form L is attached to this notice.[1]

5. This notice of proposed rule making is issued under authority of sections 4(i), 219(b), 303(j), 303(r), and 308(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

6. Any interested party who is of the opinion that the proposed amendments should not be adopted, or should not be adopted in the form proposed herein, may file with the Commission on or before August 19, 1960, a statement or brief setting forth his comments. Comments in support of the proposed amendments may also be filed on or before the same date. Comments or briefs in reply to the original comments or briefs may be filed within twenty days of the last day for filing said original comments or briefs. No additional comments may be filed unless (1) specifically requested by the Commission, or (2) good cause for filing such additional comments is established. The Commission will consider all such comments that are presented before taking action in the matter and, if any comments are submitted which appear to warrant the holding of oral argument, notice of the time and place of such oral argument will be given.

7. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.54 of the Commission's rules and regulations, an original and fourteen copies of all statements or briefs filed shall be furnished to the Commission.

Adopted: July 7, 1960.

Released: July 12, 1960.

[47 CFR Parts 2, 11]

[Docket No. 13655; FCC 60-816]

NON-GOVERNMENT RADIOLOCATION SERVICE

Notice of Proposed Rule Making

In the matter of amendment of Parts 2 and 11 of the Commission's rules to provide for the use of the band 10000–10500 Mc by the non-Government radiolocation service, Docket No. 13655.

1. Notice is hereby given of proposed rule making in the above-entitled matter.

2. Tellurometer, Inc., in a petition filed April 12, 1960, which was modified by a supplemental filing on April 20, 1960, requests amendment of the Table of Frequency Allocations in § 2.104(a) (5) to provide for the radiolocation service in the band 10000–10500 Mc in addition to those services to which that band is now allocated. Petitioner also requests an appropriate amendment to Subpart M of Part 11 to permit the granting of licenses to radiolocation land and radiolocation mobile stations in the band 10000–10500 Mc on the condition that such stations shall not cause interference to stations of other services to which that band is allocated.

3. The band 10000–10500 Mc is now allocated to both Government and non-Government users. However, by the terms of footnote US127 to the Table of Frequency Allocations, all users are restricted to CW emission, non-Government access to the band is limited to the amateur service, and the amateur service is required to protect Government services in that band from harmful interference.

4. Petitioner states that the degree of accuracy achievable with the Tellurometer device is a function of bandwidth available and that the availability of the band 10000–10500 Mc would permit survey measurement accuracies of plus or minus one-half inch. The band 10500–10550 Mc which is presently allocated to the radiolocation service is not wide enough to permit the degree of accuracy considered necessary for some survey operations.

5. It is therefore proposed to amend Parts 2 and 11 as set forth below to make the frequency band 10000–10500 Mc available to the non-Government radiolocation service on the express condition that (1) only CW will be authorized, (2) harmful interference will not be caused to the amateur service or to the Government services to which the band is allocated, (3) the non-Government radiolocation service will accept any harmful interference that might be experienced from stations of the other services to which the band is allocated, and (4) the non-Government radiolocation service will be limited to survey operations using transmitter powers not to exceed one watt into the antenna.

6. The Administrative Radio Conference, Geneva (1959) modified a number of definitions presently in use in the Commission's rules. For example, the term "radiopositioning" was redefined as "radiolocation." It is the Commission's intention to institute rule-making in the near future to realign its rules, to the extent practicable, with the decisions of that Conference. For the time being, however, it is proposed to introduce new terminology only to the extent necessary to deal with new allocations such as is proposed herein. For administrative purposes it is considered necessary to retain, temporarily, seemingly duplicate definitions in some instances. Accordingly, it is proposed to make the definition changes and insertions set forth in the Appendix hereto.

7. The proposed amendments to Parts 2 and 11 of the Commission's rules as set forth below, are issued pursuant to the authority contained in section 303 (c), (f) and (r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

8. All interested persons are invited to file, on or before August 19, 1960, comments supporting or opposing the proposals set out in this Notice and in the Appendix hereto, or submitting any modifications or counterproposals the parties may wish to submit. Comments in reply thereto may be submitted by August 29, 1960. The Commission will consider all comments filed hereunder prior to taking final action in this matter provided that, notwithstanding the provisions of § 1.213 of the rules, the Commission will not be limited solely to the comments filed in this proceeding.

9. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.54 of the Commission's rules and regulations, the original and 14 copies of all statements, briefs, or comments filed shall be furnished the Commission.

Adopted: July 7, 1960.

Released: July 12, 1960.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] BEN F. WAPLE,
Acting Secretary.

I. Proposed amendments to Part 2:

1. In § 2.1, in alphabetical order, the definition "Radiodetermination" is added; the definitions "Radiolocation" and "Radiolocation service" are revised; and the definition "Radiolocation station" is deleted and superseded by "Radiolocation land station" and "Radiolocation mobile station", as follows:

§ 2.1 Definitions.

* * * * *

Radiodetermination. The determination of position, or the obtaining of information relating to position, by means of the propagation of radio waves.

* * * * *

Radiolocation. Radiodetermination used for purposes other than those of radionavigation.

Radiolocation service. A radiodetermination service involving the use of radiolocation.

Radiolocation land station. A station in the radiolocation service not intended to be used while in motion.

Radiolocation mobile station. A station in the radiolocation service intended to be used while in motion or during halts at unspecified points.

2. In § 2.104(a)(5), the table of frequency allocations is amended by changing the entries in Columns 8, 9, and 11 for the band 10000–10500 Mc; Footnote US127 is revised; and new Footnote NG__ is added, as follows:

§ 2.104 Frequency allocations.

(a) * * *
(5) * * *

United States		Federal Communications Commission
Band (Mc)	Allocation	Band (Mc)	Service	Class of station	Frequency	Nature of services of stations
5	6	7	8	9	10	11
10000-10500	G, NG (US127)	10000-10500	Amateur Radiolocation (NG—).	Amateur Radiolocation land Radiolocation mobile.	----------	AMATEUR RADIOLOCATION.

* * * * * * *

US127 The band 10,000–10,500 Mc is limited to CW systems. The amateur service and non-Government radiolocation service, which shall not cause harmful interference to the Government radiolocation service, are the only non-Government services permitted in this band. The non-Government radiolocation service is limited to survey operations using transmitters with a power not to exceed one watt into the antenna.

* * * * *

NG... Non-Government stations in the radiolocation service shall not cause harmful interference to the amateur service.

II. Proposed amendments to Part 11:

1. Section 11.3 Definition of Terms, is amended by the addition of new definitions as follows:

§ 11.3 Definition of terms.

* * * * *

(y) Radiolocation land station. A station in the radiolocation service not intended to be used while in motion.

(z) Radiolocation mobile station. A station in the radiolocation service intended to be used while in motion or during halts at unspecified points.

2. Section 11.607 is amended by the addition of a new paragraph (h), as follows:

§ 11.607 Frequencies available.

* * * * *

(h) Radiolocation Land Stations and Radiolocation Mobile Stations in this service may be authorized to use frequencies in the band 10,000–10,500 Mc, for CW emission only, upon condition that no harmful interference is caused to other users of this band; and upon further condition that such stations in the radiolocation service operating in this band must accept any harmful interference that may be experienced from the operation of other services in this band. The non-Government radiolocation service is limited to survey operations using transmitters with a power not to exceed one watt into the antenna.

[Reg. Docket No. 375; Draft Release No 60-8]

DEFINITION OF CONTROLLED AIRSPACE

Notice of Public Hearing

Draft Release 60-8, published as a notice of proposed rule making in the FEDERAL REGISTER on May 7, 1960 (25 F.R. 4083), gave notice that the Federal Aviation Agency proposed to rescind Civil Air Regulations Amendments 60-14 and 60-14A and to adopt a new amendment to Part 60 which would revise the controlled airspace structure.

As a result of the review of the written comments received in response to the draft release, it has been concluded that it is desirable for the Agency to obtain the oral views and comments of interested persons in regard to the proposed revision to the controlled airspace structure.

Notice is hereby given that an informal hearing in accordance with section 4(b) of the Administrative Procedure Act will be held before a representative of the Administrator, at 10:00 a.m., e.d.t., on August 10, 1960, at 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington, D.C., for the purpose of receiving such views and comments. Amendments 60-14 and 60-14A have been rescinded, effective June 30, 1960, by Amendment 60-18 (25 F.R. 6015) and will not be included in the subject matter of this hearing.

All parties who wish to present their views and comments at the hearing should send advanced written notice of such intention, in duplicate, to the Docket Section, Room B-316, 1711 New York Avenue NW., Washington 25, D.C. Such notice should include the name and number of persons expected to attend, the organization, if any, represented and an estimate of the amount of time required for the presentation of views and comments.

All comments presented at the hearing will be considered before action is taken on the proposed rule and the proposal may be changed in the light of comment received.

WILLIAM R. PACKHAM AND RADIO STATION WPCC, INC. (WPCC)

Order Designating Applications for Consolidated Hearing on Stated Issues

In re applications of William R. Packham, Hendersonville, North Carolina, Docket No. 13632, File No. BP-12394, requests 1410 kc, 500 w, Day; Radio Station WPCC, Incorporated (WPCC), Clinton, South Carolina, Docket No. 13633, File No. BP-13744, has 1410 kc, 500 w, Day, requests 1410 kc, 1 kw, Day; for construction permits.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D.C., on the 7th day of July 1960;

It appearing that upon the basis of the information presently before the Commission, and except as indicated by the issues specified below, each of the instant applicants is legally, technically and otherwise qualified to construct and operate its instant proposal; that Radio Station WPCC, Incorporated, is also financially qualified; but that William R. Packham may not be financially qualified; and

It further appearing that pursuant to section 309(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the Commission, in a letter dated March 8, 1960, and incorporated herein by reference, notified the instant applicants, and any other known parties in interest, of the grounds and reasons for the Commission's inability to make a finding that a grant of any one of the applications would serve the public interest, convenience, and necessity; and that a copy of the aforementioned letter is available for public inspection at the Commission's offices; and

It further appearing that the instant applicants filed timely replies to the aforementioned letter, which replies have not, however, entirely eliminated the grounds and reasons precluding a grant of the said applications and requiring an evidentiary hearing on the particular issues hereinafter specified; and

It further appearing that in response to the Commission's above-mentioned letter, William R. Packham amended his application to include (a) a verified copy of his agreement with Mr. Tom Carr whereby Mr. Carr will build the proposed station for $20,000; and (b) a supporting balance sheet showing that Mr. Carr has sufficient liquid assets to construct the station as proposed, but that, the balance sheet of Packham reflects only $840 in liquid assets whereas he requires more than $6,800 to operate his proposal for at least three months; and that, therefore, it cannot be determined that Packham is financially qualified to operate his proposed station; and

It further appearing that after consideration of the foregoing and the applicants' replies, the Commission is still unable to make the statutory finding that a grant of the applications would serve the public interest, convenience, and necessity; and is of the opinion that the applications must be designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding on the issues specified below;

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the instant applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent Order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which would receive primary service from the proposed operation of William R. Packham and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose primary service from the proposed operation of Station WPCC and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

3. To determine the nature and extent of the interference, if any, that each of the instant proposals would cause to and receive from each other and all other existing standard broadcast stations, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other primary service to the areas and populations affected by interference from any of the instant proposals.

4. To determine whether the instant proposal of William R. Packham would involve objectionable interference with Station WPCC, Clinton, South Carolina (existing operation), or any other existing standard broadcast stations, and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

5. To determine whether the interference received by each instant proposal from any of the other proposals herein and any existing stations would affect more than ten percent of the population within its normally protected primary service area in contravention of § 3.28(c)(3) of the Commission rules and, if so, whether circumstances exist which would warrant a waiver of said section.

6. To determine whether William R. Packham is financially qualified to operate his proposed station.

7. To determine, in the light of section 307(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, which of the instant proposals would better provide a fair, efficient and equitable distribution of radio service.

8. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues which, if either, of the instant applications should be granted.

It is further ordered, That Radio Station WPCC, Incorporated, is made a party respondent with respect to the existing operation of WPCC.

It is further ordered, That, to avail themselves of the opportunity to be heard, the applicants, pursuant to § 1.140 of the Commission rules, in person or by attorney, shall, within 20 days of the mailing of this order, file with the Commission in triplicate, a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this order.

It is further ordered, That, the issues in the above-captioned proceeding may be enlarged by the Examiner, on his own motion or on petition properly filed by a party to the proceeding, and upon sufficient allegations of fact in support thereof, by the addition of the following issue: To determine whether the funds available to the applicant will give reasonable assurance that the proposals set forth in the application will be effectuated.

SOUTHEASTERN BROADCASTING SYSTEM, INC. (WMJM) AND WASHINGTON BROADCASTING CO. (WSNT)

Order Designating Applications For Consolidated Hearing on Stated Issues

In re applications of Southeastern Broadcasting System, Incorporated (WMJM) Cordele, Georgia, Docket No. 13639, File No. BP-12389, has 1490 kc, 250 w, U, requests 1490 kc, 250 w, 1 kw-LS, U; Washington Broadcasting Company, Inc. (WSNT), Sandersville, Georgia, Docket No. 13640, File No. BP-13105, has 1490 kc, 250 w, U, requests 1490 kc, 250 w, 500 w-LS, U; for construction permits.

At a session of the Federal Communications Commission held at its offices in Washington, D.C., on the 7th day of July 1960;

The Commission having under consideration the above-captioned and described applications;

It appearing that except as indicated by the issues specified below, each of the applicants is legally, technically, financially, and otherwise qualified to construct and operate its instant proposal; and

It further appearing that pursuant to section 309(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the Commission, in a letter dated February 19, 1960, and incorporated herein by reference, notified the instant applicants, and any other known parties in interest, of the grounds and reasons for the Commission's inability to make a finding that a grant of either of the applications would serve the public interest, convenience, and necessity; and that a copy of the aforementioned letter is available for public inspection at the Commission's offices; and

It further appearing that the instant applicants filed timely replies to the aforementioned letter, which replies have not, however, entirely eliminated the grounds and reasons precluding a grant of the said applications and requiring an evidentiary hearing on the particular issues hereinafter specified; and

It further appearing that WSNT (BP-13105) failed to indicate that the total percentage of population loss from existing stations and pending applications is less than 10 percent, and failed to submit a detailed site photograph showing the proposed 1 volt contour; and

It further appearing that by letter dated March 23, 1960, WMRE requested that the application of the Washington Broadcasting Company, Inc., be denied and that no hearing be held; but that pursuant to the provisions of section 309(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, both the said applications must be designated for hearing; and

It further appearing that after consideration of the foregoing, and the applicants' replies, the Commission is still unable to make the statutory finding that a grant of the applications would serve the public interest, convenience, and necessity; and is of the opinion that the applications must be designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding on the issues specified below:

It is ordered, That, pursuant to section 309(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, the instant applications are designated for hearing in a consolidated proceeding, at a time and place to be specified in a subsequent Order, upon the following issues:

1. To determine the areas and populations which may be expected to gain or lose primary service from the proposed operations of Stations WMJM and WSNT and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

2. To determine the nature and extent of the interference, if any, that each of the instant proposals would cause to and receive from each other and all other existing standard broadcast stations, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other primary service to the areas and populations affected by interference from any of the instant proposals.

3. To determine whether the instant proposal of the Southern Broadcasting System, Incorporated (WMJM) would involve objectionable interference with Stations WSNT, Sandersville, Georgia; WSFB, Quitman, Georgia; and WHLD, Lanett, Alabama-West Point, Georgia, or any other existing standard broadcast stations, and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

4. To determine whether the instant proposal of the Washington Broadcasting Company, Inc. (WSNT) would involve objectionable interference with Stations WSYL, Sylvania, Georgia; and WMRE, Monroe, Georgia, or any other existing standard broadcast stations, and, if so, the nature and extent thereof, the areas and populations affected thereby, and the availability of other primary service to such areas and populations.

5. To determine whether interference received from the present operations of Stations WSYL and WMRE, and the proposed operation of Station WMJM would affect more than ten percent of the population within the normally protected primary service area of the instant proposal of the Washington Broadcasting Company, Inc. (WSNT), in contravention of § 3.28(c)(3) of the Commission rules, and, if so, whether circumstances exist which would warrant a waiver of said section.

6. To determine whether the WSNT transmitter site is satisfactory with particular regard to any conditions that may exist in the vicinity of the antenna system which would distort the proposed antenna radiation pattern.

7. To determine, in the light of section 307(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, which of the instant proposals would better provide a fair, efficient and equitable distribution of radio service.

8. To determine, in the light of the evidence adduced pursuant to the foregoing issues which, if either, of the instant applications should be granted.

It is further ordered, That the Valley Broadcasting Company, Inc., Emerson W. Browne tr/as Quitman Broadcasting Company, Edwin H. Bass tr/as Sylvania Broadcasting System, and the Walton Broadcasting Company, licensees of Stations WRLD, WSFB, WSYL, and WMRE, respectively, are made parties to the proceeding.

It is further ordered, That, to avail themselves of the opportunity to be heard, the applicants and parties respondent herein, pursuant to § 1.140 of the Commission rules, in person or by attorney, shall, within 20 days of the mailing of this order, file with the Commission in triplicate, a written appearance stating an intention to appear on the date fixed for the hearing and present evidence on the issues specified in this order.

It is further ordered, That, the issues in the above-captioned proceeding may be enlarged by the Examiner, on his own motion or on petition properly filed by a party to the proceeding, and upon sufficient allegations of fact in support thereof, by the addition of the following issue: To determine whether the funds available to the applicant will give reasonable assurance that the proposals set forth in the application will be effectuated.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

[Docket No. E-6900]

APPALACHIAN POWER CO.

Order Providing for Hearing and Denying Motion for Extension of Time and Other Relief

JULY 8, 1960.

By order issued October 29, 1959, (22 F.P.C. 754) the Commission ordered Appalachian Power Company (Company), to show cause in writing and within 60 days why an order should not be entered determining:

(1) That Company is accounting for and reporting deferred taxes on income otherwise than by use of the Commission's prescribed Accounts 507-A and 266, all as indicated above, and therefore that it has and continues to violate the accounting requirements prescribed by the Commission through its Uniform System of Accounts;

(2) That this action by Company constitutes a willful and knowing violation of the Federal Power Act;

(3) That the Company be required to make, keep, and preserve its accounts in the manner prescribed by this Commission in the Uniform System of Accounts Prescribed for Public Utilities and Licensees;

(4) That the Company be ordered to file such substitute pages of its Annual Report for 1958 (F.P.C. Form No. 1), including the report to stockholders appended as part of said Annual Report, to make the accounting and reporting of accumulated deferred taxes on income therein consistent and in compliance with the requirements therefor as prescribed by the Commission.

To date, Company has not filed any substantive reply, on the merits, to the issues raised by the afore-mentioned Commission order. Rather, Company has requested that all proceedings in this docket be stayed pending Commission action in Docket No. E-6918. Company's requests for stay have been presented in two ways.

First, Company initiated Docket No. E-6918, by Petition filed December 15, 1959, requesting inter alia an order of the Commission declaring Commission Order No. 216 to be invalid.[1] In that Petition, Company requested that all proceedings in this Docket (E-6900), be stayed "until 30 days after the issuance of a final order upon" that Petition.

Secondly, Company, by Motion filed May 25, 1960, in this Docket (E-6900), requested that it be granted "an extension of time to answer in Docket E-6900 until the final disposition of all proceedings relative to the Petition"; (Petition) meaning Company's aforementioned December 15, 1959, Petition initiating Docket No. E-6918.[2] Company's May 25, 1960, Motion also requests that the Motion, itself, be set down for hearing with opportunity for Company to render written and oral presentations to the Commission in support of the relief therein requested.

In addition, Company, on June 21, 1960, in an "Application for Rehearing" of the Commission's May 23, 1960 order dismissing Company's December 15, 1959 Petition in Docket No. E-6918, again requested that the Commission stay all proceedings in this Docket (E-6900) "until 30 days after the final disposition" of its December 15, 1959 Petition.

By order of the Commission issued concurrently herewith (Docket No. E-6918) Company's "Application for Rehearing" is denied.

Since the issuance of the afore-mentioned Commission order on October 29, 1959, Company has filed its Annual Report (F.P.C. Form No. 1) with this Commission for the year 1959. That Report reveals Company has continued its accounting and reporting procedures for [1] Commission Order 216, issued October 22, 1959, by its terms merely interprets certain language of the Commission's prior Order No. 204—Order Amending Uniform System of Accounts Prescribed for Public Utilities and Licensees to Provide for the Accounting and Reporting of Deferred Taxes on Income.

[2] The Commission's October 29, 1959 "Order to Show Cause" initiating this proceeding (Docket No. E-6900), afforded Company a period of 60 days from the date of issuance thereof, to respond to the issues which that order raises.

deferred taxes on income in the manner as described in the Commission's October 29, 1959, order.

The Commission finds that in view of the foregoing it is necessary and appropriate for the purposes of the Federal Power Act and the afore-mentioned Commission order issued herein on October 29, 1959, that this matter be set for hearing; and that Company's May 25, 1960 Motion be denied; all as hereinafter provided.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in the provisions of the Federal Power Act, particularly sections 301, 304, 307, 308, 309 and 311 thereof, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a public hearing be held on September 12, 1960, at 10:00 a.m., e.d.s.t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D.C., at which hearing Company shall show cause, if any there be, why the Commission should not find and determine:

(1) That Company is accounting for and reporting deferred taxes on income otherwise than by use of the Commission's prescribed Accounts 507–A and 208, all as indicated in the aforementioned Commission order issued herein on October 29, 1959, and as confirmed in this order with respect to the year 1959, and therefore that it has and continues to violate the accounting requirements prescribed by the Commission through its Uniform System of Accounts;

(2) That this action by Company constitutes a willful and knowing violation of the Federal Power Act;

(3) That the Company be required to make, keep, and preserve its accounts in the manner prescribed by this Commission in the Uniform System of Accounts Prescribed for Public Utilities and Licensees;

(4) That the Company be ordered to file such substitute pages of its Annual Reports for 1958 and 1959 (F.P.C. Form No. 1), including the reports to stockholders appended as part of said Annual Reports, to make the accounting and reporting of accumulated deferred taxes on income therein consistent and in compliance with the requirements therefor as prescribed by the Commission.

(B) Any petitions seeking leave to intervene in this proceeding or notices of intervention shall be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., on or before August 5, 1960 and otherwise in accordance with § 1.8 (18 CFR 1.8) of this Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

(C) Interested State commissions may participate in this proceeding as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37(f) (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37(f)) of this Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

(D) Company's May 25, 1960 Motion is hereby denied.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

[5] Contract.

In support of its proposed increase, Midhurst states that the contract was negotiated at arm's-length; all of the pricing provisions thereof were a consideration for entering into such contract; and the requested price is in line with the current value of gas sold in the area.

In support of its proposed increase, Texas Pacific states that the favored-nation provisions constituted a major portion of the consideration of the contracts of sale and were arrived at by bargaining at arm's-length. Regarding its sale to El Paso, Humble similarly mentions arm's-length bargaining and states that the proposed rate is in line with going contract prices in the area. If suspended, Humble requests that the suspension period be limited to one day on the theory that the staff has been investigating Humble's books and records since June 27, 1956, and additional time is not required for investigation.

In support, Cox states that the pricing provisions of the contracts represent the negotiated prices for sales of gas thereunder; such provisions are in general use in long-term contracts and are economically desirable; and the proposed rates are substantially below prices for newly-dedicated gas in the area.

In support of its increased rate, Goff cites the contractual provisions and states that the proposed rate is no more than the initial prices for gas sold in the same general area, and in view of increasing costs, the higher price is needed to encourage exploration and development.

[1] This order does not provide for the consolidation for hearing or disposition of the several matters covered herein, nor should it be so construed.

In support of its proposed increased rate to Colorado Interstate, Humble states that the superseding contract was entered into as a result of arm's-length bargaining and the proposed rate is substantially below the going price for gas in the Hugoton-Panhandle Field.

The changes in rates and charges so proposed may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds: It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon hearings concerning the lawfulness of the several proposed changes and that the above-designated supplements and Humble's Rate Schedule No. 240 be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Ch. I), public hearings shall be held upon dates to be fixed by notices from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the several proposed changes in rates and charges contained in the above-designated supplements, and Humble's Rate Schedule No. 240.

(B) Pending hearings and decisions thereon, each of the above-designated supplements and Humble's Rate Schedule No. 240 are hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until the date indicated in the above "Rate Suspended Until" column, and thereafter until such further time as they are made effective in the manner prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Neither the supplements hereby suspended, nor the rate schedules sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until these proceedings have been disposed of or until the periods of suspension have expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(D) Notices of intervention or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37(f)) on or before August 22, 1960.

By the Commission (Commissioner Kline dissenting).

[Docket No. RI60-475]

PHILLIPS PETROLEUM CO.

Order Providing for Hearing on and Suspension of Proposed Changes in Rates

JULY 8, 1960.

On June 10, 1960, Phillips Petroleum Company (Phillips) tendered for filing proposed changes in rates for sales of natural gas to Kerr-McGee Oil Industries, Inc., in the producing area of Panhandle Field, Gray and Carson Counties, Texas. The Notices of Change were dated June 8, 1960, and June 9, 1960, and the filings were designated Supplement No. 11 to Phillips' FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 183 and Supplement No. 5 to Phillips' FPC Gas Rate Schedule No. 288, and proposed an effective date of June 10, 1960. The changes reflect decreases of 0.4461 cents from 11.7518 cents to 11.3057 cents per Mcf, at a pressure base of 14.65 psia, based upon price redetermination provisions contained in Phillips' contracts of sale dated April 1, 1959, and September 15, 1956. Said contracts provide for prices equal to the current market price being paid at the wellhead for sweet gas produced in the Texas Panhandle Field, as determined by the Railroad Commission of Texas. Such determinations are made twice a year by the Texas Railroad Commission and Phillips has been filing rate changes in accordance with such determinations. A determination was made on November 10, 1959, for a price of 11.7518¢ per Mcf for sweet gas. Phillips filed for such prices on December 9, 1959, and the proposed rates were suspended in Docket No. G-20683 until June 5, 1960. The requisite motion to make the rates effective was filed on June 1, 1960. The latest determination by the Texas Railroad Commission was made on May 16, 1960, and is for a price of 11.3076¢ per Mcf for sweet gas. This is a decrease of 0.4061¢ per Mcf from the previously determined rate of 11.7518¢ per Mcf. The reasons for the decrease in the weighted average price have not been stated.

The proposed changes may be unjust, unreasonable, unduly discriminatory, or preferential, or otherwise unlawful.

The Commission finds:

(1) It is necessary and proper in the public interest and to aid in the enforcement of the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the Commission enter upon a hearing concerning the lawfulness of Phillips proposed changes, and that the above-designated supplements be suspended and the use thereof deferred as hereinafter ordered.

(2) It is necessary and proper in carrying out the provisions of the Natural Gas Act that the above-designated supplements be allowed to take effect subject to refund upon the timely filing of an agreement and undertaking, as hereinafter ordered.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority of the Natural Gas Act, particularly sections 4 and 15 thereof, the Commission's rules of practice and procedure and the regulations under the Natural Gas Act (18 CFR Ch. I) a public hearing shall be held upon a date to be fixed by notice from the Secretary concerning the lawfulness of the proposed decreased rates and charges contained in Supplement Nos. 11 and 5 to Phillips' FPC Gas Rate Schedule Nos. 183 and 288.

(B) Pending a hearing and decision thereon, the above-designated supplements are hereby suspended and the use thereof deferred until July 12, 1960, and until such further time as they are made effective in the matter prescribed by the Natural Gas Act.

(C) Neither the supplements hereby suspended, nor the rate schedules sought to be altered thereby, shall be changed until this proceeding has been disposed of or until the period of suspension has expired, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission.

(D) Supplement Nos. 11 and 5 to Phillips' FPC Gas Rate Schedule Nos. 183 and 288 shall be effective as of July 12, 1960: Provided, That within 20 days from the date of this order, Phillips shall execute and file under Docket No. RI60-475 with the Secretary of the Commission an agreement and undertaking to comply with the refunding and reporting procedure required by the Natural Gas Act and Section 154.102 of the Regulations thereunder (prescribed by Order No. 215 and Order No. 215A). The agreement and undertaking shall be signed by a responsible officer of Phillips, shall be attested, and shall be accompanied by proper authorization from the board of directors and by a certificate showing service of copies upon all purchasers under the rate schedule involved. Unless Phillips is advised to the contrary within 15 days after the filing of such agreement and undertaking, it shall be deemed to have been accepted for filing.

(E) Notices of intervention or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.37(f)) on or before August 22, 1960.

[Docket No. CP60-39]

NORTHERN NATURAL GAS CO.

Notice of Application and Date of Hearing

JUNE 16, 1960.

Take notice that Northern Natural Gas Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation with a principal office in Omaha, Nebraska, filed, on February 18, 1960, an application in Docket No. CP60-39, for a certificate of public convenience and necessity authorizing the construction and operation of a 7000 horsepower compressor station to be located at the intake of Northern's existing "Spearman System" dehydration and gasoline plant located in section 23 of the A.B. & M. Survey in southwest Ochiltree County, Texas, subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission and more fully described in this application on file in the Commission and open to public inspection.

Applicant states the purpose of the compressor station is to permit Northern to take increased volumes of gas under existing and new gas purchase contracts in the North Hansford and Lips producing areas of Hansford, Ochiltree and Roberts counties.

Applicant proposes to install other facilities in addition to the compressor facilities. Applicant intends to augment the present Spearman Plant dehydration and gasoline capacity, to loop certain field lines, to construct new field lines and to replace thirty-eight and a quarter miles of existing 4-, 6-, 8-, and 10-inch field lines. The looping or extending of existing pipe will entail construction of nearly forty-one miles of 6-, 8-, 10-, 12-, and 26-inch field lines. Most of the proposed pipeline is in the larger sizes.

Applicant states the estimated cost of facilities to be:

Compressor station (7000 H.P.)	$2,685,200
40.3 miles of field lines 6" to 20"	1,746,900
Dehydration plant addition	174,000
Hydrocarbon extraction, addition	436,900
Total	5,043,000
Interest and overhead	201,700
	5,244,700
Cost to remove 38.3 miles of field lines 4" to 10"	66,435
Estimated cost before salvage	$5,311,135
Salvage—field lines	417,627
Total estimated net cost	4,893,508

Applicant further states that the funds required for the additional facilities will be obtained from current cash or cash generated from operations.

This matter is one that should be disposed of as promptly as possible under the applicable rules and regulations and to that end:

Take further notice that, pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Federal Power Commission by sections 7 and 15 of the Natural Gas Act, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, a hearing will be held on July 26, 1960, at 9:30 a.m., e.d.s.t., in a Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 441 G Street NW., Washington, D.C., concerning the matters involved in and the issues presented by such application: Provided, however, That the Commission may, after a non-contested hearing, dispose of the proceedings pursuant to the provisions of § 1.30(c) (1) or (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure. Under the procedure herein provided for, unless otherwise advised, it will be unnecessary for Applicant to appear or be represented at the hearing.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D.C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before July 15, 1960. Failure of any party to appear at and participate in the hearing shall be construed as waiver of and concurrence in omission herein of the intermediate decision procedure in cases where a request therefor is made.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[File No. 24W-2137]

NORTH AMERICAN PROPERTIES CORP.

Order Temporarily Suspending Exemption, Statement of Reasons Therefor, and Notice of Opportunity for Hearing

I. North American Properties Corporation (issuer), a Delaware corporation, filed with the Commission on April 1, 1958 a notification on Form 1-A and an offering circular relating to a proposed offering of 40,000 units at 51 cents per unit, consisting of 5 Class A shares and 1 Class B share, or a total of 200,000 shares of Class A 10 cents par value stock and 40,000 shares of Class B one cent par value stock, for an aggregate offering of $20,400 and subsequently filed an amendment thereto increasing the offering to 80,000 units at 51 cents a unit for an aggregate total offering of $40,800, for the purpose of obtaining an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, pursuant to the provisions of section 3(b) and Regulation A promulgated thereunder.

II. The Commission has reasonable cause to believe that:

A. The exemption under Regulation A is unavailable in that John L. de Lyra, an undisclosed affiliate and promoter of the issuer, is subject to an injunction issued by a court of competent jurisdiction enjoining him from further violations of the registration and anti-fraud provisions of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

B. The terms and conditions of Regulation A have not been complied with in that:

1. The notification fails to set forth the full name and complete address of each affiliate of the issuer as required by Item 2(b) thereof;

2. The notification fails to set forth the full name and complete address of each promoter as required by Item 3(c) thereof.

C. The notification and offering circular contain untrue statements of material facts and omit to state material facts necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, particularly with respect to:

1. The failure to disclose the name and address of a promoter who was in a controlling position;

2. The failure to disclose the direct and indirect interests of each officer, director, and promoter of the issuer;

3. The statement that the address of North American Properties Corporation was 1700 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, Pa.;

4. The failure to disclose that named officers and directors were mere fronts for the undisclosed promoter;

5. The statement that principal activities of the issuer would be in Philadelphia and neighboring cities;

6. The statement that 10,000 shares of North American Properties Corporation Class A stock and 2,000 shares of Class B stock were sold to officers and directors, and that $1,020 was paid in cash therefor;

7. The statement that the address listed for the alleged officers and directors, Theodore Kempinski and Joan Pierce was 2225 S. 17th Street or 2245 S. 17th Street, Philadelphia, Pa.;

8. The statement that North American Properties Corporation had no properties under serious consideration at the time the offering circular was amended, April 30, 1958;

9. The statement in the Balance Sheet dated March 24, 1958 that 10,000 shares of the Class A stock and 2,000 shares of Class B stock had been sold for $1,020 and that such amount had been received.

D. The report of sales on Form 2-A contains untrue statements of material facts and omits to state material facts necessary in order to make the statements made, in the light of the circumstances under which they are made, not misleading, particularly with respect to:

1. The statement that the issuer had commenced its offering on May 29, 1956 and completed it on May 26, 1958;

2. The statement that the company had received $40,800 from the sale of 80,000 units, and had on hand "cash proceeds of $40,699.81";

3. The statement that the issue "has been closed and that the entire issue has been sold";

4. The statement that "no brokers, dealers, or underwriters, were engaged to dispose of the issue, nor did any participate in the distribution of the issue".

E. The offering was made in violation of section 17 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

III. It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule 261(a) of the general rules and regulations under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, that the exemption under Regulation A be, and it hereby is, temporarily suspended.

Notice is hereby given that any person having any interest in the matter may file with the Secretary of the Commission a written request for hearing within thirty days after the entry of this order; that within twenty days after receipt of such request the Commission will, or at any time upon its own motion may, set the matter down for hearing at a place to be designated by the Commission, for the purpose of determining whether this order of suspension should be vacated or made permanent, without prejudice, however, to the consideration and presentation of additional matters at the hearing; that if no hearing is requested and none is ordered by the Commission, this order shall become permanent on the thirtieth day after its entry and shall remain in effect unless or until it is modified or vacated by the Commission; and that notice of the time and place for any hearing will promptly be given by the Commission.

By the Commission.

[Revised S.O. 562, Taylor's I.C.C. Order 121]

LONG ISLAND RAIL ROAD CO.

Diversion or Rerouting of Traffic

In the opinion of Charles W. Taylor, Agent, The Long Island Rail Road Company is unable to transport traffic routed over its lines, because of work stoppage.

It is ordered, That:

(a) Rerouting traffic: The Long Island Rail Road Company and its connections being unable to transport traffic in accordance with shippers' routing because of work stoppage, are hereby authorized to divert such traffic over any available route to expedite the movement, regardless of the routing shown on the waybill. The billing covering all such cars rerouted shall carry a reference to this order as authority for the rerouting.

(b) Concurrence of receiving roads to be obtained: The railroad or railroads desiring to divert or reroute traffic under this order shall confer with the proper transportation officer of the railroad or railroads to which such traffic is to be diverted or rerouted, and shall receive the concurrence of such other railroads before the rerouting or diversion is ordered.

(c) Notification to shippers: The carrier rerouting cars in accordance with this order shall notify each shipper at the time each car is rerouted or diverted and shall furnish to such shipper the new routing provided under this order.

(d) Inasmuch as the diversion or rerouting of traffic by said Agent is deemed to be due to carrier's disability, the rates applicable to traffic diverted or rerouted by said Agent shall be the rates which were applicable at the time of shipment on the shipments as originally routed.

(e) In executing the directions of the Commission and of said Agent provided for in this order, the common carriers involved shall proceed even though no contracts, agreements, or arrangements now exist between them with reference to the divisions of the rates of transportation applicable to said traffic; divisions shall be, during the time this order remains in force, those voluntarily agreed upon by and between said carriers, or upon failure of the carriers to so agree, said divisions shall be those hereafter fixed by the Commission in accordance with the pertinent authority conferred upon it by the Interstate Commerce Act.

(f) Effective date: This order shall become effective at 8:00 a.m., July 10, 1960.

(g) Expiration date: This order shall expire at 11:59 p.m., July 20, 1960, unless otherwise modified, changed, suspended or annulled.

It is further ordered, That this order shall be served upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of all railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement and by filing it with the Director, Office of the Federal Register.

Issued at Washington, D.C., July 11, 1960.

INTERSTATE COMMERCE COMMISSION,
CHARLES W. TAYLOR, Agent.

PART II

FEDERAL REGISTER

VOLUME 25 NUMBER 137

Washington, Friday, July 15, 1960

Title 17—COMMODITY AND SECURITIES EXCHANGES

Chapter II—Securities and Exchange Commission

PART 200—ORGANIZATION; CONDUCT AND ETHICS; AND INFORMATION AND REQUESTS

PART 201—RULES OF PRACTICE

PART 202—INFORMAL AND OTHER PROCEDURES

PART 203—CONDUCT OF MEMBERS AND EMPLOYEES AND FORMER MEMBERS AND EMPLOYEES OF THE COMMISSION

Preamble. 1. Pursuant to the provisions of section 3 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 1002) the Securities and Exchange Commission is establishing an expanded Part 200, entitled "Organization, Conduct and Ethics, and Information and Requests." This part will include a revision of former Part 200, which related only to the organization of the Commission and submittals and requests, and will also include current information on the Commission's regulations concerning conduct of members and employees and former members and employees of the Commission, on its canons of ethics, and on its practices with respect to information and requests.

2. The Commission also has revised Part 201, its rules of practice, in the interest of providing for more efficient and expeditious conduct of and disposition of administrative proceedings before the Commission. The current revision is designed largely to clarify existing procedures, restate the rules in more logical sequence, eliminate obsolete and redundant provisions, and generally improve the administrative process. To give persons affected thereby full opportunity to become acquainted with the changes in Part 201, the revision will not become effective until October 1, 1960, except that § 201.24, relating to incorporation by reference, will not become effective until January 1, 1961.

3. The Commission has revised Part 202, dealing with informal and other procedures, to bring the part up-to-date.

4. Former Part 203, relating to conduct of members and employees and former members and employees of the Commission, has been superseded by Subparts B and C of Part 200.

Subpart A—Organization and Program Management

§ 200.1 General statement and statutory authority.

The Securities and Exchange Commission was created in 1934 under the Securities Exchange Act. That Act transferred to the Commission the administration of the Securities Act of 1933, formerly administered by the Federal Trade Commission. Subsequent acts assigned to the Securities and Exchange Commission for administration are: Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, Trust Indenture Act of 1939, Investment Company Act of 1940, and Investment Advisers Act of 1940. By the terms of Chapter X of the Bankruptcy Act, as amended in 1938, the Commission serves under certain circumstances as adviser to United States District Courts in connection with reorganization proceedings for debtor corporations.

§ 200.2 Statutory functions.

Following are brief descriptions of the functions of the Commission under each of the statutes it administers:

(a) Securities Act of 1933. (1) Issuers of securities publicly offered for sale in interstate commerce or through the mails are required to file with the Commission registration statements containing information about the issuer and the offering. Unless a registration statement is in effect with respect to such securities, it is unlawful to sell the securities in interstate commerce or through the mails. (There are certain limited exemptions, such as government securities, non-public offerings, and intrastate offerings.) The effectiveness of a registration statement may be refused or suspended if it contains material misstatements or omissions, thus barring sale of the securities until it is appropriately amended. Registration is not a finding of the Commission as to the accuracy of the facts disclosed; and it is not lawful so to represent. Moreover, registration of securities does not imply approval of the issue by the Commission or insure investors against loss in their purchase, but serves rather to make available to investors the issuer's statement of facts upon which investors may reach investment decisions.

(2) Persons responsible for filing false information with the Commission subject themselves to the risk of fine or imprisonment or both; and the issuing company, its directors and other officers, and the underwriters and dealers may be liable in damages to purchasers of registered securities if the disclosures in the registration statements and prospectus are materially defective. Also the statute contains general antifraud provisions that are not limited to registered securities. These provide a basis for suits by private parties, for injunctive actions by the Commission, and for criminal prosecution.

(b) Securities Exchange Act of 1934. This Act requires the filing of registration applications and annual and other reports with national securities exchanges and the Commission, by companies whose securities are listed upon the exchanges. These must contain financial and other data prescribed by the Commission for the information of investors. Material misstatements or omissions are grounds for suspension or withdrawal of the security from exchange trading. This Act makes unlawful proxy solicitations for meetings of listed companies in contravention of rules prescribed by the Commission. The rules so prescribed provide for disclosures to securities holders of information relevant to the proposals which are the subject of solicitations. The Act also requires disclosure by officers, directors, and large (10%) security holders of companies with listed equity securities, of their holdings of and transactions in the equity securities of such companies. The Act also provides for registration by the Commission and for certain regulations by the Commission of national securities exchanges, brokers and dealers engaged in an over-the-counter securities business, and national associations of such dealers. It contains provisions for rule making power in the Commission with respect to short sales, stabilizing, floor trading, activities of specialists and odd-lot dealers, and such matters as excessive trading by the exchange members. The Act empowers the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System to prescribe minimum margin requirements with respect to listed securities.

(c) Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935. This Act provides for regulation by the Commission of the purchase and sale of securities, properties, and other assets by companies comprised within electric and gas utility holding company systems, their intra-system transactions, service and management arrangements. It further provides for limitation of system operations to physically integrated and coordinated properties, and simplification of complex corporate and capital structures and elimination of unfair distribution of voting power. The issuance and sale of securities by holding companies and their subsidiaries, unless exempt (subject to conditions and terms which the Commission is empowered to impose) as an issue expressly authorized by the state in which the issuer is incorporated, must be found by the Commission to meet statutory standards, namely: that the new security is reasonably adapted to the security structure and earning power of the issuer; that the proposed financing is necessary and appropriate to the economical and efficient operation of the company's business; that the consideration received, and fees, commissions, and other remuneration paid are fair; and that the terms and conditions of the sale are not detrimental to investors, consumers, or the public. The purchase and sale of utility properties and other assets may not be made in contravention of rules, regulations, or orders of the Commission regarding the consideration to be received, maintenance of competitive conditions, fees and commissions, accounts, disclosure of interest, and similar matters. In passing upon proposals for reorganization, merger, or consolidation, the Commission must be satisfied that the objectives of the act generally are complied with and that the terms of the proposals are fair and equitable to all classes of security holders affected.

(d) Trust Indenture Act of 1939. This act is designed to safeguard the interests of purchasers of publicly offered debt securities issued under trust indentures through provisions requiring in such indentures the elimination of certain types of exculpatory clauses and the inclusion of certain protective provisions. The act also requires that the indenture trustee, who is a representative of the debt holders, shall be "independent" and free of certain prescribed interests which might conflict with the proper exercise of his duties.

(e) Investment Company Act of 1940. This act provides for the registration with the Commission of investment trusts and investment companies and subjects their activities to regulation in accordance with standards prescribed in the interests of protecting investors. Various transactions of investment companies, including transactions with affiliated interests, are prohibited unless exempted by the Commission. The Commission is authorized to prepare reports to security holders on the fairness of plans of reorganization, merger or consolidation; it may institute court action to enjoin the consummation of plans considered grossly unfair to security holders, or to enjoin acts and practices of management involving gross misconduct or gross abuse of trust and to disqualify from office officials responsible therefor.

(f) Investment Advisers Act of 1940. Persons who, for compensation, engage in the business of advising others with respect to their security transactions must register with the Commission. Their activities in the conduct of such business are subject to standards of the act which make unlawful those practices which constitute fraud or deceit and which require, among other things, disclosure of any interests they may have in transactions executed for clients. It empowers the Commission to seek an injunction against unlawful activity of registered investment advisers or to refer evidence of violations to the Attorney General for criminal prosecution.

(g) Chapter X of the Bankruptcy Act. Chapter X of the Bankruptcy Act provides for Commission participation, as adviser to the courts, in corporate reorganization proceedings pursuant to Chapter X. The Commission may advise the court with respect to the feasibility and fairness of proposed plans of reorganization and other matters arising during the course of the proceedings.

General Organization

§ 200.10 The Commission.

The Commission is composed of five members, not more than three of whom may be members of the same political party. The members are appointed by the President, with the advice and consent of the Senate, for 5-year terms, one term ending each year. The Chairman is designated by the President of the United States pursuant to the provisions of section 3 of Reorganization Plan No. 10 of 1950 (3 CFR, 1949–1953 Comp., p. 1006). The Commission is assisted by a staff which includes lawyers, accountants, engineers, security analysts, and examiners, as well as administrative and clerical employees.

§ 200.11 Organizational structure.

The organizational structure of the staff is designed to achieve three principal objectives: to secure in the members of the Commission control over policy making; to create the most effective possible mechanism for enforcing compliance with the Federal securities laws; and to provide the greatest possible assistance to public investors and to the regulated industries in achieving compliance with the various acts. Duties and responsibilities are stated in § 200.12.

§ 200.12 Functional responsibilities.

This section sets forth the administrative and substantive responsibilities of the Executive Director, Division Directors, Office Heads, Regional Administrators, and certain other Commission officers. All Commission officers and other staff members, except Hearing Examiners, shall perform, in addition to the duties herein set forth, such additional duties as the Chairman of the Commission may assign from time to time. Office Memorandum 157, dated October 13, 1948, is hereby rescinded.

§ 200.13 The Secretary of the Commission.

The Secretary of the Commission shall have the ultimate responsibility to the Commission for the preparation and maintenance of official records of Commission action, the custody of the official seal of the Commission and the certification and authentication of documents reflecting official Commission action, and for the furnishing of information concerning Commission actions and functions to the press and the public.

§ 200.14 Adviser to the Commission.

The Adviser to the Commission is responsible for presenting to the Commission an independent viewpoint with respect to problems and matters in the entire field of capital formation under the several statutes administered by the Commission. He is responsible for undertaking such studies as may be necessary to carry out his advisory functions. He is also responsible for providing advice, guidance, and assistance to Division and Office Heads and their staffs in the development of programs and in connection with cases or matters of first impression or of major significance to the Commission in the administration and enforcement of the Federal Securities Laws.

§ 200.15 Hearing Examiners.

Hearing Examiners preside at public and private hearings and examinations held under the various statutes administered by the Commission and in appropriate cases prepare recommended decisions. The assignment of Hearing Examiners to particular cases or proceedings shall be made by the Chairman or such person as he may designate.

§ 200.16 Director of the Office of Opinion Writing.

The Director of the Office of Opinion Writing shall have the ultimate responsibility to the Commission for the preparation of the opinions of the Commission, including opinions and decisions on motions and certifications of questions and rulings by Hearing Examiners in the course of administrative proceedings, except in cases where, pursuant to a waiver by the parties of separation of function requirements, another Division or Office of the Commission's staff undertakes to prepare such Findings and Opinion, in which cases the Director may assist in such preparation. He shall also have responsibility for the preparation of the Commission's Annual Report to the Congress, including the editing of material submitted by various staff units, and joint responsibility with the General Counsel in dealing with general problems arising under the Administrative Procedure Act, including the revision or adoption of Rules of Practice.

§ 200.17 The Executive Director.

The Executive Director of the Commission shall be the chief administrative official of the Commission. He shall have the direct responsibility to the Chairman for the administration of the Commission to the extent that the Chairman has delegated or may delegate his authority as set forth in Reorganization Plan 10 of 1950, including, without thereby limiting, the administrative direction and coordination of the divisions and offices in the Headquarters Office and the Regional Offices in the field. He shall have the ultimate responsibility to the Commission for the administrative matters reserved to the Commission by Reorganization Plan 10 of 1950. He shall also serve as the Director of the Division of Administrative Management and shall be responsible for the administration of the Regulation Regarding Conduct of Members and Employees and Former Members and Employees of the Commission. Where operating divisions and offices in the Headquarters Office in Washington and the field offices are unable to reach agreement as to the priority and execution of any proceeding, investigation or project to be performed by the field offices, the question shall be referred promptly to the Executive Director.

§ 200.18 Director of the Division of Corporation Finance.

The Director of the Division of Corporation Finance shall have the ultimate responsibility to the Commission for the administration and enforcement of all matters relating to establishing and requiring adherence to standards of economic and financial reporting with respect to securities trade on exchanges or offered for public sale pursuant to registration or exemptive regulations, establishing and requiring adherence to standards of fair disclosure in the solicitation of proxies for election of directors and other corporate actions, enforcement of the standards set forth in the Trust Indenture Act of 1939 regarding indentures covering debt securities, and enforcing of financial reporting and disclosure provisions applicable to investment companies and reviewing their sales literature. These duties shall include the ultimate responsibility to the Commission for the administration and enforcement of disclosure and related requirements of the Securities Act of 1933, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, and the Investment Company Act of 1940, as listed below, which responsibility shall extend to matters arising in the Headquarters Office and in the field offices:

(a) All matters under the Securities Act of 1933 arising from or pertaining to material filed pursuant to the requirements of that Act.

(b) All matters arising under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 in connection with:

(1) The registration of securities on national securities exchanges pursuant to section 12 of that Act.

(2) The examination and processing of periodic reports filed pursuant to sections 13 and 15(d) of that Act.

(3) The examination and processing of proxy soliciting material pursuant to section 14 of that Act.

(4) The examination and processing of ownership reports filed under section 16(a) of that Act.

(5) The denial or suspension of registration of securities listed on national securities exchanges, pursuant to section 19(a)(2) of that Act, arising from failure to comply with the reporting provisions of the Act.

(c) The examination and processing of proxy material filed under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and subject to §§ 240.14a–1 to 240.14a–11 of this chapter issued under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and the examination of reports filed under section 17(a) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935.

(d) All matters rising under the Trust Indenture Act of 1939.

(e) All matters relating to disclosure and reporting and the enforcement thereof under the following sections of the Investment Company Act of 1940:

(1) Sections 8(a) through 8(e) of that Act, relating to the registration of investment companies.

(2) Section 14(a) of that Act, insofar as it relates to notice of disclosure with respect to dividends.

(3) Section 19 of that Act, insofar as it relates to notice of and disclosure with respect to dividends.

(4) Section 20(a) and any other sections of that Act, insofar as they relate to proxy solicitation material.

(5) Section 24 of that Act, relating to registration under the Securities Act of 1933 and to disclosure in sales literature. (The Directors of the Divisions of Corporation Finance and Corporate Regulation shall have joint responsibility to the Commission with respect to the content of the Statement of Policy Relating to Investment Company Sales Literature.)

(6) Section 30 of that Act, insofar as it relates to periodic and ownership reports.

§ 200.19 Director of the Division of Trading and Exchanges.

The Director of the Division of Trading and Exchanges shall have the ultimate responsibility to the Commission for the administration and enforcement of all matters relating to the regulation of exchanges, national securities associations, brokers, dealers and investment advisers; the institution and conduct of proceedings to revoke or deny the registration of brokers and dealers; the prevention of fraudulent trading practices and market manipulations; the supervision of investigation and enforcement activities, except as assigned to other operating divisions or offices in the Headquarters Office; and the conduct of statistical functions. These duties shall include the ultimate responsibility to the Commission for the administration and enforcement of matters arising under the Securities Act of 1933, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, the Investment Company Act of 1940, and the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as specified below, which responsibility shall extend to matters arising in the Headquarters Office and in the field offices:

(a) Investigations of violations or suspected violations of sections 5 and 17 of the Securities Act of 1933, except those arising from or pertaining to material filed pursuant to the provisions of that Act.

(b) Administration and enforcement of all matters arising under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, except:

(1) The examination and processing of applications for registration of securities on national securities exchanges pursuant to section 12 of that Act.

(2) The examination and processing of periodic reports filed pursuant to sections 13 and 15(d) of that Act.

(3) The examination and processing of proxy solicitating material pursuant to section 14 of that Act.

(4) The examination and processing of ownership reports filed under section 16(a) of that Act.

(5) The denial or suspension of registration of securities listed on national securities exchanges, pursuant to section 19(a)(2) by reason of failure to comply with the reporting requirements of that Act.

(c) Investigations initiated pursuant to the provisions of section 12(h) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935.

(d) Investigations initiated pursuant to the provisions of the Investment Company Act of 1940.

(e) Administration and enforcement of all matters arising under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940.

(f) The Director shall have responsibility for the institution of injunctive actions arising out of the above listed matters and for the determination of whether the available evidence supports the allegations in the proposed complaint. The General Counsel shall be consulted concerning the form and substance of the complaint and any court papers and, upon the filing of the complaint, the General Counsel shall have responsibility for supervising the further course of the litigation.

§ 200.20 Director of the Division of Corporate Regulation.

The Director of the Division of Corporate Regulation shall have the ultimate responsibility to the Commission for the administration and enforcement of all matters arising under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, the regulatory provisions of the Investment Company Act of 1940, and the Commission's responsibilities under Chapter X and XI of the Bankruptcy Act, as listed below, which responsibility shall extend to matters arising in the Headquarters Office and in the field offices:

(a) The administration and enforcement of all matters arising under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, except:

(1) The examination and processing of proxy solicitation material which is subject to §§ 240.14a–1 to 240.14a–11 of this chapter under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

(2) Investigations pursuant to section 12(h) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935.

(3) The examination and processing of ownership reports filed under section 17(a) of that Act.

(b) The administration and enforcement of all matters arising under the Investment Company Act of 1940, except investigations, and except matters relating to disclosure and reporting and enforcement thereof under the following sections:

(1) Sections 8(a) through 8(e) of that Act, relating to the registration of investment companies.

(2) Section 14(a) of that Act, insofar as it relates to registration under the Securities Act of 1933.

(3) Section 19 of that Act, insofar as it relates to notice of and disclosure with respect to dividends.

(4) Section 20(a) of that Act, and any other sections, insofar as they relate to proxy solicitation material.

(5) Section 24 of that Act, relating to registration under the Securities Act of 1933 and to disclosure in sales literature. (The Directors of the Divisions of Corporation Finance and Corporate Regulation shall have joint responsibility to the Commission with respect to the content of the Statement of Policy Relating to Investment Company Sales Literature.)

(6) Section 30 of that Act, relating to periodic and ownership reports.

(c) All matters relating to the Commission's responsibilities under Chapters X and XI of the Bankruptcy Act, including representation of the Commission in the United States District Courts in cases involving those chapters.

§ 200.21 The General Counsel.

The General Counsel shall be the chief legal officer of the Commission and shall have the ultimate responsibility to the Commission for the representation of the Commission in judicial proceedings in which it is involved as a party or as amicus curiae, directing and supervising all civil litigation in the United States District Courts (except District Court proceedings under Chapter X of the Bankruptcy Act), and representing the Commission in all cases in Appellate Courts. He shall be ultimately responsible also for the review of cases to be referred to the Department of Justice with a recommendation for criminal prosecution, for advising the Commission at the latter's request or at the latter's request or at the request of any Division Director or Office Head, or when he considers it appropriate to so on his own motion, with respect to interpretations involving novel questions of law, except in situations where he is precluded therefrom by separation-of-functions considerations, for the conduct of administrative proceedings relating to the disqualification of professional persons from practice before the Commission; for the preparation of such new legislation as the Commission may consider recommending to the Congress, for the preparation of Commission comments to the Congress upon new legislation. He shall be the Commission's liaison officer with the Department of Justice, and with the staffs of the various Congressional committees which may have an interest in the Commission's statutes or programs. He also shall be responsible for the review and clearance of the form and content of articles, treatises, and prepared speeches and addresses by members of the staff relating to the Commission or to the statutes and rules administered by the Commission. These responsibilities extend to matters arising in the Headquarters Office and in the field offices as well. He also shall have joint responsibility with the Director of the Office of Opinion Writing in dealing with general problems arising under the Administrative Procedure Act, including the revision or adoption of rules of practice.

§ 200.22 The Chief Accountant.

The Chief Accountant of the Commission shall be the chief accounting officer of the Commission and shall have the ultimate responsibility to the Commission on accounting and auditing matters arising in the administration of the Acts administered by the Commission, particularly with respect to new accounting policy determinations, the form and content of financial statements to be filed with the Commission, and the supervision of procedures to be followed in audit or accounting investigations conducted by the Commission staff. He shall also have responsibility for recommending, and assisting counsel in conducting administrative proceedings relating to the disqualification of accountants to practice before the Commission.

§ 200.23 Director of the Division of Administrative Management.

The Director of the Division of Administrative Management shall have the ultimate responsibility to the Commission and the Chairman for all personnel management functions including recruitment and placement; for all fiscal management functions including preparation of estimates of appropriations and supervision of obligation and expenditure of funds; for all records management functions including maintenance of general files and public reference services; and for all general administrative functions including maintenance of library and duplicating services and purchase and issuance of supplies and equipment.

§ 200.24 The Regional Administrators.

Each Regional Administrator shall have the responsibility within his geographical region (except as specified below with regard to matters arising under Chapters X and XI of the Bankruptcy Act) for executing the Commission's responsibilities under the various Acts administered by the Commission subject to the supervision and direction of the Executive Director, the Division Directors, the General Counsel and the Chief Accountant within their respective spheres as set forth above. The Regional Administrator's responsibilities include particularly the investigation of transactions in securities on national securities exchanges, in the over-the-counter market, and in distributions to the public; the examination of members of national securities exchanges and registered brokers and dealers including the examination of reports filed under § 240.17a–5 of this chapter; the examination and processing of filings under §§ 230.251 to 230.262 of this chapter issued pursuant to section 3(b) of the Securities Act of 1933; the prosecution of injunctive actions in United States District Courts and administrative proceedings before Hearing Examiners; the rendering of assistance to United States Attorneys in criminal cases; and the making of the Commission's facilities more readily available to the public in that region. In addition, the New York Regional Administrator shall be responsible for the participation in proceedings under Chapters X and XI of the Bankruptcy Act in the New York and Boston Regions, and in the State of Pennsylvania; the Chicago Regional Administrator in the Chicago, Fort Worth and Denver Regions, except for the State of Utah; and the San Francisco Regional Administrator in the San Francisco and Seattle Regions, plus the State of Utah.

§ 200.25 Issuance of instructions.

Within the spheres of responsibilities heretofore set forth, the Executive Director, all Division and Office Heads, and all Regional Administrators may, subject to the approval of the Executive Director, issue such definitive instructions as may be necessary pursuant to this section.

(a) All existing procedures and authorizations not inconsistent with this section shall continue in effect until and unless modified by definitive instructions issued pursuant to this paragraph.

§ 200.26 Rules.

The individual operating divisions shall have the initial responsibility for proposing amendments to existing rules or new rules under the statutory provisions within the jurisdiction of the particular division. Where any such proposal presents a legal problem or is a matter of first impression, or involves a matter of enforcement policy or questions involving statutes other than those administered by the Commission, or may have an effect on prior judicial precedent or pending litigation, submission of the proposal should be made to the Office of the General Counsel for an expression of opinion prior to presentation of the matter to the Commission.

Subpart B—Regulation Concerning Conduct of Members and Employees and Former Members and Employees of the Commission

§ 200.31 General statement of policy.

It is deemed contrary to Commission policy for a member or employee of the Commission to:

(a) Engage, directly or indirectly, in any personal business transaction or private arrangement for personal profit which accrues from or is based upon his official position or authority or upon confidential information which he gains by reason of such position or authority.[1]

(b) Accept, directly or indirectly, any valuable gift, favor, or service from any person with whom he transacts business on behalf of the United States.[2]

(c) Discuss or entertain proposal for future employment by any person outside the Government with whom he is transacting business on behalf of the United States.[3]

(d) Divulge confidential commercial or economic information to any unauthorized person, or release any such information in advance of authorization for its release.[4]

(e) Become unduly involved, through frequent or expensive social engagements or otherwise, with any person outside the Government with whom he transacts business on behalf of the United States; or

(f) Act in any official matter with respect to which there exists a personal interest incompatible with an unbiased exercise of official judgment.[5]

(g) Fail reasonably to restrict his personal business affairs so as to avoid conflicts of interest with his official duties.

[1] Members of the Commission are subject also to the following prohibition in section 4(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934:

"• • • No commissioner shall engage in any other business, vocation, or employment than that of serving as commissioner, nor shall any commissioner participate, directly or indirectly, in any stock-market operations or transactions of a character subject to regulation by the Commission pursuant to this title • • •"

Detailed provisions regarding outside or private employment and transactions in securities and commodities are set forth in §§ 200.32 and 200.33. Further provisions regarding use and disclosure of confidential information are set forth in paragraph (d) of this section and in the note appended thereto.

[2] Members and employees of the Commission are subject also to provisions of the Federal Criminal Code which prohibit any officer or employee of the United States from asking, accepting or receiving any money or other thing of value in connection with any matter before him in his official capacity (18 U.S.C. 202), and from accepting anything of value for giving or procuring a government contract (18 U.S.C. 216).

[3] Detailed provisions regarding negotiation for future employment are set forth in § 200.35.

[4] The policy regarding confidential information stated in paragraphs (a) and (d) of this section is intended to cover cases where, apart from specific prohibitions in any statute or other rule, the disclosure or use of such information would be unethical. Detailed prohibitions regarding disclosure or use of confidential information are set forth in § 230.122 of this chapter under the Securities Act of 1933; section 24(c) of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934 and § 240.0–4 of this chapter issued under that Act; section 22(a) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and § 250.104 of this chapter issued under that Act; section 45(a) and § 270.45a–1 of this chapter under the Investment Company Act of 1940; and section 210(b) under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940.

[5] § 200.34 provides a procedure for relieving employees from assignments in certain cases, including those covered by § 200.31(f).

§ 200.32 Outside or private employment.

(a) No member or employee shall permit his name to be associated in any way with any legal, accounting or other professional firm or office.[6]

(b) No employee shall have any outside or private employment of affiliation with any firm or organization incompatible with concurrent employment by the Commission. This applies particularly to employment or association with any registered broker, dealer, public utility holding company, investment company or investment adviser or directly or indirectly related to the issuance, sale or purchase of securities. It applies also to any legal, accounting, or engineering work for compensation involving matters in which the Federal Government or any State, Territorial or municipal authority may be significantly interested.

(c) No employee shall accept or perform any outside or private employment which interferes with the efficient performance of his official duties. An employee who intends to perform services for compensation or engage in any business shall report his intention to do so to the Director of Personnel prior to such acceptance or performance.

(d) No employee shall accept or perform any outside or private employment specifically prohibited to Federal employees by statutes or executive order. For example:

(1) 18 United States Code, section 283, provides, among other things, that Federal employees are prohibited from acting as agent or attorney in prosecuting any claim against the United States or from aiding or assisting in any way, except as otherwise permitted in the discharge of official duties, in the prosecution or support of any such claims, or from receiving any gratuity, or any share of an interest in any claim from any claimant against the United States.

(2) 18 United States Code, section 281, provides, among other things, that Federal employees are prohibited from directly or indirectly receiving or agreeing to receive any compensation whatever for services rendered or to be rendered to any person in relation to any matter in which the United States is a party or directly or indirectly interested.

(3) 5 United States Code, section 62, provides that no person who holds an office the salary or annual compensation attached to which amounts to the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars shall be appointed to or hold any other [Federal] office to which compensation is attached unless specially authorised by law. The provision, however, does not apply to retired members of the armed forces under certain circumstances.

(4) Executive Order No. 9 of January 18, 1873, prohibits, subject to exceptions, Federal employees from accepting or holding office under a State, Territorial, County or municipal authority.

[6] With respect to members, this paragraph supplements the statutory prohibition of outside employment contained in section 4(a) of the Securities Exchange Act, quoted in footnote 1. The remaining provisions of this section are not applicable to members in view of the provisions of section 4(a).

(5) 18 United States Code, section 434, provides in substance that no person shall act both as agent for a business entity and for the United States in a transaction between the business entity and the United States.

(6) 18 United States Code, section 1914, provides in substance that no government official or employee shall accept any salary in connection with his government service from any source other than the United States.

(e) No employee shall appear in court or on a brief in a representative capacity (with or without compensation) or otherwise accept or perform legal, accounting or engineering work for compensation unless specifically authorized by the Commission. Requests for such authorization shall be submitted to the division or office head or regional administrator concerned, together with all pertinent facts regarding the proposed employment, such as the name of the employer, the nature of the work to be performed, and its estimated duration. Division and other office heads and regional administrators shall forward all requests, together with their recommendations thereon, to the Director of Personnel for presentation to the Commission.

(f) No employee shall publish any article or treatise or deliver any prepared speech or address relating to the Commission or the statutes and rules that it administers without having obtained clearance from the Commission. The proposed publication or speech will be examined to determine whether it contains confidential information or whether there is any reason why the publication or delivery of the employee's private views on the subject matter would be otherwise inappropriate. Clearance for publication or delivery will not involve adoption of or concurrence in the views expressed, and any such publication or speech shall include at an appropriate place by way of footnote or otherwise the following disclaimer of responsibility:

> The Securities and Exchange Commission, as a matter of policy, disclaims responsibility for any private publication by any of its employees. The views expressed herein are those of the author and do not necessarily reflect the views of the Commission or of the author's colleagues upon the staff of the Commission.

(g) No employee shall hold office in or be a director of any company which has public security holders, except not for profit corporations, savings and loan associations, and similar institutions, whose securities are exempted under section 3(a)(4) or 3(a)(5) of the Securities Act of 1933.

§ 200.33 Securities transactions.

(a) This section applies to all transactions effected by or on behalf of a member or employee. Members and employees are considered to have sufficient interest in the security and commodity transactions of their husbands or wives so that such transactions must be reported and are subject to all the terms of this section.

(b) No member or employee shall effect or cause to be effected any transaction in a security except for bona fide investment purposes. Unless otherwise determined by the Commission for cause shown, any purchase which is held for less than one year will be presumed not to be for investment purposes. Any employee who believes the application of this paragraph will result in undue hardship in a particular case may make written application to the Commission (through the Branch of Personnel, attention of Director of Personnel) setting out in detail the reasons for his belief and requesting a waiver.

(c) No member or employee shall effect any purchase or sale of a future contract for any commodity without the prior approval of the Commission.

(d) No member or employee shall carry securities on margin; nor shall any member or employee borrow funds or securities with or without collateral for the purpose of purchasing or carrying securities or commodities with the proceeds unless prior approval of the Commission has been secured.

(e) No member or employee shall sell a security which he does not own, or the sale of which is consummated by the delivery of a security borrowed by or for such member's or employee's account.

(f) No member or employee shall purchase any security which is the subject of a registration statement filed under the Securities Act of 1933, or of a letter of notification filed under §§ 230.251 to 230.262 or any other security of the same issuer, while such a registration statement or letter of notification is pending or during the first sixty days after its effective date.

(g) No member or employee shall purchase securities of (1) any holding company registered under section 5 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, or any subsidiary thereof, or (2) any company if its status under such Act or the applicability of any provision of the Act to it is known by the employee to be under consideration.

(h) No member or employee shall purchase any securities issued by any investment company prima facie subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission under the provisions of the Investment Company Act of 1940.

(i) No member or employee shall purchase any security which to his knowledge is involved in any pending investigation by the Commission or in any proceeding before the Commission or to which the Commission is a party.

(j) No member or employee shall purchase any securities of any company which is in receivership or which is undergoing reorganization under section 77–B or Chapter X of the Bankruptcy Act.

(k) The restrictions imposed in paragraphs (f) to (j) of this section do not apply to the exercise of a privilege to convert or exchange securities; to the exercise of rights accruing unconditionally by virtue of ownership of other securities (as distinguished from a contingent right to acquire securities not subscribed for by others); or to the acquisition and exercise of rights in order to round out fractional shares.

(l) Members and employees shall report every transaction in any security or commodity within five business days. (Reports submitted by employees in field offices must be placed in the mails within five days of the date of each transaction.) Other changes in holdings resulting from inheritance or from reclassifications, gifts, stock dividends or split-ups, for example, shall be reported promptly. These reports shall be prepared on the official form provided for this purpose, copies of which may be procured from the Branch of Personnel (Form SE–P–3, revised). These reports shall be transmitted to the Director of Personnel. The envelope should be marked "Confidential—Securities Transactions."

(m) At the time of taking the Oath of Office a new member or employee shall fill in the information required on Form SE–P–4, revised, relating to securities owned by him or his spouse or any trust or estate of which he is a trustee or other fiduciary or beneficiary, and relating to accounts with securities firms, and relatives who are partners or officers of securities firms, investment companies, investment advisers, or public utilities.

(n) This section does not apply to personal notes, individual real estate mortgages, United States Government securities, and securities issued by building and loan associations or co-operatives.

(o) Any member or employee who is a trustee or other fiduciary or a beneficiary of a trust or estate holding securities not exempted by paragraph (n) of this section shall report the existence and nature of such trust or estate to the Director of Personnel. The transactions of such trust or estate shall be subject to all the provisions of this section except in situations where the member or employee is solely a beneficiary and has no power to control, and does not in fact control or advise with respect to, the investments of the trust or estate, and except to the extent that the Commission shall otherwise direct in view of the circumstances of the particular case.

§ 200.34 Action in cases of personal interest.

Any employee assigned to work on any application, filing, or matter of a company in which he then owns any securities or has any personal interest or with which he has been employed or associated in the past shall immediately advise the division director or other office head or regional administrator of the fact. Division directors, other office heads and regional administrators are authorized to direct the reporting employee to continue with the assignment in question where this appears in the interest of the Government, taking into account (a) the policy stated in § 200.31 (f) and (g), (b) the general desirability of avoiding situations that require a question of conflict of interest to be resolved, (c) the extent the employees' activities will be supervised, and (d) the difficulty of assigning the matter to some other employee. Where the employee in question is not relieved of the assignment, his written report concerning the nature of his interest shall be forwarded to the Director of Personnel with a notation that he has been directed to continue the assignment together with such explanation, if any, as may seem appropriate. In the event that a division director or other office head or regional administrator deems that he has, himself, such personal interest in a transaction as may raise a question as to his disinterestedness, he may delegate his responsibility in the matter to a subordinate, but in that event shall submit a brief memorandum of the circumstances to the Director of Personnel.

§ 200.35 Negotiation for private employment.

(a) The provisions of § 200.31(c) are deemed to preclude negotiation for private employment by an employee who is immediately engaged in representing the Commission in any matter in which the prospective employer is opposing counsel or person chiefly affected. With the approval of his superior or the Commission an employee may be relieved of any assignment which, in the absence of such relief, might preclude such negotiation.

(b) No employee shall undertake to act on behalf of the Commission in any capacity in a matter that, to his knowledge, affects even indirectly any person outside the Government with whom he is discussing or entertaining any proposal for future employment, except pursuant to the direction of the Commission, his division director or other office head, or his regional administrator, as provided in § 200.34.

§ 200.36 Practice by former members and employees of the Commission.

(a) No person shall appear in a representative capacity before the Commission in a particular matter if such person, or one participating with him in the particular matter, personally considered it or gained personal knowledge of the facts thereof while he was a member or employee of the Commission. As used in this paragraph, a single investigation or formal proceeding, or both if they are related, shall be presumed to constitute a particular matter for at least two years irrespective of changes in the issues. However, in cases of proceedings in which the issues change from time to time, such as proceedings involving compliance with section 11 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act, this paragraph shall not be construed as prohibiting appearance in such a proceeding, more than two years after ceasing to be a member or employee of the Commission, unless it appears to the Commission that there is such identity of particular issues or pertinent facts as to make it likely that confidential information, derived while a member or employee of the Commission, would have continuing relevance to the proceeding, so as to make the participation therein by the former member or employee of the Commission unethical or prejudicial to the interests of the Commission.

(b) Any former member or employee of the Commission, who, within two years after ceasing to be such, is employed or retained as the representative of any person outside the Government in any matter in which it is contemplated that he will appear before the Commission shall, within ten days of such retainer or employment, or of the time when appearance before the Commission is first contemplated, file with the Secretary of the Commission a statement as to the nature thereof together with any desired explanation as to why it is deemed consistent with this section. Employment of a recurrent character may be covered by a single comprehensive statement. Each such statement should include an appropriate caption indicating that it is filed pursuant to this rule. The reporting requirements of this paragraph do not apply to communications incidental to court appearances in litigation involving the Commission.

(c) As used in this section, the term "appear before the Commission" means personal appearance before or personal communication with the Commission or any member or employee thereof, in connection with any interpretation or matter of substance arising under the statutes administered by the Commission. As used in this section, the term "representative" or "representative capacity" shall include not only the usual type of representation by an attorney, etc., but also representation of a corporation in the capacity of an officer, director, or controlling stockholder thereof.

(d) Persons in doubt as to the applicability of this section may apply for an advisory ruling of the Commission.

§ 200.37 Employees on leave of absence.

The provisions of this part relative to employees of the Commission are applicable to employees on leave with pay or on leave without pay other than extended military service.

§ 200.38 Violation and participation in violation of rules.

Knowing participation in a violation of this subpart by persons not within the scope of this subpart shall likewise be deemed improper conduct and in contravention of Commission rules. Departure from the regulations in this subpart without specific approval may be cause for removal or for disqualification from appearing and practicing before the Commission.

§ 200.39 Payment of tax obligations of employees.

Failure of an employee to pay his just tax obligations (except where there exists a bona fide dispute as to the employee's liability therefor) may be a cause for removal or other disciplinary action.

Subpart C—Canons of Ethics

§ 200.50 Authority.

The Canons of Ethics for Members of the Securities and Exchange Commission were approved by the Commission on July 22, 1958.

§ 200.51 Policy.

It is characteristic of the administrative process that the Members of the Commission and their place in public opinion are affected by the advice and conduct of the staff, particularly the professional and executive employees. It shall be the policy of the Commission to require that employees bear in mind the principles specified in the Canons.

§ 200.52 Copies of the Canons.

The Canons have been distributed to employees of the Commission. In addition, executive and professional employee are issued copies of the Canons upon entrance on duty.

§ 200.53 Preamble.

(a) Members of the Securities and Exchange Commission are entrusted by various enactments of the Congress with powers and duties of great social and economic significance to the American people. It is their task to regulate varied aspects of the American economy, within the limits prescribed by Congress, to insure that our private enterprise system serves the welfare of all citizens. Their success in this endeavor is a bulwark against possible abuses and injustice which, if left unchecked, might jeopardize the strength of our economic institutions.

(b) It is imperative that the members of this Commission continue to conduct themselves in their official and personal relationships in a manner which commands the respect and confidence of their fellow citizens. Members of this Commission shall continue to be mindful of, and strictly abide by, the standards of personal conduct set forth in Subpart B of this part regarding Conduct of Members and Employees and Former Members and Employees of the Commission, most of which has been in effect many years and which was codified in substantially its present form in 1953. Section 200.31 enunciates a General Statement of Policy as follows:

> It is deemed contrary to Commission policy for a member or employee of the Commission to:
> (1) Engage, directly or indirectly, in any personal business transaction or private arrangement for personal profit which accrues from or is based upon his official position or authority or upon confidential information which he gains by reason of such position or authority;
> (2) Accept, directly or indirectly, any valuable gift, favor, or service from any person with whom he transacts business on behalf of the United States.
> (3) Discuss or entertain proposals for future employment by any person outside the Government with whom he is transacting business on behalf of the United States;
>
> (4) Divulge confidential commercial or economic information to any unauthorized person, or release any such information in advance of authorization for its release;
> (5) Become unduly involved, through frequent or expensive social engagements or otherwise, with any person outside the Government with whom he transacts business on behalf of the United States; or
> (6) Act in any official matter with respect to which there exists a personal interest incompatible with an unbiased exercise of official judgment.

(7) Fail reasonably to restrict his personal business affairs so as to avoid conflicts of interest with his official duties.

(c) In addition to the continued observance of these foregoing principles of personal conduct, it is fitting and proper for the members of this Commission to restate and resubscribe to the standards of conduct applicable to its executive, legislative and judicial responsibilities.

§ 200.54 Constitutional obligations.

The members of this Commission have undertaken in their oaths of office to support the Federal Constitution. Insofar as the enactments of the Congress impose executive duties upon the members, they must faithfully execute the laws which they are charged with administering. Members shall also carefully guard against any infringement of the constitutional rights, privileges, or immunities of those who are subject to regulation by this Commission.

§ 200.55 Statutory obligations.

In administering the law, members of this Commission should vigorously enforce compliance with the law by all persons affected thereby. In the exercise of the rule-making powers delegated this Commission by the Congress, members should always be concerned that the rule-making power be confined to the proper limits of the law and be consistent with the statutory purposes expressed by the Congress. In the exercise of their judicial functions, members shall honestly, fairly and impartially determine the rights of all persons under the law.

§ 200.56 Personal conduct.

Appointment to the office of member of this Commission is a high honor and requires that the conduct of a member, not only in the performance of the duties of his office but also in his everyday life, should be beyond reproach.

§ 200.57 Relationships with other members.

Each member should recognize that his conscience and those of other members are distinct entities and that differing shades of opinion should be anticipated. The free expression of opinion is a safeguard against the domination of this Commission by less than a majority, and is a keystone of the commission type of administration. However, a member should never permit his personal opinion so to conflict with the opinion of another member as to develop animosity or unfriendliness in the Commission, and every effort should be made to promote solidarity of conclusion.

§ 200.58 Maintenance of independence.

This Commission has been established to administer laws enacted by the Congress. Its members are appointed by the President by and with the advice and consent of the Senate to serve terms as provided by law. However, under the law, this is an independent Agency, and in performing their duties, members should exhibit a spirit of firm independence and reject any effort by representatives of the executive or legislative branches of the government to affect their independent determination of any matter being considered by this Commission. A member should not be swayed by partisan demands, public clamor or considerations of personal popularity or notoriety; so also he should be above fear of unjust criticism by anyone.

§ 200.59 Relationship with persons subject to regulation.

In all matters before him, a member should administer the law without regard to any personality involved, and with regard only to the issues. Members should not become indebted in any way to persons who are or may become subject to their jurisdiction. No member should accept loans, presents or favors of undue value from persons who are regulated or who represent those who are regulated. In performing their judicial functions, members should avoid discussion of a matter with any person outside this Commission and its staff while that matter is pending. In the performance of his rule-making and administrative functions, a member has a duty to solicit the views of interested persons. Care must be taken by a member in his relationship with persons within or outside of the Commission to separate the judicial and the rule-making functions and to observe the liberties of discussion respectively appropriate. Insofar as it is consistent with the dignity of his official position, he should maintain contact with the persons outside the agency who may be affected by his rule-making functions, but he should not accept unreasonable or lavish hospitality in so doing.

§ 200.60 Qualification to participate in particular matters.

The question in a particular matter rests with that individual member. Each member should weigh carefully the question of his qualification with respect to any matter wherein he or any relatives or former business associates or clients are involved. He should disqualify himself in the event he obtained knowledge prior to becoming a member of the facts at issue before him in a quasi-judicial proceeding, or in other types of proceeding in any matter involving parties in whom he has any interest or relationship directly or indirectly. If an interested person suggests that a member should disqualify himself in a particular matter because of bias or prejudice, the member shall be the judge of his own qualification.

§ 200.61 Impressions of influence.

A member should not, by his conduct, permit the impression to prevail that any person can improperly influence him, that any person unduly enjoys his favor or that he is affected in any way by the rank, position, prestige, or affluence of any person.

§ 200.62 Ex parte communications.

Matters of quasi-judicial nature should be determined by a member solely upon the record made in the proceeding and the arguments of the parties or their counsel properly made in the regular course of such proceeding. All communications by parties or their counsel to a member in a quasi-judicial proceeding which are intended or calculated to influence action by the member should at once be made known by him to all parties concerned. A member should not at any time permit ex parte interviews, arguments, or communications designed to influence his action in such a matter.

§ 200.63 Commission opinions.

The opinions of the Commission should state the reasons for the action taken and contain a clear showing that no serious argument of counsel has been disregarded or overlooked. In such manner, a member shows a full understanding of the matter before him, avoids the suspicion of arbitrary conclusion, promotes confidence in his intellectual integrity and may contribute some useful precedent to the growth of the law. A member should be guided in his decisions by a deep regard for the integrity of the system of law which he administers. He should recall that he is not a repository of arbitrary power, but is acting on behalf of the public under the sanction of the law.

§ 200.64 Judicial review.

The Congress has provided for review by the courts of the decisions and orders by this Commission. Members should recognize that their obligation to preserve the sanctity of the laws administered by them requires that they pursue and prosecute, vigorously and diligently but at the same time fairly and impartially and with dignity, all matters which they or others take to the courts for judicial review.

§ 200.65 Legislative proposals.

Members must recognize that the changing conditions in a volatile economy may require that they bring to the attention of the Congress proposals to amend, modify or repeal the laws administered by them. They should urge the Congress, whenever necessary, to effect such amendment, modification or repeal of particular parts of the statutes which they administer. In any action a member's motivation should be the common weal and not the particular interests of any particular group.

§ 200.66 Investigations.

The power to investigate carries with it the power to defame and destroy. In determining to exercise their investigatory power, members should concern themselves only with the facts known to them and the reasonable inferences from those facts. A member should never suggest, vote for, or participate in an investigation aimed at a particular individual for reasons of animus, prejudice or vindictiveness. The requirements of the particular case alone should induce the exercise of the investigatory power, and no public pronouncement of the pendency of such an investigation should be made in the absence of reasonable evidence that the law has been violated and that the public welfare demands it.

§ 200.67 Power to adopt rules.

In exercising its rule-making power, this Commission performs a legislative function. The delegation of this power by the Congress imposes the obligation upon the members to adopt rules necessary to effectuate the stated policies of the statute in the interest of all of the people. Care should be taken to avoid the adoption of rules which seek to extend the power of the Commission beyond proper statutory limits. Its rules should never tend to stifle or discourage legitimate business enterprises or activities, nor should they be interpreted so as unduly and unnecessarily to burden those regulated with onerous obligations. On the other hand, the very statutory enactments evidence the need for regulation, and the necessary rules should be adopted or modifications made or rules should be repealed as changing requirements demand without fear or favor.

§ 200.68 Promptness.

Each member should promptly perform the duties with which he is charged by the statutes. The Commission should evaluate continuously its practices and procedures to assure that it promptly disposes of all matters affecting the rights of those regulated. This is particularly desirable in quasi-judicial proceedings. While avoiding arbitrary action in unreasonably or unjustly forcing matters to trial, members should endeavor to hold counsel to a proper appreciation of their duties to the public, their clients and others who are interested. Requests for continuances of matters should be determined in a manner consistent with this policy.

§ 200.69 Conduct toward parties and their counsel.

Members should be temperate, attentive, patient and impartial when hearing the arguments of parties or their counsel. Members should not condone unprofessional conduct by attorneys in their representation of parties. The Commission should continuously assure that its staff follows the same principles in their relationships with parties and counsel.

§ 200.70 Business promotions.

A member must not engage in any other business, employment or vocation while in office, nor may he ever use the power of his office or the influence of his name to promote the business interests of others.

§ 200.71 Fiduciary relationships.

A member should avoid service as a fiduciary if it would interfere or seem to interfere with the proper performance of his duties, or if the interests of those represented require investments in enterprises which are involved in questions to be determined by him. Such relationships would include trustees, executors, corporate directors, and the like.

§ 200.72 Supervision of internal organization.

Members and particularly the Chairman of the Commission should scrutinize continuously its internal organization in order to assure that such organization handles all matters before it efficiently and expeditiously, while recognizing that changing times bring changing emphasis in the administration of the laws.

Subpart D—Information and Requests

§ 200.80 Information and requests.

(a) A detailed description of the available informal procedures that may be employed to secure advice and to consult with members of the staff on problems relating to the statutes and regulations administered by the Commission is contained in the material published in Part 202 of this chapter.

(b) The Commission has specially staffed and equipped public reference rooms in its central offices at Washington, D.C., and in the New York and Chicago Regional Offices. More limited facilities for public use are provided in other regional and branch offices.

(c) During the Commission's regular business hours, the public may examine, in the Washington offices, copies of public information filed with the Commission, and certain other public documents. Available documents include registration statements, applications, and declarations filed under the various statutes administered by the Commission, records of Commission action, and certain other public record material.

(d) All regional offices have available for public examination copies of prospectuses used in recent offerings of securities registered under the Securities Act, of active broker-dealer and investment adviser applications originating in their respective regions, and of Regulation A letters of notification filed in their respective regions.

(e) In the New York offices of the Commission, other available materials include copies of recent periodic reports made by companies having securities listed on exchanges other than the New York Stock Exchange and the American Stock Exchange (reports by companies listed on the latter exchanges may be seen at the exchanges) and copies of current reports of many companies which have effective registration statements under the Securities Act of 1933.

(f) In the Chicago offices of the Commission, recent reports of companies which have securities listed on the New York and American stock exchanges are available.

(g) Certain materials are considered nonpublic or confidential and generally are not available to the public. Such documents include, but are not limited to: (1) Documents, papers, data or evidence obtained or made in the course of any nonpublic hearing, examination, or investigation; (2) correspondence, and internal Commission records and working papers, such as Minutes of Commission meetings and deliberations, staff drafts and working papers, intra-agency and internal memoranda, personnel documents, etc.; (3) material classified for purposes of national security; (4) letters or reports to members of Congress, Congressional committees, and other government agencies or officials unless and until such documents are made public by the recipients; (5) preliminary copies of proxy material, and (6) documents afforded confidential treatment pursuant to SEC statutes and rules.

(h) Photocopies of registration statements, reports, and other public material filed with the Commission, or portions thereof, may be obtained through the public reference room at the central offices of the Commission in Washington. Fees charged to the public for photocopies are established by an annual contract between the Commission and the private copier who does the work. Current schedules of fees for copying work are available from the public reference room or any regional or branch office. Inquiries and orders may be made to the public reference room in Washington personally, by telephone, or by mail.

(i) Annually the Records and Service Officer on behalf of the Commission makes a contract for stenographic reporting of hearings, examinations, and investigations in Washington and in the field. Interested members of the public may obtain copies of the transcript of public hearings from the contract reporter at prices set by tables of charges in the contract, copies of which are on file in the Commission offices in Washington and in each regional and branch office.

(j) The Commission publishes an annual report to the Congress which sets forth the result of the Commission's operations during the past fiscal year under the various statutes committed to its charge. Copies may be obtained from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C.

(k) The Commission's decisions, reports, orders, rules and regulations are published initially in the form of releases and distributed to the press and mailed to persons on the mailing list to receive them. The decisions and reports thereafter are printed in bound volumes entitled "Securities and Exchange Commission Decisions and Reports;" these volumes may be purchased from the Superintendent of Documents, United States Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C.

(l) The Commission also makes other information in the fields of securities and finance, including economic studies, available to the public through the issuance of releases on specific subject matters.

(m) A classification of the releases available from the Commission appears below as Appendix A to this part. Other publications available from the Commission are set forth in Appendix B to this part. Copies of statutes, rules and regulations, and miscellaneous publications set forth in Appendix C to this part may be purchased from the Superintendent of Documents, United States Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C.

APPENDIX A—CLASSIFICATION OF RELEASES AVAILABLE

Mailing lists are maintained in the following classifications only:

1. News Digest: A daily summary of orders, decisions, rules and rule proposals issued by the Commission under the various laws it administers, together with a resume of financing proposals contained in Securities Act registration statements and of other Commission announcements.

2. Rule Proposals: A special classification for those who wish to receive all proposals (except those referred to in item 3 below) for adoption of new rules of forms or amendments of existing rules or forms (under any of the SEC laws) in order to have an opportunity to submit views and comments thereon. Registrants affected by any such proposal will receive copies thereof whether or not they are on this list. For new or amended rules or forms, if and when adopted, see other release classifications.

3. All Rules Under Securities Act of 1933 (including those with respect to oil and gas royalties, securities and dealers) and under the Trust Indenture Act of 1939: This classification is only for new or amended rules as finally adopted. See classification 2 for proposed new or amended rules or forms.

4. All Rules Under Securities Exchange Act of 1934: This classification is only for new or amended rules, as finally adopted. See classification 2 for proposed new or amended rules or forms.

5. Holding Company Act Opinions and Rules: Special classification for those interested in Commission decisions and rules adopted under this Act (frequently, a summary of a decision is distributed in lieu of the full text thereof). See classification 2 for proposed new or amended rules or forms.

6. All Rules Under Investment Company Act of 1940: This classification is only for new or amended rules, as finally adopted. See classification 2 for proposed new or amended rules or forms.

7. All Rules Under Investment Advisers Act of 1940: This classification is only for new or amended rules, as finally adopted. See classification 2 for proposed new or amended rules or forms.

8. Accounting: A paper-bound book containing Accounting Series Releases Nos. 1 to 77, inclusive, amended to March 10, 1956, may be purchased from the Superintendent of Documents, Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D.C. for $1. Proposed new or amended accounting rules will be distributed to persons whose names appear on the accounting list. When any such revision in the accounting rules or other accounting release is adopted, one copy thereof will generally be distributed to each person on this list. However, where the new rule or release is lengthy or may not be of wide, general interest, a special "summary" briefly describing the rule or release will be distributed to this list. In such event, one copy of such newly adopted rule or release may be obtained by request from our Publications and Distribution Unit.

9. Corporate Reorganizations: Announcements relating to the Commission's activities under Chapter X of the Bankruptcy Act, as amended, and advisory reports (or summaries thereof) filed with Courts pursuant thereto.

10. Securities Traded on Exchanges: Annual directory and quarterly supplements of securities traded on national securities exchanges.

11. Individuals' Saving: Releases issued quarterly presenting data on the volume and composition of individuals' saving. (Information is also included in the SEC monthly Statistical Bulletin.)

12. Weekly Trading Data on New York Exchanges: SEC stock price indexes and daily round-lot and odd-lot transactions effected on the New York and American Stock Exchanges. (Information is also included in the SEC monthly Statistical Bulletin.)

13. Plant and Equipment Expenditures: Releases issued quarterly presenting data on plan and equipment expenditures of United States business, both actual and anticipated. Joint study of SEC and Department of Commerce. (Information is also included in the SEC monthly Statistical Bulletin.)

14. Net Working Capital: Releases issued quarterly presenting data on current assets and liabilities of all United States corporations. (Information is also included in the SEC monthly Statistical Bulletin.)

15. Quarterly Financial Reports: Releases issued quarterly summarizing balance sheet and income data for U.S. manufacturing corporations reflected in reports of joint SEC and FTC study. (Copies of reports available at GPO at cost of $1 per year.)

16. New Securities Offerings: Releases issued quarterly presenting data on all new securities offerings by corporations in the United States. (More detailed data is available in the SEC monthly Statistical Bulletin.)

17. Corporate Pension Funds: Releases issued annually presenting estimates of corporate pension fund assets and their composition and data on receipts and expenditures.

18. Litigation Releases: Releases announcing actions to enjoin violations of SEC laws and rules and developments in such actions, as well as developments in criminal prosecutions for securities violations.

§ 201.1 Scope of rules of practice.

These rules of practice are generally applicable to proceedings before the Commission under the statutes which it administers, particularly those which involve a hearing or opportunity for hearing before the Commission or its duly designated officer. In connection with any particular matter, reference should also be made to any special requirements of procedure and practice that may be contained in the particular statute involved or the rules and forms adopted by the Commission thereunder, which special requirements are controlling.

§ 201.2 Appearance and practice before the Commission.[1]

(a) By non-lawyers. An individual may appear in his own behalf, a member of a partnership may represent the partnership, a bona fide officer of a corporation, trust or association may represent the corporation, trust or association, and an officer or employee of a State commission or of a department or political subdivision of a State may represent the State commission or the department or political subdivision of the State, in any proceeding.

(b) By lawyers. A person may be represented in any proceeding by an attorney at law admitted to practice before the Supreme Court of the United States, or the highest court of any State or Territory of the United States, or the Court of Appeals or the District Court of the United States for the District of Columbia.

(c) Representation only as specified. A person shall not be represented at any hearing before the Commission or a hearing officer except as stated in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section or except as otherwise permitted by the Commission.

(d) Notice of appearance; power of attorney. When an attorney appears before the Commission or a hearing officer in a representative capacity in a particular proceeding which involves a hearing or an opportunity for hearing, he shall file with the Commission a written notice of such appearance, which shall state his name, address and telephone number and the name and address of the person or persons on whose behalf he appears. Any person appearing or practicing before the Commission in a representative capacity may be required to file a power of attorney with the Commission showing his authority to act in such capacity.

(e) Suspension and disbarment. The Commission may deny, temporarily or permanently, the privilege of appearing or practicing before it in any way to any person who is found by the Commission after notice of and opportunity for hearing in the matter (1) not to possess the requisite qualifications to represent others, or (2) to be lacking in character or integrity or to have engaged in unethical or improper professional conduct.

(f) Contemptuous conduct. Contemptuous conduct at any hearing before the Commission or a hearing officer shall be ground for exclusion from said hearing and for summary suspension without a hearing for the duration of the hearing.

(g) Practice defined. For the purposes of this rule, practicing before the Commission shall include, but shall not be limited to (1) transacting any business with the Commission; and (2) the preparation of any statement, opinion or other paper by any attorney, accountant, engineer or other expert, filed with the Commission in any registration statement, notification, application, report or other document with the consent of such attorney, accountant, engineer or other expert.

[1] Additional restrictions upon practice by former employees of the Commission are contained in Rule 6 of the Commission's Conduct Regulation (§ 200.36 of this chapter).

§ 201.3 Nonapplicability to investigations; transcripts in investigations.

(a) Nonapplicability of rules of practice. These rules of practice, other than § 201.2(e) and except to the extent to which these sections specifically refer to investigations, shall not be applicable to investigations conducted by the Commission pursuant to sections 8(e), 19(b), and 20(a) of the Securities Act of 1933; section 21(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; sections 11(a), 13(g), 18(a), 16(b) and 30 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935; section 321(a) of the Trust Indenture Act of 1939; section 209(a) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940; or sections 14(b) and 42(a) of the Investment Company Act of 1940.

(b) Right to copy of data or transcript of testimony. A person who has submitted data or evidence in such investigations shall be entitled to retain or procure a copy of his data or a transcript of his testimony on payment of the prescribed fees; provided, however, in the case of non-public investigations such person shall file a written request stating the reason for desiring to procure such copy or transcript. The Commission may in any non-public investigatory proceeding for good cause deny such request. In the latter event, such person, upon proper identification, shall have the right to inspect the official transcript of his testimony.

(c) Counsel for witnesses in investigations. Any person compelled to appear in person at an investigation designated in paragraph (a) of this section may be accompanied, represented and advised by counsel, but such counsel may not represent any other witness or any person being investigated, unless permitted in the discretion of the officer conducting the investigation or of the Commission upon being satisfied that there is no conflict of interest in such representation and that the presence of identical counsel for other witnesses or persons being investigated would not tend to hinder the course of the investigation.

§ 201.4 Issuance, amendment and repeal of rules of general application.

(a) By petition. Any person desiring the issuance, amendment or repeal of a rule of general application may file a petition therefor with the Secretary of the Commission. Such petition shall include a statement setting forth the text of any proposed rule or amendment desired or specifying the rule, the repeal of which is desired and stating the nature of his interest and his reasons for seeking the issuance, amendment or repeal of the rule. The Secretary shall acknowledge receipt of the petition and refer it to the Commission for such action as the Commission deems appropriate, and shall notify the petitioner of the action taken by the Commission.

(b) Notice of proposed issuance, amendment or repeal of rules. Except where the Commission finds that notice and public procedure are impracticable, unnecessary, or contrary to the public interest, whenever the Commission proposes to issue, amend, or repeal any rule or regulation of general application other than an interpretative rule, general statement of policy, or a rule of agency organization, procedure, or practice, or any matter relating to agency management or personnel or to public property, loans, grants, benefits, or contracts, there shall first be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER a notice of the proposed action.

Such notice shall include (1) a statement of the time, place, and nature of the rule-making proceeding, with particular reference to the manner in which interested persons shall be afforded the opportunity to participate in such proceedings; (2) reference to the authority under which the rule is proposed; and (3) the terms or substance of the proposed rule or a description of the subjects and issues involved.

§ 201.5 Business hours.

The principal office of the Commission, at 425 Second Street NW., Washington, D.C., is open each day, except Saturdays, Sundays, and holidays, from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., eastern standard time or eastern daylight-saving time, whichever is currently in effect in Washington.

§ 201.6 Notice of proceedings and hearings.

(a) Notice of proceedings; order for proceedings. Whenever an order for proceeding is issued by the Commission, appropriate notice thereof shall be given by the Secretary or other duly designated officer of the Commission to each party to the proceeding and any other person entitled to notice or to the person designated by any such party or person as being authorized to receive on his behalf notices issued by the Commission. The parties or persons entitled to notice shall be timely informed of the time, place and nature of any hearing and the legal authority and jurisdiction under which the hearing is to be held, and furnished a short and simple statement of the matters of fact and law to be considered and determined. In proceedings in which an answer is directed pursuant to § 201.7, the order for proceeding shall set forth the action proposed and the factual and legal basis alleged therefor in such detail as will permit a specific response thereto.

(b) Notice of hearing; service of notice. The time and place for any hearing in a proceeding shall be fixed with due regard for the public interest and the convenience and necessity of the parties or their representatives. Each party or person entitled to notice shall be given notice of hearing a reasonable time in advance of the hearing, and such notice may be given by personal service, by confirmed telegraphic notice or, in any proceedings other than those pursuant to section 8 of the Securities Act of 1933 or sections 305 or 307 of the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, by registered mail, addressed to his last known business or residence address or to the address of his agent for service.

(c) Publication of notice of hearing. Unless otherwise ordered by the Commission, notice of any public hearing shall be given general circulation by release to the public press and, where ordered, by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(d) Amendment of order for proceedings. In any proceeding amendments to the matters of fact and law to be considered may be authorized, for cause shown, by the hearing officer during the course of the hearing, or by the Commission at any time.

§ 201.7 Answers.

(a) When required. In any order for proceeding issued by the Commission, the Commission may direct that any party respondent shall file an answer to the allegations contained in the order for proceeding, and any party in any proceeding may file an answer.

(b) Time to file answer. Except where a different period is provided by rule or by order, a party respondent directed to file an answer as provided in paragraph (a) of this section shall do so within 15 days after service upon him of the order for proceeding. Any other person admitted to such a proceeding (except a person becoming a party under § 201.9(a)) may be required to file an answer within such time as is directed by the hearing officer or the Commission. Where amendments to the matters of fact and law to be considered in such proceeding are authorized subsequent to the institution of the proceeding, the parties may be required to answer within a reasonable time the matters of fact and law to be considered as amended.

(c) Requirements of answer; effect of failure to deny. Unless otherwise directed by the Commission, an answer required by this section shall specifically admit, deny, or state that the party does not have and is unable to obtain sufficient information to admit or deny, each allegation in the order for proceeding. A statement of a lack of information shall have the effect of a denial. Any allegation not denied shall be deemed to be admitted. When a party intends in good faith to deny only a part or a qualification of an allegation, he shall specify so much of it as is true and shall deny only the remainder.

(d) Motion for more definite statement. A party may file, with an answer required by this section, a motion for a more definite statement of specified matters of fact or law to be considered or determined. Such motion shall state the respects in which, and the reasons why, each such matter of fact or law should be required to be made more definite. If the motion is granted, the order granting such motion will set the periods in which such statement, and any answer thereto, shall be filed.

(e) Effect of failure to file answer. If a party fails to file an answer required by this section within the time provided, the proceeding may be determined against such party by the Commission upon consideration of the order for proceeding, the allegations of which may be deemed to be true.

(f) Signature on answer; requirement and effect. Every answer filed pursuant to this section shall be signed by the party filing it or by at least one attorney, in his individual name, who represents such party. The signature constitutes a certificate by the signer that he has read the answer; that to the best of his knowledge, information and belief there is good ground to support it; and that it is not interposed for delay.

§ 201.8 Settlements, pre-trial conferences and procedural agreements.

(a) Offers of settlement. (1) Parties may propose in writing offers of settlement which shall be submitted to and considered by the interested division of the Commission where time, the nature of the proceeding, and the public interest permit. Such offers may be made at any time during the course of the proceeding; and (2) the interested division shall present an offer of settlement to the Commission with its recommendation, except that where the division's recommendation is unfavorable, the offer shall not be presented to the Commission by the division unless the party making the offer so requests. Where the Commission deems it appropriate, it may also give the party making the offer an opportunity to make an oral presentation to the Commission. Where the Commission rejects an offer of settlement, the party making the offer shall be notified of the Commission's action and the offer of settlement shall be deemed withdrawn and such offer and any documents relating thereto shall not constitute a part of the record. Final acceptance by the Commission of any offer of settlement will be only by its Findings and Opinion issued in the proceedings.

(b) Specification of procedures. In any proceeding the moving party shall, in the moving papers or the notice of hearing if that is practicable, or, if not, as early as practicable in the course of the hearing, specify the procedures considered necessary or appropriate in the proceeding, with particular reference to (1) whether there should be a recommended decision by a hearing officer, (2) whether there should be a recommended decision by any other responsible officer of the Commission, (3) whether the interested division of the Commission may assist in the preparation of the Commission's decision, and (4) whether there should be a 30-day waiting period between the issuance of the Commission's order and the date it is to become effective. Any other party may object promptly or within such time as shall be designated by the hearing officer, having due regard to the circumstances of the case, to the procedure so specified and such party may specify such additional procedure as he considers necessary or appropriate; in the absence of such objection or specification of additional procedure, such party may be deemed to have waived objection to the specified procedure and to the omission of any procedure not specified, unless the Commission, for good cause shown and upon taking into account any resulting prejudice to other parties, determines the contrary.

(c) Conferences on procedure; stipulations. The hearing officer on his own motion may, or at the request of any party shall, call a conference of the parties at the opening of the hearing or at any subsequent time for the purpose of specifying and agreeing on the procedural steps to be followed or omitted in the proceeding. Any proposal as to the procedural matters enumerated in paragraph (b) of this section, or, subject to the approval of the hearing officer, any other procedural matter which is agreed upon by all parties present and which is not contrary to any specific provision of this part, shall be embodied in an appropriate stipulation, which shall become part of the record, and shall determine the procedure in that respect, except that the Commission may, upon taking into account any resulting prejudice to the parties, vary such procedure at the request of any party or on its own motion.

(d) Conferences on issues. During the course of any proceeding, to the extent practicable, where time, the nature of the proceeding and the public interest permit, the hearing officer shall, at the request of any party or upon his own motion, hold conferences for the purpose of clarifying and simplifying issues by consent of the parties.

§ 201.9 Parties and limited participation.

(a) Who may become parties; interested division a party. Any interested representative, agency, authority or instrumentality of the United States or any interested State, State commission, municipality or other political subdivision of a State shall become a party to any proceeding upon the filing of a written notice of appearance therein. The interested division of the Commission shall be deemed a party to all proceedings.

(b) Parties in broker-dealer proceedings. In proceedings under sections 15(b), 15A(1)(2) or 19(a)(3) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, any person associated with a member of a national securities association, a member of a national securities exchange, a broker or a dealer, whose interests may be affected by the proceedings, shall be entitled to participate as a party. If he participates generally in the proceedings or files a notice of appearance, he shall be deemed a party of record and will be given notices of intermediate developments in the proceedings. In any event he may inform himself of such developments by attendance at the hearings or examination of the record (whether the proceedings be public or private) or by arrangement with a party of record so that he can determine whether he desires to be heard at any time. The term "person associated" as used in this section shall mean a person associated with a member, broker or dealer in any of the capacities specified in sections 15(b) and 15A(b)(4) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

(c) Limited participation; leave to be heard. Any person may, at the discretion of the hearing officer, be given leave to be heard in any proceeding as to any matter affecting his interests. Requests for leave to be heard shall be in writing, shall set forth the nature and extent of the aplicant's interest in the proceeding, and, except where good cause for late filing is shown, shall be filed not later than 2 days prior to the date fixed for the commencement of the hearing, or where a respondent is required to answer, requests for leave to be heard shall be filed within the time provided for the filing of the answer. The hearing officer or the Commission may direct any person requesting leave to be heard to submit himself to examination as to his interest in the proceeding.

(d) Rights of participant. Leave to be heard pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section may include such rights of a party as the hearing officer may deem appropriate, except that oral argument before the Commission may be permitted only by the Commission upon written request therefor. Persons granted leave to be heard shall be bound, except as may be otherwise determined by the hearing officer, by any stipulation between the parties to the proceeding with respect to procedure, including submission of evidence, substitution of exhibits, corrections of the record, the time within which briefs or exceptions may be filed or proposed findings and conclusions may be submitted, the filing of recommended decisions, the procedure to be followed in the preparation of decisions, and the effective date of the Commission's order in the case. Where the filing of briefs or exceptions or the submission of proposed findings and conclusions are waived by the parties to the proceedings, a person granted leave to be heard pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section shall not be permitted to file a brief or exceptions or submit proposed findings and conclusions except by leave of the Commission or of the hearing officer, if the hearing is pending before the hearing officer. Except as may otherwise be specifically directed by the hearing officer at the request of any person granted leave to be heard, such person shall be expected to inform himself by attendance at public hearings and by examination of the public files of the Commission as to the various steps taken in the proceeding including continuances, the filing of amendments, answers, motions, or briefs by parties to the proceeding, or the fixing of time for any such action, and such person shall not be entitled as of right to other notice thereof, or to service of copies of documents.

(e) When intervention as party granted. Except as provided in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, no person shall be admitted as a party to a proceeding by intervention unless the Commission is satisfied on the basis of the written application of such person (and any evidence taken in connection therewith) that his participation as a party will be in the public interest, and that leave to be heard pursuant to paragraphs (c) and (d) of this section would be inadequate for the protection of his interests.

(f) Permission to state views. Any person who has not complied with the requirements of paragraph (c) of this section may, in the discretion of the hearing officer, be permitted to file a memorandum or make an oral statement of his views, and the hearing officer may accept for the record written communications received from any such person. Unless offered and admitted as evidence of the truth of the statements therein made, the memoranda and oral or written communications submitted pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph will be considered only to the extent that the statements therein made are otherwise supported by the record.

(g) Certain persons entitled to leave to be heard. The hearing officer is directed to grant leave to be heard under paragraph (c) or (f) of this section, whichever may be applicable, to any person to whom it is proposed to issue any security in exchange for one or more bona fide outstanding securities, claims or property interests, or partly in such exchange and partly for cash, where the Commission is authorized to approve the terms and conditions of such issuance and exchange after a hearing upon the fairness of such terms and conditions.

(h) Review by Commission; modification of participation provisions. Any ruling of the hearing officer as to matters within the scope of this section is subject to review by the Commission at the close of the proceeding, or at the Commission's discretion, in the course of the proceeding. The Commission may, by order in any case, modify the provisions of this section which would otherwise be applicable, and may impose such terms and conditions on the participation of any person in any proceeding as it may deem necessary or appropriate in the public interest.

§ 201.10 Consolidation.

By order of the Commission, proceedings involving a common question of law or fact may be joined for hearing of any or all the matters in issue in such proceedings and such proceedings may be consolidated; and the Commission may make such orders concerning the conduct of such proceedings as may tend to avoid unnecessary costs or delay.

§ 201.11 Hearings for the purpose of taking evidence; procedure.

(a) When held. Hearings for the purpose of taking evidence shall be held as ordered by the Commission.

(b) Presiding officers; public hearings. All such hearings shall be held before the Commission or a hearing officer, who shall be a hearing examiner or other officer duly designated by the Commission or shall be one or more members of the Commission. The hearings shall be conducted in an impartial and orderly manner. All such hearings, except hearings on applications for confidential treatment filed pursuant to the provisions of Clause 30 of Schedule A of the Securities Act of 1933, section 24(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, section 22(b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, section 45(a) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, section 210(a) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, or the rules and regulations promulgated under such sections, shall be public unless otherwise ordered by the Commission. No hearing shall be private where all respondents request that the hearing be made public.

(c) Disqualification of hearing officer. In any hearing for the purpose of taking evidence a hearing officer may withdraw from a case when he deems himself disqualified. In such event he shall immediately notify the Commission of his withdrawal and inform it of his reasons for such action. Any party or any person who has been granted leave to be heard pursuant to § 201.9 may in good faith request a hearing officer to withdraw on the grounds of personal bias or other disqualification. The person seeking disqualification shall file with the hearing officer a timely affidavit setting forth in detail the facts alleged to constitute grounds for disqualification, and the hearing officer may file a response thereto. If the hearing officer believes himself not disqualified, he shall so rule and proceed with the hearing. If the person seeking disqualification excepts from the ruling of the hearing officer, the hearing officer shall certify the question together with the affidavit and any response filed in connection with it, to the Commission. The Commission may rule on the question without hearing or it may require testimony or argument on the issues raised. The affidavit and response, any testimony taken, and the decision thereon shall be part of the record in the case.

(d) Functions of hearing officer. The hearing officer shall regulate the course of the hearing and during the course of such hearing shall rule upon procedural matters relating to the hearing, including applications for the issuance, modification or quashing of subpoenas and the taking of depositions and interrogatories pursuant to §§ 201.4(b) and 201.15. Upon notice to all parties, the hearing officer may reopen any hearing prior to the filing of a recommended decision therein, or, if no recommended decision is to be filed, prior to the time for filing briefs with the Commission.

(e) Rulings by hearing officer; exceptions. All applications, motions and objections made during the course of the hearing shall be made to and decided by the hearing officer, except that where his ruling would dispose of the proceeding in whole or in part, it shall be made in his recommended decision submitted after the conclusion of the hearing. Objections to the admission or exclusion of evidence must be made on the record and shall be in short form, stating the grounds of objections relied upon, and the transcript shall not include argument or debate thereon except as ordered by the hearing officer. Rulings by the hearing officer on all applications, motions and objections shall be part of the record. Exceptions to any ruling thereon by the hearing officer need not be noted at the time of the ruling in order to be urged before the Commission. Such exceptions will be deemed waived however, unless raised in accordance with § 201.12(a) or in the manner of a proposed finding in accordance with § 201.16(d) or in the manner of an exception to a recommended decision in accordance with § 201.17.

(f) Transcript of hearings. Hearings for the purpose of taking evidence shall be stenographically reported, and a transcript thereof shall be made.

§ 201.12 Motions and applications.

(a) Review of hearing officer's rulings. Upon exception to any ruling of the hearing officer, the matter shall, on request of a party, be promptly certified to the Commission for its consideration upon a finding by the hearing officer: (1) That there is at issue a privilege not to answer questions posed; or (2) that a subsequent reversal of the ruling by the Commission would unduly delay or prolong the proceeding or cause undue inconvenience to the parties, taking into consideration the probability of such reversal. If the hearing officer does not certify the matter, a party may apply to the Commission for review, or the Commission on its own motion may direct that the matter be submitted to it for review. Unless otherwise ordered by the hearing officer, the hearing before the hearing officer shall continue whether or not such certification or application is made. Failure to request certification or to make such an application will not waive the right to seek review of the ruling of the hearing officer after the close of the hearing pursuant to §§ 201.16(d) and 201.17. The Commission will prescribe the procedure for each application hereunder and paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section shall not apply.

(b) Motions to Commission. All motions and applications not required to be made to the hearing officer pursuant to § 201.11 shall be made to and ruled upon by the Commission.

(c) Filing of motions to Commission; briefs. Motions or applications calling for determination by the Commission shall be filed with the Secretary or other duly authorized officer of the Commission in writing, provided that motions or applications calling for determination by the Commission but made in the course of a hearing may be filed in writing with the hearing officer, who shall refer such motion or application to the Commission. Any such motion or application shall be accompanied by a written brief of the points and authorities relied upon in support of the same. Any party may file an answering brief within 5 days after service upon him of such motion or other application as provided in § 201.23, unless otherwise directed by the Commission. Motions and applications will be considered on the briefs filed following the time for filing the answering brief, unless otherwise directed by the Commission. No oral argument will be heard on such matters unless the Commission so directs. Unless otherwise ordered by the Commission or the hearing officer, the hearing shall continue pending the determination of the motion or application by the Commission.

§ 201.13 Extension of time and adjournments.

Except as otherwise provided by law, the Commission for cause shown may extend or shorten any time limits prescribed by this part for filing any papers and may postpone or adjourn any hearing. A hearing before a hearing officer shall begin at the time and place ordered by the Commission, provided that, within the limits provided by statute, the hearing officer may for good cause postpone the commencement of the hearing for not more than 7 days. Any convened hearing may be adjourned to such time and place as may be ordered by the Commission or by the hearing officer. It is the policy of the Commission that such adjournments shall be for not more than 30 days and in no event shall a hearing officer order an adjournment for a period in excess of 45 days.

§ 201.14 Evidence.

(a) Presentation and admission of evidence. All witnesses at a hearing for the purpose of taking evidence shall testify under oath or affirmation, which shall be administered by the hearing officer. Every party shall have the right to present such oral or documentary evidence and to conduct such cross-examination as may be required for a full and true disclosure of the facts. The hearing officer shall receive relevant and material evidence, rule upon offers of proof and exclude all irrelevant, immaterial or unduly repetitious evidence.

(b) Subpoenas; motions to quash or modify. (1) Any member of the Commission, the hearing officer or any other officer designated by the Commission for the purpose, in connection with any hearing ordered by the Commission,

(i) Shall issue subpoenas requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses at any designated place of hearing, upon application therefor by any party, and

(ii) May issue subpoenas requiring the production of documentary or other tangible evidence at any designated place of hearing, upon written application by any party, which shall include a showing of the general relevance, materiality and reasonable particularity of the documentary or other tangible evidence desired and the facts to be proved by them.

(2) In cases in which it is impracticable to make timely application to the hearing officer, any party may at his discretion apply to the Regional Administrator of the Commission who thereupon shall issue subpoenas requiring the attendance and testimony of witnesses upon the application of any party.

(3) Any person to whom a subpoena is directed may, prior to the time specified therein for compliance, but in no event more than 5 days after the date of service of such subpoena, apply to the hearing officer or, in the case of a subpoena issued by a member of the Commission, to the Commission to quash or modify such subpoena, accompanying such application with a brief statement of reasons therefor. Upon notice to the person upon whose application the subpoena was issued, and opportunity for hearing, the Commission or the hearing officer, as the case may be, may quash or modify the subpoena.

(c) Witness fees and mileage. Witnesses summoned before the Commission shall be paid the same fees and mileage that are paid to witnesses in the courts of the United States, and witnesses whose depositions are taken and the persons taking the same shall severally be entitled to the same fees as are paid for like services in the courts of the United States. Witness fees and mileage shall be paid by the party at whose instance the witnesses appear.

(d) Official notice. The Commission, the hearing officer or any Commission officer who is preparing a recommended decision may at the request of any party, or upon his own motion, take official notice of any material fact which might be judicially noticed by a district court of the United States, any matter in the public official records of the Commission, or any matter which is peculiarly within the knowledge of the Commission as an expert body. If official notice is requested or taken of a material fact not appearing in the evidence in the record, the parties, upon timely request, shall be afforded an opportunity to establish the contrary.

§ 201.15 Depositions and interrogatories.

(a) Applications and orders for depositions. Any party desiring to take a deposition shall make written application therefor, setting forth the reasons why such deposition should be taken, the name and residence of the witness, the matters concerning which it is expected to question the witness, and the time and place proposed for the taking of the deposition. Thereupon the hearing officer or Commission, as the case may be, may in his or its discretion, issue an order which will name the witness whose deposition is to be taken, state the scope of the testimony to be taken, and specify the time when, the place where, and the designated officer before whom the witness is to testify. Such order shall be served upon all parties by the Secretary, or other duly designated officer of the Commission, a reasonable time in advance of the time fixed for taking testimony.

(b) Testimony on depositions. Witnesses whose testimony is taken by deposition shall be sworn or shall affirm before any questions are put to them. Each question propounded shall be recorded and the answers shall be taken down in the words of the witness.

(c) Objections to questions or evidence. Objections to questions or evidence shall be in short form, stating the grounds of objection relied upon, but no transcript filed by the officer shall include argument or debate. Objections to questions or evidence shall be noted by the officer upon the deposition, but he shall not have power to decide on the competency or materiality or relevance of evidence. Failure to object to questions or evidence before the officer shall not be deemed a waiver unless the ground of the objection is one which might have been obviated or removed if presented at that time.

(d) Filing of depositions. The testimony shall be reduced to writing by the officer, or under his direction, after which the deposition shall be subscribed by the witness and certified in usual form by the officer. The original deposition and exhibits shall be forwarded under seal to the Secretary of the Commission with such number of copies as may be requested by the Secretary of the Commission. Upon receipt thereof the Secretary or other duly designated officer shall file the original in the proceeding and shall forward a copy to each party or his attorney of record.

(e) Form of depositions. Such depositions shall conform to the specifications of § 201.22 (e), (f) and (g), but deficiencies of form shall not invalidate the deposition if properly executed.

(f) Depositions as part of the record. Any part of a deposition not received in evidence at a hearing before the Commission or a hearing officer shall not constitute a part of the record in such proceeding, unless the parties shall so agree or the Commission so orders.

(g) Interrogatories. Depositions may also be taken and submitted on written interrogatories in substantially the same manner as depositions taken by oral examination upon application of any party as provided in paragraph (a) of this section. The interrogatories shall be filed with the application in triplicate. Within ten (10) days after service, any party may file with the Secretary his objections, if any, to such interrogatories, and may file such cross-interrogatories as he desires to submit. Such objections and cross-interrogatories shall be filed in triplicate and all other parties shall have ten (10) days after service to file their objections, if any, to such interrogatories. Objections to interrogatories or cross-interrogatories shall be settled by the hearing officer. Objections to interrogatories shall be made before the order for taking the deposition issues and if not so made shall be deemed waived. When a deposition is taken upon written interrogatories and cross-interrogatories, no party shall be present or represented, and no person other than the witness, a stenographic reporter, and the officer shall be present at the examination of the witness, which fact shall be certified by the officer, who shall propound the interrogatories and cross-interrogatories to the witness in their order. The testimony shall be reduced to writing by the officer or under his direction and shall be subscribed by the witnesses and certified in usual form by the officer.

§ 201.16 Proposed findings and conclusions; recommended decision.[2]

(a) Effect of failure to appear at hearing. Unless a party otherwise indicates his objections thereto or the Commission otherwise directs, a party's failure to appear at a hearing of which he has been properly notified, shall be deemed to be a waiver of his right to a recommended decision in the proceeding, and of his right to object to the participation of the interested division of the Commission in the preparation of the Commission's decision.

(b) When recommended decision required. The hearing officer shall prepare a recommended decision in any proceeding in which a hearing officer's decision is required under the Administrative Procedure Act, unless such requirement is waived by all parties, and in any other proceeding in which the Commission directs him to prepare such decision.

(c) Recommended decision by interested division. Except to the extent that the Commission directs otherwise, in any proceeding where a recommended decision is to be prepared by any officer of the Commission other than the hearing officer, such recommended decision shall be prepared by the staff of the interested division.

(d) Proposed findings and conclusions; briefs. In any proceeding involving a hearing or an opportunity for hearing, the parties may file in writing proposed findings and conclusions. Proposed findings of fact shall indicate the basis therefor by appropriate citations to the record. Briefs in support of such proposals may be filed therewith or as a part thereof, and any proposed finding or conclusion not briefed may be regarded as waived.

(e) Time for filing proposed findings and briefs prescribed by hearing officer. At the end of every hearing, the hearing officer shall, after consultation with the parties, prescribe the period within which such proposed findings and conclusions and supporting briefs are to be filed and shall direct such filings to be either simultaneous or successive, provided, however, that the period within which the first filing is to be made shall not exceed 30 days after the close of the hearing. If successive filings are directed the proposed findings and conclusions of the moving party shall be set forth in serially numbered paragraphs and any counter statement of proposed findings and conclusions must, in addition to any other matter, indicate as to which paragraphs of the moving party's proposals there is no dispute. Reply briefs may be filed by the moving party or, where simultaneous filings are directed, by all parties, within the period prescribed therefor by the hearing officer.

(f) Service of record; preparation and filing of recommended decision. In proceedings in which a recommended decision is to be prepared, the record in the proceeding shall, promptly after the time for the last filing of briefs in reply to proposed findings, be served by the Records Officer upon the person designated to prepare the recommended decision. Such person shall file his recommended decision with the Secretary within 30 days after such service and it shall promptly be served upon the parties. The recommended decision shall set forth separately, in serially numbered paragraphs, the findings of fact and conclusions forming the basis thereof.

§ 201.17 Exceptions to recommended decisions.[2]

(a) Time for filing exceptions; effect of failure to file. Within 10 days after receipt of a recommended decision of a hearing officer, any party may serve and file written exceptions thereto indicating specifically the paragraphs to which exceptions are taken. Any objections to a recommended decision not saved by exception filed pursuant to this section will be deemed to have been abandoned and may be disregarded.

(b) Time for filing briefs; oral argument on exceptions. A brief in support of such exceptions or in support of one or more paragraphs of the recommended decision may be served and filed within 20 days after receipt of the recommended decision, and any exception not briefed may be regarded as waived. A reply brief may be served and filed within 10 days of service of the original brief. Exceptions may be argued orally only before the Commission.

(c) Time for filing recommended decision by division. In any proceeding in which the recommended decision is prepared by the interested division of the Commission this section shall apply, except that the time limits on actions hereunder shall be such as shall be set by the hearing officer at the end of the hearing.

§ 201.18 Briefs.

Briefs shall be confined to the particular matters remaining at issue. Briefs not filed at or before the time provided will not be received except upon special permission of the Commission. Each exception which is briefed shall be supported by a concise argument and by citation of such statutes, decisions and other authorities and by page references to such portions of the record, as may be relevant. If the exception relates to the admission or exclusion of evidence, the substance of the evidence admitted or excluded shall be set forth in the brief with appropriate references to the transcript. Reply briefs shall be confined to matters in original briefs of other parties.

§ 201.19 Special time limits for broker-dealer suspension cases.

In any proceeding pursuant to section 15(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 on the question of suspension of registration of a broker or dealer pending final determination whether such registration shall be revoked, the following time limits shall be applicable, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission, in lieu of the time limits prescribed by other provisions of this part:

(a) Proposed findings and briefs. Proposed findings and conclusions and briefs in support thereof may be filed within 3 days after the close of the hearing.

(b) Recommended decision. In proceedings in which a recommended decision is to be prepared, the record in the proceedings shall, promptly after the time for filing proposed findings and conclusions and briefs in support thereof, be served by the Records Officer upon the person designated to prepare the recommended decision. Such person shall file his recommended decision with the Secretary within 5 days after such service and it shall promptly be served upon the parties.

(c) Exceptions. Within 3 days after the receipt of a recommended decision of a hearing officer, any party may serve and file written exceptions thereto.

(d) Briefs. A brief in support of such exceptions or in support of one or more paragraphs of the recommended decision may be served and filed within 5 days after receipt of the recommended decision. A reply brief may be served and filed within 4 days of service of the original brief.

§ 201.20 Contents and certification of record.

(a) Contents of Record. (1) The record in every proceeding before the Commission for final decision shall include:

[2] See § 201.19 for special time limits applicable to broker-dealer suspension cases.

(i) The order for proceedings, the notice of hearing and any amendments thereto;

(ii) Any responsive pleading and any amendments thereto;

(iii) The moving papers to the extent the same are not comprehended under subdivision (i) of this subparagraph;

(iv) Any other document or portion thereof which constitutes part of the official public records of the Commission and which is specified in the documents listed in subdivision (i), (ii) or (iii) of this subparagraph, unless the hearing officer shall determine the same to be irrelevant, immaterial or unduly repetitious;

(v) Any affidavit and response, testimony taken and decision in connection with a request to withdraw under § 201.11(c);

(vi) Proofs of service;

(vii) Any application, motion or objection made in the course of the proceeding, rulings thereon and exceptions thereto;

(viii) Any stipulation between the parties as to any matter of fact, law or procedure;

(ix) The transcript of testimony and any specification of corrections thereof;

(x) Any exhibit received at the hearing, including any document or portion thereof constituting part of the official public records of the Commission which the hearing officer during the course of the hearing may incorporate by reference upon a determination that it is relevant, material and not unduly repetitious;

(xi) Any written communication accepted by the hearing officer pursuant to § 201.9(f);

(xii) Any proposed findings and conclusions; and (xiii) Any recommended decision and exceptions thereto.

(2) At the beginning of the hearing, the hearing officer shall read into the record a list of the documents which at that time constitute the record.

(3) The documents or portions thereof referred to in subdivisions (iv) and (x) of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall be deemed to have been received in evidence as exhibits whether or not they have been physically introduced.

(4) Promptly after the close of the hearing, the hearing officer shall transmit to the Records Officer of the Commission or his designated deputy a list of documents or portions thereof constituting part of the public official records of the Commission which during the course of the hearing have been admitted as exhibits pursuant to subparagraph (1)(x) of this paragraph, or excluded pursuant to subparagraph (1)(iv) of this paragraph, and a copy of any written communication accepted pursuant to § 201.9(f), application, motion, objection, ruling or stipulation made in writing during the proceeding which has not theretofore been filed with the Secretary or other duly designated officer of the Commission or included in the transcript. Promptly after the last date for filing briefs, and prior to any oral arguments before the Commission, the Records Officer of the Commission or his duly designated deputy shall certify the entire record to the Commission for final decision, provided that documents or portions thereof constituting part of the official records of the Commission may be incorporated by reference and need not be physically transferred to the record.

(b) Retention of documents not admitted in evidence; substitution of copies. (1) Documents offered in evidence during the course of a hearing but excluded by the hearing officer, and documents marked for identification but not offered as exhibits, shall not be considered as a part of the record, but any such document shall be retained in the custody of the Commission.

(2) With the consent of the parties a copy may be substituted for a document which is retained pursuant to the provisions of this paragraph.

(c) Correction of transcript. Any party may submit a timely request to the hearing officer to correct the transcript. Proposed corrections of the transcript may be submitted to the hearing officer by stipulation of the parties, or by a motion by any party, and, upon notice to all parties to the proceeding, the hearing officer may specify corrections of the transcript. A copy of such specification shall be furnished to all parties and made a part of the record.

(d) Scandalous or impertinent matter. Any scandalous or impertinent matter contained in any brief or pleading or in connection with any oral presentation in a proceeding may be stricken on order of the Commission or at the direction of the hearing officer.

§ 201.21 Hearings before the Commission.

(a) Oral argument. Except as to motions and applications dealt with in § 201.12, upon written request of any party a matter to be decided by the Commission will be set down for oral argument before the Commission unless exceptional circumstances make oral argument impractical or inadvisable. Such request must be made within the time provided for filing the original briefs.

(b) Time allowed. Unless otherwise directed by the Commission, not more than 1 hour will be allowed for oral argument by any participant and, where the same or similar interests are represented by more than 1 participant, an aggregate of not more than 1 hour will be allowed the interests so represented irrespective of the number of participants, the time to be divided equally among such participants. In appropriate cases the Commission may, in its discretion, extend, shorten or reallocate the time prescribed herein. Oral argument should be succinct.

(c) Basis for Commission determinations. The Commission shall determine the matter on the record, any briefs of the parties and any oral argument before the Commission.

(d) Leave to adduce additional evidence. The Commission, upon its own motion or upon application in writing by any party for leave to adduce additional evidence which application shall show to the satisfaction of the Commission that such additional evidence is material and that there were reasonable grounds for failure to adduce such evidence at the hearing before the Commission or the hearing officer, may hear such additional evidence or may refer the proceeding to the hearing officer for the taking of such additional evidence.

(e) Petition for rehearing. Any petition for rehearing by the Commission shall be filed within 5 days after issuance of the order complained of and shall clearly state the specific grounds and the specific matters upon which rehearing is sought.

§ 201.22 Filing; formalities; computation of time.

(a) Filing with Commission. All papers required to be filed with the Commission in any proceeding shall be filed with the Secretary, and must be received at the office of the Commission in Washington, D.C., within the time limit, if any, for such filing.

(b) Docket of proceedings. A docket of all proceedings shall be maintained by the Commission, and each proceeding shall be assigned a number.

(c) Number of copies. Unless otherwise specifically provided in this part or by a particular rule or order of the Commission an original and 7 copies of all papers shall be filed.

(d) Length and form of briefs. All briefs, including briefs filed pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section, containing more than 10 pages shall include an index and table of cases. The date of each brief must appear on its front cover or title page. No brief shall exceed 60 pages in length, except with the permission of the Commission.

(e) Paper, spacing, type. All papers filed under this part shall be typewritten, mimeographed or printed, shall be plainly legible, shall be on one grade of good unglazed white paper approximately 8 inches wide and 10½ inches long, with left-hand margin 1½ inches wide, and shall be bound on the left-hand side. They shall be double spaced, except that quotations shall be single-spaced and indented. If printed, they shall be in either 10- or 12-point type with double-leaded text and single-leaded quotations.

(f) Signatures. All papers must be signed in ink by the party filing the same, or his duly authorized agent or attorney, and must show the address of the signer.

(g) Title page. All papers filed must include at the head thereof, or on a title page, the name of the Commission, the title of the proceeding, the names of the parties, and the subject of the particular paper or pleading, and the docket number assigned to the proceeding.

(h) Signature on orders. All orders of the Commission shall be signed by the Secretary or such other person as may be authorized by the Commission.

(i) Time allowances for residents of distant states. Wherever the rules in this part provide a specific limitation as to the time within which any papers are required to be filed with the Commission in any proceeding, an additional period of 3 days shall be available for the hearing officers and parties who are residents of Alaska, Arizona, California, Colorado, Hawaii, Idaho, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Mexico, North Dakota, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah, Washington, and Wyoming.

(j) Computation of time. In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by this part or by order of the Commission the day of the act, event, or default after which the designated period of time begins to run is not to be included. The last day of the period so computed is to be included, unless it is Saturday, Sunday or a legal holiday in the District of Columbia, in which event the period runs until the end of the next day which is neither a Saturday, Sunday nor a holiday. Intermediate Saturdays, Sundays and holidays shall be included in the computation.

§ 201.23 Service of pleadings, etc. other than moving papers.

(a) Service of documents filed with Commission. All amendments to moving papers, all answers, all motions or applications made in the course of a proceeding (unless made orally during a hearing), all proposed findings and conclusions, all exceptions to any recommended decision, and all briefs shall be filed with the Commission and shall, at the time of personal delivery or dispatch to the Commission, be served by the filing party upon all other parties to the proceeding (including the interested division of the Commission), provided that such papers relating to proceedings concerning confidential treatment pursuant to provisions of Clause 30 of Schedule A of the Securities Act of 1933, section 24(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, section 22(b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, section 45(a) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, or section 210(a) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, and the rules and regulations promulgated under such sections, shall be served only by filing the appropriate number of copies thereof upon the Commission.

(b) How service made. Service of such documents shall be made by personal service on, or by mail addressed to, the party or his attorney or other agent for service. Where service is made by mail on a person located more than 500 miles from the point of mailing, airmail must be used. Where the document being served is printed, 2 copies shall be served on each party or his attorney or other agent for service. Service shall be deemed made at the time of personal service or of deposit in the mails properly addressed and post-paid. Where a party makes service by mail, any specific limitation on the time within which the person on whom such mail service has been made may respond thereto shall be increased by 2 days.

(c) Proof of service. Proof of service must be made by filing with the Commission an affidavit of service or, in the case of any attorney-at-law, a certificate, simultaneously with the filing of the required number of copies with the Commission.

(d) Service of decisions and orders. Copies of all recommended decisions, decisions, orders and rulings by the Commission on any written application shall be served by the Secretary or other duly designated officer of the Commission on the applicant and, if made in connection with a pending proceeding, on all parties thereto.

§ 201.24 Incorporation by reference.

(a) Requirements. Where rules, regulations, or instructions to forms permit incorporation by reference, a document may be so incorporated only by reference to the specific document and to the prior filing in which it was physically filed, not to another file which incorporates it by reference. No document which has been on file with the Commission for a period of more than 10 years may be incorporated by reference in a current filing except basic documents as designated under paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Basic documents. The Commission, on its own initiative or upon request, may classify as basic documents certain documents filed under the various Acts administered by the Commission, which appear to the Commission to possess such administrative, legal, historical or other values as to warrant being retained and considered available for incorporation by reference for an indefinite period. Requests for such classification shall be submitted to the Commission in duplicate and shall contain (1) a precise description of the document and of the filing in which it is physically filed and (2) the reasons for the request. A request will be considered to have been granted if notification of denial is not given within 60 days of the receipt of the request. If the Commission grants a request pursuant to this paragraph, it may subsequently dispose of any basic document the retention of which would in its opinion no longer serve a substantial purpose, after giving the person who made the request notice of the proposed disposition and an opportunity to object thereto.

§ 201.25 Availability of information to public.

(a) Information in documents filed with Commission generally public. Unless otherwise provided by statute or rule or otherwise directed by the Commission, all information contained in any notification, statement, application, declaration, recommended decision, or other document filed with the Commission pursuant to requirement of a statute or a rule or order of this Commission shall be available to the public.

(b) Inspection, purchase of copies and certification of public records. Public material may be inspected in the Public Reference Room at the principal office of the Commission, and such material on file at regional offices of the Commission may be inspected at these offices during regular business hours. Copies of public material will be sold to any person upon payment of the proper fees. A schedule of such fees will be mailed on request. In addition to any copying charge, a charge of $2.00 will be made for each certification relating to the Commission's records without additional charge for the seal of the Commission, which will be affixed in all instances.

(c) Publication of final opinions, orders and rules. All final opinions and orders entered by the Commission in the adjudication of cases, and all rules of the Commission shall be released for general publication, except where confidential treatment has for good cause been directed by the Commission. Copies of such published material shall be available for public inspection at the office of the Commission or may be obtained by mail on request. Bound volumes of past Decisions and Reports are obtainable from the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. at a prescribed charge.

(d) Purchase of transcripts of public hearings. Transcripts of public hearings will be supplied by the official reporter at the prescribed rates.

§ 201.26 Confidential treatment of certain matters.

(a) Requests for confidential treatment. Confidential treatment of material listed in § 201.25(a) may be requested for good cause where authorized by statute. Request for confidential treatment may be made pursuant to the provisions of Clause 30 of Schedule A of the Securities Act of 1933 and § 230.485 of this chapter thereunder, section 24(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and § 240.24b-2 of this chapter thereunder, section 22(b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and § 250.104 of this chapter thereunder, section 45(a) of the Investment Company Act of 1940 and § 270.45a-1 of this chapter thereunder, or section 210(a) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. In any case where a hearing for the purpose of taking testimony relating to whether confidential treatment should be granted or continued is to be held, the Commission may in its discretion, prior to the hearing, require the person desiring the confidential treatment to furnish in writing additional information in respect of its grounds of objection to public disclosure. Failure to supply the information so requested within 15 days from the date of receipt by the registrant of a notice of the information required, shall be deemed a waiver of the objections to public disclosure of that portion of the information filed confidentially with respect to which the additional information required by the Commission relates, unless the Commission shall otherwise order for good cause shown at or before the expiration of such 15-day period.

(b) Procedure in confidential treatment cases. All papers containing data as to which confidential treatment is sought, together with any application making objection to the disclosure thereof, or other papers relating in any way to such application, shall be made available to the public only in accordance with orders of the Commission and/or the applicable provisions of § 230.485 of this chapter issued under the Securities Act of 1933, § 240.24b-2 of this chapter issued under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, § 250.104 of this chapter issued under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, section 45 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 and § 270.45a–1 of this chapter issued under that Act, or section 210(a) of the Investment Advisers Act of 1940.

Proposed findings and conclusions and briefs in support of such proposed findings and conclusions, a recommended decision, exceptions thereto and briefs in support of or in opposition to such exceptions which are filed in connection with any proceeding concerning confidential treatment shall, unless otherwise ordered by the Commission, be for the confidential use only of the hearing officer, the Commission, the parties and counsel. The initial page of copies of such a recommended decision will contain a statement that such decision is nonpublic. The order of the Commission sustaining or denying the application for confidential treatment shall be made available to the public. Any findings or opinion issued by the Commission in any proceeding relating to confidential treatment shall be made public at such time as the material filed confidentially is made available to the public.

(c) Information obtained in investigations. Information or documents obtained by the Commission in the course of any examination or investigation shall, unless made a matter of public record, be deemed confidential. Officers and employees are hereby prohibited from making such confidential information or documents available to anyone other than a member, officer, or employee of the Commission, unless the Commission authorizes the disclosure of such information or the production of such documents as not being contrary to the public interest. Any officer or employee who is served with a subpoena requiring the disclosure of such information or the production of such documents shall appear in court and, unless the authorization described in the preceding sentence shall have been given, shall respectfully decline to disclose the information or produce the documents called for, basing his refusal upon this section. Any officer or employee who is served with such a subpoena shall promptly advise the Commission of the service of such subpoena, the nature of the information or documents sought, and any circumstances which may bear upon the desirability of making available such information or documents.

(d) Purchase of transcripts of private hearings. Transcripts of private hearings will be supplied to the parties at the prescribed rates.

AUTHORITY: §§ 202.1 to 202.7 issued under secs. 19, 23, 48 Stat. 85, 901, as amended, sec. 20, 49 Stat. 833, 53 Stat. 1173, secs. 38, 211, 54 Stat. 841, 855; 15 U.S.C. 77s, 77sss, 78w, 79t, 80a–37, 80b–11.

§ 202.1 General.

(a) The statutes administered by the Commission provide generally (1) for the filing with it of certain statements, such as registration statements, periodic and ownership reports, and proxy solicitation material, and for the filing of certain plans of reorganization, applications and declarations seeking Commission approvals; (2) for Commission determination through formal procedures of matters initiated by private parties or by the Commission; (3) for the investigation and examination of persons and records where necessary to carry out the purposes of the statutes and for enforcement of statutory provisions; and (4) for the adoption of rules and regulations where necessary to effectuate the purposes of the statutes.

(b) In addition to the Commission's rules of practice set forth in Part 201 of this chapter, the Commission has promulgated rules and regulations pursuant to the several statutes it administers (Parts 230, 240, 250, 260, 270 and 275 of this chapter). These parts contain substantive provisions and include as well numerous provisions detailing the procedure for meeting specific standards embodied in the statutes. The Commission's rules and regulations under each of the statutes are available in pamphlet form upon request to the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D.C.

(c) The statutes and the published rules, regulations and forms thereunder prescribe the course and method of formal procedures to be followed in Commission proceedings. These are supplemented where feasible by certain informal procedures designed to aid the public and facilitate the execution of the Commission's functions. There follows a brief description of procedures generally followed by the Commission which have not been formalized in rules.

(d) The informal procedures of the Commission are largely concerned with the rendering of advice and assistance by the Commission's staff to members of the public dealing with the Commission. While opinions expressed by members of the staff do not constitute an official expression of the Commission's views, they represent the views of persons who are continuously working with the provisions of the statute involved. And any statement by the director, associate director, assistant director, chief accountant, chief counsel, or chief financial analyst of a division can be relied upon as representing the views of that division. In certain instances an informal statement of the views of the Commission may be obtained. The staff, upon request or on its own motion, will generally present questions to the Commission which involve matters of substantial importance and where the issues are novel or highly complex, although the granting of a request for an informal statement by the Commission is entirely within its discretion.

§ 202.2 Pre-filing assistance and interpretative advice.

The staff of the Commission renders interpretative and advisory assistance to members of the general public, prospective registrants, applicants and declarants. For example, persons having a question regarding the availability of an exemption may secure informal administrative interpretations of the applicable statute or rule as they relate to the particular facts and circumstances presented. Similarly, persons contemplating filings with the Commission may receive advice of a general nature as to the preparation thereof, including information as to the forms to be used and the scope of the items contained in the forms. Inquiries may be directed to an appropriate officer of the Commission's staff. In addition, informal discussions with members of the staff may be arranged whenever feasible, at the Commission's central office or, except in connection with matters under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and certain matters under the Investment Company Act of 1940, at one of its regional offices.

§ 202.3 Processing of filings.

(a) Registration statements, proxy statements, letters of notification, periodic reports, applications for qualification of indentures, and similar documents filed with the Commission under the Securities Act of 1933 and the Trust Indenture Act of 1939, and certain filings under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and the Investment Company Act of 1940 are routed to the Division of Corporation Finance, which passes initially on the adequacy of disclosure and recommends the initial action to be taken. If the filing appears to afford inadequate disclosure, as for example through omission of material information or through violation of accepted accounting principles and practices, the usual practice is to bring the deficiency to the attention of the person who filed the document by a letter from the Assistant Director assigned supervision over the particular filing, and to afford a reasonable opportunity to discuss the matter and make the necessary corrections. This informal procedure is not generally employed where the deficiencies appear to stem from careless disregard of the statutes and rules or a deliberate attempt to conceal or mislead or where the Commission deems formal proceedings necessary in the public interest. Where it appears that the filing affords adequate disclosure, acceleration of its effectiveness when appropriate normally will be granted.

A similar procedure is followed with respect to filings under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and the Investment Company Act of 1940, which are routed to the Division of Corporate Regulation.

(b) Applications for registration as brokers, dealers and investment advisers are submitted to the Division of Trading and Exchanges where they are examined to determine whether all necessary information has been supplied and whether all required financial statements and other documents have been furnished in proper form. Defective applications may be returned with a request for correction or held until corrected before being accepted as a filing. The files of the Commission and other sources of information are considered to determine whether any person connected with the applicant appears to have engaged in activities which would warrant commencement of proceedings on the question of denial of registration. The staff confers with applicants and makes suggestions in appropriate cases for amendments and supplemental information. Where it appears appropriate in the public interest and where a basis therefor exists, denial proceedings may be instituted. Normally, absent indications of willful violations, the Commission will accelerate the effective date of registration upon request and after correction of all deficiencies.

§ 202.4 Facilitating administrative hearings.

(a) Applications, declarations, and other requests involving formal Commission action after opportunity for hearing are scrutinized by the appropriate division for conformance with applicable statutory standards and Commission rules and generally the filing party is advised of deficiencies. Prior to passing upon applications and declarations the Commission receives the views of all interested persons at public hearings whenever appropriate; hence, any applicant or declarant seeking Commission approval of proposed transactions by a particular time should file his application or declaration in time to allow for the presentation and consideration of such views.

(b) After the staff has had an opportunity to study an application or declaration, interested persons may informally discuss the problems therein raised to the extent that time and the nature of the case permit (e.g., consideration is usually given to whether the proceeding is contested and if so to the nature of the contest). In such event, the staff will, to the extent feasible, advise as to the nature of the issues raised by the filing, the necessity for any amendments to the documents filed, the type of evidence it believes should be presented at the hearing and, in some instances, the nature, form, and contents of documents to be submitted as formal exhibits. The staff will, in addition, generally advise as to Commission policy in past cases which dealt with the same subject matter as the filing under consideration.

(c) During the course of the hearings, the staff is generally available for informal discussions to reconcile bona fide divergent views not only between itself and other persons interested in the proceedings, but among all interested persons; and, when circumstances permit, an attempt is made to narrow, if possible, the issues to be considered at the formal hearing.

(d) In some instances the Commission in the order accompanying its findings and opinion reserves jurisdiction over certain matters relating to the proceeding, such as payment of fees and expenses, accounting entries, terms and conditions relating to securities to be issued, and other matters. In such cases, upon receipt of satisfactory information and data the Commission considers whether further hearing is required before releasing jurisdiction.

§ 202.5 Enforcement activities.

(a) Where, from complaints received from members of the public, communications from Federal or State agencies, examination of filings made with the Commission, or otherwise, it appears that there may be violation of the acts administered by the Commission or the rules or regulations thereunder, a preliminary investigation is generally made. In such preliminary investigation no process is issued or testimony compelled. When it appears from information obtained either with or without a preliminary investigation that there is a likelihood that a violation has been or is about to be committed and that the issuance of process may be necessary, the matter is reported to the Commission, which may then order a formal investigation or examination if it is deemed necessary. Unless otherwise ordered by the Commission, the investigation or examination is nonpublic and the reports thereon are for staff and Commission use only.

(b) Where it appears after investigation or otherwise that there has been a violation of any of the provisions of the acts administered by the Commission or the rules or regulations thereunder, the Commission may take one or more of the following actions: institution of administrative proceedings looking to the imposition of remedial sanctions, initiation of injunction proceedings in the courts, and, in the case of a willful violation, reference of the matter to the Department of Justice for criminal prosecution. The Commission may also on some occasions refer the matter to other Federal agencies, State authorities or organizations such as the stock exchanges or the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc.

§ 202.6 Adoption, revision, and rescission of rules and regulations of general application.

(a) The procedure followed by the Commission in connection with the adoption, revision, and rescission of rules of general application necessarily varies in accordance with the nature of the rule, the extent of public interest therein, and the necessity for speed in its adoption. Rules relating to Commission organization, procedure and management, for example, are generally adopted by the Commission without affording public discussion thereof. On the other hand, in the adoption of substantive rules materially affecting an industry or a segment of the public, such as accounting rules, every feasible effort is made in advance of adoption to receive the views of persons to be affected. In such cases, proposals for the adoption, revision, or rescission of rules are initiated either by the Commission or by members of the public, and to the extent practicable, the practices set forth in paragraph (b) of this section are observed.

(b) After preliminary consideration by the Commission a draft of the proposed rule is published in the FEDERAL REGISTER and mailed to interested persons (e.g., other interested regulatory bodies, principal registrants or persons to be affected, stock exchanges, professional societies and leading authorities on the subject concerned, and other persons requesting such draft) for criticism and suggestions. Unless otherwise requested written comments and suggestions received become a part of the public record upon the proposed rule. Following analysis of comments and suggestions received, the rule may be adopted in the form published or in revised form in the light of such comments. In some cases a revised draft is prepared and published and, where appropriate, a public hearing may be held before final action upon the proposal. Any interested person may appear at the hearing or may submit written comment for consideration in accordance with the Commission's notice of the rule-making procedure to be followed. The rule in the form in which it is adopted by the Commission is publicly released and is published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

§ 202.7 Submittals.

All required statements, reports, applications, etc., must be filed with the central office of the Commission, except that letters of notification filed pursuant to §§ 230.251 et seq. of this chapter, under the Securities Act of 1933 and reports of financial condition by exchange members, brokers, and dealers required by § 240.17a–5 of this chapter under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 must be filed with the appropriate regional office as provided in § 230.255(a) of this chapter under the Securities Act of 1933 and § 240.17a–5(a) of this chapter under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, respectively.

By the Commission.

Title 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter VIII—Commodity Stabilization Service (Sugar), Department of Agriculture

SUBCHAPTER B—SUGAR REQUIREMENTS AND QUOTAS

[Sugar Reg. 811, Amdt. 2]

PART 811—CONTINENTAL SUGAR REQUIREMENTS AND AREA QUOTAS

Determination and Proration of Area Deficits and Adjusted Quotas

Basis and purpose. The purpose of this amendment to Sugar Regulation 811 is to determine and prorate deficits in quotas for domestic areas pursuant to the provisions of the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended, and as further amended by Public Law 86–592 approved July 6, 1960. By Proclamation No. 3355 effective July 8, 1960 (25 F.R. 6414) the President of the United States delegated to the Secretary of Agriculture the authority vested in the President by section 408(b)(2) and section 408(b)(3) of the Act, such authority to be exercised with the concurrence of the Secretary of State. By virtue of such delegation of authority, and pursuant to section 204(a) and section 408(b)(2) of the Act, the deficits of domestic areas determined herein are allocated to other domestic areas. The total of such deficits include 155,334 short tons, raw value, which is equivalent to the quantity allocable from such deficits to Cuba. By virtue of the determination by the President of the quota for Cuba in Proclamation No. 3355 such 155,334 short tons, raw value, are not allocable to Cuba and, with the concurrence of the Secretary of State, are allocated by this regulation to domestic areas pursuant to section 408(b)(2) of the Act. Of the total of such deficits, 402,666 short tons, raw value, are prorated to other domestic areas pursuant to section 204(a) of the Act.

The usual procedure of first prorating the part of the deficits attributable to the inability to market that part of the quotas determined under section 202(a)(2) of the Act for Hawaii, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands has not been followed, as no change in the allocation of the deficits would result therefrom.

The quotas and prorations established herein differ from those in effect under Sugar Regulation 811 (24 F.R. 10425). To permit areas for which larger quotas or prorations are hereby established to plan to market and to market in an orderly manner the larger quantity of sugar, it is essential that this amendment be made effective immediately. Therefore, it is hereby determined and found that compliance with the notice, procedure and effective date requirements of the Administrative Procedure Act is unnecessary, impracticable and contrary to the public interest and the amendment herein shall become effective when published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

By virtue of the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by the Sugar Act of 1948, as amended (61 Stat. 928, as amended), and the Proclamation of the President of the United States No. 3355 (25 F.R. 6414), Sugar Regulation 811 (24 F.R. 10425; 25 F.R. 6617) is hereby amended by adding a new § 811.4, to read as follows:

§ 811.4 Determination and proration of area deficits and adjusted quotas.

(a) Deficit in quotas established in § 811.2. It is hereby determined pursuant to section 204(a) of the Act, that for the calendar year 1960 Hawaii, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands will be unable by 225,000, 325,000 and 8,000 short tons, raw value of sugar, respectively, to market the quotas established for such areas in § 811.2

(b) Proration of deficits and quotas in effect. The total of the deficits in the quotas determined in paragraph (a) of this section amounts to 558,000 short tons, raw value, of which 402,666 short tons, raw value are hereby prorated pursuant to section 204(a) of the Act to other domestic areas on the basis of the quotas established for those areas in § 811.2, and the balance of 155,334 short tons, raw value, is prorated to other domestic areas pursuant to section 408(b) of the Act on the basis of the quotas established for those areas in § 811.2. The quotas for such areas shall be those established in § 811.2 plus the quantities prorated herein, as follows:

[Short tons, raw value]

Area	Prorated herein (1)	Quotas including prorations herein (2)
Domestic beet sugar	426,700	2,514,945
Mainland cane sugar	131,300	772,673
Hawaii	0	1,165,444
Puerto Rico	0	1,218,620
Virgin Islands	0	16,618

Statement of bases and considerations. Deficits in the quotas for Hawaii, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands are determined in § 811.4(a) on the basis of the quotas for these areas as established in § 811.2 and the expectation that the total supply of sugar available for marketing in the continental United States from Hawaii, Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands will not exceed 940,444, 893,620 and 8,618 short tons, raw value, respectively. The harvesting of the crop in Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands has been completed. The harvesting of the crop in Hawaii will continue until late in the year.

Chapter IX—Agricultural Marketing Service (Marketing Agreements and Orders), Department of Agriculture

[Valencia Orange Reg. 206]

PART 922—VALENCIA ORANGES GROWN IN ARIZONA AND DESIGNATED PART OF CALIFORNIA

Limitation of Handling

§ 922.506 Valencia Orange Regulation 206.

(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement and Order No. 22, as amended (7 CFR Part 922), regulating the handling of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), and upon the basis of the recommendations and information submitted by the Valencia Orange Administrative Committee, established under the said marketing agreement and order, as amended, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such Valencia oranges as hereinafter provided will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 1001–1011) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The committee held an open meeting during the current week, after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for Valencia oranges and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such Valencia oranges; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject hereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof. Such committee meeting was held on July 14, 1960.

(b) Order. (1) The respective quantities of Valencia oranges grown in Arizona and designated part of California which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., July 17, 1960, and ending at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., July 24, 1960, are hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: Unlimited movement;

(ii) District 2: 625,000 cartons;

(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) All Valencia oranges handled during the period specified in this section are subject also to all applicable size restrictions which are in effect pursuant to this part during such period.

(3) As used in this section, "handled," "handler," "District 1," "District 2," "District 3," and "carton" have the same meaning as when used in said marketing agreement and order, as amended.

[Plum Order 18]

PART 936—FRESH BARTLETT PEARS, PLUMS, AND ELBERTA PEACHES GROWN IN CALIFORNIA

Regulation by Grade and Size

§ 936.655 Plum Order 18.

(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 36, as amended (7 CFR Part 936), regulating the handling of fresh Bartlett pears, plums, and Elberta peaches grown in the State of California, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Plum Commodity Committee, established under the aforesaid amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of shipments of plums of the variety hereinafter set forth, and in the manner herein provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 1001–1011) in that, as hereinafter set forth, the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective not later than the date hereinafter specified. A reasonable determination as to the supply of, and the demand for, such plums must await the development of the crop thereof, and adequate information thereon was not available to the Plum Commodity Committee until the date hereinafter set forth on which an open meeting was held, after giving due notice thereof, to consider the need for, and the extent of, regulation of shipments of such plums. Interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; shipments of the current crop of such plums are expected to begin on or about the effective date hereof; this section should be applicable to all such shipments in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act; the provisions of this section are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee; and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such plums and compliance with the provisions of this section will not require of handlers any preparation therefor which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof. Such committee meeting was held on July 12, 1960.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., July 17, 1960, and ending at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., November 1, 1960, no shipper shall ship any package or container of Kelsey plums except in accordance with the following terms and conditions:

(i) Such plums grade at least U.S. No. 1, as required by the provisions of § 936.636 (Plum Order 1; 25 F.R. 4539) except that a total tolerance of ten (10) percent for defects not considered serious damage is permitted in addition to the tolerances permitted for such grade;

(ii) Such plums are of a size that, when packed in a standard basket, they will pack at least a 4 x 4 standard pack and will have a net weight of not less than twenty-nine (29) pounds: Provided, That, not to exceed ten (10) percent, by count, of the packages or containers in any lot may fail to meet such net weight requirements; and

(iii) The diameters of the smallest and largest plums in such package or container do not vary more than one-fourth (¼) inch: Provided, That, a total of not more than five (5) percent, by count, of the plums in the package or container may fail to meet this requirement.

(2) When used in this section, "U.S. No. 1," "serious damage," and "standard pack" shall have the same meaning as set forth in the revised United States Standards for Plums and Prunes (Fresh) (§§ 51.1520 to 51.1537 of this title); "standard basket" shall mean the standard basket set forth in paragraph 1 of section 828.1 of the Agricultural Code of California; "diameter" shall mean the distance through the widest portion of the cross section of a plum at right angles to a line running from the stem to the blossom end; and, except as otherwise specified, all other terms shall have the same meaning as when used in the amended marketing agreement and order.

(3) Section 936.143 sets forth the requirements with respect to the inspection and certification of shipments of fruit covered by this regulation. Such section also prescribes the conditions which must be met if any shipment is to be made without prior inspection and certification. Notwithstanding that shipments may be made without inspection and certification, each shipper shall comply with all grade and size regulations applicable to the respective shipment.

Such committee meeting was held on July 12, 1960.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., July 17, 1960, and ending at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., November 1, 1960, no shipper shall ship any package or container of Late Duarte plums, unless:

(i) Such plums are of a size that, when packed in a standard basket, they will pack at least a 4 x 5 standard pack and will have a net weight of not less than twenty-eight (28) pounds: Provided, That, not to exceed ten (10) percent, by count, of the packages or containers in any lot may fail to meet such net weight requirement; and

(ii) The diameters of the smallest and largest plums in such package or container do not vary more than one-fourth (¼) inch: Provided, That, a total of not more than five (5) percent, by count, of the plums in the package or container may fail to meet this requirement.

(2) When used in this section, "standard pack" shall have the same meaning as set forth in the revised United States Standards for Plums and Prunes (Fresh) (§§ 51.1520 to 51.1537 of this title); "standard basket" shall mean the standard basket set forth in paragraph 1 of section 828.1 of the Agricultural Code of California; "diameter" shall mean the distance through the widest portion of the cross section of a plum at right angles to a line running from the stem to the blossom end; and, except as otherwise specified, all other terms shall have the same meaning as when used in the amended marketing agreement and order.

(3) Section 936.143 sets forth the requirements with respect to the inspection and certification of shipments of fruit covered by this regulation. Such section also prescribes the conditions which must be met if any shipment is to be made without prior inspection and certification. Notwithstanding that shipments may be made without inspection and certification, each shipper shall comply with all grade and size regulations applicable to the respective shipment.

[Lemon Reg. 855]

PART 953—LEMONS GROWN IN CALIFORNIA AND ARIZONA

Limitation of Handling

§ 953.962 Lemon Regulation 855.

(a) Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 53, as amended (7 CFR Part 953; 23 F.R. 9053), regulating the handling of lemons grown in California and Arizona, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.; 68 Stat. 906, 1047), and upon the basis of the recommendation and information submitted by the Lemon Administrative Committee, established under the said amended marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation of handling of such lemons as hereinafter provided will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule-making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication hereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (60 Stat. 237; 5 U.S.C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based become available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, and a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions hereof effective as hereinafter set forth. The committee held an open meeting during the current week, after giving due notice thereof, to consider supply and market conditions for lemons and the need for regulation; interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit information and views at this meeting; the recommendation and supporting information for regulation during the period specified herein were promptly submitted to the Department after such meeting was held; the provisions of this section, including its effective time, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such lemons; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period herein specified; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject hereto which cannot be completed on or before the effective date hereof. Such committee meeting was held on July 12, 1960.

(b) Order. (1) The respective quantities of lemons grown in California and Arizona which may be handled during the period beginning at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., July 17, 1960, and ending at 12:01 a.m., P.s.t., July 24, 1960, are hereby fixed as follows:

(i) District 1: Unlimited movement;

(ii) District 2: 325,500 cartons;

(iii) District 3: Unlimited movement.

(2) As used in this section, "handled," "District 1," "District 2," "District 3," and "carton" have the same meaning as when used in the said amended marketing agreement and order.

[957–319]

PART 957—IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN CERTAIN DESIGNATED COUNTIES IN IDAHO AND MALHEUR COUNTY, OREGON

Limitation of Shipments

Findings. (a) Marketing Agreement No. 98, as amended, and Order No. 57, as amended, (7 CFR Part 957), effective under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), provide methods for limiting the handling of potatoes grown in the production area defined therein through the issuance of regulations authorized in §§ 957.1 through 957.91, inclusive, of the order. The Idaho-Eastern Oregon Potato Committee, pursuant to § 957.51 of the order, has recommended that regulations limiting the handling of 1960 crop potatoes should be issued. The recommendations of the committee and information submitted by it, with other available information, have been considered and it is hereby found that the regulations hereinafter set forth will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(b) It is hereby found that it is impracticable and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rule making procedure, and postpone the effective date of this section until 30 days after publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 1001–1011) in that (1) the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient, (2) more orderly marketing in the public interest, than would otherwise prevail, will be promoted by regulating the shipment of potatoes, in the manner set forth below, on and after the effective date of this section, (3) compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of handlers which cannot be completed by the effective date, (4) reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for such preparation, and (5) information regarding the committee's recommendations has been made available to producers and handlers in the production area.

§ 957.319 Limitation of shipments.

During the period from July 18, 1960, through June 30, 1961, no person shall handle any lot of potatoes unless such potatoes meet the requirements of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, or unless such potatoes are handled in accordance with paragraphs (c), (d), and (e) of this section.

(a) Minimum quality requirements—(1) Grade: All varieties—U. S. No. 2, or better grade.

(2) Size—(i) Round red varieties. 1⅞ inches minimum diameter.

(ii) All other varieties. 2 inches minimum diameter or 4 ounces minimum weight.

(3) Cleanliness—(i) Kennebec variety. Not more than "slightly dirty."

(ii) All other varieties. "Generally fairly clean."

(b) Minimum maturity requirements—(1) All varieties. "Slightly skinned" which means that not more than 10 percent of the potatoes in any lot may have more than one-fourth of the skin missing or "feathered."

(2) Exceptions. (i) Subject to compliance with subdivision (iii) of this subparagraph, any lot of potatoes not exceeding a total of 50 hundredweight of each variety may be handled for any producer without regard to the foregoing maturity requirements.

(ii) If an officially inspected lot of potatoes meets the foregoing maturity requirements but fails to meet the grade and size requirements, the lot may be regraded. If, after regrading, such lot then meets the grade and size requirements but fails to meet the maturity requirements, as indicated by the applicable Federal-State inspection certificate, such lot if not exceeding 100 hundredweight shall be exempt from the foregoing maturity requirements: Provided, That the handler complies with subdivision (iii) of this subparagraph.

(iii) Prior to each shipment of potatoes exempt from the foregoing maturity requirements, the handler thereof shall report to the committee the name and address of the producer of such potatoes, and each such shipment shall be handled as an identifiable entity.

(c) Special purpose shipments. (1) The minimum grade, size, cleanliness, and maturity requirements set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section shall not be applicable to shipments of potatoes for any of the following purposes:

(i) Certified seed;

(ii) Charity;

(iii) Starch;

(iv) Canning or freezing;

(v) Dehydration;

(vi) Experimentation.

(2) The minimum grade, size, cleanliness, and maturity requirements set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section shall be applicable to shipments of potatoes for each of the following purposes:

(i) Export: Provided, That potatoes of a size not smaller than 1½ inches in diameter may be shipped if the potatoes grade not less than U.S. No. 2; and

(ii) Potato chipping or prepeeling: Provided, That potatoes of a size not smaller than 1½ inches in diameter may be shipped if the potatoes grade not less than Idaho Utility, or Oregon Utility, grade.

(d) Safeguards. Each handler making shipments of potatoes for starch, canning or freezing, dehydration, experimentation, export, or for prepeeling pursuant to paragraph (c) of this section shall:

(1) Prior to making shipment, apply to the committee for and obtain a Certificate of Privilege to make each shipment;

(2) Pay assessments on each shipment, except shipments for canning or freezing;

(3) Have each shipment inspected, except shipments for canning or freezing;

(4) Upon request by the committee, furnish reports of each shipment pursuant to the applicable Certificate of Privilege;

(5) At the time of applying to the committee for a Certificate of Privilege, or promptly thereafter, furnish the committee with a receiver's or buyer's certification that the potatoes so handled are to be used only for the purpose stated in the application and that the receiver will complete and return to the committee such periodic reports that the committee may require;

(6) Mail to the office of the committee a copy of the bill of lading for each Certificate of Privilege shipment promptly after the date of shipment;

(7) Bill each shipment directly to the applicable processor or receiver.

(e) Minimum quantity exception. Each handler may ship up to, but not to exceed 5 hundredweight potatoes any day without regard to the inspection and assessment requirements of this part, but this exception shall not apply to any portion of a shipment that exceeds 5 hundredweight of potatoes.

(f) Definitions. The terms "U.S. No. 1," "U.S. No. 2," "fairly clean," and "slightly dirty" shall have the same meaning as when used in the United States Standards for Potatoes (§§ 51.1540 to 51.1556 of this title), including the tolerances set forth therein. The term "generally fairly clean" means that at least 90 percent of the potatoes in a given lot are "fairly clean." The term "prepeeling" means potatoes which are clean, sound, fresh tubers prepared commercially in a prepeeling plant by washing, removal of the outer skin or peel, trimming, and sorting preparatory to sale in one or more of the styles of peeled potatoes described in § 52.2422 (United States Standards for Grades of Peeled Potatoes §§ 52.2421–52.2433 of this title). The terms "Idaho Utility grade" and "Oregon Utility grade" shall have the same meanings as when used in the respective standards for potatoes for the respective States. Other terms used in this section shall have the same meaning as when used in Marketing Agreement

No. 90 and Order No. 97, both as amended.

(Secs. 1–19, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 601–674)

Dated July 14, 1960, to become effective July 18, 1960.

[Avocado Order 19, Amdt. 2]

PART 969—AVOCADOS GROWN IN SOUTH FLORIDA

Container Regulation

Findings. (1) Pursuant to the marketing agreement, as amended, and Order No. 69, as amended (7 CFR Part 969), regulating the handling of avocados grown in south Florida, effective under the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674), and upon the basis of the recommendations of the Avocado Administrative Committee, established under the aforesaid marketing agreement and order, and upon other available information, it is hereby found that the limitation on the handling of avocados, as hereinafter provided, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act.

(2) It is hereby further found that it is impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest to give preliminary notice, engage in public rulemaking procedure, and postpone the effective date of this amendment until 30 days after publication thereof in the FEDERAL REGISTER (5 U.S.C. 1001–1011) in that the time intervening between the date when information upon which this amendment is based became available and the time when this amendment must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; and this amendment relieves restrictions on the handling of avocados grown in south Florida.

It is, therefore, ordered that paragraph (b)(1) of § 969.319 (Avocado Order 19, 24 F.R. 7355, 9386) is hereby amended to read as follows:

(b) Order. (1) On and after the effective time hereof, no handler shall handle any variety of avocados unless such avocados are packed in the containers listed in subdivisions (i) through (viii) of this subparagraph and conform to the net weight requirements of subdivisions (iv), (ix), and (x) of this subparagraph.

(i) Boxes and cartons with inside dimensions 13½ x 16½ x 3¼ inches.

(ii) Boxes and cartons with inside dimensions 13½ x 16½ x 3¾ inches.

(iii) Boxes and cartons with inside dimensions 13½ x 16½ x 4½ inches: Provided, That the avocados in such containers shall be packed in one layer only.

(iv) Boxes and cartons with inside dimensions 11 x 16¾ x 10 inches: Provided, That the individual avocados in such a container shall weigh at least 16 ounces, except that not to exceed 10 percent, by count, of the fruit in each lot may weigh not more than 2 ounces less than 16 ounces, but not to exceed double such tolerance (20 percent) of fruit weighing less than 16 ounces shall be permitted in an individual container in a lot.

(v) Boxes and cartons with inside dimensions 11½ x 15¾ x 3¼ inches.

(vi) Boxes and cartons with inside dimensions 11½ x 15¾ x 3¾ inches.

(vii) Boxes and cartons with inside dimensions 11½ x 15¾ x 4¼ inches.

(viii) Such other types and sizes of containers as may be approved by the Avocado Administrative Committee for testing in connection with a research project conducted by or in cooperation with the said committee: Provided, That the handling of each lot of avocados in such test containers shall be subject to the prior approval, and under the supervision, of the Avocado Administrative Committee.

(ix) With respect to the containers prescribed in subdivisions (i) through (iii) of this subparagraph, the net weight of the Arue, Pollock, Simmonds, Hardee, Nadir, Trapp, Peterson, Waldin, Pinnelli, Tonnage, Booth 8, Black Prince, Blair, Booth 7, Booth 10, Collinson, Lula, Booth 5, Hickson, Simpson, Vaca, Avon, Booth 11, Hall, Winslowson, Choquette, Herman, Monroe, Ajax (Booth 7–B), Booth 3, Taylor, Byars, Linda, Nabal, Wagner, Schmidt, and Itzamna varieties of avocados in any such container shall be not less than 13½ pounds and the net weight of all other varieties of avacodos in any such container shall be not less than 13 pounds: Provided, That not to exceed 5 percent, by count, of the containers in any lot may fail to meet such applicable weight requirement.

(x) With respect to the containers prescribed in subdivisions (v) through (viii) of this subparagraph, the net weight of avacados of any variety other than the Fuchs variety in any such container shall be not less than 11½ pounds and the net weight of avocados of the Fuchs variety in any such container shall be not less than 10½ pounds: Provided, That, when such containers are packed with more than 16 avocados of any variety other than the Fuchs variety, the net weight of such avocados shall be not less than 11 pounds, and Provided further, That not to exceed 5 percent, by count, of the containers in any lot may fail to meet such applicable weigh requirement.

The provisions of this amendment shall become effective at 12:01 a.m., e.s.t., July 18, 1960.

AUTHORITY: §§ 980.0 to 980.101 issued under Secs. 1–19, 48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U.S.C. 601–674.

§ 980.0 Findings and determinations.

The findings and determinations hereinafter set forth are supplementary and in addition to the findings and determinations previously made in connection with the issuance of the aforesaid order and all of said previous findings and determinations are hereby ratified and affirmed, except insofar as such findings and determinations may be in conflict with the findings and determinations set forth herein.

(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held upon certain proposed amendments to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order regulating the handling of milk in the Western Colorado marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order as hereby amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the Act;

(2) The parity prices of milk, as determined pursuant to section 2 of the Act, are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the said marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order as hereby amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest;

(3) The said order as hereby amended, regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as, and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial or commercial activity specified in, a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

(4) All milk and milk products handled by handlers, as defined in the order as hereby amended, are in the current of interstate commerce or directly burden, obstruct, or affect interstate commerce in milk or its products; and

(5) It is hereby found that the necessary expense of the market administrator for the maintenance and functioning of such agency will require the payment by each handler, as his pro rata share of such expense, 5 cents per hundredweight or such amount not to exceed 5 cents per hundredweight as the Secretary may prescribe, with respect to (a) receipts of producer milk, including handlers' own production and (b) other source milk allocated to Class I pursuant to § 980.46.

(b) Additional findings. It is necessary in the public interest to make this order amending the order effective not later than August 1, 1960. Any delay beyond that date would tend to disrupt the orderly marketing of milk in the marketing area.

The provisions of the said order are known to handlers. The recommended decision of the Deputy Administrator of the Agricultural Marketing Service was issued June 20, 1960, and the decision of the Assistant Secretary containing all amendment provisions of this order, was issued June 30, 1960. The changes effected by this order will not require extensive preparation or substantial alteration in method of operation for handlers. In view of the foregoing, it is hereby found and determined that good cause exists for making this order amending the order effective August 1, 1960, and that it would be contrary to the public interest to delay the effective date of this amendment for 30 days after its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(See section 4(c), Administrative Procedure Act, 5 U.S.C. 1001–1011)

(c) Determinations. It is hereby determined that:

(1) The refusal or failure of handlers (excluding cooperative associations specified in section 8c(9) of the Act) of more than 50 percent of the milk, which is marketed within the marketing area, to sign a proposed marketing agreement, tends to prevent the effectuation of the declared policy of the Act;

(2) The issuance of this order, amending the order, is the only practical means pursuant to the declared policy of the Act of advancing the interests of producers as defined in the order as hereby amended; and

(3) The issuance of the order amending the order is approved or favored by at least three-fourths of the producers who during the determined representative period were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the marketing area.

It is ordered, That the complete text of the order, as hereby amended, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Order relative to handling. It is therefore ordered, that on and after the effective date hereof, the handling of milk in the Western Colorado marketing area shall be in conformity to and in compliance with the terms and conditions of the aforesaid order, as hereby amended, and the aforesaid order is hereby amended to read as follows:

DEFINITIONS

§ 980.1 Act.

"Act" means Public Act No. 10, 73d Congress, as amended, and as reenacted and amended by the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601 et seq.).

§ 980.2 Secretary.

"Secretary" means the Secretary of Agriculture of the United States or any other officer or employee of the United States authorized to exercise the powers or to perform the duties of the said Secretary of Agriculture.

§ 980.3 Department.

"Department" means the United States Department of Agriculture or such other Federal agency as is authorized to perform the price reporting functions specified in this part.

§ 980.4 Person.

"Person" means any individual, partnership, corporation, association or any other business unit.

§ 980.5 Cooperative association.

"Cooperative association" means any cooperative association of producers which the Secretary determines to be qualified under the provisions of the act of Congress of February 18, 1922, as amended, known as the "Capper-Volstead Act."

§ 980.6 Western Colorado marketing area.

"Western Colorado marketing area" hereinafter called "marketing area" means all the territory within the outer boundaries of the counties of Delta, Mesa, and Montrose, all in the State of Colorado.

§ 980.7 Fluid milk plant.

"Fluid milk plant" means any milk processing or packaging plant from which Class I milk is disposed of under a Grade A label on route(s) in the marketing area during the month.

§ 980.8 Nonfluid milk plant.

"Nonfluid milk plant" means any milk plant other than a fluid milk plant.

§ 980.9 Producer.

"Producer" means any person, other than a producer-handler, who produces milk in compliance with the Grade A inspection requirements of a duly constituted health authority having jurisdiction within the marketing area and whose milk is (a) received at a fluid milk plant or (b) diverted from a fluid milk plant to a nonfluid milk plant for the account of the operator of a fluid milk plant: Provided, That milk so diverted shall be deemed to have been received by the diverting handler at the plant from which it was diverted.

§ 980.10 Producer-handler.

"Producer-handler" means a person who operates both a dairy farm(s) and a milk processing or bottling plant at which each of the following conditions are met during the month:

(a) Milk is received from the dairy farm(s) of such person but from no other dairy farm;

(b) Fluid milk products are disposed of on routes to retail or wholesale outlets in the marketing area; and

(c) The butterfat or skim milk disposed of in the form of fluid milk products does not exceed the butterfat or skim milk, respectively, received in the form of milk from the dairy farm(s) of such person and in the form of a fluid milk product from fluid milk plants of other handlers.

§ 980.11 Handler.

"Handler" means any person in his capacity as the operator of a fluid milk plant.

§ 980.12 Producer milk.

"Producer milk" means all skim milk and butterfat contained in milk produced by a producer and received at a fluid milk plant directly from producers or diverted pursuant to § 980.9.

§ 980.13 Other source milk.

"Other source milk" means all skim and butterfat contained in:

(a) Receipts during the delivery period of fluid milk products except (1) fluid milk products received from fluid milk plants, or (2) producer milk; and

(b) Products, other than fluid milk products, from any source including those produced at the plant) which are reprocessed or converted to another product in the plant during the month.

§ 980.14 Fluid milk products.

"Fluid milk products" means milk, skim milk, buttermilk, flavored milk, flavored milk drinks, cream (sweet or sour, including any mixture of cream and milk or skim milk), and concentrated (fresh or frozen) milk, flavored milk or flavored milk drinks which are neither sterilized nor in hermetically sealed cans.

§ 980.15 Route.

"Route" means any delivery to retail or wholesale outlets (including a sale from a plant or plant store) of a fluid milk product other than a delivery to any milk processing plant.

MARKET ADMINISTRATOR

§ 980.20 Designation.

The agency for the administration of this part shall be a market administrator, selected by the Secretary, who shall be entitled to such compensation as may be determined by, and shall be subject to removal at, the discretion of the Secretary.

§ 980.21 Powers.

The market administrator shall have the following powers with respect to this part:

(a) To administer its terms and provisions;

(b) To receive, investigate, and report to the Secretary complaints of violations;

(c) To make rules and regulations to effectuate its terms and provisions; and

(d) To recommend amendments to the Secretary.

§ 980.22 Duties.

The market administrator shall perform all duties necessary to administer the terms and provisions of this part, including but not limited to the following:

(a) Within 45 days following the date on which he enters upon his duties, or such lesser period as may be prescribed by the Secretary, execute and deliver to the Secretary a bond, effective as of the date upon which he enters upon such duties, in an amount and with surety thereon satisfactory to the Secretary;

(b) Employ and fix the compensation of such persons as may be necessary to enable him to administer the terms and provisions of this part;

(c) Obtain a bond in a reasonable amount and with reasonable surety thereon covering each employee who handles funds entrusted to the market administrator;

(d) Pay out of the funds provided by § 980.84 the cost of his bond and those of his employee, his own compensation, and all other expenses (except those incurred under § 980.83) necessarily incurred by him in the maintenance and functioning of his office and in the performance of his duties;

(e) Keep such books and records as will clearly reflect the transactions provided for by this part, and, upon request by the Secretary, surrender the same to such other person as the Secretary may designate;

(f) Submit his books and records to examination by the Secretary and furnish such information and reports as may be requested by the Secretary;

(g) Verify all reports and payments by each handler by audit of such handler's records and of the records of any other handler or person upon whose utilization the classification of skim milk or butterfat for such handler depends, and by such investigation as the market administrator deems necessary;

(h) Publicly announce at his discretion, unless otherwise directed by the Secretary by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate, the name of any person who, within 10 days after the date upon which he is required to perform such acts, has not made (1) reports pursuant to §§ 980.30 to 980.32, or (2) payments pursuant to § 980.80, § 980.82, § 980.83, or § 980.84;

(i) Publicly announced by posting in a conspicuous place in his office and by such other means as he deems appropriate the prices determined for each month as follows:

(1) On or before the 6th day of each month, the minimum price for Class I milk computed pursuant to § 980.51(a) and the Class I butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 980.52(a), both for the current month;

(2) On or before the 6th day of each month the minimum price for Class II milk computed pursuant to § 980.51(b) and the Class II butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 980.52(b) each for the previous month; and

(3) On or before the 10th day after the end of each month the uniform price for each handler computed pursuant to § 980.72 and the producer butterfat differential computed pursuant to § 980.81.

(j) On or before the 10th day after the end of each month, mail to each handler at his last known address, a statement showing the amount and value of producer milk in each class and the totals thereof; and

(k) Prepare and make available for the benefit of producers, consumers, and handlers such general statistics and such information concerning the operations hereof as are necessary and appropriate to the proper functioning of this part and which do not reveal confidential information.

REPORTS, RECORDS, AND FACILITIES

§ 980.30 Reports of receipts and utilization.

On or before the 7th day after the end of each month each handler, except a producer-handler, shall report to the market administrator, in the detail and on forms prescribed by the market administrator, the receipts and utilization at his fluid milk plant(s) for such month, as follows:

(a) The quantities and butterfat content of producer milk received (including such handler's own farm production);

(b) The quantities of fluid milk products, with the butterfat content thereof, received from fluid milk plants of other handlers;

(c) The quantities of other source milk, with butterfat content thereof, received;

(d) The quantities and butterfat content of inventories of fluid milk products on hand at the beginning and end of the month;

(e) The utilization of all receipts of milk and milk products; and

(f) Such other information with respect to all receipts and utilization as the market administrator may prescribe.

§ 980.31 Payroll reports.

On or before the 20th day of each month each handler shall submit to the market administrator his producer payroll for the preceding month which shall show (a) the total pounds of milk received from each producer and the average butterfat test of milk received, (b) the number of days on which milk was received from each producer, (c) the amount of payment to each producer or cooperative association, (d) the nature and amount of any deductions or charges involved in such payments, and (e) such other information with respect thereto as the market administrator may request.

§ 980.32 Other reports.

Each producer-handler shall make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may prescribe.

§ 980.33 Records and facilities.

Each handler shall maintain and make available to the market administrator or to his representative, during the usual hours of business, such accounts and records of his operations and such facilities as are necessary for the market administrator to verify, or establish the correct data with respect to:

(a) The receipts and utilization of all producer milk, milk and milk products from other handlers, and other source milk;

(b) The weights and tests for butterfat and other content of all milk and milk products handled;

(c) Payments to producers or to cooperative associations; and

(d) The pounds of milk and milk products, with butterfat content, on hand at the beginning and end of each month.

§ 980.34 Retention of records.

All books and records required under this part to be made available to the market administrator shall be retained by the handler for a period of three years to begin at the end of the month to which such books and records pertain: Provided, That if, within such three-year period, the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that the retention of such books and records, or of specified books and records is necessary in connection with a proceeding under section 8c(15)(A) of the act or a court action specified in such notice, the handler shall retain such books and records, or specified books and records, until further written notification from the market administrator. In either case the market administrator shall give further written notification to the handler promptly, upon the termination of the litigation or when the records are no longer necessary in connection therewith.

CLASSIFICATION

§ 980.40 Skim milk and butterfat to be classified.

All skim milk and butterfat at fluid milk plants which is required to be reported for the month pursuant to § 980.30, shall be classified by the market administrator pursuant to the provisions of §§ 980.41 to 980.46.

§ 980.41 Classes of utilization.

Subject to the conditions set forth in §§ 980.43 and 980.44, the classes of utilization shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk. Class I milk shall be all skim milk and butterfat (1) disposed of in the form of fluid milk products except those classified pursuant to paragraph (b)(3) and (4) of this section, or (2) not specifically accounted for as Class II utilization.

(b) Class II milk. Class II milk shall be all the skim milk and butterfat: (1) used to produce any product other than a fluid milk product, (2) in inventory of fluid milk products on hand at the end of the month, (3) accounted for as livestock feed, (4) in skim milk dumped after prior notification to and opportunity for verification by the market administrator, (5) in shrinkage not to exceed 2 percent of skim milk and butterfat received directly from producers, and (6) in shrinkage of other source milk.

§ 980.42 Shrinkage.

The market administrator shall allocate shrinkage over receipts at fluid milk plant(s) of each handler as follows:

(a) Compute the shrinkage of skim milk and butterfat; and

(b) Assign the remaining amounts pro rata to the handler's receipts, respectively, in milk received directly from producers and in other source milk.

§ 980.43 Responsibility of handlers and reclassification of milk.

(a) All skim milk and butterfat shall be Class I unless the handler who first receives such skim milk or butterfat can prove to the market administrator that such skim milk or butterfat should be classified as Class II milk.

(b) Any skim milk or butterfat shall be reclassified if verification by the market administrator discloses that the original classification was incorrect.

§ 980.44 Transfers.

Skim milk and butterfat disposed of each month from a fluid milk plant shall be classified:

(a) As Class I milk, if transferred in the form of a fluid milk product to a fluid milk plant of another handler, except a producer-handler, unless utilization in another class is claimed by both handlers in their reports submitted for the month to the market administrator pursuant to § 980.30 subject in either event to the following conditions:

(1) The receiving plant has utilized in such class an equivalent amount of skim milk and butterfat, respectively; and

(2) Such skim milk and butterfat shall be classified so as to allocate to producer milk the greatest possible total Class I utilization in the two plants;

(b) As Class I milk, if transferred to a producer-handler in the form of a fluid milk product;

(c) As Class I milk, if transferred or diverted in the form of milk, skim milk or cream in bulk to a nonfluid milk plant located more than 360 miles from the City Hall in Grand Junction, Colorado, by the shortest highway distance as determined by the market administrator;

(d) As Class I milk, if transferred or diverted in the form of milk, skim milk or cream in bulk to a nonfluid milk plant located not more than 350 miles from the City Hall in Grand Junction, Colorado, by the shortest highway distance as determined by the market administrator, unless the following conditions are met:

(1) The transferring-handler claims Class II utilization in a product specified in § 980.41(b);

(2) The operator of such nonfluid milk plant keeps adequate books and records showing the utilization of all skim milk and butterfat received at such plant and the market administrator is permitted to examine such books and records for the purpose of verification; and

(3) Not less than an equivalent amount of skim milk and butterfat was actually used as Class II in such transferor's plant;

(e) If any skim milk or butterfat is transferred to a second nonfluid milk plant under paragraph (d) of this section, the same conditions of audit, classification and allocation shall apply.

§ 980.45 Computation of the skim milk and butterfat in each class.

For each month, the market administrator shall correct for mathematical and for other obvious errors the reports of receipts and utilization for the fluid milk plant(s) of each handler and shall compute the pounds of butterfat and skim milk in Class I milk, and Class II milk for such handler: Provided, That if any of the water contained in the milk from which a product is made is removed before the product is utilized or disposed of by a handler, the pounds of skim milk disposed of in such product shall be considered to be an amount equivalent to the nonfat dry milk solids contained in such product, plus all of the water originally associated with such solids.

§ 980.46 Allocation of skim milk and butterfat classified.

After making the computations pursuant to § 980.45 the market administrator shall determine the classification of milk received from producers of fluid milk plant(s) of each handler as follows:

(a) Skim milk shall be allocated in the following manner:

(1) Subtract from the total pounds of skim milk in Class II the pounds of skim milk allocated to shrinkage in skim milk received from producers pursuant to § 980.41(b)(5);

(2) Subtract from the pounds of skim milk remaining in each class, in series beginning with Class II, the pounds of skim milk in other source milk other than that subtracted pursuant to subparagraph (3) of this paragraph;

(3) Subtract from the pounds of skim milk remaining in each class, in series beginning with Class II, the pounds of skim milk in other source milk received from a plant at which the handling of milk is fully subject to the pricing and payment provisions of another marketing agreement and order issued pursuant to the Act;

(4) Subtract from the pounds of skim milk remaining in each class, the pounds of skim milk received from other fluid milk plants according to its classification as determined pursuant to § 980.44(a);

(5) Subtract from the pounds of skim milk remaining in each class, in series beginning with Class II, the pounds of skim milk contained in inventory of fluid milk products on hand at the beginning of the month;

(6) Add to the pounds of skim milk remaining in Class II the pounds of skim milk subtracted pursuant to subparagraph (1) of this paragraph; and

(7) Subtract from the pounds of skim milk remaining in each class any amount by which the pounds of skim milk remaining in both classes exceed the pounds of skim milk in milk received from producers in series beginning with Class II. Such excess shall be called "overage".

(b) Butterfat shall be allocated in accordance with the same procedure outlined for skim milk in paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Determine the weighted average butterfat content of each class of milk computed pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section.

MINIMUM PRICES

§ 980.50 Basic formula price.

The basic formula price for each month to be used in determining the class prices set forth in § 980.51 shall be the higher of the prices computed pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section rounded to the nearest one-tenth cent:

(a) The average of the basic or field prices paid or to be paid per hundredweight for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content received from farmers during the month at the following plants or places for which prices have been reported to the Department:

Present Operator and Location

Borden Co., Mount Pleasant, Mich.
Carnation Co., Sparta, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., Wayland, Mich.
Pet Milk Co., Coopersville, Mich.
Borden Co., Orfordville, Wis.
Borden Co., New London, Wis.
Carnation Co., Richland Center, Wis.
Carnation Co., Oconomowoc, Wis.
Pet Milk Co., New Glarus, Wis.
Pet Milk Co., Belleville, Wis.
White House Milk Co., Manitowoc, Wis.
White House Milk Co., West Bend, Wis.

(b) The price per hundredweight computed by adding together the plus values pursuant to subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph:

(1) From the simple average, as computed by the market administrator, of the daily wholesale selling prices (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) per pound of Grade A (92-score) bulk creamery butter per pound at Chicago, as reported by the Department during the month, subtract 3 cents, add 20 percent thereof, and multiply by 3.5.

(2) From the simple average, as computed by the market administrator, of the weighted averages of carlot prices per pound of nonfat dry milk, spray and roller process, respectively, for human consumption, f.o.b. manufacturing plants in the Chicago area, as published for the period from the 26th day of the immediately preceding month through the 25th day of the current month by the Department, deduct 5.5 cents, multiply by 8.5, and then multiply by 0.965.

§ 980.51 Class prices.

Subject to the provisions of §§ 980.52 and 980.53 the minimum prices per hundredweight to be paid by each handler for milk received at his fluid milk plant from producers during the month shall be as follows:

(a) Class I milk. The basic formula price for the preceding month plus $2.05.

(b) Class II milk. The basic formula price for the current month.

§ 980.52 Butterfat differential to handlers.

For milk containing more or less than 3.5 percent butterfat, the class prices pursuant to § 980.51 shall be increased or decreased, respectively, for each one-tenth of one percent of butterfat by multiplying the simple average, as computed by the market administrator, of the daily wholesale selling price per pound (using the midpoint of any price range as one price) of Grade A (92-score) bulk creamery butter at Chicago as reported by the Department during the month by the applicable factor specified below, and rounding to the nearest one-tenth cent.

(a) Class I milk. Multiply such price for the preceding month by 0.135; and

(b) Class II milk. Multiply such price for the current month by 0.120.

§ 980.53 Location differentials to handlers.

For milk which is received from producers at a fluid milk plant located more than 100 miles by the shortest highway distance, as determined by the market administrator, from the Courthouse in Grand Junction, Colorado, and which is classified as Class I milk the price computed pursuant to § 980.51(a) shall be reduced by 15 cents if such plant is located more than 100 miles but not more than 110 miles from such Courthouse and by an additional 1.5 cents for each 10 miles or fraction thereof that such distance exceeds 110 miles; Provided, That for the purpose of calculating such differential transfers between fluid milk plants shall be assigned to Class I milk in a volume not in excess of that by which Class I disposition at the transferee plant exceeds the receipts from producers at such plants, such assignment to transferor plants to be made first to plants at which no differential credit is applicable and then in the sequence beginning with the plant at which the lowest location differential credit would apply.

§ 980.54 Use of equivalent prices.

If for any reason a price specified by this part for computing class prices or for other purposes is not available in the manner described in this part, the market administrator shall use a price determined by the Secretary to be equivalent to the price which is specified.

APPLICATION OF PROVISIONS

§ 980.60 Handler exemption.

Sections 980.40 to 980.46, 980.50 to 980.53, 980.70 to 980.72 and 980.80 to 980.85 shall not apply to a producer-handler or to a handler operating a fluid milk plant from which an average of less than 200 pounds per day of Class I milk is disposed of on routes in the marketing area.

§ 980.61 Plants subject to other Federal orders.

Milk received at the plant of a handler at which the handling of milk is fully subject during the month to the pricing and payment provisions of another marketing agreement or order issued pursuant to the act and from which the disposition of Class I milk in the other Federal marketing area exceeds that in the Western Colorado marketing area shall be exempted for such month from all provisions of this part except that the handler operating such plant shall make reports to the market administrator at such time and in such manner as the market administrator may require and allow verification of such reports by the market administrator.

DETERMINATION OF UNIFORM PRICE

§ 980.70 Net obligation of handlers.

The net obligation of each handler for producer milk received at his fluid milk plant(s) during each month shall be a sum of money computed by the market administrator as follows:

(a) Multiply the pounds of such milk in each class by the applicable class price and add together the resulting amounts;

(b) Add the amount computed by multiplying pounds of overage deducted from each class pursuant to § 980.46 (a) (7) and the corresponding step of § 980.46 (b) by the applicable class price;

(c) Add a reclassification charge equal to the difference between the Class I price value for the current month and the price value applicable to closing inventory for the preceding month for the skim milk and butterfat subtracted from Class I pursuant to § 980.46(a)(5) and the corresponding step of § 980.46(b) which is not in excess of the skim milk and butterfat remaining in Class II in the previous month pursuant to § 980.46 (a)(5) and the corresponding step of § 980.46(b); and

(d) Add or subtract, as the case may be, an amount necessary to correct errors discovered by the market administrator in the verification of reports of such handler of his receipts and utilization of skim milk and butterfat for previous months.

§ 980.71 Computation of aggregate value used to determine uniform prices.

For each month the market administrator shall compute an aggregate value for each handler from which to determine the uniform price per hundred weight for producer milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content as follows:

(a) Add to the amount computed pursuant to § 980.70 the total of the location differentials to be made pursuant to § 980.81(b).

(b) Add or subtract from the amount computed pursuant to § 980.70 for each one-tenth percent that the average butterfat content or producer milk received by such handler is less or more, respectively, than 3.5 percent, an amount computed by multiplying such difference by the butterfat differential to producers, as determined pursuant to § 980.81(a) and multiplying the result by the total hundredweight of producer milk; and

(c) Add the amount represented by any deductions made for eliminating fractions of a cent in computing the uniform price for such handler for the preceding month.

§ 980.72 Computation of uniform prices for handlers.

The market administrator shall compute a uniform price for producer milk received by each handler as follows: Divide the aggregate value computed pursuant to § 980.71 by the total hundredweight of producer milk received by such handler. The result, less any fraction of a cent, shall be known as the uniform price for such handler for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content, at a fluid milk plant f.o.b. marketing area.

PAYMENTS

§ 980.80 Payments to producers.

Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, each handler shall make payment to each producer for milk received from such producer as follows:

(a) On or before the 28th day of the month, to each producer who had not discontinued shipping milk to such handler before the 15th day of the month, an advance payment with respect to milk received during the first 15 days of the month at the Class II price for the preceding month.

(b) On or before the 15th day after the end of each month, for milk received during such month, an amount computed at not less than the uniform price per hundredweight pursuant to § 980.72 subject to the butterfat and location differentials computed pursuant to § 980.81; plus or minus adjustments for errors made in previous payments to such producer; and less (1) payment made pursuant to paragraph (a) of this section, (2) marketing service deductions pursuant to § 980.83 and (3) proper deduction authorized in writing by such producer;

(c)(1) Upon receipt of a written request from a cooperative association which the market administrator determines is authorized by its members to collect payment for their milk and receipt of a written promise to reimburse the handler the amount of any actual loss incurred by him because of any improper claim on the part of the cooperative association each handler shall pay to the cooperative association on or before the 13th and 26th day of each month in lieu of payments pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) respectively, of this section an amount equal to the sum of the individual payments otherwise payable to such producers. The foregoing payment shall be made with respect to milk of each producer whom the cooperative association certifies is a member effective on and after the first day of the calendar month next following receipt of such certification through the last day of the month next preceding receipt of notice from the cooperative association of a termination of membership or until the original request is rescinded in writing by the cooperative association.

(2) A copy of each such request, promise to reimburse and certified list of members shall be filed simultaneously with the market administrator by the cooperative association and shall be subject to verification at his discretion, through audit of the records of the cooperative association pertaining thereto. Exceptions, if any, to the accuracy of such certification by a producer claimed to be a member, or by a handler, shall be made by written notice to the market administrator and shall be subject to his determination.

(d) In making the payments to producers pursuant to paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, each handler shall furnish each producer or cooperative association from whom he has received milk with a supporting statement which shall show for each month:

(1) The month and the identity of the handler and of the producer;

(2) The total pounds and the average butterfat content of milk received from such producer;

(3) The minimum rate or rates at which payment to such producer is required pursuant to this part;

(4) The rate which is used in making the payment if such rate is other than the applicable minimum rate;

(5) The amount or the rate per hundredweight and nature of each deduction claimed by the handler; and

(6) The net amount of payment to such producer.

§ 980.81 Producers differentials.

(a) Butterfat differential. The applicable uniform prices to be paid pursuant to § 980.80 to producers delivering milk to each handler shall be increased or decreased for each one-tenth of one percent which the butterfat content of his milk is above or below 3.5 percent, respectively, by a butterfat differential equal to the average of the butterfat differentials determined pursuant to paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 980.52, weighted by the pounds of butterfat in producer milk used by such handler in each class and the result rounded to the nearest tenth of a cent.

(b) Location differential. For milk which is received from producers at an approved plant located more than 100 miles by the shortest highway distance, as determined by the market administrator, from the Courthouse in Grand Junction, Colorado, there shall be deducted 15 cents per hundredweight of milk if such plant is located more than 100 miles but not more than 110 miles from such Courthouse, and an additional 1.5 cents for each 10 miles or fraction thereof that such distance exceeds 110 miles.

§ 980.82 Adjustment of accounts.

Whenever audit by the market administrator of any handler's reports, books, records, or accounts, or verification of weights and butterfat tests of milk or milk products discloses errors resulting in money due a producer or the market administrator from such handler or due such handler from the market administrator, the market administrator shall notify such handler of any amount so due, and payment thereof shall be made on or before the next date for making payments, as set forth in the provisions under which such error occurred.

§ 980.83 Marketing services.

(a) Except as set forth in paragraph (b) of this section, each handler, in making payments to producers for milk (other than milk of his own production) pursuant to § 980.80, shall deduct 6 cents per hundredweight, or such amount not exceeding 6 cents per hundredweight, as may be prescribed by the Secretary, and shall pay such deductions to the market administrator on or before the 15th day after the end of the month. Such money shall be used by the market administrator to provide market information and to check the accuracy of the testing and weighing of their milk for producers who are not receiving such service from a cooperative association;

(b) In the case of producers who are members of a cooperative association which the Secretary has determined is actually performing the services set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, each handler shall make, in lieu of the deduction specified in paragraph (a) of this section, such deductions from the payments to be made to such producers as may be authorized by the membership agreement or marketing contract between such cooperative association and such producers, and on or before the 15th day after the end of each month and pay such deductions to the cooperative association of which such producers are members, furnishing a statement showing the amount of any such deductions and the amount of milk for which such deduction was computed for each producer.

§ 980.84 Expense of administration.

As his pro rata share of the expense of administration of this part, each handler shall pay to the market administrator on or before the 15th day after the end of the month, 5 cents per hundredweight, or such amount not exceeding 5 cents per hundredweight as the Secretary may prescribe, with respect to all (a) receipts of producer milk, including such handlers' own production; and (b) other source milk at a fluid milk plant which is allocated to Class I milk pursuant to § 980.46.

§ 980.85 Termination of obligations.

The provisions of this section shall apply to any obligation under this part for the payment of money.

(a) The obligation of any handler to pay money required to be paid under the terms of this part shall, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, terminate two years after the last day of the calendar month during which the market administrator receives the handler's utilization report on the milk involved in such obligation unless within such two-year period the market administrator notifies the handler in writing that such money is due and payable. Service of such notice shall be complete upon mailing to the handler's last known address, and it shall contain, but need not be limited to, the following information:

(1) The amount of the obligation;

(2) The month(s) during which the milk with respect to which the obligation exists, was received or handled; and

(3) If the obligation is payable to one or more producers or to an association of producers, the name of such producer(s) or association of producers, or if the obligation is payable to the market administrator, the account for which it is to be paid.

(b) If a handler fails or refuses, with respect to any obligation under this part, to make available to the market administrator or his representatives all books and records required by this part to be made available, the market administrator may, within the two-year period provided for in paragraph (a) of this section, notify the handler in writing of such failure or refusal. If the market administrator so notifies a handler, the said two-year period with respect to such obligation shall not begin to run until the first day of the calendar month following the month during which all such books and records pertaining to such obligation are made available to the market administrator or his representatives.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, a handler's obligation under this part to pay money shall not be terminated with respect to any transaction involving fraud or willful concealment of a fact, material to the obligation, on the part of the handler against whom the obligation is sought to be imposed.

(d) Any obligation on the part of the market administrator to pay a handler any money which such handler claims to be due him under the terms of this part shall terminate two years after the end of the calendar month during which the milk involved in the claim was received if an underpayment is claimed or two years after the end of the calendar month during which the payment (including deduction or set-off by the market administrator) was made by the handler if a refund on such payment is claimed unless such handler within the applicable period of time, files pursuant to section 8c(15)(A) of the act, a petition claiming such money.

EFFECTIVE TIME, SUSPENSION OR TERMINATION

§ 980.90 Effective time.

The provisions of this part or any amendment to this part shall become effective at such time as the Secretary may declare and shall continue in force until suspended or terminated pursuant to § 980.91.

§ 980.91 Suspension or termination.

The Secretary may suspend or terminate this part or any provisions of this part whenever he finds this part or any provision of this part obstructs or does not tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act. This part shall terminate in any event whenever the provisions of the act authorizing it cease to be in effect.

§ 980.92 Continuing obligations.

If, upon the suspension or termination of any or all provisions of this part, there are any obligations thereunder, the final accrual or ascertainment of which requires further acts by any person (including the market administrator), such further acts shall be performed notwithstanding such suspension or termination.

§ 980.93 Liquidation.

Upon the suspension or termination of the provisions of this part, except this section, the market administrator, or such liquidating agent as the Secretary may designate, shall, if so directed by the Secretary, liquidate the business of the market administrator's office, dispose of all property in his possession or control, including accounts receivable, and execute and deliver all assignments or other instruments necessary or appropriate to effectuate any such disposition. If a liquidating agent is so designated, all assets, books and records of the market administrator shall be transferred promptly to such liquidating agent. If, upon such liquidation, the funds on hand exceed the amounts required to pay outstanding obligations of the office of the market administrator and to pay necessary expenses of liquidating and distribution, such excess shall be distributed to contributing handlers and producers in an equitable manner.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

§ 980.100 Agents.

The Secretary may, by designation in writing, name any officer or employee of the United States to act as his agent or representative in connection with any of the provisions of this part.

§ 980.101 Separability of provisions.

If any provision of this part or its application to any person or circumstances is held invalid the application of such provision and of the remaining provisions of this part, to other persons or circumstances, shall not be affected thereby.

Issued at Washington, D.C., this 12th day of July 1960, to be effective on and after the 1st day of August 1960.

CLARENCE I. MILLER,
Assistant Secretary.

Title 6—AGRICULTURAL CREDIT

Chapter III—Farmers Home Administration, Department of Agriculture

SUBCHAPTER A—GENERAL REGULATIONS

[FHA Instruction 426.1]

PART 306—REAL PROPERTY INSURANCE

Waiver of Evidence of Premium Payment

Section 306.2(g), Title 6, Code of Federal Regulations (21 F.R. 7509), is revised to modify the requirement, subject to certain conditions, that evidence of premium payment must be furnished when Form FHA-878, "Property Insurance Mortgage Clause (Without Contribution)," is not used, and to read as follows:

§ 306.2 Companies and policies.

* * * * *

(g) Evidence of premium payment. (1) When Form FHA-878 is attached to the policy, no evidence of premium or assessment payment is required.

(2) When a mortgage clause other than Form FHA-878 is used, the borrower will be required to furnish, with the policy, proper evidence that the premium has been paid for the full term of the policy. The evidence of premium payment may be a receipted bill, the policy stamped "Premium Paid," the endorsement renewing or continuing the policy stamped "Premium Paid" or letter or statement signed by the agent or company stating the premium has been paid. In case the policy is written by an assessment mutual insurance company on an annual assessment basis, proper evidence will accompany the policy to show that the most recent annual assessment has been paid. When Form FHA-878 cannot be used in a state, evidence of premium payments may be waived upon determination by the National Office of the probability that the Government will not be required to pay defaulted premiums.

SUBCHAPTER E—AIR NAVIGATION REGULATIONS

[Airspace Docket No. 59-FW-58]

PART 600—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS

Modification of Federal Airway

On January 6, 1960, a Notice of Proposed Rule Making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 82) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency proposed to modify VOR Federal airway No. 1522 between Anniston, Ala., and Royston, Ga.

No adverse comments were received regarding the proposed amendment.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rule herein adopted, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

The substance of the proposed amendment having been published, therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 4530) and for the reasons stated in the Notice, the following action is taken:

In the text of § 600.6622 (24 F.R. 10629, 9927) "intersection of the Anniston omnirange 084° True and the Atlanta Airport ILS localizer west course; Atlanta, Ga., Airport ILS localizer; intersection of the Atlanta Airport ILS localizer east course and the Atlanta, Ga., omnirange 048° True radial; intersection of the Atlanta omnirange 048° True and the Royston omnirange 236° True radials; Royston, Ga., omnirange station;" is deleted and "INT of the Anniston VOR 099° True and the Atlanta, Ga., VORTAC 267° True radials; Atlanta VORTAC; Royston, Ga., VOR;" is substituted therefor.

These amendments shall become effective 0001 e.s.t., September 22, 1960.

PART 600—DESIGNATION OF FEDERAL AIRWAYS

PART 601—DESIGNATION OF THE CONTINENTAL CONTROL AREA, CONTROL ZONES, REPORTING POINTS, AND POSITIVE CONTROL ROUTE SEGMENTS

Designation, Modification and Revocation of Federal Airways and Associated Control Areas

On April 19, 1960, a Notice of Proposed Rule Making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 3379) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency proposed to designate VOR Federal airway No. 475, and its associated control areas, from a VOR to be installed approximately March 1, 1960, near Deer Park, N.Y., to the Putnam, Conn., VORTAC via a VOR to be installed approximately March 1, 1961, near New Haven, Conn., including an east alternate from the New Haven VOR to the Putnam VORTAC via the Norwich, Conn., VORTAC; to extend VOR Federal airway No. 140 and its associated control areas from the Idlewild, N.Y., VORTAC to the Deer Park VOR; and to revoke in its entirety VOR Federal airway No. 463 and its associated control areas. Subsequent to the publication of the Notice, the commissioning date of the Deer Park VOR was rescheduled to March 1, 1961.

No adverse comments were received regarding the proposed amendments.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rules herein adopted, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

The substance of the proposed amendments having been published, therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 4530) and for the reasons stated in the Notice, Parts 600 (24 F.R. 10487) and 601 (24 F.R. 10530) and §§ 600.6140 (24 F.R. 10517, 10876, 25 F.R. 630, 5874) and 601.6140 (24 F.R. 10601, 10876) are amended as follows:

§ 600.6140 [Amendment]

1. Section 600.6140 VOR Federal airway No. 140 (Amarillo, Tex., to New York, N.Y.):

(a) In the caption "(Amarillo, Tex., to New York, N.Y.)." is deleted and "(Amarillo, Tex., to Deer Park, N.Y.)." is substituted therefor.

(b) In the text "to the Idlewild, N.Y., VOR." is deleted and "Idlewild, N.Y., VORTAC; to the Deer Park, N.Y., VOR." is substituted therefor.

§ 600.6463 [Revocation]

2. Section 600.6463 VOR Federal airway No. 463 (Norwich, Conn., to Putnam, Conn.) is revoked.

3. Section 600.6475 is added to read:

§ 600.6475 VOR Federal airway No. 475 (Deer Park, N.Y., to Putnam, Conn.).

From the Deer Park, N.Y., VOR via the New Haven, Conn., VOR; to the Putnam, Conn., VORTAC, including an E alternate from the New Haven VOR to the Putnam VORTAC via the Norwich, Conn., VORTAC.

§ 601.6140 [Amendment]

4. In § 601.6140 VOR Federal airway No. 140 control areas (Amarillo, Tex., to New York, N.Y.), the caption "(Amarillo, Tex., to New York, N.Y.)." is deleted and "(Amarillo, Tex., to Deer Park, N.Y.)." is substituted therefor.

§ 601.6463 [Revocation]

5. Section 601.6463 VOR Federal airway No. 463 control areas (Norwich, Conn., to Putnam, Conn.) is revoked.

6. Section 601.6475 is added to read:

§ 601.6475 VOR Federal airway No. 475 control areas (Deer Park, N.Y., to Putnam, Conn.).

All of VOR Federal airway No. 475 including an E alternate.

These amendments shall become effective 0001 e.s.t., April 6, 1961.

PART 601—DESIGNATION OF THE CONTINENTAL CONTROL AREA, CONTROL ZONES, REPORTING POINTS, AND POSITIVE CONTROL ROUTE SEGMENTS

Modification of Control Zone

On May 7, 1960, a Notice of Proposed Rule Making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 4088) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency proposed to modify the McGrath, Alaska, control zone by adding a control zone extension.

No adverse comments were received regarding the proposed amendments.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rules herein adopted, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

The substance of the proposed amendments having been published, therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 4530) and for the reasons stated in the Notice, the following actions are taken:

1. In Part 601 (24 F.R. 10530) § 601.2110 is added to read:

§ 601.2110 McGrath, Alaska, Control Zone.

Within a 5-mile radius of the geographical center of the McGrath Airport (latitude 62°57'05" N., longitude 155°36'10" W.), and within 2 miles either side of the McGrath RR SE course extending from the 5-mile radius zone to a point 12 miles SE of the RR.

§ 601.1964 [Amendment]

2. In the text of § 601.1964 (24 F.R. 10570) "McGrath, Alaska: McGrath Airport." is deleted.

These amendments shall become effective 0001 e.s.t., September 22, 1960.

Modification of Control Zone

On May 7, 1960, a Notice of Proposed Rule Making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 4008) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency proposed to modify the Minchumina, Alaska, control zone by adding a control zone extension.

No adverse comments were received regarding the proposed amendments.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rules herein adopted, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

The substance of the proposed amendments having been published, therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 4530) and for the reasons stated in the Notice, the following actions are taken:

1. In Part 601 (24 F.R. 10530) § 601.2290 is added to read:

§ 601.2290 Minchumina, Alaska, control zone.

Within a 5-mile radius of the geographical center of the Minchumina Airport (latitude 63°52'55" N., longitude 152°18'39" W.) and within 2 miles either side of the Minchumina RR SE course extending from the 5-mile radius zone to a point 12 miles SE of the RR.

§ 601.1984 [Amendment]

2. In the text of § 601.1984 (24 F.R. 10570) "Minchumina, Alaska: Minchumina Airport." is deleted.

Modification of Control Zone

On May 7, 1960, a Notice of Proposed Rule Making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 4087) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency proposed to modify the Nome, Alaska, control zone by adding a control zone extension.

No adverse comments were received regarding the proposed amendments.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rules herein adopted, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

The substance of the proposed amendments having been published, therefore, pursuant to the authority delegated to me by the Administrator (24 F.R. 4530) and for the reasons stated in the Notice, the following actions are taken:

1. In Part 601 (24 F.R. 10530) § 601.2212 is added to read:

§ 601.2212 Nome, Alaska, control zone.

Within a 5-mile radius of the geographical center of the Nome Federal Aviation Agency Airport (latitude 64°30'-42" N., longitude 165°26'28" W.), and within 2 miles either side of the Nome RR E course extending from the 5-mile radius zone to a point 12 miles E of the RR.

§ 601.1984 [Amendment]

2. In the text of § 601.1984 (24 F.R. 10570) "Nome, Alaska: Nome Airport." is deleted.

PART 608—RESTRICTED AREAS

Modification

The purpose of this amendment to § 608.24 of the regulations of the Administrator is to modify the Brookville, Kans., Restricted Area (R-196) (Salina Chart).

The presently designated altitudes of the Brookville, Kansas, Restricted Area (R-196) are surface to 50,000 feet MSL. A recent review indicates that 45,000 feet MSL would encompass all activity currently conducted within this area. These activities consist of bombing, air-to-ground and ground-to-air gunnery, demolition, and small arms firing. The Department of the Air Force concurs in this adjustment of the designated altitudes.

Since this amendment reduces a burden on the public, compliance with the notice, public procedure, and effective date requirement of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is unnecessary and it may be made effective immediately.

In consideration of the foregoing, the following action is taken:

In § 608.24 Kansas, the Brookville, Kansas, Restricted Area (R-196) (Salina Chart) (24 F.R. 524) is amended by deleting "Surface to 50,000 feet" and substituting therefor "Surface to 45,000 feet MSL."

This amendment shall become effective upon the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Secs. 307(a), 313(a), 72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354)

[Airspace Docket No. 59-NY-32]

PART 608—RESTRICTED AREAS

Modification

On January 23, 1960, a notice of proposed rule making was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 612) stating that the Federal Aviation Agency was considering an amendment to § 608.38 of the regulations of the Administrator which would modify the Warren Grove, N.J., Restricted Area (R-26) (Washington Chart).

As stated in the notice, the Warren Grove Restricted Area (R-26) is an area of 30 square miles in the southeastern part of New Jersey, northeast of Atlantic City. It is designated for flight testing special weapons from the surface to 4,000 feet MSL, during all hours each day, and its controlling agency is the Commander, Naval Air Bases, Fourth Naval District, Lakehurst NAS, N.J.

The Department of the Navy has advised that there is no longer a Navy requirement for use of Restricted Area R-26. The Department of the Air Force, however, has requested that the restricted area be modified for use by the New Jersey Air National Guard for conducting rocketry, skip bombing and strafing from the surface to 4,000 MSL, from 0800 to 1800 e.s.t., Friday, Saturday and Sunday, from September 1 to May 31, annually; and 0800 to 1800 e.s.t. each day from June 1 to August 31, annually. The Federal Aviation Agency considers the Air Force proposal justified and is, therefore, modifying the Warren Grove Restricted Area (R-26) by redesignating it to include approximately the same amount of airspace in the same general area, but with slightly realigned boundaries, and by designating the New Jersey Air National Guard, 108th Tactical Fighter Wing (SD), McGuire, AFB, N.J., as the controlling agency.

The Aircraft Owners and Pilots Association concurred in the redesignation of Restricted Area R-26. The AOPA, however, recommended that, if not already accomplished, a study should be made concerning joint use of this restricted area. The Federal Aviation agency is presently conducting a study regarding the practicability of joint use of the airspace within Restricted Area R-26.

The Department of the Air Force concurred in the proposal, but suggested that, in order to make the time of designation compatible with the daylight saving time observed in the vicinity of Restricted Area R-26, that "0800 to 1800 e.s.t., daily during June through August, annually." be changed to, "0700 to 1700 e.s.t., daily from June 1 to August 31 annually." The Federal Aviation Agency agrees that this modification to the restricted area's time of designation is desirable and it is reflected in the amendment.

Two other comments were received, from the Air Transport Association of America and the Air Line Pilots Association, each of which concurred in the proposed amendment.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of the rule herein adopted, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter presented.

In consideration of the foregoing, the following action is taken:

In § 608.38 New Jersey, Warren Grove, N.J., Restricted Area (R-26) (Washington Chart) (23 F.R. 8584, 24 F.R. 1832) is amended to read:

Description by geographical coordinates. Beginning at latitude 39°46'10" N., longitude 74°20'14" W.; to latitude 39°43'25" N., longitude 74°17'37" W.; to latitude 39°38'36" N., longitude 74°23'27" W.; to latitude 39°39'50" N., longitude 74°25'52" W.; to latitude 39°43'58" N., longitude 74°24'13" W.; to point of beginning.

Designated altitudes. Surface to 4,000 feet MSL.

Time of designation. From 0700 to 1700 e.s.t., daily, June 1 through August 31. From 0800 to 1800 e.s.t., Fridays, Saturdays, and Sundays, September 1 through May 31.

Controlling agency. New Jersey Air National Guard, 108th Tactical Fighter Wing (SD), McGuire AFB, New Jersey.

This amendment shall become effective 0001 e.s.t. August 25, 1960.

(Secs. 307(a), 313(a), 72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354)

Issued in Washington, D.C., on July 12, 1960.

Administrator.

[Airspace Docket No. 59-NY-34]

PART 608—RESTRICTED AREAS

Modification

The purpose of this amendment to § 608.54 of the regulations of the Administrator is to modify the time of designation of the Pendleton, Va., Restricted Area (R-74) (Norfolk Chart).

The presently designated time of use for R-74 is continuous. The activities conducted within this restricted area are ground to air anti-aircraft gunnery, high altitude weather sounding projectile firing, and firing at pilotless drone aircraft and tow sleeves. The Department of the Navy has stated that these activities can be accomplished from 0800 to 1700 e.s.t., Mondays through Fridays. Therefore, the Federal Aviation Agency is changing the time of use for R-74 from continuous to 0800 through 17000 e.s.t., Mondays through Fridays.

Since this amendment reduces a burden on the public, compliance with the Notice, public procedure, and effective date requirements of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is unnecessary and it may be made effective immediately.

In consideration of the foregoing, the following action is taken:

In § 608.54, the Pendleton, Va., Restricted Area (R-74) (Norfolk Chart) (23 F.R. 8589) is amended by deleting "Continuous." and substituting therefor "From 0800 to 1700 e.s.t., Mondays through Fridays."

This amendment shall become effective upon the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Secs. 307(a), 313(a), 72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354)

Issued in Washington, D.C., on July 12, 1960.

Administrator.

[Airspace Docket No. 59-NY-43]

PART 608—RESTRICTED AREAS

Modification

The purpose of this amendment to § 608.17 of the regulations of the Administrator is to modify the Milford, Del., Restricted Area (R-12) (Washington Chart).

Restricted Area (R-12) is presently designated from the surface to 20,000 feet MSL; time of use, daylight hours only (when the ceiling is at least 5,000 feet and visibility is three miles or better); and the controlling agency, COMNAB, 4th Naval District, Lakehurst NAS, N.J.

Following a recent review of the activities conducted in R-12, the Department of the Navy has agreed that the following modifications of the area are acceptable: reduce the designated altitudes to surface to 3,000 feet MSL; limit the time of use to 0800 to 2200 local time from April 15 through October 31, and 0800 to 2200 local time Saturday and Sunday only from November 1 through April 14; and change the controlling agency to the Federal Aviation Agency. The activities conducted in this area consist of low-level and radar bombing and search light training by naval antisubmarine squadrons.

Since this action reduces a burden on the public, compliance with the notice, public procedure, and effective date requirements of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is unnecessary and it may be made effective immediately.

In consideration of the foregoing, the following action is taken:

In § 608.17, the Milford, Del., Restricted Area (R-12) (Washington Chart) (23 F.R. 6578) is amended by deleting:

Designated altitudes. Surface to 20,000 feet MSL.

Time of designation. Daylight hours only (when ceiling is at least 5,000' and visibility is three miles or better).

Controlling agency. COMNAB, 4th Naval District, Lakehurst NAS, N.J.

and substituting therefor:

Designated altitudes. Surface to 3,000 feet MSL.

Time of designation. From 0800 to 2200 local time April 15 through October 31. From 0800 to 2200 local time, Saturday and Sunday only, November 1, through April 14.

Controlling agency. Federal Aviation Agency, New York ARTC Center.

This amendment shall become effective upon the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Secs. 307(a), 313(a), 72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354)

Issued in Washington, D.C., on July 12, 1960.

[Airspace Docket No. 60-AN-20]

PART 608—RESTRICTED AREAS

Modification

The purpose of this amendment to § 608.61 of the regulations of the Administrator is to change the controlling agency of the Big Delta, Alaska, Restricted Area (R-346) (WAC 77 and 177 Charts).

The Department of the Army has requested that the controlling agency for Restricted Area (R-346) be changed from Arctic Test Branch, Army Field Forces, Fort Greely, Alaska, to U.S. Army Arctic Test Board, Fort Greely, Alaska, in order to correctly designate the command presently responsible for utilization of the airspace within this area.

Since this amendment imposes no additional burden on the public, compliance with the notice, public procedure, and effective date requirement of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is unnecessary and it may be made effective immediately.

In consideration of the foregoing, the following action is taken:

In § 608.61, the Big Delta, Alaska, Restricted Area (R-346) (WAC 77 and 177 Charts) (23 F.R. 6590) is amended by deleting "Arctic Test Branch Army Field Forces, Fort Greely, Alaska" and substituting therefor "U.S. Army Arctic Test Board, Fort Greely, Alaska".

This amendment shall become effective upon the date of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(Secs. 307(a) and 313(a), 72 Stat. 749, 752; 49 U.S.C. 1348, 1354)

PART 222—MUTUAL MORTGAGE INSURANCE; RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS OF MORTGAGEE UNDER THE INSURANCE CONTRACT

Miscellaneous Amendments to Chapter

1. Part 221 is amended by adding a new § 221.4a as follows:

§ 221.4a Approval of individuals and organizations as investing mortgagees.

(a) The Commissioner hereby approves, as investing mortgagees, individuals and organizations which:

(1) Acquire one or more mortgages insured under section 203(b) of the Act; and

(2) Acquire these mortgages from a sponsoring mortgagee or another investing mortgagee; and

(3) Acquire these mortgages subject to the provisions set forth in Part 222 of this subchapter.

(b) Insured mortgages may not be originated by an investing mortgagee.

2. In § 221.5 paragraph (b) is revoked as follows:

§ 221.5 Approval of fiduciary investments.

* * * * *

(b) [Revoked].

3. In § 222.1 paragraph (f) is amended and new paragraphs (h) and (i) are added as follows:

§ 222.1 Definition of terms.

* * * * *

(f) The term "mortgagee" means the original lender under a mortgage and its successors and such of its assigns as are approved by the Commissioner. Any reference to the term "mortgagee" as used in Part 221 or this subchapter shall mean one other than an investing mortgagee unless otherwise specified.

* * * * *

(h) The term "investing mortgagee" means individuals and organizations which acquire one or more mortgages insured under section 203(b) of the Act from a sponsoring mortgagee or another investing mortgagee subject to the provisions set forth in this part.

(i) The term "sponsoring mortgagee" means any approved mortgagee other than a loan correspondent mortgagee or an investing mortgagee, who has sold and assigned an insured mortgage to an investing mortgagee.

4. Section 222.15 is amended to read as follows:

§ 222.15 Sale of insured mortgages.

(a) When the insured mortgage is sold to another approved mortgagee, both seller and buyer shall notify the Commissioner of the sale within 30 days thereof. The buyer shall thereupon succeed to all the rights and become bound by all the obligations of the seller under the contract of insurance and the seller shall be released from its obligations under the contract of insurance.

(b) The provisions of paragraph (a) of this section shall not apply to an assignment, pledge or transfer of an insured mortgage to an investing mortgagee.

5. In § 222.16 paragraph (a) is amended to read as follows:

§ 222.16 Assignments, pledges or participations.

(a) Between approved mortgagees. (1) Any approved mortgagee may assign, pledge or transfer an insured mortgage, a group of such mortgages or a partial interest in such mortgage or mortgages to another approved mortgagee by means of any agreement, arrangement or device (including declaration of trust, participation certificates or trust certificates) if the transaction does not constitute a final sale. Any such transfer shall provide that one of the approved mortgagees shall be the mortgagee of record under the contract of insurance and the Commissioner shall have no obligation to recognize or deal with any party except the approved mortgagee of record with respect to the rights, benefits and obligations of the mortgagee under the contract of insurance. With respect to transfers meeting the requirements of this paragraph, mortgagees are not required to notify the Commissioner of the transfer or to obtain the Commissioner's approval.

(2) The provisions of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph shall not apply to an assignment, pledge or transfer of an insured mortgage to an investing mortgagee. However, upon the assignment of a mortgage to an investing mortgagee the credit instrument shall show on its face or on the reverse side thereof the date of assignment, the name of the assignee and the fact that any assignment or reassignment thereof is subject to compliance with the Regulations of the Federal Housing Administration.

6. Part 222 is amended by adding a new § 222.16a as follows:

§ 222.16a Form of assignment to investing mortgagee.

(a) The assignment of the insured mortgage and credit instrument to an investing mortgagee shall contain the following paragraph:

It is a condition of this assignment that the assignee and his heirs, successors, executors, administrators and assigns shall be limited to the receipt of: (1) The principal recovery; (2) all net income from the insured mortgage; (3) the net proceeds from a sale of the mortgage; and (4) the transfer of any debentures, cash adjustment check, or certificates of claim issued by the Federal Housing Commissioner in the name of the assignor or the net proceeds of the foregoing. Unless made subject to the terms and conditions of this paragraph, no further assignment or transfer of this mortgage shall be valid unless and until: (1) The insurance contract with the Federal Housing Administration has been duly terminated in accordance with FHA Regulations; or (2) the mortgage is assigned to an FHA approved mortgagee other than a loan correspondent mortgagee or investing mortgagee. It is a further condition of this assignment that the assignor and assignee or his heirs or successors shall, at no time, take any action inconsistent with the FHA Regulations and the assignee will take no action which will prevent the assignor from complying with the FHA Regulations. All the rights and obligations under the contract or contracts of insurance with the Federal Housing Administration are retained by the assignor and FHA will have no obligation to recognize or deal with any other party except the assignor. The assignor shall have a tacit lien on the mortgage and any principal recovery and net income therefrom as security for the payment of any amounts the assignor may be required to pay for the benefit of the assignee. This paragraph is for the benefit of the Federal Housing Administration and may not be altered. This paragraph will be controlling in the event of any conflict with its provisions by any other agreement or covenant between the assignor and assignee, but shall no longer have any force or effect if the mortgage is assigned to an FHA approved mortgagee other than a loan correspondent mortgagee or an investing mortgagee.

(b) Any agreement to sell an insured mortgage entered into by a sponsoring mortgagee with a prospective investing mortgagee shall contain the following paragraph:

It is mutually agreed by the parties that the assignment of the FHA insured mortgage and credit instrument described herein will contain the language as specified for inclusion in the assignment as set forth in the FHA Regulations. It is further agreed that the credit instrument to be assigned shall show on its face or on the reverse side thereof the date of assignment, the name of the assignee and the fact that any assignment or reassignment thereof is subejct to compliance with the Regulations of the Federal Housing Administration.

Title 33—NAVIGATION AND NAVIGABLE WATERS

Chapter II—Corps of Engineers, Department of the Army

PART 203—BRIDGE REGULATIONS

Matanzas River, Fla.

Pursuant to the provisions of section 5 of the River and Harbor Act of August 18, 1894 (28 Stat. 362; 33 U.S.C. 499), § 203.432 is hereby prescribed to govern the operation of the drawspan of the Bridge of Lions across Matanzas River (Intracoastal Waterway) in St. Augustine, Florida, as follows:

§ 203.432 Matanzas River (Intracoastal Waterway), Fla.; Bridge of Lions (State Road No. A1A) in St. Augustine.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b) of this section, the owners or agency controlling the bridge shall not be required to open the drawspan for the passage of vessels between 7:30 a.m. and 8:15 a.m. and between 5:00 p.m. and 5:45 p.m., Monday through Friday of each week.

(b) The drawspan shall be opened promptly at any time to allow the passage of tugboats with tows, vessels owned or operated by the United States, and vessels in distress. Such vessels desiring to pass shall so indicate by four blasts of a whistle or similar device.

(c) The owners of or agency controlling the bridge shall keep a copy of the regulations in this section conspicuously posted on both the upstream and downstream sides thereof, in such manner that it can be easily read at any time.

Title 26—INTERNAL REVENUE, 1954

Chapter I—Internal Revenue Service, Department of the Treasury

SUBCHAPTER E—ALCOHOL, TOBACCO, AND OTHER EXCISE TAXES

[T.D. 6482]

PART 172—DISPOSITION OF SEIZED PERSONAL PROPERTY

Miscellaneous Amendments

On May 11, 1960, a notice of proposed rule making to amend 26 CFR Part 172, with respect to the disposition of seized personal property, was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER (25 F.R. 4182).

In accordance with the notice, interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit written data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto. No comments or objections having been received, the amendments as published in the FEDERAL REGISTER are hereby adopted, subject to the clarifying changes set forth below:

1. The semi-colon after the word "taxes" in paragraph 4 of the notice, amending § 172.38(g), is removed and a comma substituted therefor.

2. A new paragraph 4(a) is inserted immediately following paragraph 4, to amend § 172.39.

This Treasury decision shall become effective 30 days after the date of its publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(68A Stat. 917, 62 Stat. 761, as amended; 52 Stat. 1252, 58 Stat. 1292; 26 U.S.C. 7805, 18 U.S.C. 1261, 15 U.S.C. 907, 49 U.S.C. 788)

[SEAL] CHARLES I. FOX,
Acting Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

Approved: July 12, 1960.

FRED C. SCRIBNER, Jr.,
Acting Secretary of the Treasury.

In order to implement and set forth the policy of the Treasury Department in regard to the action taken on petitions for remission or mitigation of forfeitures, 26 CFR (1954) Part 172 is amended as follows:

§ 172.9 [Amendment]

PARAGRAPH 1. Section 172.9 is amended by adding the following new sentence to the end thereof: "Addiction to narcotic drugs and use of marihuana will be treated as if such were commercial crime."

PAR. 2. Section 172.16 is amended by changing the section to read as follows:

§ 172.16 Equity.

The term "equity", as used in administrative action on petitions for remission or mitigation of forfeitures, shall mean that interest which a petitioner has in the personal property or carrier petitioned for at the time of final administrative action on the petition, but such interest shall not be considered to include any unearned finance charges from the date of seizure or the date of default, if later; any amount rebatable on account of paid insurance premiums; attorney's fees for collection; any amount identified as dealer's reserve; or any amount in the nature of liquidated damages that may have been agreed upon by the buyer and the petitioner.

PAR. 3. Section 172.26 is amended by changing the section to read as follows:

§ 172.26 Forfeiture of seized personal property.

(a) Administrative forfeiture. (1) Personal property seized as subject to forfeiture under the internal revenue laws which has an appraised value of $2,500.00 or less, and any carrier appraised by the seizing officer at $2,500.00 or less under the custom laws shall be forfeited to the United States in administrative or summary forfeiture proceedings.

(2) In respect of personal property seized as subject to forfeiture under the internal revenue laws which, in the opinion of the seizing officer, has an appraised value of $2,500.00 or less, such officer shall cause a list containing a particular description of the seized property to be prepared in duplicate, and an appraisement thereof to be made by three sworn appraisers, selected by the seizing officer, who shall be respectable and disinterested citizens of the United States residing within the internal revenue district wherein the seizure was made. Such list and appraisement shall be properly attested to by the seizing officer and such appraisers.

(3) In respect of personal property seized as subject to forfeiture under the internal revenue laws and found by the appraisers to have a value of $2,500.00 or less, the Supervisor in Charge shall publish a notice once a week for three consecutive weeks, in some newspaper of the judicial district where the seizure was made, describing the articles and stating the time, place, and cause of their seizure, and requiring any person claiming them to appear and make such claim within 30 days from the date of the first publication of such notice.

(4) In respect of carriers seized as subject to forfeiture under the provisions of the custom laws and appraised by the seizing officer as having a value of $2,500.00 or less, the Supervisor in Charge shall publish notice of seizure in the same manner as required by subparagraph (3) of this paragraph; provided that the time for making claim shall be within 20 days from the date of first publication.

(5) Any person claiming the personal property or carrier so seized, within the time specified in the notice, may file with the Supervisor in Charge a claim, stating his interest in the articles seized, and may execute a bond to the United States in the penal sum of $250.00, conditioned that, in case of condemnation of the articles so seized, the obligors shall pay all the costs and expenses of the proceedings to obtain such condemnation. Both the claim and the cost bond should be executed in quadruplicate.

(b) Judicial condemnation. (1) The Assistant Regional Commissioner or the Supervisor in Charge shall authorize the United States Attorney to institute libel proceedings in those instances where the appraised value of the seized personal property or carrier exceeds $2,500.00, or where a claim and cost bond are filed as provided above.

PAR. 4. Section 172.38 is amended by changing the section to read as follows:

§ 172.38 Contents of the petition.

(a) Description of property. The petition should contain such a description of the property and such facts of the seizure as will enable the officers of the Internal Revenue Service concerned to identify the property.

(b) Statement regarding knowledge of seizure. In the event the petition is filed for the restoration of the proceeds derived from sale of the property pursuant to summary forfeiture, it should also contain, or be supported by, satisfactory proof that the petitioner did not know of the seizure prior to the declaration or condemnation of forfeiture, and that he was in such circumstances as prevented him from knowing of the same. (See also § 172.39.)

(c) Interest of petitioner. The petition should state in clear and concise terms the nature and amount of the present interest of the petitioner in the property, and the facts relied upon to show that the forfeiture was incurred without willful negligence or without any intention upon the part of the petitioner to defraud the revenue or to violate the law, or such other mitigating circumstances as, in the opinion of the petitioner, would justify the remission or mitigation of the forfeiture.

(d) Petitioner innocent party. If the petitioner is not the one who in person committed the act which caused the seizure, the petition should state how the property came into the possession of such other person, and that the petitioner had no knowledge or reason to believe, if such be the fact, that the property would be used in violation of law.

(e) Results of investigation. The petition should also state what investigation, if any, was made of such other person, through principal Federal, State, or local law enforcement officers, to determine whether such other person had either a record or a reputation, or both, as a liquor law violator in a case involving a seizure for violation of the internal revenue laws relating to liquor; or as a violator in the field of commercial crime in all other types of seizures. The petition should further state the information obtained from said investigation, and whether such information was received before the petitioner acquired his interest in the property, or such other person acquired his right in the property, whichever occurred later.

(f) Documents supporting claim. The petition should also be accompanied by copies, certified by the petitioner under oath as correct, of contracts, bills of sale, chattel mortgages, reports of investigators or credit reporting agencies, affidavits, and any other papers or documents that would tend to support the claims made in the petition.

(g) Costs. The petition should also contain an undertaking to pay the costs, if costs are assessed as a condition of allowance of the petition. Costs shall include all the expenses incurred in seizing and storing the property; the costs borne or to be borne by the United States; the taxes, if any, payable by the petitioner or imposed in respect of the property to which the petition relates; the penalty, if any, asserted by the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division; and, if the property has been sold, or is in the course of being sold, the expenses so incurred.

§ 172.39 [Amendment]

PAR. 4(a). Section 172.39 is amended by changing "§ 172.38(c)" in the first sentence to read "§ 172.38(b)."

PAR. 5. Section 172.41 is amended by changing the section to read as follows:

§ 172.41 Discontinuance of administrative proceedings.

If the petition is filed prior to administrative sale or retention for official use, proceedings to effect such sale or retention will be discontinued.

PAR. 6. Section 172.43 is amended by changing the section to read as follows:

§ 172.43 Final action.

(a) Petitions for remission or mitigation of forfeiture. (1) The Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, shall take final action on any petition filed pursuant to these regulations. Such final action shall consist either of the allowance or denial of the petition. In the case of allowance, the Director shall state the conditions of the allowance.

(2) In the case of an allowed petition, the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, may order the property returned to the petitioner, sold for the account of the petitioner, or, pursuant to agreement, acquired for official use.

(3) The Assistant Regional Commissioner shall notify the petitioner of the allowance or denial of the petition and, in the case of allowance, the conditions under which the Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, allowed the petition.

(b) Offers in compromise of liability to forfeiture. (1) The Director, Alcohol and Tobacco Tax Division, shall take final action on any offer in compromise of the liability to forfeiture of personal property seized as provided in § 172.25. Such action shall consist either of the acceptance or rejection of the offer. (2) The Assistant Regional Commissioner shall notify the proponent of the acceptance or rejection of the offer.

PAR. 7. Section 172.44 is amended to read as follows:

§ 172.44 Acquisition for official use and sale for account of petitioner in allowed petitions.

(a) Acquisition for official use. (1) The property may be purchased by the United States pursuant to agreement and retained for official use. Where the petitioner is the owner, the purchase price is the appraised value of the property less all costs. Where the petitioner is a creditor, the purchase price is whichever one of these amounts is the smaller: (i) the petitioner's equity, or (ii) the appraised value of the property less the amount of all costs.

(b) Sale for account of petitioner. (1) The petitioner may elect not to comply with the condition on which the property may be returned. In this event, the Supervisor in Charge is authorized to sell it. Where the petitioner is the owner of the property, there is deducted from the proceeds of the sale all costs, and the Regional Commissioner pays to the petitioner, out of the proper appropriation, an amount equal to the balance, if any. Where the petitioner is a creditor, there is deducted from the proceeds of the sale all costs, and the Regional Commissioner pays to the petitioner, out of the proper appropriation, an amount equal to the balance, if any: Provided, That if that amount exceeds the amount of the equity, only the latter amount is paid to the petitioner.

§ 172.55 [Amendment]

PAR. 8. Section 172.55 is amended by substituting, in the first sentence, the phrase "in the judicial district" for the phrase "in the internal revenue collection district."

Title 39—POSTAL SERVICE

Chapter I—Post Office Department

PART 35—PHILATELY

PART 49—STAR ROUTE COLLECTION AND DELIVERY SERVICE

Miscellaneous Amendments

The regulations of the Post Office Department are amended as follows:

I. In § 35.5 Inaugural covers, subparagraph (1) of paragraph (a) is amended to show that official first flight cachets are authorized if the carrier notifies the Department at least 20 days before the scheduled date of the new service. As so amended subparagraph (1) reads as follows:

§ 35.5 Inaugural covers.

(a) First flights—(1) Cachets authorized. The Post Office Department recognizes events such as new air service by applying cachets on inaugural covers. Cachets are authorized for all stop points on a new air mail route, for new stop points on existing routes or additional segments, and for events of national aviation interest. Official cachets of distinctive commemorative design are authorized by publication of notice in the Postal Bulletin after notification by the carrier of at least 20 days prior to the scheduled date of the new service.

NOTE: The corresponding Postal Manual section is 145.511.

(R.S. 161, as amended, 396, as amended; 5 U.S.C. 22, 369)

II. In § 49.3 Box delivery and collection service, as amended by Federal Register Document 60-1081, 25 F.R. 905-908, subparagraph (4) of paragraph (b) is amended to implement instructions regarding star route delivery-residence requirements. As so amended, subparagraph (4) reads as follows:

§ 49.3 Box delivery and collection service.

* * * * * * *

(b) Availability. * * *

(4) Request from the post office to which mail is addressed, delivery and collection service. Star route patrons residing between two post offices may receive mail service from that post office which is the one next preceding the patron's residence, or from either post office if there is a return trip. In addition, the patron may receive delivery from the post office from which the star route originates.

PART 201—PROCEDURES OF THE POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT

Rules of Procedure Relating to Fines, Deductions, and Damages

The following rules amend Subpart D of Part 201, Procedures of the Post Office Department, and are made effective as to all proceedings which are filed after 30 days from the date of publication of this document in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The Department will continue to study the problems involved in the rules with respect to fines, deductions, and damages with a view to making such further changes which may from time to time appear to be desirable. Members of the bar, publishers, and others are invited to submit any further comments and suggestions they may have to the General Counsel, Post Office Department.

Subpart D of Part 201 is amended to read as follows:

Subpart D—Rules of Procedure Relating to Fines, Deductions, and Damages

Sec.
201.60 Fines, deductions, and damages.
201.61 Appeal.

AUTHORITY: §§ 201.60 and 201.61 issued under R.S. 161, as amended, 396, as amended, 3962, as amended, 4010, as amended, sec. 5, 39 Stat. 425, 428, 431, sec. 1, 40 Stat. 748, sec. 901, 72 Stat. 783; 5 U.S.C. 22, 369, 39 U.S.C. 443, 539, 563, 568, 570, 655, and 49 U.S.C. 1471.

§ 201.60 Fines, deductions, and damages.

(a) Fines. Where evidence is found or reported against:

(1) Rail and noncontractual steamship and air carriers for unjustified failure to discharge their responsibilities in violation of the applicable provisions of Title 39, or Title 49, U.S. Code, or of the Rules, Regulations and Orders of the Postmaster General issued under those statutory provisions, or for other irregularities or delinquencies;

(2) Mail contractors for failure to observe the contract terms or failure to perform full service, or for other irregularities or delinquencies;

such carriers and contractors, after investigation, are given notice of the irregularity or delinquency, in writing, by an official representative of the Postal Service. They are given reasonable opportunity to answer the charges and explain the alleged irregularity or delinquency. The facts are briefed, and a full report and recommendations are forwarded together with the answer: (i) In the case of steamship carriers performing non-contract services directly to the Bureau of Transportation; (ii) in all other cases, to the Distribution and Traffic Manager who examines and reviews the charges in order to determine the responsibility of the carrier or contractor involved and, if the facts warrant, imposes fine or deduction computed in accordance with statutory, regulatory, or contractual provisions. The Distribution and Traffic Manager may charge directly, in the first instance, the contractor or carrier, in which case the answer shall be filed with the Distribution and Traffic Manager.

NOTE: Postal Field Officials use Form 5178, Notification of Irregularity in Service-Delay-Damage to Parcel Post Mail. (For Surface Carriers), and Form 2759, Report of Irregular Handling of Air Mail. (For Air Carriers.)

(b) Deductions. The same procedure as in paragraph (a) of this section is followed in making deductions for failure to perform service as required except that the Distribution and Traffic Manager is authorized, upon an evaluation of the evidence, to waive omissions of service or make deductions therefor in payments made to mail contractors.

NOTE: Postal Field Officials use Form 5440C-D-E, Contract Route Service Order, to notify star route contractors of deductions ordered, and the remission of previous deductions is ordered on the basis or in view of the facts.

(c) Damages. Damage cases are investigated in the same manner as fine cases. Where it is found, after investigation, that the Government has suffered a loss through the payment of indemnity or otherwise as a result of damage to or loss of mails, such loss may be taken into consideration in determining the amount of the fine. The Distribution and Traffic Manager determines if a fine should be imposed for damage to or loss of mail.

§ 201.61 Appeal.

(a) Rail and noncontractual air carriers may take an appeal from a decision of the Distribution and Traffic Manager to the Bureau of Transportation within 6 months from the date of imposition of the fine or deduction. The Bureau's decision is final with respect to all cases under its jurisdiction.

(b) Mail contractors including air and steamship carriers performing contract services and only when discharging contractual obligations may take an appeal from the findings of fact or decision of the Distribution and Traffic Manager to the Board of Contract Appeals. The rules of procedure for appeal of the contractor are covered by Subpart L, Rules of Procedure for the Board of Contract Appeals, of this part.

[SEAL] HERBERT B. WARBURTON, General Counsel.

The foregoing are hereby adopted as Rules of Procedure for the Post Office Department.

RAYMOND J. KELLY, Judicial Officer.

Title 43—PUBLIC LANDS: INTERIOR

Chapter I—Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior

APPENDIX—PUBLIC LAND ORDERS

[Public Land Order 2156]

[22669]

WYOMING

Certain Power Site Orders

In the matter of Power Site Restoration No. 555; Power Site Cancellation No. 138; partly revoking the Executive Order of July 2, 1910, and the Departmental orders of November 3, 1921 and March 7, 1932; (Power Site Reserve No. 5; Power Site Classification No. 8, Wyoming No. 1; Willow and Freemont Lakes Reservoir Sites).

By virtue of the authority vested in the President by section 1 of the act of June 25, 1910 (36 Stat. 847; 43 U.S.C. 141), and pursuant to Executive Order No. 10355 of May 26, 1952, and by virtue of the authority contained in section 3 of the act of June 17, 1902 (32 Stat. 388; 43 U.S.C. 416) and pursuant to the determination of the Federal Power Commission in DA-146-Wyoming, dated May 29, 1959, and as Secretary of the Interior, it is ordered as follows:

1. The Executive Order of July 2, 1910, creating Power Site Reserve No. 5, the Departmental order of November 3, 1921, creating Power Site Classification No. 8, Wyoming No. 1, and the Departmental order of March 7, 1932, withdrawing lands for the Willow and Freemont Lakes Reservoir Sites, are hereby revoked so far as they affect the following-described lands:

SIXTH PRINCIPAL MERIDIAN

T. 35 N., R. 109 W.,
Sec. 19, lots 2, 3, 6, NE¼SW¼ and N½SE¼.
T. 35 N., R. 110 W.,
Sec. 24, SE¼NE¼ and W½SE¼;
Sec. 26, NE¼NE¼.

The areas described aggregate 399.38 acres.

2. The lands are situated approximately 15 miles north of Pinedale, Wyoming, in Sublette County. Topography is rough and mountainous. Soils are sandy loam, shallow, and developed over glacial till.

3. Subject to any valid existing rights and the requirements of applicable law, the lands, except those in section 24, are hereby opened to filing of applications, selections, and locations in accordance with the following:

a. Applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws may be presented to the Manager mentioned below, beginning on the date of this order. Such applications and selections will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(2) Until 10:00 a.m. on January 8, 1961, the State of Wyoming shall have a preferred right of application to select the lands in accordance with and subject to the provisions of subsection (c) of section 2 of the act of August 27, 1958 (72 Stat. 928; 43 U.S.C. 851, 852), and the regulations in 43 CFR. During that period the State may apply under any statute or regulation applicable thereto for the reservation to it or to any of its political subdivisions of any of the lands required as a right-of-way for a public highway or as a source of material for the construction and maintenance of such highways, as provided by Section 24 of the Federal Power Act, as amended.

(3) All valid applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws, other than any from the State, presented prior to 10:00 a.m. on January 8, 1961, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications and selections filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

b. The lands have been open to applications and offers under the mineral-leasing laws. Those in sections 24 and 25 have been open to mining location. Those in section 19 will be open to mining location at 10:00 a.m. on January 8, 1961.

c. The lands in section 24 have previously been restored to entry subject to the provisions of section 24 of the Federal Power Act, pursuant to the determination of the Federal Power Commission in DA–16–Wyoming, issued June 29, 1922. The effect of this order, therefore, is to relieve such lands of the limitations prescribed by the said section 24.

4. Persons claiming preference rights based upon valid settlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their applications, setting forth all facts relevant to their claims. Detailed rules and regulations governing applications which may be filed pursuant to this notice can be found in Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Inquiries concerning the lands should be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Cheyenne, Wyoming.

ROGER ERNST,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

[Public Land Order 2157]

[Colorado 021327]

COLORADO

Partially Revoking Air Navigation Site Withdrawal 122

By virtue of the authority contained in section 4 of the act of May 24, 1928 (45 Stat. 729; 49 U.S.C. 214), it is ordered as follows:

1. The departmental order of July 12, 1938, which reserved lands for use of the Department of Commerce in the maintenance of air navigation facilities, is hereby revoked so far as it affects the following-described lands:

SIXTH PRINCIPAL MERIDIAN

T. 29 S., R. 63 W.,
A tract of land in the NE¼SE¼ of Section 11, from which the SE corner of Section 11, T. 29 S., R. 63 W., 6th P.M., Colorado, bears S 1320 feet: from Corner No. 1 by metes and bounds, thence
West 1320 feet to corner No. 2;
North 1320 feet to corner No. 3;
East 1320 feet to corner No. 4;
South 575.03 feet to corner No. 5;
West 20 feet to corner No. 6;
South 55 feet to corner No. 7;
West 30.5 feet to corner No. 8;
South 13°15' W. 30.8" to corner No. 9;
East 57.5 feet to corner No. 10;
South 660 feet to corner No. 1, the place of beginning.

The tract described contains 39.94 acres.

2. The land is located approximately 13 miles east and nine miles north of Aguilar, Colorado. Soils are generally shallow and sandy loam in texture with topography slightly rolling. The vegetation is of native short grass, the dominant species being blue grama and other associated short grasses.

3. Subject to any valid existing rights and the requirements of applicable law, the lands are hereby opened to filing of applications, selections, and locations in accordance with the following:

a. Applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws and applications and offers under the mineral leasing laws may be presented to the Manager mentioned below, beginning on the date of this order. Such applications, selections, and offers will be considered as filed on the hour and respective dates shown for the various classes enumerated in the following paragraphs:

(1) Applications by persons having prior existing valid settlement rights, preference rights conferred by existing laws, or equitable claims subject to allowance and confirmation will be adjudicated on the facts presented in support of each claim or right. All applications presented by persons other than those referred to in this paragraph will be subject to the applications and claims mentioned in this paragraph.

(2) All valid applications and selections under the nonmineral public land laws and applications and offers under the mineral leasing laws presented prior to 10:00 a.m. on August 16, 1960, will be considered as simultaneously filed at that hour. Rights under such applications, selections and offers filed after that hour will be governed by the time of filing.

b. The lands will be open to applications and offers under the mineral leasing laws and to location under the United States mining laws beginning at 10:00 a.m. on August 16, 1960.

4. The State of Colorado has waived the preference right of application granted to it by subsection (c) of section 2 of the act of August 27, 1958 (72 Stat. 928; 43 U.S.C. 851–852).

5. Persons claiming preference rights based upon valid settlement, statutory preference, or equitable claims must enclose properly corroborated statements in support of their applications, setting forth all facts relevant to their claims. Detailed rules and regulations governing applications which may be filed pursuant to this notice can be found in Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

Inquiries concerning the lands shall be addressed to the Manager, Land Office, Bureau of Land Management, Denver, Colorado.

ROGER ERNST,
Assistant Secretary of the Interior.

Title 49—TRANSPORTATION

Chapter I—Interstate Commerce Commission

[S. O. 934]

PART 95—CAR SERVICE

Chicago and North Western Railway Co. Authorized To Operate Over Certain Trackage of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Co.

At a session of the Interstate Commerce Commission, Division 3, held at its office in Washington, D.C., on the 12th day of July A.D. 1960.

It appearing, That recent floods have severely demaged tracks on the Chicago and North Western Railway Company branch line between Platte River Junction and Morse Bluff, Nebraska; and that the Chicago and North Western Railway Company is unable to transport traffic over its line between Morse Bluff and Superior, Nebraska, so as to properly serve the public and that the handling, routing and movement of this carrier's traffic (including trains) over the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company's lines between Lincoln and Seward via Milford, Nebraska, will best promote the service in the interest of the public and the commerce of the people; and that notice and public procedure are impracticable and contrary to the public interest and that good cause exists for making this order effective upon less than thirty days' notice.

It is ordered, That:

§ 95.934 Service Order 934.

(a) The Chicago and North Western Railway Company authorized to operate over certain trackage of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company. The Chicago and North Western Railway Company is authorized to handle and move traffic (including trains) originating or terminating on its line at or between Morse Bluff and Superior, Nebraska, over the tracks of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy Railroad Company between Lincoln and Seward via Milford, Nebraska.

(b) Compensation. The settlement for the handling of traffic ordered and described in paragraph (a) of this section shall be upon such terms as between the carriers as they may agree upon or in the event of their disagreement as the Commission may, after subsequent hearing find to be just and reasonable.

(c) Application. The provisions of this order shall apply to intrastate and foreign traffic as well as interstate traffic.

(d) Rates to be applied. Inasmuch as such disregard of routing is deemed to be due to carrier's disability, the rates applicable to traffic so forwarded by routes other than those designated by shippers, or by carriers shall be the rates which were applicable at the date of shipment over the routes so designated.

(e) Effective date. This order shall become effective at 12:01 a.m., July 13, 1960.

(f) Expiration date. The provisions of this order shall expire at 11:59 p.m., December 31, 1960, unless otherwise modified, changed, suspended, or annulled by order of this Commission.

(Sec. 1, 12, 15, 24 Stat. 379, 383, 384, as amended; 49 U.S.C. 1, 12, 15. Interprets or applies sec. 1(10–17), 15(4), 40 Stat. 101, as amended, 54 Stat. 911; 49 U.S.C. 1(10–17), 15(4))

It is further ordered, That copies of this order and direction shall be served upon the Nebraska State Railway Commission, and upon the Association of American Railroads, Car Service Division, as agent of the railroads subscribing to the car service and per diem agreement under the terms of that agreement; and that notice of this order shall be given to the general public by depositing a copy in the office of the Secretary of the Commission at Washington, D.C., and by filing it with the Director, Office of the Federal Register.

By the Commission, Division 3.

[SEAL] HAROLD D. McCOY,
Secretary.

(a) In general. The regulations in this part (Part 45, Subchapter D, Chapter 1, Title 26 (1954), Code of Federal Regulations) are designated "Miscellaneous Stamp Tax Regulations". The regulations relate to the taxes imposed by Subchapters A, B, and C of Chapter 36, Subchapter F of Chapter 38, Subchapters B, C, D, and F of Chapter 39 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, and to certain general provisions relating to occupational taxes contained in Chapter 40 of such Code and to certain related administrative provisions of Subtitle F of the Code. For a reference to the various taxes to which the regulations in this part relate, see paragraph (b) of this section and § 45.0–3. References in these regulations to the "Internal Revenue Code" or the "Code" are references to the Internal Revenue Code of 1954, as amended, unless otherwise indicated. References to a section or other provision of law are references to a section or other provision of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, unless otherwise indicated.

(b) Division of regulations. The regulations in this part are divided into 12 subparts. Subpart A contains provisions relating to the arrangement and numbering of the sections of the regulations in this part, general definitions and use of terms, scope of regulations, and extent to which the regulations in this part supersede prior regulations relating to the taxes imposed by Subchapters A, B, and C of Chapter 36, Subchapter F of Chapter 38, and Subchapters B, C, D, and F of Chapter 39 of the Internal Revenue Code. The other subparts of the regulations in this part and the subject matter to which they relate are as follows:

Subpart B—Playing cards.
Subpart C—Occupational tax on coin-operated devices.
Subpart D—Occupational tax on bowling alleys, billiard and pool tables.
Subpart E—Oleomargarine.
Subpart F—White phosphorus matches.
Subpart G—Adulterated and process or renovated butter.
Subpart H—Filled cheese.
Subpart I—Cotton futures.
Subpart J—Silver bullion.
Subpart K—General provisions relating to occupational taxes.
Subpart L—Administrative provisions.

(c) Arrangement and numbering. In general each section of the regulations in Subparts B through L is preceded by the section, subsection, or paragraph of the Internal Revenue Code which it interprets. The sections of the regulations can readily be distinguished from sections of the Code since—

(1) The sections of the regulations are printed in larger type;

(2) The sections of the regulations are preceded by a section symbol and the part number, arabic numeral 45 followed by a decimal point (§ 45.); and

(3) The sections of the Code are preceded by "Sec.".

Each section of the regulations setting forth law or regulations is designated by a number composed of the part number followed by a decimal point (45.) and the number of the corresponding provision of the Internal Revenue Code. In the case of a section setting forth regulations, this designation is followed by a hyphen (-) and a number identifying such section.

§ 45.0–2 General definitions and use of terms.

As used in the regulations in this part, unless otherwise expressly indicated—

(a) The terms defined in the provisions of law contained in the regulations in this part shall have the meanings so assigned to them.

(b) The Internal Revenue Code of 1954 means the Act approved August 16, 1954 (68A Stat.), entitled "An Act to revise the internal revenue laws of the United States", as amended.

(c) District director means district director of internal revenue.

(d) Calendar quarter means a period of 3 calendar months ending on March 31, June 30, September 30, or December 31.

§ 45.0–3 Scope of regulations.

The regulations in this part relate to the taxes imposed by Subchapters A, B, and C of Chapter 36, Subchapter F of Chapter 38, and Subchapter B, C, D, and F of Chapter 39 of the Code and, except where otherwise specifically provided, have application as provided in the following paragraphs:

(a) Subpart B. The regulations in Subpart B of this part relate to playing cards manufactured or imported, and sold, or removed for consumption or sale, by a manufacturer on or after July 1, 1960.

(b) Subpart C. The regulations in Subpart C of this part relate to coin-operated devices maintained for use by any person on or after July 1, 1960.

(c) Subpart D. The regulations in Subpart D of this part relate to the operation by any person of a bowling alley, billiard room, or pool room on or after July 1, 1960.

(d) Subpart E. The regulations in Subpart E of this part relate to oleomargarine imported from foreign countries on or after July 1, 1960.

(e) Subpart F. The regulations in Subpart F of this part relate to white phosphorous matches manufactured, sold, or removed by the manufacturer on or after July 1, 1960.

(f) Subpart G. The regulations in Subpart G of this part relate to (1) adulterated and process or renovated butter manufactured or sold or removed for consumption or use by the manufacturer on or after July 1, 1960, and (2) to the occupational tax imposed on (i) manufacturers, wholesalers, and retailers who deal in adulterated butter on or after July 1, 1960, and (ii) manufacturers of process or renovated butter on or after July 1, 1960.

(g) Subpart H. The regulations in Subpart H of this part relate to filled cheese manufactured or imported on or after July 1, 1960, and to the occupational tax imposed on manufacturers, wholesalers, and retailers who deal in filled cheese on or after July 1, 1960.

(h) Subpart I. The regulations of Subpart I of this part relate to contracts of sale of cotton for the future delivery entered into on or after July 1, 1960.

(i) Subpart J. The regulations in Subpart J of this part relate to transfers of any interest in silver bullion made on or after July 1, 1960.

(j) Subpart K. The regulations in Subpart K of this part deal with the general provisions relating to occupational taxes contained in Chapter 40 of the Code and are applicable on or after July 1, 1960.

(k) Subpart L. The regulations in Subpart L of this part, which are prescribed under selected provision of subtitle F of the Code, relate to refunds and other administrative provisions of special application to the various taxes covered by the regulations in this part and have application in respect of any transaction within the scope of any other subpart of the regulations in this part.

§ 45.0–4 Extent to which the regulations in this part supersede prior regulations.

The regulations in this part, with respect to the subject matter within the scope thereof, supersede the following regulations and such regulations as prescribed and made applicable to the Internal Revenue Code by Treasury Decision 6091, signed August 16, 1954 (19 F.R. 5167, August 17, 1954):

Tax on playing cards	Regulations 66, 26 CFR (1939), Part 305.
Special taxes with respect to coin-operated amusement and gaming devices, bowling alleys, billiard tables, and pool tables.	Regulations 59 (1941 edition), 26 CFR (1939), Part 323.
Tax on white phosphorus matches	Regulations 32, 26 CFR (1939), Part 300.
Taxes on oleomargarine, adulterated butter, and process or renovated butter.	Regulations 9, (Revised April 1936), 26 CFR (1939), Part 310.
Tax on filled cheese	Regulations 22 (Revised August 1926), 26 CFR (1939), Part 301.
Tax on contracts of sale of cotton for future delivery	Regulations 36 (1916 edition), 26 CFR (1939), Part 110.
Tax on transfers of interests in silver bullion	Regulations 85, 26 CFR (1939), Part 112.
Withdrawal of filled cheese and playing cards, from factories, free of tax, for use of the United States.	Regulations 34, 26 CFR (1939), Part 450.
Exportation without payment of tax on tobacco manufacturers, oleomargarine, adulterated butter, mixed flour, and playing cards; shipments to possessions of the United States, and drawback on tobacco manufactures and stills exported, or shipped to Puerto Rico or Philippine Islands.	Regulations 73, 26 CFR (1939), Part 451.
Removals of alcoholic liquors, tobacco products, and other articles of domestic manufacture to foreign-trade zones.	Regulations 31, 26 CFR (1939), Part 199, §§ 199.425 to 199.436, incl.

Subpart B—Playing Cards

§ 45.4451 Statutory provisions; imposition of tax.

SEC. 4451. Imposition of tax. There shall be imposed a tax of 13 cents per pack upon every pack of playing cards containing not more than 54 cards, manufactured or imported, and sold, or removed for consumption or sale, by a manufacturer. This tax shall be in addition to any import duties imposed on such articles of foreign manufacture.

[Sec. 4451 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4451–1 Imposition, rate and application of tax.

(a) Imposition of tax. Section 4451 imposes a tax, applicable as set forth in paragraph (c) of this section and at the rates shown in paragraph (b) of this section, on playing cards manufactured or imported, and sold, or removed for consumption or sale, by a manufacturer. The tax on playing cards accrues upon removal of the cards from the factory or place where made, or upon the sale thereof prior to such removal. For definition of the term "manufacturer", see section 4452 and § 45.4452–1. For rules relating to duties, liabilities and responsibilities in respect of the tax imposed by section 4451, see sections 4454 to 4456, inclusive, and the regulations thereunder in this subpart.

(b) Rate of tax. The tax is imposed at the rate of 13 cents per pack upon each pack of playing cards containing not less than 2 nor more than 54 cards. Each additional 54 cards or fraction thereof in a pack constitutes a new pack on which tax must be paid at the rate of 13 cents each. For example, if a pack contains 120 cards it must be considered as constituting three packs, two packs of 54 cards each and one pack of 12 cards, and each such pack is subject to tax at the rate of 13 cents per pack or a total of 39 cents.

(c) Application of tax—(1) In general. The tax applies to ordinary playing cards which are used in playing games of skill or chance such as "poker", "bridge", "pinochle", "canasta", and the like, and to cards that may be used in lieu of ordinary playing cards. Cards for the games of "old-maid", "rook", "authors", and the like, differing wholly from ordinary playing cards, are not subject to tax. Miniature playing cards, playing cards with advertising matter printed thereon, and so-called "fortune-telling", "magic", or "trick", decks composed wholly or in part of playing cards or cards that may be used in lieu of playing cards are all subject to the tax.

(2) Imported playing cards—(i) Foreign manufacture. Except as set forth in the Customs Regulations (19 CFR 8.3 and 9.6, as amended), relating to certain importations on and after September 7, 1953, playing cards imported from foreign countries, must be tax-paid at the rate of 13 cents per pack of not more than 54 cards. Such tax is in addition to any import duty and must be paid by affixing the required stamps prior to release of the cards from customs custody.

(ii) American goods returned. When playing cards produced in the United States which have been duly exported without payment of tax are reimported, they are liable to customs duty equal to the tax imposed by section 4451. Containers of reimported domestic playing cards shall be marked as required by Customs Regulations (19 CFR 11.4). Such packages are not required to have internal-revenue stamps affixed.

§ 45.4452 Statutory provisions; definition of manufacturer.

SEC. 4452. Definition of manufacturer. Every person who offers or exposes for sale playing cards, whether the articles so offered or exposed are of foreign manufacture and imported or are of domestic manufacture, shall be deemed the manufacturer thereof, and subject to all the duties, liabilities, and penalties imposed by law in regard to the sale of domestic articles without the use of the proper stamps denoting the tax paid thereon.

[Sec. 4452 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4452–1 Who is a manufacturer.

The term "manufacturer", when used in any provision of the regulations in this part having application to the tax on playing cards, shall include the following persons:

(a) Any person who manufactures playing cards for sale or consumption;

(b) Any person who packs or repacks playing cards for sale;

(c) Any person who offers or exposes for sale packs of playing cards, either domestic or imported, without the use of the proper stamps denoting payment of the tax thereon;

(d) Any person who cuts playing cards from large lithographed sheets and finishes them;

(e) Any person who cleans, gilds, reassembles, or repacks playing cards previously tax paid; and

(f) Any person who resells packs of playing cards on which the stamps have been broken. In such case each pack so sold must be restamped.

For requirement relating to registration of a manufacturer of playing cards, see section 4455 and § 45.4455–1.

§ 45.4453 Statutory provisions; exemption in case of exportation.

SEC. 4453. Exemption in case of exportation. Playing cards may be removed from the place of manufacture for export to a foreign country or for shipment to a possession of the United States without payment of tax, or affixing stamps thereto, under such rules and regulations and the filing of such bonds as the Secretary or his delegate may prescribe.

[Sec. 4453 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4453–1 Exemption in case of exportation.

(a) Cards removed for exportation—(1) In general. The tax imposed by section 4451 shall not apply in the case of the removal of playing cards from the place of manufacture for the purpose of exportation to a foreign country or shipment to a possession of the United States and in due course so exported or shipped. Such removal in every instance must be made by shipment direct from the place of manufacture without any stoppage in transit. Packs of playing cards sent to a foreign country or a possession of the United States as samplies must comply with the provisions of this section in order to be exempt.

(2) Definition of exportation. Exportation means the severance of an article from the mass of things belonging within the United States with the intention of uniting it with the mass of things belonging within some foreign country or within a possession of the United States. The character of a shipment will be determined by the intention with which it is made and it assumes the character of an export to a foreign country or shipment to a possession of the United States only where destined for, and intended for use in, a foreign country or possession of the United States, as the case may be.

(3) Responsibility for exportation of playing cards. Responsibility for compliance with the provisions of this section with respect to the removal of playing cards, without payment of tax, for export, and for the proper exportation of such playing cards shall rest upon the manufacturer thereof.

(4) Liability for tax on playing cards. The manufacturer of the playing cards (see § 48.4462–1 for definition of a manufacturer) shall be liable for the tax imposed thereon by section 4451 if the provisions of this section are not complied with.

(5) Removal for export. (i) To exempt from tax a removal of playing cards from the place of manufacture for export both of the following conditions must be met: (a) The playing cards so removed must be identified as having been removed from the place of manufacture by the manufacturer for export, and (b) the playing cards so removed must be exported in due course.

(ii) Playing cards will be regarded as having been removed from the place of manufacture by the manufacturer for export if the manufacturer has in his possession at the time of removal from the place of manufacture a written order or contract of sale showing that the manufacturer is to ship the playing cards to a foreign destination or to a possession of the United States.

(iii) The written order or contract of sale referred to in subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph suspends liability for payment of the tax by the manufacturer for such removal from the place of manufacture for export for a period of 6 months from the date of removal of such playing cards.

(6) Proof of exportation—(i) Other than by parcel post. Exportation may be evidenced by (a) a copy of the export bill of lading issued by the delivering carrier, or (b) a certificate by the agent or representative of the export carrier showing actual exportation of the playing cards, or (c) a certificate of landing signed by a customs officer of a foreign country or possession of the United States to which the playing cards are exported, or (d) where such foreign country or possession of the United States has no customs administration, a statement of the foreign consignee showing receipt of the playing cards. If, within a period of six months from the date of removal of such playing cards, the manufacturer has not received and attached to the order or contract proper "proof of exportation", then the temporary suspension of the liability for the payment of the tax ceases and such liability shall become immediately due and payable. Such tax shall be paid to the district director for the district in which is located the place of manufacture from which the shipment is made, with sufficient information to identify the taxpayer and the nature and purpose of the payment. However, if proof of exportation later becomes available, a claim for refund of any tax paid may be filed on Form 843, but such action must be taken within the three-year period prescribed by section 6511.

(ii) Exportation by parcel post. If playing cards are exported by parcel post, the manufacturer thereof shall have a statement prepared for use with each package so exported on which shall be shown such information as the destination, order or invoice number, the contents of the package, the name of the vendee, etc. Upon mailing the package described in the statement, the manufacturer shall have the statement stamped by the local postmaster as evidence of said package having been received by him for exportation by parcel post. A waiver of the manufacturer's right to withdraw such package from the mails shall be stamped or written on each package and such waiver shall be signed by the manufacturer making the shipment.

(b) Bond. If the district director deems it necessary in order to protect the revenue, a bond may be required of any manufacturer removing playing cards from the place of manufacture for export to a foreign country or for shipment to a possession of the United States. The penal sum of such bond shall be in an amount specified by the district director in a notice mailed to the manufacturer. For other provisions relating to bonds, see §§ 301.7101 and 301.7101–1 of this chapter (Regulations on Procedure and Admininstration).

(c) Miscellaneous—(1) Diversion of shipment to another export consignee. After removal of a shipment of playing cards from the place of manufacture for export in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (a)(5)(ii) of this section, the manufacturer of such playing cards may divert the shipment to another consignee for export provided he has in his possession a written order or contract of sale as provided in paragraph (a)(5)(ii) of this section from such other consignee.

(2) Return of shipment to factory. In case a consignee, for whom a manufacturer removes playing cards from his place of manufacture in accordance with a written order or contract of sale for export, modifies or cancels his written order or contract of sale for export, the manufacturer may return the shipment of such playing cards to his place of manufacture provided he maintains adequate records relating to such return.

§ 45.4453–2 Removal to foreign-trade zones.

(a) In general. Playing cards may be removed from the place of manufacture without having stamps affixed thereto for delivery to a foreign-trade zone for exportation. Such removal and delivery thereof to a foreign-trade zone is considered an exportation.

(b) Definition of foreign-trade zone. "Foreign-trade zone" or "zone," as used in this section, means a foreign-trade zone established and operated pursuant to the Act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. 998), as amended by Pub. Law 566, 81st Cong. (64 Stat. 246).

(c) Proof of delivery to a foreign-trade zone. A manufacturer of playing cards who removes such playing cards from the place of manufacture for delivery to a foreign-trade zone without affixing stamps thereto shall maintain adequate records of all such removals and shall keep sufficient written proof of such removals and deliveries as may be necessary to substantiate actual delivery of the playing cards to the foreign-trade zone. The records referred to in the preceding sentence shall be retained by the manufacturer and made available for inspection by any revenue officer upon his request.

§ 45.4454 Statutory provisions; liability for tax.

SEC. 4454. Liability for tax. The tax imposed by this subchapter shall be paid by any person who makes, sells, removes, consigns, or ships any playing cards, or for whose use or benefit the same are made, removed, consigned, or shipped.

[Sec. 4454 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4454–1 Liability for tax.

The tax imposed under section 4451 is payable by the person who makes, sells, removes, consigns, or ships any playing cards, or for whose use or benefit such playing cards are made, removed, consigned, or shipped. In the case of playing cards of foreign manufacture the tax imposed by section 4451 is payable by the importer or consignee of such playing cards.

§ 45.4455 Statutory provisions; registration.

SEC. 4455. Registration. Every manufacturer of playing cards shall register with the official in charge of the collection district his name or style, place of residence, trade, or business, and the place where such business is to be carried on.

[Sec. 4455 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4455–1 Manufacturers to register.

(a) In general. Every manufacturer of playing cards, as defined in section 4452, shall register with the district director for the district in which is located his principal place of business, his name or style, place of residence, trade or business, the location of his factory, and the location of his principal place of business. Application for registry should be made on Form 277. The application for registry shall be prepared in accordance with the form, instructions, and regulations applicable thereto. Upon approval of the application, the district director will furnish the applicant a certificate of registry on Form 362 which shall be conspicuously posted in his principal place of business.

(b) Prior registrations or applications. In any case in which a manufacturer of playing cards has made application for registry under corresponding provisions of prior regulations, or holds a Certificate of Registry in effect under such prior regulations, such manufacturer is not required to make application for registry under this section, unless the district director furnishes him with written notification that such application is required. In such event, the application for registry shall be made at the time, in the form, and in the manner prescribed in such written notification.

§ 45.4456 Statutory provisions; stamps.

SEC. 4456. Stamps—(a) Sale. The Secretary shall cause the stamps on playing cards to be sold only to those manufacturers as have registered as required by law, and to importers of playing cards, who are required to affix the stamps to imported playing cards.

(b) Accounts. The Secretary shall cause to be kept accounts of the number and denominate values of the stamps sold to each manufacturer and importer.

[Sec. 4456 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4456–1 Stamps for payment of tax.

Stamps have been prepared pursuant to law for payment of the tax on playing cards, and have been furnished to district directors for sale only to such manufacturers as have registered as required by law and to importers of playing cards.

§ 45.4456–2 Purchase of stamps.

(a) Domestic manufacturer. Manufacturers must use Form 218 in ordering playing card stamps. This form is printed by the Government only and furnished to district directors for distribution. Each such order form must be accompanied by the proper remittance for the full amount of the order. Unless otherwise directed, stamps will be sent by ordinary mail at the risk of the purchaser. If ordered to be sent by certified or registered mail, the order must be accompanied by the requisite additional amount to pay the fee for such service. Stamps will also be forwarded by express at the expense of the taxpayer.

(b) Owner or consignee of imported playing cards. The owner or consignee of imported playing cards shall purchase stamps for use in the payment of the tax on such cards from the district director for the district in which is located the office of the collector of customs where the customs entry is filed. Except as provided in paragraph (b) of § 45.4456–3 (relating to the purchase of stamps for affixing to packages in foreign countries), Form 923, certified by the customs officer having custody of such cards, shall be used in ordering such stamps. A copy of each such order form which has been marked paid by the district director shall be retained by the owner or consignee for three years following the close of the year in which the stamps were purchased, and made available for inspection by any revenue officer upon his request. See paragraph (a) of this section for details other than the form to be used in making the order.

§ 45.4456–3 Affixing stamps.

(a) Domestic manufacturer. (1) Each pack of playing cards, except as otherwise provided in this section, shall, prior to sale, or before removal from the place where manufactured, packed, reassembled, or repacked, have securely affixed thereto proper internal-revenue stamp or stamps of such denomination as will cover fully the tax thereon. Such stamp or stamps shall be affixed in such manner as to seal the pack and to necessitate the stamp or stamps being torn in two pieces when the pack is opened.

(2) Where playing cards are packed in leather, plush, plastic, ornamental, or metal cases, the stamps denoting payment of the tax thereon may be affixed to inside wrappers instead of to the cases proper, provided one of the following methods of packing and stamping is used:

(i) Paper bands not less than one-half inch wide must be extended around the entire pack of cards, both the long and short way, and securely fastened together with paste or mucilage at the intersection on the back of the pack so that the pack cannot be separated without breaking the bands. The internal-revenue stamp must be affixed to the pack in such manner that it will adhere partly to one of the bands and partly to the back of the top card so that removal of the bands will necessitate tearing the stamp in two. If desired, an extra blank card may be placed on top of the pack for the purpose of attaching a part of the stamp thereto.

(ii) The package of cards must be completely wrapped with paper, cellophane, or other acceptable wrapper, securely sealed with paste or mucilage, and the internal-revenue stamp affixed across the place where the wrapper is sealed in such manner as to necessitate tearing the stamp in two when the cards are removed from the wrapper.

(3) Where packages of playing cards are sent out from the factory duly stamped and are thereafter opened and the stamp broken, the cards cannot be returned to the package and sold under a broken stamp. In such case a new stamp must be affixed to each package and duly canceled. If cards are reassembled from packs on which tax has been paid, each deck must show the requisite stamp.

(b) Imported playing cards—(1) Stamps affixed in foreign countries. Stamps for use in payment of the tax on imported playing cards may be affixed to such cards in the foreign country in which manufactured, provided the laws of such foreign country grant a like privilege in respect of playing cards manufactured in the United States and exported to such country. An importer desiring to have the stamps for use in payment of the tax on imported playing cards affixed to these cards in such foreign country shall file with any district director an order for the necessary stamps. No particular form for such order is prescribed, but the order shall show (i) the name and address of the person by whom such playing cards are to be imported, (ii) the name of the foreign country, (iii) the quantity of playing cards to be imported, and (iv) the number and value of the stamps, and the total value of all of the stamps. A copy of such order which has been marked paid by the district director shall be retained by the owner or consignee for three years following the close of the year in which the stamps were purchased, and made available for inspection by any revenue officer upon his request. The details with respect to the purchase of stamps set forth in paragraph (a) of § 45.4456–2, other than the form to be used, are applicable to the orders described in this paragraph. The method of affixing stamps prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section is hereby made applicable to stamps affixed in foreign countries.

(2) Stamps not affixed before importation. In the case of imported playing cards to which internal-revenue stamps have not been affixed before importation, such stamp shall be affixed by the owner or consignee while the playing cards are in the hands of the proper customs officer, and such cards shall not pass out of the custody of such officer until the requisite stamps are affixed and canceled. The method of affixing stamps to domestic playing cards prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section is hereby made applicable to stamps affixed in accordance with the provisions of this subparagraph.

§ 45.4456–4 Abandoned or forfeited playing cards.

All playing cards which have been abandoned, forfeited, or seized under warrant of distraint, and which are sold by order of court or of any Government officer for the benefit of the United States, or by a sheriff, constable, or other municipal officer under any writ, execution, or process or order of any court, shall, before delivery by such officer, be properly packed and have the requisite stamps affixed and canceled. With reference to the procurement and cancellation of stamps in cases of sales referred to in this section, instructions will be given as to the procedure according to the facts in the individual case.

§ 45.4456–5 Cancellation of stamps.

(a) Domestic manufacturer. Each stamp affixed to a package of playing cards must be canceled by writing or printing in ink across the face of the stamp the initials of the manufacturer.

(b) Imported playing cards. Each stamp affixed to imported playing cards must be canceled by writing or printing in ink across the face of the stamp the initials of the owner or consignee and the date on which the stamp was affixed.

§ 45.4456–6 Redemption of stamps.

Playing card stamps, properly affixed to packs when removed from the place of manufacture, may not be redeemed once the cards have been removed from the premises of the manufacturer.

§ 45.4457 Statutory provisions; cross references.

SEC. 4457. Cross references. For penalties and other administrative provisions applicable to this subchapter, see subtitle F.

(a) For penalties for offenses relating to stamps, see § 45.7269.

(b) For penalty for unauthorized use or sale of stamps, see § 45.7269.

(c) For penalties for other offenses relating to stamps, see § 45.7271.

(d) For penalty for failure to register as required by section 4455, see § 45.7272.

(e) For other administrative provisions relating to the tax imposed on playing cards, see Subpart L.

(f) For regulations relating to exemption from tax in case of sale for use by the United States, see §§ 45.7510–1 to 45.7510–3, inclusive.

Subpart C—Occupational Tax on Coin-Operated Devices

§ 45.4461 Statutory provisions; imposition of tax.

SEC. 4461. Imposition of tax—(a) In general. There shall be imposed a special tax to be paid by every person who maintains for use or permits the use of, on any place or premises occupied by him, a coin-operated amusement or gaming device at the following rates:

(1) $10 a year, in the case of a device defined in paragraph (1) of section 4462 (a);

(2) $250 a year, in the case of a device defined in paragraph (2) of section 4462 (a); and

(3) $10 or $250 a year, as the case may be, for each additional device so maintained or the use of which is so permitted. If one such device is replaced by another, such other device shall not be considered an additional device.

(b) Reduced rate. In the case of a device which is defined in paragraph (2) of section 4462 (a) and which is commonly known as a claw, crane, or digger machine, the tax imposed by subsection (a) shall be at the rate of $10 a year (in lieu of $250 a year) if—

(1) The charge for each operation of such device is not more than 10 cents,

(2) Such device never dispenses a prize other than merchandise of a maximum retail value of $1, and with respect to such device there is never a display or offer of any prize or merchandise other than merchandise dispensed by such machine,

(3) Such device is actuated by a crank and operates solely by means of a nonelectrical mechanism, and

(4) Such device is not operated other than in connection with and as part of carnivals or county or State fairs.

[Sec. 4461 as amended and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4461–1 Imposition of tax.

(a) In general. Section 4461 imposes a special tax to be paid by every person who maintains for use or permits the use of, on any place or premises occupied by him, a coin-operated amusement or gaming device described in section 4462 and § 45.4462–1. Any agency or instrumentality of the United States such as an Army exchange, Navy exchange, etc., is liable to such special tax unless granted by statute a specific exemption therefrom. Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b) of this section, liability is incurred in respect of each coin-operated amusement or gaming device maintained for use, or permitted to be used, by a person on his premises during a particular year or portion thereof. Tax liability applies with respect to a device installed on the taxpayer's premises even though previously used on the premises of another person, and even though special tax for the same year or period or part thereof was paid by such other person with respect thereto.

(b) Replacements. If a taxpayer replaces a device with respect to which he has paid special tax with a like device, no additional tax is payable. For example, a cigar store proprietor who maintains on the premises two coin-operated amusement devices with respect to which he has paid special tax has these two machines removed and replaces them with two coin-operated amusement devices of a more modern design. In this case no additional special tax is payable. However, if the replacing article is placed in operation before operation of the replaced article is discontinued, additional tax liability is incurred. If coin-operated amusement devices are replaced by coin-operated gaming devices, or gaming devices are replaced by amusement devices, liability to special tax at the rate applicable to the replacing machines or devices is incurred, and no credit is allowable for the special tax paid with respect to the replaced machines or devices.

§ 45.4461–2 Rates of tax.

(a) In general. Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (b) of this section, the special taxes under section 4461 are imposed at the following rates:

(1) With respect to each "coin-operated amusement or gaming device" as defined in section 4462(a)(1)—$10 per year per device.

(2) With respect to each "coin-operated amusement or gaming device" defined in section 4462(a)(2)—$250 per year per device.

(b) Reduced rate. In the case of a device which is defined in paragraph (2) of section 4462(a) and which is commonly known as a claw, crane, or digger machine, the rate of tax shall be $10 per year per device (in lieu of $250 a year) if—

(1) The charge for each operation of such device is not more than 10 cents,

(2) Such device never dispenses a prize other than merchandise of a maximum retail value of $1, and with respect to such device there is never a display or offer of any prize or merchandise other than merchandise dispensed by such machine,

(3) Such device is actuated by a crank and operates solely by means of a nonelectrical mechanism, and

(4) Such device is not operated other than in connection with and as part of carnivals or county or State fairs.

§ 45.4462 Statutory provisions; definition of coin-operated amusement or gaming device.

SEC. 4462. Definition of coin-operated amusement or gaming device—(a) In general. For purposes of this subchapter, the term "coin-operated amusement or gaming device" means—

(1) Any machine which is—

(A) A music machine operated by means of the insertion of a coin, token, or similar object,

(B) A vending machine operated by means of the insertion of a one cent coin, which, when it dispenses a prize never dispenses a prize of a retail value of, or entitles a person to receive a prize of a retail value of, more than 5 cents, and if the only prize dispensed is merchandise and not cash or tokens,

(C) An amusement machine operated by means of the insertion of a coin, token, or similar object, but not including any device defined in paragraph (2) of this subsection, or

(D) A machine which is similar to machines described in subparagraph (A), (B), or (C), and is operated without the insertion of a coin, token, or similar object; and

(2) Any machine which is—

(A) A so-called "slot" machine which operates by means of the insertion of a coin, token, or similar object and which, by application of the element of chance, may deliver, or entitle the person playing or operating the machine to receive cash, premiums, merchandise, or tokens, or

(B) A machine which is similar to machines described in subparagraph (A) and is operated without the insertion of a coin, token, or similar object.

(b) Exclusion. The term "coin-operated amusement or gaming device" does not include bona fide vending machines in which are not incorporated gaming or amusement features.

[Sec. 4462 as amended and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4462–1 Definition of coin-operated amusement or gaming devices.

(a) Devices within scope of section 4462(a)(1)—(1) In general. Section 4462(a)(1) includes within its scope any machine which is—

(i) A music machine operated by means of the insertion of a coin, token, or similar object,

(ii) A vending machine operated by means of the insertion of a one-cent coin, which, when it dispenses a prize, never dispenses a prize of a retail value of, or entitles a person to receive a prize of a retail value of, more than 5 cents, and if the only prize dispensed is merchandise and not cash or tokens,

(iii) An amusement machine operated by means of the insertion of a coin, token, or similar object, but not including any device defined in paragraph (b) of this section, or

(iv) A machine which is similar to machines described in subdivisions (i), (ii), and (iii) of this subparagraph, and is operated without the insertion of a coin, token, or similar object.

(2) Examples of machines or devices within scope of section 4462(a)(1). The following devices and machines illustrate the type of machines or devices within the scope of section 4462(a)(1):

(i) Coin-operated athletic-type machines such as punching bags, hitting machines, lifters, shockers and grip machines.

(ii) A mechanical horse or other similar device which is activated by the insertion of a coin.

(iii) Coin-operated still or moving picture machines.

(iv) A coin-operated device which resembles a billiard or pool table but which has posts or holes in its playing surfaces precluding its use as a billiard or pool table.

(v) A coin-operated vending machine, which, in addition to delivering chewing gum balls, has incorporated therein an amusement feature, such as a pistol and a target.

(b) Devices within scope of section 4462(a)(2)—(1) In general. Section 4462(a)(2) includes within its scope any machine which is—

(i) A so-called "slot" machine which operates by means of the insertion of a coin, token, or similar object and which, by application of the element of chance, may deliver, or entitle the person playing or operating the machine to receive cash, premiums, merchandise, or tokens, or

(ii) A machine which is similar to machines described in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph and is operated without the insertion of a coin, token, or similar object.

(2) Examples of machines or devices within scope of section 4462(a)(2). The following devices and machines illustrate the type of machines or devices within the scope of section 4462(a)(2):

(i) A machine which is operated by means of the insertion of a coin, token, or similar object and which, even though it does not dispense cash or tokens, has the features and characteristics of a gaming device whether or not evidence exists as to actual payoffs.

(ii) A so-called crane machine, claw, digger or rotary merchandising type device which is operated by the insertion of a coin and adjustment of a control lever for the purpose of removing from the machine, by gripping, pushing or other manipulation articles such as figurines, lighters, etc., in the machine.

(iii) A pinball machine equipped with a push button for releasing free play and a meter for recording the plays so released, or equipped with provisions for multiple coin insertion for increasing the odds.

(iv) Pinball machines in connection with which free plays are redeemed in cash, tokens, or merchandise, or prizes are offered to any person for the attainment of designated scores.

(v) A coin-operated machine that delivers a ticket that entitles the player to a prize if the poker hand symbolized on the ticket constitutes a winning hand.

(c) Exclusion. (1) Section 4462(b) specifically excludes from the term "coin-operated amusement or gaming device" a bona fide vending machine in which are not incorporated gaming or amusement features.

(2) Examples. The provisions of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph may be illustrated by the following examples:

(i) A vending machine, operated by the insertion of a one cent coin, which occasionally dispenses along with gum sold by means of the machine, toy charms of negligible value.

(ii) A recording machine which, upon insertion of a coin, records a person's voice, plays the record back, and then delivers the record to the purchaser.

§ 45.4463 Statutory provisions; administrative provisions; trade or business.

SEC. 4463. Administrative provisions—(a) Trade or business. An operator of a place or premises who maintains for use or permits the use of any coin-operated device shall be considered, for purposes of chapter 40, to be engaged in a trade or business in respect of each such device.

(b) Cross reference. For penalties and other administrative provisions applicable to this subchapter, see chapter 40 and subtitle F.

[Sec. 4463 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4463–1 Cross references.

(a) For provisions relating to registration in case of a trade or business on which a special tax is imposed, see §§ 45.7011 and 45.7011–1.

(b) For requirements relating to posting occupational tax stamps, see §§ 45.6806 and 45.6806–1.

(c) For provisions relating to penalties and other administrative provisions applicable in respect of the special tax imposed with respect to coin-operated amusement and gaming devices, see Subpart K and the applicable provisions of Subpart L of this part.

Subpart D—Occupational Tax on Bowling Alleys, Billiard and Pool Tables

§ 45.4471 Statutory provisions; imposition of tax.

SEC. 4471. Imposition of tax. There shall be imposed a special tax to be paid by every person who operates a bowling alley, billiard room, or pool room at the rate of $20 a year for each bowling alley, billiard table, or pool table.

[Sec. 4471 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4471–1 Imposition and rate of tax.

(a) Imposition of tax. Section 4471 imposes a special tax to be paid by every person who operates a bowling alley, billiard room, or pool room. If a taxpayer replaces an alley bed, billiard table, or pool table with respect to which he has paid special tax with another article of the same or different kind subject to this tax, for example, replaces an alley bed either with another alley bed or a billiard or pool table, no additional tax is payable. However, if the replacing article is placed in operation before operation of the replaced article is discontinued additional tax liability is incurred.

(b) Rate of tax. The rate of special tax imposed by section 4471 is $20 per year for each bowling alley, billiard table, or pool table. Liability is incurred in respect of each alley bed, billiard table, or pool table maintained for use on the operator's premises during a particular year or portion thereof.

§ 45.4472 Statutory provisions; definition.

SEC. 4472. Definition. For the purpose of section 4471 every building or place where bowls are thrown or where games of billiards or pool are played, except in private homes, shall be regarded as a bowling alley, billiard room, or pool room, respectively.

[Sec. 4472 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4472–1 Definition of bowling alley, billiard room, and pool room.

For the purpose of section 4471 every building or place where bowls are thrown or where games of billiards or pool are played, except a private home, shall be regarded as a bowling alley, billiard room, or pool room, respectively.

§ 45.4473 Statutory provisions; exemptions.

SEC. 4473. Exemptions. The tax imposed by section 4471 shall not apply with respect to—

(1) Hospitals. Any billiard table or pool table in a hospital if no charge is made for the use of such table; or

(2) Armed Forces. Any bowling alley, billiard table, or pool table maintained exclusively for the use of members of the Armed Forces on any property owned, reserved, or used by, or otherwise acquired for the use of, the United States if no charge is made for their use; or

(3) Certain organizations. Any bowling alley, billiard table, or pool table operated—

(A) By, and located on the premises of, an organization not organized for profit and no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual, or

(B) By any agency or instrumentality of the United States, if no charge is made for the use of such alley or table.

[Sec. 4473 as amended and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4473–1 Exemptions.

(a) Hospitals. The special tax imposed under section 4471 shall not apply in the case of a billiard or pool table operated in a hospital if no charge is made for the use of such table. The term "hospital", as used in this section, does not include a home for the aged even though the home has facilities to care for residents who become ill.

(b) Armed Forces. The special tax imposed under section 4471 shall not apply with respect to any bowling alley, billiard table, or pool table maintained exclusively for the use of members of the Armed Forces on any property owned, reserved, or used by, or otherwise acquired for the use of, the United States if no charge is made for their use. The term "Armed Forces" includes all regular and reserve components of the uniformed services which are subject to the jurisdiction of the Secretary of Defense, the Secretary of the Army, the Secretary of the Navy, or the Secretary of the Air Force. The term also includes the Coast Guard.

(c) Certain organizations. The special tax imposed under section 4471 shall not apply with respect to any bowling alley, billiard table, or pool table—

(1) Operated by, and located on the premises of, an organization not organized for profit and no part of the net earnings of which inures to the benefit of any private shareholder or individual provided no charge is made for the use of such alley or table.

(2) Operated by any agency or instrumentality of the United States provided no charge is made for the use of such alley or table.

(d) Charge for use. The exemption provided by section 4473 in respect of the tax imposed by section 4471 does not apply if any charge is made for the use of the bowling alley, billiard table or pool table, even though the other conditions are met. Thus, an exemption does not exist where, as a condition precedent to using an alley or table, a charge is collected from the player or players as, for example, where an amount is collected from a player using a bowling alley for payment, directly or indirectly, to a pin-setter.

(a) For provisions relating to registration in case of a trade or business on which a special tax is imposed, see §§ 45.7011 and 45.7011–1.

(b) For requirements relating to posting occupational tax stamps, see §§ 45.6806 and 45.6806(a)–1.

(c) For provisions relating to penalties and other administrative provisions applicable in respect of the special tax imposed with respect to bowling alleys, billiard and pool tables, see Subpart K and the applicable provisions of Subpart L of this part.

Subpart E—Oleomargarine

§ 45.4591 Statutory provisions; imposition of tax.

SEC. 4591. Imposition of tax—(a) Rate. There is hereby imposed on all oleomargarine imported from foreign countries, in addition to any import duty imposed on the same, an internal revenue tax of 15 cents per pound, such tax to be represented by coupon stamps. The Secretary or his delegate is authorized to decide what substances, extracts, mixtures, or compounds which may be submitted for his inspection in contested cases are to be taxed under this subchapter; and his decision in matters of taxation under this subchapter shall be final.

(b) Affixing of stamps. The stamps shall be affixed and canceled by the owner or importer of the oleomargarine while it is in the custody of the proper custom house officers; and the oleomargarine shall not pass out of the custody of said officers until the stamps have been so affixed and canceled, but shall be put up in wooden packages, each containing not less than 10 pounds, before the stamps are affixed. Whenever it is necessary to take any oleomargarine so imported to any place other than the public stores of the United States for the purpose of affixing and canceling such stamps, the collector of customs of the port where such oleomargine is entered shall designate a bonded warehouse to which it shall be taken, under the control of such customs officer as such collector may direct.

[Sec. 4591 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4591–1 Imposition, rate and payment of and liability for tax.

(a) Imposition and rate of tax. Section 4591 imposes, in addition to any import duty, a tax of 15 cents per pound on all oleomargarine imported into the United States from any foreign country.

(b) Payment and liability for tax. The tax imposed under section 4591 shall be paid by the importer or owner of the imported oleomargarine by the affixing of stamps to the packages and the canceling thereof while the oleomargarine is in the custody of the Bureau of Customs. Each stamp affixed to a package must be canceled by writing or printing in ink across the face of the stamp the initials of the owner or consignee and the date on which the stamp was affixed.

§ 45.4592(a) Statutory provisions; definitions.

SEC. 4592. Definitions—(a) Oleomargarine. For the purposes of section 4591, certain manufactured substances, certain extracts, and certain mixtures and compounds, including such mixtures and compounds with butter, shall be known and designated as "oleomargarine", namely: All substances known prior to August 2, 1886, as oleomargarine, oleo, oleomargarine oil, butterine, lardine, suine, and neutral; all mixtures and compounds of oleomargarine, oleo, oleomargarine oil, butterine, lardine, suine, and neutral; all lard extracts and tallow extracts; and all mixtures and compounds of tallow, beef fat, suet, lard, lard oil, fish oil or fish fat, vegetable oil, annatto, and other coloring matter, intestinal fat, and offal fat;—if (1) made in imitation or semblance of butter, or (2) calculated or intended to be sold as butter or for butter, or (3) churned, emulsified, or mixed in cream, milk, water, of [or] other liquid, and containing moisture in excess of 1 per centum or common salt.

[Sec. 4592(a) as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4592(a)–1 Definition of the term "oleomargarine".

For the purposes of the regulations in this part, certain manufactured substances, certain extracts, and certain mixtures and compounds, including such mixtures and compounds with butter shall be known and designated as "oleomargarine", namely,

(a) All substances known prior to August 2, 1886, as oleomargarine, oleo, oleomargarine oil, butterine, lardine, suine, and neutral;

(b) All mixtures and compounds of oleomargarine, oleo, oleomargarine oil, butterine, lardine, suine, and neutral;

(c) All lard extracts and tallow extracts; and

(d) All mixtures and compounds of tallow, beef fat, suet, lard, lard oil, fish oil or fish fat, vegetable oil, annatto, and other coloring matter, intestinal fat, and offal fat; if

(1) Made in imitation or semblance of butter, or

(2) Calculated or intended to be sold as butter or for butter, or

(3) Churned, emulsified, or mixed in cream, milk, water, or other liquid, and containing moisture in excess of 1 per centum or common salt.

§ 45.4593(a) Statutory provisions; exemptions.

SEC. 4593. Exemption—(a) Shortening or condiments. Section 4591 shall not apply to puff-pastry shortening not churned or emulsified in milk or cream, and having a melting point of 118 degrees Fahrenheit or more, nor to any of the following containing condiments and spices: salad dressings, mayonnaise dressings, or mayonnaise products, nor to liquid emulsion, pharmaceutical preparations, oil meals, liquid preservatives, illuminating oils, cleansing compounds, or flavoring compounds.

[Sec. 4593(a) as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4593(a)–1 Exemptions.

(a) Shortening or condiments. Section 4591 shall not apply to puff-pastry shortening not churned or emulsified in milk or cream, and having a melting point of 118 degrees Fahrenheit or more, nor to any of the following containing condiments and spices: salad dressing, mayonnaise dressing, or mayonnaise products, nor to liquid emulsion, pharmaceutical preparations, oil meals, liquid preservatives, illuminating oils, cleansing compounds, or flavoring compounds.

Subpart F—White Phosphorus Matches

§ 45.4801 Statutory provisions; imposition of tax.

SEC. 4801. Imposition of tax—(a) Rate. There shall be imposed upon white phosphorus matches manufactured, sold, or removed a tax at the rate of 2 cents per one hundred matches.

(b) By whom paid. The tax imposed by subsection (a) shall be paid by the manufacturer.

[Sec. 4801 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4801–1 Imposition and rate of tax.

Section 4801 imposes a tax upon white phosphorus matches manufactured, sold, or removed at the rate of 2 cents per 100 matches. The tax is payable by the manufacturer of the white phosphorus matches. For a definition of the term "white phosphorus", see section 4802 and § 45.4802–1.

§ 45.4802 Statutory provisions; definition of white phosphorus.

SEC. 4802. Definition of white phosphorus. For the purpose of this subchapter, the words "white phosphorus" shall be understood to mean the common poisonous white or yellow phosphorus used in the manufacture of matches and not to include the nonpoisonous forms or the nonpoisonous compounds of white or yellow phosphorus.

[Sec. 4802 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4802–1 Definition of white phosphorus.

For the purpose of the regulations in this part, the term "white phosphorus" shall be understood to mean the common poisonous white or yellow phosphorous used in the manufacture of matches. The term does not include the nonpoisonous forms or the nonpoisonous compounds of white or yellow phosphorus.

§ 45.4803 Statutory provisions; stamps.

SEC. 4803. Stamps—(a) Method of payment—(1) Stamps. The tax imposed by section 4801 shall be represented by adhesive stamps.

(2) Assessment. For assessment in case of omitted taxes, see subtitle F.

(b) Sale. The Secretary or his delegate shall require that stamps be sold only to duly qualified manufacturers.

(c) Accounts. The Secretary or his delegate shall cause to be kept accounts of the number and denominate values of the stamps sold to each manufacturer.

(d) Other stamp provisions. All the provisions and penalties of law governing the engraving, issuing, sale, affixing, cancellation, accountability, effacement, destruction, and forgery of stamps provided for internal revenues shall apply to stamps provided for by this subchapter.

[Sec. 4803 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4803–1 Sale of stamps to qualified manufacturer.

Documentary stamps will be used in the payment of the tax imposed by section 4801. Such stamps are obtainable from any district director upon requisition and payment therefor by a manufacturer who has incurred liability for the tax imposed by section 4801 and who has registered and filed a satisfactory bond in accordance with the regulations in this part.

§ 45.4804 Statutory provisions; requirements on manufacturers.

SEC. 4804. Requirements on manufacturers—(a) Packing—(1) Number in packages. All white phosphorus matches shall be packed by the manufacturer thereof in packages containing 100, 200, 500, 1,000, or 1,500 matches each, which shall then be packed by the manufacturer in packages containing not less than 14,400 matches.

(2) Stamping. The manufacturer shall affix to every package containing 100, 200, 500, 1,000, or 1,500 matches an adhesive stamp of the required value and shall place thereon the initials of his name and the date on which such stamp is affixed, so that the same may not again be used.

(3) Factory number. Every manufacturer of matches shall mark, brand, affix, stamp, or print, in such manner as the Secretary or his delegate shall prescribe, on every package of white phosphorus matches manufactured, sold, or removed by him, the factory number required under subsection (b).

(4) Label. Every manufacturer of white phosphorus matches shall securely affix by pasting on each original package containing stamped packages of white phosphorus matches manufactured by him a label, on which shall be printed, besides the number of the manufactory and the district in which it is situated, these words: "Notice.—The manufacturer of the white phosphorus matches herein contained has complied with all the requirements of law. Every person is cautioned not to use again the stamps on the packages herein contained under the penalty provided by law in such cases."

(b) Factory number and signs. Every manufacturer of white phosphorus matches shall put up such signs and affix such number to his factory as the Secretary or his delegate may by regulation require.

(c) Bonds. Every manufacturer of white phosphorus matches shall file with the official in charge of the internal revenue district in which his manufactory is located such bonds as the Secretary or his delegate may by regulation require. The bond required of such manufacturer shall be in the penal sum of not less than $1,000; and the sum of said bond may be increased from time to time and additional sureties required at the discretion of the Secretary or his delegate.

(d) Registration. Every manufacturer of white phosphorus matches shall register with the official in charge of the internal revenue district his name or style, place of manufactory, and the place where such business is to be carried on.

[Sec. 4804 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4804–1 Packing and stamping of white phosphorus matches.

Section 4804(a) requires that all white phosphorus matches shall be packed in packages of 100, 200, 500, 1,000, and 1,500 matches each, and these shall then be packed in packages containing not less than 14,400 matches. The stamp or stamps required to be used in payment of the tax must be securely affixed by the manufacturer so as to seal the packages of 100, 200, 500, 1,000, and 1,500 matches and the initials of the manufacturer and the date when such stamp or stamps are affixed placed thereon either by stencil or perforation. The stenciling or perforating of stamps may be done before affixing to the packages where machines are employed for this purpose and where the stenciling or perforating of stamps after affixing would injure the packages. Packages for packing 100, 200, 500, 1,000, and 1,500 matches may be of any durable material which will permit the affixing and adhesion of the stamps.

§ 45.4804–2 Factory number.

Upon receipt of the notice of intention to manufacture white phosphorus matches, as provided by § 45.4804–8, the district director will assign to the manufacturer a factory number, which applies to the factory, and shall not thereafter be changed. In case there is more than one manufacturer, or a single manufacturer having more than one factory in the same district, a separate and consecutive number shall be given each factory.

§ 45.4804–3 Manufacturer's sign.

The manufacturer shall, after assignment of a factory number, place over the principal entrance to the building in which the business is carried on a sign with letters not less than 4 inches in length and of sufficient width, gilded or painted in oil in colors so as to be easily discernible, giving the name and business and number of factory in the following form:

John Doe,
Manufacturer of White Phosphorus Matches,
Factory No. 1

§ 45.4804–4 Separate factories for taxable and nontaxable matches.

If the manufacturer is also engaged in the production of matches not taxable under section 4801, the factory premises where the taxable and nontaxable matches are produced shall be entirely separate, or if in the same building, separated by solid walls or partitions, which shall extend from floor to ceiling. The manufacture of taxable and nontaxable matches on the same premises and with the same machinery is not permissible.

§ 45.4804–5 Factory number required on each package.

The factory number required under section 4804 must be printed, branded, or lithographed on every package of white phosphorus matches removed by the manufacturer.

§ 45.4804–6 Caution label.

In addition to the factory number required on the stamped packages of white phosphorus matches a caution label, as required by section 4804(a)(4), must be affixed to the original package containing these stamped packages. This label should be printed in black ink on white paper, or, if other colors are used, the printing should be in strongest contrast to the background, so as to be distinct and legible.

§ 45.4804–7 Manufacturer's bond.

Every manufacturer of white phosphorus matches shall file such bonds as the district director may require before commencement of business. The penal sum of such bond shall be not less than $1,000; and the sum of said bonds may be increased from time to time at the discretion of the district director. This bond is a continuing one until replaced by a new instrument. Where there is a discontinuance of operation for a period, a new bond will be required upon resumption of business. For other provisions relating to bonds, see §§ 301.7101 and 301.7101–1 of this chapter (Regulations on Procedure and Administration).

§ 45.4804–8 Registry by manufacturer.

Every person proposing to manufacture white phosphorus matches shall, before commencing such manufacture, register by giving written notice of intention to manufacture white phosphorus matches to the district director for the district in which is located the factory, and on July 1 of each year the manufacturer shall give written notice of intent to continue the manufacture of white phosphorus matches. Such manufacturer will also be required to file bond and to comply with all other provisions of the regulations in this part.

§ 45.4804–9 Inventory to be made at commencement of business, on July 1 of each year, and at the time of closing.

After registration, filing of notices and bonds, every manufacturer of white phosphorus matches, before commencing business, shall file with the district director for the district in which his factory is located an inventory in letter form appropriately marked "Opening inventory", stating the quantity of each of the different kinds of materials used in the manufacture of white phosphorus matches, the number of packages and quantity of white phosphorus matches, stamped and unstamped, and the value of attached and unattached stamps held or owned in respect of such factory by such manufacturer, on the date of the inventory. An inventory shall thereafter be filed as of the first day of July during continuance of operations, and a similar inventory must be filed upon discontinuance or suspension of the business for a limited period, which should be marked "closing inventory." Such letter must contain a written declaration that the statements made therein are made under the penalties of perjury.

§ 45.4804–10 Daily records.

(a) In general. Every manufacturer is required to keep a daily record showing the total of each material used each day and the total number of matches produced and the number of stamped packages and original packages in which packed; also the total number of stamped packages and original packages, together with the total number of matches, disposed of each day.

(b) Names of customers. The names of customers to whom matches are consigned and the quantities so sold will not be entered in the manufacturers' daily record and quarterly returns, but the manufacturer shall, upon request of any internal revenue officer, furnish a record of all sales for such period as may be desired.

§ 45.4804–11 Quarterly return.

Each manufacturer shall render in duplicate to the district director a return in letter form for each calendar quarter, which shall be a summary of the daily record required under provisions of paragraph (a) of § 45.4804–10.

§ 45.4805 Statutory provisions; importation and exportation.

SEC. 4805. Importation and exportation—(a) Importation. White phosphorus matches, manufactured wholly or in part in any foreign country, shall not be entitled to entry at any of the ports of the United States, and the importation thereof is prohibited. All matches imported into the United States shall be accompanied by such certificate of official inspection by the government of the country in which such matches were manufactured as shall satisfy the Secretary or his delegate that they are not white phosphorus matches.

(b) Exportation. It shall be unlawful to export from the United States any white phosphorus matches.

[Sec. 4805 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4805–1 Importation and exportation of matches.

(a) White phosphorus matches—(1) Importation. The importation into the United States of white phosphorus matches is prohibited.

(2) Exportation. The exportation from the United States of white phosphorus matches is unlawful.

(b) Matches in general. For regulations relating to the importation of matches into, or the exportation of matches out of, the United States, see the regulations of the Bureau of Customs, 19 CFR 12.34 and 12.35.

§ 45.4806 Statutory provisions; cross references.

SEC. 4806. Cross references. For penalties and other general and administrative provisions applicable to this subchapter, see subtitle F.

(a) For penalties, see §§ 45.7208, 45.7209, 45.7267, 45.7274, 45.7303, and 45.7328.

(b) For penalties for failure to register as required by § 45.4804–6, see § 45.7272.

(c) For other administrative provisions, see Subpart L.

Subpart G—Adulterated and Process or Renovated Butter Tax on Products

§ 45.4811 Statutory provisions; imposition of tax.

SEC. 4811. Imposition of tax—(a) Rate—(1) Adulterated butter. There shall be imposed upon adulterated butter, when manufactured or sold or removed for consumption or use, a tax of 10 cents per pound, and any fractional part of a pound shall be taxed as a pound.

(2) Process or renovated butter. There shall be imposed upon process or renovated butter, when manufactured or sold or removed for consumption or use, a tax of one-fourth of 1 cent per pound, and any fractional part of a pound shall be taxed as a pound.

(b) By whom paid. The tax imposed by subsection (a) shall be paid by the manufacturer.

[Sec. 4811 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4811–1 Imposition and rate of tax.

(a) Adulterated butter. Section 4811 (a) (1) imposes a tax upon adulterated butter, when manufactured or sold or removed for consumption or use from the place of manufacture, at the rate of 10 cents per pound. A fractional part of a pound is taxed as a pound. (For definition of adulterated butter, see § 45.4826–2.)

(b) Process or renovated butter. Section 4811 (a) (2) imposes a tax upon process or renovated butter, when manufactured or sold or removed for consumption or use from the place of manufacture, at the rate of one-fourth of 1 cent per pound. A fractional part of a pound is taxed as a pound. (For definition of process or renovated butter, see § 45.4826–5.)

(c) Liability for tax. The taxes imposed under section 4811 shall be paid by the manufacturer of the adulterated butter or the process or renovated butter, as the case may be. For provisions relating to the method of payment of the tax and to bonding requirements, see §§ 45.4813–1 and 45.4814–5, respectively.

§ 45.4812 Statutory provisions; importation of adulterated butter.

SEC. 4812. Importation of adulterated butter. There shall be imposed upon adulterated butter imported from a foreign country, in addition to any import duty imposed on the same, an internal revenue tax of 15 cents per pound, such tax to be represented by coupon stamps as in the case of adulterated butter manufactured in the United States. The stamps shall be affixed and canceled by the owner or importer of the adulterated butter while it is in the custody of the officers or employees designated by the Secretary or his delegate; and the adulterated butter shall not pass out of the custody of said officers or employees until the stamps have been so affixed and canceled, but shall be put up in wooden packages, each containing not less than 10 pounds, as prescribed in this subpart for adulterated butter manufactured in the United States, before the stamps are affixed; and the owner or importer of such adulterated butter shall be liable to all the penal provisions of this subpart prescribed for manufacturers of adulterated butter manufactured in the United States. Whenever it is necessary to take any adulterated butter so imported to any place other than the public stores of the United States for the purpose of affixing and canceling such stamps, the Secretary or his delegate shall designate a bonded warehouse to which it shall be taken, under the control of such officer or employee as the Secretary or his delegate may direct.

[Sec. 4812 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4812–1 Imposition and rate of tax.

(a) In general. Section 4812 imposes a tax upon adulterated butter imported from a foreign country at the rate of 15 cents per pound. The tax imposed by section 4812 is in addition to any import duty imposed upon adulterated butter.

(b) Liability for tax. The tax imposed under section 4812 upon imported adulterated butter is payable by the owner or importer of the imported adulterated butter by the affixing of coupon stamps while the adulterated butter is in the custody of the Bureau of Customs.

§ 45.4812–2 Requisition for, affixing and canceling stamps.

(a) Requisition for stamps. Stamps for tax payment of imported adulterated butter will be sold to the owner or importer only upon requisition on Form 923 executed by an authorized customs officer. The requisition shall be presented to the district director for the district in which is located the customhouse where the entry is filed.

(b) Affixing and canceling stamps. Before release from customs custody stamps shall be affixed and canceled by the owner or importer in the manner prescribed in paragraphs (c) and (d) of § 45.4813–1, except that the cancellation shall distinctly show the name of the owner or importer, port of entry, customs entry number, and date.

§ 45.4812–3 Packing and branding.

Imported adulterated butter shall be packed in wooden packages of not less than 10 pounds each, as prescribed in paragraph (a) of § 45.4814–1. Before removal from customs custody imported packages shall be branded in accordance with paragraph (b) of § 45.4814–1, so far as applicable, the name of the country of origin, and the name and address of the imported to be substituted for the factory number, and internal revenue district and State. The caution notice prescribed in § 45.4814–3 for packages of adulterated butter of domestic manufacture is not required in the case of imported adulterated butter.

§ 45.4813 Statutory provisions; stamps.

SEC. 4813. Stamps—(a) Method of payment—(1) Stamps. The tax imposed by section 4811 shall be represented by coupon stamps.

(2) Assessment. For assessment in case of omitted taxes, see subtitle F.

(b) Emptied packages. Whenever any stamped package containing adulterated butter is emptied, it shall be the duty of the person in whose hands the same is to destroy utterly the stamps thereon. The Secretary or his delegate may destroy any emptied package of adulterated butter upon which the tax-paid stamp is found.

(c) Other stamp provisions. The provisions of law governing the engraving, issuing, sale, accountability, effacement, and destruction of stamps relating to tobacco and snuff, as far as applicable, shall apply to the stamps provided in paragraph (1) of subsection (a).

[Sec. 4813 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4813–1 Method of payment.

(a) Stamps—(1) In general. The taxes imposed under section 4811 shall be paid by the manufacturer by affixing stamps to the packages of adulterated butter or process or renovated butter, as the case may be, before the packages are removed from the bonded premises. If, however, the district director deems it necessary, he may require the attachment of stamps at any time after manufacture.

(2) Denomination of stamps. Stamps for the payment of the tax on adulterated butter, or process or renovated butter are designated "Process or Renovated Butter" and are issued in sheets of 20 stamps each, in denominations of 10, 20, 30, 40, 50, 60, and 100 pounds. One-pound coupon stamps for use in connection with stamps of the foregoing denominations are issued in sheets of 200 stamps each.

(b) Ordering stamps. Except as otherwise provided in § 45.4812–2, stamps for packages of adulterated butter or process or renovated butter will be sold only to registered manufacturers. They shall be purchased from the district director for the district in which the factory is located. Orders for stamps shall be prepared on Form 218. A remittance for the total value of the stamps shall accompany the order.

(c) Affixing stamps. An internal-revenue stamp of a denomination that will fully cover the tax on the net weight of the contents shall be affixed to each package before removal from the factory, except packages for export and for use of the United States. A single stamp of a denomination denoting the quantity in the package shall be used if stamps of such denomination are issued. If a single stamp will not fully cover the tax due, the least sufficient number of additional stamps shall be used.

(d) Canceling stamps. Each stamp affixed to a package shall be canceled before removal from the factory. The cancellation shall be legibly written or printed in ink, or perforated, and shall show the factory number, internal revenue district, State, and date. The cancellation marks may be abbreviated in the following manner, indicating, for example, cancellation by factory No. 10, Chicago district, Illinois, on January 15, 1958: 10–Chicago, Ill., 1–15–58.

§ 45.4814 Statutory provisions; requirements applicable to manufacturers.

SEC. 4814. Requirements applicable to manufacturers—(a) Packing, stamping, and selling requirements—(1) Adulterated butter. All adulterated butter shall be packed by the manufacturer thereof in firkins, tubs, or other wooden, tin-plate, or paper packages not before used for that purpose, containing, or encased in a manufacturer's package made from any of such materials of, not less than ten pounds, and marked, stamped, and branded as the Secretary or his delegate shall prescribe, and all sales made by manufacturers of adulterated butter shall be in original, stamped packages. Every manufacturer of adulterated butter shall securely affix, by pasting, on each package containing adulterated butter manufactured by him a label on which shall be printed, besides the number of the manufactory and the district and State in which it is situated, these words: "Notice.—The manufacturer of the adulterated butter herein contained has complied with all the requirements of law. Every person is cautioned not to use either this package again or the stamp thereon, nor to remove the contents of this package without destroying said stamp, under the penalty provided by law in such cases."

(2) Process or renovated butter. For marking process or renovated butter, see section 4817.

(b) Factory number and signs. Every manufacturer of process or renovated butter or adulterated butter shall put up such signs and affix such number to his factory as the Secretary or his delegate may by regulation require.

(c) Bonds. Every manufacturer of process or renovated butter or adulterated butter shall file with the official in charge of the internal revenue district in which his manufactory is located such bonds as the Secretary or his delegate may by regulation require. The bond required of such manufacturer shall be in a penal sum of not less $500; and the sum of said bond may be increased from time to time and additional sureties required at the discretion of the Secretary or his delegate.

[Sec. 4814 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4814–1 Packing and branding adulterated butter.

(a) Packages—(1) General. (i) Adulterated butter shall be packed by the manufacturer thereof in statutory packages of not less than 10 pounds. A statutory package is one designed to contain only that quantity of adulterated butter as indicated by the stamp or stamps to be affixed thereto.

(ii) Containers of adulterated butter must be of a durable and substantial character and must completely cover the contents. As to penalty for refilling containers from which adulterated butter has been removed, see section 7234(d) (2) (B).

(2) Additional coverings. Properly stamped and branded packages of adulterated butter may be incased in additional coverings or wrappers provided such coverings are branded as prescribed in paragraph (b) of this section and contain the following inscription legibly printed or stenciled in letters not less than half an inch high: "Tax has been paid and proper stamp placed on the original package contained herein."

(3) Prints and rolls. Manufacturers may subdivide a statutory package of adulterated butter into prints or rolls, provided such subdivisions do not constitute original or statutory packages within the meaning of the law, or weigh less than one-quarter of a pound. Prints and rolls shall be placed in cartons or wrappers branded as prescribed in paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Branding—(1) Statutory packages. (i) Before removal from the factory the words "Adulterated Butter," the factory number, the internal revenue district, State, and the gross, tare, and net weights shall be legibly printed or stenciled on one of the sides or top of each package of adulterated butter in the manner shown in the following example:

ADULTERATED BUTTER
Factory No. 2, Manhattan Dist. N.Y.
64–4–60.

(ii) The words "Adulterated Butter" shall be in boldface gothic letters not less than three-quarters of an inch high, and the other letters and figures not less than one-half inch high. The color of the brand shall be in strong contrast to that of the package.

(2) Cartons. The words "Adulterated Butter", the net weight of contents, and the manufacturer's name and address, or the internal-revenue factory number, internal revenue district, and State shall be branded on cartons. The words "Adulterated Butter" shall be in plain gothic letters of not less than 20-point type, shall measure not less than 3⅛ inches in length, and be of a color in strong contrast to that of the carton. Hair-line, shaded or ornate letters, or letters in outline may not be used.

(4) Wrappers—(i) Inside wrappers. The manufacturer's name and address and the factory number, internal revenue district, and State may be omitted from cartons if printed on wrappers used with cartons. When a manufacturer operates more than one factory he may brand cartons with the name and address of his general office, or the address of each factory, provided an inside wrapper is used showing either the name and address of the factory where the adulterated butter was produced, or the factory number, the internal revenue district, and State.

(ii) Blank wrappers. Blank wrappers may be used with properly branded cartons.

(iii) Wrappers without cartons. When used without cartons, wrappers shall be branded in the same manner as cartons. The words "Adulterated Butter" shall be so placed on the wrapper that they will appear at the top and bottom of the print or roll when wrapped.

(5) Dealer's name on containers. When a dealer's name is printed on containers a phrase such as "prepared for," "distributed by," etc., shall be placed before his name to show that the dealer is not the manufacturer.

§ 45.4814–2 Marking process or renovated butter.

For provisions with respect to the inspection and marking of process or renovated butter, see § 45.4817–1.

§ 45.4814–3 Caution notice; placement upon packages.

(a) Adulterated butter. Before removal from the factory each statutory package of adulterated butter must have conspicuously printed or labeled on it the following notice, which must measure not less than 3 inches long by 1½ inches wide:

Factory No. ——, ———— District, State of ————.

NOTICE: The manufacturer of the adulterated butter herein contained has complied with all the requirements of law. Every person is cautioned not to use either this package again (for adulterated butter) or the stamp thereon again, nor to remove the contents of this package without destroying said stamp, under the penalty provided by law in such cases.

(b) Process or renovated butter. A similar caution notice with appropriate changes in wording is required in the case of process or renovated butter.

§ 45.4814–4 Factories.

(a) Premises. Unless otherwise approved by the district director, another factory may not be operated at the same time within the premises described in a manufacturer's notice. (See paragraph (d) of this section.)

(b) Signs. Over the principal entrance to each building in which process or renovated butter, or adulterated butter is produced the manufacturer shall conspicuously display a sign showing the name in which the business is conducted, the kind of business, and the internal-revenue factory number, in durable characters not less than 3 inches high.

(c) Numbers. Each factory producing process or renovated butter or adulterated butter shall be numbered by the district director of the district in which the plant is located. The number assigned to one factory shall not be used by another factory in the same district, or changed without the approval of the district director. If the factory is moved to another part of the district the number shall be retained. If moved to another district a new number will be assigned to the factory by the district director of the district to which the factory is moved. If the business is discontinued the number will not be assigned to another factory during the balance of the fiscal year.

(d) Manufacturer's notice—(1) Execution of form. Before commencing business, and immediately on the first day of July thereafter as long as he continues in the business, a manufacturer of adulterated butter or process or renovated butter shall file with the district director a notice of intention to manufacture. This notice shall be prepared on Form 213 which may be obtained from the district director. The premises described in the notice shall conform with the requirements of this section.

(2) Notice of change. A new notice shall be filed with the district director before or immediately upon making any change either in location or in the premises or ownership of the business as described in the original notice.

§ 45.4814–5 Bonding.

(a) Requirement. Every manufacturer of process or renovated butter or adulterated butter before incurring any liability for the tax imposed by section 4811, shall file a bond with the district director in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Bond—(1) In general. The bond required under paragraph (a) of this section shall be executed in accordance with the form, instructions, and regulations applicable thereto. Such bond shall be conditioned that the principal shall not engage in any attempt, by himself or by collusion with others, to defraud the United States of any tax under section 4811; that he shall render truly and completely all the returns and inventories required by law or regulations in respect of such tax and shall pay all such taxes for which he is liable; and that he shall comply with all requirements of law and regulations with respect to such taxes. The penal sum of such bond shall be not less than $500; and the sum of said bond may be increased from time to time at the discretion of the district director. Copies of the form to be used in filing the bond may be obtained from any district director.

(2) Cancellation clause. The bond required under paragraph (a) of this section may be accepted with a cancellation clause incorporated therein. Such cancellation clause shall provide that:

(i) Any surety on the bond may at any time give notice to the principal and the district director that he desires to be relieved of liability under said bond after a date named, which shall be at least 60 days after the receipt of notice by the district director.

(ii) If the notice is not withdrawn in writing prior to the date named in the notice, the rights of the principal as supported by said bond shall be terminated on such date (unless supported by another bond or bonds), and the surety shall be relieved from liability under said bond for any acts done wholly subsequent to said date. The surety shall, however, remain liable for any unpaid tax liability incurred by the principal before cancellation, in addition to penalties and interest, unless the principal pays such tax and penalties and interest.

(iii) Said notice may not be given by an agent of the surety, unless it is accompanied by power of attorney duly executed by the surety authorizing the agent to give such notice or by a verified statement that such power of attorney is on file with the Treasury Department.

(3) New or additional bond. The district director may require a new or additional bond under this section in any case where he deems it necessary or desirable in order to protect the interest of the United States.

(4) Other provisions relating to bonds. For general provisions relating to bonds, including such matters as the surety or sureties required, see §§ 301.7101 and 301.7101–1 of this chapter (Regulations on Procedure and Administration).

§ 45.4815(a) Statutory provisions; requirements applicable to dealers; selling requirements.

SEC. 4815. Requirements applicable to dealers—(a) Selling requirements. Dealers in adulterated butter must sell only original or from original stamped packages, and when such original stamped packages are broken the adulterated butter sold from same shall be placed in suitable wooden, tin-plate, or paper packages, which shall be marked and branded as the Secretary or his delegates shall prescribe.

[Sec. 4815(a) as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4815(a)–1 Selling and buying requirements applicable to adulterated butter.

(a) Factory-branded packages. Except as may otherwise be required by State law or local regulation, adulterated butter packed by the manufacturer in cartons or wrappers, branded as prescribed in § 45.4814–1(b), may be sold by a retail dealer from the original stamped container without further branding.

(b) Branding upon sale. (1) If the manufacturer's package is not subdivided into prints or rolls the retail dealer shall wrap the adulterated butter at the time of sale in a new covering, which shall be branded with his name and address, the words "Adulterated Butter", and the net weight of the contents. Example:

RICHARD ROE
100 Doe Street, Boston
1 pound adulterated butter

(2) The letters shall be not less than one-quarter of an inch square and printed in an ink which forms a strong contrast with the color of the covering. Other marks which would obscure the brand shall not be made. The covering shall be so placed around the adulterated butter that the brand will be plainly visible.

(c) Misbranded packages. A retail dealer shall see that cartons and wrappers are branded as prescribed in § 45.4814–1(b), as penalty provided in section 7235(a) is incurred if he sells an improperly branded package of adulterated butter. It will be no defense for a retail dealer to show, in an action for failure to properly brand, that the product was sold in cartons or wrappers as packed by the manufacturer. Penalty for buying improperly branded packages is provided by section 7265(b).

(d) Removal from package. A retail dealer may not lawfully remove adulterated butter from the original stamped packages either for repacking, cutting into prints or rolls, or other purposes, nor remove the sides or ends of such packages, before disposal of the contents.

(e) Displaying packages. The top of a manufacturer's package may be removed or folded back to display the contents, provided the package is so placed that the words "Adulterated Butter" will be plainly visible and not obscured or rendered inconspicuous. (See § 45.4814–1(b).)

(f) Ordering. (1) When ordering or purchasing adulterated butter a dealer shall state his name and address as they appear on his special-tax stamp. If a trade name, as well as the proprietor's real name, appears on the special-tax stamp, both shall be stated on the order. Adulterated butter shall not be ordered in a trade name that is not registered with the district director and stated on the dealer's special-tax stamp.

(2) If the premises have two addresses, because fronting on two streets or for other reasons, the address registered with the district director shall always be used. If adulterated butter is ordered for shipment to a point other than the dealer's registered address, the registered address, as well as the shipping point, shall be named in the order.

§ 45.4815(b) Statutory provisions; requirements applicable to dealers; books of wholesale dealers.

SEC. 4815. Requirements applicable to dealers. * * *

(b) Books of wholesale dealers. Books required by section 6001 to be kept by wholesale dealers in process, renovated, or adulterated butter shall be open at all times to the inspection of any officer or employee designated by the Secretary or his delegate.

[Sec. 4815(b) as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4816 Statutory provisions; exportation of adulterated butter.

SEC. 4816. Exportation of adulterated butter. Adulterated butter may be removed from the place of manufacture for export to a foreign country without payment of tax or affixing stamps thereto, under such regulations and the filing of such bonds and other security as the Secretary or his delegate may prescribe. Every person who shall export adulterated butter shall brand upon every tub, firkin, or other package containing such article the words "Adulterated Butter", in plain Roman letters not less than one-half inch square.

[Sec. 4816 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4816–1 Exemption in case of exportation of adulterated butter.

(a) In general. The tax imposed by section 4811(a) shall not apply in the case of the removal from the place of manufacture of adulterated butter for the purpose of exportation to a foreign country.

(b) Requirements—(1) Packing and marking. Every firkin, tub, or other package containing adulterated butter to be exported without payment of tax, must, before removal from the factory, be branded with the words "Adulterated Butter" in plain Roman letters not less than one-half inch square.

(2) Exception. When manufactured expressly for export in accordance with specifications of foreign customers, a product coming within the classification of adulterated butter, as defined in section 4826(b), may be branded "Preserved Butter" in lieu of "Adulterated Butter", provided such labeling does not violate the laws of the country to which the product is exported, or the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act (52 Stat. 1040; 21 U.S.C. chapter 9), or any other act, or regulations issued under authority thereof.

(c) Consumption aboard vessel. Adulterated butter for consumption aboard a vessel while in a port of the United States or en route to a foreign country shall be tax-paid.

(d) Cross reference. For all other requirements with respect to the exportation of adulterated butter without the payment of tax see §§ 45.4453–1 and 45.4453–2 with respect to the exportation of playing cards which so far as applicable, are hereby extended and made to apply to the exportation of adulterated butter.

(e) No exemption in case of process or renovated butter. Part I of subchapter C, chapter 39, makes no provision for the exportation of process or renovated butter free of tax.

§ 45.4817 Statutory provisions; inspection of process or renovated butter.

SEC. 4817. Inspection of process or renovated butter. For the purpose of protecting interstate and foreign commerce from process or renovated butter which is unclean, unwholesome, unhealthful, or otherwise unfit for human food—

(1) Ingredients. The Secretary of Agriculture shall, through inspectors appointed by him, cause inspections to be made of all milk, butter, butter oil, and other ingredients intended for use in the manufacture of process or renovated butter. All ingredients which are found to be putrid or decomposed or which contain organic or inorganic substances which are foreign to such ingredients when properly made, manufactured, produced, collected, stored, transported, or handled, and which organic or inorganic substances cannot be removed by processing, shall be deemed unfit for use in the manufacture of process or renovated butter, shall be marked "U.S. Inspected and Condemned", and shall be denatured or destroyed under the supervision of the inspector. All other ingredients shall be marked "U.S. Inspected and Passed", and shall be deemed fit for use in the manufacture of process or renovated butter.

(2) Finished product. The Secretary of Agriculture shall cause inspections to be made of all process or renovated butter. If such butter is found to be clean, wholesome, healthful, and otherwise fit for human food, it shall be marked "U.S. Inspected and Passed". Process or renovated butter that is found to be unclean, unwholesome, unhealthful, or otherwise unfit for human food shall be denatured or destroyed under the supervision of the inspector.

(3) Factories. The Secretary of Agriculture shall cause inspections to be made of all factories wherein process or renovated butter is manufactured to determine the sanitary conditions thereof, and if it is found that the conditions existing in any such factory do not meet the standards prescribed by the Secretary in his regulations, he shall cause inspection to be withdrawn therefrom.

(4) Compliance by manufacturer. The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to withdraw inspection from any factory wherein process or renovated butter is made, if the manufacturer shall fail to comply with any of the provisions of this section or with any of the rules and regulations prescribed hereunder.

(5) Rules and regulations. The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to make such rules and regulations as he deems necessary for the efficient administration of the provisions of this section, and all inspections hereunder shall be made in such manner as may be prescribed in such regulations. The Secretary of Agriculture may, from time to time, by regulations define the foreign substances and the extent thereof that render the ingredients unfit for use in manufacturing process or renovated butter.

(6) Statistics. The Secretary of Agriculture shall cause to be ascertained, and he shall report, from time to time, the quantity and quality of all process or renovated butter manufactured and the character and condition of the materials from which it is made.

(7) Forgery, etc., of stamps, etc. No person, firm, or corporation shall forge, counterfeit, simulate, falsely represent, detach, or, knowingly alter, deface, or destroy, or use without proper authority any of the marks, stamps, labels, or tabs provided for in this section or in any regulations prescribed hereunder by the Secretary of Agriculture for use on process or renovated butter or on wrappers, packages, containers, or cases in which the product is contained, or any certificate in relation thereto.

(8) Labels on containers. All process or renovated butter and the packages or containers thereof shall be marked with the words "Process Butter" and by such other marks, labels, or brands, and in such manner, as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture.

(9) False or misleading labels. No statement that is false or misleading in any particular shall be placed on or affixed to any wrapper, label, carton, or container of process or renovated butter.

(10) Unapproved product in interstate or foreign commerce. No person, firm or corporation shall transport, or offer for transportation, or sell or offer for sale, in interstate or foreign commerce, or in commerce affecting commerce among the States, any process or renovated butter that has not been inspected and passed and marked, labeled, and branded in accordance with this section and the regulations issued hereunder.

(11) Administration. The administration and enforcement of the provisions of this section, other than its provisions relating to revenue, but including the seizure and denaturing or destruction of ingredients intended to be used in the manufacture of process or renovated butter and the denaturing or destruction of process or renovated butter, are committed exclusively to the Secretary of Agriculture: Provided, That any powers and duties of the Food and Drug Administration of the Department of Health, Education, and Welfare under the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act, as amended (52 Stat. 1040; 21 U.S.C., chapter 9), as regards such ingredients before they come into the possession of the manufacturers of process or renovated butter, or as regards such powers and duties in connection with process or renovated butter after it leaves such manufacturers and comes into the hands of wholesale or retail dealers, or others, shall not be affected by this section.

OCCUPATIONAL TAX

§ 45.4821 Statutory provisions; imposition of tax.

SEC. 4821. Imposition of tax—(a) Manufacturers—(1) Process or renovated butter. Manufacturers of process or renovated butter shall pay a special tax of $50 a year.

(2) Adulterated butter. Manufacturers of adulterated butter shall pay a special tax of $600 a year.

(b) Wholesale dealers in adulterated butter. Wholesale dealers in adulterated butter shall pay a special tax of $480 a year.

(c) Retail dealers in adulterated butter. Retail dealers in adulterated butter shall pay a special tax of $48 a year.

[Sec. 4821 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4821–1 Imposition and rate of tax.

(a) Manufacturers—(1) Process or renovated butter. Section 4821(a)(1) imposes a special tax in the case of manufacturers of process or renovated butter of $50 per year.

(2) Adulterated butter. Section 4821(a)(2) imposes a special tax in the case of manufacturers of adulterated butter of $600 per year.

(b) Wholesale dealers. Section 4821(b) imposes a special tax in the case of wholesale dealers in adulterated butter of $480 per year.

(c) Retail dealers. Section 4821(c) imposes a special tax in the case of retail dealers in adulterated butter of $48 per year.

(d) Computation of the tax. For regulations relating to computation of the tax, see paragraph (b) of § 45.4901–1.

§ 45.4821–2 Requirements with respect to manufacturers of adulterated butter or process or renovated butter.

(a) Payment of special tax. A manufacturer of adulterated butter or process or renovated butter must make a return on Form 11 to the district director, pay the special tax, and comply with the provisions contained in subpart K, relating to special taxes.

(b) Liability as a wholesale dealer. If a manufacturer of adulterated butter sells statutory packages of his own production elsewhere than at the place of manufacture, liability as a wholesale dealer is incurred. (See paragraph (c)(1) of § 45.4821–3.) As to exemption from liability as a wholesale dealer, see §§ 45.4821–4 and 45.4903–1.

(c) Liability as a retail dealer. A manufacturer shall sell adulterated butter in statutory packages only. (See paragraph (b)(1) of § 45.4814–2.) A manufacturer who sells adulterated butter otherwise than in statutory packages incurs liability to the $1,000 penalty imposed by section 7265(c). If the quantity sold is less than 10 pounds, liability as a retail dealer is also incurred.

(d) Cross reference. For the general requirements with respect to manufacturers of adulterated butter or process or renovated butter, see §§ 45.4814–1 to 45.4814–5.

§ 45.4821–3 Requirements with respect to wholesale dealers in adulterated butter.

(a) Payment of special tax. A wholesale dealer in adulterated butter shall make a return on Form 11 to the district director, pay the special tax, and comply with the provisions contained in Subpart K, relating to special taxes.

(b) Liability for breaking package. A wholesale dealer in adulterated butter shall sell original stamped packages only. A wholesale dealer who removes and sells adulterated butter from original stamped packages incurs liability to the $1,000 penalty imposed by section 7265(c). If the quantity sold is less than 10 pounds, liability as a retail dealer is also incurred.

(c) Liability in particular situations—(1) Place of sale. Liability to special tax as either a wholesale dealer or a retail dealer is incurred at each place other than the registered premises where adulterated butter is sold or offered for sale. The place of actual or constructive delivery transferring the ownership of the adulterated butter from the vendor to the vendee is regarded as the place of sale for which special tax is required to be paid. (See paragraph (b) of § 45.–4821–6 as to itinerant vendors.)

(2) Delivery orders. Sales to persons ordering adulterated butter, including c.o.d. orders, shall be absolutely completed at the registered place of business of the vendor or liability is incurred at each place where deliveries are made. Orders must be received at the vendor's registered premises, where the adulterated butter must be addressed and billed to, and the sales recorded in the names of the persons ordering. The identical package sold at the vendor's registered place of business to the person ordering is the only package the vendor or his agent may deliver at another place without incurring liability for the special tax at the place of delivery.

(3) Sight draft orders. Where a bona fide order is received at the registered place of business of the vendor and the adulterated butter is there addressed and billed to the persons ordering, it may be shipped with a draft for the purchase money attached to the bill of lading. The bill of lading shall be endorsed specifically, and not in blank, to the person ordering, and the draft drawn on such person, otherwise the sale is completed and special-tax liability is incurred at the place of delivery.

(4) Standing orders. Deliveries of adulterated butter may be made as specified in a standing order accepted at the registered place of business of a manufacturer or dealer without incurring special tax liability at the place of delivery. However, delivery of any other quantity than that specified in the standing order, whether more or less, constitutes a separate transaction not covered by the standing order, and is subject to subparagraph (2) of this paragraph.

(5) Agents or brokers. A broker or agent may solicit orders for adulterated butter, receive a commission for his services, and make collections for the principal without becoming liable to special tax as a dealer, provided title to the adulterated butter does not vest in the agent or broker at any time. If the manufacturer or dealer bills the adulterated butter to the broker or agent, who in turn bills it to others, with or without profit, a second sale takes place and the broker or agent incurs special-tax liability as a dealer at each place where he makes deliveries.

(6) Resales. Before resale of original stamped packages of adulterated butter they shall be actually or constructively returned to the vendor's registered place of business and the second sale there consummated before delivery. If the goods are picked up at the address of one customer and delivered to that of another before the resale is completed at the vendor's registered place of business, the resale occurs at the place of delivery and additional special tax liability is incurred.

(7) Delivery from warehouse. Tax-paid packages of adulterated butter may be stored in warehouses and delivered therefrom without incurring special-tax liability at the warehouse: Provided, The sales are completed at the vendor's registered place of business. The mere transmittal to, and the filling of the order at, the warehouse do not constitute a sale at the registered place of business. The adulterated butter must be billed to, and the sale recorded in the name of, the customer at the registered place of business before the removal from the warehouse.

(8) Chain store warehouses. An operator of chain stores may store adulterated butter in warehouses operated by him, without incurring special-tax liability at the warehouses, provided no sales are made there and that the adulterated butter is distributed exclusively to stores operated by him, and not to stores of other operators.

(9) Exporters. A person otherwise liable as a wholesale dealer for the special tax is not exempt because transactions are for export only.

§ 45.4821–4 Exemptions as wholesale dealer.

Liability for the special tax as a wholesale dealer is not incurred in the following situations:

(a) Sales at factory. Where a manufacturer sells adulterated butter of his own production in statutory packages at the place of manufacture. As to manufacturer's liability as a retail dealer, see paragraph (c) of § 45.4821–2.

(b) Sales of left-over stock. Where a manufacturer who, having discontinued the business, directs a wholesale dealer holding adulterated butter of his production to consign it to another wholesale dealer for sale on commission for the manufacturer's account.

(c) Sales to secure charges. Where a warehouse sells adulterated butter to cover storage charges, or a transportation company to secure freight charges or salvage damaged merchandise. The quantity so sold and the name and address of the buyer shall be reported to the district director.

(d) Sales to assignee. Where a retail dealer sells his stock of merchandise, including adulterated butter, to his successor.

§ 45.4821–5 Requirements with respect to retail dealers in adulterated butter.

(a) Payment of special tax. A retail dealer shall make return on Form 11 to the district director, pay special tax, and comply with the provisions contained in subpart K, relating to special taxes.

(b) Quantity limitation. A retail dealer may sell adulterated butter in quantities of less than 10 pounds at one time taken from an original package or packages, but if he sells an original package of 10 pounds, he will incur liability for the special tax as a wholesale dealer, and for the penalty imposed by section 7265(c) for failure to pay the special tax imposed by section 4821(b).

§ 45.4821–6 Liability in particular situations.

(a) Dealers in other products. Dealers in butter and other persons who, knowingly or unknowingly, sell adulterated butter render themselves liable to tax as dealers in adulterated butter.

(b) Itinerant vendors. A special-tax stamp can be issued only for a specific address or a fixed place of business. Peddlers, operators of so-called rolling stores, and other vendors who, traveling from place to place, sell adulterated butter incur liability to special tax as either a wholesale or retail dealer at each place where sales are made. (See paragraph (c)(1) of § 45.4821–3 as to incurring liability at place of sale.)

(c) Nontaxable situations. Special-tax liability as a dealer is not incurred in the following situations:

(1) Eating places. Where proprietors of public eating places serve adulterated butter with meals, with or without special charge for it.

(2) Pooling funds. Where a member of a pool formed for the purpose of purchasing adulterated butter remits the purchase money and individual orders to the vendor and distributes the goods to other members of the pool. (See paragraph (c)(5) of § 45.4821–3 as to agents or brokers.)

§ 45.4826 Statutory provisions; definitions.

SEC. 4826. Definitions—(a) Butter. For the purpose of this part, the word "butter" shall be understood to mean the food product unusually known as butter, and made exclusively from milk or cream, or both, with or without common salt, and with or without additional coloring matter.

(b) Adulterated butter. "Adulterated butter" is defined to mean a grade of butter produced by mixing, reworking, rechurning in milk or cream, refining, or in any way producing a uniform, purified, or improved product from different lots or parcels of melted or unmelted butter or butter fat, in which any acid, alkali, chemical, or any substance whatever is introduced or used for the purpose or with the effect of deodorizing or removing therefrom rancidity, or any butter or butter fat with which there is mixed any substance foreign to butter as defined in subsection (a), with intent or effect of cheapening in cost the product, or any butter in the manufacture or manipulation of which any process or material is used with intent or effect of causing the absorption of abnormal quantities of water, milk or cream.

(c) Process or renovated butter. "Process butter" or "renovated butter" is defined to mean butter which has been subjected to any process by which it is melted, clarified, or refined and made to resemble genuine butter, always excepting "adulterated butter" as defined by subsection (b).

(d) Manufacturer. Every person who engages in the production of process or renovated butter or adulterated butter as a business shall be considered to be a manufacturer thereof.

(e) Dealer. Every person who sells adulterated butter shall be regarded as a dealer in adulterated butter.

(f) Retail dealer. Every person who sells adulterated butter in less quantities than 10 pounds at one time shall be regarded as a retail dealer in adulterated butter.

[Sec. 4826 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4826–1 Butter defined.

Butter churned and worked in accordance with approved standards, and with quality as a prime object, contains not more than 16 percent moisture. As defined by the Federal Food, Drug, and Cosmetic Act of June 25, 1938 (52 Stat. 1040; 21 U.S.C. ch. 9), butter contains not less than 80 percent, by weight, of milk fat, allowance being made for all tolerances. When butter contains a smaller quantity of milk fat or more than 16 percent moisture, a strong presumption is raised that the product is adulterated butter within the meaning of the statute.

§ 45.4826–2 Adulterated butter classified.

Adulterated butter may be divided into three classes, namely:

(a) Butter in any way produced from different lots of melted or unmelted butter, or butter fat, to which a substance has been added for the purpose of removing rancidity or deodorizing it, except butter made from sour cream the acid of which has been reduced with lime water before churning.

(b) Butter or butter fat with which is mixed any substance foreign to butter as defined by law, for the purpose of reducing the cost of the product. This does not include mixtures properly classifiable as oleomargarine.

(c) Butter manufactured or manipulated by any process or with any material resulting in the absorption of abnormal quantities of water, milk, or cream. Emulsified or milk-blended butter comes within this class.

§ 45.4826–3 Preservatives.

Butter to which a harmless preservative has been added solely for the purpose of preservation is not subject to tax as adulterated butter, provided the quantity is not larger than is absolutely necessary to preserve it. If the preservative is used as a bath or wash in working or renovating it, the product will be subject to tax as adulterated butter.

§ 45.4826–4 Ladled butter.

The product commonly known as "ladled butter" is taxable as adulterated butter if a process within the definition of adulterated butter (see § 45.4826–2) is used.

§ 45.4826–5 Process or renovated butter.

The terms "process butter" and "renovated butter" are used synonymously in the regulations in this part and it is immaterial, for purposes of this part, whether a manufacturer designates the product "process butter" or "renovated butter". Butter which falls within the definition of adulterated butter (see § 45.4826–2) is subject to tax as adulterated butter rather than as process or renovated butter. The principal difference between adulterated butter and process or renovated butter is with respect to the use of chemicals or other substances. Butter reworked with the use of chemicals or other substances is adulterated. Butter which is melted, clarified, or refined without the use of chemicals or other substances is process or renovated butter.

Subpart H—Filled Cheese Tax on Products

§ 45.4831 Statutory provisions; imposition of tax.

SEC. 4831. Imposition of tax—(a) Domestic. There shall be imposed upon all filled cheese which shall be manufactured a tax of 1 cent per pound payable by the manufacturer thereof; and any fractional part of a pound in a package shall be taxed as a pound.

(b) Imported. There shall be imposed upon all filled cheese imported from a foreign country, in addition to any import duty imposed on the same, an internal revenue tax of 8 cents per pound; and such imported filled cheese and the packages containing the same shall be stamped, marked, and branded, as in the case of filled cheese manufactured in the United States.

[Sec. 4831 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4831–1 Imposition and rate of tax.

(a) Domestic filled cheese. Section 4831(a) imposes a tax on domestically manufactured filled cheese at the rate of 1 cent per pound. Any fractional part of a pound in a package shall be taxed as a pound.

(b) Liability for tax on domestic filled cheese. The manufacturer of the filled cheese is liable for the payment of the tax imposed under section 4831(a). The tax accrues when the filled cheese is manufactured and is to be paid in the manner set forth in § 45.4832–1.

(c) Imported filled cheese. Section 4831(b) imposes a tax on filled cheese imported from a foreign country at the rate of 8 cents per pound. Any fractional part of a pound in a package shall be taxed as a pound. The tax imposed under section 4831(b) on imported filled cheese is in addition to any import duty imposed on such filled cheese.

(d) Liability for tax on imported filled cheese—(1) Release of product. The person importing the filled cheese shall be liable for the tax imposed under section 4831(b) and the tax must be paid by affixing the required stamps prior to release of the product from customs custody.

(2) Purchase of stamps. Stamps for the tax payment of imported filled cheese will be sold to the owner or consignee of such merchandise by the district director of internal revenue for the district in which is located the office of the collector of customs where the customs entry is filed, upon requisition therefor duly executed by an authorized customs officer.

(3) Affixing and cancellation of stamps. Filled cheese imported from foreign countries is not required to have the internal-revenue stamps affixed to the packages thereof and canceled unless and until such product is to be released from customs custody for consumption or sale in the United States. Such stamps shall be affixed and canceled by the owner or consignee while the product is in the custody of the proper customs officer, and such product shall not pass out of the custody of said officer until the stamps have been affixed and canceled. The mode of affixing the stamps to packages of domestic manufacturers prescribed in paragraph (b) of § 45.4832–1 is hereby made applicable to imported filled cheese. Each stamp so affixed shall be canceled by the owner or consignee writing or imprinting on the face thereof in distinct and legible letters and figures his name and date of cancellation, name of port, and customs entry number.

(e) Exported filled cheese. There is no provision for the omission of the tax on filled cheese exported from the United States and all filled cheese exported must be tax paid at the rate of 1 cent per pound.

§ 45.4832 Statutory provisions; stamps.

Sec. 4832. Stamps—(a) Method of payment—(1) Stamps. The taxes imposed by section 4831 shall be represented by coupon stamps.

(2) Assessment. For assessment in case of omitted taxes, see subtitle F.

(b) Emptied packages. Whenever any stamped package containing filled cheese is emptied, it shall be the duty of the person in whose hand the same is to destroy the stamps thereon.

(c) Other stamp provisions. The provisions of law governing the engraving, issue, sale, accountability, effacement, and destruction of stamps relating to tobacco and snuff, so far as applicable, shall apply to stamps provided for by paragraph (1) of subsection (a).

[Sec. 4832 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4832–1 Affixing and canceling of stamps.

(a) Domestic filled cheese. The tax imposed under section 4831(a) on filled cheese of domestic manufacture shall be paid by the manufacturer thereof by the affixing of stamps to the packages before removal from the place where made.

(b) Affixing and cancellation of stamps. Filled-cheese stamps have been prepared in denominations of 1, 10, 20, and 40 cents with 10 stamps to a sheet. Such stamps are obtainable upon application on Form 218 to the district director for the district in which the factory is located. On the withdrawal of a package of filled cheese the proper tax-paid stamp must be securely affixed to the side thereof and immediately canceled by stamping or perforating the factory number, internal revenue district, State, and date thereon. Illustration: "Fac. No. 12, Chicago District, Ill.", over "April 15, 1960." For provisions relating to affixing and cancellation of stamps in respect of imported filled cheese, see paragraph (d)(3) of § 45.4831–1.

§ 45.4832–2 Emptied packages.

Whenever any stamped package containing filled cheese is emptied, the person in whose hands such package is shall destroy the stamps affixed thereon.

§ 45.4832–3 Other stamp provisions.

For regulations with respect to the engraving, issuing, sale, accountability, effacement, and destruction of stamps, see Subpart L of this part.

§ 45.4833 Statutory provisions; requirements applicable to manufacturers.

Sec. 4833. Requirements applicable to manufacturers—(a) Packing requirements—(1) Marks, stamps, and packages. Filled cheese shall be packed by the manufacturers in wooden packages only, not before used for that purpose, and marked, stamped, and branded with the words "filled cheese" in black-faced letters not less than two inches in length, in a circle in the center of the top and bottom of the cheese; and in black-faced letters not less than two inches in length in line from the top to the bottom of the cheese, on the side in four places equidistant from each other; and the package containing such cheese shall be marked in the same manner, and in the same number of places, and in the same description of letters as above provided for the marking of the cheese; and all sales or consignments made by manufacturers of filled cheese to wholesale dealers in filled cheese or to exporters of filled cheese shall be in original stamped packages.

(2) Label. Every manufacturer of filled cheese shall securely affix, by pasting on each package containing filled cheese manufactured by him, a label on which shall be printed, besides the number of the manufactory and the district and State in which it is situated, these words: "Notice. The manufacturer of the filled cheese herein contained has complied with all the requirements of the law. Every person is cautioned not to use either this package again or the stamp thereon again, nor to remove the contents of this package without destroying said stamp, under the penalty provided by law in such cases."

(b) Factory number and signs. Every manufacturer of filled cheese shall put up such signs and affix such number to his factory as the Secretary or his delegate may by regulation require.

(c) Bonds. Every manufacturer of filled cheese shall file with the official in charge of the internal revenue district in which his manufactory is located such bonds as the Secretary or his delegate may by regulation require. The bond required of such manufacturer shall be in a penal sum of not less than $5,000; and the amount of said bond may be increased from time to time, and additional sureties required, at the discretion of the Secretary or his delegate.

[Sec. 4833 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4833–1 Requirements applicable to manufacturers.

(a) Packing requirements. (1) All filled cheese shall be packed by the manufacturer thereof in wooden packages only, not before used for that purpose. The law does not fix the size of the manufacturers' packages. The contents of all packages must be completely covered. Crates with openings between slats may not be used as original packages. A package which has once been used for packing filled cheese may be taken apart and the material, from which all stamps, marks, and brands have been effectually removed, may be used in construction of new containers. All filled cheese sold by manufacturers of filled cheese shall be in original stamped packages.

(2) A package of filled cheese, to meet all the requirements of the law and regulations must be branded (paragraph (b) of this section), have caution notice label affixed (paragraph (c) of this section), and have proper stamp or stamps affixed and canceled (paragraph (b) of § 45.4832–1).

(3) Manufacturers and dealers may incase properly stamped and branded original packages of filled cheese in additional coverings or wrappers, provided such additional coverings or wrappers have duly impressed or stenciled thereon the brand as prescribed in paragraph (b) of this section, and also the following additional inscription: "The original package herein contained has been duly tax paid and proper stamp is affixed."

(b) Branding requirements. (1) Each cheese shall be marked, stamped, and branded with the words "filled cheese" in black-faced letters, not less than 2 inches in length, in a circle in the center of the top and bottom of the cheese; and in like letters, in four different places, equidistant from each other, on the side of the cheese, in line from the top to the bottom thereof. Like brands are required upon the wooden packages containing such cheese. Where the consistency of the filled cheese will not permit of the brand being applied directly thereto it will be sufficient if the package is duly branded as herein required.

(2) The width of the letters in the above brands shall not be less than 1 inch over all, with quarter-inch stem. Section 4833(a)(1) prescribes that the brands for the side of the cheese shall be put on in line from top to bottom. Where the cheese is not sufficiently thick to accommodate these words in a perpendicular or vertical line, they may be branded in a line running diagonally from top to bottom.

(3) Each cheese, likewise the wooden package therefor, shall, in addition to the above brands required upon the top and bottom surfaces, be branded with words and figures indicating the factory number, the internal revenue district, State, and the weight of the cheese, in the order observed in the following example:

Factory No. 1, Chicago District, Ill.
30 Pounds
Filled Cheese

(4) All letters and figures in the above brand must be in black-faced block type, not less than 1 inch in width over all, with quarter-inch stems in the words "filled cheese" and not less than 1 inch square in the remaining words.

(5) If a manufacturer desires to place his name upon the filled cheese, or upon the wooden package therefor, he may do so, provided such brand in nowise overshadows, subordinates, or conceals the Government brand above prescribed by the law and the regulations in this part.

(c) Labeling requirements. Every manufacturer's package of filled cheese must, before removal from the bonded premises where made, have printed thereon or securely affixed on the side or end thereof by pasting, in such a way as to be exposed to public view and to be easily read, a label on which is printed the number of the manufactory and the internal revenue district and State in which it is situated, and the words of the caution notice as provided by section 4833(a)(2).

(2) The prescribed wording must be in plain, open, and legible letters in black ink, and shall occupy a space not less than 3 inches long and not less than 1½ inches in width, and when in label form, it shall be printed on plain white paper and shall be substantially in the following form:

Factory No. ------, ---------- District.
State of ----------.
NOTICE: The manufacturer of the filled cheese herein contained has complied with all the requirements of the law. Every person is cautioned not to use either this package again or the stamp thereon again, nor to remove the contents of this package without destroying said stamp, under the penalty provided by law in such cases.

§ 45.4833–2 Factories.

(a) Premises. Unless otherwise approved by the district director, another factory may not be operated at the same time within the premises described in a manufacturer's notice. (See paragraph (d) of this section.)

(b) Manufacturer's sign. Every manufacturer of filled cheese shall place and keep over the principal entrance to the building wherein his business is carried on, so that it can be distinctly seen, a sign with letters thereon not less than 3 inches in height, painted in oil colors or gilded, giving his full name and business and the number of his manufactory.

(c) Factory number. Each filled-cheese factory shall be assigned a number by the district director, which number shall not be held at the same time by any other manufacturer of filled cheese in his district, nor thereafter changed except for reasons approved by the district director. If the manufacturer removes to a new location in the same district, he will retain his old number. Upon removal from one internal revenue district to another a new number will be assigned by the district director for the district to which removed. When a factory is closed, the number which is released will not be reassigned during the balance of the fiscal year.

(d) Manufacturer's notice—(1) Execution of form. Before commencing business, and immediately on the first day of July thereafter as long as he continues in the business, a manufacturer of filled cheese shall file with the district director a notice of intention to manufacture. This notice shall be prepared on Form 213 which may be obtained from the district director. The premises described in the notice shall conform with the requirements of this section.

(2) Notice of change. A new notice shall be filed with the district director before or immediately upon making any change either in location or in the premises or ownership of the business as described in the original notice.

§ 45.4833–3 Bonding.

(a) Requirement. Every manufacturer of filled cheese, before incurring any liability for the tax imposed by section 4831, shall file a bond with the district director in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) Bond—(1) In general. The bond required under paragraph (a) of this section shall be executed in accordance with the form, instructions, and regulations applicable thereto. Such bond shall be conditioned that the principal shall not engage in any attempt, by himself or by collusion with others, to defraud the United States of any tax under section 4831; that he shall render truly and completely all the returns and inventories required by law or regulations in respect of such tax and shall pay all such taxes for which he is liable; and that he shall comply with all requirements of law and regulations with respect to such taxes. The penal sum of such bond shall be not less than $5,000; and the sum of said bond may be increased from time to time at the discretion of the district director. Copies of the form to be used in filing the bond may be obtained from any district director.

(2) Cancellation clause. The bond required under paragraph (a) of this section may be accepted with a cancellation clause incorporated therein. Such cancellation clause shall provide that:

(i) Any surety on the bond may at any time give notice to the principal and the district director that he desires to be relieved of liability under said bond after a date named, which shall be at least 60 days after the receipt of notice by the district director.

(ii) If the notice is not withdrawn in writing prior to the date named in the notice, the rights of the principal as supported by said bond shall be terminated on such date (unless supported by another bond or bonds), and the surety shall be relieved from liability under said bond for any acts done wholly subsequent to said date. The surety shall, however, remain liable for any unpaid tax liability incurred by the principal before cancellation, in addition to penalties and interest, unless the principal pays such tax and penalties and interest.

(iii) Said notice may not be given by an agent of the surety, unless it is accompanied by a power of attorney duly executed by the surety authorizing the agent to give such notice or by a verified statement that such power of attorney is on file with the Treasury Department.

(3) New or additional bond. The district director may require a new or additional bond under this section in any case where he deems it necessary or desirable in order to protect the interest of the United States.

(4) Other provisions relating to bonds. For general provisions relating to bonds, including such matters as the surety or sureties required, see §§ 301.7101 and 301.7101–1 of this chapter (Regulations on Procedure and Administration).

§ 45.4834 Statutory provisions; requirements applicable to wholesale and retail dealers.

Sec. 4834. Requirements applicable to wholesale and retail dealers—(a) Signs. Every wholesale dealer and every retail dealer in filled cheese shall display in a conspicuous place in his salesroom a sign bearing the words "Filled cheese sold here" in black-faced letters not less than six inches in length, upon a white ground, with the name and number of the revenue district in which his business is conducted.

(b) Selling requirements. Retail dealers in filled cheese shall sell only from original stamped packages, and shall pack the filled cheese when sold in suitable wooden or paper packages, which shall be marked and branded in accordance with rules and regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate.

[Sec. 4834 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4834–1 Signs to be displayed by wholesale and retail dealers.

Each retail and each wholesale dealer in filled cheese shall display in a conspicuous place in his salesroom a sign bearing the words "Filled cheese sold here" in black-faced letters not less than six inches in length, upon a white ground, with the name of the revenue district in which the business is conducted. Concealment of the sign from full view of the public will not be deemed a compliance with the law. If a dealer has more than one salesroom, he must post the requisite sign in each such room.

§ 45.4834–2 Packaging requirements.

Retail dealers in filled cheese must sell only from original stamped packages, and shall pack the filled cheese sold by them in suitable wooden or paper packages which shall be marked and branded as provided in § 45.4834–3. Wooden or paper packages similar to those usually employed in selling butter and lard at retail may be used by the retail dealer in filled cheese. There is no restriction as to the quantity of filled cheese that a retailer may sell at one sale, but he must remove the product from the original manufacturer's package and repack in another package, made of either wood or paper, and place on such package the required marks and brands. A retail dealer who sells filled cheese in original packages for resale or to another retailer incurs additional liability to special tax as a wholesale dealer. (See section 4841(b).)

§ 45.4834–3 Branding requirements.

Each retailer's wooden or paper package must have the name and address of the dealer marked or branded thereon, likewise the words "Pound" and "Filled Cheese," in letters not less than one-quarter inch square, and the quantity written, marked, or branded thereon in figures of the same size (one-quarter of an inch square), substantially as follows:

Richard Roe
100 Doe Street
Boston
1 pound Filled Cheese

The words "Filled Cheese" and "Pound" which are required to be marked or branded on retailers' wooden or paper packages, in letters not less than one-quarter inch square, and the quantity which is required to be written, marked or branded thereon in figures of like size, must be so placed so as to be plainly visible to the purchaser at the time of delivery to him. Illegible or concealed marks and brands are not those contemplated and required by the law and regulations. It will not be deemed a compliance with the regulations in this part if the words "Filled Cheese" and the other required words and figures shall be illegibly branded or marked or so placed as to be concealed from view, by being on the inside of the package or by folding in the stamped portion of the paper sheet used for wrapping, or otherwise. The required words and figures must be legibly printed or branded and conspicuously placed, and no other word or business card should be placed in such juxtaposition thereto as to divert attention from the fact that the contents of the package are filled cheese. The color of the ink with which the words are marked or branded must be black.

Occupational Tax

§ 45.4841 Statutory provisions; imposition of tax.

SEC. 4841. Imposition of tax—(a) Manufacturers. Manufacturers of filled cheese shall pay a special tax of $400 a year for each and every factory.

(b) Wholesale dealers—(1) In general. Wholesale dealers in filled cheese shall pay a special tax of $250 a year.

(2) Manufacturers selling at wholesale. Any manufacturer of filled cheese who has given the required bond and paid the required special tax, and who sells only filled cheese of his own production, at the place of manufacture, in the original packages, to which the tax-paid stamps are affixed, shall not be required to pay the special tax of a wholesale dealer in filled cheese on account of such sales.

(c) Retail dealers. Retail dealers in filled cheese shall pay a special tax of $12 a year.

[Sec. 4841 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4841–1 Imposition and rate of tax.

Section 4841 imposes a special tax in the case of manufacturers, wholesale dealers, and retail dealers of filled cheese at the following rates:

(a) Manufacturers	$400 per year for each factory.
(b) Wholesale dealers	$250 per year.
(c) Retail dealers	$12 per year.

§ 45.4841–2 Applicability of tax.

(a) Manufacturers. Every person, firm, or corporation who manufactures filled cheese for sale shall be deemed a manufacturer of filled cheese.

(b) Wholesale dealers. Every person, firm, or corporation who sells or offers for sale filled cheese in the original manufacturer's package for resale, or to retail dealers as defined in paragraph (c) of this section, shall be deemed a wholesale dealer in filled cheese. A qualified manufacturer who sells only tax-paid filled cheese of his own production at the place of manufacture is not liable as a wholesale dealer.

(c) Retail dealers. Every person who sells filled cheese at retail, not for resale but for actual consumption, shall be regarded as a retail dealer in filled cheese.

(d) Payment of special tax. Every person liable for the special tax imposed by section 4841 must make a return on Form 11 to the district director, pay the special tax, and comply with the provisions contained in Subpart K, relating to special taxes.

(e) Computation of tax. For regulations relating to computation of the tax, see § 45.4901–1(b).

§ 45.4841–3 Liability of wholesale dealers and retail dealers for special tax.

(a) In general. (1) Except in the case of a manufacturer selling filled cheese of his own producion at the place of manufacture, a person is liable to special tax as a dealer in filled cheese, either wholesale or retail as the case may be, at each and every place where he sells, or offers for sale, filled cheese. The place where the delivery, either actual or constructive, which transfers ownership from vendor to vendee, is made is the place of sale and for which special tax is required to be paid. A special tax stamp can be issued to a dealer in filled cheese only for a fixed place of business. One who travels from place to place and makes sales of filled cheese incurs liability to special tax at each place where such sales and deliveries are made.

(2) Dealers in cheese should ascertain the true character of the article which they sell or offer for sale. If they are found to have sold filled cheese, though they believed it to be genuine cheese, they nevertheless are liable to special tax as dealers in filled cheese.

(3) Special tax stamps are not transferrable from one person to another. When a new member is added to a firm a new stamp is required.

(4) Any number of persons doing business in copartnership at any one place are required to pay but one special tax.

(b) Situations where special tax liability is not incurred. Special tax liability is not incurred in respect to sales by:

(1) A receiver appointed by the court to sell filled cheese under order of the court.

(2) A trustee when he carries on the business at the principal's store and under the special tax stamp issued to the principal.

(3) A member of a firm acquiring the interests of the other members and carrying on the business under the stamp issued to the firm.

(4) A qualified dealer moving from one location to another provided he registers the change with the district director during the calendar month in which it occurred.

(5) The legal representative of a deceased special taxpayer carrying on the business until the expiration of the stamp but the change must be registered with the district director within the month in which it was made.

(6) An army post exchange under the complete control of the Department of Defense.

(7) A keeper of a restaurant who furnishes filled cheese merely to patrons as a part of their meals even though a separate charge is made for the filled cheese served.

(8) A transportation company selling filled cheese to secure freight charges.

§ 45.4841–4 Storing filled cheese.

Manufacturers of, and wholesale dealers in, filled cheese may store tax-paid packages of such product at places other than those named in their special-tax stamps and may make deliveries from such places of storage without incurring additional special tax liability, provided that sales of filled cheese so stored are absolutely completed by the manufacturers or wholesale dealers at their registered places of business by constructive delivery there prior to actual removal of the goods from the place of storage for delivery to purchasers. Receipt of an order at the place of business of a manufacturer or dealer and the sending of such order to the storage house for delivery is not a sale of goods at said place of business. A manufacturer or dealer must not merely receive the order at his place of business, but he must make out there and deliver to the customer ordering, or send to him direct a bill of sale in each instance transferring to him the ownership of the goods before there is an actual delivery from the place of storage.

§ 45.4846 Statutory provisions; definitions.

SEC. 4846. Definitions. For the purposes of this part—(1) Cheese. The word "cheese" shall be understood to mean the food product known as cheese, and made from milk or cream and without the addition of butter, or any animal, vegetable, or other oils or fats foreign to such milk or cream, with or without additional coloring matter.

(2) Filled cheese. Certain substances and compounds shall be known and designated as "filled cheese," namely: All substances made of milk or skimmed milk, with the admixture of butter, animal oils or fats, vegetable or any other oils, or compounds foreign to such milk, and made in imitation or semblance of cheese. Substances and compounds, consisting principally of cheese with added edible oils, which are not sold as cheese or as substitutes for cheese but are primarily useful for imparting a natural cheese flavor to other foods shall not be considered "filled cheese" within the meaning of this part.

(3) Manufacturer. Every person, firm, or corporation who manufacturers filled cheese for sale shall be deemed a manufacturer of filled cheese.

(4) Wholesale dealer. Every person, firm, or corporation who sells or offers for sale filled cheese, in the original manufacturer's packages for resale, or to retail dealers as defined in paragraph (5) shall be deemed a wholesale dealer in filled cheese.

(5) Retail dealer. Every person who sells filled cheese at retail, not for resale, and for actual consumption, shall be regarded as a retail dealer in filled cheese.

[Sec. 4846 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4846–1 Definitions.

(a) Cheese. The term "cheese" shall be understood to mean the food product known as cheese, and made from milk or cream and without the addition of butter, or any animal, vegetable, or other oils or fats foreign to such milk or cream, with or without additional coloring matter.

(b) Filled cheese. (1) The term "filled cheese" shall include all substances made of milk or skimmed milk, with the admixture of butter, animal oils or fats, vegetable or any other oils, or compounds foreign to such milk, and made in imitation or semblance of cheese. Substances and compounds, consisting principally of cheese with added edible oils, which are not sold as cheese or as substitutes for cheese but are primarily useful for imparting a natural cheese flavor to other foods shall not be considered "filled cheese" within the meaning of this chapter.

(2) The mixture of cheese with coloring matter does not render it liable to tax as filled cheese, such mixture being permitted under the definition given in section 4846(a) and paragraph (a) of this section. If, however, the annatto or other coloring matter is mixed with a vegetable oil or an animal fat as a mordant, resulting in a compound resembling cheese, this compound would be liable to tax as filled cheese.

(3) The manufacture of cheese from synthetic cream which is prepared by homogenizing a mixture of butter and skimmed milk or a mixture of butter, milk powder, and water results in a product which is clearly "filled cheese" as defined by statute, being a substance made of milk or skimmed milk with an admixture of butter in imitation or semblance of cheese.

For definition and application of the terms "manufacturer", "wholesale dealer" and "retail dealer", see section 4841 and the regulations thereunder.

Subpart I—Contracts of Sale of Cotton for Future Delivery

§ 45.4851 Statutory provisions; imposition of tax.

SEC. 4851. Imposition of tax—(a) Rate. Upon each contract of sale of any cotton for future delivery made at, on, or in any exchange, board of trade, or similar institution or place of business, there shall be imposed a tax in the nature of an excise of 2 cents for each pound of the cotton involved in any such contract.

(b) By whom paid. The tax imposed by subsection (a) shall be paid by the seller of the cotton involved in the contract of sale.

[Sec. 4851 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4851–1 Imposition and rate of tax.

(a) Imposition of tax. Section 4851 imposes a tax upon each contract of sale of cotton for future delivery made at, on, or in any exchange, board of trade, or similar institution or place of business, except contracts for the sale of specific cotton for future delivery which comply with the provisions of the regulations in this subpart.

(b) Rate of tax. The tax imposed under section 4851 shall be computed at the rate of 2 cents per pound for each pound of cotton involved in a contract subject to tax.

§ 45.4851–2 Liability for tax.

The tax imposed by section 4851 shall be paid by the seller of the cotton involved in each contract subject to tax.

§ 45.4852 Statutory provisions; definition.

SEC. 4852. Definition. For the purpose of this subchapter, the term "contract of sale" shall be held to include sales, agreements of sale, and agreements to sell.

[Sec. 4852 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4852–1 Definitions.

(a) Contract of sale. The term "contract of sale" shall be held to include sales, agreements of sale, and agreements to sell.

(b) Designation of contracts—(1) Contracts subject to section 4863. The term "contracts subject to section 4863" shall mean basis grade contracts made in compliance with the provisions of section 4863 and the regulations thereunder.

(2) Contracts subject to section 4864. The term "contracts subject to section 4864" shall mean tendered grade contracts made in compliance with the provisions of section 4864 and the regulations thereunder.

(3) Contracts subject to section 4865. The term "contracts subject to section 4865" shall mean specific grade contracts made in compliance with section 4865 and the regulations thereunder.

§ 45.4853 Statutory provisions; form and validity of contracts.

SEC. 4853. Form and validity of contracts—(a) Form. Each contract of sale of cotton for future delivery mentioned in section 4851 (a) shall be in writing plainly stating, or evidenced by written memorandum showing, the terms of such contract, including the quantity of the cotton involved and the names and addresses of the seller and buyer in such contract, and shall be signed by the party to be charged, or by his agent in his behalf. If the contract or memorandum specify in bales the quantity of the cotton involved, without giving the weight, each bale shall, for the purpose of this subchapter, be deemed to weigh 500 pounds.

(b) Validity. No contract of sale of cotton for future delivery mentioned in section 4851(a), which does not conform to the requirements of subsection (a) of this section and has not the necessary stamps affixed thereto as required by section 4871, shall be enforceable in any court of the United States by, or on behalf of, any party to such contract or his privies.

[Sec. 4853 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4853–1 Form and validity of contracts.

(a) Form—(1) In general. Every contract mentioned in section 4851(a) for the sale of cotton for future delivery shall be in writing and shall state, or shall be evidenced by written memorandum showing, (i) the terms of the contract, (ii) the quantity of cotton involved, (iii) the name and address of the buyer, and (iv) the name and address of the seller. The contract or memorandum shall be signed by the person to be charged or by his agent in his behalf. For the purpose of this subpart, if the contract or memorandum specifies in bales the quantity of cotton involved, without giving the weight, each bale shall be deemed to weigh 500 pounds.

(2) Exceptions. (i) Contracts for sale of cotton made at, on, or in any exchange, board of trade, or similar institution or place of business and evidenced by memoranda containing the terms of such contract and the signatures of the parties to be charged in the form of punched and/or printed numbers, letters and symbols by the use of machines operated by a clearing house or a clearing association, pursuant to authority given to such clearing house or association by the members to be charged, are considered to be in compliance with section 4853(a) and subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(ii) Variations in the method of operation caused by sales of more than 100 bales of cotton and involving, in some cases, more than a single buying or selling broker, will not result in a noncompliance with section 4853(a) provided there are memoranda containing the terms of the contract and the signatures of the parties to be charged in the form of punched and/or printed numbers, letters or symbols as provided in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph.

(b) Validity of contracts. No contract for the sale of cotton for future delivery mentioned in section 4851(a) which does not conform to the requirements of section 4853 and paragraph (a) of this section and which does not have affixed thereto the necessary stamps required by section 4871, shall be enforceable in any court of the United States by, or on behalf of, any party to such contract or his privies.

(c) Stating number of bales involved. Each contract must provide that all tenders of cotton shall be the full number of bales involved therein. Such variations of the number of bales may be permitted as is necessary to bring the total weight of the cotton tendered within the provisions of the contract as to weight, and necessary variations in the weight of the cotton tendered may be permitted not to exceed 1 percent of the total weight specified in the contract.

§ 45.4854 Statutory provisions; cotton standards.

SEC. 4854. Cotton standards—(a) Source and description. Subject to the provisions of section 6 of the Act of March 4, 1923 (42 Stat. 1518; 7 U.S.C. 56), the Secretary of Agriculture is authorized, from time to time, to establish and promulgate standards of cotton by which its quality or value may be judged or determined, including its grade, length of staple, strength of staple, color, and such other qualities, properties, and conditions as may be standardized in practical form, which, for the purpose of this subchapter, shall be known as the "Official cotton standards of the United States": Provided, That any standard of any cotton established and promulgated under this subchapter by the Secretary of Agriculture shall not be changed or replaced within a period less than one year from and after the date of the promulgation thereof by the Secretary of Agriculture: Provided further, That no change or replacement of any standard of any cotton established and promulgated under this subchapter by the Secretary of Agriculture shall become effective until after one year's public notice thereof, which notice shall specify the date when same is to become effective.

(b) Practical forms—(1) Preparation, certification, and distribution. The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized and directed to prepare practical forms of the official cotton standards which shall be established by him, and to furnish such practical forms from time to time, upon request, to any person, the cost thereof, as determined by the Secretary of Agriculture, to be paid by the person requesting the same, and to certify such practical forms under the seal of the Department of Agriculture and under the signature of the said Secretary, thereto affixed by himself or by some official or employee of the Department of Agriculture thereunto duly authorized by the said Secretary.

(2) Disposition of receipts from sales. All sums collected by the Secretary of Agriculture for furnishing practical forms under paragraph (1) shall be deposited and covered into the Treasury as miscellaneous receipts.

[Sec. 4854 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4861 Statutory provisions; spot cotton.

SEC. 4861. Spot cotton. This subchapter shall not be construed to impose a tax on any sale of spot cotton.

[Sec. 4861 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4861–1 Exemption of spot cotton.

The tax imposed under section 4851 is not applicable to the sale of spot cotton.

§ 45.4862 Statutory provisions; definition of bona fide spot markets.

SEC. 4862. Definition of bona fide spot markets—(a) Definition. For the purpose of this subchapter, the only markets which shall be considered bona fide spot markets shall be those which the Secretary of Agriculture shall, from time to time, after investigation, determine and designate to be such, and of which he shall give public notice.

(b) Determination. In determining, pursuant to the provisions of this subchapter, what markets are bona fide spot markets, the Secretary of Agriculture is directed to consider only markets in which spot cotton is sold in such volume and under such conditions as customarily to reflect accurately the value of Middling cotton and the differences between the prices or values of Middling cotton and of other grades of cotton for which standards shall have been established by the Secretary of Agriculture: Provided, That if there be not sufficient places, in the markets of which are made bona fide sales of spot cotton of grades for which standards are established by the Secretary of Agriculture, to enable him to designate at least five spot markets in accordance with section 4863(c), he shall, from data as to spot sales collected by him, make rules and regulations for determining the actual commercial differences in the value of spot cotton of the grades established by him as reflected by bona fide sales of spot cotton, of the same or different grades, in the markets selected and designated by him, from time to time, for that purpose, and in that event differences in value of cotton of various grades involved in contracts made pursuant to section 4863 (a) and (b) shall be determined in compliance with such rules and regulations: Provided further, That it shall be the duty of any person engaged in the business of dealing in cotton, when requested by the Secretary of Agriculture or any agent acting under his instructions, to answer correctly to the best of his knowledge, under oath or otherwise, all questions touching his knowledge of the number of bales, the classification, the price or bona fide price offered, and other terms of purchase or sale, of any cotton involved in any transaction participated in by him, or to produce all books, letters, papers, or documents in his possession or under his control relating to such matter.

[Sec. 4862 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4863 Statutory provisions; basis grade contracts.

SEC. 4863. Basis grade contracts—(a) Conditions. No tax shall be imposed under this subchapter on any contract of sale mentioned in section 4851(a) if the contract comply with each of the following conditions:

(1) Conformity with section 4853(a) and regulations. Conform to the requirements in section 4853(a) and the rules and regulations made pursuant to this subchapter.

(2) Specification of grade, price, and dates of sale and settlement. Specify the basis grade for the cotton involved in the contract, which shall be one of the grades for which standards are established by the Secretary of Agriculture, except grades prohibited from being delivered on a contract made under this section by the fifth paragraph of this subsection, the price per pound at which the cotton of such basis grade is contracted to be bought or sold, the data when the purchase or sale was made, and the month or months in which the contract is to be fulfilled or settled: Provided, That middling shall be deemed the basis grade incorporated into the contract if no other basis grade be specified either in the contract or in the memorandum evidencing the same.

(3) Provision for delivery of standard grades only. Provide that the cotton dealt with therein or delivered thereunder shall be of or within the grades for which standards are established by the Secretary of Agriculture except grades prohibited from being delivered on a contract made under this section by paragraph (5) and no other grade or grades.

(4) Provision for settlement on basis of actual commercial differences. Provide that in case cotton of grade other than the basis grade be tendered or delivered in settlement of such contract, the differences above or below the contract price which the receiver shall pay for such grades other than the basis grade shall be the actual commercial differences, determined as hereinafter provided.

(5) Prohibition of delivery of inferior cotton. Provide that cotton that, because of the presence of extraneous matter of any character, or irregularities or defects, is reduced in value below that of low middling, or cotton that is below the grade of low middling, or, if tinged, cotton that is below the grade of strict middling, or, if yellow stained, cotton that is below the grade of good middling, the grades mentioned being of the official cotton standards of the United States, or cotton that is less than seven-eighths of an inch in length of staple, or cotton of perished staple, or of immature staple, or cotton that is "gin cut" or reginned, or cotton that is "repacked" or "false packed" or "mixed packed" or "water packed," shall not be delivered on, under, or in settlement of such contract.

(6) Provisions for tender in full, notice of delivery date, and certificate of grade. Provide that all tenders of cotton under such contract shall be the full number of bales involved therein, except that such variations of the number of bales may be permitted as is necessary to bring the total weight of the cotton tendered within the provisions of the contract as to weight; that, on the fifth business day prior to delivery, the person making the tender shall give to the person receiving the same written notice of the date of delivery, and that, on or prior to the date so fixed for delivery, and in advance of final settlement of the contract, the person making the tender shall furnish to the person receiving the same a written notice or certificate stating the grade of each individual bale to be delivered and, by means of marks or numbers, identifying each bale with its grade.

(7) Provision for tender and settlement in accordance with Government classification. Provide that all tenders of cotton and settlements therefor under such contract shall be in accordance with the classification thereof made under the regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture by such officer or officers of the Government as shall be designated for the purpose, and the costs of such classification shall be fixed, assessed, collected, and paid as provided in such regulations. All moneys collected as such costs may be used as a revolving fund for carrying out the purposes of this paragraph. The Secretary of Agriculture is authorized to prescribe regulations for carrying out the purposes of this paragraph, and the certificates of the officers of the Government as to the classification of any cotton for the purposes of this paragraph shall be accepted in the courts of the United States in all suits between the parties to such contract, or their privies, as prima facie evidence of the true classification of the cotton involved.

(b) Incorporation of conditions in contracts. The provisions of subsection (a) (3), (4), (5), (6), and (7) shall be deemed fully incorporated into any such contract if there be written or printed thereon, or on the memoranda evidencing the same, at or prior to the time the same is signed, the phrase "Subject to Internal Revenue Code, section 4863."

(c) Delivery allowances. For the purpose of this section, the differences above or below the contract price which the receiver shall pay for cotton of grades above or below the basis grade in the settlement of a contract of sale for the future delivery of cotton shall be determined by the actual commercial differences in value thereof upon the sixth business day prior to the day fixed, in accordance with subsection (a) (6), for the delivery of cotton on the contract, established by the sale of spot cotton in the spot markets of not less than five places designated for the purpose from time to time by the Secretary of Agriculture, as such values were established by the sales of spot cotton, in such designated five or more markets: Provided, That for the purpose of this subsection such values in the said spot markets be based upon the standards for grades of cotton established by the Secretary of Agriculture: And provided further, That whenever the value of one grade is to be determined from the sale or sales of spot cotton of another grade or grades, such value shall be fixed in accordance with rules and regulations which shall be prescribed for the purpose by the Secretary of Agriculture.

[Sec. 4863 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4863–1 Exemption of basis grade contracts, tendered grade contracts, and specific grade contracts.

(a) In general. The tax imposed under section 4851 shall not apply to contracts of sale of specific cotton for future delivery made at, on, or in any exchange, board of trade, or similar institution or place of business which meet the requirements, and are made in compliance with the conditions, of section 4863, 4864, or 4865.

(b) Exchange rules and other matters not to affect contracts exempt from tax under section 4863, 4864, or 4865. No contract shall be deemed to comply with the conditions of section 4863, 4864, or 4865 so as to exempt it from taxation if it contains or incorporates therein by reference or otherwise any provision or any by-law, rule, or custom of any exchange, board of trade, or similar institution or place of business, which is inconsistent or in conflict with any requirement of section 4863, 4864, or 4865, as the case may be, nor if the parties enter into any collateral or additional agreement or understanding, either verbal or written, respecting the subject matter of such contract which is inconsistent or in conflict with any requirement of said sections.

(c) Provisions deemed inconsistent and in conflict with requirements. Any such provision, by-law, rule, custom, agreement, or understanding which in any manner takes away or impairs the right of the person obligated to deliver cotton, to tender any cotton which is of or within the grades, of the quality, and of the length of staple deliverable under a contract made in compliance with section 4863, 4864, or 4865; or which takes away or impairs his right to prepare for himself, or to have prepared by anyone at his direction, the written notice or certificate stating the grade of cotton pursuant to section 4863, or which takes away or impairs the right of either party to submit a dispute as to the classification of the cotton tendered to the Secretary of Agriculture, under a contract subject to section 4863 or 4864; or which contains any device, arrangement, or agreement for the adjustment of the price of the grade or grades of cotton tendered under a contract subject to section 4864, other than the basis grade specified in the contract, by any "fixed difference" system, or by arbitration, shall be deemed inconsistent and in conflict with the requirements of such sections, as the case may be.

(d) Disputes as to classification to be referred to Secretary of Agriculture. Contracts subject to sections 4863 and 4864, shall provide that, in case a dispute arises between the person making the tender and the person receiving the same as to the classification of any cotton tendered under the contract, either party may refer the question of the true classification of the cotton to the Secretary of Agriculture for determination, and that such dispute shall be referred and determined, and the cost thereof fixed, assessed, collected and paid in such manner and in accordance with such rules and regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Agriculture.

§ 45.4864 Statutory provisions; tendered grade contracts.

SEC. 4864. Tendered grade contracts—(a) Conditions. No tax shall be imposed under this subchapter on any contract of sale mentioned in section 4851(a) if the contract—

(1) Compliance with section 4863. Comply with all the terms and conditions of section 4863 not inconsistent with this section; and

(2) Provision for contingent specific performance. Provide that, in case cotton of grade or grades other than the basis grade specified in the contract shall be tendered in performance of the contract, the parties to such contract may agree, at the time of the tender, as to the price of the grade or grades so tendered, and that if they shall not then agree as to such price, then, and in that event, the buyer of said contract shall have the right to demand the specific fulfillment of such contract by the actual delivery of cotton of the basis grade named therein and at the price specified for such basis grade in said contract.

(b) Incorporation of conditions in contract. Contracts made in compliance with this section shall be known as "Section 4864 Contracts." The provisions of this section shall be deemed fully incorporated into any such contract if there be written or printed thereon, or on the memorandum evidencing the same, at or prior to the time the same is signed, the phrase "Subject to Internal Revenue Code, section 4864."

(c) Application of section. Nothing in this section shall be so construed as to relieve from the tax imposed by section 4851(a) any contract in which, or in the settlement of or in respect to which, any device or arrangement whatever is resorted to, or any agreement is made, for the determination or adjustment of the price of the grade or grades tendered other than the basis grade specified in the contract by any "fixed difference" system, or by arbitration, or by any other method not provided for by this subchapter.

[Sec. 4864 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4864–1 Exemption of tendered grade contracts.

For regulations with respect to the exemption of tendered grade contracts, see the applicable provisions of § 45.4863–1.

§ 45.4865 Statutory provisions; specific grade contracts.

SEC. 4865. Specific grade contracts—(a) Conditions. No tax shall be imposed under this subchapter on any contract of sale mentioned in section 4851(a) if the contract complies with each of the following conditions:

(1) Conformity with rules and regulations. Conform to the rules and regulations made pursuant to this subchapter.

(2) Specification of grade, price, dates of sale and delivery. Specify the grade, type, sample, or description of the cotton involved in the contract, the price per pound at which such cotton is contracted to be bought or sold, the date of the purchase or sale, and the time when shipment or delivery of such cotton is to be made.

(3) Prohibition of delivery of other than specified grade. Provide that cotton of or within the grade or of the type, or according to the sample or description, specified in the contract shall be delivered thereunder, and that no cotton which does not conform to the type, sample, or description, or which is not of or within the grade specified in the contract shall be tendered or delivered thereunder.

(4) Provision for specific performance. Provide that the delivery of cotton under the contract shall not be effected by means of "set-off" or "ring" settlement, but only by the actual transfer of the specified cotton mentioned in the contract.

(b) Incorporation of conditions in contract. The provisions of subsection (a) (1), (3), and (4) shall be deemed fully incorporated into any such contract if there be written or printed thereon, or on the document or memorandum evidencing the same, at or prior to the time the same is entered into, the words "Subject to Internal Revenue Code, section 4865."

(c) Application of section. This section shall not be construed to apply to any contract of sale made in compliance with section 4863 or 4864.

[Sec. 4865 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4865–1 Exemption of specific grade contracts.

For regulations with respect to the exemption of specific grade contracts, see the applicable provisions of § 45.4863–1.

§ 45.4871 Statutory provisions; method of payment.

SEC. 4871. Method of payment. The tax imposed by section 4851 (a) shall be paid by means of stamps which shall be affixed to such contracts, or to the memoranda evidencing the same, and canceled in compliance with rules and regulations which shall be prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate.

[Sec. 4871 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4871–1 Method of payment.

(a) Stamps. Documentary stamps issued under the internal revenue laws shall be used for payment of the taxes imposed by section 4851(a) and may be obtained from (1) district directors and other duly authorized officials; (2) postmasters in all post offices of the first and second classes and such post offices of the third and fourth class as are located in county seats; (3) designated depositaries of the United States; and (4) any person who is duly appointed and acting as agent of any State for the sale of stock transfer stamps of such State, and designated by the Secretary or his delegate for the purpose.

(b) Affixing stamps. Stamps representing the tax due are to be affixed by the seller, at the time of signing, to each contract of sale of cotton for future delivery mentioned in section 4851, or to the memorandum evidencing the same, unless the contract under the law and regulations is not subject to tax.

(c) Canceling stamps. The person using or affixing a stamp shall write or stamp thereon with ink the initials of his name and the date, including the year, on which the same shall be attached or used, or shall, by cutting and canceling the stamps with a machine or punch, which will affix the initials and date aforesaid, so deface the stamp as to render it unfit for reuse. In addition to the foregoing, stamps of the value of 10 cents or more shall have three parallel incisions made by some sharp instrument lengthwise through the stamp after the stamp has been attached to the document: Provided, This will not be required where stamps are canceled by perforation. The cancellation by either method should not so deface the stamp as to prevent its denomination and genuineness from being readily determined.

§ 45.4872 Statutory provisions; collection and enforcement.

SEC. 4872. Collection and enforcement—(a) Rules and regulations. The Secretary or his delegate is authorized to make and promulgate such rules and regulations as he may deem necessary to collect the tax imposed by this subchapter and otherwise to enforce its provisions.

(b) Records and returns. Further to effect the purpose of subsection (a), the Secretary or his delegate shall require all persons coming within its provisions to keep such records and statements of account, and may require such persons to make such returns verified under oath or otherwise, as will fully and correctly disclose all transactions mentioned in section 4851(a), including the making, execution, settlement, and fulfillment thereof; he may require all persons who act in the capacity of a clearing house, clearing association, or similar institution for the purpose of clearing, settling, or adjusting transactions mentioned in section 4851(a) to keep such records and to make such returns as will fully and correctly disclose all facts in their possession relating to such transactions.

(c) Employment of officers and employees. The Secretary or his delegate may appoint officers and employees to conduct the inspection necessary to collect said tax and otherwise to enforce this subchapter and all rules and regulations made by him in pursuance hereof.

[Sec. 4872 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4872–1 Records of contracts of sale of cotton for future delivery.

All persons who make contracts of sale of cotton for future delivery at, on, or in any exchange, board of trade, or similar institution or place of business, whether said contracts shall be cleared and adjusted through a clearing association, or direct between seller and buyer, or otherwise, shall keep a record thereof showing:

(a) Name and address of contracting person keeping record.

(b) Name and address of other party to contract.

(c) Date contract was made.

(d) Quantity of cotton involved, in bales or pounds.

(e) Time specified in contract for delivery.

(f) Whether transaction is a purchase or a sale.

(g) Whether the contract is (1) a contract subject to section 4863, (2) a contract subject to section 4864, or (3) a contract subject to section 4865, and the basis grade.

(h) Grade, type, sample, or description of cotton, if not basis grade.

(i) Specified price per pound.

(j) Date of delivery or settlement.

(k) Method of actual fulfillment or settlement.

(l) Amount of tax paid (or, if exempt, so state).

§ 45.4872–2 Records to be kept by cotton clearing associations.

All persons who act in the capacity of a clearing house or clearing association for the purpose of clearing, settling, or adjusting transactions mentioned in section 4851(a) shall keep a record thereof showing:

(a) Name and address of clearing house or clearing association keeping record.

(b) Name and address of person for whom contract is cleared.

(c) Date contract was made.

(d) Quantity of cotton involved, in bales or pounds.

(e) Time specified in contract for delivery.

(f) Whether transaction is a purchase or a sale.

(g) Whether the contract is (1) a contract subject to section 4863, (2) a contract subject to section 4864, or (3) a contract subject to section 4865, and the basis grade.

(h) Grade, type, sample, or description of cotton, if not basis contract.

(i) Specified price per pound.

(j) Date of delivery or settlement.

(k) Method of actual fulfillment or settlement.

[1] If section 4864 contract or section 4865 contract, so state.

(b) Use of prescribed forms. The use of Record No. 1 is required to give information regarding all contracts made upon an exchange subject to section 4863, unless otherwise stated; the use of Record No. 2 is required to cover contracts subject to section 4864, unless otherwise stated; the use of Record No. 3 is required to cover contracts subject to section 4865, unless otherwise stated; and the use of Record No. 4 is required by persons who act in the capacity of a clearing house or clearing association for the purpose of clearing, settling or adjusting transactions mentioned in section 4851. Record Nos. 1, 2, and 3 shall contain 50 lines to a page, unless otherwise permitted by the Commissioner; and Record No. 4 shall contain a sufficient number of lines on one page to show all facts required to be disclosed under subchapter D of chapter 39 of the Code and this subpart unless otherwise permitted by the Commissioner. Persons who use such forms may incorporate additional columns which would be of use to them, such columns to be placed in such positions as not to interfere with the continuity of the columns and headings prescribed. Such records will not be supplied by the Internal Revenue Service, but must be procured elsewhere.

§ 45.4872–4 Records to be kept in separate books and open for inspection.

(a) Records. All records required by the regulations in this subpart shall be kept in separate books, and not mixed with records of other accounts or transactions, and shall be open to inspection, when demand is made therefor by officers and agents of the Internal Revenue Service. All entries therein must be in writing, and the books preserved for a period of not less than three years.

(b) Inspection by agents. Agents duly appointed by the Commissioner shall have authority to examine the books and records kept in pursuance to §§ 45.4872–1 to 45.4872–3, inclusive, and may require the production of any other books, papers, records, or statements of account necessary to determine any liability to the tax imposed by section 4851.

§ 45.4872–5 Return to be made by persons dealing in future contracts.

All persons who make contracts of sale of cotton for future delivery at, on, or in any exchange, board of trade, or similar institution or place of business, whether said contracts shall be cleared and adjusted through a clearing association, or direct between the seller and buyer, or otherwise, shall render a return, in letter form, to the district director for the district in which such person's principal place of business is located. The return shall cover the period of one calendar quarter, shall be filed on or before the last day of the first calendar month following the calendar quarter for which it is made, and shall be verified by a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of perjury. The return shall show the number of contracts brought forward from the preceding quarter; the number of contracts bought or sold; the number of bales of cotton involved in said contracts; the month in which said cotton is to be delivered; the method of settlement of said contract—i.e., whether by "ring," "direct," "notice," "actual delivery," "transfer," through a cotton-exchange clearing association, if any, or otherwise; and the number of contracts left open at the end of the quarter.

§ 45.4872–6 Returns to be made by clearing associations.

All persons who act in the capacity of a clearing house, clearing association, or similar institution for the purpose of clearing, settling or adjusting transactions mentioned in section 4851 shall render, in respect of such transactions, a return, in letter form, to the district director for the district in which such association is located. The return shall cover the period of one calendar quarter, shall be filed on or before the last day of the first calendar month following the quarter for which it is made, and shall be duly verified by the president, vice-president, secretary, or treasurer of the association by a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of perjury. The return shall show all facts in the possession of the association relating to such transactions, including the number of contracts bought or sold by each member of the association; the number of bales involved in said contracts; the month in which said cotton is to be delivered; the number of contracts cleared for each member of the association; the method of settlement of said contracts—i.e., whether by "notice," "set-off," or by any other method; also the monthly average closing price of cotton for each month dealt in, named in said return.

§ 45.4872–7 Persons failing to make return, district director authorized to do so.

If any person required to make the return under the provision of section 4872(b) and the regulations in this subpart shall fail or refuse to make said return within the time specified, then the return shall be made by the district director upon inspection of the books and records of the person so required: Provided, That the making of the return by the district director shall not be construed to relieve the person so required from any penalty incurred by reason of his failure to make such return.

§ 45.4873 Statutory provisions; liability of principal for acts of agent.

SEC. 4873. Liability of principal for acts of agent. When construing and enforcing the provisions of this subchapter, the act, omission, or failure of any official, agent, or other person acting for or employed by any association, partnership, or corporation within the scope of his employment or office shall, in every case, also be deemed the act, omission, or failure of such association, partnership, or corporation, as well as that of the person.

[Sec. 4873 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4874 Statutory provisions; immunity of witnesses.

SEC. 4874. Immunity of witnesses. No person whose evidence is deemed material by the officer prosecuting on behalf of the United States in any case brought under any provision of this subchapter shall withhold his testimony because of complicity by him in any violation of this subchapter or of any regulation made pursuant to this subchapter, but any such person called by such officer who testifies in such case shall be exempt from prosecution for any offense to which his testimony relates.

[Sec. 4874 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4875 Statutory provisions; operation of State laws.

SEC. 4875. Operation of State laws. The payment of any tax imposed by this subchapter shall not exempt any person from any penalty or punishment now or hereafter provided by the laws of any State for entering into contracts of sale of cotton for future delivery, nor shall the payment of any tax imposed by this subchapter be held to prohibit any State or municipality from imposing a tax on the same transaction.

[Sec. 4875 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4876 Statutory provisions; reports of Secretary of Agriculture.

SEC. 4876. Reports of Secretary of Agriculture. The Secretary of Agriculture is directed to publish from time to time the results of investigations made in pursuance of this subchapter.

(a) For penalties for offenses relating to stamps, see § 45.7208.

(b) For penalties for unauthorized use or sale of stamps, see § 45.7209.

(c) For fines for failure to pay, or attempt to evade payment of, tax on cotton futures, and other violations, see § 45.7233.

(d) For penalties relating to cotton futures, see § 45.7263.

(e) For other administrative provisions relating to the tax imposed on cotton futures, see Subpart L.

Subpart J—Silver Bullion

§ 45.4891 Statutory provisions; imposition of tax.

SEC. 4891. Imposition of tax. There shall be imposed on all transfers of any interest in silver bullion, if the price for which such interest is or is to be transferred exceeds the total of the cost thereof and allowed expenses, a tax of 50 percent of the amount of such excess.

[Sec. 4891 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4891–1 Imposition of tax.

(a) Transfers subject to tax. The tax applies to all transfers, within the scope of the tax as set forth in § 45.4896–1, of any interest in silver bullion, if the price for which such interest is or is to be transferred exceeds the cost thereof and the allowed expenses, unless the transfer is specifically exempted. As to exempt transfers, see paragraph (c) of § 45.4896–1.

(b) Tax in addition to other taxes. The tax is in addition to all other taxes under the internal revenue laws of the United States.

(c) Forward sales. The tax is not payable twice on the same transaction; that is, when the tax is paid upon an agreement to sell, it is not again payable upon the sale, delivery, or transfer in fulfillment thereof.

(d) Switching transactions. A transfer of an interest in silver bullion is taxable if a net profit is realized, even though the transferor simultaneously acquires another equivalent interest in silver bullion for the same or a different delivery.

§ 45.4891–2 Rate and application of tax.

(a) Rate of tax. The tax is 50 percent of the amount by which the price for which the interest in silver bullion is or is to be transferred exceeds the total of the cost thereof plus the allowed expenses. For definition of "cost", see paragraph (a) of § 45.4892–1.

(b) Price. The price for which an interest in silver bullion is or is to be transferred is the amount of money and/or the market value of any property other than money received or to be received by the transferor, directly or indirectly, in consideration of the transfer.

(c) Example. The following examples illustrate the application of this section:

Example (1). A transferred on March 10, 1961, 1,000 ounces of silver to B, who paid $910; on May 16 B sells 100 ounces to C, who pays $90. There is no tax. B then sells 500 ounces to D for an article worth $460. The tax (if any) on this transfer is 50 percent of the amount obtained by subtracting from the sale price ($460, the value of the article), the sum of the cost ($455), and the allowed expenses as to the 500 ounces. B then contracts in July to deliver to E in September 400 ounces for which E agrees to pay $368. E assigns for $380 to F his rights to receive the silver. This is a transfer of an interest in silver bullion, the cost to the transferor (E) being $368 and the sale price $380. The tax on this transfer is 50 percent of the amount by which the sale price to F ($380), exceeds the sum of the cost to E ($368), and allowed expenses, if any. Finally B delivers the silver to F. The tax on this transaction (made up of the agreement to sell to E and the delivery to F) is measured by the sale price ($368) less the aggregate of the cost ($364) and allowed expenses, if there were any.

Example (2). R contracts in June 1961 to deliver to S in September 1,000 ounces of silver at 92 cents an ounce, having previously secured Q's agreement to deliver to him (R) 1,000 ounces in September at 91 cents an ounce. In September R assigns to S the contract of Q which S accepts in fulfillment of R's contract and S pays R $10 and Q $910. The assignment to S of the contract between R and Q is a taxable transfer, and the tax is measured by the sale price ($920) less the cost to R ($910), and less allowed expenses.

§ 45.4892 Statutory provisions; definitions.

SEC. 4892. Definitions. For the purpose of this subchapter—

(1) Cost. The term "cost" means the cost of the interest in silver bullion to the transferor, except that—

(A) In case of silver bullion produced from materials containing silver which has not previously entered into industrial, commercial, or monetary use, the cost to a transferor who is the producer shall be deemed to be the market price at the time of production determined in accordance with regulations issued hereunder;

(B) In the case of an interest in silver bullion acquired by the transferor otherwise than for valuable consideration, the cost shall be deemed to be the cost thereof to the last previous transferor by whom it was acquired for a valuable consideration; and

(C) In the case of any interest in silver bullion acquired by the transferor in a wash sale, the cost shall be deemed to be the cost to him of the interest transferred by him in such wash sale, but with proper adjustment, in accordance with regulations under this subchapter, when such interests are in silver bullion for delivery at different times.

(2) Transfer. The term "transfer" means a sale, agreement of sale, agreement to sell, memorandum of sale or delivery of, or transfer, whether made by assignment in blank or by any delivery, or by any paper or agreement or memorandum or any other evidence of transfer or sale; or means to make a transfer as so defined.

(3) Interest in silver bullion. The term "interest in silver bullion" means any title or claim to, or interest in, any silver bullion or contract therefor."

(4) Allowed expenses. The term "allowed expenses" means usual and necessary expenses actually incurred in holding, processing, or transporting the interest in silver bullion as to which an interest is transferred (including storage, insurance, and transportation charges but not including interest, taxes, or charges in the nature of overhead), determined in accordance with regulations issued hereunder.

(5) Memorandum. The term "memorandum" means a bill, memorandum, agreement, or other evidence of a transfer.

(6) Wash sale. The term "wash sale" means a transaction involving the transfer of an interest in silver bullion and, within 30 days before or after such transfer, the acquisition by the same person of an interest in silver bullion. Only so much of the interest so acquired as does not exceed the interest so transferred, and only so much of the interest so transferred as does not exceed the interest so acquired, shall be deemed to be included in the wash sale.

(7) Silver bullion. The term "silver bullion" means silver which has been melted, smelted, or refined and is in such state or condition that its value depends primarily upon the silver content and not upon its form.

[Sec. 4892 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4892–1 Definitions.

(a) Cost—(1) In general. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this paragraph, the cost of an interest in silver bullion is the amount paid or agreed to be paid therefor by the transferor in money and/or the market value of any property other than money exchanged or agreed to be exchanged by him for such interest. In computing such cost, the cost of the particular silver bullion (or interest therein) transferred must be used. When more than one lot of silver bullion is acquired on the same day, however, the cost of all lots of 1,000 ounces each, or less, may be averaged and the average cost applied to such lots. In the event that the transferor elects to take advantage of any provisions permitting the delivery in an exempt transfer (see paragraph (c) of § 45.4896–1) of silver bullion in substitution of other silver bullion eligible for such delivery, the cost of the silver bullion for which the substitution has been made shall be deemed to be the cost of the particular silver bullion so delivered.

(2) Silver bullion produced from natural silver-bearing materials, etc. When a producer of silver transfers silver bullion produced by him from materials containing silver which has not prior to the transfer entered into industrial, commercial, or monetary use, the cost to him of such silver bullion shall be deemed to be its market price at the time of production (unless the producer shall have elected otherwise under paragraph (f) of § 45.4894–1). The time of production is the time at which the last usual and necessary process of smelting or refining prior to transfer is completed; or in the event that silver bullion is delivered pursuant to a forward contract entered into after the silver contained therein was acquired by the transferor but before the completion of the last usual and necessary process of smelting or refining thereof, the time of making of such contract.

(3) Interest acquired by gift, bequest, etc. If the transferor acquired the interest in silver bullion otherwise than for valuable consideration, he shall use, as his cost, the cost of the last previous transferor who acquired it for a valuable consideration.

Example. If A buys silver bullion at a cost of 90 cents an ounce and gives it to B, and B dies and bequeaths it to C, who in turn transfers it to D for 92 cents an ounce, C's tax will be based on the excess of his selling price (92 cents) over the total of the cost to A (90 cents) plus allowed expenses.

(4) Forward sales. In the case of a forward sale, as defined in paragraph (k) of this section, the agreement to sell is a transfer, but the cost of the interest transferred cannot be finally determined until the contract is closed out. If the transferor delivers silver under the contract, the cost to him of the silver delivered shall be used in determining the taxability of the agreement and the amount of the tax. In the case of a "ring" settlement of forward contracts, the cost to the transferor on each contract so settled is deemed to be the price he agreed to pay as transferee in his other contract. Otherwise, (i) when the contract is settled without delivery of silver, upon a payment by the transferee, the transferor shall use as his cost the price on the basis of which settlement is made; and (ii) when the contract is settled upon a payment by the transferor, the contract so settled is not itself subject to tax, but the settlement is a transfer subject to tax measured by the amount so paid. In the latter case the original transferee becomes the transferor of an interest in silver bullion.

(b) Transfer. The term "transfer" means any sale, agreement of sale, agreement to sell, memorandum of sale or delivery of, or transfer of an interest in silver bullion whether made by assignment in blank or by any delivery, or by any paper or agreement or memorandum or any other evidence of transfer or sale, or means to make such transfer. For regulations with respect to the types of transfers of interest in silver bullion which are subject to tax, see § 45.4896–1.

(c) Interest in silver bullion. The term "interest in silver bullion" means any title or claim to, or interest in, any silver bullion or contract therefor.

(d) Allowed expenses. In determining the tax, the transferor may add to his cost any usual and necessary expense, such as storage, insurance, and transportation charges, actually incurred in holding, processing or transporting silver bullion with respect to which an interest is transferred. Interest, taxes, and charges in the nature of overhead may not be included in the allowed expenses. In the case of silver bullion produced from materials containing silver which has not previously entered into industrial, commercial, or monetary use, the producer-transferor may include in allowed expenses only expenses actually incurred subsequent to the last usual and necessary process of smelting or refining of the particular silver bullion transferred. If the cost to the transferor is deemed to be the cost to a previous transferor (see paragraph (a)(3) of this section), the allowed expenses may include those incurred with respect to the silver bullion or interest therein in question since the acquisition by such previous transferor. The allowed expenses may in no case be estimated, but must be subject to definite proof as expenses actually incurred.

(e) Memorandum. The term "memorandum" means a bill, memorandum, agreement, or other evidence of a transfer of an interest in silver bullion. (See § 45.4895–5.)

(f) Silver bullion. Ores, concentrates, and the like, containing silver which has not been melted, smelted, or refined are not silver bullion, whatever their silver content. Material containing silver which has been melted, smelted, or refined, and of which the silver content is not less than 250 troy ounces of fine silver per short ton is silver bullion. Thus, bar silver or crystal silver is silver bullion; as also, is the silver contained in dore, zinc crust, slimes, lead bullion, blister copper, etc., except that materials containing less than 250 troy ounces of fine silver per short ton are not silver bullion. Fabricated silver (defined in paragraph (g) of this section) of which not more than 80 percent of the total value is attributable to the silver content is not silver bullion. Fabricated silver in a form customarily sold for industrial, professional, or artistic use at a stated premium per fine troy ounce above the current market value of commercial bar silver, is not silver bullion, if the current market premium with respect to such fabricated silver is 12 cents or more. Scrap silver is silver bullion.

(g) Fabricated silver. The term "fabricated silver" means silver which has in good faith and not for the purpose of evading, or enabling others to evade the tax, been processed or manufactured into such a form that it has one or more specific and customary industrial, professional, or artistic uses.

(h) Scrap silver. The term "scrap silver" includes silver sweepings, and fabricated silver or silver coin which is no longer held for the purpose for which it was processed, manufactured, or coined.

(i) Resident. The term "resident" includes a domestic corporation or partnership.

(j) Party to the transfer. The term "party to the transfer" includes any person who by the transfer disposes of or acquires any ownership or interest in or claim to the interest in silver bullion transferred.

(k) Forward sale. The term "forward sale" means a so-called "over-the-counter contract", or a contract to sell silver bullion for spot or future delivery.

(l) Silver foreign exchange. The term "silver foreign exchange" means foreign exchange the fluctuations of which follow generally the fluctuations in the price of silver.

§ 45.4892–2 Expired provisions.

Subparagraph (c) of paragraph (1) and paragraph (6) of section 4892, relating to wash sales, have no application to years as to which the Internal Revenue Code of 1954 is effective.

§ 45.4893 Statutory provisions; liability for tax.

SEC. 4893. Liability for tax. This tax imposed by this subchapter shall be paid by any person who makes, signs, issues, or sells any of the documents and instruments subject to the tax imposed by this subchapter, or for whose use or benefit the same are made, signed, issued, or sold. The United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof shall not be liable for the tax with respect to an instrument to which it is a party, and affixing of stamps thereby shall not be deemed payment for the tax, which may be collected by assessment from any other party liable therefor.

[Sec. 4893 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4893–1 Liability for the tax.

(a) In general. Except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, both parties to a transfer are responsible for affixing stamps in the required amount in payment of the tax imposed by section 4891. Stamps shall be affixed in accordance with the provisions of § 45.4895–1. In the case of a transfer upon which the transferor claims that no tax is due, he may affix a stamp of 1 cent in order to submit the same for cancellation. If, at any time before the expiration of the period of limitation, tax is found to be due on a transfer on which no tax was paid, or if additional tax is found to be due on a transfer, assessment may be made against either the transferor or the transferee, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section.

(b) After cancellation of stamps. When stamps on any memorandum have been cancelled as provided in § 45.4895–6, the transferor and not the transferee shall be liable for any additional tax found due or for any penalty with respect to the transfer in question.

(c) Transfers to the United States Government. In the case of taxable transfers to the United States Government, the transferor is liable for the tax, which shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of section 4895 and the regulations thereunder. For transfers exempt from the tax, see paragraph (c) of § 45.4896–1.

(d) Liability of agent or broker. An agent or broker acting for a party to a transfer is subject to penalties under section 7201 for delivering any silver bullion or interest therein without the required memorandum, or for delivering any such memorandum without having the proper stamps affixed thereto, with the intent to evade or assist in the evasion of the requirements of the law.

§ 45.4894 Statutory provisions; abatement or refund.

SEC. 4894. Abatement or refund. The Secretary or his delegate shall abate or refund, in accordance with regulations issued under this subchapter, such portion of any tax imposed by section 4891 as he finds to be attributable to profits—

(1) Course of regular business. Realized in the course of the transferor's regular business of furnishing silver bullion for industrial, professional, or artistic use and—

(A) Not resulting from a change in the market price of silver bullion, or

(B) Offset by contemporaneous losses incurred in transactions in interests in silver bullion determined, in accordance with such regulations, to have been specifically related hedging transactions; or

(2) Silver foreign exchange. Offset by contemporaneous losses attributable to changes in the market price of silver bullion and incurred in transactions in silver foreign exchange determined, in accordance with such regulations, to have been hedged specifically by the interest in silver bullion transferred.

[Sec. 4894 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4894–1 Abatement or refund of tax attributable to profits realized in course of regular business.

(a) Transferors engaged in business of furnishing silver bullion for industrial, professional, or artistic use—(1) General. Section 4894 provides for the abatement or refund of so much of the tax imposed by section 4891 as is found by the district director to be attributable to profits realized in the course of the transferor's regular business of furnishing silver bullion for industrial, professional, or artistic use, to the extent that such profits (i) do not result from changes in the market price of silver bullion or (ii) are offset by contemporaneous losses incurred in transactions in interests in silver bullion determined in accordance with the regulations in this part to be specifically related hedging transactions.

(2) Registration requirement. The abatement or refund provided in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph is available only to a transferor regularly engaged in the business of furnishing silver bullion for industrial, professional, or artistic use who has obtained from the district director a certificate of registration on Form 1A (Silver), and with respect to transactions in the regular course of that business. The district director shall issue such certificate upon application on Form 1 (Silver) if satisfied that the applicant is regularly engaged in the business specified. The provision for abatement or refund does not apply to transfers by a person not registered and regularly engaged in the business specified, regardless of the purpose for which the silver bullion so transferred is to be used. Abatement or refund under subdivisions (i) and (ii) of subparagraph (1) of this paragraph may be allowed with respect to the same transfer.

(b) Profits not resulting from change in market price. The amount of profit not resulting from a change in the market price of silver bullion shall be determined by subtracting from the net profit the amount attributable to a change in the market price of silver bullion. For purposes of this subpart, the term "net profit" means gross profit less the allowed expenses. ("Allowed expenses" are deemed to be incurred in the course of the transferor's regular business.)

(c) Profits attributable to change in market price. The amount of profit attributable to a change in the market price of silver bullion means the rise, if any, in the market price of an interest in silver bullion equivalent to the interest transferred, during the time the interest was held by the transferor. The interest shall be deemed to have been held by the transferor from the date of its acquisition (or of a prior contract for its acquisition) to the date of the taxable transfer. The market price as of each such date shall be deemed to be the market price on that date of a similar interest in silver bullion for delivery on the date specified in the contract of acquisition or the taxable transfer, as the case may be. In all cases market prices shall be determined in accordance with the prices in the nearest established exchange upon which interests in silver bullion are dealt in, and the same exchange shall be used in determining price as of both dates. In the absence of transactions in an established exchange, the market quotations published in the Mining and Engineering Journal, a trade journal published in New York City, may be used in determining price. In the case of any transfer of an interest in silver bullion in a form other than that in which it is dealt in upon an established exchange the market value shall be determined on the basis of the silver content of such silver bullion. When the cost to a producer-transferor is determined under paragraph (a)(2) of § 45.4892–1, the time of production shall be deemed to be the date of acquisition for purposes of this section.

(d) Profits offset by losses on hedging transactions. Specifically related hedging transactions are two or more transactions entered into by the same person, at least one of which has been entered into by him for the purpose of offsetting in whole or in part, the profit or loss which would accrue to him upon the other transaction or transactions as a direct result of any change in the market price of silver bullion. To the extent that a net profit realized upon one or more of a group of specifically related hedging transactions, is offset by a contemporaneous loss upon any one or more of the other specifically related transactions, a transferor registered in accordance with subparagraph (2) of paragraph (a) of this section is entitled to abatement or refund of the tax on such profit; provided that the transfers which constituted the hedge transactions are specifically related to one or more transfers made in the course of the transferor's regular business of furnishing silver bullion for industrial, professional, or artistic use.

(e) When profits and losses are contemporaneous. The requirement that the profit and loss, respectively, upon specifically related hedging transactions must be incurred contemporaneously, means that the time between the realization of the profit and the loss must be as brief as is reasonably practicable under the circumstances. For the purpose of this requirement, a profit or loss may, in a proper case, be deemed to be incurred at the time the contract is made although pursuant to paragraph (a)(4) of § 45.4892–1 the profit may not be ascertainable or the tax payable until the contract is closed out.

(f) Hedges against sales from necessary inventory—(1) Election in case of changes in necessary inventory. In the case of transfers of any interest in silver bullion made in the course of the transferor's regular business of smelting or refining silver or of furnishing silver bullion for industrial, professional, or artistic use, the transferor may elect (in the manner provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph) to have:

(i) The cost of the interest in silver bullion transferred; and

(ii) The amount of contemporaneous losses incurred in specifically related hedging transactions involving acquisitions to be added to inventory determined in accordance with this paragraph, and such election shall constitute as to the transfers to which subparagraph (4) of this paragraph applies a waiver of any and all rights to have such cost and the amount of such losses determined in any other manner.

(2) Manner of making election—(i) In general. Any person eligible for, and desiring to obtain, the benefits of this paragraph, shall file with the district director, in accordance with the provisions of § 45.6091–2, an application on Form 6 (Silver). The district director shall, if satisfied that the applicant is qualified, thereupon issue a certificate on Form 7 (Silver) setting forth the findings of the district director as to the applicant's business, the amount of his necessary inventory, and the average of the cost thereof determined in accordance with paragraph (a) of § 45.4892–1, and such certificate shall fix, until amended by a subsequent certificate, the amount of such inventory and the average cost thereof. The applicant may, within 7 days of the issuance of such certificate, file with the district director an agreement on Form 8 (Silver) which shall constitute the election above referred to. Failure to file the agreement (Form 8 (Silver)) in proper form within the required 7-day period (unless the district director extends the period) shall constitute an election not to obtain the benefits of this paragraph, without prejudice to the right to file application at any time after 30 days.

(ii) Manner of amending certificate. If the taxpayer at any time shows to the satisfaction of the district director that changes in his business have caused a change in the amount of his necessary inventory, he may make application for the issuance of an amended certificate and may specify the date as of which he desires the amendment to be effective. An amendment made under the provisions of this subdivision may be retroactive in a proper case. If satisfied that the taxpayer is entitled to the amendment, the district director shall issue an amended certificate on Form 7 (Silver), which shall become effective if the taxpayer files a new agreement on Form 8 (Silver). In case of an increase of necessary inventory the cost per ounce of the necessary inventory as so increased shall be computed as the weighted average of the cost per ounce of the necessary inventory previously fixed and the cost per ounce of the actual silver added thereto. In case of a decrease of necessary inventory the cost per ounce shall not be affected thereby.

(iii) Effect of delivery to United States mint. In case a transferor delivers to a United States mint in an exempt transfer pursuant to any Executive order (see paragraph (c) of § 45.4896–1) any silver forming a part of the transferor's necessary inventory, the transferor, after replacing the silver so transferred by other silver not required to be delivered to a United States mint, may make application for the issuance of an amended certificate on Form 7 (Silver) in which the average cost of the necessary inventory shall be the weighted average of (a) the cost of silver in his necessary inventory not so delivered, and (b) the actual cost of the silver acquired to replace silver in his necessary inventory so delivered to a United States mint.

(3) Definitions applicable to this paragraph. As used in this paragraph the term "necessary inventory" means the amount of the necessary inventory stated in the certificate issued under subparagraph (2) of this paragraph; the term "average cost of the necessary inventory" means the average of the cost of the silver in the necessary inventory as stated in the certificate issued under subparagraph (2) of this paragraph; and the term "replacement silver" means silver taken into the necessary inventory to replace silver transferred therefrom, provided the replacement takes place within 45 days before or after such transfer.

(4) Special rules applicable to this paragraph—(i) Basis of cost. Upon every transfer by a transferor who holds a certificate on Form 7 (Silver) and has filed an agreement on Form 8 (Silver), the cost shall be based upon the average cost of the necessary inventory, except that if replacement silver to replace the interest so transferred is acquired at a cost less than the average cost of the necessary inventory, the actual cost of such replacement silver shall be used as the cost of the interest so transferred.

(ii) Determination of transfer. In determining which transfers are transfers from necessary inventory (so as to enable the transferor to claim the benefit of any offsetting loss on replacement silver acquired within 45 days before or after such transfer), due regard shall be given, whenever the transferor's actual inventory exceeds his necessary inventory, to the amount of such excess and the period of its continuance, in relation to the reasonable requirements of his business. The burden shall be upon the transferor to justify any such excess continuously maintained for a period of more than 45 days.

(5) Computation of cost of replacement silver. The cost of replacement silver shall be the actual purchase price paid to the vendor, plus allowed expenses, or in the case of replacement silver taken from mines owned by the transferor, the cost shall be the market price of silver at the time of mining. The loss incurred on replacement silver may be offset against any profits resulting from transfers from necessary inventory. Such loss shall be determined by deducting from the cost of the replacement silver the cost, as computed under subparagraph (4) of this paragraph, of the interest transferred from necessary inventory. In lieu of adding allowed expenses to the cost of replacement silver, the transferor may add to the cost the toll or similar charges deducted from a purchase price, based upon the market, in which case he shall not be entitled to abatement attributable (under paragraph (b) of this section) to profits taken into account in such charges.

(6) Rules applicable to smelter and refiner of silver. A transferor regularly engaged in the business of smelting and refining silver, in determining the amount of replacement silver and the time of acquisition thereof, may use such estimated figures as are regularly employed by him in preserving in good faith and as nearly as may be practicable a constant inventory. He may use as the cost of replacement silver, where the cost cannot practicably be determined in any other manner, the market price thereof at the time of acquisition; in which case no allowed expenses and no abatement on account of nonmarket profits (under paragraph (b) of this section) shall be claimed for any period prior to the completion of the processing of such silver. Any upward revision of such an estimate of the amount of replacement silver acquired, on the basis of which the transferor's selling policy is correspondingly revised, shall be deemed an acquisition of further replacement silver and the amount and cost thereof shall be determined as of the date of the revision; and any such downward revision shall constitute a shortage of replacement silver until the amount, in fine troy ounces, of the shortage has been made good. All data upon which the estimates and revisions provided in this subparagraph are based shall be considered records of the taxpayer within the meaning of § 45.4895–8.

(7) Rules applicable to foreign corporate subsidiary or affiliate. Silver owned by a foreign corporation subsidiary to or affiliated with the taxpayer may at the option of the taxpayer (with the written consent of such foreign corporation) be included in the inventory of the taxpayer; in which case all transfers by such foreign corporation shall be deemed to be transfers by the taxpayer, and as such shall be taxable to the taxpayer, and replacement silver acquired by such foreign corporation shall be included as replacement silver acquired by the taxpayer, but transfers as between the corporations shall not be deemed to be transfers of interests in silver bullion, within the meaning of § 45.4892 and paragraph (b) of § 45.4892–1; and the silver so transferred shall be deemed to have been acquired by the transferee otherwise than for a valuable consideration, within the meaning of paragraph (a)(3) of § 45.4892–1. The election to include a foreign corporate subsidiary or affiliate may be revoked by an instrument in writing signed by the taxpayer and by such foreign corporation and filed with the district director, in accordance with the provisions of § 45.6091–2, and shall be effective as of the close of the calendar month in which it is filed. Any silver acquired by such foreign corporation after the effective date of the revocation provided in the preceding sentence shall not be deemed to be replacement silver. If, on the effective date of the revocation, the amount of silver owned by such foreign corporation which formed a part of the necessary inventory, does not exceed the amount so owned by it at the time of the election to include such foreign corporation, transfers by the foreign corporation after such revocation are taxable only in accordance with §§ 45.4891–1 and 45.4892–1; and if it does not exceed the amount so owned by it at the time of the election to include the foreign corporation, the next succeeding transfers aggregating the amount of such excess shall be deemed to be transfers from the inventory of the taxpayer and as such shall be taxable to the taxpayer. In determining such amounts, transfers between the taxpayer and the foreign corporate subsidiary or affiliate, whether for spot or future delivery, shall be considered as transfers, but the cost of silver so transferred shall be determined in accordance with paragraph (a) of § 45.4892–1.

§ 45.4894–2 Abatement or refund of tax attributable to profits realized in connection with transactions in silver foreign exchange.

(a) Hedging transactions in silver foreign exchange—(1) In general. Claim for abatement or refund may be made of so much of the tax imposed by section 4891 as is offset by a contemporaneous loss (i) attributable to a change in the market price of silver bullion and (ii) incurred in a transaction in silver foreign exchange specifically hedged by the interest in silver bullion transferred. See paragraph (l) of § 45.4892–1 for definition of silver foreign exchange.

(2) Rules applicable—(i) When profit and loss are contemporaneous. The requirement that the profit upon the transfer of an interest in silver bullion must be contemporaneous with the loss upon the silver foreign exchange contract means that the time between the realization of the profit and the loss must be as brief as is reasonably practicable under the circumstances.

(ii) When interest in silver bullion is a hedge. A transaction in silver foreign exchange is deemed to have been hedged by an interest in silver bullion when such interest is involved in the fulfillment or liquidation of a contract to sell or purchase silver bullion which contract was entered into for the purpose of offsetting, in whole or in part, the profit or loss which would accrue to the same person on the transaction in silver foreign exchange as a direct result of any change in the market price of silver foreign exchange.

(iii) Grouping transactions in one operation. Two or more transactions in silver foreign exchange may be grouped, and two or more transfers of interests in silver bullion may be grouped, when they can be shown to have formed a part of a single hedging operation.

(b) Elective procedure in case of interrelated hedging operations—(1) Application of subparagraph. The provisions of this subparagraph shall apply to a taxpayer who shall have so elected, as provided in this paragraph, and who, in the regular course of his business, enters into a substantial number of transactions in silver foreign exchange for his own account and as a hedge, from time to time, against his position in such silver foreign exchange buys and sells interest in silver bullion. The making of such election shall constitute an agreement to the determination of the tax upon the profits of such business in accordance with the provisions of this subparagraph and a waiver of any claim to have such tax determined in any other manner. If a taxpayer engages in such business and also in other business involving the purchase and sale of interests in silver bullion not incident to his hedging operations, he shall be entitled to the benefits of this paragraph only upon showing to the satisfaction of the district director that his hedging transactions in interests in silver bullion are so far segregated from his other transactions in such interests, that a separate return can be made with respect to such hedging transactions as hereinafter provided in this paragraph, and that any profits or transactions in interests in silver bullion not a part of such hedging transactions and not incidental thereto, will not be included in such return, but will be taxed under the other provisions of this subpart. In case of such segregation the taxpayer, by making the election under this subparagraph, agrees that any transfer of an interest in silver bullion from one account to the other shall be made at the market price for a similar interest as of the date of such transfer, and shall be treated as though a similar interest had been sold in the open market from one account and a similar interest simultaneously purchased in the open market for the other account.

(2) Manner of making election. The election provided in this paragraph shall be made by filing with the district director, in accordance with the provisions of § 45.6091–2, an application on Form 9 (Silver). The district director may require such further proof, in the form of affidavits or otherwise, as he deems necessary. If satisfied that the applicant is entitled to the benefits of this subparagraph the district director shall issue to him a certificate on Form 10 (Silver).

(3) Election may be revoked. The election by the taxpayer may be revoked as of the close of any calendar month upon giving to the district director issuing the certificate on Form 10 (Silver) 60 days' written notice of intention to revoke. The certificate may be revoked by the district director upon written notice to the taxpayer and opportunity to be heard. Among other causes, the certificate may be revoked for failure to comply with the regulations in this subpart.

(4) Memorandum to be filed in case of election. Upon any transfer of an interest in silver bullion by a taxpayer holding a certificate on Form 10 (Silver), which transfer constitutes a part of his hedging operations or transactions incidental thereto, he shall deliver a memorandum in accordance with § 45.4895–5 (omitting, however, any statement of the cost of the interest transferred, and any computation of tax) and shall state thereon, as a claim for abatement of the entire amount of the tax which would otherwise be payable, the fact that he holds such certificate and that the transfer constitutes a part of his hedging operations. No claim for abatement on Form 843 (Silver) need be attached. If satisfied that the statements are true, the district director shall proceed in accordance with § 45.4895–6. Upon cancellation of a 1-cent stamp, if any (see § 45.4895–1), the transferee is relieved of liability for any tax subsequently found due, but the transferor remains liable for the tax computed as hereinafter provided.

(5) Burden of proof. The burden shall be upon the taxpayer to show, with respect to any transfer of an interest in silver bullion, that the transfer constituted a part of a hedging operation against transactions in silver foreign exchange or constituted a transaction properly incidental thereto. In determining what transactions in interests in silver bullion are hedges against transactions in silver foreign exchange or transactions incidental thereto, the taxpayer shall include only transactions within the following tolerances: The excess of the total long or short position in interests in silver bullion and in silver foreign exchange over the total short or long position shall not, for a period of more than two consecutive business days, be consistently greater than 20 percent of the lesser total, nor for any period of more than 7 consecutive business days consistently greater than 5 percent, nor for any period of a calendar month consistently greater than 1 percent. In determining the excesses set forth in the preceding sentence, the taxpayer shall apply to each silver foreign exchange the ratio to silver bullion which is customarily applied in hedging operations against such silver foreign exchange. A taxpayer who is unable to determine his actual position, by reason of unavoidable delay in reporting transactions by branch offices or agents, shall be deemed to comply with the foregoing tolerances if his estimated position complies therewith, based on his usual volume of unreported transactions. To the extent that a taxpayer may fail to comply with either of the requirements of this subparagraph, he shall not be entitled to the benefits of this subparagraph or to abatement under this section with respect to transfers of interests in silver bullion.

(6) Monthly return required. A taxpayer who has been furnished a certificate on Form 10 (Silver) entitling him to the benefits of this paragraph shall file a return on Form 11 (Silver) for each calendar month, including therein all transactions in interests in silver bullion during the month constituting a part of his hedging operations or transactions incidental thereto. Such returns shall be filed with the district director, in accordance with the provisions of § 45.6091–2, on or before the 15th day of the succeeding calendar month, except that a return filed by a taxpayer's branch office in a foreign country shall be filed on or before the 15th day of the second succeeding month. The total tax shown on the return shall be paid to the district director at the time the return is filed.

(7) Records to be kept. The taxpayer shall keep the records required by § 45.4895–8, and shall also retain and make available for inspection for a like period of time records of all transactions in silver foreign exchange.

(8) Conditions for filing Form 11A (Silver). A taxpayer may treat a part only of his transactions in silver foreign exchange as hedged by his transactions in interests in silver bullion; in which event such part only of his transactions in silver foreign exchange shall be included in the schedules on Form 11A (Silver). The taxpayer shall execute an affidavit on the same day on which any interest in silver bullion is either purchased or sold or on the succeeding day. Such affidavit shall refer to such purchase or sale, stating that it is executed on the same or succeeding day, and shall describe the transactions in silver bullion thereby hedged with sufficient precision to avoid the possibility of later substitution. The affidavit shall be annexed to the return (Form 11 (Silver)) for the month in which the purchase or sale was made.

(9) Exception on account of foreign branch offices. A taxpayer having branch offices in foreign countries may exclude from his return on Form 11 (Silver) transactions in interests in silver bullion effected by or for the account of such branch offices: Provided, That he designates the branch offices concerned: and Provided, That the accounts of each such branch office be kept entirely separate: and Provided, That each transfer of an interest in silver bullion by such branch office either be reported by a separate memorandum pursuant to § 45.4895–5, or be included in a return to be filed by any such branch office pursuant to this paragraph. The taxpayer, in designating the branch offices concerned, shall specify which method is to be followed. Such designation and such specification may be changed as of the close of any month.

(10) Computation of the tax. The tax shall be computed as follows:

(i) The cost of a net long position or the price of a net short position in interests in silver bullion as of the opening of the month shall be the total cost or the total price (less allowed expenses), as the case may be, of the most recent purchases or sales of interests in silver bullion aggregating in the troy ounces the amount of such net position. Allowed expenses incurred prior to the effective date of the taxpayer's election under this paragraph, in connection with interests in silver bullion constituting his net long position, if any, on such effective date, may be added to the cost thereof.

(ii) All purchases of interests in silver bullion during the month shall be reported, together with the aggregate cost thereof; and there shall be added thereto the net long position at the opening of the month, if any, at the cost thereof. All transfers of such interests during the month shall be reported, together with the aggregate price received therefor (less allowed expenses); and there shall be added thereto the net short position at the opening of the month, if any, at the price thereof.

(iii) To the extent of the smaller of the two aggregates in subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph, determined in fine troy ounces, all transactions shall be deemed to be transactions completed within the month, and the opening net position shall be deemed to have been liquidated during the month, and profit or loss thereon shall be deemed to have been realized during the month. To the extent that one of such aggregates exceeds the other, such excess shall constitute the net long or short position, as the case may be, at the close of the month; and the cost or price thereof shall be determined in accordance with subdivision (i) of this subparagraph.

(iv) The cost or price of such net closing position shall be deducted from the aggregate cost or price specified in subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph and the balance shall be treated as the cost or price of the purchases or sales completed during the month. After making such deduction, the excess of the aggregate price, if any, over the aggregate cost, is the profit for the month on transactions in interests in silver bullion; and, except as offset by losses in transactions in silver foreign exchange, or by aggregate net losses carried forward from previous months, as hereinafter provided, is subject to tax at the rate of 50 percent.

(v) A purchase or sale for future delivery shall be included as a transaction effected in the month when the contract for such delivery is made. The cost or price thereof is the contract price, without adjustment for any difference in market price between spot and future silver.

(vi) Allowed expenses shall be reported for the month during which payments are actually made, and shall be deducted from the aggregate selling price for that month.

(vii) In case the taxpayer has positions in interests in silver bullion in more than one market during the month, the cost or price of his opening net positions may be determined separately, and separate schedules attached to the return for the transactions during the month in the various markets, and the net profit or loss on all such schedules shown as the net profit or loss for the month on transactions in interests in silver bullion.

(viii) There shall be attached to the return a separate schedule on Form 11A (Silver) for each silver foreign exchange (see paragraph (l) of § 45.4892–1 for definition) in which the taxpayer had a position at any time during the month. The net profit or loss, and the cost or price of the net position at the opening and at the close of the month shall be computed for each such exchange in the same manner as in the case of interests in silver bullion, except that no allowed expenses shall be included.

(ix) The aggregate net profit or loss for the month is the difference between the total of the net profits and the total of the net losses shown on the return and on the annexed schedules.

(x) An aggregate net loss for the month may be carried forward and applied against an aggregate net profit for the succeeding month, and any amount thereof not so applied may be applied against an aggregate net profit for the second succeeding month. No aggregate net loss for a month shall be carried forward more than 2 months.

(xi) The taxable profit for the month is the aggregate net profit minus any aggregate net loss carried forward from either or both of the 2 preceding months in accordance with subdivision (x) of this subparagraph; or the profit for the month on transactions in interests in silver bullion, whichever is less.

§ 45.4894–3 Procedure; abatement of tax paid by stamps on memorandum.

(a) Preparation of Form 843 (Silver). When the tax on any transfer paid by stamps affixed to the memorandum required by § 45.4895–5 is subject to abatement or refund under section 4894 and this subpart, a claim for abatement on Form 843 (Silver) may be prepared in duplicate, in accordance with § 45.4894–7. The original of the claim (Form 843 (Silver)) shall be attached to the duplicate of the memorandum and filed with the district director, in accordance with the provisions of § 45.6091–2. The duplicate shall be attached to the stamped memorandum and the procedure outlined in §§ 45.4895 and 45.4896 shall be observed.

(b) Marking and stamping memorandum in case of claim. The memorandum shall be marked "claim in abatement filed herewith" and shall show the amount of tax abatement of which is claimed. Stamps need be affixed only for the balance of the tax, but if the district director has any reason to doubt the correctness of the claim for abatement, he may refuse to cancel the stamps until he is satisfied of the correctness of the claim or until the necessary additional stamps are affixed. The burden of proof is upon the person making the claim to establish definitely every fact upon which it depends.

§ 45.4894–4 Procedure; abatement of tax shown on return.

When all or any part of the tax shown on any return required by the provisions of § 45.4895–7 is subject to abatement or refund under section 4894 and this subpart, there may be filed with the return a claim for abatement on Form 843 (Silver) for each such transfer. Such form shall be filed in duplicate and the form of the procedure set forth in § 45.4894–3 shall be observed. The amount of the tax abatement of which is claimed shall be deducted from the total tax shown on the return, and payment of the balance, if any, shall be made in accordance with § 45.4895–7.

§ 45.4894–5 Disallowance of claim.

If any claim for abatement is disallowed, in whole or in part, the additional tax found due must be paid. The transferee is not liable for additional tax on transfers with respect to which stamps have been canceled.

§ 45.4894–6 Claim for refund.

When tax which has been paid on any transfer is subject to refund under section 4894 and this subpart, a claim for refund in duplicate, on Form 843, may be filed by the person who paid the tax. The claim shall be filed with the district director who canceled the stamps, or to whom the tax was paid. The claim must be filed within 3 years from the date of payment of the tax.

§ 45.4894–7 Form of claim.

Each claim must be made on the prescribed form and must state in detail all the facts necessary to establish its correctness. Each claim must contain a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of perjury. (See §§ 45.6065 and 45.6065–1.)

§ 45.4895 Statutory provisions; stamps, memorandum, etc.

SEC. 4895. Stamps—(a) Affixing of stamps. On every transfer subject to the tax imposed by section 4891, there shall be made and delivered by the transferor to the transferee a memorandum to which there shall be affixed lawful stamps in value equal to the tax thereon.

(b) Memorandum. Every such memorandum shall show the date thereof, the names and addresses of the transferor and transferee, the interest in silver bullion to which it refers, the price for which such interest is or is to be transferred, and the cost, thereof and the allowed expenses.

(c) Cancellation of stamps. Stamps affixed under this section shall be canceled (in lieu of the manner provided in subtitle F) by such officers and in such manner as regulations under this subchapter shall prescribe. Such officers shall cancel such stamps only if it appears that the proper tax is being paid, and, when stamps with respect to any transfer are so canceled, the transferor and not the transferee shall be liable for any additional tax found due or penalty with respect to such transfer.

[Sec. 4895 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4895–1 Affixing of stamps.

If a transfer, described in paragraph (a) of § 45.4891–1, evidenced by a memorandum as described in § 45.4895–5 or shown on a return as provided by § 45.4895–7, is taxable, stamps in value equal to the amount of the tax shall be affixed to the original of the memorandum or return before delivery to the transferee, except as provided in § 45.4895–6. If no tax is due, a one-cent stamp may be affixed for the purpose of obtaining a cancellation for the protection of the transferee. The person affixing the stamps shall immediately write or stamp in ink on the stamps, or perforate them, to show his initials and the day, month, and year on which affixed.

§ 45.4895–2 Silver tax stamps issued.

Under authority conferred upon the Secretary or his delegate in section 6801 the following adhesive stamps have been prepared:

Documentary stamps, overprinted by the Government with the words "Silver tax": 1 cent, 2 cents, 3 cents, 4 cents, 5 cents, 8 cents, 10 cents, 20 cents, 25 cents, 40 cents, 50 cents, 80 cents, $1, $2, $3, $4, $5, $10, $20, $30, $50, $60, $100, $500, $1,000.

§ 45.4895–3 Where stamps may be purchased and where requisition forms for the purchase of stamps may be obtained.

(a) Where stamps may be purchased. Silver tax stamps for use in payment of the tax imposed by section 4891 may be purchased from district directors of internal revenue.

(b) Requisitions. Requisitions for the purchase of such stamps shall be made on Form 9 (Silver). Copies of the form may be obtained from any district director.

§ 45.4895–4 Use of stamps.

Whenever feasible the tax imposed by section 4891 shall be paid by the use of a single stamp. If a stamp of the proper denomination to pay the tax due on a transfer is not readily available, the smallest practical number of stamps shall be used. A stamp affixed to an instrument cannot lawfully be removed therefrom and affixed to another instrument requiring a stamp (see section 7208 (§ 45.7208), relating to penalties). Ordinary postage stamps will not be accepted for the payment of this or any internal revenue tax.

§ 45.4895–5 Memorandum of transfer.

(a) Data to be supplied in memorandum. On every transfer of an interest in silver bullion, whether or not subject to tax, the transferor shall, except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section and § 45.4895–7, deliver to the transferee a memorandum on Form 2 (Silver), in duplicate, showing:

(1) The date of the memorandum, and the date of the transfer covered thereby.

(2) The name and address of the transferor.

(3) The name and address of the transferee.

(4) The interest in silver bullion which is or is to be transferred.

(5) The date and manner of acquisition (or production when that is the basic date).

(6) The price for which such interest is or is to be transferred.

(7) The cost of such interest. The facts upon which the cost is based shall be stated in detail.

(8) The allowed expenses, if any, itemized.

(b) Verification. For rules relating to verification of documents generally, see §§ 45.6065 and 45.6065–1.

(c) Exceptions. (1) No memorandum of transfer is required when scrap silver is transferred, in lots not exceeding in the aggregate 300 fine troy ounces within any 10-day period, to any registered jeweler, silversmith, refiner, or other person regularly engaged in the business of furnishing silver for industrial, professional or artistic use.

(2) No memorandum of transfer is required from a transfer of material which was not considered to be silver bullion by reason of its processed form and/or silver content when originally purchased by such transferor for use, when and if he returns such material in whole or in part to any registered dealer or refiner regularly engaged in the business of furnishing silver for industrial, professional, or artistic use, for credit or for the purpose of refining or reprocessing, provided the refining or reprocessing charge is equal to or in excess of the rise, if any, in the market price of silver bullion during the time the material was held, and further provided, the material returned in accordance with the provisions of this subparagraph is identified as the same material in whole or in part as the material originally purchased.

(d) Delivery of memorandum to the district director. (1) Except as provided in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, the memorandum, in duplicate, shall be delivered to the district director within 30 days from the date of the transfer. The 30-day period runs from the date on which the agreement to sell is made. In the case of a forward sale the memorandum shall be delivered to the district director within 30 days from the date of delivery of the interest in fulfillment thereof. If a forward contract is settled without delivery of the interest, the memorandum shall be delivered within 30 days from such settlement.

(2) In the case of transfers outside of the United States, the memorandum, in duplicate, together with the amount of the tax, shall be mailed within the applicable 30-day period to the district director, for the affixing and cancellation of stamps.

(3) For regulations relating to the place for filing the memorandum, see § 45.6091–2.

§ 45.4895–6 Action of district director; cancellation of stamps.

(a) Method of cancellation. Upon receipt of the memorandum in duplicate, if no stamps are affixed, the district director shall, if satisfied that no tax is due, write or stamp on the original, or perforate it, to show his name and the date, and return the original to the person from whom received. If stamps are affixed, he shall, if satisfied that the stamps represent the proper amount of tax (or that no tax is due, in case the stamp is of the value of 1 cent), cancel the stamps by writing or stamping on the stamps in ink, or perforating them, to show his name and the date, and return the stamped memorandum to the person from whom received. In every case the district director shall retain the duplicate, noting thereon the date of receipt by him and the amount of stamps, if any, affixed to the original.

(b) Investigation prior to cancellation. The district director may, before canceling the stamps or returning an unstamped original, in addition to the examination of the memorandum, make such investigation and require such information as he deems necessary to satisfy him that the memorandum is true and complete in every respect and that no additional tax is due.

§ 45.4895–7 Payment by producers and registered dealers.

In the case of any transfer (a) by a producer of an interest in silver bullion produced by him from materials containing silver which has not previously entered into industrial, commercial, or monetary use, or (b) by a person registered in accordance with paragraph (a) (2) of § 45.4894–1, of an interest in silver bullion transferred to him in the regular course of his business of furnishing silver for industrial, professional, or artistic use, the tax, if any, may, at the option of the parties to the transfer, be paid by the affixing of stamps to a return to be filed with the district director on or before the last day of the month following the month in which the transfer is completed. The return shall be made in duplicate, on Form 3 (Silver), and shall set forth all the facts enumerated in paragraph (a) of § 45.4895–5, with respect to each such transfer for which no memorandum in accordance with § 45.4895–5 is delivered to the transferee, except that upon application and proper showing to the district director he may generally, or in individual cases, as he deems appropriate, waive such of the information as he determines to be unnecessary. If abatement is claimed of all or any part of the tax on any transfer, the amount so claimed shall be specified, and a claim for abatement, prepared in accordance with paragraph (i) of § 45.4894–1, shall be attached to the return. The taxpayer shall affix to the return, in the manner specified in §§ 45.4895–1 and 45.4895–4, stamps in value equal to the total amount of tax shown on the return less the total amount of the claims for abatement. If the district director is satisfied that the stamps affixed to the return represent the proper amount of tax, he shall cancel the stamps as provided in § 45.4895–6, return the original and one copy of each claim for abatement to the taxpayer, and retain the duplicate and one copy of each claim. No memorandum in accordance with § 45.4895–5 is required for any transfer included in a return under this section, but the transferee remains liable for any tax or additional tax found due, until the stamps on the return are canceled. For regulations relating to the place for filing the return, see § 45.6091–2.

§ 45.4895–8 Records.

Each party to every transfer of an interest in silver bullion within the scope of section 4891 shall keep an accurate and complete record of every such transfer whether taxable or not. The record of a transferee shall be so kept that on a subsequent transfer the actual cost to him of the particular interest transferred can be determined. Such records, and the memorandum delivered to the transferee, shall be retained for a period of at least 3 years from the date the tax became due, and must be available for inspection at all times by internal revenue officers. The books of every person liable to the tax shall be open for inspection by Government officers at all times.

§ 45.4896 Statutory provisions; applicability of tax.

SEC. 4896. Applicability—(a) Territorial extent. The provisions of this subchapter shall extend to all transfers in the United States of any interest in silver bullion, and to all such transfers outside the United States if either party thereto is a resident of the United States or is a citizen of the United States who has been a resident thereof within 3 months before the date of the transfer or if such silver bullion or interest therein is situated in the United States.

(b) Transfers to the United States Government. The provisions of this subchapter shall extend to transfers to the United States Government (the tax in such cases to be payable by the transferor), but shall not extend to transfers of silver bullion by deposit or delivery at a United States mint under proclamation by the President or in compliance with any Executive order issued pursuant to section 7 of the Silver Purchase Act of 1934 (48 Stat. 1179; 31 U.S.C. 316a).

[Sec. 4896 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4896–1 Applicability of tax.

(a) Territorial extent. The tax imposed by section 4891 applies (1) to every transfer in the United States of any interest in silver bullion, and (2) to every transfer outside the United States of any such interest (i) if either party thereto is a resident of the United States, or (ii) if either party to the transfer is a citizen of the United States who has been a resident of the United States at any time during the 3 months immediately preceding the date of the transfer, or (iii) if the silver bullion or interest therein which is transferred is situated in the United States at the time the transfer is made or agreed to be made.

(b) Transfers to the United States Government. Transfers of silver bullion or any interest therein to the United States Government are taxable except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section. In case of transfers to the United States Government the tax is payable by the transferor.

(c) Exempt transfers. The tax does not apply to transfers of silver bullion by deposit or delivery at a United States mint (1) in compliance with any Executive order issued pursuant to section 7 of the Silver Purchase Act of 1934 (48 Stat. 1179; 31 U.S.C. 316(a)), or (2) to transfers by the United States Government.

§ 45.4897 Statutory provisions; cross references.

SEC. 4897. Cross references. For penalties and other general and administrative provisions applicable to this subchapter, see subtitle F.

(a) For penalties for offenses relating to stamps, see § 45.7208.

(b) For penalty for unauthorized use or sale of stamps, see § 45.7209.

(c) For penalties for other offenses relating to stamps, see § 45.7271.

(d) For penalty for failure to register as required by paragraph (a) (2) of § 45.4894–1, see § 45.7272.

(e) For other administrative provisions relating to the tax imposed by section 4891, see Subpart L of this part.

Subpart K—General Provisions Relating to Occupational Taxes

§ 45.4901 Statutory provisions; payment of tax.

SEC. 4901. Payment of tax—(a) Condition precedent to carrying on certain business. No person shall carry on any trade or business subject to the tax imposed by section • • • 4461(3) [4461(a)(2)] (coin-operated gaming devices), • • • until he has paid the special tax therefor.

(b) Computation. All special taxes shall be imposed as of on the first day of July in each year, or on commencing any trade or business on which such tax is imposed. In the former case the tax shall be reckoned for 1 year, and in the latter case it shall be reckoned proportionately, from the first day of the month in which the liability to a special tax commenced, to and including the 30th day of June following.

(c) How paid—(1) Stamp. All special taxes imposed by law shall be paid by stamps denoting the tax.

(2) Assessment. For authority of the Secretary or his delegate to make assessments where the special taxes have not been duly paid by stamp at the time and in the manner provided by law, see subtitle F.

[Sec. 4901 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4901–1 Payment of special tax.

(a) Condition precedent to carrying on certain business. No person shall maintain for use or permit the use of, on any place or premises occupied by him, a coin-operated amusement or gaming device defined in section 4462(a)(2) (see paragraphs (b) and (c) of § 45.4462–1) until he has filed a return on Form 11–B and paid the special tax imposed by section 4461(a)(2). For other requirements relating to special taxes imposed by sections 4461, 4471, 4821, and 4841, see §§ 45.7011 and 45.7011–1.

(b) Computation of special tax. The tax year begins July 1, and ends June 30 of the following calendar year. Persons commencing business between August 1 and June 30 (both dates inclusive) shall pay a proportionate part of the annual tax. The term "commencing business" in the case of a coin-operated amusement and gaming device means the initial maintenance for use on the taxpayer's premises of such a device. Persons in business for only a portion of a month are liable for tax for the full month, i.e., a person first becoming subject to a special tax on, for example, the 25th day of a month, is liable for tax for the entire month. If the business is discontinued prior to the end of the taxable year, the liability is not thereby reduced.

(c) Tax payment evidenced by a special tax stamp. (1) Upon receipt of a return on Form 11 or Form 11–B, together with remittance of the full amount of tax due, the district director will issue a special tax stamp, or stamps, as evidence of payment of the special tax.

(2) District directors will distinctly write or print on the stamp before it is delivered or mailed to the taxpayer the following information: (i) the taxpayer's registered name, (ii) the business address of the taxpayer, and (iii) such other information as is called for by the form. Special tax stamps will be transmitted by ordinary mail, unless it is requested that they be transmitted by registered or certified mail in which case the additional cost to cover fees shall be remitted with the return.

(3) District directors and their collection officers are forbidden to issue recepts in lieu of stamps representing the payment of special taxes.

(d) Cross references. For provisions relating to Form 11 or Form 11–B, see § 45.6011(a)–6 (relating to returns), § 45.6071–2 (relating to time for filing returns), § 45.6091–1 (relating to place for filing returns), and paragraph (g) of § 45.6151–1 (relating to time and place for paying tax shown on returns).

§ 45.4902 Statutory provisions; liability of partners.

SEC. 4902. Liability of partners. Any number of persons doing business in copartnership at any one place shall be required to pay but one special tax.

[Sec. 4902 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4902–1 Partnership liability.

Any number of persons doing business in copartnership shall be required to pay but one special tax. The district director may issue a special tax stamp to a copartnership in a firm or trade name, provided the names and addresses of all members of the partnership are disclosed on Form 11 or Form 11–B.

§ 45.4903 Statutory provisions; liability in case of business in more than one location.

SEC. 4903. Liability in case of business in more than one location. The payment of the special tax imposed * * * shall not exempt from an additional special tax the person carrying on a trade or business in any other place than that stated in the register kept in the office of the official in charge of the internal revenue district; but nothing herein contained shall require a special tax for the storage of goods, wares, or merchandise in other places than the place of business, nor, except as provided in this subtitle, for the sale by manufacturers or producers of their own goods, wares, and merchandise, at the place of production or manufacture, and at their principal office or place of business, provided no goods, wares, or merchandise shall be kept except as samples at said office or place of business.

[Sec. 4903 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4903–1 Each place taxable.

Special tax shall be paid for each place of business, except that a manufacturer who pays special tax for the place of production may, without incurring additional liability, sell products of his own manufacture at his principal office or place of business, provided no products other than samples are kept there.

§ 45.4904 Statutory provisions; liability in case of different businesses of same ownership and location.

SEC. 4904. Liability in case of different businesses of same ownership and location. Whenever more than one of the pursuits or occupations described in this subtitle are carried on in the same place by the same person at the same time, except as otherwise provided in this subtitle, the tax shall be paid for each according to the rates severally prescribed.

[Sec. 4904 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4904–1 Each business taxable.

Where more than one taxable business is conducted by the same person at the same address, special tax for each business must be paid. But as to manufacturers see section 4903 and the regulations thereunder. (See also §§ 45.4821–2 and 45.4841–2.)

§ 45.4905 Statutory provisions; liability in case of death or change of location.

SEC. 4905. Liability in case of death or change of location. — (a) Requirements. When any person who has paid the special tax for any trade or business dies, his wife or child, or executors or administrators or other legal representatives, may occupy the house or premises, and in like manner carry on, for the residue of the term for which the tax is paid, the same trade or business as the deceased before carried on, in the same house and upon the same premises, without the payment of any additional tax. When any person removes from the house or premises for which any trade or business was taxed to any other place, he may carry on the trade or business specified in the register kept in the office of the official in charge of the internal revenue district at the place to which he removes, without the payment of any additional tax: Provided, That all cases of death, change, or removal, as aforesaid, with the name of the successor to any person deceased, or of the person making such change or removal, shall be registered with the Secretary or his delegate, under regulations to be prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate.

(b) Registration. (1) For registration in case of * * *, playing cards, * * *, and white phosphorus matches, see sections * * * 4455 * * *, and 4804(d), respectively.

(2) For other provisions relating to registration, see subtitle F.

[Sec. 4905 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4905–1 Change of ownership.

(a) Changes through death. Whenever any person who has paid the special tax imposed by section 4461, 4471, 4821 or 4841 dies, the surviving spouse or child, or executor or administrator, or other legal representative, may carry on such business for the remainder of the term for which such special tax has been paid without any additional payment, subject to the conditions hereinafter set forth. If the surviving spouse or child, or executor or administrator, or other legal representative of the deceased taxpayer continues the business, such person shall within 30 days after the date of the death of the taxpayer execute a return on Form 11 or Form 11–B, whichever is applicable. Such return shall show the name of the deceased taxpayer, together with all other information required to be reported thereon, and the stamp issued to such taxpayer shall be submitted with the return for proper notation by the district director.

(b) Changes from other causes. A receiver or trustee in bankruptcy may continue the business under the stamp issued to the taxpayer at the place and for the period for which the special tax was paid. An assignee for the benefit of creditors may continue business under his assignor's special tax stamp without incurring additional special tax liability. In cases such as set forth in this paragraph the change shall be registered with the district director in a manner similar to that required by paragraph (a) of this section.

(c) Changes in firm. When one or more members of a firm or partnership withdraw, the business may be continued by the remaining partner or partners under the same special tax stamp for the remainder of the period for which the stamp was issued to the firm or partnership. The change, however, shall be registered in the same manner as required in paragraph (a) of this section. If new partners are taken into a firm, the new firm so constituted may not carry on business under the special tax stamp of the old firm. The new firm shall make a return on Form 11 or Form 11–B, whichever is applicable, and pay the special tax imposed by the applicable section (sections 4461, 4471, 4821 or 4841, as the case may be) reckoned from the first day of the month in which it began business, even though the name of such firm be the same as that of the old. If the members of a partnership, which has paid the special tax, form a corporation to continue the business, a new special tax stamp must be obtained in the name of the corporation.

(d) Change in corporation. If a corporation changes its name, no additional tax is due, provided the change in name is registered with the district director in the manner required by paragraph (a) of this section. An increase in the capital stock of a corporation does not create a new special tax liability if the laws of the State under which it is incorporated permit such increase without the formation of a new corporation. A stockholder in a corporation, who after its dissolution continues the business, incurs liability for the special tax unless he already has a special tax stamp obtained in respect of activities conducted as a sole proprietor.

§ 45.4905–2 Change of address.

(a) Procedure by taxpayer. Whenever a taxpayer changes his business address to a location other than that specified in his last return on Form 11 or Form 11–B, he shall, within 30 days after the date of such change, register the change with the district director from whom the special tax stamp was purchased by filing a new return, Form 11 or Form 11–B, designated "Supplemental Return", and setting forth the new address and the date of change. The taxpayer's special tax stamp shall accompany the supplemental return for proper notation by the district director. As to liability in case of failure to register a change of address within 30 days, see § 45.4905–3.

(b) Procedure by district director. — (1) Removal within district. When registration of a change of address within the same district is made by a taxpayer in the manner specified in paragraph (a) of this section, the district director, if necessary, will enter on his records the new address and the date of change. If the information disclosed on the supplemental return is such as to require a change on the face of the special tax stamp, the district director will make the necessary change and return the stamp to the taxpayer for posting as provided in § 45.6806.

(2) Removal to another district. In case of removal of the taxpayer's place of business to another district, the district director after noting the transfer on his records, shall transmit the special tax stamp to the district director for the district to which such business was removed. The latter will make proper entry on his records, as in the case of an original registration in his district, correct the address on the stamp, if necessary, and also note thereon his name, title, date, and district, and then forward the stamp to the taxpayer for posting as provided in § 45.6806.

§ 45.4905–3 Liability for failure to register change.

A person succeeding to and carrying on a business for which the special tax has been paid, or a taxpayer who relocates his business, without registering the change as provided in §§ 45.4905–1 and 45.4905–2 will be liable to an additional tax and to the interest and additions to the tax prescribed in §§ 301.6601, 301.6601–1, 301.6651, and 301.6651–1 of this chapter (Regulations on Procedure and Administration).

§ 45.4906 Statutory provisions; application of State laws.

SEC. 4906. Application of State laws. The payment of any special tax imposed by this subtitle for carrying on any trade or business shall not be held to exempt any person from any penalty or punishment provided by the laws of any State for carrying on the same within such State, or in any manner to authorize the commencement or continuance of such trade or business contrary to the laws of such State or in places prohibited by municipal law; nor shall the payment of any such tax be held to prohibit any State from placing a duty or tax on the same trade or business, for State or other purposes.

[Sec. 4906 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4906–1 State laws applicable.

Payment of special tax under Federal law confers no right or privilege to conduct business contrary to State law. The holder of a special-tax stamp issued by the Federal Government may still be punishable under a State law prohibiting or regulating the manufacture or sale of adulterated or process or renovated butter. On the other hand, compliance with State law affords no immunity under Federal law. Persons who engage in business in violation of the law of a State are, nevertheless, required to pay special tax as imposed under the internal revenue laws of the United States.

§ 45.4907 Statutory provisions; Federal agencies or instrumentalities.

SEC. 4907. Federal agencies or instrumentalities. Any special tax imposed by this subtitle * * * shall apply to any agency or instrumentality of the United States unless such agency or instrumentality is granted by statute a specific exemption from such tax.

[Sec. 4907 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.4907–1 Federal agencies or instrumentalities.

Any agency or instrumentality of the United States, such as an Army exchange, Navy exchange, etc., is liable to a special tax unless granted by statute a specific exemption therefrom.

Subpart L—Administrative Provisions

§ 45.6001 Statutory provisions; notice or regulations requiring records, statements, and special returns.

SEC. 6001. Notice or regulations requiring records, statements, and special returns. Every person liable for any tax imposed by this title, or for the collection thereof, shall keep such records, render such statements, make such returns, and comply with such rules and regulations as the Secretary or his delegate may from time to time prescribe. Whenever in the judgment of the Secretary or his delegate it is necessary, he may require any person, by notice served upon such person or by regulations, to make such returns, render such statements, or keep such records, as the Secretary or his delegate deems sufficient to show whether or not such person is liable for tax under this title.

[Sec. 6001 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.6001–1 Records in general.

(a) Form of records. The records required by the regulations in this part shall be kept accurately, but no particular form is required for keeping such records. See, however, the requirements in § 45.4804–10 (relating to form for daily record in the case of manufacturers of white phosphorus matches) and §§ 45.4872–1 to 45.4872–4, inclusive (relating to records regarding sales of cotton for future delivery). Such forms and systems of accounting shall be used as will enable the district director to ascertain whether liability for tax is incurred and, if so, the amount thereof.

(b) Copies of returns, schedules, and statements. Every person who is required, by the regulations in this part or by instructions applicable to any form prescribed thereunder, to keep any copy of any return, schedule, statement, or other document, shall keep such copy as a part of his records.

(c) Records of claimants. Any person who, pursuant to the regulations in this part, claims a refund, credit, or abatement, shall keep a complete and detailed record with respect to the tax, interest, addition to the tax, additional amount, or assessable penalty to which the claim relates. Such record shall include any records required of the claimant by paragraph (b) of this section and by §§ 45.6001–2 to 45.6001–5, inclusive, which relate to the claim.

(d) Place and period for retention of records. (1) All records required by the regulations in this part shall be maintained, by the person required to keep them, at one or more convenient and safe locations accessible to internal revenue officers, and shall at all times be available for inspection by such officers.

(2) Except as otherwise provided in the following sentence, every person required by the regulations in this part to keep records in respect of a tax (whether or not such person incurs liability for such tax) shall retain such records for at least three years after the due date of such tax for the return period to which the records relate, or the date such tax is paid, whichever is the later. The records of claimants required by paragraph (c) of this section shall be retained for a period of at least three years after the date the claim is filed.

(e) Microfilm reproductions. General books of account, such as cash books, journals, voucher registers, ledgers, etc., shall be maintained and preserved in their original form. However, microfilm reproductions of supporting records of details, such as invoices, vouchers, production reports, sales records, certificates, proofs of exportation, etc., may be kept in lieu of the original records provided the person required to keep such records (1) retains such microfilmed copies for the period specified in paragraph (d) of this section, (2) provides adequate facilities for the preservation of such films and for the ready inspection and location thereof, including a projector for viewing such records in the event inspection is necessary for tax purposes, and (3) makes any transcription which may be required of the information contained on the microfilm.

§ 45.6001–2 Records required to be kept by manufacturers of adulterated butter, process or renovated butter, or filled cheese.

(a) Manner of keeping. (1) A manufacturer shall keep at his place of business separate records of adulterated butter, of process or renovated butter, and of filled cheese. If the record is kept as hereinafter prescribed in the manufacturer's own books or in other convenient form no other record will be necessary. Care should be taken to exclude from the record any product other than (i) adulterated butter, (ii) process or renovated butter, (iii) filled cheese, and (iv) the materials or ingredients used in the manufacture of each product.

(2) Entry shall be made not later than the day following that on which each transaction occurred. Quantities reported shall be as indicated by the tax-paid stamps affixed to the packages, except that where the product is withdrawn free of tax for export, or where the product is returned to the factory, the actual quantity will be recorded. A fraction of a pound shall be accounted as a pound.

(b) Items. The record must show:

(1) The number of pounds of each material or ingredient used in the production of adulterated butter, process or renovated butter, or filled cheese, and the number of pounds of such materials used for other purposes.

(2) The number of pounds of each product produced.

(3) The number of pounds in each lot disposed of, the name of the consignee, the address to which delivered, and the date of shipment.

(4) The number of pounds in each lot returned to the factory, the name of the person by whom returned, the address from which returned, and the date of receipt.

(5) The number of pounds reworked, disposed of as grease, dumped, or otherwise destroyed.

(6) The total value of tax stamps purchased and used.

(c) Transactions. The following rules will apply:

(1) Samples. Sample packages of tax-paid adulterated butter, process or renovated butter or filled cheese distributed gratuitously shall be recorded in the same manner as if the packages were sold.

(3) Transfers to self. Where adulterated butter, process or renovated butter, or filled cheese is transferred by a manufacturer to himself as a wholesale or retail dealer, the transaction shall be recorded in the same manner as a transfer to another person.

(3) Sales to chain stores. Where adulterated butter, process or renovated butter, or filled cheese is shipped to one person doing business at different places, as in the case of chain stores, the deliveries to each address shall be recorded separately.

(4) Drop shipments. Where a manufacturer receives an order from one person to ship adulterated butter, process or renovated butter, or filled cheese to another, the transaction shall be recorded in the name and address of the consignee, followed by "acc't of" and the name and address of the person for whose account the shipment was made. A manufacturer shall not record consignments on orders in the names of agents, solicitors, or other persons transmitting an order for another party. (See paragraph (c)(5) of § 45.4821–3 as to liability of agents or brokers soliciting orders for adulterated butter.)

§ 45.6001–3 Records required to be kept by wholesale dealers in adulterated butter.

(a) Manner of keeping. (1) A wholesale dealer shall keep at his place of business records of transactions in adulterated butter. If the record is kept as hereinafter prescribed in the dealer's own books or in other convenient form no other record will be necessary. Care should be taken to exclude from the record any product other than taxpaid and branded adulterated butter.

(2) Entry shall be made not later than the day following that on which the transaction occurred. Quantities reported shall be as indicated by the taxpaid stamps affixed to the packages, except that where goods are returned to or by the wholesaler the actual quantity shall be recorded. A fraction of a pound shall be accounted as a pound.

(b) Items. The record must show: (1) The number of pounds in each consignment of adulterated butter received, the name and address of the consignor, and the date of receipt.

(2) The number of pounds in each lot disposed of, the name of the consignee, the address to which delivered, and the date of shipment.

(c) Transactions. The following rules will apply:

(1) Samples. Sample packages of tax-paid adulterated butter received and disposed of gratuitously shall be recorded in the same manner as adulterated butter which is purchased and sold.

(2) Transfers to self. Where adulterated butter is transferred by a wholesale dealer to himself as a retail dealer, the transaction shall be recorded in the same manner as a sale to another person.

(3) Sales to chain stores. Where adulterated butter is shipped to one person doing business at different places, as in the case of chain stores, the deliveries to each address shall be recorded separately.

(4) Drop shipments. A wholesale dealer shall not record the receipt of adulterated butter which he orders delivered direct to a third party. The dealer's connection with the transaction shall be shown by the manufacturer as provided in paragraph (c) of § 45.6001–2. Where a wholesale dealer receives an order from one person to ship adulterated butter to another, the transaction shall be recorded in the name and address of the consignee followed by "acc't of" and the name and address of the person giving the order. A wholesale dealer shall not record consignments in the names of agents, solicitors, or other persons transmitting orders for other parties. (See paragraph (c)(5) of § 45.4821–3 as to liability of agents.)

(5) Returned goods. Where adulterated butter is returned by a customer to a wholesale dealer the transaction shall be recorded separately from other receipts. The sale of repossessed goods shall be recorded with other disposals. Adulterated butter returned by a wholesale dealer to the manufacturer or other wholesale dealer from whom received shall be recorded separately from other disposals. (See paragraph (c)(6) of § 45.4821–3 as to resales.)

§ 45.6001–4 Records required to be kept by wholesale dealers in filled cheese.

Every wholesale dealer in filled cheese shall keep at his place of business a daily record of (a) the number of pounds in each consignment of filled cheese received by him, giving the name and address of the consignor and date of receipt, and (b) the number of pounds of filled cheese disposed of in each instance, name of person to whom shipped or delivered, date of shipment or delivery, and address to which sent.

§ 45.6001–5 Cross references.

(a) Manufacturers of white phosphorus matches. For record requirements, see § 45.4804–10.

(b) Cotton futures. For record requirements relating to persons making, clearing, settling or adjusting transactions in contracts of sale of cotton for future delivery, including cotton clearing associations, see §§ 45.4872–1 to 45.4872–4, inclusive.

(c) Silver bullion. For record requirements relating to transfers of interests in silver bullion, see § 45.4895–8.

§ 45.6011(a) Statutory provisions; general requirement of return, statement, or list; general rule.

SEC. 6011. General requirement of return, statement or list—(a) General rule. When required by regulations prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate any person made liable for any tax imposed by this title, or for the collection thereof, shall make a return or statement according to the forms and regulations prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate. Every person required to make a return or statement shall include therein the information required by such forms or regulations.

[Sec. 6011(a) as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.6011(a)–1 Returns in general.

(a) General rule. Every person subject to any tax imposed by sections 4451, 4461, 4471, 4591, 4801, 4811, 4821, 4831, 4841, 4851, or 4891 shall make such returns, statements, or memorandums as are required by the regulations in this part. The return, statement, or memorandum shall include therein the information required by the applicable regulations or forms.

(b) Use of prescribed forms. Except as otherwise provided by the regulations in this part, copies of the prescribed forms will so far as possible be furnished taxpayers by district directors. A taxpayer will not be excused from making a return, however, by the fact that no return form has been furnished to him. Taxpayers not supplied with the proper forms should make application therefor to the district director in ample time to have their returns prepared, verified, and filed on or before the due date with the district director with whom such returns are required to be filed.

(c) Execution of returns. Each return required by the regulations in this part, together with any prescribed copies or supporting data, shall be filled in and disposed of in accordance with the forms, instructions, and regulations applicable thereto. The return shall be carefully prepared so as fully and accurately to set forth the data required to be furnished therein. Returns which have not been so prepared will not be accepted as meeting the requirements of the regulations in this part.

§ 45.6011(a)–2 Inventories required of manufacturers.

(a) Adulterated butter, process or renovated butter, and filled cheese. Every manufacturer of adulterated butter, process or renovated butter, or filled cheese must file with the district director of internal revenue of the district in which the factory is located a complete and correct inventory, in letter form, stating the quantity of each of the different kinds of materials used in the manufacture of adulterated butter, process or renovated butter, or filled cheese, including all materials or products in process of manufacture or partially manufactured and the quantity of the finished product, stamped and unstamped, and the value of attached and unattached stamps held and owned by him in said factory on the first day of July of each year. An inventory as aforesaid must also be made and filed with the district director at the time of beginning business as a manufacturer, and at the time of discontinuing such business. Letters setting forth the inventories as herein required must contain a written declaration that the statements made therein are made under the penalties of perjury.

(b) White phosphorus matches. For inventory requirements relating to white phosphorus matches, see § 45.4804–9.

§ 45.6011(a)–3 Quarterly return by manufacturer or importer of playing cards.

(a) Form 749. Every manufacturer or importer of playing cards must furnish to the district director for each calendar quarter an accurate return on Form 749 of the following transactions in packs of playing cards: The number on hand at the beginning of the quarter; the number manufactured during the quarter; the number removed tax-paid and for export during the quarter; the number on hand at the end of the quarter; and the values of all stamps purchased and used during the quarter.

(b) Return period. A return on Form 749 must be submitted for each calendar quarter including the calendar quarter in which the manufacturer or importer ceases operations in respect of playing cards. Any stock of playing cards on hand when the business is discontinued must be accounted for on quarterly returns. The return for the last quarter must be marked "Final return."

§ 45.6011(a)–4 Quarterly return by manufacturer of adulterated butter, process or renovated butter, or filled cheese.

(a) Quarterly return, Form 216. Each manufacturer of adulterated butter, process or renovated butter, or filled cheese shall furnish to the district director, as indicated in § 45.6091–1 and at the time provided by § 45.6071–1, for each calendar quarter of the period of special-tax liability, an accurate return, under the penalties of perjury, on Forms 216 and 216a.

(b) Preparation and distribution of copies. Quarterly returns should be prepared from the manufacturer's records and typewritten on Form 216, in duplicate. The first page of the return should be filled out as indicated on the form. The original shall be forwarded to the district director and the duplicate shall be retained by the manufacturer at his factory as a record and shall be available for examination at any time by internal revenue officers. In the execution of the return, conformity with the special-tax return and the special-tax stamp shall be observed. If the special-tax return and stamp show a trade name as well as the real name of the proprietor, both names shall also appear on the quarterly returns, together with the identical address of the premises as given on such special-tax return and stamp.

(c) Separate returns. Returns required by this section shall be made separately for each product.

(d) Supplemental sheets. Form 216a is a supplemental sheet and shall be used for reporting in detail disposals of new stock and receipt and resale of stock returned by customers. The entries should be double spaced, as indicated by the dotted lines on the sheet. Appropriate headings should be set up in capital letters in the center of the page. Each page should be completely used before beginning another page. The order indicated in paragraphs (e) to (n), inclusive, of this section should be observed.

(e) Disposals during first quarter of fiscal year or first quarter of commencing business. Disposals to wholesalers, retailers, and consumers made in the first quarter of each fiscal year, or the quarter of commencing business, as the case may be, shall be reported on supplemental sheets, Form 216a, as follows:

(1) To wholesalers. Disposals to wholesalers shall be listed under a heading, Withdrawn Tax-Paid, Wholesale Dealers, with the entries grouped in alphabetical order of (i) the names of States and (ii) the names of consignees in each State group. State names should be in capital letters centered on the page at the head of each group, and a line left above and below each State subheading. The State name should be omitted in entering the several individual addresses since it will appear at the head of the group. Where a wholesaler operates at more than one place of business (whether or not within the same State), a separate entry shall be made for each place of business of such wholesaler to which consignments are made during the quarter. The aggregate quantity of adulterated butter, process or renovated butter or filled cheese consigned during the quarter to each wholesaler at each place of business shall be reported as provided for by the form.

(2) To retailers and consumers. Following the listing of disposals to wholesale dealers the disposals to retailers and consumers shall be listed under a heading, Withdrawn Tax-Paid, Retailers and Consumers, in the same manner as specified in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph with respect to wholesalers.

(f) Disposals during other quarters. Disposals to wholesalers, retailers, and consumers in each quarter other than the first quarter of the fiscal year, or the quarter of commencing business, shall be reported on supplemental sheets, Form 216a, as follows:

(1) To consignees listed on prior returns of same fiscal year. The total quantity of adulterated butter, process or renovated butter, or filled cheese disposed of during the quarter to all persons, including wholesalers, retailers, and consumers, listed on returns for prior quarters of the same fiscal year, shall be reported as a single amount designated as "Disposed of to consignees listed on returns for previous quarters of the same fiscal year."

(2) To other consignees. Disposals to wholesalers, retailers, and consumers not listed on any return for a prior quarter of the same fiscal year shall be reported in detail in the manner prescribed in paragraph (e) of this section.

(g) Registered names and addresses required. Names and addresses shall be entered as they appear on customers' special-tax stamps. Where the shipping address differs from the registered address, the name of the shipping point, in parentheses, should be entered with the registered address. (See paragraph (f) of § 45.4815(a)–1.) Surnames should precede first names. County names should be included in the addresses of customers located in the States specified at the head of Form 216a. This subparagraph is not applicable in the case of manufacturers of process or renovated butter since the wholesalers and retailers thereof do not obtain special-tax stamps.

(h) Repeat shipments. Only the aggregate quantity disposed of to each person at one address during the quarter shall be reported. Example: If 20 sales of 10 pounds each were made, the name of the purchaser and the address to which delivered should be entered but once with the total of 200 pounds.

(i) Chain store entries. Subject to the provisions of paragraphs (e) and (f) of this section, disposals to chain stores shall be reported in alphabetical order of the names of (1) the cities or towns in which the stores are located and (2) the streets on which situated. Numerical order of street numbers should be observed where more than one store is located on the same street.

(j) Exportation. Under a heading, Withdrawn Free of Tax for Export, there shall be entered as to each foreign consignment (1) date of invoice, (2) name of consignee and place of consignment, and (3) quantity. The entries shall be in the order prescribed in paragraph (e) of this section for reporting disposals to wholesale dealers. This paragraph has no application in the case of process or renovated butter or filled cheese, since there is no provision for tax-free exportation thereof.

(k) Returned goods. Under a heading, Returned Goods, there shall be shown in alphabetical order (1) the name and address of each consignor, and (2) the total quantity received during the quarter from him. Only adulterated butter, process or renovated butter, or filled cheese of the manufacturer's own production may be entered under this heading. Such product received from other manufacturers for reworking shall be included in the total of returned goods reworked as prescribed in paragraph (m) of this section.

(l) Resales. Under the headings, "Resales to wholesale dealers" and "Resales to retailers and consumers", entries shall be made in the same manner as disposals of new stock to such customers as prescribed in paragraph (e) of this section. (See paragraph (c)(6) of § 45.4821–3 as to resale of returned goods.)

(m) Reworked or denatured. The total quantity of any adulterated butter, process or renovated butter, or filled cheese not removed from the factory but reworked or disposed of as grease shall be reported in the credit column of the summary of new stock. The total quantity of returned goods reworked or disposed of as grease shall be reported in the credit column of the summary. The combined totals of adulterated butter, process or renovated butter, or filled cheese reworked, as shown in the respective summaries, shall be reported under the heading, "Materials used during month", page 1, Form 216.

(n) Losses. Adulterated butter, process or renovated butter, or filled cheese accidentally destroyed, lost in transit, or unaccounted for shall be reported in the credit column of the proper summary and an appropriate explanation inserted.

(o) Summary. The quantities entered under the respective headings on Form 216a shall be totaled and the totals carried to the proper lines of the summaries, page 1, Form 216. The actual balances of new stock and returned goods on hand at the beginning and close of the quarter shall be entered in the proper summary, which should balance. The quantities reported on hand at the beginning of the quarter shall agree with the quantities reported on hand at the close of the preceding quarter.

(p) Correcting entries. If after rendering a return it is found that any receipts or disposals were omitted or erroneously reported, correcting entries shall be made on the return for the following quarter.

(q) Final return. If the business is discontinued, the return for the quarter in which business ceases should be marked "Final."

§ 45.6011(a)–5 Quarterly return by wholesale dealers in adulterated butter or filled cheese.

(a) Quarterly return, Form 2814. Each wholesale dealer in adulterated butter or filled cheese shall furnish to the district director, as indicated in § 45.6091–1 and at the time provided by § 45.6071–1, for each calendar quarter of the period of special-tax liability, an accurate return, under the penalties of perjury, on Forms 2814 and 2814a.

(b) Preparation and distribution of copies. Quarterly returns should be prepared from the wholesale dealer's records and typewritten on Form 2814, in duplicate. The first page of the return should be filled out as indicated on the form. The original shall be forwarded to the district director and the duplicate shall be retained by the wholesale dealer at his principal place of business as a record and shall be available for examination at any time by internal revenue officers. In the execution of the return, conformity with the special-tax return and the special-tax stamp shall be observed. If the special-tax return and stamp show a trade name as well as the real name of the proprietor, both names shall also appear on the quarterly returns, together with the identical address of the premises as given on such special-tax return and stamp.

(c) Separate returns. Returns required by this section shall be made separately for each product.

(d) Receipts—(1) During first quarter of fiscal year or quarter of commencing business. Under the heading, Adulterated Butter (or Filled Cheese) Received From Manufacturers and Wholesale Dealers, page 1, Form 2814, each entry shall show (i) the name and address of each consignor, and (ii) the total quantity received during the quarter from him. Regardless of the number of consignments received during the quarter from the same consignor, only a single entry showing the aggregate of all such consignments shall be made.

(2) During other quarters. Adulterated butter or filled cheese received from manufacturers and wholesale dealers in each quarter other than the first quarter of each fiscal year, or the quarter of commencing business, as the case may be, shall be reported on Form 2814 as follows:

(i) From consignors listed on returns for previous quarters of same fiscal year. The total quantity of adulterated butter or filled cheese received from all manufacturers and wholesale dealers listed on returns for prior quarters of the same fiscal year, shall be reported as a single amount designated as "Received from consignors listed on returns for previous quarters of the same fiscal year."

(ii) From other consignors. Adulterated butter or filled cheese received from manufacturers and wholesale dealers not listed on a return for a prior quarter of the same fiscal year shall be reported in detail in the manner prescribed in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(e) Returned goods. Adulterated butter or filled cheese returned by customers should not be entered in detail on returns. Only the total quantity so received during the quarter shall be reported. The amount should be entered in the debit column of the summary.

(f) Supplemental sheets. Form 2814a is a supplemental sheet and shall be used for reporting disposals in detail. The entries should be double-spaced as indicated by the dotted lines on the sheet. Appropriate headings should be set up in capital letters in the center of the page. Each page should be completely used before beginning another page. The order indicated in paragraphs (g) to (m) of this section should be observed.

(g) Disposals during first quarter of fiscal year or quarter of commencing business. Disposals to wholesalers and retailers and consumers in the first quarter of each fiscal year, or the quarter of commencing business, shall be reported in full detail on supplemental sheets, Form 2814a as follows:

(1) To wholesalers. Disposals to wholesalers shall be listed under a heading, Disposals to Wholesale Dealers, with the entries grouped in alphabetical order of (i) the names of States, and (ii) the names of consignees in each State group. State names should be in capital letters centered on the page at the head of each group, and a line left above and below each State subheading. The State name should be omitted in entering the several individual addresses since it will appear at the head of the group. Where a wholesaler operates at more than one place of business whether or not within the same State, a separate entry shall be made for each place of business of such wholesaler to which consignments are made during the quarter. The aggregate quantity of adulterated butter or filled cheese consigned during the quarter to each wholesaler at each place of business shall be reported as provided for by the form.

(2) To retailers and consumers. Following the listing of disposals to wholesale dealers the disposals to retailers and consumers shall be listed under a heading, Disposals to Retailers and Consumers, in the same manner as specified in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph with respect to wholesalers.

(h) Disposals during other quarters. Disposals to wholesalers, retailers, and consumers in each quarter other than the first quarter of the fiscal year, or the quarter of commencing business, shall be reported on supplemental sheets, Form 2814a, as follows:

(1) To consignees listed on prior returns of same fiscal year. The total quantity of adulterated butter or filled cheese disposed of during the quarter to all persons, including wholesalers, retailers, and consumers, listed on returns for prior quarters of the same fiscal year, shall be reported as a single amount designated as "Disposed of to consignees listed on returns for previous months of the same fiscal year."

(2) To other consignees. Disposals to wholesalers, retailers, and consumers not listed on any return for a prior quarter of the same fiscal year shall be reported in detail in the manner prescribed in paragraph (g) of this section.

(i) Registered names and addresses required. Names and addresses shall be entered as they appear on customers' special-tax stamps. Where the shipping address differs from the registered address, the name of the shipping point, in parentheses, should be entered with the registered address. (See paragraph (f) of § 45.4815(a)–1.) Surnames should precede first names. County names should be included in the addresses of customers located in the States specified at the head of Form 2814a.

(j) Repeal shipments. Only the aggregate quantity disposed of to each person at one address during the quarter shall be reported. Example: If 20 sales of 10 pounds each were made, the name of the purchaser and the address to which delivered should be entered but once with the total of 200 pounds.

(k) Chain store entries. Subject to the provisions of paragraphs (g) and (h) of this section, disposals to chain stores shall be reported in alphabetical order of the names of (1) the cities or towns in which the stores are located, and (2) the streets on which situated. Numerical order of street numbers should be observed where more than one store is located on the same street.

(l) Goods returned or otherwise disposed of. Under a heading, "Returned to Shipper," there shall be shown in alphabetical order (1) the name and address of each consignor and (2) the total quantity received during the month from him. Similar entries, under appropriate headings, shall be made for adulterated butter or filled cheese disposed of as grease, or for other inedible purposes, or destroyed.

(m) Losses. Adulterated butter or filled cheese accidentally destroyed, lost in transit, or unaccounted for shall be reported in the credit column of the summary and an appropriate explanation inserted.

(n) Summary. The quantities entered under the respective headings on Form 2814a shall be totaled and the totals carried to the proper lines of the summaries, page 1, Form 2814. The actual quantity on hand at the beginning and close of the quarter shall be entered in the summary, which should balance. The quantity reported on hand at the beginning of the quarter shall agree with the quantity reported on hand at the close of the preceding quarter.

(o) Correcting entries. If after rendering a return it is found that any receipts or disposals were omitted or erroneously reported, correcting entries shall be made on the return for the following quarter.

(p) Final return. If the business is discontinued, the return for the quarter in which business ceases should be marked "Final."

§ 45.6011(a)–6 Returns relating to special taxes.

(a) Return on Form 11. Every person required to pay a special tax imposed by section 4821 or section 4841 shall make a return on Form 11 in accordance with the instructions applicable thereto.

(b) Returns on Form 11–B. Every person required to pay a special tax imposed by section 4461 or 4771 shall make a return on Form 11–B in accordance with the instructions applicable thereto.

(c) Execution of returns, Form 11 and Form 11–B. In addition to the requirements for the execution of tax returns generally as set forth in paragraph (c) of § 45.6011(a)–1, it is required that where the business is operated in a trade name, both the real name of the proprietor and the trade name shall be used when executing Form 11 and Form 11–B.

§ 45.6011(a)–7 Cross references.

(a) Manufacturers of white phosphorus matches. For requirements for quarterly returns, see § 45.4804–11.

(b) Cotton futures. For requirements for quarterly returns by persons making, clearing, settling, or adjusting transactions in contracts of sale of cotton for future delivery, including cotton clearing associations, see §§ 45.4872–5 and 45.4872–6.

(c) Silver bullion. For requirements for memorandums and returns relating to transfers of interests in silver bullion, see §§ 45.4894–5 and 45.4895–7.

(d) Signing and verification. For provisions relating to the signing of returns, see §§ 45.6061 and 45.6061–1. For provisions relating to the verifying of returns, see §§ 45.6065 and 45.6065–1.

§ 45.6061 Statutory provisions; signing of returns and other documents.

SEC. 6061. Signing of returns and other documents. * * * any return, statement, or other document required to be made under any provision of the internal revenue laws or regulations shall be signed in accordance with forms or regulations prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate.

[Sec. 6061 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.6061–1 Signing of returns and other documents.

Each return or other document required under the regulations in this subpart shall be signed by (a) the individual, if the taxpayer is an individual; (b) the president, vice president or other principal officer, if the taxpayer is a corporation; (c) a responsible and duly authorized member or officer having knowledge of its affairs, if the taxpayer is a partnership or other unincorporated organization; or (d) the fiduciary, if the taxpayer is a trust or estate. The return may be executed by an agent in the name of the taxpayer if an acceptable power of attorney is filed with the district director and the return includes the total liability of the taxpayer for the period covered by the return.

§ 45.6065 Statutory provisions; verification of returns.

SEC. 6065. Verification of returns—(a) Penalties of perjury. Except as otherwise provided by the Secretary or his delegate, any return, declaration, statement, or other document required to be made under any provision of the internal revenue laws or regulations shall contain or be verified by a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of perjury.

(b) Oath. The Secretary or his delegate may by regulations require that any return, statement, or other document required to be made under any provision of the internal revenue laws or regulations shall be verified by an oath. This subsection shall not apply to returns and declarations with respect to income taxes made by individuals.

[Sec. 6065 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.6065–1 Verification of returns.

If a return, declaration, statement, or other document made under the regulations in this part is required by the regulations contained in this part, or the form and instructions issued with respect to such return, declaration, statement, or other document, to contain or be verified by a written declaration that it is made under the penalties of perjury, such return, declaration, statement, or other document shall be so verified by the person signing it.

§ 45.6071 Statutory provisions; time for filing returns and other documents.

SEC. 6071. Time for filing returns and other documents—(a) General rule. When not otherwise provided for by this title, the Secretary or his delegate shall by regulations prescribe the time for filing any return, statement, or other document required by this title or by regulations.

(b) Special taxes. For payment of special taxes before engaging in certain trades and businesses, see section 4901 and * * *.

[Sec. 6071 as amended and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.6071–1 Time for filing returns or other documents.

(a) Returns or other documents. A return required under §§ 45.6011(a)–3 to 45.6011(a)–5, inclusive, shall be filed on or before the last day of the first calendar month following the period for which it is made. The inventories required by § 45.6011(a)–2 shall be filed with the district director on the first day of July of each year, or at the time of commencing and at the time of concluding business, if before or after the first day of July.

(b) Cross references—(1) Cotton futures—(i) Returns to be made by persons dealing in contracts of sale of cotton for future delivery. See § 45.4872–5 for provisions relating to time for filing returns by persons who act in the capacity of a clearing house, clearing association, or similar institution for the purpose of clearing, settling, or adjusting contracts of sale of any cotton for future delivery.

(2) Silver bullion. (i) For regulations relating to time for filing memorandums of transfer or monthly returns in the case of transfers of interests in silver bullion, see paragraph (d) of § 45.4895–5 and § 45.4895–7, respectively.

(ii) For regulations relating to time for filing returns on Form 11 (Silver) and Form 11A (Silver), see paragraph (b) of § 45.4894–2.

§ 45.6071–2 Special taxes.

(a) Coin-operated gaming devices return on Form 11–B. The first return required to be made on Form 11–B shall be filed, as provided in § 45.4901–1, to cover the period beginning with the first day of the calendar month in which a person engages in the trade or business of maintaining for use or permitting the use of, on any place or premises occupied by him, a coin-operated gaming device and ending with the following June 30. Thereafter, each return required to be made on Form 11–B shall be filed on or before July 1 to cover a 1-year period (beginning July 1 and ending June 30 of the following calendar year) during which the tax liability continues.

(b) Other special taxes. In the case of persons liable for the special taxes imposed by sections 4461(a)(1) (relating to coin-operated amusement devices), 4471 (relating to bowling alleys, billiard and pool tables), 4821 (relating to adulterated butter and process or renovated butter), and 4841 (relating to filled cheese), the first return required to be made on Form 11 or Form 11–B, as the case may be, shall be filed before the last day of the month in which the business commences to cover the period beginning with the first day of such month and ending with the following June 30. Thereafter, each return required to be made on Form 11 or Form 11–B, as the case may be, shall be filed on or before the last day of July to cover a 1-year period (begining July 1 and ending June 30 of the following calendar year) during which the tax liability continues.

§ 45.6071–3 Last day for filing.

For provisions relating to the time for filing a return when the prescribed due date falls on Saturday, Sunday, or a legal holiday, see § 301.7503–1 of this chapter (Regulations on Procedure and Administration).

§ 45.6081(a) Statutory provisions; extension of time for filing returns.

SEC. 6081. Extension of time for filing returns—(a) General rule. The Secretary or his delegate may grant a reasonable extension of time for filing any return, declaration, statement, or other document required by this title or by regulations. Except in the case of taxpayers who are abroad, no such extension shall be for more than 6 months.

[Sec. 6081(a) as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.6091(a)–1 Extension of time for filing returns.

No extension of time will be granted for filing any return or other document required in respect of the taxes to which the regulations in this part have application.

§ 45.6091 Statutory provisions; place for filing returns or other documents.

SEC. 6091. Place for filing returns or other documents—(a) General rule. When not otherwise provided for by this title, the Secretary or his delegate shall by regulations prescribe the place for the filing of any return, declaration, statement, or other document, or copies thereof, required by this title or by regulations.

(b) Tax returns. In the case of returns of tax required under authority of part II of this subchapter—

(1) Individuals. Returns (other than corporation returns) shall be made to the Secretary or his delegate in the internal revenue district in which is located the legal residence or principal place of business of the person making the return, or, if he has no legal residence or principal place of business in any internal revenue district, then at such place as the Secretary or his delegate may by regulations prescribe.

(2) Corporations. Returns of corporations shall be made to the Secretary or his delegate in the internal revenue district in which is located the principal place of business or principal office or agency of the corporation, or, if it has no principal place of business or principal office or agency in any internal revenue district, then at such place as the Secretary or his delegate may by regulations prescribe.

* * * * *

(4) Exceptional cases. Notwithstanding paragraph (1), (2), or (3) of this subsection, the Secretary or his delegate may permit a return to be filed in any internal revenue district, * * *.

[Sec. 6091 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.6091–1 Place for filing returns and other documents other than for silver bullion.

(a) Persons other than corporations. Except as otherwise provided in § 45.6091–2, any return or other document required of a person other than a corporation shall be filed with the district director for the district in which is located the principal place of business or legal residence of such person. If such person has no principal place of business or legal residence in any internal revenue district, the return or document shall be filed with the District Director at Baltimore, Maryland, except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section.

(b) Corporations. Except as otherwise provided in § 45.6091–2, any return or other document required of a corporation shall be filed with the district director for the district in which is located the principal place of business or principal office or agency of the corporation, except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section.

(c) Returns of taxpayers outside the United States. Any return or other document required of a person (other than a corporation) outside the United States having no legal residence or principal place of business in any internal revenue district, or any return or other document required of a corporation having no principal place of business or principal office or agency in any internal revenue district, shall be filed with the Director, International Operations Division, Internal Revenue Service, Washington 25, D.C.

(d) Exceptional cases. The Commissioner may permit the filing of any return or document required to be made under the regulations in this part in any internal revenue district, notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs (1) and (2) of section 6091(b) and paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section.

§ 45.6091–2 Place for filing memorandums or returns relating to silver bullion.

(a) Persons other than corporations. Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, the memorandum of transfer of an interest in silver bullion described in § 45.4895–5, the monthly return provided in § 45.4895–7, and the forms specified in §§ 45.4894–1 to 45.4894–7, inclusive, shall be filed with the district director for the district in which is located the principal place of business or legal residence of the party to the transfer paying the tax on such transfer. If such person has no principal place of business or legal residence in any internal revenue district, the memorandum or monthly return shall be filed with the District Director at Baltimore, Maryland.

(b) Corporations. Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, if the party to the transfer paying the tax thereon is a corporation, the memorandum, the monthly return, and the forms specified in §§ 45.4894–1 to 45.4894–7, inclusive, shall be filed with the district director for the district in which is located the principal place of business or principal office or agency of such corporation.

(c) Memorandums or returns filed by taxpayers outside the United States. If the party to the transfer paying the tax thereon is a person (other than a corporation) outside the United States having no legal residence or principal place of business in any internal revenue district, or is a corporation having no principal place of business or principal office or agency in any internal revenue district, the memorandum, the monthly return, and the forms specified in §§ 45.4894–1 to 45.4894–7, inclusive, shall be filed with the Director, International Operations Division, Internal Revenue Service, Washington 25, D.C.

§ 45.6101 Statutory provisions; period covered by returns or other documents.

SEC. 6101. Period covered by returns or other documents. When not otherwise provided for by this title, the Secretary or his delegate may by regulations prescribe the period for which, or the date as of which, any return, statement, or other document required by this title or by regulations, shall be made.

[Sec. 6101 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.6101–1 Period covered by returns or other documents.

(a) In general. Except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, the period for which returns are required by the regulations in this part is a calendar quarter.

(b) Silver bullion. For the period for which returns are required in the case of transfers of silver bullion, see § 45.4895–7. For alternative provisions, see § 45.4895–5.

(c) Special taxes. For the period for which returns are required in the case of special taxes, see paragraph (b) of § 45.4901–1.

§ 45.6151 Statutory provisions; time and place for paying tax shown on returns.

SEC. 6151. Time and place for paying tax shown on returns—(a) General rule. Except as otherwise provided in this section, when a return of tax is required under this title or regulations, the person required to make such return shall, without assessment or notice and demand from the Secretary or his delegate, pay such tax to the principal internal revenue officer for the internal revenue district in which the return is required to be filed, and shall pay such tax at the time and place fixed for filing the return (determined without regard to any extension of time for filing the return).

(b) Exceptions. * * *

(c) Date fixed for payment of tax. In any case in which a tax is required to be paid on or before a certain date, or within a certain period, any reference in this title to the date fixed for payment of such tax shall be deemed a reference to the last day fixed for such payment (determined without regard to any extension of time for paying the tax).

[Sec. 6151 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.6151–1 Time and place for paying special taxes.

The special taxes required to be reported on Forms 11 and 11–B are due and payable to the district director, without assessment or notice and demand, at the time prescribed in § 45.6071–2 for filing such returns. For regulations relating to place for filing returns, see § 45.6091–1.

§ 45.6161(a)(1) Statutory provisions; extension of time for paying tax.

SEC. 6161. Extension of time for paying tax—(a) Amount determined by taxpayer on return—(1) General rule. The Secretary or his delegate, except as otherwise provided in this title, may extend the time for payment of the amount of the tax shown, or required to be shown, on any return or declaration required under authority of this title (or any installment thereof), for a reasonable period not to exceed 6 months from the date fixed for payment thereof. Such extension may exceed 6 months in the case of a taxpayer who is abroad.

[Sec. 6161(a) as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.6161(a)(1)–1 Extension of time for paying tax shown on return.

No extension of time will be granted for payment of all or any part of the amount of the taxes to which the regulations in this part have application.

§ 45.6804 Statutory provisions; attachment and cancellation.

SEC. 6804. Attachment and cancellation. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this title, the stamps referred to in section 6801 shall be attached, protected, removed, canceled, obliterated, and destroyed, in such manner and by such instruments or other means as the Secretary or his delegate may prescribe by rules or regulations.

[Sec. 6804 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960.]

§ 45.6804–1 Attachment and cancellation.

The stamps required to be used for the payment of the taxes imposed by the statutory provisions included in this part shall be attached, protected, removed, canceled, obliterated, and destroyed as set forth in the regulations in this part.

§ 45.6805 Statutory provisions; redemption of stamps.

SEC. 6805. Redemption of stamps—(a) Authorization. The Secretary or his delegate, subject to regulations prescribed by him, may, upon receipt of satisfactory evidence of the facts, make allowance for or redeem such of the stamps, issued under authority of any internal revenue law, as may have been spoiled, destroyed, or rendered useless or unfit for the purpose intended, or for which the owner may have no use.

(b) Method and conditions of allowance. Such allowance or redemption may be made, either by giving other stamps in lieu of the stamps so allowed for or redeemed, or by refunding the amount or value to the owner thereof, deducting therefrom, in case of repayment, the percentage, if any, allowed to the purchaser thereof; but no allowance or redemption shall be made in any case until the stamps so spoiled or rendered useless shall have been returned to the Secretary or his delegate, or until satisfactory proof has been made showing the reason why the same cannot be returned; or, if so required by the Secretary or his delegate, when the person presenting the same cannot satisfactorily trace the history of said stamps from their issuance to the presentation of his claim as aforesaid.

(c) Time for filing claims. No claim for the redemption of, or allowance for, stamps shall be allowed under this section unless presented within 3 years after the purchase of such stamps from the Government.

(d) Finality of decisions. The findings of fact in and the decision of the Secretary or his delegate upon the merits of any claim presented under or authorized by this section shall, in the absence of fraud or mistake in mathematical calculation, be final and not subject to revision by any accounting officer.

[Sec. 6805 as amended and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.6806 Statutory provisions; posting occupational tax stamps.

SEC. 6806. Posting occupational tax stamps—(a) General rule. Every person engaged in any business, avocation, or employment, who is thereby made liable to a special tax, shall place and keep conspicuously in his establishment or place of business all stamps denoting payment of said special tax.

(b) Coin-operated amusement and gaming devices. The Secretary or his delegate may by regulations require that the stamps denoting the payment of the special tax imposed by section 4461 shall be posted on or in each device in such a manner that it will be visible to any person operating the device.

* * * * *

[Sec. 6806 (a) and (b) as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.6806–1 Special tax stamp to be posted.

(a) In general. The special tax stamp issued to a taxpayer as evidence of the payment of tax imposed under section 4461 (coin-operated amusement and gaming devices), section 4471 (bowling alleys, billiard and pool tables), section 4821 (adulterated, process or renovated butter), and section 4841 (filled cheese), must be kept posted conspicuously on the premises where the business is operated. Failure to comply will subject the taxpayer to the penalties prescribed in § 45.7273(a).

(b) Posting of certificate in lieu of stamp. When a special tax stamp has been lost or destroyed, such fact should be reported at once to the internal revenue officer from whom the stamp was obtained for the purpose of obtaining from him a certificate of payment. Such certificate must be posted in place of the stamp; otherwise the penalty referred to in paragraph (a) of this section for failure to post the stamp will be applicable.

§ 45.7011 Statutory provisions; registration—persons paying a special tax.

SEC. 7011. Registration—persons paying a special tax—(a) Requirement. Every person engaged in any trade or business on which a special tax is imposed by law shall register with the Secretary or his delegate his name or style, place of residence, trade or business, and the place where such trade or business is to be carried on. In case of a firm or company, the names of the several persons constituting the same, and the places of residence, shall be so registered.

(b) Registration in case of death or change of location. Any person exempted under the provisions of section 4905 from the payment of a special tax, shall register with the Secretary or his delegate in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate.

[Sec. 7011 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.7011–1 Registration—persons paying a special tax.

Any person required by sections 4461, 4471, 4821, or 4841 to pay a special tax must register with the district director for the district in which his principal place of business is located. Such registration is effected by filing a return, Form 11–B, in the case of the taxes imposed by sections 4461 and 4471, and Form 11, in the case of the taxes imposed by sections 4821 and 4841. Such returns must be executed, signed and verified as required by the regulations prescribed in §§ 45.6011(a)–6, 45.6061–1, and 45.6065–1. See paragraph (a) of § 45.4901–1 for provisions relating to the special tax imposed by section 4461(a)(2), relating to coin-operated gaming devices.

§ 45.7011–2 Registration in case of change of ownership or location.

(a) Cross reference. See §§ 45.4905–1 to 45.4905–3, inclusive, for provisions regarding registration in case of change of ownership or location.

§ 45.7011–3 Registration; other requirements.

(a) For requirement for registration by manufacturers of playing cards, see § 45.4455–1.

(b) For requirement for registration by manufacturers of white phosphorus matches, see § 45.4804–8.

§ 45.7208 Statutory provisions; offenses relating to stamps.

SEC. 7208. Offenses relating to stamps. Any person who—

(1) Counterfeiting. With intent to defraud, alters, forges, makes, or counterfeits any stamp, coupon, ticket, book, or other device prescribed under authority of this title for the collection or payment of any tax imposed by this title, or sells, lends, or has in his possession any such altered, forged, or counterfeited stamp, coupon, ticket, book, or other device, or makes, uses, sells, or has in his possession any material in imitation of the material used in the manufacture of such stamp, coupon, ticket, book, or other device; or

(2) Mutilation or removal. Fraudulently cuts, tears, or removes from any vellum, parchment, paper, instrument, writing, package, or article, upon which any tax is imposed by this title, any adhesive stamp or the impression of any stamp, die, plate, or other article provided, made, or used in pursuance of this title; or

(3) Use of mutilated, insufficient, or counterfeited stamps. Fraudulently uses, joins, fixes, or places to, with, or upon any vellum, parchment, paper, instrument, writing, package, or article, upon which any tax is imposed by this title,

(A) Any adhesive stamp, or the impression of any stamp, die, plate, or other article, which has been cut, torn, or removed from any other vellum, parchment, paper, instrument, writing, package, or article, upon which any tax is imposed by this title; or

(B) Any adhesive stamp or the impression of any stamp, die, plate, or other article of insufficient value; or

(C) Any forged or counterfeited stamp, or the impression of any forged or counterfeited stamp, die, plate, or other article; or

(4) Reuse of stamps—(A) Preparation for reuse. Willfully removes, or alters the cancellation or defacing marks of, or otherwise prepares, any adhesive stamp, with intent to use, or cause the same to be used, after it has already been used; or

(B) Trafficking. Knowingly or willfully buys, sells, offers for sale, or gives away, any such washed or restored stamp to any person for use, or knowingly uses the same; or

(C) Possession. Knowingly and without lawful excuse (the burden of proof of such excuse being on the accused) has in possession any washed, restored, or altered stamp, which has been removed from any vellum, parchment, paper, instrument, writing, package, or article; or

(5) Emptied stamped packages. Commits the offense described in section 7271 (relating to disposal and receipt of stamped packages) with intent to defraud the revenue, or to defraud any person; shall be guilty of a felony and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than $10,000, or imprisoned not more than 5 years, or both.

[Sec. 7208 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.7209 Statutory provisions; unauthorized use or sale of stamps.

SEC. 7209. Unauthorized use or sale of stamps. Any person who buys, sells, offers for sale, uses, transfers, takes or gives in exchange, or pledges or gives in pledge, except as authorized in this title or in regulations made pursuant thereto, any stamp, coupon, ticket, book, or other device prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate under this title for the collection or payment of any tax imposed by this title, shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than $1,000, or imprisoned not more than 6 months, or both.

[Sec. 7209 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.7233 Statutory provisions; failure to pay, or attempt to evade payment of, tax on cotton futures, and other violations.

SEC. 7233. Failure to pay, or attempt to evade payment of, tax on cotton futures, and other violations. Any person—

(1) Nonpayment or evasion of tax. Liable to the payment of any tax imposed by subchapter D of chapter 39, who fails to pay, or evades, or attempts to evade the payment of such tax; and

(2) Other violations. Who otherwise violates any provision of subchapter D of chapter 39, or any rule or regulation made in pursuance thereof; shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than $100 nor more than $30,000, in the discretion of the court; and, in case of natural persons, may, in addition, be punished by imprisonment for not less than 60 days nor more than 2 years, in the discretion of the court.

[Sec. 7233 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.7234 Statutory provisions; violations of laws relating to oleomargarine or adulterated butter operations.

SEC. 7234. Violation of laws relating to oleomargarine or adulterated butter operations.—(a) False branding, selling, or packing, in violation of law. Every person who knowingly sells or offers for sale, or delivers or offers to deliver, any oleomargarine in any other form than in new wooden, tin-plate, or paper packages, as described in section 4884 (a) and (b), or who packs in any package any oleomargarine in any manner contrary to law, or who falsely brands any package or affixes a stamp on any package denoting a less amount of tax than that required by law shall be fined for each offense not more than $1,000, and be imprisoned not more than 2 years.

(b) Removal or defacement of stamps, marks, or brands. Any person who shall willfully remove or deface the stamps, marks, or brands on a package containing oleomargarine or adulterated butter, taxed as provided by subchapter F of chapter 38, or subchapter C of chapter 39, respectively, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by a fine of not less than $100 nor more than $2,000, and by imprisonment for not less than 30 days nor more than 6 months.

(c) Failure of wholesale dealers to keep or permit inspection of books, or to render returns. Any person who willfully violates any of the provisions of section 4597(a) shall for each such offense be fined not less than $50 and not exceeding $500, and imprisoned not less than 30 days nor more than 6 months.

(d) Imported oleomargarine or adulterated butter.—(1) Failure of customs officer to comply with law. Every officer or employee of the Treasury Department having duties under section 4591 who permits any imported oleomargarine or adulterated butter to pass out of his custody or control without compliance by the owner or importer thereof with the provisions of section 4591 relating thereto, shall be fined not less than $1,000 nor more than $5,000, and imprisoned not less than 6 months nor more than 5 years.

(2) Supply packages.—(A) Failure to destroy stamps. Any person who willfully neglects or refuses to destroy utterly the stamps on any empty package which contained oleomargarine or adulterated butter, or filled cheese shall for each such offense be fined not exceeding $50, and imprisoned not less than 10 days nor more than 6 months; and

(B) Trafficking. Any person who fraudulently gives away or accepts from another, or who sells, buys, or uses for packing oleomargarine or adulterated butter, any such stamped package shall for each such offense be fined not exceeding $100, and be imprisoned not more than 1 year.

(3) Sale when improperly packed or stamped. Every person who sells or offers for sale any imported oleomargarine or adulterated butter, or oleomargarine or adulterated butter purporting or claimed to have been imported, not put up in packages and stamped as provided by subchapter F of chapter 38 or subchapter C of chapter 39, shall be fined not less than $500 nor more than $5,000, and be imprisoned not less than 6 months nor more than 2 years.

(4) Fraud by importer. Whenever any person importing oleomargarine defrauds, or attempts to defraud, the United States of the tax on the oleomargarine imported by him, or any part thereof, he shall be fined not less than $500 nor more than $5,000, and shall be imprisoned not less than 6 months nor more than 3 years.

[Sec. 7234 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.7234–1 Violations of laws relating to oleomargarine or adulterated butter operations.

Except for imported oleomargarine, section 7234 has no application in respect of any transactions involving oleomargarine which occurs on or after the effective date of the regulations in this part.

§ 45.7235 Statutory provisions; violation of laws relating to adulterated butter and process or renovated butter.

SEC. 7235. Violation of laws relating to adulterated butter and process or renovated butter.—(a) Adulterated butter—False branding, sale, packing, or stamping in violation of law. Every person who knowingly sells or offers for sale, or delivers or offers to deliver, any adulterated butter in any other form than in new wooden, tin-plate, or paper packages as described in section 4815(a), or who packs in any package any adulterated butter in any manner contrary to law, or who falsely brands any package or affixes a stamp on any package denoting a less amount of tax than that required by law, shall be fined for each offense not more than $1,000, and be imprisoned not more than 2 years.

(b) Failure of wholesale dealers to keep or permit inspection of books, or to render returns. Any person who willfully violates any of the provisions of section 4815(b) shall for each such offense be fined not less than $50 and not exceeding $500, and imprisoned not less than 30 days nor more than 6 months.

(c) Failure to comply with provisions relating to the manufacture, storage, and marking of process or renovated butter. Any person, firm, or corporation violating any of the provisions of section 4817 shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $1,000, or by imprisonment for not more than 6 months, or by both such fine and imprisonment, in the discretion of the court.

(d) Dealers in adulterated butter. Every person who carries on the business of a dealer in adulterated butter without having paid the special tax therefor, as required by law, shall, besides being liable to the payment of the tax, be fined not less than $50 nor more than $500 for each offense.

(e) Fraud by manufacturer. Whenever any person manufacturing adulterated butter defrauds, or attempts to defraud, the United States of the tax on the adulterated butter manufactured by him, or any part thereof, he shall be fined not less than $500 nor more than $5,000, and shall be imprisoned not less than 6 months nor more than 3 years.

§ 45.7271 Statutory provisions; penalties for offenses relating to stamps.

SEC. 7271. Penalties for offenses relating to stamps. Any person who with respect to any tax payable by stamps—

(1) Failure to attach or cancel stamps, etc. Fails to comply with rules or regulations prescribed pursuant to section 6804 (relating to attachment, cancellation, etc., of stamps), unless such failure is shown to be due to reasonable cause and not willful neglect; or

(2) Manufacture or offer for sale. Manufactures or imports and sells, or offers for sale, or causes to be manufactured or imported and sold, or offered for sale, any playing cards, package, or other article without the full amount of tax being duly paid; or

(3) Instruments. Makes, signs, issues, or accepts, or causes to be made, signed, issued, or accepted, any instrument, document, or paper of any kind or description whatsoever without the full amount of tax thereon being duly paid; or

(4) Disposal and receipt of stamped packages. In the case of any container which is stamped, branded, or marked (whether or not under authority of law) in such manner as to show that the provisions of the internal revenue laws with respect to the contents or intended contents thereof have been complied with, and which is empty or contains any contents other than contents therein when the container was lawfully stamped, branded, or marked—

(A) Transfers or receives (whether by sale, gift, or otherwise) such container knowing it to be empty or to contain such other contents; or

(B) Stamps, brands, or marks such container, or otherwise produces such a stamped, branded, or marked container, knowing it to be empty or to contain such other contents; shall be liable for each such offense to a penalty of $50.

[Sec. 7271 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.7272 Statutory provisions; penalty for failure to register.

SEC. 7272. Penalty for failure to register.—(a) In general. Any person (other than persons required to register under subtitle E, or persons engaging in a trade or business on which a special tax is imposed by such subtitle) who fails to register with the Secretary or his delegate as required by this title or by regulations issued thereunder shall be liable to a penalty of $50.

(b) Cross references. For provisions relating to persons required by this title to register, see sections * * * 4455, * * * 4804(d), and 7011.

[Sec. 7272 as amended and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.7273(a) Statutory provisions; penalties for offenses relating to special taxes; general rule.

SEC. 7273. Penalties for offenses relating to special taxes.—(a) General rule. Any person who shall fail to place and keep stamps denoting the payment of the special tax as provided in section 6806 (a) or (b) (whichever is applicable) shall be liable to a penalty equal to the special tax for which his business rendered him liable (unless such failure is shown to be due to reasonable cause); but in no case shall said penalty be less than $10. Where the failure to comply with the provisions of section 6805 (a) or (b) shall be through willful neglect or refusal, then the penalty shall be double the amount above prescribed. Nothing in this subsection shall in any way affect the liability of any person for exercising or carrying on any trade, business, or profession, or doing any act for the exercising, carrying on, or doing of which a special tax is imposed by law, without the payment thereof.

[Sec. 7273(a) as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

[Sec. 7274 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.7303 Statutory provisions; other property subject to forfeiture.

Sec. 7303. Other property subject to forfeiture. There may be seized and forfeited to the United States the following:

(1) Counterfeit stamps. Every stamp involved in the offense described in section 7302 (relating to counterfeit, reused, canceled, etc., stamps), and the vellum, parchment, document paper, package, or article upon which such stamp was placed or impressed in connection with such offense.

[(2) Repealed.]

(3) Offenses by manufacturer or importer of or wholesale dealer in oleomargarine or adulterated butter. All oleomargarine or adulterated butter owned by any manufacturer or importer of or wholesale dealer in oleomargarine or adulterated butter, or in which he has any interest as owner, if he shall knowingly or willfully omit, neglect, or refuse to do, or cause to be done, any of the things required by law in the carrying on or conducting of his business, or if he shall do anything prohibited by subchapter F of chapter 38, or subchapter C of chapter 39.

(4) Purchase or receipt of filled cheese or adulterated butter. All articles of filled cheese or adulterated butter (or the full value thereof) knowingly purchased or received by any person from any manufacturer or importer who has not paid the special tax provided in section 4801 or 4841.

(5) Packages of oleomargarine or filled cheese. All packages of oleomargarine or filled cheese subject to the tax under subchapter F of chapter 38, or part II of subchapter C of chapter 39, whichever is applicable, that shall be found without the stamps or marks provided for in the applicable subchapter or part thereof.

(6) Waste phosphorus matches. (A) All packages of white phosphorus matches subject to tax under subchapter B of chapter 39 and found without the stamps required by subchapter B of chapter 39.

(B) All the white phosphorus matches owned by any manufacturer of white phosphorus matches, or any importer or exporter of matches, or in which he has any interest as owner if he shall omit, neglect, or refuse to do or cause to be done any of the things required by law in carrying on or conducting his business, or shall do anything prohibited by subchapter B of chapter 39, if there be no specific penalty or punishment imposed by any other provision of subchapter B of chapter 39 for the neglecting, omitting, or refusing to do, or for the doing or causing to be done, the thing required or prohibited.

(7) False stamping of packages. Any container involved in the offense described in section 7272 (relating to disposal of stamped packages), and of the contents of such container.

(8) Fraudulent bonds, permits, and entries. All property to which any false or fraudulent instrument involved in the offense described in section 7207 relates.

[Sec. 7303 as amended and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.7326(a) Statutory provisions; disposals of forfeited or abandoned property in special cases.

Sec. 7326. Disposal of forfeited or abandoned property in special cases—(a) Coin-operated gaming devices. Any coin-operated gaming device as defined in section 4462(a)(2) upon which a tax is imposed by section 4461 and which has been forfeited under any provision of this title shall be destroyed, or otherwise disposed of, in such manner as may be prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate.

[Sec. 7326(a) as amended and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.7328 Statutory provisions; confiscation of matches exported.

Sec. 7328. Confiscation of matches exported. Any white phosphorus matches exported or attempted to be exported shall be confiscated to the United States and destroyed in such manner as may be prescribed by the Secretary or his delegate.

[Sec. 7328 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.7492 Statutory provisions; enforceability of cotton futures contracts.

Sec. 7492. Enforceability of cotton futures contracts. No contract of sale of cotton for future delivery mentioned in section 4851(a), which does not conform to the requirements of section 4856 and has not the necessary stamps affixed thereto as required by section 4871, shall be enforceable in any court of the United States by, or on behalf of, any party to such contract or his privies.

[Sec. 7492 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.7493 Statutory provisions; immunity of witnesses in cases relating to cotton futures.

Sec. 7493. Immunity of witnesses in cases relating to cotton futures. No person whose evidence is deemed material by the officer prosecuting on behalf of the United States in any case brought under any provision of subchapter D of chapter 39 (relating to cotton futures) shall withhold his testimony because of complicity by him in any violation of subchapter D of chapter 39, or of any regulation made pursuant to such chapter, but any such person called by such officer who testifies in such case shall be exempt from prosecution for any offense to which his testimony relates.

[Sec. 7493 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.7510 Statutory provisions; exemption from tax of domestic goods purchased for the United States.

Sec. 7510. Exemption from tax of domestic goods purchased for the United States. The privilege existing by provision of law on December 1, 1878, or thereafter of purchasing supplies of goods imported from foreign countries for the use of the United States, duty free, shall be extended, under such regulations as the Secretary or his delegate may prescribe, to all articles of domestic production which are subject to tax by the provisions of this title.

[Sec. 7510 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.7510–1 Withdrawal of filled cheese and playing cards from factories, free of tax, for use of the United States.

Section 7510 provides for the withdrawal of filled cheese and playing cards from factories, free of tax, for the use of the United States. Withdrawals for the purpose of sale by Federal agencies are not for the use of the United States within the meaning of the statute. Institutions owned or controlled by the governments of the several States or the District of Columbia are not entitled to make withdrawals under section 7510.

§ 45.7510–2 Evidence required to establish exemption.

(a) Exemption certificates. To establish the right to remove filled cheese or playing cards tax free under section 7510, the manufacturer must obtain from an authorized officer of an agency of the United States, and retain in his possession a properly executed exemption certificate in the form prescribed in paragraph (c) of this section.

(b) Frequency of certificates. Where only occasional tax free removals from the place of manufacture for use of the United States are made, a separate exemption certificate should be furnished for each order. However, where removals are regular or frequently made, a certificate covering all orders for a specific period not to exceed 4 calendar quarters will be acceptable. Such certificates and proper records of invoices, orders, etc., relative to tax-free removals must be retained by the manufacturer and shall at all times be readily accessible for inspection by internal revenue officers and retained as provided in paragraph (d) of § 45.6001–1. If the records with respect to any removal claimed to be tax free do not include a proper certificate, with supporting invoices and such other evidence as may be necessary to establish the exempt character of the removal, the tax is payable on such removal.

(c) Form of certificate. The following form of exemption certificate will be acceptable for purposes of this section and must be adhered to in substance:

EXEMPTION CERTIFICATE

(To support tax-free removals of filled cheese or playing cards for the use of the United States under provisions of section 7510 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954.)

----------, 19--
(Date)

The undersigned hereby certifies that he is ---------- of (Title of officer)
----------; that he is (Agency of the United States.)
authorized to execute this certificate; and that the article or articles specified in the accompanying order or on the reverse side hereof are purchased from ---------- (Name of vendor) for the exclusive use of ---------- of (Government unit)
the United States.

It is understood that the exemption from tax in the case of removals of articles under this exemption certificate for the United States is limited to the removal of articles for its exclusive use. The undersigned understands that if articles purchased tax free under this exemption certificate are used otherwise or are sold to employees or others, such fact will be promptly reported to the manufacturer, producer, or importer of the article or articles covered by this certificate. It is also understood that the fradulent use of this certificate for the purpose of securing this exemption will subject the undersigned and all guilty parties to a fine of not more than $10,000, or to imprisonment for not more than 5 years, or both, together with costs of prosecution.

(Address)

§ 45.7510–3 Branding.

(a) Each individual pack of playing cards shall be labeled or branded, "For use of U.S. Government". The letters of such printing shall be conspicuous, in boldfaced type of not less than one-quarter of an inch in height.

(b) Each statutory package of filled cheese, as required by § 45.4833–1, shall, in addition to the markings otherwise required, have legibly and durably marked, stamped, or branded thereon the statement, "For use of U.S. Government", the letters therein to correspond in size and style with the markings required by paragraph (b) of § 45.4833–1.

§ 45.7641 Statutory provisions; supervision of operations of certain manufacturers.

Sec. 7641. Supervision of operations of certain manufacturers. Every manufacturer of filled cheese, oleomargarine, * * * process or renovated butter or adulterated butter, or white phosphorus matches shall conduct his business under such surveillance of officers or employees of the Treasury Department as the Secretary or his delegate may by regulations require.

[Sec. 7641 as originally enacted and in effect July 1, 1960]

§ 45.7641–1 Inapplicability.

Section 7641 has no application in respect of any transaction involving oleomargarine which occurs on or after the effective date of the regulations in this part.

IRISH POTATOES GROWN IN THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

Notice of Proposed Expenses and Rate of Assessment

Notice is hereby given that the Secretary of Agriculture is considering the approval of the expenses and rate of assessment hereinafter set forth, which were recommended by the State of Washington Potato Committee, established pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 113 and Order No. 92 (7 CFR Part 992), regulating the handling of Irish potatoes grown in the State of Washington, issued under the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U.S.C. 601–674).

Consideration will be given to any data, views, or arguments pertaining thereto, which are filed with the Director, Fruit and Vegetable Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D.C., not later than 15 days following publication of this notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

The proposals are as follows:

§ 992.212 Expenses and rate of assessment.

(a) The reasonable expenses that are likely to be incurred by the State of Washington Potato Committee, established pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 113 and Order No. 92, to enable such committee to perform its functions pursuant to the provisions of the marketing agreement and order, during the fiscal year ending May 31, 1961, will amount to $24,112.60.

(b) The rate of assessment to be paid by each handler, pursuant to Marketing Agreement No. 113 and Order No. 92, shall be three-eighths of one cent ($0.00375) per hundredweight of potatoes handled by him, as the first handler thereof, during the fiscal year.

(c) The terms used in this section shall have the same meaning as when used in said marketing agreement and order.

[20 CFR Parts 602, 604]

UNITED STATES EMPLOYMENT SERVICE

Referral of Agricultural Workers in Labor Dispute Situations

Agricultural employers have requested more time to prepare their case for the proposal to amend 20 CFR 602.2(b) and 604.1(i) published in the FEDERAL REGISTER July 8, 1960 (25 F.R. 6442). As the representatives of their employees are content with the regulations without amendment, this request will be granted. The change of time will require, however, a changed place and a different Hearing Examiner. Accordingly, the proposal of July 8, 1960, is hereby revoked, and the present notice is substituted in its place.

A series of labor disputes in agriculture is now in progress in California. Regulations governing the cooperation of the United States Employment Service and States in establishing and maintaining a national system of public employment offices (20 CFR Part 602) provide:

§ 602.2 Placement services. * * *

* * * * *

(b) No person shall be referred to a position the filling of which will aid directly or indirectly in filling a job which (1) is vacant because the former occupant is on strike or is being locked out in the course of a labor dispute, or (2) the filling of which is an issue in a labor dispute. With respect to positions not covered by subparagraph (1) or (2) of this paragraph, any individual may be referred to a place of employment in which a labor dispute exists, provided he is given written notice of such dispute prior to or at the time of his referral.

Identical provision is made in expressing the policies of the United States Employment Service (20 CFR 604.1(i)).

Agricultural employers actually or potentially involved in these disputes have complained that the prohibition against referrals in these regulations operates unfairly to their disadvantage, because of the perishable nature of their product and the lack of a permanent labor force on any single farm sufficient to harvest its crop. They request that the prohibition be revoked or curtailed insofar as it applies to agriculture. Representatives of the agricultural employees involved have responded, however, that any such revocation or curtailment would involve use of the employment service to recruit strike breakers. Sharply conflicting factual descriptions of the precise way these regulations operate in such disputes have been presented by the contending groups. I have concluded that each of them and any other person who has an interest should be given an opportunity to hear, examine, and respond to the presentation of the others in proceedings so expedited that any relief demonstrated to be necessary can be granted in season to be effective.

Accordingly, under the authority of section 12, 48 Stat. 117, as amended; 29 U.S.C. 49k, and in accordance with section 4(b) of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U.S.C. 1003(b)), notice is hereby given that any interested person may appear before Hearing Examiner E. West Parkinson at 10:00 a.m., e.d.t., August 8, 1960, in the North Room, Washington Hotel, Fifteenth Street and Pennsylvania Avenue, Northwest, Washington, D.C., to present orally data, views, and argument on the question whether the prohibition against referrals in labor dispute situations expressed in 20 CFR 602.2(b) and 604.1(i) should be revoked or curtailed insofar as it applies to agricultural employment.

Every interested person shall have the right to present his data by oral or documentary evidence, to submit such rebuttal evidence and to conduct such cross examination as may be required for a full and true disclosure of the facts. Any interested person who cannot appear in person may submit such data, views, and argument in writing (4 copies) to the Chief Hearing Examiner, United States Department of Labor, 14th Street and Constitution Avenue NW., Washington, D.C., not later than August 3, 1960, where they will be kept available for examination during usual business hours by any other interested person. Oral presentations shall be reported and transcripts will be made available upon request to any interested person on such terms as the Hearing Examiner may provide.

The Hearing Examiner shall have the authority and the duty to administer oaths and affirmations, rule upon offers of proof and receive relevant evidence, regulate the course of the hearing, and dispose of procedural requests or similar matters. Opportunity shall be granted any interested person at the close of the hearing to comment orally on the record as a whole, but provision will not be made to keep the record open for subsequent comment. As soon as the transcription of oral evidence and argument is made, it, together with such written exhibits as may be received in evidence and written submissions filed as hereinabove provided, shall be certified to the Secretary of Labor for final decision without any proposed or tentative findings, conclusions, or recommendations. The Secretary will give careful consideration to all relevant matter thus presented, together with such other information as may be available to him and will make such amendment to 20 CFR 602.2(b) and 604.1(i) as he may determine to be appropriate.

Signed at Washington, D.C., this 15th day of July 1960.

JAMES T. O'CONNELL,
Acting Secretary of Labor.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION

[47 CFR Part 3]

[Docket No. 13608; FCC 60–815]

TABLE OF ASSIGNMENTS, TELEVISION BROADCAST STATIONS

Bakersfield, Delano, Lompoc-Santa Maria, San Luis Obispo, Santa Barbara, and Santa Maria, California

1. This proceeding was initiated by a Notice of Proposed Rule Making adopted June 23, 1960, in which interested parties were invited to comment on a series of proposals affecting the deintermixture of Bakersfield by certain alternative dispositions of Channel 10, now assigned there, and by certain alternative proposals for the assignment of new UHF channels to Bakersfield. Among the alternative uses under consideration for Channel 10— are its assignment to:

(1) Santa Barbara.
(2) Santa Maria.
(3) Lompoc-Santa Maria (on a hyphenated basis).
(4) San Luis Obispo.

2. In a Report and Order adopted today (in Docket 11759), the Commission ordered the deletion of Channel 12+ from Fresno in the course of proceedings directed to the deintermixture of that television market. Since this action makes Channel 12+ available for possible assignment to Santa Barbara, Santa Maria, Lompoc-Santa Maria or San Luis Obispo—the same cities where the reassignment of Channel 10— is under consideration herein—we deem it desirable to consider the alternative uses of Channels 10— and 12+ in a consolidated proceeding (subject, of course, to any necessary clearances with the Government of Mexico) and to this end, we invite interested parties, herein, to file comments and reply comments on the foregoing possibilities for use of Channel 12+. We believe that proceeding in this manner will be most conducive to orderly consideration and decision of the best uses for these two channels.

3. A number of comments and reply comments filed in Docket 11759 in response to our further notice of proposed rule making, adopted in that proceeding on March 24, 1960, were directed to the Commission's alternative proposal (set out in the aforementioned further notice) that Channel 12+ be reassigned from Fresno to Santa Barbara. Other comments filed in response to that further notice were directed to the possible use of Channel 12+ at Santa Maria or Lompoc-Santa Maria. Having decided to defer our decision concerning which reassignment of Channel 12+ would best serve the public interest until we have the benefit of comments on proposals for reassignment of Channel 10—, now assigned to Bakersfield, and to consolidate herein the matter of the reassignment of Channel 12+, we deem it appropriate to deal in the instant proceeding with the above-referenced comments filed in Docket 11759. Parties to this proceeding are hereby placed on notice of our intention in this regard, so that in filing comments herein they may have appropriate opportunity to give attention to the above-mentioned pleadings which will be disposed of in this proceeding.

4. In the circumstances, it is appropriate to extend the dates for filing comments and reply comments in the instant proceeding. Accordingly, the last dates for filing comments and reply comments are extended to August 8, 1960, and August 22, 1960, respectively.

5. Comments and reply comments are to be filed pursuant to applicable procedures set out in § 1.213 of the rules. All submissions by parties to this proceeding or by persons acting on behalf of such parties must be made in written comments, reply comments or other appropriate pleadings.

6. Authority for the instant actions is contained in sections 4 (i) and (j), 303 and 307(b) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended.

7. In accordance with the provisions of § 1.54 of the Commission's rules an original and 14 copies of all statements, briefs, responses, or comments shall be filed with the Commission.

Adopted: July 7, 1960.

Released: July 13, 1960.

Acting Secretary.

MASSACHUSETTS, NEW JERSEY, OREGON, WASHINGTON, AND WISCONSIN

Designation of Areas for Production Emergency Loans

For the purpose of making production emergency loans pursuant to section 2 (a) of Public Law 38, 81st Congress (12 U.S.C. 1148a-2(a)), as amended, it has been determined that in the States of Massachusetts, New Jersey, Oregon, Washington, and Wisconsin a 1959 production disaster has resulted in a continuing need for agricultural credit to cranberry growers not readily available from commercial banks, cooperative lending agencies, or other responsible sources.

Pursuant to the authority set forth above, production emergency loans will not be made in the above-named States after December 31, 1960, except to applicants who previously received such assistance and who can qualify under established policies and procedures.

UNAPPROVED SECTION 15 AGREEMENTS; SOUTH AFRICAN TRADE

Notice of Supplemental Order

On June 27, 1960, the Federal Maritime Board entered the following supplemental order to its original order herein, dated January 7, 1960, appearing in the FEDERAL REGISTER of January 21, 1960 (25 F.R. 521), as amended by its order of January 15, 1960, appearing in the FEDERAL REGISTER of February 2, 1960 (25 F.R. 881):

Whereas the Board entered an Amended Order herein on January 15, 1960, naming certain respondents and posing for investigation, among other things, the issue of whether the said respondents entered into and carried out prior to Board approval under section 15, Shipping Act, 1916, agreements requiring such approval in violation of said section 15; and

Whereas subsequent to the entry of the above order, information has come before the Board indicating that the respondents herein may have entered into and carried out agreements fixing or regulating transportation rates or fares, controlling, regulating, preventing, or destroying competition; and providing for cooperative working arrangements with Baron Iino Line who was not named as a respondent in the above order;

Now therefore it is ordered, That the scope of this investigation is hereby enlarged to include the determination of the following issues:

1. Whether any or all of the respondents named in the Amended Order of January 15, 1960, herein and Baron Iino Line entered into and carried out prior to Board approval some time in 1958 and 1959 and continuing through the present time agreements fixing or controlling the freight rates for the movement of Liner Board, Kraft paper, Kraft wrapping paper and/or wrapping paper between ports in the United States and ports in South and East Africa in violation of section 15, Shipping Act, 1916.

2. Whether any or all of the respondents named in the said Amended Order and Baron Iino Line entered into and carrier out prior to Board approval during the year 1959 and continuing through the present time agreements fixing or controlling the freight rates for the movement of Bulk Tallow between ports in the United States and ports in South and East Africa in violation of said section 15.

3. Whether any or all of the respondents named in the said Amended Order and Baron Iino Line entered into and carried out prior to Board approval during the year 1959 and continuing through the present time agreements fixing or controlling the freight rates for the movement of wool between ports in the United States and ports in South and East Africa in violation of said section 15.

It is further ordered, That said Baron Iino Line be, and it is hereby, made a respondent in this proceeding.

It is further ordered, That a copy of this order be served on each of the respondents and published in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Dated: July 13, 1960.

By order of the Federal Maritime Board.

STATEMENT OF ORGANIZATION, DELEGATIONS OF AUTHORITY AND OTHER INFORMATION

In the matter of amendment of the Commission's Statement of Organization, Delegations of Authority, and Other Information for the purpose of making editorial changes therein.

The Commission having under consideration sections 0.404, 0.406, and 0.407 of its Statement of Organization, Delegations of Authority, and Other Information; and

It appearing that these sections should be amended to more accurately describe the FCC Service Frequency Lists, the procedure for obtaining copies of those Lists, and the availability of the Commission's frequency records; and

It further appearing that the amendments herein adopted pertain to Commission management, and that such amendments are editorial in nature, and hence that compliance with the public notice, procedural, and effective date requirements of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act is unnecessary; and

It further appearing that the amendments adopted herein are issued pursuant to authority contained in sections 4(i) and 303(r) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, and section 0.341(a) of the Commission's Statement of Delegations and pursuant to the requirements of section 3 of the Administrative Procedure Act;

It is ordered, This 13th day of July 1960, That, effective July 25, 1960, the Commission's Statement of Organization, Delegations of Authority, and Other Information is amended as set forth below.

Released: July 13, 1960.

FEDERAL COMMUNICATIONS COMMISSION,
[SEAL] BEN F. WAPLE,
Acting Secretary.

1. Section 0.404 is amended by adding a new paragraph (f) to read as follows:

SEC. 0.404 Public reference rooms.

* * * * * *

(f) The Frequency Registration and Notification Branch of the Frequency Allocations and Treaty Division, Office of Chief Engineer. Here the public may inspect the Frequency Records of the Commission.

2. Section 0.406(g) is amended to read as follows:

SEC. 0.406 Inspection of records.

* * * * * *

(g) Lists of frequency assignments to radio stations authorized by the Commission are recapitulated periodically by means of a machine record system. All stations licensed by the Commission are included, except the following: Aircraft, Amateur, Citizens (except Class A), Civil Air Patrol, and Disaster. The resulting Documents, the F.C.C. Service Frequency Lists, consist of several volumes arranged by Class of Service, in frequency order, including station locations, call signs and other technical particulars of each assignment. These Documents are available for public examination at each of the Commission's Field Engineering and Monitoring Bureau Field Offices, and in Washington, D.C., at the Commission's Broadcast and Docket Reference Room, and in the Offices of the Frequency Registration and Notification Branch. They may be purchased from the Electronic Industries Association, 1721 De Sales Street NW., Washington 6, D.C.

3. Section 0.407 is amended to read as follows:
